Farmers Income Tax Bulletins Available

Uncle Sam's income tax laws will hit many farmers for the first time this year.

To aid farm people in filing a return on their 1942 farm income the extension service of State college has just issue war series extension bulletin No. 16 "The Farmer's Income Tax." Copies may be obtained without charge upon application to the Agricultural Editor, State College, Raleigh, or from the Home Demonstration Agent's office, or the County Agent's office.

The 16 page publication was prepared by R. E. L. Green, associate agricultural economist of the experiment station, and H. B. James, farm management specialist of the extension service.

The information in the bulletin presented in question-and-answers style, deals with the usual situations that will be found in making an income tax return.

Designed to clear up questions in the farmer's mind as to who must file a return, when the return must be filed, deductions, exemptions and others.

While most of the bulletin deals with filing a federal return portion is allotted to information on state income tax return.

AVIATION CADET

Harley Graves, Jr., of Mocksville left last Sunday for Miami Beach, Fla., where he enters the air force as an aviation cadet. A number of other boys from this section who had previously enlisted were called up at the same time.

HERE & THERE

BROTHER DIES

James F. Latham, 72, passed away at his home Sunday in Albany, Ga. Funeral services were held Monday. Mr. Latham was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James M. Latham of Davie county. He left here about 28 years ago for his home in Georgia. Survivors include his widow, one daughter, two sons and four brothers, John M. and T. F. of Mocksville, Route 2, W. C. of Cana and Sam R. of Mocksville.

MOCKSVILLE P. T. A.

The Mocksville P. T. A. will be held Monday, Feb. 15, at 3 o'clock at the high school auditorium. Mrs. Bankston's seventh grade will present a play, "Too Much Borrowing." At the close of the meeting an informal tea will be held. All parents are asked to note the change in the hour and come on time.

CHAIRMAN

Miss Florence Mackie, co-chairman of the woman's division for the sale of war bonds and stamps, has announced that Mrs. Cillard LeGrand and Miss Ruth Booe will serve as chairmen for Mocksville.

STUDY COURSE

The Presbyterian auxiliary held its study course for foreign missions Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings this week at the church hut. Mrs. R. B. Sanford is foreign mission secretary for the auxiliary.

THIRD LOWEST

According to State School Facts, Davie county ranks third from the lowest in the state in cost of transportation and other auxiliary agencies per pupil in average daily attendance in 1940-41, latest figures available. Davie paid $3.44 per pupil in comparison with her neighboring counties: Rowan, $5.10; Iredell, $7.47; Davidson, $7.77; Yadkin, $5.41 and Forsyth, $2.79.

PRICE CLERK

Mrs. Harley Sofley of Mocksville has been appointed price clerk in the local office of the Davie rationing board. It is announced by Paul Blackwelder, chairman.

TURN IN BOOKS

There is a large number of sugar books that belong to selectees who have entered service and have not been turned in to the local rationing board. It is stated. Russia Wins Battle Of Stalingrad; Huge Pacific Fight Looms

Newspapers In Wartime

Newspapers of this size can have but little, if any, profit motive in wartime such as these. They operate largely to do their part to help win the war.

Their wartime aid is in two ways: 1. Help promote governmental programs in the community. 2. Keep people informed of war developments, particularly those which affect their daily lives.

An example of community promotion of a governmental program is seen in the page ad on War Bonds in this week's paper. It is necessary that people be reminded over and over to buy bonds and stamps because it is a continuous job to do two things: help finance the war and help control inflation. It is impossible to overstate this phase of the war because on its success rests our whole economic system.

Significantly, Davie county folk know the importance of protecting our future by buying bonds and stamps. THE BOND QUOTA FOR THIS COUNTY HAS BEEN MET OR SURPASSED EACH MONTH SINCE THE CAMPAIGN BEGAN. All praise to those individuals and institutions that have rolled up their sleeves and worked to sell bonds without any thought of pay or personal time taken, particularly to Knox Johnstone, county chairman, and S. M. Call of the Bank of Davie; members and officials of the union in Cooleemee; various postmasters in the county; faculties and officials of the various schools; members of the American Legion and the throng of individual buyers.

Praise, too, to those patriotic local merchants whose names you see in this week's page ad on bonds. They are selling something more important than an ordinary commodity: maintenance of a self-respecting future where every man can live as he chooses and not be told what he can and cannot do. In other words, they are fighting on the home front to help win the war.

Bonds or stamps may be bought at your nearest post-office, bank or the Mocksville Building and Loan office. Retail stores or the Princess theatre has stamps or will take your order for bonds. You can buy bonds and stamps by mail or your rural mail carrier will take care of your orders.

RICH WILL LEAVES PROPERTY TO CHARITY AND RELATIVES

After making several charitable bequests, Thomas W. Rich, who died last week in Florida, left the residue of his estate to relatives, according to the will which was filed for probate this week in the office of S. H. Chaffin, clerk of Davie superior court, by the executor, Wachovia Bank and Trust company.

Mr. Rich bequeathed $500 each to the three white and three colored churches of Mocksville: Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian. In a codicil to the will dated October 16, 1940, he gave Rich's Park of 45 acres to the town of Mocksville, as well as $500 to the Salvation Army in Winston-Salem and six and three-quarter acres of land adjoining the park to Richard Brenegar.

The Rich home on North Main street here was bequeathed to a nephew, Richard Brenegar, as well as the furniture, household goods, two diamond necktie pins and automobile.

Two step-daughters, May Kelly and Anna Haines, were bequeathed $1,000 each, and $500 went to Henon T. Brenegar. Death prior to Mr. Rich reverted the money to the estate. A diamond ring was given to a sister, Louie Williamson, now deceased, which in turn went to a nephew, Edwin Herndon Williamson.

The residue of the estate was divided as follows:

Three-sevenths to a sister, Mrs. Bessie Brenegar.

One-seventh to nephews, Edwin and Richard Brenegar.

One-thirty-fifth to a niece, Audrey Brenegar.

One-seventh to a sister, Louie Williamson, and at her death to be divided between a nephew and niece, Edwin Williamson and Chineta Williamson Rice.

One-thirty-fifth each to Edwin Williamson, Mrs. Rice and another nephew, Cephas Christian, Jr.

The original will was dated October 10, 1928.

EXPRESS THANKS

Members of the N. F. A. express their thanks to J. C. Sanford and J. K. Sheek for their recent gift of $25 worth of tools to the vocational agricultural shop. It is stated by J. M. Murfree, teacher.

AIRPLANE MECHANIC

Pvt. Edgar Chaffin of Mocksville has graduated at the school for airplane mechanics at Gulfport Field, Miss.

Russia announces that the battle of Stalingrad is over. The siege began last August 26 and in the late fall Hitler said he would take the city. Now his "intuition" has turned into his bitterest cup of woe because Russia says she has done the following: exterminated a German army of 330,000 men; captured 24 German generals, including a field marshal, and more than 2,500 officers; seized a mountain of equipment.

Since January 10 the Russians have gotten the following booty from the entrapped Nazis: 750 planes, 1,500 tanks, 6,700 guns, 1,462 trench mortars, 8,135 machine guns, 90,000 rifles, 61,102 trucks, 7,369 motorcycles 408 tractors, haulage tractors and catpillar trucks, 320 radio stations, three armored trains, 56 locomotives, 1,125 freight cars, 235 stores of ammunition.

NEW BATTLE IN SOLOMONS

The U. S. navy announces what may be the biggest sea-air battle yet is now raging in the Solomons where the Japs are trying for the seventh time to retake this area. The navy says both sides have suffered losses but that to reveal the details now would "endanger the success of future operations in this area."

CHANGES IN THE DRAFT

The war manpower commission announces some changes in draft deferment, effective April, which will force more men in non-essential jobs into war work or the armed forces. Men in 29 non-essential occupations, ranging from bartenders to gardeners and waiters, even though they have five or six children, must find war-important jobs by spring or face induction. Men 18 to 38, physically fit, in 36 kinds of businesses, ranging from curtain makers to tobacco vendors, face the same situation as those above.

Chairman McNutt of the commission said this was only the beginning; that by the end of the year 10 out of every 14 able-bodied men between 18 and 38 would be in the armed forces.

Selective service boards were instructed to begin reconsidering the status of the newly designated "nondeferment" on April 1. Those registered with the U. S. employment service for war-important jobs will have until May 1 to find them. In effect the new order means elimination of the classification of 3-A.

CHURCHILL IN TURKEY

Churchill went to Turkey from Casablanca and London reports that he and the president of that country have reached a "full agreement on all points discussed." Regarded as a diplomatic defeat for Hitler, observers discuss three possibilities of the conference which included British military leaders: agreement to use Turkish territory as a springboard for a second front in the Balkans, Turkish permission for the United Nations to pass a supply line to the Soviets through the Dardanelles or Turkish entry into the war.

PRESIDENT BACK HOME

Shortly after the White House announcement of the President's stop-over in Liberia on his way home from the Casablanca conferences, an official communique from Rio De Janeiro disclosed that the President had also stopped in Natal for a conference with President Vargas of Brazil. The visit to Liberia was made to pay respects to President Edwin Barclay, to review a large detachment of American Negro troops, and to inspect the large firestone rubber plantation. The conference at Natal brought together the presidents of the two largest American Republics, the United States and Brazil. The President arrived back in Washington last Sunday night.

Although, according to White House Secretary Early, the story of the Casablanca Conferences is complete, "so far as it can be told at the present time," subsequent chapters undoubtedly will be written as events unfold. Secretary of State Hull told reporters that even the State

Picture Circular Issued On Gardens

A new publication showing in pictures the step-by-step procedure in preparing and growing a garden has just been issued by the Extension Service of N. C. State College.

Prepared by Lewis P. Watson, the publication is designed to impress the gardener with the importance of proper preparation of the seed bed, the correct placement of fertilizing materials the proper handling of seed and plants, and the necessity of good care in cultivating the plants during their growth.

A free copy of this booklet may be obtained by writing to the Agricultural Editor, State College, Raleigh, and asking for Extension Circular No. 261, "A Garden Guide".

The illustrated guide shows how a garden should be handled from the time the ground is broken to the time the vegetables are harvested. The methods described, according to Watson, are those which have been tried and found satisfactory under normal

Bulletin Issued On Income Taxes

Uncle Sam's income tax laws will hit many farmers for the first time this year.

To aid growers in filling a return on their 1942 farm income, the Extension Service of N. C. State College, has just issued War Series Extension Bulletin No. 16, "The Farmer's Income Tax".

Copies may be obtained without charge upon application to the Agricultural Editor, State College, Raleigh, or from the county agent's office.

The 16-page publication was prepared by R. E. L. Greene, associate agricultural economist of the Experiment Station, and H. B. James, farm management specialist of the Extension Service.

The information in the bulletin presented in question-and-answer style, deals with the usual situation that will be found in making an income tax return.

Designed to clear up questions in the farmer's mind as to who must file a return, when the return must be filed, deductions, exemptions, and others, the publication clears up many of the doubts which have arisen concerning the tax on the 1942 income.

While most of the bulletin deals with filing a Federal return, a portion is also allotted to information on the State income tax return.

Robert S. McNeill is spending this week attending federal court in Durham.

Another Phase of Air Warfare

U. S. Marine Corps Photo

Training at the Marine Corps base at New River, N. C., are barrage balloon squadrons equipped to perform valuable war service at any area to which they may be assigned. Balloons will continue as important implements in air warfare and United States Marines are prepared to facilitate their usefulness to the utmost when balloons are needed. Supervising the training of Marine Corps barrage balloon units is Colonel Bernard L. Smith, USMC, designer of the naval seaplane NC4 which spanned the Atlantic in 1914.

Gardens And The War

January 1943 finds us planting gardens, not only with our feelings of pleasurable enterprise, and the satisfaction of eating home grown vegetables, but the duty and the necessity of providing eatables to the nation in time of war. With millions out of production, and farm machinery limited, we shall find it difficult to provide for our soldiers, our allies, and for home consumption. Every garden this year will be a victory Garden indeed. Every home in America, with available garden spot, can become a soldier in the production army.

Growth A Necessity

It would be foolish for a child to lament the fact of growth, and pray and labor to remain in a state of childhood. The natural longing of every normal person is to grow into the stature of an adult human being. Dwarfs and very fat people are exhibited in side shows.

Yet many of us lament social growth. We spend a lot of time pining over the past, and calling out for the good old days. The old days cannot come back, and they would be sadly out of place in the world of today. There are some essential qualities of life, and some principles of human conduct, which belong to the eternal, but their modes of expression change; they have to change to fit themselves to larger human need. We are not fighting to bring back any old days; the new generation is fighting for the kind of garments which will fit the social body now taking shape. Many old customs, many social and economic practices, will pass, and they should pass. The world is not going down, but going up—and on. It will not get worse, but better. Those who survive in it will have to adapt themselves to the new, because, in the nature of things, the new cannot adapt itself to the past. This is 1943.

COOLEEMEE RED CROSS PRODUCTION ROOM RECEIVES MORE GARMENTS

The Red Cross production room in Cooleemee has completed and turned into headquarters 50 pairs of children's overalls and have received another shipment of 74 pairs of overalls to be completed by March 1.

It is urgent that all women who can sew and are willing to devote a few hours a week to Red Cross work help with this work. The hours of the sewing room are from 2 to 5 p. m. and 7 to 9 p. m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The nutrition classes being sponsored by the Red Cross, with the cooperation of OGD, will probably begin the third week in February. The classes are limited to 20 members so those desiring to take this course should register early to assure being in the class. A committee of women from the Woman's club is receiving the applications for the class. Those desiring to take the course are requested to get in touch with Mrs. M. H. Ridenhour, Mrs. Charles L. Isley, Mrs. Charles Bohannon, Mrs. Jeff Davis or Mrs. Mabel Head.

The nutrition course will be of great value to all home makers since it will stress the use of rationed foods and teach how to use the more plentiful products. Canning and gardening helps will also be given. It is the object of this course to aid the housewives in learning to feed the family the most nutritious foods and at the least possible cost.

The exact dates and time for these classes will be announced later so register now to be assured of getting in the class.

Sure this meat shortage is real, you can actually see it in the horse flesh.

Local Sewing Room Ready

Mrs. J. W. Davis has been named general chairman of the Red Cross production room for Mocksville. Mrs. J. H. Thompson, Miss Martha Call, Mrs. Z. N. Anderson and Mrs. C. H. Tomlinson will work with Mrs. Davis. Members of this committee have met and have the sewing room in readiness for work. The room is located in the Harding filling station on the square and will be open for work on Tuesday and Thursday afternoon and evenings of each week. The hours for opening and closing will be announced later. All patriotic women of Mocksville are urged to come to the sewing room and help in this work.

Cooleemee Man Wins his Wings

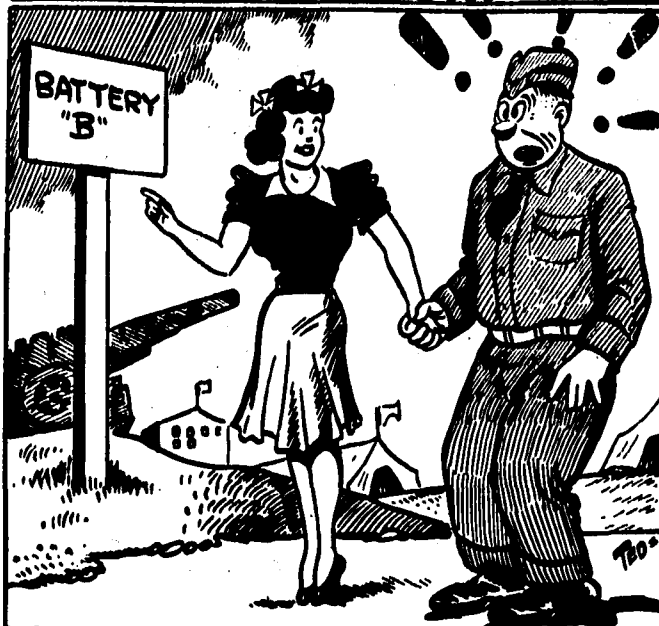

After almost a year of aviation instruction involving ground school and flight training, Gilbert Carl Mays of Cooleemee completed the final stages of schooling and has been commissioned an ensign in the naval reserve, it was announced last week at the naval air station, Jacksonville, Fla.

The 21-year-old flier was presented his navy "wings" and commission by Capt. J. D. Price, commandant of the Jacksonville naval air station at brief graduation ceremonies.

Mays completed elimination training at the naval air station in Atlanta, Ga., last May and was then sent to Jacksonville for advanced flight instruction.

The young officer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Carl Mays, 14 Joyner street, Cooleemee. He attended Cooleemee High school and Lees-McRae college and is a member of Phi Theta Kappa fraternity.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

January 3, 1943.

Dear Mr. McQuage:

I thought I would have had an opportunity before now to write telling where I am. All I can tell is that I am on a South Sea island in the Pacific. However, I am permitted to state that we were in New Zealand. I found New Zealand a beautiful country and the people were very nice to us. There we, like the boys in England, learned to enjoy the tea time of the English. Also the money used there was in pounds and shillings.

New Zealand has two islands known there as the North Island and the South Island. The South Island has more severe winters and is more mountainous than the North Island. We camped on the North Island near Auckland.

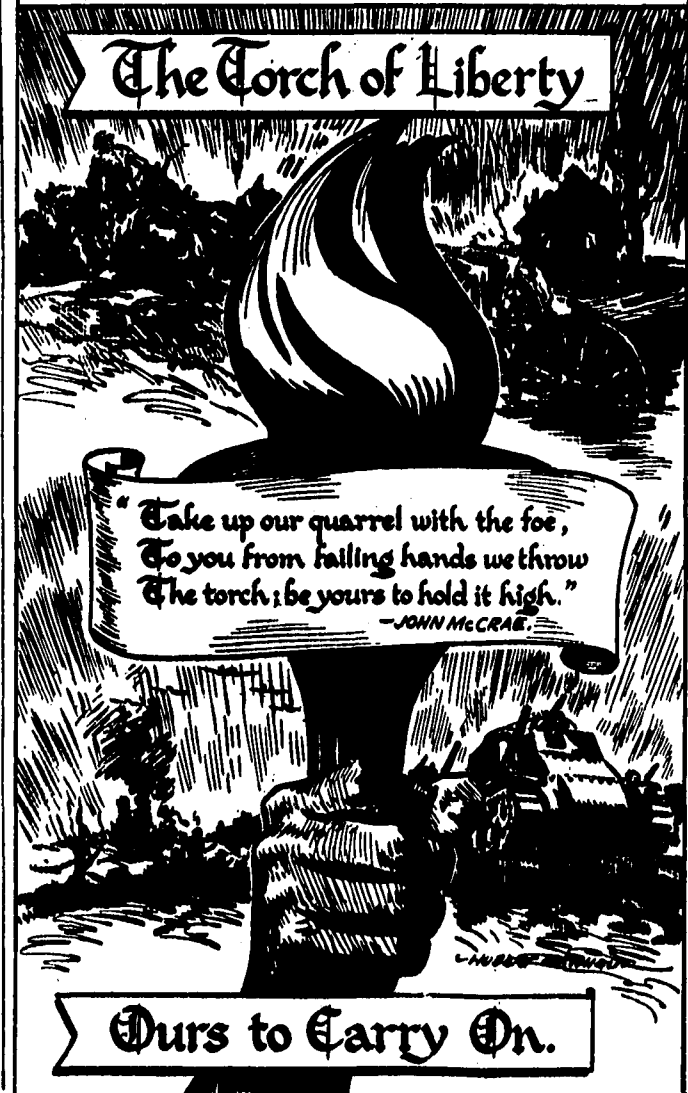

The population of New Zealand is mostly English, however, there are quite a number of the natives of New Zealand there, known as the Maori race. They have several customs which are similar to the American Indian, such as gods, war clouds and strange dances.

I was only in New Zealand a short time so I did not learn as much as I would have liked to about the place. After all, we are here to win a war and return home as quickly as possible. To do this we over in the lines must depend on you back home for materials to keep us behind the gun. I was very glad to read in your paper of the splendid cooperation of the people from Davie county in the scrap drive you had some time ago and of the buying of bonds. All this helps.

Best wishes and Happy New Year.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

A JOKE A DAY

Needs Groceries

"I am willing," shouted the candidate, bringing his flat down on the table, "to trust the people."

"My," whispered a little man in the audience to his neighbor. "I wish he'd open a grocery store here."

Comfortable

"Are your children doing all they can for you to make you comfortable?" a doctor inquired of one of his seriously ill patients.

"Yes, they're keeping up my insurance," was the reply.

Too Much

A Frenchman was relating his experience in studying the English language. He said:

"When I first discovered that if I was quick, I was fast; that if I was tied, I was fast; if I spent too freely, I was fast; and that not to eat was to fast, I was discouraged. But when I came across the sentence, 'The first one won one-dollar prize,' I gave up trying."

Comparison

"You hammer nails like lightning."

"You mean I'm a fast worker?"

"No; you never strike twice in the same place."

Not Long!

Employer: "How long would you stay with me if I could not pay you?"

Employee: "As long as you'd keep me if I couldn't run the power plant."

Worried Look

Official young foreman: "Get out of the way, boy!"

Experienced workman: "Go on with that juvenile stuff! I knew you when you were nothing but a worried look on your father's face."

COOLEEMEE

Gale, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Wofford, returned home Sunday from Gastonia where she has been under treatment at a hospital for the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Grant and children of Mocksville, Route 4, were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Grant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Tiller.

Miss Lois Milholen, who is a student at Draughn's Business college, Winston-Salem, spent the weekend here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Milholen, on Davie street.

Christopher, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tiller, was badly burned Monday when a cup of coffee turned over on him. He was taken to the Lowery hospital in Salisbury for treatment.

Mrs. Kenneth Hoover has returned home from the Rowan Memorial hospital in Salisbury where she was under treatment several days last week.

MORE ABOUT WAR NEWS

Department has not yet learned all the details on what was said about the political situation in North Africa.

LEND-LEASE

Testifying before the House Foreign Affairs Committee, Lend-Lease Administrator Stettinius reaffirmed the Lend-Lease Principle—"the principle of total cooperation among Nations in the waging of war"—as the only one on which a war of alliance can successfully be waged. The question, he said, is not whether we should continue to send supplies to our allies, but why have we not sent more. Lend-Lease supplies to China, for example, are getting through in pitifully small amounts in terms of what China needs, not nearly all that we should have liked to have supplied.

"Lend-Lease," Mr. Stettinius said, "is not a loan of money. Nor has it ever been an act of charity. The Lend-Lease program of providing goods and services to Nations resisting the Axis aggressors was undertaken for the defense of this Country and has been carried out in the interests of the people of the United States." The cumulative value of United States Lend-Lease aid from March 11, 1941, (date of its inception) to December 31, 1942, was $8,253,000,000—79 percent of this for goods, 21 percent for services. And about .90 percent of the goods—valued at almost $8,000,000,000—has been shipped.

One of the greatest achievements of Lend-Lease has been its help to making the British Isles an impregnable base for offensive operations. A large part of the North African campaign was launched from Britain and so were the campaigns in the Middle East, Italian Africa, Syria, Madagascar.

A few facts on reciprocal Lend-Lease—The United Kingdom from May to November supplied United States forces in the United Kingdom with material (other than construction materials) which would have taken 1,200,000 ship tons if shipped from this country. Australia and New Zealand, under reciprocal Lend-Lease, are supplying practically all of the food consumed by American armed forces in the South Pacific Area, including more than 100,000,000 pounds of food, and are providing camps, airfields, repair depots, and numerous other items; the British Navy furnished two-thirds of the warships which convoyed the expedition to North Africa; also for North Africa, the British supplied such substantial quantities of military equipment as four 1,000-bed field hospitals, 168 Spitfires, 600 ambulances, artillery, airfield runways, bombs, ammunition.

Since the inception of the Soviet aid program in October 1941, the United States has transferred to the Soviet Union supplies, including food, costing more than $1,250,000,000. Lend-Lease food shipments to Russia from now on are expected to exceed by a considerable margin Lend-Lease food shipments to all other parts of the world combined, including shipments to the United Kingdom.

NORTH AFRICAN DRIVE

In the conferences recently held in North Africa—the Casablanca conference and the military conference at General Eisenhower's headquarters—the highest military authorities of the United States and Great Britain conferred on strategy for the Mediterranean theatre, setting the stage for a final offensive against all axis forces remaining in Africa. That the Axis expects a gigantic Allied push is evident from the alarms sounded by the Axis-controlled radio.

FARM LABOR

To Agriculture Secretary Wickard has been given the unified responsibility of supplying labor for war production on farms. A war manpower commission directive has brought together in the agriculture department the responsibility for recruiting and placing farm labor, the determination of needs and areas of supply, the transportation of farm workers to shortage areas, and the determination of war-essential crops. The commission will continue to control over-all manpower policies and standards, including those affecting agriculture, and to determine selective service standards applying to agriculture, and will continue to be responsible for "review and appraisal of the agriculture labor program."

In a joint press conference Mr. McNutt and Mr. Wickard said unless 3,500,000 persons are placed on farms by the time the seasonal peak is reached this summer, agriculture in general faces a breakdown. In December, 1942, 8,900,000 persons were engaged in farming. But if production goals are to be met this year, this figure must be increased to more than 12,000,000.

Pointing out that during the past two years agriculture lost an average of 1,500,000 workers a year, Mr. Wickard said the agriculture department field agencies might arrange for the closing of schools during weeks when there was a critical farm labor shortage. He stressed the need for farm families to leave subsistence farms for farms where full production can be obtained, emphasizing that the reduction in the number required for selective service deferment did not mean that the standards of production for war goals had been reduced likewise.

Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Anderson entertained at dinner last Friday evening honoring their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Anderson, and son, Bobby, of Durham and North Wilkesboro. Other guests included the Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Aycock and the Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Wright.

Miss Greene Is Wedded To Joseph F. Ferebee

In a ceremony characterized by beauty and charm Miss Leone Greene and Joseph Starrette Ferebee, chief specialist, United States navy, were wedded Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the First Evangelical and Reformed church in Charlotte. Dr. Shuford Peeler, pastor of the church officiated.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Mary McFarland, organist, played "Serenade" by Schubert, and "Liebestraum" by Liszt. David Kelly sang "I Love Thee," by Grieg, and "Because" by D'Hardelot. The "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin was played for the processional and Mendelssohn's march for the recessional. During the service "Consolation" by Mendelssohn was played. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Cpl. Robert P. Greene. The bridegroom had as his best man Moses Bridges, Jr., of Catawba college, Salisbury.

Miss Iris Smith of Catawba college and Lexington was maid of honor.

Leonard and K. S. Greene, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

The bride wore a gown of white duchess satin, with sweetheart neck, outlined in seed pearls, fitted bodice, paneled front, fashioned on princess lines with leg-o-mutton sleeves finished with Calla lily points over the wrists. The long full skirt ended in a train and the two tiered veil of imported illusion trimmed in French lace was worn with a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white hybrid orchids, narcissi, and baby's breath showered with white satin ribbon.

The maid of honor wore an orchid-colored gown with fitted taffeta bodice and full net skirt and shoulder length veil fastened to her hair with pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Mrs. Greene, mother of the bride, wore an ice blue suit with frilled chiffon blouse, black hat trimmed in blue feathers and black accessories. Her flowers were a shoulder bouquet of gardenias.

Mrs. Ferebee, mother of bridegroom, wore a black crepe dress trimmed in white, black hat and black accessories. Her flowers were gardenias.

Reception Follows

A charming and informal reception given by Mrs. Shuford Peeler, and Mrs. R. A. Robinson at the Peeler home on East Trade street followed the wedding.

The living room, where the hostesses and bridal party received, was arranged with white flowers and greenery. The dining room table was covered with a white cloth and graced with a three-tiered wedding cake and bowls of white sweet peas and narcissi and silver candelabra holding white tapers.

Miss Elizabeth Taylor poured tea. Others receiving assisting in serving refreshments were Miss Mary Tallent, Miss Kathleen Ferguson, Miss Betty Clapp and Mrs. A. A. Ledbetter.

Later the couple left for the United States naval training station at Farragut, Idaho, where the bridegroom is stationed permanently. For traveling the bride wore a salute blue velvet dress trimmed in Irish lace and rhinestone clips, black hat trimmed in Fuchsia feathers. Her accessories were black and her flowers white orchids.

Bride and Bridegroom
The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. S. Greene of Charlotte. She was graduated from Central High school and afterwards attended Catawba college at Salisbury. She is a pretty and talented young girl and admired by a wide circle

Nutrition Classes Will Start Soon

Mrs. Leslie Daniel, Davie county nutrition chairman for the Red Cross, has announced that all home economics teachers in the white and colored schools of the county are being certified to teach nutrition classes throughout the county. These classes will deal with wartime menus, the use of substitutes for rationed foods and improving health standards.

The nutrition class will begin in Mocksville March 2 and anyone interested in joining the class is asked to register at Miss Mackie's office before the last week in February. Miss Lotie Bell Spratt Hairston will begin nutrition classes for colored women the third week in February.

Davie 4-H Club Plans Mobilization Week

The 372 4-H club members in Davie county will observe National 4-H Mobilization Week February 8-14 during which time they will plan their part in the nation's 1943 food production program.

Spurred on by a message from President Roosevelt, the club members will pledge themselves in their 4-H projects to produce more meat, milk, eggs and wartime crops.

One of the main objectives of the mobilization program is to organize to help meet local farm labor shortages. This objective will be achieved through extra work on the part of the club members. Also by taking into their clubs, city youths and helping to train such as will be willing to work on farms the coming summer.

Another phase is a determined drive to enlarge the present enrollment by asking all farm boys and girls 10 to 21 years of age to join in their effort.

In addition to production projects, club members will be asked to make plans for enlarging activities in fire prevention, nutritious meal planning, first aid and home nursing, care of farm machinery, and other wartime activities.

Rationing Plan Allows 5 Cans Per Person

Washington—Every person in the United States may possess without penalty a total of five cans of fruit and vegetables when rationing of those goods begins.

The penalty for having more than five cans of vegetables or fruit (not counting home canned goods or cans containing less than eight ounces each) will be the loss of an 8-point stamp for each excess can when new rationing books are issued in three or four weeks.

For families, the quota of allowance cans and the penalty will be applied as a unit. Thus, a family of five will be allowed 25 cans. If it had 30, the penalty would be five coups for the whole family and could be taken either out of one book of the family or perhaps spread out over all five books. Each person will have his own book, even babies.

In applying the penalty, OPA said it would make no distinction because of either size or contents of the can on hand in any family larger, because of the difficulty of getting every household to itemize its pantry. However, when the rationed sale of canned fruits and vegetables starts, different values will be assigned cans as to both size and contents.

The new ration books will be passed out to the public in about three weeks at schools and thousands of other registration places. To get a book all a person will have to do is to show (but not turn in) his number one ration book, which contains sugar and coffee stamps. Before the clerk hands out the new book, he will tear out one 8-point coupon for each can over the five per person limit. Persons who have an unusually large stock of cans could theoretically lose, by this process, half their rations, since the 8-point stamps represent half of the point values in the book. Other stamps, none of which will be taken out for penalties, will be in denominations of 5, 2 and 1 points.

Under the rationing system, each can will have a value in points. For instance, a can of peas might be worth 10 points and could be obtained by turning in two 5-point stamps.

Lowery Hospital Damaged By Fire

Salisbury — Fire, originating from an undetermined cause, did approximately $10,000 damage to the Lowery hospital Tuesday shortly after noon.

The 22 or more patients, none of whom was critically ill, were removed speedily and without harm.

Dr. J. R. Lowery, proprietor, said the hospital would again be operating by nightfall in the adjacent Mayfair courts apartment which he has under lease. The patients were removed from the hospital to the apartment by an overhead connecting corridor and tenants were moved out.

BETTER PASTURE FOR LIVESTOCK

We all realize that pasture is the cheapest feed for our livestock because they do their own harvesting. This is true now more than ever since labor is scarce on the farm and may be more so in the months to come.

All farmers can start now and prepare land for pasture. A farmer should select two plots of land near the barn that are already fenced if possible. One plot should be disced and seeded to rye grass and lespedeza for early spring and summer grazing. The rye grass if seeded in February will furnish splendid spring grazing and the lespedeza will furnish grazing after the rye grass dies down in June and July.

The second plot should be disced very lightly and seeded to a permanent pasture mixture for permanent pasture. Under no circumstances should the land be heavy disced or plowed. The small grass plants will have a much better chance to survive on well packed land than on loosely plowed or disced land.

This plot should be treated with 1 to 1½ tons of lime and 500 pounds of 20% phosphate per acre. Then a mixture of 6 pounds of blue grass, 12 pounds of orchard grass, 5 pounds of dallis grass, 5 pounds of red top grass, and 2 pounds of white dutch clover should be seeded per acre in February.

The grass seed should be covered only very lightly by the use of a weeder or by dragging a pine brush over the land. If at all possible the land seeded to the above should be mulched with stable manure, rotten straw, or other such materials. This will act as a mulch and hold moisture for the small plants as well as furnish needed organic matter. It is much better to use your supply of manure on new seeded pasture to insure against the loss of the expensive grass seed than to use it on row crops.

The new seeded permanent pasture should not be grazed until it has secured a good growth, preferably not at all until the fall and then very lightly. The first plot will answer for your grazing this summer if you will seed one acre for each mature cow.

The farmer with enough acreage of permanent pasture established should supply early spring grazing with rye grass small grains seeded or a combination of these. A large number of permanent pastures are greatly reduced in amount of summer grazing because cows are turned on them too early in the spring. The grass plants should be allowed to obtain as much as two inches in height before grazing starts. The grass plants grow on food produced by the leaf surface from the soil and air and the smaller the leaf surface the slower the plants grow.

Large pastures should be divided and the animals alternated from one to another which increase the grazing capacity of the entire area.

Our present permanent pastures should be top-dressed with stable manure, phosphate and lime unless the lime has been applied within the past two years, if so the lime can be omitted from the above for top-dressing. In all cases the lime should be applied separately from the manure but the manure and phosphate may be applied at the same time with a manure spreader. If lime and phosphate are used only, they may be applied together at the same time.

A good plan to follow is to sprinkle phosphate over the manure in your stables each time before applying bedding. This phosphate helps retain the ammonia and keeps it from leaching. Do not use lime as it releases the ammonia and therefore the valuable part of the manure is leached away into the air. Warning: If AAA phosphate is used be sure to apply your manure to pasture land on legume crops growing along and not to row crops as this would be a misuse of the phosphate and the amount so used would be charged to you at a double rate.

For further information and suggestions see or write your county agents for bulletins on pasture in North Carolina.

Canada's Tanks Roll Off Production Line And Into Battle

These heavy infantry tanks of a bilingual battalion from Quebec are part of the Canadian Army Tank Brigade, photographed during intensive maneuvers in England. The outfit has been built into a powerful, effective striking force which will make its strength felt on some allied offensive front soon.

ONE of the first of the United Nations to take up arms against Axis aggression, Canada, after three years of war, finds her industries fully mobilized, peak production being expected early in 1943. Although her peacetime industrial facilities are small compared to the manufacturing might of the United States, the Dominion nevertheless has become one of the main weapon-producing countries on the side of democracy. Canada constitutes the main source of supply of motorized equipment for the British Empire. It has turned out thousands of fighting vehicles every week and has delivered more than 300,000 motorized units since the start of the war.

In addition to a large output of Bren gun carriers, in service in every theatre of war, Canada is producing two types of tanks. One is the British Valentine, a rugged infantry tank which has been sent to Russia in large numbers. It is produced by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company in its Montreal Angus shops. The Soviets regard it highly. The other is the Ram, a cruiser tank designed by Canada's famed tank man, Major General F. F. Worthington. A crack medium tank, Canada's Ram is said to have contributed largely to new British and American designs for cruiser land ships. Indicative of the progress accomplished in Canada in the production of war equipment is the fact that in 1942 Canada is turning out 10 tanks and armoured fighting vehicles for every unit it produced in 1941.

Fifty bushels of corn or its equivalent in concentrated feed are required to get a calf ready for market, which will account for gains from 400 to 500 pounds. In addition, it will require from 1,000 to 1,200 pounds of good roughage to feed a calf six to eight months.

If possible, Case said, the calf should be started on grain before weaning. Because of the need for milk in the war effort and economy of grains, the calf should be weaned at about 500 pounds weight.

Farmers Now Signing 1943 AAA Farm Plans

Farmers in every county of the state are now signing 1943 farm plans stating whether or not they intend to cooperate in the 1943 AAA program, according to G. T. Scott, Chairman of the State AAA Committee.

Reports received at the State AAA office show that through January 9, a total of 161,139 farmers had been interviewed, and of this number 159,699 indicated they will participate in the program, Scott said. There still are 79,282 farmers to be interviewed. "When a farmer signs a 1943 farm plan, he merely states whether he plans to participate in the 1943 AAA program," Scott said. "Signing is purely voluntary on the part of the farmer and the plan is not a contract. After a farmer signs a farm plan, he is assisted in formulating a farm program for 1943 designed to earn maximum production practice credits for carrying out these practices most needed on his farm. This sign-up should not be confused with the signing of 1943 Farm Plan Work Sheets for Maximum War Production in which the farmer's war crop goals are set out."

Farmers taking part in the AAA program are allowed to obtain conservation materials, such as legume and cover crop seed, lime, and phosphate, for use on their land in lieu of farm payments.

In an effort to conserve transportation facilities, he said, most of the 1943 sign-up work is being carried out when farmers are at meetings or are in the county AAA offices for other reasons.

E. L. GAITHER, 93, DIES AT HOME HERE FEB. 10

Ephraim Lash Gaither, 93, one of Mocksville's most prominent citizens and retired banker and attorney, died at his home on North Main street here at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

The funeral was held at the Mocksville Presbyterian church Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. W. C. Cooper and the Rev. R. H. Stone. Interment was in the Clement cemetery in Mocksville.

Mr. Gaither is survived by his widow and four daughters: Mrs. R. B. Sanford, Miss Sarah Hall Gaither, and Mrs. Cecil Morris, all of Mocksville, and Mrs. David Murray of Smithfield. A sister, Mrs. Sanford Woodruff of Mocksville, also survives.

Pallbearers were Donald Clement, Knox Johnstone, Robert and Hall Woodruff, Kimbrough Sheek, Paul Blackwelder, J. C. Sanford and Gaither Jenkins.

Lash Gaither, as he was better known, was born on April 30, 1850, and lived most of his life in Mocksville. He was the youngest son of Ephraim Gaither and Sarah Hall Johnston Gaither.

Educated in private schools before going to college, he was a student at Davidson college for four years where he graduated with honors in the class of 1873.

In the fall of 1873 he entered the famous law school of Chief Justice R. M. Pearson in Yadkin county. Two years later he obtained his license to practice and settled in Mocksville to begin his practice.

During his college vacations he assisted his father, then register of deeds in Davie.

Mr. Gaither married Miss Florence Adelaide Clement on December 1, 1880. She is the daughter of the late John Marshall Clement and the late Mary Haden Clement of Mocksville. In 1881 Mr. Gaither and his father-in-law formed a partnership which existed until the death of the latter in 1886.

Mr. Gaither built up a wide legal practice in this section and also became prominent in business circles. He acquired large holdings of real estate and was president of the Bank of Davie for nearly 20 years—from 1916 to 1934. At one time he was also a director of the Wachovia Bank & Trust company. He also served

A bill introduced in the legislature by R. V. Alexander to increase the fees of Davie deputies and constables for liquor seizures has passed the second and third reading in the house and first reading in the senate. The bill would give the officers $5 if the sale of the captured liquor brings between $25 and $100; $10 if $100 to $200; $15 if $200 to $300; $20 if between $300 and $400; over $400 fee of $25 to be divided between participating deputies.

The nazis are now counting their casualties.

RATIONING REMINDERS

Sugar—Stamp No. 11 in war ration book 1 is good for three pounds of sugar through March 15.

Coffee—Stamp No. 25 good for one pound through March 21. (War ration book 1.)

Shoes—Stamp No. 17 good for one pair of shoes through June 15 (War ration book 1.)

Fuel Oil—No. 4 coupon became valid January 30. Period 3 coupons good for nine gallons and valid through February 19.

Gasoline—Coupon No. 4 in A Book good for three gallons. Temporary "T" coupons will be issued directly by ration boards for a period of not more than 30 days. Boards will use original ODT certificates only for checking tire inspection.

Tires—Holders of ration A coupons must have tires inspected by OPA on or before March 31. Holders of B and C must get first inspection by February 28.

War Ration Books—Ration book 1 is being currently used for purchase of sugar and coffee. War ration book 2 will be issued on February 22 or any day thereafter for six days. Rationing of canned goods starts March 1. Please go to your nearest school, not to the rationing office.

Certificate holders of grade 3 passenger tires unable to secure new grade 3 tires due to shortage of dealers' stocks should accept a recapped or used tire and under no circumstances hold certificates beyond the expiration date awaiting delivery of a new grade 3 tire.

Grocers' Meeting—There will be a meeting for grocers in Winston-Salem at 7:30 p. m., February 18. This meeting will be held in the old West End school building, 800 West Fourth street. Also, there will be a meeting in High Point February 15 at 7:30 p. m. in the county building. It is very important that grocers attend one of these meetings. Point rationing and price ceilings will be discussed by representatives of the Charlotte district office, and opportunity will be given for the asking of questions.

Tire Applications for Passenger Cars—Please be sure and attach part B of Form 534, Inspection Record, to applications for tires, and on applications for truck tires, attach the War Necessity Certificate.

Byrnes Announces Economic Changes; 48-Hour Work Week

Warrant Officer

Master Sgt. Albert M. Chaffin, above, has just been appointed warrant officer at Lawson Field, Fort Benning, Ga.

Chaffin enlisted in 1935 and was stationed with flight C of the 16th observation squadron at Fort Bragg. In 1938 at the expiration of his enlistment he returned to civilian life and was employed by Eastern Air Lines at LaGuardia Field, New York.

In 1941 Mr. Chaffin was called back to service and stationed at Lawson Field. For two years he has been sergeant major of headquarters personnel.

He attended the fourth corps aerial personnel school and received the highest grade of his class.

He lives with his wife and two daughters, Frances Ann and Althea, at Harris Circle, Fort Benning.

Mr. Chaffin is the son of Mrs. Ida Betts Chaffin of Mocksville.

1,000 PENNIES

Armond Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith, of Route 4, saved 1,000 pennies and brought them to the local school February 9 where he bought war stamps.

In Africa

Sgt. Samuel P. Berrier, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Berrier, of Route 4, Mocksville, is now in Africa. He volunteered July 29, 1940, and got most of his training at Fort Bragg.

AUXILIARY

The Presbyterian auxiliary will meet Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the hut. Mrs. Hugh Sanford, president, urges all members to attend.

BONDS OVER THE TOP

The January quota of Davie county for war bonds was $35,574 and the amount sold was $36,118.75. Knox Johnstone, county chairman, reports.

GETS FOUR YEARS

Elmer Thomas Zimmerman of Advance, Route 1, was tried in federal court in Durham last week for failure to report for induction into military service. Judge Hayes sentenced him to four years in the federal penitentiary.

PLAN REGISTRATION

R. S. Proctor, superintendent of Davie county schools, has called a meeting of all school principals Saturday at 10 a. m. At this time school officials will complete plans for conducting the registration for war rationing book 2.

Economic Stabilization Director Byrnes announced Tuesday night that the president had established a minimum 48-hour work week which is compulsory for all industries holding government contracts. Time and a half, however, will be paid for all work over 40 hours.

Manpower Commissioner McNutt immediately applied the order to all forms of business and industry in 32 labor shortage areas in 25 states and the District of Columbia. Under this order no employer can release a worker before March 31; must hire through the U. S. employment service and cannot recruit new workers if they are working less than 48 hours weekly.

It is estimated that the 48-hour work week is equivalent to the addition of 1,500,000 workers.

HOME FRONT PROGRAM

Byrnes also announced far-reaching plans of fighting inflation and prosecuting the war. They included:

1. No increase in hourly wage rates beyond the "Little Steel" formula which calls for no basic wage increases in excess of 15 per cent since January, 1941. At the same time the war labor board denied a wage increase to 180,000 employees of the "Big Four" packing companies.
2. Control over prices of basic necessities with the aim of holding them at present levels; breaking up black markets.
3. Incentive payments to farmers to "enable us to increase production without increasing prices."
4. Service by all where most needed. Encouragement of men who have left farm jobs for better-paying work in war plants to return to the farm even if the pay is less or cancel their draft deferment if they refuse.
5. Allied invasion of Europe this year which will involve casualties "such as this nation has never before endured."
6. Enlistment of additional millions in the armed forces.
7. A "very substantial" increase in war production over the record-breaking output in 1942.
8. Pooling of American war supplies with the British and other Allies "who will form a part of the invading armies"; increased aid to Russia and China.
9. Sharing of American food with the people in the free and liberated countries helping to defeat the common enemy.
10. Spartan living at home and higher taxes, particularly for the middle-income groups, which will be in the form either of post-war credits or compulsory savings.

NO CLOTHING RATION SEEN

WPB Head Donald Nelson and Price Administrator Brown said there is no shortage of clothing at present and no need for rationing.

JAPS QUIT GAUDALCANAL

Tokyo announces that the Japs have given up Guadalcanal and Buna. They admit the loss of 16,000 men and 139 planes. Washington, however, estimates the Jap losses at not less than 75,000 men, 797 planes and 57 ships sunk.

RUSSIA CONTINUES TO GAIN

Kursk, one of the strongest "hedgehog" bases of the Nazis in Russia which they captured in November, 1941, has been recaptured by the Russians. Kursk is only 125 miles north of Kharkov, another Nazi stronghold.

At the same time the Russians now have Rostov under siege and the Nazis face another encirclement of their troops south of that area. A second Russian force is reported landed on the Black sea coast south of Novorossisk to prevent the escape of the encircled Germans.

EXPECT HARD FIGHTING IN AFRICA

Bad weather still hampers major operations in North Africa but most observers now state that hard fighting is ahead in that area. The Germans with Rommel's men now are said to have 160,000 seasoned troops in that zone.

IMPORTANT NEWS ON "POINT RATIONING"

Rationing of canned, dried, and frozen fruits and vegetables will begin March 1, and retail sales of the more than 200 items to be rationed will be "frozen" on February 20. Beginning Monday, February 22, housewives will register for war ration book No. 2, which will allow a total of 48 "points" for each member of the family for the month of March. Stamps will have values of 8, 5, 2 and 1. If a family has more than five cans per person on hand, stamps will be removed from the book in proportion to their excess holdings. Official point values will be made public as soon as stocks are "frozen."

Registration will be held in local school houses and one member may register for the whole family.

FOODS RATIONED

A schedule of foods to be rationed under the point rationing system includes:

All canned and bottled fruits and fruit juices including spiced fruits, apples (including crab-apples and applesauce) apricots, baby food, all kinds of berries, all kinds of cherries, cranberries, cranberry sauce, fruit for salad and fruit cocktail, grapefruit juice, grape juice, peaches, pears, pineapples, pineapple juice, and all other canned and bottled fruits, fruit juices and combinations.

All canned and bottled vegetables, including asparagus, baby food in cans of more than eight ounces (fresh lima beans, green and wax beans, all canned and bottled dry varieties, baked beans, kidney beans and lentils), beets, carrots, corn, peas, sauerkraut, spinach, tomatoes (catsup, chili sauce, tomato juice and all other tomato products), and all other canned and bottled vegetables, vegetable juices and combinations.

Other processed foods: all types and varieties of canned soup; dried or dehydrated fruits—prunes and raisins and all others; frozen fruits; frozen vegetables, asparagus, beans (green and wax) corn, spinach, lima beans, broccoli, peas, and all other frozen vegetables.

The following items are included among those not to be rationed: candied fruits, chili con carne, frozen fruits in containers over ten pounds, frozen vegetables in containers over ten pounds, fruit cake, fruit juices in containers over one gallon, fruit judding, jam jelly, meat stews containing some vegetables, olives, paste products such as spaghetti, macaroni and noodles whether or not packed with added vegetable sauces, pickles, potato salad, preserves, relishes and vegetable juices in containers over one gallon.

Just as in the sugar and coffee rationing, everyone will get a book of coupons, war ration book 2, which is a tan booklet similar to war ration book 1, popularly known as the sugar-

MID-WINTER MONTHS and MID-WEEK DAYS are the LEAST CROWDED travel times

You can aid wartime bus service by planning essential trips for February or March — instead of Mid-Summer

Never in history has it been so important to choose with care the time and occasion for travel. Through the years bus travel has always been very heavy in some months, less heavy in others — and this has held true even in wartime when the demands on transportation are naturally increased. That's why Greyhound has long urged everyone to travel during less crowded periods—and February and March are just such times. Essential trips taken in mid-winter will greatly relieve overcrowding in the mid-summer months ahead.

You can aid wartime transportation still further by choosing the right day—in mid-week—and the right schedule—the least crowded one. It's wise to take along as little baggage as possible—and to get information on any trip well in advance.

Ten Years Of Hitler

Last week Germany celebrated the tenth year of Hitlerism. This tenth anniversary was somewhat different from those of the past. Over the radio we could hear loud German speeches, raucous cheering, and note the wildness and frenziedness of the shouts. There were confident notes of victory, and contempt for their enemies. Last week Hitler sent his agent to speak for him, and the agent was interrupted by a visit from English bombers. The speech was sour, threatening, and promising the German people nothing but hardships and suffering.

Let no American deceive himself that the victory of the Allies will be short, swift, and easy. It may be long, it may be short; it will be hard, and we must put all we have into the winning. But one could read Germany's defeat in the changed tones of Berlin last week. The real situation is beginning to take shape in the German brain, and henceforth Hitler will think, not of conquering the world but of how much he can destroy.

In that category Hitler has much to show. The world has not had time in the past few years to realize what Hitler has destroyed. He will have a place in history, but a terrible place, and his name will be a byword and a hissing among nations. He has killed millions of men, wounded many more millions, destroyed the highest works of art, blotted out whole cities, sent millions of tons of wealth to the bottom of the ocean. No man in all history has destroyed so much—and gained—absolutely nothing. For thousands of years his name will be associated with all that is dark, mean, brutal, devilish. When this war is over the whole world will pause, gasp, and express wonder and horror that one man could destroy so much.

Do We Want Peace?

All of us are expressing the hope for an early peace, but we have not considered what lies between us and permanent peace. Much of our hope is no more than wishful thinking, because we are unwilling to contribute the things which make for peace. Military victories cannot bring a real peace, even though circumstances bring about cessation of hostilities. Peace must be put into the normal activities and relationships of everyday life, and over a long period of time. Peace must be put into trade, in diplomacy, into international relationships. If keen and unrelenting competition is put into business, tariff walls into trade, lying into diplomacy, and political capital into politics we may expect another war within a few years after hostilities cease in this one. We have the blue prints for peace, but we insist upon hiring other architects to change plans in order to build into the structure the selfishness and greed of particular groups, and divergent philosophies. The structure, if it is to be enduring, and give the best accommodations to the largest number of people must follow the blue prints of an old drawing; "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself".

Wanted—Leadership

We are entering upon a period in world history in which men of vision, character, training, and ability are needed. Petty politics, oracular diplomacy, and self-interest have contributed much to the sorry plight of the world. Able men, building upon high principles are necessary if we make a safe and permanent recovery.

We criticize these men in public office, many of whom are small in mental and moral stature, but they occupy their places because, we the people, elect them. These people with the power of the ballot are already scheming for the next election, working for men, not on account of ability, but of party, and for promise of political aid to special favors. We know two men today in political office who offer little fitness for their jobs, yet one was kept in because he was "for" prohibition, and the other is an accomplished back slapper. Those are some of the fellows who will represent us in this hour when Giants are needed. But, we the people, cannot secure the accomplishments of giants when we deliberately pass over them and elect pignies.

PINES

C. B. Keller of Oxford, Route 4, planted 97,000 pines in 1942 and has already received 25,000 more to be planted this year, reports W. B. Jones, assistant farm agent of Granville county.

John Q. Public will take his egg prices stabilized, thank you.

GARDENS

Garden projects are being stressed in Franklin county 4-H clubs this year, with special emphasis being placed on thorough soil preparation and the planting of early vegetables.

How about canning those who are responsible for shortages?

NEWS OF FARM CONSERVATION

By G. W. McLELLAN

Some excellent farming is being done in Davie county by S. C. Steelman, Route 1, Mocksville.

He grows sweet and red clover or lespedeza with all small grain except on tobacco land. On the tobacco land, he is growing small grain and redtop grass in a three-year rotation.

Mr. Steelman is quite interested in proper terracing and good outlets for terraces by way of meadow strips. He has seeded these meadow strips to a grass mixture or sericea lespedeza.

He is highly pleased with his permanent pasture seeding and reports he has gotten far more grazing on about ten acres than he used to get on about 160 acres of woods pasture.

O. M. Howell and his son, Woodrow, terraced one field last fall and think this field has been helped far more than it cost them to do terracing, already.

With the extra demand for milk and meat, it is hoped more farmers will treat their open pastures with one ton of lime and 400 pounds superphosphate per acre on as many acres as possible. Once this is tried, it is felt the practice will be continued.

Large numbers of Martin county farmers who never before have had their land terraced are showing a decided interest in this conservation practice this year.

Dairyman Suggests Emergency Program

The shortage of milk and milk products in North Carolina resulting from huge new demands by the army, lease-lend, and civilians, offers a direct challenge to dairymen, says John A. Arrey, dairy extension specialist of N. C. State college.

Not only is it a challenge, he went on, but it is a real opportunity to make use of an enlarged dairy industry as a means of greatly increasing the farm income of this section.

To bring about the much-needed increase in milk production, Arrey has suggested a six-point emergency program, as follows:

Increase the present cow population, especially on existing dairy farms, by bringing in milking cows and heifers from other areas where such a situation is practical.

Breed the cows now on hand to good dairy bulls and properly growing out the heifer calves; also give more emphasis to proper feeding and management.

Keep production records on all dairy cows.

Improve the old pastures and seed new ones until at least one and one-half acres of good pastures are available for each mature dairy animal.

Grow more and better legume hay on every farm.

Maintain the present milk routes and develop new ones as feasible.

Honest Dollar

A man had been brought before the court charged with vagrancy. Fixing a withering glare on the culprit, the magistrate thundered: "Have you ever earned an honest dollar in your life?"

"Oh, yes, your honor," the accused answered, "I voted for you in the last election."

A 300-pound man stood gazing longingly at the enticing display in a haberdasher's window. A friend stopped to inquire if he was thinking of buying the marked-down silk shirt.

"No!" replied the fat man wistfully. "The only thing that fits me ready-made is a handkerchief."

Go There

A patient purchasing agent sat listening to a salesman. "To sell goods," said the latter, "you must be a psychologist; you must be a psychic. Now, I am a psychic; I can read the minds of the men I call on; for instance, I know what is on your mind now."

"Well, then," replied the bored agent, "why don't you go there?"

State College Hints For Farm Homemakers

By RUTH CURRENT
(N. C. State College)

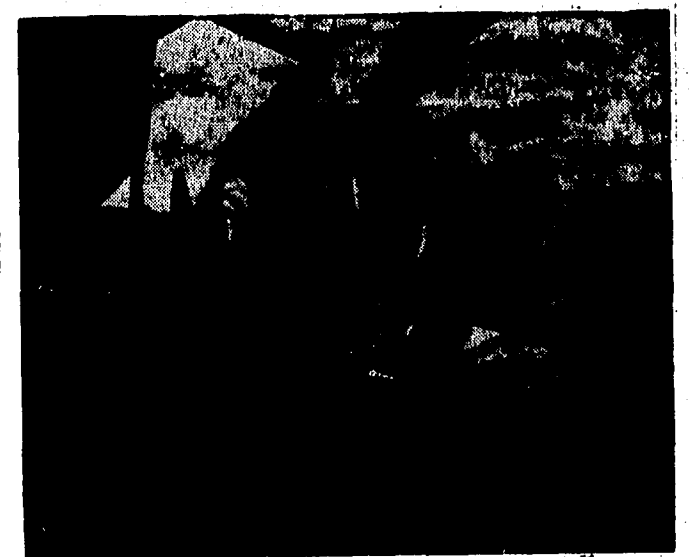

It's good housekeeping to keep your iron clean. It will last longer and you can do a better ironing job. Keep the iron dusted and the surface clean and smooth. Remove starch spots with a cloth wrung from soap-suds. If this doesn't work, try a mild scouring powder, or rub lightly with grade 00 steel wool. Wipe off with a damp cloth and then rub dry.

If your iron sticks as you work, rub it on a little salt sprinkled on paper, or smooth with paraffin or beeswax. Putting a pinch of salt in the starch helps to keep starched clothes from sticking to the iron. Once a month, wax the ironing surface while still warm with a small amount of paraffin or beeswax. Be sure to wipe off any excess wax.

When you put your iron away, remove the cord if it is detachable. In disconnecting a detachable cord, take the plug out of the wall outlet first, then remove the plug from the iron. Never pull on the cord to disconnect it, take hold of the plug. Strain on the cord may loosen wires from their connection.

Coil the cord loosely or hang where it will not bend sharply. Sharp bending may injure the wire.

When you put away an iron with a permanently attached cord, cool the iron before you coil the cord around the handle. Always avoid touching the cord with the hot iron or you may injure both the cord covering and insulation.

With their Kittyhawks waiting behind them like eager birds, a group of Canadian fighter pilots fighting over the Aleutians alongside of American pilots lean over their maps while discussing the day's operations. One Jap fighter plane was bagged recently by Wing Commander Kenneth Boomer of Ottawa.

DRY GOODS STORES ADVISED NOT TO REDUCE ADVERTISING

Charlotte—Merchants who attended the meeting of the National Retail Dry Goods association held in New York last week were advised to make no retrenchment in their newspaper advertising, said David Owens, former president of the organization.

Mr. Owens said the merchants had impressed upon them the fact that their main function now is to serve the public so that morale will be promoted. They were urged to use their newspaper advertising with the purpose of selling all the merchandise that is available. Although there will be shortages in some things, the best minds of the country are at work trying to develop merchandise to take the place of what has been taken away because of the war.

The war will be over some time and when the men of the armed forces come home, it is necessary that they find the business they left still doing business at the old stand and still going concerns, the merchants were told. There is no better way to make sure this will be the case than for the merchants to try to go forward by submerging such difficulties as merchandise shortages, personnel shortages, and other troubles and concentrating on the one task of selling what they have, leaders assured the merchants.

Sales of Feed Wheat To Continue in State

Federally-owned wheat for use as livestock and poultry feed still is available to North Carolina farmers under the 1943 sales program announced by the commodity credit corporation, according to H. A. Patten, acting state AAA executive assistant.

The wheat is being offered to farmers by the CCC at prices in line with the cost of corn in an effort to increase production of livestock and dairy products. Release of the wheat for this purpose was authorized by congress.

Few changes have been made in the program as it was operated last year, Patten said.

Feeders or groups of feeders now may purchase feed wheat directly from the corporation without obtaining approval of the county AAA committee, and dealers, millers, or feed processors may purchase wheat on agreement with the county AAA committee to use it only for feeding purposes, without posting bond. Persons found to have used wheat purchased for feed for any other purposes are liable for a penalty of 75 cents per bushel.

"Use of this wheat for feed was authorized as an emergency measure and is designed to increase production of food we need to carry on the war," Patten said. "The wheat is hard wheat, or which we have large surpluses, especially in the western wheat producing areas."

The price for January delivery, he said, is $1.01 per bushel, delivered in bulk in carload lots to any railroad point in the county or in a nearby county. Through January 19, records show, a total of 568 cars of wheat had been delivered to feeders and dealers in 63 North Carolina counties.

NEED HELP

H. K. Murrell, field representative of the railroad retirement board, who is available in Salisbury in the white waiting room at the Southern passenger station every Monday and sometimes on Saturday, is interested in seeing men who want to get into railroad work. Men, preferably with previous railroad experience who want to get back into that work, or men who would like to enter that work for the first time, are asked to see Mr. Murrell, who has calls for, and can place, a number of men.

IN BOUNTIFUL AMERICA—THERE ARE ABOUT 350,000,000 ACRES DEVOTED TO THE GROWING OF FOOD AND TEXTILE CROPS, AND THERE ARE ABOUT TWICE THAT MANY ACRES WHICH, IN ADDITION, ARE DEVOTED TO THE GROWING OF TREES!

ALTHOUGH THE U.S. GOVERNMENT COLLECTS 10% OF ALL MONEY PAID FOR MOVIE TICKETS... AND IT IS ESTIMATED THAT ABOUT 50,000,000 PEOPLE ATTEND THE MOVIES EACH WEEK... IT TAKES OVER TWO YEARS TO COLLECT ENOUGH MONEY AT THE BOX OFFICE TO BUILD ONE BATHROOM BEFORE WORLD WAR I, THE U.S. IMPORTED 90% OF THE TOILET PAPER USED IN THIS COUNTRY. AMERICAN INVENTIVES CHANGED THAT. TODAY THE U.S. MAKES 90% OF ITS OWN TOILET PAPER.

HOW ABOUT THAT GARDEN?

It isn't too early to begin to think about your Victory Garden for this Spring, Summer and Fall. If you have any ground at all on which you can raise vegetables, better get set. We're going to need all the food we can produce for our fighting men, our lend-lease clients and ourselves—as your food ration book will eloquently inform you. Get information from your Civilian Defense office, or—perhaps best of all—from the man next door, who has long been a garden fan and will be overjoyed to tell you everything he knows about it. Gardening is a Delightful Hobby.

NEWS-LAUGHS

High over the great mountain ranges of Alaska speeds a flight of R. C. A. F. Kittyhawks, and American fighter planes ready to meet in the air anything the Japs may send against the shores of this northern outpost of the continent.

Each day the aircraft of Canadian and United States forces cover many miles over dangerous mountain country and the lonely waters of the northern Pacific. In the case of a large scale invasion of North America by the Japs, it is probable that these aerial fighters would be out in front to bear the first shock. They have already clashed with strong forces of the Jap and bombed his outposts on a number of occasions.

NOTICE CALLED TO POSTAL RULES

Postal officials throughout the county are asking the public's help in handling the record-breaking amounts of mail being handled by the post offices daily. The mails are so heavy throughout the nation that unless the public adheres to certain regulations proper delivery of mail will become more and more uncertain.

Below are given a few simple postal laws and regulations that should be saved and memorized by all who do any mailing. The Mocksville post office is used for the sake of convenience. The rules apply to all post offices.

1. All mail should be properly addressed, using pen and ink if possible. All letters should have the return address in the upper left corner.

2. All packages must have the return address on them before they will be accepted for mailing. Any message enclosed in a package or written on the outside of the package makes the whole package first class mail and is subject to postage at the rate of 3 cents per ounce or fraction thereof. A package may be sealed and mailed at parcel post rates if it does not contain writing and has a printed label on it stating that it may be opened for postal inspection if necessary.

3. Only packages are insured.

4. Only first class mail is registered.

5. A written letter is first class mail, whether sealed or unsealed and is subject to first class rates.

6. The announcement of the birth of a baby is first class mail whether sealed or unsealed and requires postage at first class rates.

7. Any announcement where the blanks are filled in is also first class mail and requires postage at first class rates.

8. A letter mailed at Mocksville and addressed to someone on one of the routes requires postage at the rate of 2 cents per ounce or fraction thereof.

The same applies if the letter is mailed on a Mocksville route and the address of the letter is Mocksville.

9. A letter dropped in the Mocksville post office and is addressed to someone who calls at the same post office for his mail requires postage at the rate of 1 cent per ounce or fraction thereof, provided the letter is sealed.

10. Postal employees are not required to address mail for their patrons.

11. Postal employees are not required to write cards or letters for their patrons except in emergency.

12. All letters or cards should be stamped when mailed.

13. All patrons should keep a supply of stamps and cards on hand.

14. Only first class mail can be forwarded without additional postage.

15. Insured packages that are fragile must be packed in two boxes (a box within a box).

16. Packages, the contents of which are fragile or perishable, should have the words Fragile or Perishable written on the outside.

17. Packages containing butter should be marked Butter.

18. Packages containing books should be marked Books since they have a special postage rate.

19. Air mail rates are 6 cents per ounce or fraction thereof, anywhere in the United States.

20. The present air mail rates to boys in service whose address is APO in care of any postmaster in the United States is 6 cents per half ounce or fraction thereof.

21. No third class mail is accepted for boys overseas.

22. Second class mail is accepted for mailing to boys overseas only when it is mailed by the publisher.

23. No air mail is accepted for overseas that exceeds 2 ounces in weight.

24. No package that exceeds 5 pounds in weight and 36 inches in girth will be accepted for mailing overseas.

25. No package can be accepted for mailing to boys overseas unless the articles are requested by the boy and the request for same signed by his battalion commander.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends each food creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. Albino Now in Museum

Above is the albino 'possum and former owner, S. M. Call, of Mocksville, who has given the animal to the state museum. It is the third albino in 50 years the state has received. Mr. Call acquired the albino, which was caught near Elkin, in 1941. It weighed about seven pounds when he got it. He kept it two years to give to the state. It now weighs ten pounds and was presented to the state by B. C. Brock on behalf of the owner. The albino is now in a cage but shortly will be mounted as a museum specimen. The above picture was made by The Enterprise when Mr. Call first acquired the rarity.

WAR NEWS

BOMBING HEAVY BY BRITAIN

RAF bombers have stepped up the pace of bombings of industrial Germany, Italy and France. General Andrews, an airman, has been placed in command of U. S. troops in Europe and it is expected that the American fliers will shortly intensify their bombings of German-held industries.

RECAP BAN TO BE LIFTED

Auto owners are expected soon to be allowed to have the tires of their cars recapped without government authorization. Periodic inspection of tires, however, will continue.

SHOES ARE RATIONED

Shoes are now rationed. Each person is allowed three pairs a year, about the average heretofore. Stamp 17 in your ration book 1 is good for a pair of shoes between February 9 and June 15. You can transfer the stamp for any member of the family. Exempt are slippers, baby shoes or storm wear such as rubbers and artics. Manufacturers will stop making many special types of footwear. Ladies heels will be limited to two and five-eighths inches high. Four colors only will be made: white, black, tan and russet.

MORE WORKERS, FARMERS NEEDED

Former President Herbert Hoover said this country must shift at least a million men to arms and food production. In the face of home front demands, he doubted the wisdom of 11 million men and women in the armed forces; recommended the furloughing of soldiers and sailors wherever possible to help farmers plant and harvest crops.

Mr. Hoover thought the Allies might knock Germany out of the war in 1944 but that a prudent nation should prepare for three to five years more of war.

MORE FUEL FOR FARM MACHINERY

Farm and mining machinery and equipment producers will hereafter be given more fuel oil for their production. Petroleum distribution order No. 3, which originally imposed a 40 per cent cut on fuel oils for uses other than space heating and hot water heating, has been amended to leave out farm and mining machinery.

NEED MORE COTTON FABRICS

Every major cotton mill in the country has been urged to produce more cotton fabrics and yarns in 1943. Military requirements come first, but there must also be enough cotton fabrics to supply all essential civilian needs. Producers of wool have also been urged to increase production by every means at their command.

PRICE SUPPORT FOR DRY PEAS

To encourage the planting of 725,000 acres of peas, the U. S. department of agriculture will support the price of dry peas at $5.50 for U. S. grade No. 1, and $5.25 for U. S. grade No. 2, per hundred pounds, in bags, F. O. B. country shipping points. Designated varieties are Scotch Green, Alaska, First and Best, Marrowfat, and White Canada. Effective immediately, the food distribution administration will buy dry peas of those varieties at the prices announced.

56 BILLION FOR CIVILIAN NEEDS

It will take about 56 billion dollars worth of goods and services to maintain the civilian needs of this country on a minimum or bedrock basis, according to J. L. Welner, office of civilian supply of WPB. That 56 billion figure is 32 per cent less than the value of goods and services used in 1941.

NO PRICE RISE

Prices of tomatoes, peas, snap beans, and sweet corn are not likely to be higher this year than last, because of the U. S. department of agriculture's program of price support. Growers of these four major canning crops will get prices substantially above those of last year, through government price support, but these prices will not be passed on to the consumer. This is part of the program to stabilize the cost of living.

RENEW "B" AND "C" CARDS BY MAIL

Holders of "B" and "C" gasoline ration coupons may renew them by mail now instead of appearing personally before local war price and rationing boards. Same rules will apply to non-highway uses of gasoline, such as that for farm machinery and industrial equipment.

PRIORITIES ON UNDERWEAR

A "priority list" of heavyweight undergarments, for which standard specifications and prices are being worked out, is being prepared by OPA. The list will comprise kinds of underwear considered most essential for civilian use.

SOLDIERS FAMILY ALLOWANCE

If a soldier's family is not getting their allowance under the servicemen's dependents allowance act, it may be because the soldier has failed to file a formal application for it. Many soldiers declared their intention to file such an application last summer—before application blanks were available. The official war department A. G. O. Form No. 625 must be made out by the soldier and filed with his organization commander.

MORE MUNITIONS

Planes, tanks, guns and other military equipment and supplies that rolled off American assembly lines in December, 1942, was 14 per cent greater than in November, said Donald Nelson, chairman of WPB. It was the greatest volume ever produced by U. S. factories in one month. During 1943 it is planned to produce about twice as much munitions as in 1942.

SUPPORT MILLFEEDS PRICE

Prices of millfeeds will be supported by the Commodity Credit Corporation to four millers at $1.50 per ton below the OPA ceilings. This is part of the USDA's effort to prevent a rise in flour and break prices to the consumer, and to encourage increased production of livestock by keeping a supply of millfeeds available.

MORE ABOUT

Rationing

8-Page Booklet

There are eight pages in the new book, four blue ones and four red ones. The red pages will not concern the consumer now, as they will be used for meat rationing when that begins. Processed foods will be bought with blue coupons only.

To register for war ration book 2 a housewife will first have to count all the canned goods she has on hand except those she has canned herself. She should be able to state how many pounds of coffee she had November 28, the day coffee rationing began. She may register for the whole family at once.

Must Show Ration Book 1

To get into the registration place (probably a school), she must show the household's copies of war ration book 1. No provision has been made for anyone who failed to get the first ration book and cannot give a good reason for not getting it. No coffee stamps must have been removed from books for those under 15 years old when they registered last May. If coffee stamps have been removed through error on book issued to those under 15, additional stamps must be removed from the book held by an adult member of that family. The applicant must declare the number of pounds that she had on hand November 28, and coffee stamps will be removed for the coffee over the amount she was allowed.

After the coffee is taken care of, the housewife will be asked to declare the amount of canned foods she has on hand. A registrar will take this information down on a declaration form and hand it to another registrar, who will also take the housewife's war ration book 1, record the necessary information, hand to the applicant her war ration books 1 and 2. That's all there is to registering for book 2.

A person on furlough from the armed forces for a week or longer may apply at the rationing board for 16 points for each week of his furlough. War ration book 2 will not be issued to service women or men.

By presenting a doctor's certificate to the board, customers whose health requires may get

WOODLEAF NEWS

Uncle Jim Godby is reported very ill at the Lowery hospital. Peat Benson is recovering from an attack of flu that has kept him from his work for several weeks.

Sgt. Norman Wetmore of Miami, Fla., who is stationed at Fort Jackson, S. C., was a visitor for several hours with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Wetmore.

Lieut. (jg) T. L. Patrick, who has been stationed at Hanover, N. H., at Dartmouth university, stopped over at his home, the weekend on his way to Jacksonville, Fla. He is being transferred to Jacksonville as an aerial gunner instructor.

John Bost of Lakehurst, N. J., of the navy and Robert Bost of the army at Fort Jackson have returned to their respective posts after a visit at their home.

Word from T. W. Nesbit, who was inducted in the army last month and sent to Fort Jackson, is that he is now in New Orleans, La., with the railroad battalion being organized on the Southern Railway. He reports the weather very warm and the trees in bloom down there.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gillean moved Monday from the Barnes farm, which was recently sold to C. O. Waller, to the house recently vacated by the Archer family.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Archer and family moved last week to their home near the depot, which they recently purchased from C. O. Swicegood.

Charles Wetmore, who has been attending school at Banner Elk and had enlisted in the naval reserves last fall, was notified to report for duty at Atlanta, Ga., Tuesday February 9. Charles enlisted in the naval air corps and thinks probably he will take his training in Florida.

additional points to buy the amount of processed food they need. In other necessary cases the ration board will exchange certificates for war ration book 2 stamps.

It will be all right to lend the next door neighbor a can of food, provided she pays it back. It will be against the law to give her one outright unless she gives you an equal amount of points.

In case the thing is still hazy, a book of instructions will be given with each family's copies of war ration book 2.

COOLEEMEE P. T. A. PLANS COMMUNITY SUMMER CANNING

The Cooleemee P. T. A. met Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the high school auditorium with the president, Mrs. Baxter Young, presiding. The meeting was opened with the singing of "God Bless America."

The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. Gilles Sexton. Following the reports of the various committees, George E. Smith, principal, discussed the community canning and urged the P. T. A. to sponsor it again this summer. Mesdames A. D. Walters, Arnold Kirk, Miss Inez Hubbard and Mrs. Carl Tatum were appointed as a committee to plan the canning program for the summer.

The president presented a P. T. A. pin to Mrs. Charles Isley in appreciation of her two years service as the first president of the P. T. A.

The school program was explained and discussed by the principal, George E. Smith.

Mrs. Benson's room won the prize for having the most friends and parents present.

Following the business session a Founder's Day program, "Burn, Candle, Burn," was given by the high school girls and directed by Misses Inez Hubbard and Catherine Waggoner, accompanied at the piano by Miss Jennie Lou Peoples.

WAR BOOK 2 REGISTRATION BE NEXT WEEK

School principals met last Saturday to plan registration for ration book No. 2. The following school sites and places will maintain registration centers:

Coolleemee, Cheshires, Center, Fork, Farmington, Davie County Training school, Mocksville High school, Smith Grove, Shady Grove and William R. Davie. Tentative registration hours were set from 2 to 7 p. m., although some principals will likely have hours from 9 a. m. to 7 p. m. On Saturday of registration week the hours will be from 9 a. m. to 7 p. m. Registration begins Monday, February 22, and continues through Saturday, February 27.

There will be needed some voluntary help other than teachers, especially if morning registration hours are to be observed. All persons who will help are asked to get in touch with the principal of their school.

A training period will be held by each principal on Friday, February 19. Also, the principal will announce to his pupils this week his particular plan for conducting the registration.

Persons who will register individually or for family groups must have two things prior to registration:

They must bring with them ration book 1 (sometimes called sugar book) and they must present a declaration or an inventory of all commercially canned goods on hand and a statement of coffee on hand. Home canned products are not required to be reported.

People are requested to register at their nearest registration centers and not go to other places for this purpose.

Those who cannot register in the afternoons or evenings in Mocksville are asked to come between 9:30 a. m. and noon, W. S. Horton, local school principal, requests.

TO EXPLAIN RATIONING

Paul Blackwelder, chairman of the local war price and rationing board, has announced a meeting of all board members, office personnel, school officials and any interested citizens in the court room Thursday, February 18, at 7:30 p. m. G. T. Walker, field rationing officer, will explain the registration which begins Monday and answer questions.

Use Your Return Envelope for Subscriptions

The government has ordered another 10 per cent cut in newsprint for newspapers on April 1. Already some newspapers have "frozen" their circulation to keep within the governmental requirements, as well as reduced the number of pages.

The above is an added reason why newspapers cannot carry subscriptions that are in arrears; only those paid in advance.

As a convenience to subscribers, we notify everybody when their subscription is expiring. Enclosed is a return envelope to send the money.

We do not wish to cut anybody off our mailing list. So please mail your subscription money promptly in the return envelope—or stop by the office.

HERE & THERE

STRAY COWS

Harley Walker, local undertaker, woke up Tuesday morning to find three cows in his back yard. From whence they came he knoweth not, nor why nor how. There was no manna in his back yard. One is a large animal, thought to be Guernsey; other two are heifers, breed unidentified. All have yokes, however, and Mr. Walker thinks they broke out of the pasture. The owner may recover them by paying for this ad and payment is a donation to the American Red Cross 1943 war fund drive which begins March 1. Make payment to J. C. Sanford, chairman, and let the value of three cows nowadays weigh heavily on the donor's conscience when he pays the reward.

STATE TAX HELP

Ben S. Houston of Statesville will be at the office of the clerk of superior court, S. H. Chaffin, all day on March 4 to assist taxpayers in filing their state income tax.

BARN BURNS

An unused barn belonging to the Presbyterian manse here burned Tuesday afternoon. It caught from trash that was being burned nearby.

DAIRY MEET NEXT WEEK

A. C. Kimrey, extension dairyman of State college, will be in Davie next week and a series of meetings have been scheduled as follows, it is announced by D. C. Rankin, county agent:

8:30 p. m., Tuesday, February 23, White's Community building.
10 a. m., Wednesday, February 24, Wade Groce's home.
2 p. m., Wednesday, February 24, N. B. Dyson's home.
8:30 p. m., Wednesday, February 24, Davie academy.
2 p. m., Thursday, February 25, D. B. Miller's home.
8:30 p. m., Thursday, February 25, Fork Community building.
10 a. m., Friday, February 26, Smith Grove school building.
These meetings will cover all phases of dairying, and a set of color pictures, most of which were made within the county, will be used in the meetings.

AVIATION CADET

Charles Gordon Stonestreet, son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Stonestreet, of Mocksville, is now an aviation cadet at the army air forces pre-flight school for pilots at Maxwell Field, Ala. He enlisted on June 11, 1942; was appointed an aviation cadet on October 20 at Greenville, S. C.; began his pre-flight course at Maxwell Field January 31, 1943.

As a special service to its readers, the Enterprise prints this form which must be filled out for every man, woman and child making an application for war ration book No. 2. This form may be completed at home and taken to local rationing board registration places during the week of Feb. 22-27. When registering, ration book No. 1—now used for sugar and coffee—must be taken to the registration place with the form above. Filling in this form at home will save time and avoid standing in line during registration.

U. S. TROOPS SUFFER LOSS AFRICA FIGHT

American troops received a setback which may cause them to abandon all of central Tunisia. In the fiercest and bloodiest fighting of the Tunisian war, the Americans fell back 35 miles from Faid pass to the outskirts of Sbeitla, 38 miles east of Algeria.

The Americans lost three airfields to Romel who is using 50-ton Mark VI tanks. Anti-tank artillery was reported as barely denting the front armor of these tanks.

This new development of the Tunisian fighting does not mean that the Americans have lost any major battle but that Gen. Eisenhower has not chosen the site of the present fighting for a pitched battle. The big fight in Tunisia is yet to come.

U. S. ON DEFENSIVE IN TUNISIA

In Tunisia Rommel launched a sudden drive Sunday morning against points held by Americans in south central Tunisia. Using tanks and dive bombers, Rommel's seasoned forces advanced 18 miles west of Faid pass. The American-held southern anchor of Gafsa, 60 miles southwest of Faid pass, is in grave danger of being encircled.

Later in the week it was announced that the Americans had abandoned Gafsa. In a counterattack west of Faid Pass American tank forces and combat teams threw the Germans back six miles. Both sides were reported to have suffered heavy casualties.

KHARKOV ALSO FALLS

In continued sensational advances the Russians last Sunday captured Rostov, gateway to the Caucasus, and Voroshilovgrad, important industrial center of the Donbas. This is the fourth time Rostov has changed hands and military observers regarded this Don port, which was the southern anchor of the German line in Russia, as one of half a dozen places which the Nazis had to hold at all costs or admit disaster.

The Russians also announced on Tuesday that they had recaptured Kharkov, the Russian Pittsburgh and industrial capital of the Ukraine. Hitler took Kharkov on October 25, 1941, and its reconquest is the greatest Russian victory since Hitler invaded that country.

In retaking Kharkov the Russians routed tens of thousands of the best troops Hitler had, including an entire corps of the SS combat troops which included two tank divisions named "The Adolf Hitler" and "The Reich"; a motorized division named "Great Germany" and a number of infantry divisions and special units.

It is now clear that the Germans will have to establish a new defense line and some observers think they will be forced behind the Dneiper river before the winter Russian campaign ends with the spring thaws. It is now reported that it is raining along the Russian front, which

4-H Clubs Select Victory Projects

The "4-H Mobilization For Victory" campaign among 5000, 000 boys and girls in North Carolina is now in the stage of local organization, says L. R. Harrill, 4-H Club Leader at N. C. State College. Recruits for the junior army of food production and food conservation soldiers have been signed up and local club leaders are being selected. Programs for the year will be outlined and each boy and girl will take a project.

Gardening, meat production, dairying, poultry, small fruits, food and nutrition, food preservation, clothing, and home management are the most important projects open to club members.

In a statement this week to 4-H boys and girls Mr. Harrill said that the men of the Army Navy, Marine, Coast Guard, Air Force and other branches are giving all of their strength and vitality to defend the freedom and continued existence of this country. Those who remain at home must do their fighting on the home front.

"We must see to it," he said, "that these men have all the supplies of food, clothing, munitions and necessary equipment needed to wage a successful and victorious war."

There were 100,000 North Carolina boys and girls in the club forces last year and it is hoped that this army can be increased to 150,000 this year, Mr. Harrill said.

County AAA Committees To Operate Grain Bins

Operation of grain bins by county AAA committees throughout the state should prove particularly beneficial to small livestock and poultry feeders at a time when feed grains often are difficult to obtain, according to G. T. Scott, chairman of the State AAA Committee.

These bins, each with a capacity of 900 bushels, are being furnished County AAA Committees by the Commodity Credit Corporation for storage of CCC grain at no cost to the committees. A total of 81 bins already has been ordered by 15 counties and additional orders are being received each day at the State AAA Office, he said.

"Operation of these bins will enable the county committees to reserve a supply of feed grains on hand at all times," Scott said. "The Commodity Credit Corporation now is offering wheat for the use as feed at $1.02 per bushel, but it is delivered only in carload lots. Many feeders do not have facilities for keeping this much grain on hand, and they can obtain small quantities from their county committees at cost, plus a small handling charge. This charge is averaging five to seven cents per bushel. This enables farmers to obtain feed wheat at any time they are in town for other purposes and thus conserve farm transportation facilities."

In addition to storing feed grain, the bins will be used later in the year for storing wheat or soybeans.

MONEY

New Control Guide For Vegetable Insects

For the benefit of Victory gardeners in North Carolina, the Extension Service of State College has issued War Series Extension Bulletin No. 13, which deals with vegetable insects and their control under present conditions. Many of the insecticides commonly used in controlling garden insects are now very scarce, says J. Myron Maxwell, author of the publication, and this means altered recommendations and the use of other materials.

In the publication the Extension entomologist gives directions for preparing insecticides. Descriptions of common insects attacking each vegetable and given and also the type of injury caused by each insect. Opposite the description of an insect can be found the method of control of prevention of damage with reference to the type of dust or spray to be used. Thirteen formulas for insecticides and twenty-three different vegetables are covered in the information given.

A free copy of the publication may be obtained by writing to

Cotton Crop Insurance Program Mapped for '43

Plans for offering 1943 crop insurance to every cotton producer in North Carolina have been completed and will be in operation in every cotton producing county of the state within a few days, according to Tom M. Cornwell, Cleveland county farmer and a member of the state AAA committee.

The 1943 insurance program was explained to field officers of the AAA and others by officials of the Federal Crop Insurance corporation at a meeting held at the state AAA office at Raleigh.

Yields which may be insured and premium rates already have been compiled and now are in county AAA offices where applications may be made until April 1.

"This insurance is not designed to make money for either the farmer or the Crop Insurance corporation," Cornwell said. "It is offered as a part of the national farm program to protect the farmer against partial or total loss of income in years when he has a crop failure due to any cause beyond his control."

Under the program, cotton producers have the option of insuring either 50 or 75 per cent of their normal yields against losses from such causes as floods, drought, hail, windstorm, insect damage, and fire. The program this year also covers losses caused from wartime shortage of labor, machinery, and materials during the growing period which it is impossible for the producer to overcome.

Cotton insurance was offered for the first time in North Carolina last year, and more than

PARDUE HELD IN CALIFORNIA

Harvey "Pee Wee" Pardue, wanted as the second man in the robbery early in December of Mrs. Bessie Myers, at Cycle, has been apprehended by the F. B. I. in California, according to information received by Sheriff A. L. Inscore.

Johnny Dobbins, who was convicted at the last term of Yadkin criminal court of participating in the robbery in which about $1,500 in cash and a nearly new automobile were taken from the Cycle woman, signed a statement in court naming Pardue as the leader in the holdup.

It is understood that Pardue, who has a long criminal record in different parts of the country, is wanted in Wilkes county among other places in the state.

Dobbins said that Pardue went to the scene of the holdup and pulled the job, allowing him to serve as lookout. Later, he said, they united and Pardue pretended to give him his fifty-fifty cut in the money. Actually, he said, Pardue gave him only $150, or 10 per cent of the "proceeds." Dobbins spent practically all of his roll in traveling and living expenses in the short time he went free after the holdup.

It is understood that the F.

109 MEN LEAVE FOR CAMP IN FEB., MARCH

Fifty-four Yadkin selectees have been notified to report for military training during the latter part of this month, Troy W. Martin, Yadkin selective service board clerk, said today. The March quota calls for 55 men, Martin said, and the local board is having difficulty in supplying the number due to the ever increasing demands for farm deferments.

FARM QUESTIONS ARE ANSWERED

Q. What are some of the more profitable herb crops?

A. Economically, according to L. G. McLean, State college horticulturist, sage should be placed at the top of the list. Then, in order, would follow corianda, mustard, fennel, basil, dill and sesame. Belladonna is another herb of great value now because it is needed in great quantities by the armed forces. At least twice as much of this herb is now needed than can be supplied. Any grower interested in the production of herbs is invited to get in touch with Mr. McLean at State college.

Q. How should wheat be fed to dairy cows?

A. John A. Arey, extension dairyman, says the wheat should be ground coarse or rolled before given to the cow. If it is ground fine, it will tend to form an undesirable sticky mass in the cow's mouth. However, the dairyman explained, mixing it with other feed largely eliminates this trouble.

Q. What are good varieties of soybeans for North Carolina conditions?

A. Agronomist A. D. Stuart says results from last year's variety tests indicated that Wood's Yellow, Tokio, Arksoy, and Her-man are still among the best obtainable. However, a new variety from Tennessee—Ogden—has been outstanding. It is high-yielding, low-growing, branching, green-seeded and partially non-shattering. It is similar to the Tokio variety in being able to set a good crop of seed under adverse conditions.

MORE ABOUT

may presage an early spring that would hamper Russian operations.

DETAILS OF GUADALCANAL

The battle for Guadalcanal, which ended at sundown Wednesday, February 10, represents a complete American victory. Just six months after the Marines' initial invasion of the island, American forces surrounded the last remaining Japanese, captured large amounts of armaments and equipment, and took unchallenged control of the entire island. The conclusion of the fighting was announced by Maj. Gen. Alexander Patch, Commander of American forces in the Solomons.

The strategy which forced Japanese capitulation was described by Secretary of War Stimson. A flanking movement was carried out at sea with naval support, and U. S. army forces were landed at the Northeast tip of the island. After this landing, accomplished about February 14-15, the Japanese were pinned on a 15-mile strip of beach near Cape Esperance. The American forces which landed west of the Japanese, and other American troops approaching overland from the East, joined on February 9 at Cape Esperance after overcoming the Japanese forces.

The value of this victory was outlined recently by Secretary of the Navy Knox. Complete American domination of Guadalcanal, said Mr. Knox, has both negative and positive value. It brings U. S. forces within striking distance of some of Japan's most important bases, and it denies to the Japanese the opportunity to raid U. S. communications in the area.

In a communique this week the navy cleared up the recent mystery about the anticipated heavy sea-air battle when it was thought the Jap would try again to retake Guadalcanal. The Japs instead brought up heavy naval units to evacuate their troops and in actions during January 29-February 4 the Japs lost 17 ships sunk or damaged and 63 planes. We lost the 9,050-ton heavy cruiser Chicago, a destroyer and 22 planes.

OTHER PACIFIC FIGHTING

But Guadalcanal is not the only victory the U. S. has won in the South Pacific. A little better than two weeks ago, General MacArthur announced the crushing of the last organized enemy resistance in Papuan New Guinea, and Papua became the first complete geographical unit to be won back from the Japanese. Since that time, U. S. forces have been moving north along the north-eastern coast of New Guinea, preparing for the next step in the campaign—the battle of the Huon gulf. On Thursday, February 11, a communique from General MacArthur's headquarters reported that Allied troops, charging under cover of a heavy artillery barrage, hurled the main Japanese force six miles back in the Wau region of the north-eastern New Guinea front, inflicting one of the severest setbacks the Japanese have had since they moved against Wau airdrome from Mubo, approximately 23 miles to the northeast.

Air warfare continues in the Pacific, with U. S. army and navy planes attacking Munda on New Georgia island, Celebes in the Dutch East Indies, Kolumbangara island in the New Georgia group, and Kiska in the Aleutians. A New Dutch squadron is now operating with General MacArthur's air forces, and last week this squadron was part of a formation that sank or damaged six Japanese ships and shot down five or six intercepting planes in a series of shattering attacks on an 1,800-mile front covering the entire Australian zone.

12,000 A DAY BE INDUCTED

War Manpower Head McNutt and General Hershhey, head of selective service, said last Saturday night that 12,000 men per day must go into the armed forces this year and that no man 18 to 38 can be deferred, regardless of dependents, unless his work is essential and he is irreplaceable.

TUNISIA WILL COST MANY CASUALTIES

The battle of Tunisia will cost this country many casualties, President Roosevelt said last Friday night in a speech. The Allied nations now have 500,000 men in Africa and General Eisenhower has been placed in supreme command of all Allied forces in this area where hard and bloody fighting is expected before the Axis is driven out of Africa.

INVASION OF EUROPE

Churchill said in Commons that the invasion of Europe would come within nine months and President Roosevelt said the attack would come from many directions. "The enemy must be hit and hit hard from so many directions that he never knows which is his bow and which is his stern," the President said.

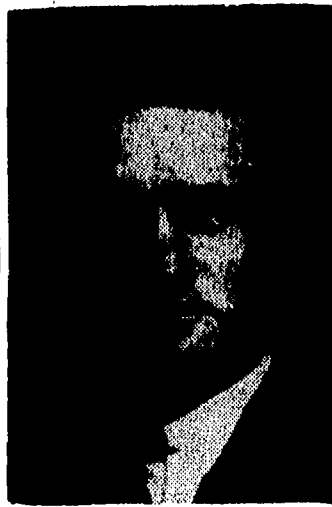

POSSIBLE POINTS OF INVASION

Here are the possible points of invasion: Greece; Italy; Sicily, Sardinia and Corsica; Spain; Norway; Denmark; Belgium and the Netherlands; western coast of France.

JAPS TO GET IT, TOO

President Roosevelt also indicated that this country would not try to beat Japan by inching forward island by island but that actions will be taken to drive the Japs from China. "Important actions against the Japanese will be taken in the skies over China—and over Japan itself," the President said.

Guernsey Director

Paul B. Blackwelder, above, was elected a director of the North Carolina Guernsey Breeders association at their annual meeting in Greensboro last week. Mr. Blackwelder is general manager of the Twin Brook farm here. Associated with J. C. Sanford, the farm is the county's outstanding Guernsey producer.

HERE AND THERE

WEATHER

Winter's coldest wave hit this section over the weekend, temperatures dropping to between 6 and 10 degrees. The cold wave was accompanied by a biting wind on Sunday and Monday.

MOTHER DIES

The mother of Mrs. P. H. Mason of Mocksville, Mrs. Hattie Charles Wall, 76, died last Sunday evening at her home in Wallburg. She and Mr. Wall celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1938. Survivors include the husband, seven daughters, three sons, 30 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. The funeral was held Wednesday.

WAAC HEAD

Miss Florence Mackie, home demonstration agent, has been appointed chairman of the WAAC civilian committee of Mocksville and will handle the drive in all sections of the county.

GOOD POLIO DRIVE

E. C. Morris, chairman, reports that Davie raised $409.81 in the infantile paralysis drive. The county quota was $360. A total of $204.90 has been sent the national foundation and the remaining half will stay in the county for use here.

AVIATION CADETS, WAAC'S

Seventeen-year-old youths may now enlist in the U. S. army air force reserve. They will be called within the first six months after they reach 18. WAAC's are also needed, must be between 21 and 44. For information and application blanks in either branch of the service, get in touch with the army recruiting and induction station, Postoffice building, Winston-Salem. Sgt. John W. Giddens, Jr., is in charge and makes the above announcements.

MERIT EXAMS

Merit examinations for positions in the state board of charities and public welfare and county welfare departments are to be held soon. Application blanks may be secured from the Merit System Supervisor, Box 2928, Durham, N. C., and must be filed before March 1.

WHEN THE SOLDIERS COME HOME

The President emphasized that the object of the Allies was to fight hard on all fronts to win the war as soon as possible on the uncompromising terms of unconditional surrender. He also said that a fundamental of an effective peace was that when the soldiers come home they will find a country with an economy firm enough and fair enough to provide jobs for all those who are willing to work. He felt certain that private industry would be able to provide the vast majority of those jobs and that where it cannot be accomplished, Congress will pass legislation which make good the assurance of jobs.

FDA WILL PAY FARMERS 34 CENTS FOR BEST EGGS

Raleigh—Farmers will be assured 34 cents per dozen for best eggs by the food distribution administration until further notice in order to assure fair prices during the flush egg season, G. Hillman Moody, state supervisor of FDA, said.

Starting this week, and continuing as long as necessary, FDA will buy fresh eggs in lots as small as ten cases at prices of 34 cents at Raleigh and Asheville for grade "A" large eggs; grade "B," 32 cents, and grade "C" 29 cents. Medium price will be 30 cents.

Twenty-three official buying stations have been contracted with others to be named soon, Moody said.

Dealers cooperating in this program may sell the eggs to army camps, defense plants and local trade, but in any event FDA stands ready to buy eggs at the announced price, plus four cents per dozen for handling, Moody said.

Nutrition Classes

To Begin in March

Those people in Mocksville who wish to be enrolled in the Red Cross nutrition class, which will begin March 2, are asked to register with Miss Mackie by February 24. The class will not begin unless as many as 20 people register. It is necessary that all of the names be in by February 24 so that members may be notified where to meet by March 2. Only ten meetings of two hours each are necessary to complete the course. The class is to be taught by Mrs. Leslie Daniel.

Some of the topics to be discussed are:

The relation of food to physical and mental strength, nervous condition, courage and morale.

The importance of good individual and family food and health habits.

What is an adequate diet?

The body regulators—minerals and vitamins.

Buying good diets.

Diet variations—wartime needs and other topics of equal interest.

Mrs. Leslie Daniel, county nutrition chairman, states that all of the home economics teachers in the county have been asked to begin similar classes in their respective communities. In order to improve the nutrition of America, the nutrition of a community must be improved and this improvement must begin in the home. This is one more responsibility for the homemaker.

GETS COMMISSION

James Stonestreet, son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Stonestreet, of Mocksville, received his commission as a second lieutenant at Camp Lee, Va., on February 12. He is spending ten days with his parents before reporting back to Camp Lee for orders.

FUEL OIL RESTRICTIONS

The local war price and rationing board has received instructions from Van F. Leach, fuel oil officer of Atlanta, Ga., that no more fuel oil will be issued to business houses at the present time.

Kappa Home Club Meets

The Kappa Home Demonstration club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. H. C. Jones, Mrs. Reid Towell and Miss Julia Foster as hostesses. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Towell. After the reading of the minutes of the last meeting 19 members answered to the roll call. The hostesses then presented the following program:

"My Darling Black Mustache," a song, Mrs. H. C. Jones, Mrs. Reid Towell.

"My First Valentine," a reading, Mrs. H. C. Jones.

Growing Old, a reading, Miss Alice Smoot.

George Washington's Life, sketches, Mrs. Ernest Koontz, Mrs. Ernest Lagle, Mrs. Fred Cartner.

Mr. Rankin then presented a group of pictures on poultry, which was very interesting. After the month's lesson, "Three Meals a Day," the club adjourned to meet again the 11th of March. The lesson will be "Quick and Sure Methods of Making a Dress."

PINO GRANGE HOLDS MEET

Pino Community Grange held its regular meeting February 18 with Overseer S. W. Furches presiding in the absence of Master C. H. McMahan. The following were elected to membership: Mr. and Mrs. D. K. McClamrock, their son, Billy, and Martha Rose Miller.

As one feature of the program, Mrs. S. W. Furches explained ration book 2.

Other features of the program were a talk about the WAAC by Annette McCleskey; a quiz, made up of famous quotations by Wade Groce, and a poem by Hazel Sharp.

Refreshments, served by Annie Lois Furches and D. C. Rankin, were enjoyed during the social hour, as well as a number of games.

The theme of the program for the next regular meeting on March 1 is vegetable gardening. Members are asked to bring their best garden hints to share with neighbors and questions concerning gardening which they wish answered.

State College Hints For Farm Homemakers

All these years you have been eating turnips and turnip greens, but did you know just how many vitamins they contained? Turnip greens supply vitamin A, several of the B-vitamins and vitamin C.

When it comes to turnips, rutabagas rate slightly higher in food value than white turnips. They contain no vitamin A but do give you a generous supply of vitamin B-1 and vitamin C, riboflavin and niacin. Rutabagas also are slightly richer in carbohydrates and minerals than the white turnips.

There are many ways of saving soap which will help in the war effort. Keep soap dry after each use and use only as much as is needed to overcome the hardness of the water.

Use a soap shaker for soap scraps and pour boiling water over them in a bowl. The resulting jelly kept near the sink can be used in washing dishes and clothes.

For the bath, small bits of soap in a thin bag are just as good as a large cake of soap. A thin cake can be pressed onto a larger cake when both are wet and the small cake will become a part of the larger one.

People, Spots In The News

HUMAN ICE-BREAKERS—Up to attempts in ice-choked water, these U. S. Navy ground crew members guide PBV patrol bomber to its base somewhere in Alaska.

PIN CHAMP—Nina Van Camp demonstrates form which enabled her to set new world's pin record for women at bowling championships held recently in Chicago, where she chalked up total of 1,920 in nine games. Her season's average has been in one-nineties.

SYNTHETIC RUBBER—B. F. Goodrich, who said they'd be available "after synthetic production has met military needs."

TURKEY FOOT

Mrs. C. C. Trivette spent Thursday with her mother, Mrs. Wright Shoemaker, near Union Grove. Mrs. Shoemaker is improving after being ill for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Renegar are moving to the R. C. Foster farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Harris and daughter, Phyllis, spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Renegar.

DAVIE QUOTA FOR RED CROSS PUT AT $4,800

By J. C. SANFORD
(Chairman, Davie County Red Cross War Fund Campaign)

The month of March has been set aside for the American National Red Cross for a drive for funds for the coming year and the people of America are asked to contribute more than twice what was contributed last year as the responsibilities of the Red Cross will be more than doubled.

The quota of the Winston-Salem chapter, under which Davie county works, is $113,000 and, of this amount, Davie county is asked to raise $4,800, which we can do if every citizen in our county does his or her duty.

With the number of boys who are now serving the United States in the capacity of soldiers, sailors, marines, coast guards and air corps, we would think this war fund, asked for by the Red Cross, would appeal to us as citizens of Davie county as never before. Our commander-in-chief, President Roosevelt, has already warned us that we may expect some dark days before victory is ours.

The first three weeks in March, the radios which are now carrying the message of war bonds will be carrying the message of Red Cross. Advertisements will appear in the leading newspapers and magazines and anyone interested can get the full story of what the Red Cross is trying to do for our boys in the service.

LOCAL DRIVE MARCH 15

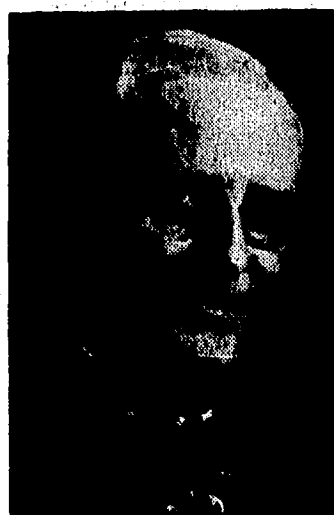

Due to certain conditions beyond our control, the drive for funds in Davie county will not start until March 15, at which time each community in the county will be organized and a chairman appointed to carry this drive through to a successful conclusion. It is our desire and hope and intention to give every citizen of Davie county an opportunity to contribute. If we are to raise the $4,800, which is our quota, then we will have to receive some contributions of $100, some of $50, many of $25 and many more of $10 and $5. This drive will be the only drive made during the year and will take the place of the usual membership drive as well as the contribution drive.

We trust that each and everyone will think most seriously on this most serious subject and decide in their own mind what their share will be. The responsibility of the success or failure of this drive rests with each citizen of our county and we are sure we would not want to be classed as a county which had failed to measure up to what was expected of us during this all-out war in which we are engaged today and in which we may be engaged for several years to come.

Read your newspaper and listen to your radio, beginning March 1. You will get the full story from some of the most able

Sewing Room Opened Tuesday

Mrs. J. W. Davis, chairman of the Mocksville Red Cross production room, announces that the sewing room opened Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. H. Thompson in charge in the afternoon and Mrs. Z. N. Anderson in the evening. On Thursday Mrs. Charles Tomlinson was on duty in the afternoon and Miss Martha Call in the evening.

The production room has received material for 38 blouses and 12 pairs of overalls. Mrs. Davis asks that all women in Mocksville who are interested in helping come on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons and evenings to the sewing room located in the filling station on the square.

We'd say these bean patch "orgies" will come nearer getting the participants canned than the beans.

Test Engineer

John J. Larew, Jr., above, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Larew, of Mocksville, recently left for Bridgeport, Conn., where he is a test engineer with General Electric company following his graduation from Georgia Tech. For the past two years he was on the honor roll at school, a member of the Eta Kappa Nu honorary fraternity, member of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers and the Institute of Radio Engineers, on the staff of the "Blue Print" and vice president of the Tech Bible class.

HERE & THERE

BONDS SOLD

Knox Johnstone, county chairman, reports that Davie had sold $17,850 worth of war bonds from February 1 to February 13. The February quota is $27,036.

URNS IN PENNIES

A. J. Anderson of Route 1 turned in 1,400 copper pennies this week at the local postoffice. He had been saving them for 20 years.

CLERK HIRE

R. V. Alexander, Davie representative, introduced a bill in Raleigh on February 17 which would authorize the expenditure of $50 a month for additional clerk hire for each office of the clerk of superior court and register of deeds in Davie county.

CAN GET RECAPS

The local rationing board has been notified that passenger car and light truck owners can now get recapped tires for their vehicles without a rationing certificate. The recaps available are grade F camelbacks.

LOST IN ACTION

Lester W. J. Daniels of Harmony, son of Roy Daniels, of Mocksville, is reported missing in the North American area since February 2, according to the war department. His wife and two children are living in Harmony and it is understood that he was engaged in construction work.

AT CAMP PICKETT

Houston F. Hockaday of Mocksville is now stationed at the U. S. army's medical replacement center at Camp Pickett, Va.

SEEKS RECRUITS

Sgt. John W. Giddens, Jr., recruiting officer, will be in Mocksville Friday afternoon from 3:30 to 4:40 in the postoffice building to interview any 17-year-old youths who are interested in enlisting in the U. S. army air force reserves and girls between the ages of 21 and 44, who are interested in joining the WAACS.

SAVE YOUR GREASE

All housekeepers in Mocksville are asked to save their grease, strain it and have it ready for the Mocksville Girl Scouts to collect Saturday, March 6.

WAR STAMPS SOLD

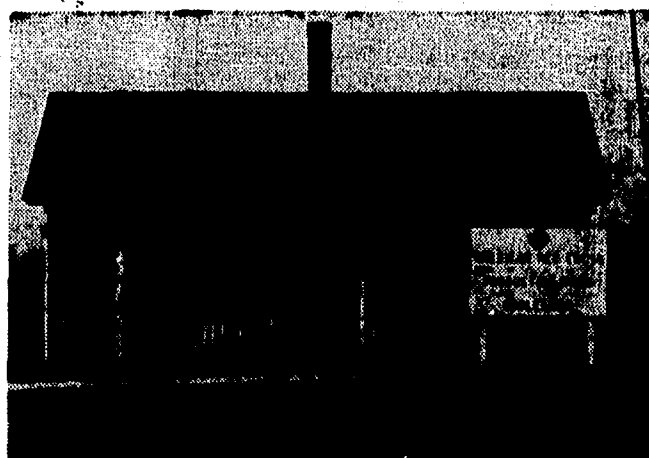

Mocksville Girl Scouts sell war saving stamps at the booths in Mocksville every Saturday for the duration, Mrs. W. H. Kimrey, Scout leader, announces.

BLACKOUT

This vicinity had a surprise practice blackout Tuesday night, the first under the new air raid warning system. Dr. P. H. Mason, local air raid warden, said many people confused the signals. In this week's paper is a chart showing the details of the signals. The all-clear local signal will be merely turning on of street lights, in addition to radio announcement.

The real home stretch from now on will be making your canned foods do.

Coolseemee Red Cross Production Room

Actively engaged in the making of overalls, civilian war relief goods, sewing and knitting are members of the Red Cross production committee for the Davie county unit of the Winston-Salem chapter. Production chairman for the county is Miss Florence Mackie, and production chairman for Coolseemee is Mrs. S. A. Carnes. Mrs. W. P. Kavanaugh, Mrs. J. E. McNeely and Mrs. W. R. Wands are other members of the Coolseemee committee.

The group has converted the former office of Dr. W. P. Kavanaugh into a production room and collected furnishings for it. Dr. Kavanaugh is now in service, the building being loaned to the Red Cross by the Erwin Cotton mills. In addition to production work, the group has also formed a first aid detachment in the Coolseemee mills and is organizing home nursing classes.

R. S. Proctor is Red Cross chairman for Davie county and Mrs. Maggie Calhoun is vice chairman.

NAME JURORS FOR COURT

The following jurors have been drawn for the March term of superior court here which opens on March 16 with Judge John H. Clement presiding:

ATTEND FUNERAL

A delegation of the local American Legion post attended the funeral of Henry I. Ingram, state commander, in Asheboro, Tuesday. In the delegation were Hillary Arnold, commander, Robert S. McNeill, Dr. P. Mason and Grady Ward. The service was a military funeral, attended by a crowd of some 1,500, and there were an exceedingly large number of floral tributes, including one from the local post.

Promoted

George A. Boger, above, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rena Boger, of Route 2, was recently promoted to a corporal. He was inducted last November and is stationed at Camp Van Dorn, Miss. He is married to the former Miss Edith Brown.

ALLIES DRIVE ROMMEL BACK TUNISIA FIGHT

American and British troops, reinforced by 40-ton "Churchill" tanks, were reported to have thrown Rommel's forces back 14 miles in central Tunisia. Rommel's armored columns were said to have retreated to within three miles of the Kasserine gap.

Allied planes of all kinds, including Flying Fortresses, were stated to be delivering the heaviest blows of the Tunisian campaign. General Eisenhower said that heavy casualties were being inflicted on the enemy and the German radio claimed that the Axis had captured 4,016 prisoners, including more than 3,000 Americans, during the first eight days of Rommel's offensive. Berlin also claimed they had taken 253 tanks, 171 armored transport vehicles, 118 guns, 60 heavy guns and 15 planes during this period.

ALLIES FALL BACK IN TUNISIA

American forces suffered a damaging blow by Rommel in central Tunisia when Kasserine Pass was lost last Sunday. This opens the way for an enemy stroke towards Thala, which is the indicated junction area of the British first army in the north and the French forces in the center. Thala is only 40 miles east of Tebessa, a critical railway feeder point for the British eighth army.

Rommel's plans, according to observers, appear to be to deliver a knockout blow against the British first army in the north before the eighth army can break through or bypass the Mareth line in the south.

STALIN CITES RED SUCCESSES

In an order of the day on the 25th birthday of the Red army, Stalin said Russia was bearing alone the weight of the war in the absence of a second front in Europe and that in 20 months they had put out of action 9,000,000 of the enemy, including 4,000,000 killed.

In the last three months the Russians have routed 112 enemy divisions, killed more than 700,000 and taken 300,000 prisoners, Stalin said. The Germans had also lost 7,000 tanks, 4,000 planes and 17,000 field guns, he said.

Meanwhile the Red armies continue to advance on four vast battle fronts from Orel, which is now threatened to the thawing Kuban valley.

BEDROCK ECONOMY AT HOME

On the assumption of a long war, the office of civilian supply of the WPB has made the following tentative estimates of what civilians can get along on if they have to:

Civilians could get along on 71.8 per cent of the food, 54.9 per cent of the beverages, 64 per cent of the clothing of the dollar volume consumed in 1941. They could get along on 51.6 per cent of the travel, 50 per cent of the telegraph, cable and wireless services, 80 per cent of the telephones, 50 per cent of funeral and burial expenses, 60 per cent of barber and beauty shop services, 65 per cent of cleaning, dyeing, altering and repairs in commercial shops, 100 per cent of laundry services, on curtains and draperies, no carpet sweepers, lawn mowers, window shades, mechanical refrigerators, sewing machines, washing machines, flatirons and other electrical appliances.

All of the estimates are based on 1941 consumption and it is pointed out that these estimates have not been recommended as a program for curtailment; only what could be done if it had to be done.

CEILINGS ON FIVE VEGETABLES

Last Monday night the government put an emergency price ceiling over five of the country's major fresh vegetables—tomatoes, green and waxed snap beans, carrots, cabbage and peas. No distributor can sell these vegetables at a price higher than he did between February 18 and 22. The ceilings were established to prevent speculative price boosts caused by the demand generated by canned goods rationing. The ceilings do not apply to the grower.

850 LOST BY SUB SINKINGS

The U. S. navy announces that submarines sunk two American cargo ships at night in the North Atlantic early this month. There were 850 casualties who were army and navy officers and men or members of the marine corps and coast guard. Each ship went down in 30 minutes and it is the worst disaster in loss of life this country has suffered

State College Hints For Farm Homemakers

By RUTH CURRENT
(N. C. State College)

Here's a little question on washing a refrigerator that has bothered more than one beginner at housekeeping. "When the directions for cleaning a refrigerator or an ice box call for washing with warm water and soda, does this mean washing soda or baking soda?"

The answer is baking soda or sodium bicarbonate, as it is sometimes called. Use one level tablespoonful to each quart of warm water. Washing soda is too strong, both for the finish of the refrigerator and for your hands. When you defrost a mechanical refrigerator, it is a good time to clean it. After the frost is all melted, take everything out, including the shelves. Empty the drip tray.

Make the soda solution and wash both the inside and outside of the evaporator or freezing unit. Be sure to get all the surfaces free of melted frost.

Clean every part of the inside of the refrigerator in the same thorough way. Clean the shelves, fruit baskets, and the vegetable crisper. Never use harsh, scratchy cleaning powders on the ice cube trays, or on the rubber gasket. You can wash these thoroughly with water and soap. Rinse, and wipe dry. If anything spills on the gasket, wipe it off at once. Take care not to scratch or scuff the rubber.

After you finish cleaning, turn the control back to normal. Fill the ice cube trays to within a quarter of an inch of the top with fresh cold water. See that all food containers are clean and dry as you return them to the shelves. Work fast to keep the refrigerator as cold as possible.

Ann Sheridan opines that the sweater girl is "no hazard at a machine." But not all men are machines.

Tobacco Beds Should Receive Extra Seed

Tobacco grower should immediately remove the canvas from their beds and broadcast from one-half to three-quarters as much seed as was originally sown, advises Extension Agronomist E. R. Collins of N. C. State College. It has been the experience of growers in the past that very cold weather severely damages the young seedlings.

The canvass should be replaced as soon as the beds have been resown, continued Dr. Collins. If the young plant were just coming through the ground when the heavy freezes occurred last week, many were probably killed or left in such a weakened condition that they will not make healthy, fast-growing plants.

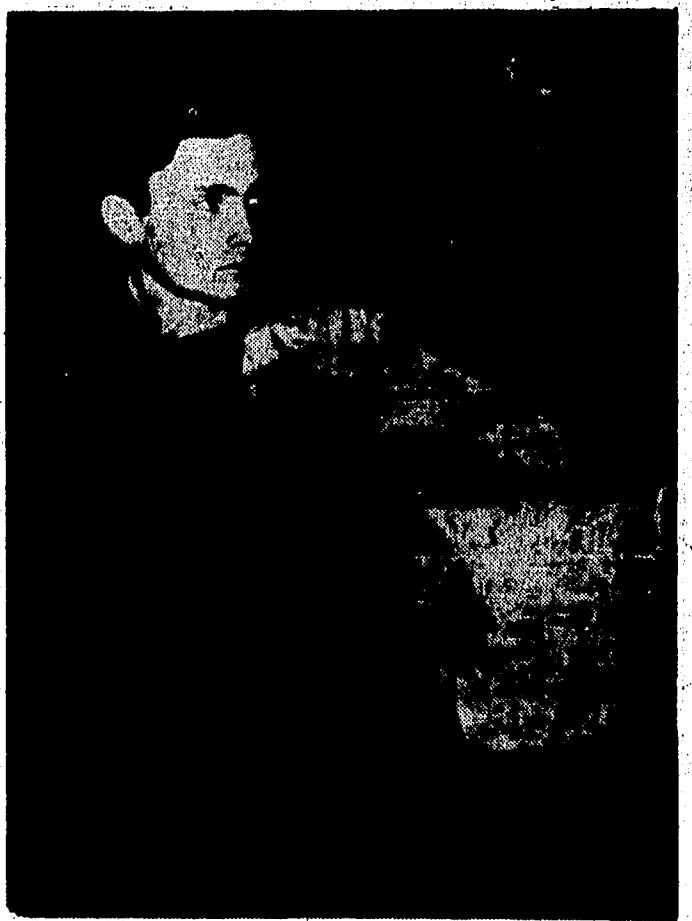

The soil was softened by the freezes and the seed sown now will become imbedded with a light covering favorable to germination. Plants from these seed will grow rapidly when weather conditions are favorable.

If the young seedlings were not killed by the recent freezes, the newly sown seed will not interfere with the early plants. However if the original plants were killed or severely weakened, the new plants from the present sowing will assure the grower of a good stand of vigorous plants.

Many growers consider a good, even stand of fast-growing plants half the battle in producing a high yielding crop of good quality tobacco.

MOBILIZATION

Four H boys and girls throughout North Carolina are mobilizing for food production and conservation. R. W. Murdock, assistant county agent in Durham county, reports an attendance of 800 at two meetings. Onslow county reports a 30 percent increase in membership.

Here is a scene at State college, where unemployed or under-employed farm men and boys are given special training to equip them for places on more productive farms to help in the nation's food production program. There are 32 enrollees from western North Carolina in the current course. A group of 32 were "graduated" ten days ago and placed on farms throughout the state. The board for vocational education assists State college in the program. Workers are recruited by the FSA and the employment service. Here Arnold Eiler of Wilkes county is measuring the "diet" of cows which he attends as part of his training course.

His Lunch Box Is Important

It is important because his health is important and because extra hours of efficient work are important. Let's fill it full of vitamins and make it so appetizing he can't resist it. Why not follow these hints?

Sandwiches:

Don't toast bread to go in boxes. Favor wholewheat and enriched breads.

Soften or cream butter before spreading.

Have all ingredients handy and properly seasoned before making sandwiches.

Wrap neatly in separate pieces of waxed paper to preserve freshness.

Salads and Desserts:

When cooking for the family, don't forget to put individual portions of salads and desserts in short wide-mouthed jelly glasses suitable for packing. Put lettuce leaves on top, never around salads, to preserve crispness.

Liquids:

The wide-mouthed thermos bottle is almost indispensable for soups, hot drinks, stew or other hot foods. Keep it properly cleaned and aired between uses.

Salt and sugar are easily carried in small screw top bottles.

COURTNEY BEGINS DEFENSE CLASSES

Care and repair of farm machinery is now being studied by farmers in the Courtney community, Jack Barns, Courtney school agriculture teacher, said today. Classes are held in the school agriculture building from 4 until 7 o'clock each afternoon, Monday through Thursday.

Many more men can be accommodated, Barns said, and all boys and men, providing they are over 17 years of age and out of school, are urged to attend.

H. M. Todd is teacher of the class.

A similar defense class on ways of increasing milk production is being planned for the Huntsville community, Barns said. The class will be held at the store of Frank Poindexter. The instructor and the time of meeting will be announced within the next few days. All men above 17 and out of school may also attend this class.

LOAN PAYMENTS

Last year farmers repaid a total of $28, 000,000 on loans administered by the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Offices as compared to the $19,500,000 which they borrowed during the year.

MEAT

Under lend-lease to the Allies in 1942, some 1,145,000,000 pounds of meats were laid down at ship-side. Nearly all of the meat delivered was pork and amounted to 9.8 percent of the total U. S. supply.

Start Work On Home Yards and Gardens Now

Don't wait for spring blossoms to remind you, but begin now to clean-up and plan home yards and gardens, urges John H. Harris, Landscape Extension Specialist of N. C. State College. March is the last month before next fall for the planting of fruit trees, grapes, strawberries, dewberries and other small fruits.

Harris points out that rose bushes, fruit trees and diseased shrubs should be sprayed with lime-sulphur. That, trees, shrubs and lawn should be fertilized with manure and perhaps some phosphate. No fertilizer containing inorganic nitrogen can be used for his purpose under present regulations.

As to pruning, he suggests that it be done so as to preserve the natural shape of the plant to be pruned. Flowering plants that bloom before July should not be pruned.

Trees and shrubs should not be allowed to rock around in the wind and wear a hole in the soil around their base. Anchor them with string and stake and keep the soil packed around the roots.

As to spring yard cleaning, he gives the following pointers: Don't burn over the yard and don't use a brush broom. Use a rake to remove the course trash and allow the fine material to remain.

He reminds all gardeners that it is time now to plant water lilies. Use three parts of good soil and one part of well-rotted manure, and cover with a layer of sand to hold the soil in place.

BETHEL

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Foster of Spencer visited Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Foster and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sain Sunday.

Those visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Boger Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Rober Allen and little daughter of Mocksville and Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Rummage and Mrs. B. F. Rummage of Fork.

From where I sit . . .

by Joe Marsh

The other day we were talking about George Washington—who besides being a great general was a surveyor, a farmer, and a wise statesman.

"And he made mighty good beer too," says Grandma Hoskins. "His private recipe's filed in the New York Public Library."

Now Grandma Hoskins knows her history—and she told us how other famous men believed in beer and moderation. William Penn, for instance, who had his own brewery, and James Madison, who "urged the manufacture of beer in every State of the Union."

When the dark years of Prohibition came along, they proved how right those early American statesmen were—that no law ever takes the place of moderation.

They were right about a lot of things—Washington and Adams and Penn—and the others who founded America. And from where I sit they were certainly right about moderation too.

RAYS OF HOPE

ALL night long, light streams from the windows of a railroad station . . . like friendly rays of hope in a darkened world. For this is the night watch on the Southern Railway System.

It's quiet . . . for a moment. But only for a moment.

Soon a headlight will pierce the darkness. Soon another troop train will come thundering by. Or another train of oil and coal cars. Or another fast Southern freight, loaded with guns and tanks and food and tools of war.

Then a proud smile will light the face of the railroad man on the night watch. For he knows that the trains rushing by in increasing numbers are carrying fighting freight and fighting men toward certain Victory . . . toward a Victory to which he and his co-workers on the Southern Railway are making mighty contributions.

And when the war is won, these men and women of the Southern will do another great job. For then the South will enter a new era of growth and opportunity.

Its already mighty industry will grow by leaps and bounds. New products will come from its farms and mines and forests. Its cities and ports will throb with the ever-expanding commerce of a free world.

Thus, in the rays of light streaming from a railroad station at night, we see the promise of a happier tomorrow . . . the certainty of a new and greater Southland.

Talking For What?

Mrs. Clare Booth Luce, Congresswoman from Mass., made a speech some days ago in the United States Congress, in which she proceeded to illuminate that august body with the currents of thought which passed in her feminine brain.

However, her remarks seem to us out of order, and in direct opposition to the general aims of the Allied Nations, and to the religious beliefs of a considerable number of real Americans. She indulged in a bit of hope and prediction that after the war the United States must dominate the world by the might of aircraft. Surely, by this time, the whole world ought to be sick of the idea of domination. Mussolini started out with that grandiose idea some years ago with the rape of Ethiopia, and the grabbing of a slice of Africa. That dream has already disappeared. Hitler, going Mussolini one better, strated out to take the world. In the practical working out of the idea, he has destroyed or enslaved, a large part of Europe. Small nations have been slain, robbed, raped, and treated with every other possible brutality by the would-be dictator of the world. It is now practically certain that Hitler will soon be laid away along with other world dictators, to lie in the tombs of the world's hated and despised creatures. Let us beware of all persons who begin now to clamor for United States world dominion. We must maintain sufficient air strength to make us able to prevent the dictators from again securing control, and strength enough to enable us to be of service. But let it be understood that we seek no domination; we seek to be strong enough to cooperate with all nations in making it possible for each one to live its own life in its own way.

Must We Have A Private War?

A World War would seem to be sufficient to occupy the attention and efforts of the people in North Carolina, but the Dry element seems determined to add a private war, which, if staged, will create much bitterness, and divert attention and effort from the main objective. The vast majority of people in North Carolina do not advocate drinking, being mindful of the harm of drinking to excess, but many do drink in moderation, and resent being penalized for the weakness of others. There is room for differences of opinion as to the best methods of securing temperance, but our prohibition era showed conclusively the Prohibition was not the best method.

The disturbing thing about the present effort of the Dries is to toss the matter into the lap of the voters at a time when most of our voting men are in the army, and thus disfranchising a large number of men; they hope to carry their point. If we know the men in our armed forces they will bitterly resent this attitude, and the action, of the Dries. It is a fresh revelation of the motives and the methods of a group of people, well meaning, perhaps, but fanatical in their attempts to foist legislation upon a large number of good, law-abiding, respectable citizens. We know quite a number of men whose character is above reproach, who do not wish such legislation.

Have to Walk

"When you jump," said the officer to the parachutist about to make his first leap, "count to ten and pull the rip cord. If nothing happens, count ten more and pull the second rip cord. When you get down, a truck will be waiting to take you back to camp."

The rookie jumped out of the plane, counted to ten, pulled the first cord. Nothing happened. He counted to ten once more, pulled the second cord. Again nothing happened. Said he, in disgust: "Phooey, I'll bet that truck won't even be down there and I'll have to walk back to camp."

Announcer Habit

Three-year-old Nancy had spent the evening in rapt attention to their new radio. Finally it was time for bed prayers. Kneeling before her bed she repeated her "Now I lay me," then stopped at the close, paused for a moment, changed her voice slightly and said:

"Tomorrow night at this time there will be another prayer."

Not as Thick

Judge: "Was the rock as large as my fist?"

Defendant: "Yassuh, Jedge, it was dat big and maybe a little bigger."

Judge: "Was it as big as my two fists?"

Defendant: "Yassuh, Jedge, I 'spect it was bigger dan dat."

Judge: "Was it as large as my head?"

Defendant: "Jedge, it was as long, but I don't think it was as thick."

Permanent Cure

"I sure have got a bad case of hay fever."

"That so? Here, try some of this."

"Is it really good?"

"I'll say so! I've had hay fever for 38 years, and never use anything else."

Brave Bishop

A bishop was invited to dinner. During the meal he was astonished to hear the little daughter of the house state that a person must be brave these days to go to church.

"Why do you say that?" asked the bishop.

"Oh," said the little child, "I heard papa telling mama that last Sunday there was a big gun in the pulpit; the cannon was on the reading desk; the choir murdered the anthem; and the organist drowned the choir."

Cooleemee Nutrition Classes Start Monday

The Red Cross nutrition classes will begin Monday evening, March 1, at 7:30 p. m., in the Community hall. All ladies who wish to take this important course are urged to be present at the first meeting since the class will be limited to 20 members. Miss Inez Hubbard, home economist teacher in the Cooleemee school, will teach the class.

With the rationing of commercial canned goods it is highly important that housewives and homemakers take advantage of this nutrition course. The course will train housewives to conserve foods and prepare well balanced diets with the foods available. It is of the highest importance that women now learn to feed their children and families the foods which will keep them in good health.

The work at the Red Cross production room is going along fine and the present quota of 75 children's overalls is about complete. These will be shipped to Winston-Salem by the first of March. Another quota of sewing is expected to arrive by the first of the month. There have been some ladies who have been very faithful in working in the sewing room but there is a need for still more ladies to help with the sewing. Surely it isn't asking too much of anyone to spend several hours of a week helping the Red Cross. The hours for the sewing room are: Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 2 to 5 and in the evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock.

McCLELLAN DISCUSSES GOOD FARM PASTURE

Development of a good grazing program for farm live stock requires an adequate acreage of supplemental grazing crops as well as permanent pasture, according to G. W. McClellan, the Middle Yadkin soil conservation district.

On many farms good permanent pasture can be developed by clearing shrubby growth from idle lowland areas and seeding the land to adapted grasses and legumes. The clearing work can be done now while other farm work is slack.

Similarly, areas of steep, eroded land not suited to the production of row crops can be planted to kudzu and sericea lespedeza, which will provide a permanent source of supplemental grazing and prevent overgrazing of the pasture.

The sericea will furnish early spring grazing and kudzu can be used to relieve permanent pastures during the late summer and fall droughts, Mr. McClellan says. This will increase the carrying capacity of the pasture and lengthen the grazing season.

Farmers who have developed pasture and perennial hay on such areas, unsuited to the production of other crops, are now cashing in on increased production of milk and meat needed in the war effort, without reducing the amount of land needed for other war crops.

Wormy Pig Will Never Get Big

The old saying, "A wormy pig will never get big," should be kept in mind this spring as thousands of new pigs are born, reports Dr. C. D. Grinnells, Experiment Station Veterinarian at N. C. State College. The roundworm, or ascarid, is one of the most common and injurious of these swine parasites.

To raise pigs that develop quickly and profitably, he urges that growers adopt an approved swine sanitation system. This includes the removal of little from the farrowing pens and cleaning of the pens with boiling water, soap, and lye.

A few days before farrowing time, scrub the sow thoroughly with a brush, using soap and warm water to remove all dirt. Pay special attention to the udder.

Within 10 days after farrowing haul (do not drive) the sow and pigs directly to a field which has previously been sown to a forage crop. Allow no other hogs in this pasture except sows and litters similarly handled. Provide plenty of shelter and shade, and a safe supply of fresh water.

Leave the pigs on a clean pasture for at least 4 months, after which danger from roundworms is relatively slight, said Dr. Grinnells. The use of this system generally makes pigs ready for market 4 to 8 weeks earlier than under dirty hog-lot conditions. The herd is more uniform in size and practically free of runts. For the system to be effective, none of these steps should be omitted, he said.

PRINT PAPER

There will probably be an additional cut of 10 percent in Print Paper on April 1 to meet conditions caused by the war.

29 PER CENT STAYS HERE

Out of the funds raised, 29 per cent will be kept by the local chapters to be used in services for the disabled, stricken and suffering. The national goal is 125 million; that amount 45 million will be used for local work on behalf of families of the men in service.

CANA

Cana Home Demonstration club met February 17 with Mrs. E. F. Etchison as hostess.

Miss Beatrice Hill called the meeting to order due to the absence of the president. She also had charge of the devotionals.

The club sang "Hall Club Women Crowned Through Service." The minutes of the last meeting were read and the roll call was answered with a current event.

Miss Florence Mackie gave a very interesting discussion on "Three Meals a Day" after which D. C. Rankin showed pictures and discussed poultry. The meeting was closed with the club collect. Mrs. E. F. Etchison served refreshments to Mesdames M. D. Pope, J. B. Cain, N. H. Collette, Wade Hutchins, J. C. Collette, Wade Eaton, Miss Beatrice Hill, Miss Mackie and Mr. Rankin.

Miss Beatrice Hill had as her guests one day last week Mrs. Ollie Beauchamp and Mrs. Bat Smith of Smith Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Swan of Cool Springs.

Mrs. J. B. Cain spent a few days last week visiting Mrs. Fred Rich in Greensboro and Mrs. Frank Blackmore in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Grady Pulliam and baby of Winston-Salem visited Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cain last week. Mrs. Guy Collette spent last Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. Will Edwards, of Clarks-ville.

Roland Jones of the U. S. navy returned to his post last Friday after spending a two weeks furlough with his parents here.

CUPS WILL BE 1¢ EXTRA

Our glasses are clean and sterilized with hot water.

The following letter is self explanatory:

N. C. Pharmaceutical Association,
Mr. W. J. Smith, Secretary-Treasurer,
Chapel Hill, N. C.

Dear Mr. Smith:

In answer to your letter regarding cups, under Amendment No. 40 to the General Maximum Price Regulation, retail druggists are permitted to make extra charges for paper cups, even though no charge was made during 1942.

The regulation means that food and drinks dispensed for consumption off the premises are completely out from under price control of any kind.

Very truly yours

(Signed) Rowland Jones, Jr.,
Washington Representative.
