Man Shot With Taser During Barn Fire Sheriff, Family Stories Differ

By Jackie Seabolt
Enterprise Record

A 69-year-old man was shot with a Taser by a Davie Sheriff's Department deputy Sunday evening during a barn fire on his property.

Trucks from three stations were dispatched to the fire at 147 Kerr Lane, Advance at about 10 p.m. The property is behind a development behind Macedonia Moravian Church.

According to Davie Sheriff Andy Stokes, when deputies arrived at the barn it was "fully involved and the roof had been consumed by flames."

Stokes said, "There was no sounds of horses coming from the barn and that allowed my officers to believe the horses had expired."

Harold Wayne Smith, 69, his wife, Elaine, and his daughter, Melody, were at the scene. Smith lives in a home near the barn off NC 801 North.

Elaine said her husband was not attempting to run into the burning barn and that he had prevented his daughter, the owner of the horses, from going to the barn.

Stokes said that Smith was at the scene and was yelling to deputies "stop her (Melody), she's going to get killed getting those horses out of the barn".

Officers told Melody to stop, but she did not comply. "She continued toward the barn and was grabbed by a deputy by the shirt and stopped from entering the barn," Stokes said.

Smith began to run towards the barn, according to Stokes, and would not comply with officers orders to stop. "He stated 'I'm going to get the horses out', he did not stop and continued to run to the barn. He pushed an officer aside

Mocksville Board OKs Variance Woman Says Needed For Protection

By Mike Barnhardt
Enterprise Record

The fence stays.

A 10-foot high fence a Mocksville woman said she built to protect herself and her family from a neighbor can remain.

The Mocksville Zoning Board of Adjustments on Monday evening approved Dina Bowman's request for a special exception permit for a fence higher than the six feet allowed in the residential area on Gwyn Street, just off Hospital Street.

"We have felt the need to place this fence for protection," Bowman said. "Additional privacy is needed from the neighboring property owner."

Bowman named P.D. Falls as the neighbor, and said the fence was built to prevent "visual assaults." She said he had made videos of children, sexual comments and had exposed himself.

She presented the board, a quasi-judicial board that hears sworn evidence before making a decision, with photos of the fence, written reasons for building it, and a statement of increased value.

Falls said he had lived in the house on Gwyn Street since 1987, and said all charges made against him by the Bowmans were dismissed or he was found not guilty. He called the fence an "eyesore" that violates his right to live in peace.

When Falls started making personal comments about the Bowmans, board chair Dewey Hunt and town attorney, Hank Van Hoy, reminded Falls the board only considered information on the height of the fence.

"I can't say anything about social services," he asked.

"No," Hunt replied.

"I can't show my video," he asked.

"We don't know what's on your video," Van Hoy said.

Hunt gave Falls five minutes to show portions of the video that pertained to the request for a higher fence.

"The fence is for them to hide," Falls said. "They upped the fence so we can't see them breaking the laws day in and day out."

Falls didn't get any sympathy from other neighbors.

Newman's Death Brings Back Memories For Local Man

By Dwight Sparks
Enterprise Record

The actor Paul Newman's death over the weekend reawakened memories of his visits to Advance and Clemmons more than 20 years ago.

Allen Bailey was operating the old 801 Shell Station at I-40 when the famous actor and wife, Joann Woodward, stopped for gas in their convertible. They had just spent the night at Tanglewood Park's Manor House.

Bailey knew immediately who his customers were.

"He was as nice as he could be.

Nice and cool," Bailey recalled Monday. "He was dressed casual. He wasn't flashy. Of course, he never was."

He came in the service station. I was surprised that he was as small as he was."

They made the typical small talk. Bailey filled the car and then committed a social faux pas.

"I didn't know he didn't give autographs," Bailey said. But Newman found a way to fulfill the request without actually violating his long-standing rule.

"He handed me the receipt from Tanglewood," Bailey said. "It had his signature on it."

Now to the sad part - Bailey can't find the receipt.

"I never throw anything away, and I thought surely I would have saved that receipt," he said. "He's about the most famous guy that came in there, and there were a lot of people who came in there."

That was around 1985. Why did Newman spend the night at Tanglewood?

His good friend and race partner, the late Jim "Fitzy" Fitzpatrick, lived in Clemmons. Fitzpatrick, who died in 1987, had won 250 races and two national championships. He and Newman met in 1972 and eventually became racing partners.

Fitzgerald's widow, Mary Lou, still lives in Clemmons and recalled Monday that Newman did the eulogy and served as a pall bearer at her husband's funeral.

"He was such a wonderful man. I can't say I knew him well like my husband did. I only met him three times. He was my husband's friend."

For many, Newman was "Butch Cassidy" or the host of other movie roles over his long career. For Mary Lou Fitzgerald, he was a link to her husband's memory.

"It was a sad day," she said.

Paul Newman's death last week brought back memories for Allen Bailey.

Key Congressmen Need To Be Sent Home For Good

Do you ever get the feeling that Congress has gone to the dogs? Political gamesmanship has replaced diplomacy. Getting re-elected is more important than the nation's health. Stabbing the other party in the back is the most popular game in Washington.

The shenanigans this week are ample evidence that Congress doesn't care about the people back home. Rather, they have been feathering their nests, playing the lobbyists' tunes and kowtowing to the special interests.

Few of them have to worry about re-election. They have carved themselves safe seats. Incumbents get generous campaign contributions. Challengers rarely have a chance.

The game in Washington is power — getting it and keeping it. Power players this week were working hard to deflect blame for bankrupting America.

After a bill had been carefully crafted to bail out Wall Street on Monday, Speaker of the House Nancy Pelosi pilloried the Republicans for creating the mess. The most popular game of this political season is to blame President Bush for everything. Some of the blame may properly rest on his doorstep, but more should fall in the laps of the congressmen who forced banks to dole out low-interest loans to people who could not possibly repay them.

The once-conservative, bedrock Wachovia Bank had to be taken over by Citigroup because it had $95 billion of bad loans. It took a lot of effort to hand out that kind of money.

But that's only Wachovia's share. The federal bailout is projected at $700 billion or more for the federal government to scoop up all the defaulted mortgages and bad loans across the country.

Somebody ought to be blamed for this mess. Somebody ought to be sent home from Washington for good. Too bad we don't get to decide Pelosi's fate or that of the other House and Senate committee chairmen who are responsible for the oversight of Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac and all the banking industry. We can only hope the voters in their districts share a sense of betrayal and outrage.

While President Bush's focus was directed at the Iraq War, Congress and Wall Street bankers ruined the nation's finances with reckless abandon.

Should the taxpayers be put on the hook for another $700 billion? It's reasonable to assume we have to straighten out the mess. The only problem is that the same Congress that made the mess will get the purse strings on another gold mine.

Who can trust them?
Taxpayers have difficulty shaking the concern that we will be suckered again.

Congress has played politics with our soldiers on the battlefield in Iraq. Now the members are holding a large bag wanting us to dump in money to bail out their mistakes as watchdogs.

Narrower This Week

Finally a diet that works. Astute readers may have already noticed the Enterprise-Record is thinner this week by about three-tenths of an inch. Newspapers around the country are trimming their page widths to save newsprint costs. Our printer, the Salisbury Post, also prints the North Carolina edition of USA Today. When the big newspaper made the switch, we had to follow suit.

Thinner — and without any exercise required. Now that's an ideal diet.

County Leaders Should Listen To The People

To the editor:

Most Americans, North Carolinians, and Davie County residents understand clearly that the economy of the entire world is in for an awakening that only our older generation can reflect to the hardships of the Great Depression. It was our elected leaders then, and our elected leaders now that are responsible for the heavy burdens that are continuously and always put on the backs of all of us, the American taxpayer. Well, the load that we are going to be asked to carry is without doubt, more than we can handle. However, let us not forget, these elected leaders were elected by a majority of the voters. Therefore, we get and have to live with the government that we elect.

It is most often too late to overturn the governmental direction in Washington, D.C. and Raleigh, but we as Davie residents can and should be allowed to have all of our voices heard by our local elected leaders when they embark on a decision that can and will have a detrimental effect on our assets and way of life.

What happens when our local elected leaders don't listen to us when we ask for them to hear us and to do the right thing?

The result is that the overwhelming majority of us end up being strapped with the multitude of costs to pay for the expensive wants that only a select few will be rewarded with the benefit of our funding, by using our tax dollars to make these select few richer in dollars and the majority of us responsible for all liabilities.

Please allow me to highlight or inform any/all Davie County residents of only a few situations where our local elected leaders have failed to listen to the people. However, by me just naming a small number of these situations, the overall costs to us in tax dollars is monstrous and long term.

First, the Davie County taxpayer has been abused in the last two revaluations, and stands to be abused again in the ongoing revaluation that will be effective next year. The only purpose of revaluation is to properly place a fair market value on held property. It is regulated, by statute, for revaluation not to be used for profit to allow more spending. The taxpayer is entitled to be refunded back any gains. This is called revenue neutral. However, our elected leaders have kept all gains that were yielded in each of the last two revaluations. This is absolutely wrong.

Second, our publicly educated schools have been used as a bargaining chip. Our elected leaders have intentionally played with the numbers in their requests for building schools or implying that we need more schools. Have our numbers grown in our schools over the last 10 years? Yes. Will our schools show growth this year? No. We have consistently seen the numbers going down. Our schools have added an estimated 1,500 seats since Comatzer Elementary opened in 2001. However, our overall numbers has only increased approximately 760. Have the taxpayers been told this by our elected leaders? No.

Third, our county has been held hostage in the NCBH/Davie County Hospital merger. Did our elected leaders follow the NC General Statute that governs this type of transaction? Novant says no. At the best, the direction that our elected leaders took is borderline and will end up in court. Foremost, Davie County Hospital is an asset owned by the residents of Davie County. Did the residents get even a hearing on this, much less a voice or vote in protecting this important asset? No.

Fourth, is the recent resignation of our county manager and the replacement procedure that our elected leaders have chosen to follow without the concerns of the citizens ever being heard at a public held forum to get a voice in this critical position to guide the future of all. Will the citizens get a chance to be heard from on this? No. Why? If the citizens are heard from, the continued tax-and-spend government that our elected leaders have levied on all of us would be deservingly put in jeopardy.

The final question(s) to be asked by each and every Davie resident to our elected leaders is this: what is the oath that the elected leaders took? Does the oath of office state that they represent all of the citizens or does it state that you are to represent only the persons that you choose?

Last but not least, we as Davie residents deserve our elected leaders to be held to the standards of an open and fair for all type of government representation. There are many Americans begging for a change, and let us make sure that any/all change starts at home, Davie County.

Reminder To DHS Class Of '88

To the editor:

I am writing to remind people about the Davie High Class of 1988 20-year reunion the weekend of Oct. 17-18. The reunion is just three weeks away and I just wanted to let people know that they can still sign up for the great events we're planning for that weekend. We have a great tailgate event before the homecoming game that we have planned on Friday night and really fun "Mystery Party" dinner scheduled for Saturday night. You can find out more about these events as well as sign up at www.daviehigh88.com. We hope that everyone in the Class of 1988 will want to attend one or both events. If you'd like to mail in your registration, that is possible, too. You can check out the website for the event information, print off the registration form, and then mail it to: Davie High Class of 1988, P.O. Box 1088, Mocksville. Please remind those loved ones who may have been a part of this class about the need for them to register or for those of you who have been just waiting for the right time to register, take time now so that you can be included in the delicious dinner on tap for Saturday evening. We look forward to seeing everyone and know this reunion will be a memorable one for all attending.

Population Question

To the editor:

Query me this Davie County residents? How does the population boom and the obvious need for a hospital in eastern Davie County and Davie County in general, not lead to the obvious assumption that the need is there for more schools?

I read in amazement every time the arguments for the Davie Baptist Hospital comes up (and as one person was quoted "with the population increase in Davie, the hospital is a critical need.") because I think we badly need both.

In fact, I don't see a problem with having both Baptist and Novant get their wish and hospitals get put in both Bermuda Run and Clemmons. This area needs all these services and it would help the property values of everybody as doctors and nurses and anybody else associated with the hospitals would be buying houses in our area.

But back to the first statement: how does the obvious need for a hospital not translate into an obvious need for more schools? The county commissioners need to get busy and do what is right for the children of Davie County.

Constitution Day A Success

To the editor:

On behalf of the Davie High School Youth and Government Club and the Davie High PTSA, I would like to thank all the community members, elected officials, faculty, and students who attended our first annual Constitution Day on Sept. 17. We were honored to have 75 people in attendance.

We hope to make this a yearly tradition to remind us all of how important it is to understand and appreciate the Constitution, the words we live by. Thank you to all who attended and helped with our event. We hope to see you next year.

Thanks For Helping Jaxon

To the editor:

From everyone who worked the benefit in front of AutoZone on Saturday for Jaxon Sechrest, we would like to say a big thank you. The community came together, with the blessing of God, to give the family more than $2,000. Many thanks go out to many individuals who made this possible.

Don't forget the next benefit will be Oct. 6 at the last Mocksville cruise-in for this year. We will be set up beside Alexander's BBQ (North Main Street, just off the square) serving hotdogs, hamburgers, fried hologna sandwiches, popcorn and cotton candy. There will also be face painting. So come hungry and let us feed you, all for a great cause for a great little boy and his family.

New EMS Station Put To Good Use

To the editor:

On Sunday, Sept. 7, we toured the new EMS building on US 601 South Mocksville. Never knowing that around 6:30 p.m. that same night, 911 would be called to Edgewood Baptist Church. Our pastor, the Rev. Danny Shore, and loved one was still preaching in the pulpit and was having a stroke. Thank God this new EMS facility was so close to the church. In my eyes, it paid for itself that night, because the response time was only a few minutes.

When we arrived at the hospital, the time was great if they could have given him a certain drug, but the Rev. Shore had a bleeding stroke instead. A special thanks to all EMS workers, but especially to Bryan Williams and Ray Moore that night. Also, thanks to the nurses and an EMS person in our church who helped.

The Rev. Danny is now in the Sticht Center of Baptist Hospital doing better. Thanks to the people of Edgewood Baptist and friends for all they have done. Thanks to most all the pastors and churches in the community which have been so supportive of him. Thanks to so many pastors and churches in surrounding counties, too.

Please continue to pray for our pastor as he recovers and for Edgewood Baptist Church.

Center VFD Celebrating 50th Anniversary Oct. 12

Center Volunteer Fire Department ran its first call late on a Saturday morning in the summer of 1958, saving a tobacco barn and surrounding field from going up in smoke. Now, in 2008, Station 13 is still answering calls throughout its district and surrounding departments' coverage areas on the western side of Davie County.

Starting with a Civil Defense truck/tank trailer and a 1958 Howe pumper, the station has evolved considerably over the last 50 years. Center now fields two pumper/tankers (and has an additional truck on order), a ladder, a brush truck, medical response vehicle, a fire safety trailer, and a tanker. The original truck bought new in 1958 still resides at the station.

The department's call volume continues to climb. Last year set a new record at 222 requests for service and thus for the counter sits at 196 - well on track to set a new record.

In the early days, Center answered calls for fires and traffic accidents. Today, it consists of a medical component and responds to requests for medical assistance with the tools necessary (in most cases) to sustain a life until Davie EMS can arrive to transport a patient to the hospital.

On Sunday, Oct. 12, from 2-4 p.m., Station 13 will hold an open house and welcome the public. Food, a working, educational smoke house, trucks on display, several slideshows/videos of days past, and activities for children will be at the station on US 64 West. Visit www.centerfd.com for additional details.

Jobless Rate 7.4%

August jobless rates for surrounding counties: Yadkin, 6.4%; Rowan, 8.1%; Iredell, 6.8%; Forsyth, 6.6%; and Davidson, 7.7%.

Local Police Looking For Armed Robber

Mocksville police are looking for a man who held up a local business early morning on Sunday, Sept. 28.

The man entered the business at 1376 Salisbury Road and pointed a small black pistol at an employee and demanded money. He left with an undisclosed amount of cash, said Mocksville Police Assistant Chief K.L. Hunter.

The suspect was described as a white male wearing a ski mask. He was seen leaving in a mid-size light colored vehicle. Anyone with information is asked to call Mocksville police at 753-6710.

Teacher Hurt Breaking Up DHS Fight

A teacher was taken to the hospital and several students were suspended after a fight at Davie High School last week.

According to Capt. J.D. Hartman of the sheriff's office, "Several individuals got into a disagreement that was broken up by a teacher."

One teacher, J.L. Williams, was attempting to break up the disagreement and began having pains and fell down. "He was transported by EMS to the hospital to rule out any heart problems."

The incident occurred shortly before 8 a.m. on Sept. 25, before classes started, according to the student resource officer at the high school Sgt. Brian Jacobs.

Jacobs reported there was a large crowd of students in the area where the fight occurred. "We're not sure how many kids were involved."

Those who were determined to be involved in the incident have been suspended from school, according to Jacobs.

Jacobs reported one 15-year-old student was referred to the juvenile court system and another student was dealt with through the magistrate system. No weapons were involved and according to Jacobs "We're not really sure what started the fight."

Williams has returned to work, according to Jacobs.

Officers Help Search For Suspect On I-40

After more than two hours of searching an area just outside Davie County, authorities were still unable to locate a man accused of kidnapping and attempted murder.

According to Capt. J.D. Hartman of the Davie County Sheriff's Office, a kidnapping incident was reported on Thursday, Sept. 25 in Catawba County involving a truck driver.

Reports are sketchy, but Sheriff Andy Stokes said the kidnapper traveled with the trucker from Catawba to Iredell County, where he exited the man's truck and was last seen walking towards Davie from the US 64 exit at Cool Springs.

"The kidnapper was last seen walking down I-40," according to Hartman.

Stokes said the 911 call was received at Davie's emergency communication because it was so close to the Davie County line.

Stokes said when Davie authorities arrived to assist Iredell police the truck driver was bound and had his hands taped behind his back.

He reported the kidnapper had played Russian roulette with him. "The truck driver was terrified when we got there," Stokes said.

Search dogs tracked the vicinity for nearly two hours but turned up nothing, according to Stokes.

Stokes said the only description of the alleged kidnapper is that he is a white male approximately 6 feet tall.

ADVANCES IN PROSTATE & KIDNEY CANCERS
Wednesday, October 8th • 12 noon • Davis Regional Medical Center, Classrooms A & B

Prostate cancer is one of the most common types of cancer, and it is projected to strike more than 180,000 men this year. In the United States last year, kidney cancer affected more than 35,000 people. With the aging population and early screenings available, the number of diagnosed patients is expected to grow in both of these cancers.

You are invited to join us for a very informative program as we discuss Cryotherapy, one of the most advanced treatments for prostate and/or kidney cancer. Cryotherapy, or cryoblation, is an effective but minimally invasive treatment that offers less pain, less bleeding, and a shorter recovery period. Many new and recurrent cancer patients are excellent candidates for this treatment.

Guest speaker Mark Makhuli, MD, urologist, is a graduate of Duke University Medical Center and New York University School of Medicine. He is affiliated with Novant Medical Group.

Overnight Sensation

Booe Creates A Buzz, From Manager To Player

By Brian Pitts
Enterprise Record

Kenny Booe has become an overnight sensation on Davie's defensive line. So much so that one question begs to be answered: Has there ever been a more improbable contributor to Davie's football team?

It's a fascinating story about a junior who isn't even listed on the roster. Scan the roster and you won't find No. 34. You won't find No. 34 before Booe started the season as a manager. But Booe quickly became bored with fetching water bottles, and one day last summer he informed coach Doug Iling that he was dying to try on a helmet for the first time in his life. At that moment a remarkable transformation began.

"I had him in class last year," Iling said. "We got him to come out and be a manager just to be apart of it. He was interested in doing that and started coming around during the summer and helping out. He was giving out equipment one day in June or July. He hadn't been working out in weights or anything. He came in there and said: 'Can I get one of them, coach? Can I get a helmet? Can I get shoulder pads?' I said: 'Kenny, are you sure?' He said: 'Yeah, I want to try on one of them.' So we fit him up. Then we found out he didn't have a physical, so he was just going to be a manager. Dang, if he didn't come back with a physical about two days later."

"The first day of practice, you know what he was doing? He was the water boy," offensive coordinator Barry Whitlock said. "Then he got his physical and Iling gave him to me at running back. He came to running back his first couple of days. Then something happened and he was the water boy again. Iling said: 'If he comes back out, we're going to put him at nose guard.'"

When Booe started practicing, he couldn't have been buried any deeper

New Ellis Offense Works Wonders

Ellis football coach Mike Morgan and his staff were disappointed after a season-opening 8-0 loss to Tyro, so they changed the offense from the I-formation to the shotgun spread.

The change couldn't have worked out any better. The 'O' went from flat against Tyro to efficient at E.L. Brown. The result was a 23-7 victory in which Ellis scored the first 23 points.

"We switched things up," Morgan said after Ellis squared its record at 1-1. "We spread things out like the high school, and I think we caught Brown off balance. We used two quarterback-backs, one (Nick Boswell) in the run formation and one (Jeremy Walker) in the passing game ... Walker for the first time." Walker picked Brown apart in the first half and didn't try a pass after halftime. With one back and four wide receivers around him, he went 10 of 14 for 149 yards. The attack produced seven first-half plays of 20-plus yards, including a 41-yard touchdown pass from Walker to Boswell, a 50-yard pass play from Boswell to Brandon Armstrong, a 20-yard catch by Josh Rominger and 22- and 20-yard receptions by Curtis Banner.

"If we were the University of Alabama and could line up in the I-formation and blow people off the ball, that's what we'd be doing," Morgan said. "But we've got to try to get people in spots where they can be successful. It's a very satisfying win."

As remarkable as Walker was in his debut at quarterback, Ellis couldn't have torched Brown without Boswell, who did it all in a display of versatility. In the first half, Boswell rushed for 67 yards on five carries, a 13.4 average. He completed a 50-yard pass. He broke off runs for 24 and 25 yards. "He threw a bootleg pass (for 50 yards to Armstrong) when we were in our run formation," Morgan said.

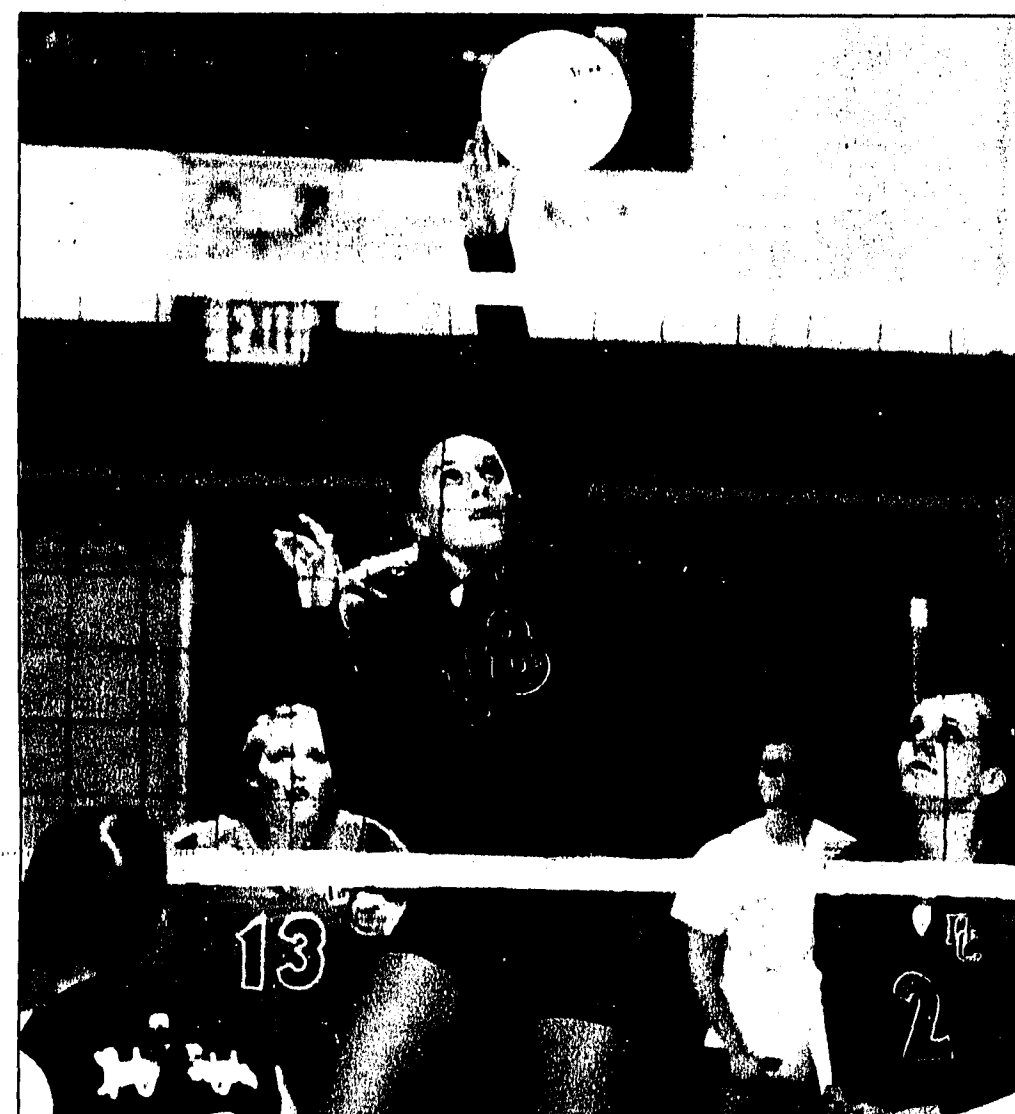

The halftime score was 15-0. A Brown punt pinned Ellis at its 4. Ellis went to the bootleg, and Boswell connected with Armstrong again, this time over the middle. Armstrong kicked into high gear and raced 96 yards for a 21-0 lead. The second point-after kick by Woody Parrish tucked on the final two points for Ellis.

In the first half, Ellis rushed for 101 yards and threw for 177. For the game, Armstrong had 2 catches for 146 yards. Banner had 4 catches for 61.

Boswell went 2 of 2 for 146 yards passing. On top of that, he had 77 yards on two receptions. All told - between passing yards, rushing yards and receiving yards - Boswell accounted for 290 yards.

"Looking at the numbers reminded me of trying to pass Algebra II when I was in high school," Morgan said.

Notes: Ellis set a record for points. The old record came in last year's 30-22 loss to Ledford. ... Walker's 149 passing yards broke Boswell's record of 109 in last year's 20-6 win over Brown. ... Another record was set. Armstrong's 146 receiving yards surpassed Omar Enriquez's 107 from last year's game against Brown.

War Eagle Volleyball Team Has Best Start In 6 Years

By Brian Pitts
Enterprise Record

The last time things were this good for the Davie varsity volleyball team, seniors Alex Folk, Sarah Martin, Amber Parrish, Carly Pratas and Kaitlin Wensley were in sixth grade. The year was 2002.

By thumping North Davidson and West Forsyth last week, the War Eagles moved to 11-4 overall and 5-1 in the Central Piedmont Conference. At the same point in 2002, they were 13-2 and 5-1. While the '02 team won the CPC, the current team has a tight grip on second.

The three-match week didn't start so well. In a nonconference match at West Davidson, the War Eagles were blasted three games to one. West snuffed out Davie's three-match winning streak.

"They're quick, they communicate well and it's hard to find holes," coach Becky Miller said. "They were digging up our power hits."

The War Eagles got back in form at home against North Davidson, winning in three games. They trailed 6-1 in game one, but didn't flinch. Davie defeated North's balloon in game two, 27-25.

Junior Ashley Green drew raves. Game two was her coming-out party. "I had talked to Amber after the West Davidson match about getting her to set to Ashley a little bit higher and little farther off the net," Miller said. "And Ashley was getting on top of the ball and mashing it (four kills in game two). And they were nice kills. They were straight down. She had six kills (total) and they were at key points. Ashley was mashing it right behind the 10-foot line. She's always had the potential to do that. Amber adjusted well, too, so I have to give her props on that."

Pratas (16 kills, 17 digs, four aces), Wensley (nine kills, 11 digs), Parrish (nine kills, 15 digs, five blocks, three aces), Chelsea Reynolds (17 digs) and Britanni Stewart (four blocks) were major factors as Davie defeated North for the sixth time in a row. It hasn't lost in the series since the CPC semifinals in '05, Miller's first year as head coach.

Pratas was under the weather the day of the match at West Forsyth. But the star senior knew it was a big game, and she wasn't about to let her teammates down. She reached down and came up with 15 kills and 11 digs as Davie tamed West three games to one.

"She was sick and still played all four games," Miller said. "She amazes me with her abilities. She felt awful. She came to school because we had a match. She sucked it up and went on. I was really proud of her. The girls wanted this win, and Carly played her heart out."

Wensley (17 kills, 19 digs, four blocks, five aces) and Parrish (38 assists, 19 digs, three blocks, six aces) deserve plenty of credit for Davie completing a sweep over West and winning for the fifth time in six matches. "Wensley was phenomenal with her hitting," she said. "She was hitting the ball so hard they couldn't get to it quick enough to get hands on it."

"The assist total says a lot about Parrish as a setter. But it also says a lot about our ability to get the ball up. We were passing the ball extremely well. It was a combination of (Rebecca) Bobo, Reynolds and either Wensley or Pratas. Those girls did a great job of getting the pass up so we could get sets to our hitters."

North Unleashes Lowe

In the first series of last week's home game, North Davie's Toby Lowe barreled 40 yards up the middle. Although the play ended with a lost fumble, the message was clear.

Lowe was too much for Tyro. While North's offense couldn't do anything right in a season-opening 24-0 loss at North Davidson, Lowe was reason for optimism in the second game, a 37-22 victory that wasn't nearly as close as the final margin. When Lowe broke off 40 yards early in the game, he was just getting started. He pashed Tyro's defense for 168 yards and two touchdowns on 13 carries, averaging 12.9 yards a rush.

North started 2-1 last year, but it lost Lowe to a broken arm in the third game, a 14-0 win over Tyro. With Lowe on the shelf, North slumped and finished 4-4.

"We decided to move him to full-back," coach Ron Kirk said. "Then we started running him at one of the half-back spots, and then he ran the ball even better. So he's probably going to become one of our halfbacks. He's played with a lot of determination. I think he's out to make up for lost time from last year."

Tyro fumbled the ball right back to the Wildcats, who went down for the score. The first-half lead eventually swelled to 23-0. It was 31-6 when North started letting off the gas pedal.

"I hope we keep on clicking," Kirk said after North piled up 296 rushing yards. "I think we're on the upswing."

The onslaught wasn't just about Lowe. Matt Vernon (70 yards on eight carries) picked up 8.7 yards per carry. Brandon "Tank" Home turned three attempts into 28 rushing yards. Home and Devin Johnson ran for touchdowns. Vernon completed two of his four pass attempts to Christian Latham, and one of them resulted in six points.

It marked the most North points since 2006. The 24-0 loss to North Davidson didn't look as bad when North Davidson followed with a 14-9 win at South Davie.

"Vernon had a great game, too," Kirk said. "He ran the ball hard; Vernon, Tank and Toby are probably Worth Noting ...

Holly Thompson of Davie girls cross country finished 35th out of 156 runners in the 23-team Greensboro Invitational.

Even though she was sick, Carly Pratas of Davie varsity volleyball had 15 kills and 11 digs in a 3-1 win at W. Forsyth. Kaitlin Wensley (17 kills, 19 digs, 4 blocks, 5 aces), Amber Parrish (38 assists, 19 digs, 6 aces) and Alex Folk (7 blocks) helped second-place Davie to 5-1 in the CPC.

After a signature win over N. Davie, Ellis volleyball coach Beth Hall-Love showered praise on Kristina Parrish and Kelsey Orr. "I was very impressed with the way they stepped up for our team," she said. "They made their teammates believe in each other."

Toby Lowe of N. Davie rushed for 168 yards on 13 carries to spark a 37-22 win over Tyro. Matt Vernon added 70 yards on eight carries, and Devin Johnson made seven team-high tackles.

Nick Boswell accounted for 290 yards - going 2 of 2 passing for 146 yards, making two catches for 77 yards and rushing five times for 67 yards - as Ellis football soared past Brown 23-7. Boswell threw a 96-yard TD to Brandon Armstrong, and Jeremy Walker went 10 of 14 passing for 149 yards.

Caroline Miller of Ellis softball pitched a one-hitter and went 4 for 4, drove in five runs and hit for the cycle in a 15-1 run of Tyro. Maryssa Pickett and Emily Tester combined to reach base six times.

Emily Tester is scary good with the bat.

Jaguars Vent Frustration, 15-1

If the Ellis softball team could have gotten just one clutch hit at Brown, it would not have lost 5-4 in six innings. It left 12 runners on base.

If Ellis could have protected a 5-4 lead in the fifth and final inning, it would not have lost 6-5 in the second game at Brown. If Ellis could have avoided a disastrous second inning against Tyro, when the visitors scored all of their runs, it would not have lost 4-3.

The Jaguars had to stomach not one, not two, but three gut-wrenching losses in succession. They vented their frustrations in the second game with Tyro, erupting for a 15-1 knockout. "How do you lose 4-3 and then win 15-1?" coach Shannon Wood said. "One run short in every loss. It drives me crazy." Brown 5, Ellis 4.

After belting South Davidson by 15 and 19 runs to start the season, the Jaguars stranded 12 runners and lost game one in extra innings.

"We hit better than they did," Wood said. "They left three runners on, so they got the hits when they needed them. We didn't hit when we needed to." Brown 6, Ellis 5.

The Jaguars led 5-2 and then 5-4 going into Brown's final at-bat. But Caroline Miller took the loss despite holding Brown to four hits. She gave up four hits in the first game as well.

"They were a lot better than we expected," Wood said. Allie Frutts had a double.

Tyro 4, Ellis 3. The Jaguars hit the ball sharply several times, but they couldn't get a break. Miller's three-hitter went for naught. "We should have won," she games combined.

Miller cuffed Tyro after the first, and she posted her third one-hitter. She needed a homer in her final at-bat to achieve the cycle, and she got it.

"That's the hardest I've ever seen somebody get hit," Wood said. "They still had to take her to the hospital. She had blurry vision, so we're worried about her."

Allie Slabach tripled by sending a frozen rope to the left-center fence. The shots by Tester and Slabach summed up Ellis' mad offense.

"I was very impressed with that," Wood said of Slabach. "Then she got on two times after that."

Caroline Miller has three one-hitters in six games.

South Softball Improving

South Davie's softball team is 0-6, but there are some positives. The Tigers scored 10 runs in a doubleheader with Tyro, and they were tied going into the bottom of the fourth in the second game with Tyro.

South was shut out twice by Brown, 9-0 and 10-0. Then it lost 11-6 and 7-4 to Tyro.

Alyssa Waymire, Courtney Bode, Abby Daniels, Sarah

Sponaugle and Ashton Brown scored runs in game one against Tyro.

In game two, pitchers Amber Villaseñor and Elizabeth Holland kept South in the game, and it was tied at 3 after three and a half innings. Bode, Daniels, Haley Kelley and Lauren Thurmond scored the South runs.

Couch Amy Speckin foussed on the good things that came out of the games.

"We had few errors in both games," she said. "The girls are improving with every practice and game. We had some really good hits. We just couldn't find enough holes. Brown did a great job catching. Bode, Daniels and Waymire were aggressive on the bases in both games."

Ellis The Team To Beat On Volleyball Courts

By rallying past North Davie, Ellis' undefeated volleyball team established itself as the team to beat in the Mid-South Conference. By solving North 16-21, 21-15, 15-6, Ellis also gained a measure of revenge for '07, when Ellis went 12-3 with all three losses to 16-0 North Davie.

The Jaguars had won eight consecutive games for a 4-0 record before dropping game one to North. Thanks to Kristina Parrish, Ellis tied the match at 1-1.

"She served an unbelievable nine points," coach Beth Hall-Love said. "We were down in this game and pulled together as a team to come back."

North faded in game three. Hall-Love said Parrish and Orr were the difference-makers in the win.

"I was very impressed with the way they stepped up for our team," she said. "They joined together and made their teammates believe in each other."

Thomasville, South Davie, Thomasville again and Lexington were no match for the Jaguars, who won all four matches in two games. The run propelled them to 9-0. Eight of the wins have come in two games.

The first Thomasville match belonged to servers Amy Steller, Orr, Parrish and Savannah Yost.

"The whole team played a part in this win," she said. "I am very pleased with the way they are pulling together and coming from behind. I have told the girls that just because they are undefeated does not mean they can relax. We have got to work hard to improve and remain a team."

Yost knocked down 10 straight serves against South Davie. Smith and Steller had strong runs in the rematch with Thomasville. The Lexington match was no different, with Ellis winning easily and Orr and Parrish producing consistently at server.

South Davie Football Team Endures Agonizing Loss

In the aftermath of last week's 14-8 home loss to North Davidson, South Davie football coach Perry Long was left to wonder about what might have been.

The Tigers had opportunities to snatch the game in the second half, but they kept self-destructing in the red zone and went home in a somber mood. The loss dropped South to 2-1.

But it's not time to give up hope in the Davie-Davidson Conference race. Last year South endured a painful home loss, bounced back and ultimately shared the title with a 7-1 record.

"North Davidson played their championship game against us," Long said. "They've still got Thomasville. They could take some teams lightly and somebody could get them. We've still got a chance. Like I told them, we've got to play every game like it's a championship game if we still want to have a chance."

South was hampered by the absence of half of the 1-2 punch in the backfield. Star Stephen Smoot (pulled tailbone muscle) did not play.

North took the opening kickoff of the second half coast to coast to put South in a 14-0 hole. South responded with a clutch drive, converted the two-pointer and cut North's lead to 14-8.

From there, the Tigers squandered one chance after another at tying the game or taking the lead. Rackwon Gray bolted to the North 1, only to have the long run negated by a penalty.

They had three more hiccups deep in North territory. After getting a first-and-goal at the 9, they were hurt by penalties. Later, flags bogged them down after reaching the North 10. In their last-ditch effort, they reached the North 20. Then came an interception at the 15.

"The corner made a heckuva play to intercept it," Long said. It all added up to an agonizing loss.

"We had opportunities to win the game," he said. "They were hurt about it. Those are the kind of games that are heartbreaking. I think we learned from it. Because if we'd played the first half like we played the second half, it would have been a whole different ballgame. In the first half, we let North feel like they could play with us. We gave them hope that they could play with us."

Notes: The Wildcats weren't far from 50-plus points. Besides Lowe's fumble deep in Tyro territory, Horne had what would have been a 45-yard TD waved off by a holding penalty. The flag came with Horne on the doorstep of the end zone. ... One of Tyro's TDs was questionable. North appeared to have an interception in the end zone, but the official ruled it a catch for Tyro.

North settled the score from last year's 22-16 loss to South.

going to become the starting backfield."

The defense was led by Johnson, who had seven tackles. Cole Blankenship was next with six. Johnson and Blankenship got significant help from Alex Gobble, Kenyan Tatum and Jordan Foucheux, who had five apiece. Logan Hendricks and Lowe had four each. Blankenship, Foucheux, Hendricks, Horne, Sam Nesbit and Ray Bell all had one tackle for loss.

"Johnson played real good on defense," said Kirk, who also recognized the defense of Nesbit.

Old School Davie Sports From 1990

Davie's varsity football team blew a fourth-quarter lead for the third time in a 20-13 loss at Diddle. The 0-5 War Eagles had leads of 7-6 and 13-12.

A 33-yard pass from Patrick Murphy to Allan Chapman set up a 1-yard sneak for Murphy. Sean Garnett's extra point gave Davie the 7-6 lead.

Jason McCray recovered a fumble on Dudley's next possession, but Davie couldn't take advantage. Davie did capitalize on a defensive play by Gary Blalock, who nailed the punter for a 15-yard loss at the Dudley 30. On third-and-8 from the Dudley 18, Murphy and Chapman connected for a touchdown and the 13-12 lead. But Dudley promptly drove 77 yards in 11 plays for the game's final score.

Davie's volleyball team improved to 12-2 and 9-1 in the CPC after wins over Dudley, Mount Tabor and Reynolds. The catalysts for Davie were Kim McClelland, Casey Jenkins, Michelle McHan, Kristy Kowalske, Kelly Ramsey and Joanna Dyson.

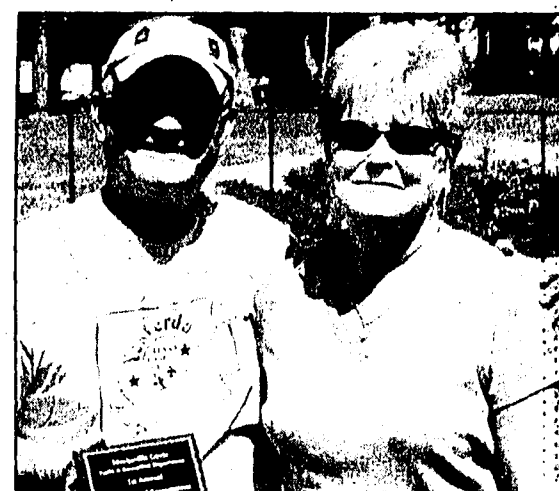

Hamilton Cuthrell rushed for 124 yards and four touchdowns and Kyle Duncan made a mind-boggling 29 tackles (19 solos) as North Davie's freshman football team steamrolled Lexington 57-8. Duncan also caused four fumbles.

The 3-0 Wildcats got 94 rushing yards from Jared Eare and 76 from Roger Dalton. North dominated despite not having Tyrone Martin, who was averaging 140 yards a game.

Kevin Grubb and Jerome Carter rushed for 88 and 87 yards, respectively, as South Davie's freshman football team edged previously-unbeaten Chestnut Grove 14-6. Maric Lewis set up a short TD pass by completing a 40-yarder to Michael Gaither. Ron Armstrong anchored the defense.

Penny Sampson, Jenny Stewart and Jaime Hunter had two hits each as North Davie's softball team beat Chestnut Grove 9-4 in game one. In an 8-7 win in game two, North got two hits from Hunter, Jonette Willard, Barney, Stewart, Sampson and Krissi Pack.

Shortly after moving up to leadoff batter for South Davie's softball team, Tracie Sechrest delivered five hits in a double-header sweep of North Davidson. The scores were 11-9 and 15-5.

TDs For Education

Davie Community Foundation is excited to announce the Touchdowns for Education Team will take the field again during the 2008 Season. Last year's team scored $6,600 for the Community Scholarship Fund, and this year's team plans to do more. On Oct. 10, when the Davie War Eagles face off against archival West Forsyth, the Touchdowns for Education Team will also take the field. Every time Davie scores a touchdown, the Touchdowns for Education Team members will each donate $100 to the Community Scholarship Fund at the Foundation.

For the first time, sports fans will also be able to be part of the "Team." You can "Donate $1 and Invest in a Scholar" at the ticket booth or toss your change in at the concession stand manned by Foundation board members and volunteers. All of the donations will help Davie County young people pursue a college education.

First-round draft picks for this year's Touchdowns for Education Team include: Davie Construction Company; Davie Farm Service, Edwards, Falls and Renegar; Fuller Contracting; Fuller Welding & Fabricators; Grady McClanrock, Attorney; Interstate Seeding, Inc.; Magnolia Construction; Mid South Drilling, Inc.; North Davie Rulians; Webb Heating & Air Conditioning Co., Inc.; and Zeko's Village. They are joined by newcomers Anderson Aggregates; BB&T; Everhart Honda, and Fuller Architecture, Inc.

The 2007 Touchdown Team donated $3,600 to the Community Scholarship Fund and $3,000 in scholarship awards to Davie high graduates. Recipients of 2008 Community Scholarships are Hannah Jakob, Davidson College; Michael Domanski, NC State University; and Amanda Chaffin, East Carolina University. They join 35 other young people receiving scholarships administered by the Davie Community Foundation for the 2008-09 school year.

"Any Davie County resident age 21 or younger is eligible to apply for a scholarship through the foundation."

If you'd like to be part of the 2008 Touchdowns for Education Team, contact the Foundation office at 753-6903 before Oct. 3. "You'll be investing in Davie County's most precious resource - our children," Simpson said.

Kenny Booe has gone from manager to player. "You think about the movie Waterboy. You never know what a kid's ability is until he gets a shot," Devore Holman said.

on the depth chart. But he grew up on the run and created a buzz in his first action. He didn't dress in the first game against Watauga. He dressed but wasn't eligible in the second game against West Rowan. He was eligible against Thomasville, but didn't touch the field.

In the fourth game against Providence Day, Booe hit the field for mop-up duty. All he did was make three solo tackles, including one for a loss. Davie had not made a tackle in the backfield all game.

"You think about the movie Waterboy, and this resembles that a little bit," defensive coordinator Devore Holman said. "You never know what a kid's ability is until he gets a shot to do it, and he got that opportunity. And it's so good for him. It's so good for him because he needs this. He's just glad to be apart of something."

Holman had serious doubts when he saw D-line coach Mike Herndon sending Booe onto the field against Providence Day. Three tackles later, Booe was receiving rave reviews.

"When I first saw him go out on the field, I was like, 'I want our best in there right now,'" Holman said. "Herndon said, 'I want him to play.' Three tackles later, Herndon said: 'See.

See."

In the next game against Berry Academy, Christian Peebles, the starting nose guard, was out with an injury. Booe entered in the second defensive series, and he was destructive again. Before injuring his shoulder early in the second quarter, Booe had amassed five tackles, three solo stops and one tackle for loss.

"He was in on the first four tackles," Illing said.

"He was making all kinds of plays until he got hurt," Herndon said.

Herndon has a term for what Booe did to Providence Day and Berry Academy: He waterbayed them.

"I didn't know how he would react," Herndon said. "It's a great story for a kid who hadn't played football before."

The feisty Booe has completed a climb from rock bottom on the depth chart to a viable option at backup. That's nothing short of incredible.

"If you'd told me at the beginning of the season that he'd be playing football at the high school level, I'd said you're crazy," Whitlock said. "But he loves it. His motor doesn't stop. He's been a plus. Getting him to play has been one of the highlights of our year so far."

"He knows the difference between 'Here, boy' and 'See 'em,'" Holman said. "He's been able to do some good stuff and contribute to our defense tremendously. That's amazing."

"He's excited that he's getting to participate," Illing said. "He's just doing what the coaches have shown him - whatever he can to help the team."

Even if Booe doesn't make another play this year, he's done something that's inspirational. He's made anything seem possible.

"He gives our OL fits because he's quick," Herndon said. "If you double-team him, he's going to struggle. But what he does well is he explodes off the ball and he gets off blocks. He probably doesn't know what he's doing down there. He just goes. But he's around the football. Every time you turn around, he's around the football."

Davie At Page

Defining Segment Of The Schedule Begins Friday

By Brian Pitts
Enterprise Record

Now the fun begins that will define the Davie football season.

Davie overmatched Providence Day and Berry Academy in the last two games. However, the final nonconference game on Friday night at 7:30 at Page will be another matter entirely. This will provide a telling barometer for the rest of the season.

Both teams are coming off a bye and will have had two weeks to get primed.

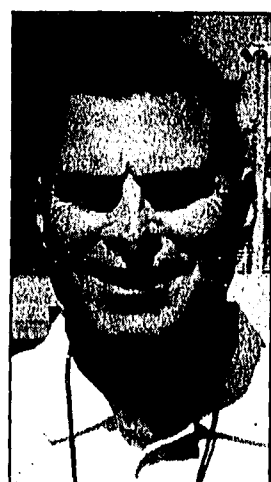

Last year's game at Davie was a doozy, with Davie holding on 42-35 before a homecoming crowd, and this Friday looks like a dynamic matchup. The War Eagles (4-1) have lit up the scoreboard like a pinball machine, scoring 41, 35, 34, 38 and 51 points. Their only loss was 38-34 at unbeaten Thomasville.

Page (3-2) has been impressive all year, even in defeat. The Pirates ripped apart Reynolds (31-7), Northwest Guilford (36-7) and Southern Lee (32-6) for a 3-0 start. Their euphoria was tempered in back-to-back losses to Ragsdale (21-14) and Dudley (28-21).

Davie does not relish the idea of starting conference play fresh off a loss. Page can not fathom three straight losses after such a promising start. But don't be misled by Page's losses. Both were by seven points, and both Ragsdale and Dudley are undefeated.

"Dudley could compete with Catawba, and Page just had some tough turnovers," Davie coach Doug Illing said. "Page got some tough breaks against Ragsdale. Page went up and down the field, and Ragsdale's a good ballclub, too."

Just like every other team that Page faces, Davie will put a priority in trying to contain quarterback Will Newman, who had his way in last year's loss at Davie, going 13 of 24 for 186 yards, four touchdowns and no interceptions. Newman went 10 of 15 for 162 yards against Reynolds, 10 of 16 for 133 yards against NE Guilford and 16 of 25 for 174 yards and three TDs against Dudley. Newman may also burn you with his legs. He rushed for 119 yards against NE Guilford, and he had a 66-yard TD run against Ragsdale.

Doug Illing

"He'll pull it down in a second," Illing said. "He'd almost rather pull it down and run with it than he would throw it. He's very dangerous."

Building up an opponent is an age-old tradition, but Illing wasn't overstating anything when he talked about Page's swarming defense, especially the D-line. The defense allowed one TD in the first three games. Southern Lee's runners were held to 2 yards or less 21 times. One of Dudley's TDs came on a 34-yard run on fourth-and-7. Page scored a Dudley team that has beaten three traditional powers - Grimsley, Richmond County and Carver.

After the 3-0 start, Page defensive back T.J. Todd told the Greensboro News & Record: "We think we have the best defense in the state. Our motto for our defense is the 'Red Death.' We just don't allow people to get any yards."

Todd will get no argument from Illing.

"Page will be the biggest team we've seen so far, that's for sure," he said. "We saw these kind of athletes against West Rowan and Thomasville. West Rowan had some big guys, just not as many as Page. On Page's defensive line, one is 6-6 and 300 pounds and another one is 6-4, 250."

Davie defensive coordinator Devore Holman chimed in: "His arms are so long he can roll his socks up without bending over."

The effort by Davie's offensive line will likely be a big factor, and while runner James Mayfield will be back after missing three full games, senior left tackle Josh Burcham is doubtful with an ankle injury suffered during practice.

"They're going to try to man you up and bring some pressure at times, and at times they're going to drop eight and bring three-man pressure," Illing said. "Thomasville did some of that. It's the same blitzes we've been seeing, so we feel good about our preparation there."

Notes

• The War Eagles took a 3-0 series lead in last year's shootout. They grabbed a 21-14 halftime lead when Santana Arnold blocked a field goal and returned the loose change 55 yards for a touchdown. They put the game away, 35-21, on a 33-yard reverse pass from Floyd Collins to Ryan Hutchinson. But the stats were dead even. Davie had 19 first downs to Page's 18 and Davie had 347 yards to Page's 317. Mayfield had 77 yards on 22 rushes.

• Among the players to watch for Page are Perry Fryer, Bradley Workinger, Jeremy Collier and Thuc Phan. Fryer had a 68-yard TD run against Reynolds and two rushing TDs against Southern Lee. Workinger and Collier had 33- and 32-yard TD receptions, respectively, against Reynolds.

Collier turned two slip screens into long TDs against Southern Lee.

• For good karma, Davie is 2-0 at Page, both coming in the second round of the playoffs. Davie won 36-20 in '02 and 34-14 in '03.

• Five players who have been sidelined are expected back for Page: Linebacker Jared Barber, running back/linebacker Mayfield, running back/quarterback Jacob Barber, cornerback Josh Money and defensive lineman Christian Peebles.

• Burcham and Cioce are both doubtful for Page. As distressing as that was for offensive line coach Chad Groover, several playmakers are healing up just in time for the meat of the schedule.

• After missing the Berry Academy game with a back injury, sophomore defensive lineman Christian Peebles said: "I'll be back next week."

• Peebles' injury is a slipped disc in his back," coach Doug Illing said. "I think once it gets back in place he'll be OK."

• Running back James Mayfield (shoulder) missed his third full game at Berry Academy, although he could have played had it been a competitive opponent. He won't miss Page.

"I'm ready," Mayfield said. "They've been saving me for Page. I could have played tonight, but there really wasn't any use and (risk) getting banged up again. But I'm ready to get back on the field."

"He's been busting his butt and running sprints during practice - 200-100-yard sprints while being timed," Illing said. "He's fouling at the mouth."

• The Barber brothers should be back. Running back Jacob Barber has missed two games with a couple broken toes. Linebacker Jared Barber has missed two games with a shoulder injury.

"Jacob looks like he's getting around better and better each day," Illing said. "I think he should be healed up."

• Shytek Brown, a senior cornerback, has missed four games with a broken jaw. But he may only miss one more. He could be back for the conference opener against West Forsyth.

"He should be released West Forsyth week," Illing said. "He's got the wires out; the plate's going to stay. They said it looks good. We're going to look at a face mask that can come down a little bit lower to help protect it. His energy will be very welcomed back on that defense."

• Since the War Eagles have had to adjust to playing without so many starters, they will be all the better when the starters return. What's more, they know they've got replacements ready at any time.

"We'll have a lot of experience," Illing said. "When we get healthy, it should be a boost to us."

BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT

'We Sell Boxes'

Packers Moving Supplies, 535-E E.Clemmonsville Road

Remember the good old days when gas was less than a dollar a gallon, and when you pulled up to the gas station, someone came out to pump the gas for you? They checked your oil and the tire pressure in your tires at no charge. Some stations even went as far as giving discounts just for being a loyal customer.

Yes this was the standard, not the exception back in the good old days.

At Packers Moving Supplies, we feel you should be treated as good now as you were back then. That's why we service what we sell and put money back in your pocket.

"We are a local company that has been in business for 14 years," notes Mike Haynes, owner and operator. "We have been providing boxes, tape, newspaper, bubble wrap, wardrobes, furniture pads and more for those of you making a move, remodeling, or for just storing things away."

Have Packers? Let Packers do it for you. For many of the customers, Haynes has provided professional packing of entire households or smaller areas such as the kitchen making the task of moving a less stressful experience.

We supply the materials and labor - you just relax. Want to do your own packing? Then we'll deliver (locally) to your home at no charge when you order our Start-Up Package of boxes, tape, dish packs and newspaper. This saves you time, money, and gas.

"We also give estimates for packing at no charge, whether it's your entire house or just one or two rooms."

To complete their service, Packers will come and pick up your used boxes (locally) after your move at no additional charge.

You may not be able to buy gas for a dollar anymore, but Packers has used boxes starting at less than a dollar.

"You will find our prices very competitive," Haynes mentions. "We offer moving supplies at the lowest cost you'll find and packing prices lower than most moving companies."

When you order your moving supplies from Packers, you can save money in many ways.

"You can order used boxes at a used price, or you can purchase a Starter Package and automatically receive a 10% discount on the entire package, not just the boxes," explains Haynes.

Packers will also refund, in full, any boxes, tape, newspaper, etc. (purchased new) that you do not use.

WINNERS

Congratulations to last week's winners in our Contest

First Place = $25 to Julie Lookabill
Second Place = $5 to Jimmy Lookabill

The Lookabill family kept the contest all to themselves this week finishing both First and Second place.

First Place this week goes to...
Julie Lookabill

who missed just 7 games and stood alone at the top of the mountain this week.

The runner up this week was...

who missed just 8 games to outpace several others who were close behind him with 9 missed games.

The Davie War Eagles took a much needed week off last week and will get back on the grid-iron this week with an always tough team of Pirates from Greensboro. It looks to be a close game. Both teams have some good wins but Davie is mending a lot of injuries at various positions. NCpreps.com has the War Eagles ranked 7th in their 4A Baker's Dozen.

West Forsyth got out the canoes and paddled all over East Forsyth last week in a rainy wet game. North Davidson lost in their weather delayed game falling at the hands of High Point Central.

The Bulldogs from the Citadel will travel to Boone to face the Mountaineers this week as ASU tries to put together a complete game in front of its Homecoming crowd. The Apps struggled early last week against the Blue Hose of Presbyterian before finally running away with the game in the second half.

UNC looks for another big test this week as they take on unbeaten UConn. Maryland has recovered from an early loss and now faces Virginia who is coming off a tough loss to the Duke Blue Devils. Boston College will face its old coach as the Eagles take on NC State. Tom O'Brien is looking for consistency in his Wolfpack team reeling from injuries.

In the sunshine state Florida State will have a backyard brawl with in-state rivals Miami.

In the pros the Panthers looked pretty good last week defeating the Atlanta Falcons in Charlotte. This week the Kansas City Chiefs come to town. The Dallas Cowboys look to get back on track after last week's loss to long-time rival Washington as they face the Cincinnati Bengals. It doesn't get any easier for the Redskins though as they must face the always strong Philadelphia Eagles.

It looks like another strong week of games. Keep those entries coming and if you win first place don't forget your cap. Wear it proudly!

ALL CONTEST ENTRIES MUST INCLUDE A FULL MAILING ADDRESS AND PHONE NUMBER AND PLEASE, NO NICKNAMES.

Entries that do not meet these requirements will be disqualified. WE WILL BE MAILING ALL CHECKS TO THE WINNERS. THANKS!

Weekly First Place Winners may pick up their Ball Cap at the newspaper office.

Notes: Senior Alex Folk, who missed the first half of the season with an ankle injury, has softened the blow of losing Costner Merrifield to a sickness. Folk racked up seven blocks against West. Three were solo blocks. "For the lack of practice she's had, she's doing alright," Miller said. "Think where she could have been right now if she hadn't gotten hurt. She is huge for us right now." ... Davie had lost nine of 10 to West before sweeping the Titans. ... Davie has immediately bounced back from its four losses.

Gryder's Streak Ends At 9

It appears that Davie's tennis team is going to finish outside the top three for the first time since 2000. You can trace the tumble in the Central Piedmont Conference to inexperience (Davie has two seniors).

Last week the War Eagles lost 7-2 to visiting Mount Tabor and 8-1 at Reynolds. Sandwiched in between was a 9-0 home win over North Forsyth.

Claire Coleman was involved in the only victories against Tabor, which improved to 6-2 overall and 6-0 in the CPC. Coleman pulled out a 6-4, 6-7, 11-9 decision at No. 6 singles, and she teamed with Caroline Cozart for an 8-4 win at No. 3 doubles.

No. 3 Lauren Gryder was 9-0 in singles before watching her perfect record fall in a 6-1, 6-4 decision.

The War Eagles walked all over North Forsyth, and they did it with a ton of subs.

The only regulars who played in singles were No. 1 Tori Kennedy and Gryder, who moved up to No. 2. Freshmen Megan Jarvis, Merideth Hanes and Paige Smart and sophomore Kali Davis all won with ease in their singles debuts. Elizabeth Kennedy-Brittany Roycroft and Cozart-Coleman won by a combined 16-1 at Nos. 1-2 doubles. Freshmen Macy Williams and Madison Junker won 8-0 at No. 3 doubles, their second win in as many tries.

While North Forsyth provided relief for the War Eagles, they were right back in the grinder at Reynolds (7-3, 6-2 CPC). The only win came from E. Kennedy-Roycroft at No. 2 doubles.

The 1-2 stretch dropped Davie to 6-6 overall and 2-6 in the CPC.

CPC Swallows Up Davie Soccer

After the Davie varsity soccer team lost 5-0 to West Forsyth, it got worse for Davie. The War Eagles were swallowed up 10-0 by Mount Tabor.

The War Eagles, who played both games at home, trailed West 3-0 at the half in the Central Piedmont Conference opener for both teams. The win squared West's record at 4-4-2.

Junior keeper Joel Stilling experienced a subpar first half, but he did his part - and then some - in the final 40 minutes.

"There were three (more) goals that could have been scored in the second half," coach Lance Everett said. "They were rocket shots, and I don't know how he got a hand on them. It could have been worse than what it was."

Everett is incredibly concerned about the War Eagles' psyche. He is not concerned at all with senior Brenden Hanes' heart. Hanes has a will to win that the coach adores.

"Brenden works his butt off and plays as hard as he can," he said. "He does not want to lose."

The margin against Tabor, which led 4-0 at the break, was the most lopsided in at least 13 years. Davie did not lose by 10 between 1996-07. The decision lifted Tabor's records to 3-4-1 and 1-1 in the CPC.

The War Eagles are 3-4-1 outside the league, but the CPC is brutal. The games were just as dismal for the Davie junior varsity (0-9 overall). It lost 5-0 to West and 4-0 to Tabor.

Golf Team Stuck In Third

There's little question Davie's golf team is the third-best in the Central Piedmont Conference. It has finished third in all four CPC matches.

There's no doubt Caitlyn Brake is the No. 2 player in the league. In the four meets, she has finished second three times and first once.

Last week at Reynolds Park, Brake's 11-over 47 was second to a 41 by Mount Tabor's Kristi Ingram. Only two other players broke 50. Brake had shot 43 and 41 in the previous two matches.

"They don't have a ladies tee, so they had to play a longer course than they normally play," coach Jerry Callison said. "And the greens had just been done. There were a lot of factors today. From the green tees it was 5,456 (yards). Here at Lake Louise, from the ladies tees it's 4,720. Reynolds Park was (736) yards longer. It was tough."

In a nonconference meet at The Warrior, Brake's 8-over 44 was fourth behind a 36, 37 and 38. She was 5-over after eight before tripling her last hole.

Carmen Grubb was second at 52. The sophomore played better than the score suggests. "I watched Carmen all the way around, and I thought she played really well," Callison said. "She hit a lot of good shots, much better than she had been hitting. I think if she does that again, she'll score real well."

The conditions were not kind. It rained off and on throughout the round.

"I would not have wanted to play in it," he said. "It was enough rain to make you uncomfortable, and our girls never carry umbrellas. It was a little chilly. It was cold, windy and rainy."

Notes: Brake's 5-over 41 two weeks ago at Salem Glen was, indeed, the third-best score in Davie's seven-year history of girls golf. The one and two spots are held by Brittany Walker, who shot 1-over 37 at The Warrior and 3-over 37 at Bermuda Run West in 2002. Walker was a senior in '02. ... At Reynolds Park, the team scores were Mount Tabor 147, Reynolds 153, Davie 163, North Davidson 166 and West Forsyth 176. ... At The Warrior, Salisbury shot 11-over 119, North Meck 121 and Davie 156.

Thompson Beats 100

The Davie girls cross country team made a solid showing in Saturday's Greensboro Invitational at Hagan Stone Park, placing 12th out of 23 teams. The only blemish in coach Darie Beiter's eyes was finishing three points behind conference rival West Forsyth.

If Davie had Emerald Tuthill and Rachel Howell, both of whom didn't run, it could have been a different story against West.

"Being a conference opponent and the conference meet coming up soon, we'd really like to get in front of them," Beiter said. "We were missing a couple of girls who would have definitely helped us in getting ahead of West."

Holly Thompson shined, finishing 35th out of 156 competitors with a time of 21:23. Caitlin Tutterow, who always finishes first or second for Davie, was 45th at 21:45. Tutterow has made Thompson better, and Thompson has done the same for Tutterow - exactly the formula Beiter wants.

Thompson has really excelled when you consider she didn't run last year as a freshman.

"She had a really strong race," he said. "The last couple of races she's realized she can run with Caitlin. We're glad she came out. In fact, we're really glad. It's hard to have one person out in front and nobody ever challenging that person. But now we've got two people challenging each other. It's going to make us better as a team, and it's going to make them better individually. And Emerald is right behind Holly and Caitlin."

Davie had a pack from 88th through 96th. The group was Heather Whitehead, Alex Keiser, Kaitlyn Hutchins and Kaitlyn Smith.

"It was nice having a group of girls like that," he said. "They ran strong in some pretty bad conditions. Some of them had their best times of the season, so it's looking positive for the girls."

The boys, however, struggled again, closing 26th out of 28 teams.

"We've got a lot of guys working hard, but we're still looking for improvement," Beiter said.

Andrew Allen (18:43) and Jacob Whitaker (19:53) led a team that was limited by the absence of Lake Slabach (sick). But Davie's third runner was a surprising junior - Ben Burton. He has gained considerable ground since the start of the season.

"He's been coming on strong," he said. "He's surprising a lot of us, including assistant coach John Clevenger and myself. He has gone from being the 10th runner on our team to now our third or fourth runner. So we've still got some bright spots even though we're not finishing as high as we'd like to finish."

Helping Others

Group Comes To Rescue Of Couple That Served Davie

By Mike Barnhardt
Enterprise Record

There's a message on the side of Tom Cook's wrecker: "23 and 3/4 hours service, the other 15 minutes we sleep."

There have been several nights over the years when that was true. Cook was busy all night - helping others.

A long-time member of the Davie County Rescue Squad and a wrecker operator, Cook nowadays takes a few daytime calls. At night - every night - he's hooked onto a kidney dialysis machine.

His wife Nancy, also a Rescue Squad volunteer in her day and retired after 38 years working in the Davie County Hospital Emergency Room, now stays at Autumn Care nursing home. Cook is unable to adequately care for her and himself.

"I just take it one day at a time," he said from his home on Gladstone Road. "I don't let it worry me."

Next Monday, the Davie County Law Enforcement Association is sponsoring a fish fry at the Pier 601 seafood restaurant on Yadkinville Road in Mocksville. Donations for the fried flounder and popcorn shrimp plates will go to the Cooks.

Cook said he got into the wrecker business by hanging around with the late Tip Lefler. They went to about every traffic wreck in the county, and to a few races. He got his first wrecker in 1965, and had it on the road the next year.

It was during those years when the rescue squad was mentioned. "I said, 'I go to the wrecks anyway, I guess I can learn that, too'. I enjoyed it and I would still enjoy it if I was able."

"Just about every day, I was tied up in the rescue squad in some way or another. Me and Nancy both put a lot of time in the squad."

"The name of the game was to help. You couldn't do that kind of work if you thought too much about yourself."

More than once, Cook put his own life on the line while trying to save other people and their property. And those were the days before plastic gloves, protective suits and head gear.

It didn't matter that he couldn't swim. Whenever the rescue boat was called to a pond, river or lake - Cook was in it - wearing a life preserver, of course. He's also scared of heights, but said neither bothered him while on a rescue call.

"It's because I wasn't thinking about myself," he said.

Cook was a member of the rescue squad for 23 years, the last 10 as chief.

Cook enjoyed his work, but said he didn't make a lot of money. "I made a living."

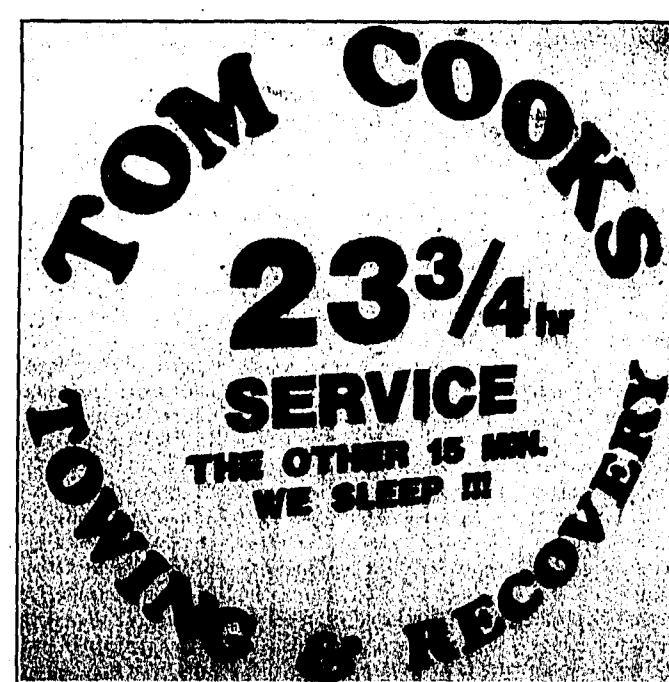

He and Nancy both suffer from diabetes, and Nancy also has Alzheimer's.

"I kept her here as long as I could," he said. "For a while, the firefighters would come and help get her in and out of the chair because I got to where I couldn't help her get up and down."

The nursing home, he said, "is eating the money up ... but we can't get no help."

That doesn't mean Cook isn't willing to keep helping others.

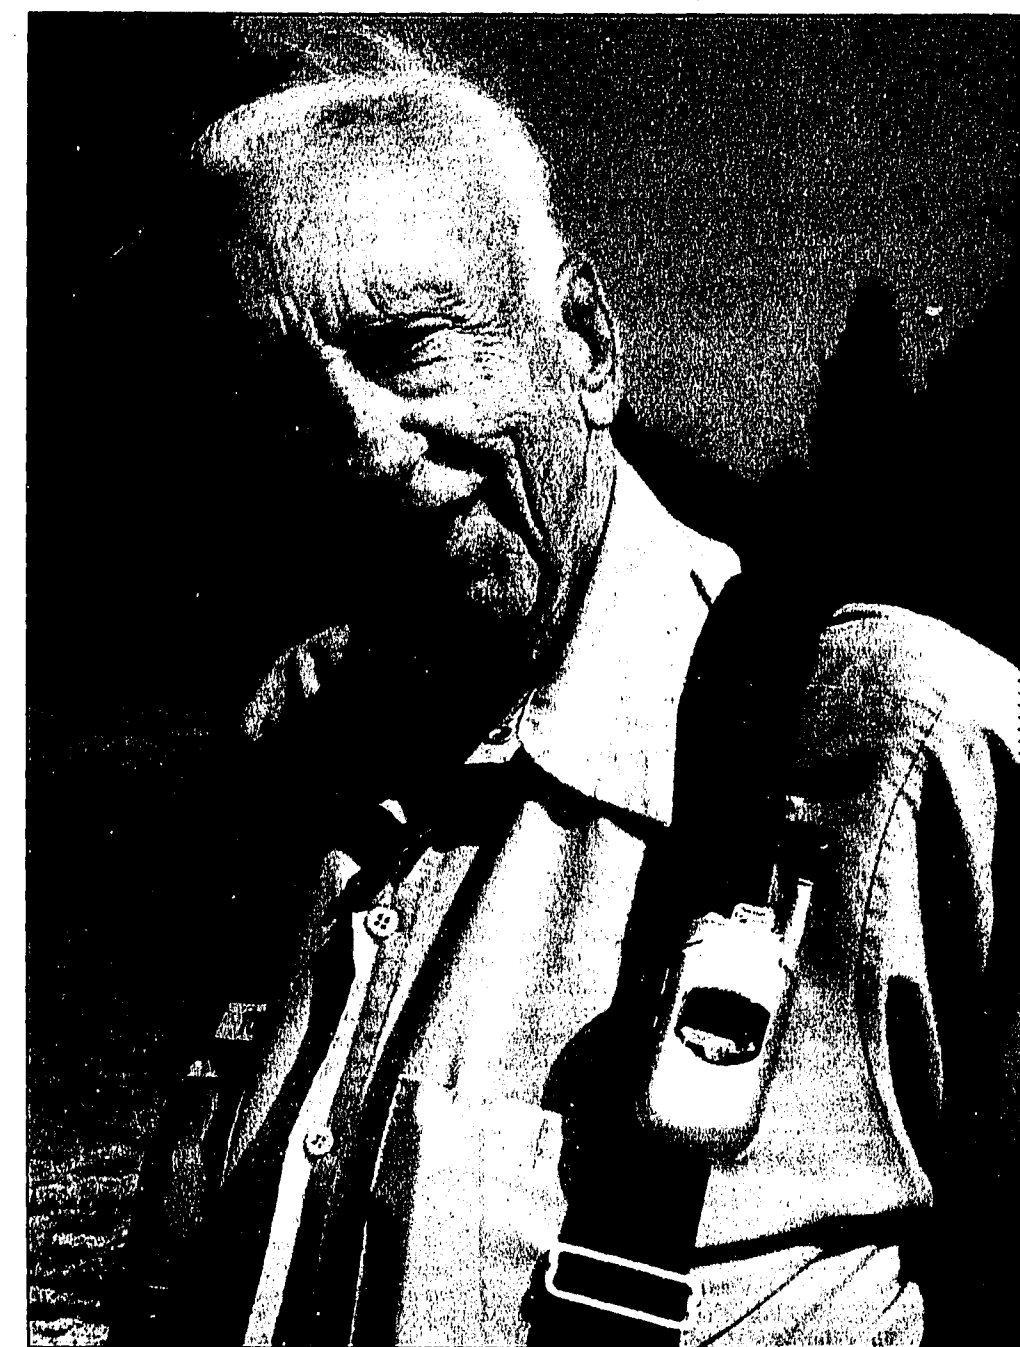

"If somebody calls me during the daytime, I'll help them if I can," he said.

The message on the side of his truck wasn't far from the truth.

Davie Place

Offering Assisted Living Community

Barbara Tattersall, one of our newest residents, is so happy she can have her 3 year old cat, Kitty, living with her at Davie Place. A true animal lover, she has had as many as twelve horses at one time that she took great pleasure in showing and riding in the parades. Living on twelve acres in Winston Salem gave her a great setting for her horses, dogs and cats.

Barbara has done many things in her life from working as a pharmacy assistant to working in a nursing home but she got the most pleasure from working in a veterinary office. "Being around the animals was something I really enjoyed."

She's looking forward to her visit home for the holidays, but really likes the care she receives while here at Davie Place, especially from Katie and Sharon. The food is wonderful and the activities she likes best are the exercise periods and, of course, bingo.

Barbara is looking forward to being re-united with her second, eighteen year old cat that she is hoping to bring to Davie Place. We here at Davie Place understand the strong bond she feels with her animals and are pleased to be able to allow our residents to maintain that bond.

Davie Schools

Mocksville Elementary
Kindergarten students are learning letters, specifically m and t. They learned that m is like Munching Mike, one of the Letterland characters. Another Letterlander they know is Talking Tess, who helps with words that begin with t. In math they are learning to graph, how to create and cover pattern block designs as well as using manipulatives to act out stories. Thematic units are Fall and Community Helpers. Students learn about seasonal changes taking place right now. They like to discuss and chart observations about the seasonal changes. Community Helpers are important and students talk about a variety of them. They recently read a book about a kindergarten class that took a trip to visit several community helpers. Kindergarten will visit a farm in October.

The students in Ms. Norris' and Mrs. May's first grade class are excited about autumn. The students are learning about the changes they will see in the autumn. They are learning why the leaves change color and why certain trees turn certain colors. Students created a book that shows what the trees look like throughout the seasons. Students are learning what an addition sentence is and how to write them. They are using manipulatives to create addition sentences to 10.

Mrs. Martin's and Mrs. Forbes' second grade class has been studying about weather and the hurricane season. They observed hurricane Hannah and the using Smartboard technology. John Wendel, a Davie resident and meteorologist at Charlotte, will present a program on weather for second graders Oct. 1. Second graders have attended the YMCA swim safety class. They used the rescue raft as well as the rubber raft. This class enhances the curriculum and provides lessons in water safety.

Mrs. Lunkford and Mrs. Nagel's third grade class has been reading types of literature including a historical fiction story, a fable and a realistic fiction story. Students have been learning to sequence parts of the story and draw conclusions about the main characters. They made predictions and watched to see if they happened. Groups have worked hard to learn new vocabulary for each story as well as new spelling words. In math they are working together in groups and gathering data. Students take this data and organize it onto data tables before they spend it onto a bar graph to see better. At the end, they write to tell what they learned from their investigations. One day each child had a bag of skittles to organize and graph. Next, they will begin a science unit on plants. The unit will help them understand what plants need to grow, what is inside a seed and how a plant gets its food. At the end of the unit, they will take a field trip to SciWorks in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. McKnight's students have been learning about graphs and have been learning about problem solving strategies. Students are excited about the new math program, Trailblazers. They have done several hands-on labs and are ready to start Unit 2, geometry. In reading, students have started The War with Grandpa. This is a comical book about a boy named Peter, who Grandpa Jack comes to live with. Due to Grandpa's poor health, Peter has to move to a different bedroom on the second floor of his home. The book is about Peter and what he does to try to get his room back. In social studies, students continue studying about North Carolina and its regions. They learned facts about the regions in North Carolina, about landforms, industries in each region.

Mr. Brooks' students, in reader's workshop, are spending time and doing activities where they practice visualizing and creating mental images of what they read. The students have had fun creating visuals to go with Robert Frost and Shel Silverstein poems. Creating visuals is a skill they practice in writer's workshop where students are practicing using good rich detail to paint a clear picture in the reader's head. In science they are continuing to explore ecosystems. Students participated in three hands-on labs involving dead trees and food webs. Students created their own food web on Kidspiration.

Cornatzer Elementary
Third grade classes during August and September learned classroom rules and procedures and got to know each other. They are learning about the Davie County community and tying that into a geography unit. Each student completed a Davie County brochure for social studies. The children and their parents went on the Internet as well as drove around Davie County to take pictures of important areas and people in the community. As students presented projects it helped to remind them what a wonderful community they live in.

The Math Trailblazers program has had students graphing. Third graders know about using data tables, graphs, making predictions and taking samples of populations. They are reviewing addition and subtraction facts to help prepare for the multiplication facts looming around the bend.

Grandparents visited and ate lunch recently. Students enjoyed presenting grand-parents with a paper they had written about them. As they discussed grand-parents all week long, they learned what special people they are. In all discussions, the thing students enjoyed the most about their grand-parents is spending time with them.

For the past few weeks, kindergarten have been getting to know each other, their teachers, and the rules and procedures of school. There has been so much to learn how to put your things away in your cubby, how to line up and walk in the halls, what bus to get on, where to sit, what to do in the cafeteria, and practicing a fire drill.

During our first full week together, students talked about families, how they are all alike and different, and how they are all held together by a special kind of glue - love. Students drew pictures of their family and began preparing for Grandparent's Day Lunch. They read what they love about their grand-parents and sang a special song to them.

For color week, we focused on one color each day, colored some special booklets, graphed our favorite colors, and experimented with color mixing. Then to commemorate Sept. 11, kindergarten, first grade, and Mrs. Deadmon's class created a chain of red, white and blue strips of paper. Students marched to patriotic music and discussed what happened seven years ago and why they were honoring the firefighters who were kind enough to visit the school. They continued the discussion about their country and the freedoms they enjoy on Constitution Day.

The children learned about pets and how to care for them. Students brought in stuffed animals for a special "Pet Day". They had fun comparing likenesses and differences, sorting, and graphing pets. They also made great reading buddies. Students have been practicing writing their names, exploring math materials, counting numbers, drawing shapes, and learning calendar concepts. They also started Letterland, sight words, and take-home readers.

Thank you to everyone who attended our Kindergarten Parent Night to learn about the curriculum and expectations of kindergarten. Teachers hope the packets sent home are helpful.

Mrs. Mannino and Mrs. Hilton's Cougars of the Week for September: McKenzie Stakely, Lauren Patterson, and Jonathan Reagan. Mrs. Jennings and Mrs. Dunn's Cougars of the Week: Carly Jaycocks, Zachary Wilkes, Jordan Bryant, and Lindsey Bartlett. Mrs. Saarn and Mrs. Blakley's Cougars of the Week are: Haley Lanier, Jeremy Flores-Parada, and Olivia Tucker.

PE teachers are trying to boost fitness at the beginning of school and get students interested in doing physical activity outside of the school day. They are continuing the walking club that started last year but stepping it up. There are about 65 students participating in the after-school walking club that meets twice a week. Students have to walk a total of 22 miles by the end of October to meet their goal.

All students who meet the goal will go on a hike at Salem Lake at the end of October. The club will then follow with two more hikes following the winter and spring challenge.

Mrs. Orsillo's class has been studying bones and skeletons. Students creatively constructed models to show the inside of a bone. Mrs. Carother's class have enjoyed making trains with Unifix Cubes to illustrate math problems. Mrs. Van Offeren's class shared character book projects. Students studied a character in a book and wrote a report about the character. They letters. In math, they are counting their way to 30 and are counting objects. For unit time, they are discussing the season of fall and the changes that beginning to occur outside. They are looking forward to a field trip to Patterson Farms.

First grade students in Mrs. Drane and Mrs. King's class have been "falling" into the new season. Students have had several opportunities to write about fall, leaves, changing seasons, and changes in weather. They enjoyed their first class with Mrs. Crosby, the school counselor. In math, they have been using the number of pockets in their clothing to write addition sentences. The students are learning the doubles addition facts.

The Chapple Apples are learning about the seven continents and four oceans of the world. In reading, stories are different each week. The world's Second grade celebrated Johnny Appleseed's birthday on Sept. 26. They are practicing the school day. They are continuing the walking club that started last year but stepping it up. There are about 65 students participating in the after-school walking club that meets twice a week. Students have to walk a total of 22 miles by the end of October to meet their goal.

Are you living above the line? The Mariners are. This year, the sixth grade Mariners are learning to live above the line. When you are living above the line you are learning to be responsible for your actions and to respect other people. When you are living below the line, you blame others, deny, and doubt yourself. So, ask yourself when you are about to do something negative, are you living like the Mariners, above the line?

Homework is a word that is boomed on the Mariners team. It's Home Fun. Learning to say home fun instead of homework keeps us upbeat and positive about having to do work at home, says one Mariners student. Students work hard to get all of their Home Fun turned in each day so that they can enjoy earned time every Friday. Earned Time is the reward time each week for students who are living above the line in all of their classes.

In science, the Mariners are working on an ecosystem project in groups. They are making an Ecosystem Vodcast (an online movie) with all of the research they are doing on the plants, animals, and climates in different biomes. They are producing Podcasts and using Wikispaces to blog about what they are doing in science. They will use the Wikispaces to write about their other subjects.

One of the neat things the Mariners do in Math is Fantasy Football. In the beginning, they were given $40,000 to create a team of real NFL players. Each week they go to the computer lab and look up the stats of their first string players and see how well their team did that week. They have to multiply and divide to get their final score for the week. As a competition between students in the class, they have weekly math activities related to their teams performance, such as graphing, analyzing data, and problem solving.

In language arts, they are reading The Apprenticeship of Lucas Whitaker, by Cynthia DeFelice. It is a historical fiction involving a boy living during the time of consumption, otherwise known as Tuberculosis which ties into the science curriculum for the scientific method. They are studying the genres in literature and will be doing a genre study during media center time. They write every day in their journals and are looking forward to being published in many places outside of school as well as publishing their own bound book. They continue to read self selected books every day and share their favorites with their classmates.

In social studies, the Mariners are learning the five themes of geography. They read The Cay by Theodore Taylor and did a project involving the themes. They used references from the book to show how the themes are involved in studying the life of Timothy and Phillip and their brief stay on the Cay. Latitude and longitude were used to locate the Cay. They began a timeline to look at European and South American history as related to their own history.

Students are invited to join Beta Club based on academic achievement. The purpose of the club is to encourage effort, reward merit, and to promote qualities of leadership and citizenship. Advisors are Mrs. Kerr and Ms. Fairchild.

Officers for 2008-2009: president, Justin Johnson; secretary, Malgie Leszczak; treasurer, Anna Coleman; treasurer,

The K-2 SMILE class winners were Mrs. Donley's class and Mrs. Prince's class. The 3-5 SMILE winner was Mrs. Gaillard's class.

The fourth graders have been exploring a lot of new things like rocks and minerals, area and perimeter, figurative language, and the election process. Students are also excited about a field trip to Rich Park for Conservation Day in which they will learn all about water conservation and enjoy a packed lunch.

Shady Grove Elementary
Second graders started off the year with a lot of get-to-know-you activities. Students shared information about themselves, and enjoyed learning about classmates. In math they have been learning place value, patterns, odd and even numbers as well as graphs. They started learning addition facts. They started off the year learning about space and the desert in language arts. They also enjoyed some fun activities with apples while learning about Johnny Appleseed. In social studies, the second graders have begun to learn geography. They are

Davie Eagles Cheerleading Earns Bronze

The state bronze medal-winning Davie Eagles Special Olympics cheerleading squad is starting a new season.

In March, the team competed in the state basketball and cheerleading competition in Winston-Salem. Members were Darlene Lagle, Lauren Kirk, Amber Jeffries and Meredith Johnson.

"They took the floor in the first session of the competition a little reserved, but by the second session, all reservations were gone," said Coach Tracy Vogler. "Lauren Kirk led her team to the floor with all out cheers and spirit, and there was no stopping them."

"This was only their third competition, yet they competed like old pros, exemplifying what all coaches wish for in a team. They cheered each other on and nailed their cheer and jumps."

The team practiced weekly for months in preparation for the competition. They received the medals from the Miss North Carolina and Miss Teen North Carolina.

"I encourage everyone who has never attended a Special Olympics event to do so," Vogler said. "It is rewarding, and reminds you of what true sportsmanship is like. Please make sure that you congratulate these ladies if you see them out in the community. They worked really hard and deserve it."

Those knowing someone who could be on the Special Olympics cheerleading team can call Kathie Streit at Mocksville/Davie Parks & Recreation at 751-2325.

Savannah McGunigal and Vogler are coaches for the team, assisted by Jessica Burns.

Learn More About Breast Cancer

October is National Breast Awareness Month and its primary objective is to educate women about breast cancer by emphasizing the importance of early detection through screening mammography.

Kathy Angie, RN, breast and cervical cancer control program coordinator with the Davie County Health Department, shares these facts relative to breast cancer:

- breast cancer is the most common cancer among American women, except for skin cancers;
- breast cancer is the second leading cause of cancer in women, exceeded only by lung cancer;
- the chance of developing invasive breast cancer at some time in a woman's life is about 1 in 8;
- it is estimated that in 2008 about 182,460 new cases of invasive breast cancer will be diagnosed among women in the United States;
- the chance that breast cancer will be responsible for a woman's death is about 1 in 35;
- in 2008, about 40,480 women will die from breast cancer in the United States;
- African American women are more likely to die from breast cancer while more breast cancer diagnoses are Caucasian women;
- women living in North America have the highest rate of breast cancer in the world; and
- men can develop breast cancer but these cancers are rare, men should report suspicious findings to their physician.

Death rates from breast cancer have been declining since about 1990, with larger decreases in women younger than 50.

These decreases are believed to be the result of early detection through screening and increased awareness, as well as improved treatment.

At this time, there are about 2.5 million breast cancer survivors in the United States. The key to survival is early detection. This is done with monthly self-breast exams, annual clinical breast exams and annual mammograms beginning at age 50 or earlier with a family history of finding a lump.

There are programs available for uninsured and underserved women for free mammograms, if you qualify. For more information call Angie at 751-8700. "Remember, early detection is the best prevention," she said.

Schools Keeping Same Grades, For Now

By Beth Cassidy
Enterprise Record

The decision on whether to realign the grades in Davie County Schools has been tabled indefinitely.

The item was not originally part of Monday night's board of education agenda, but Barbara Owens urged adding it on, saying she wanted to see it included because "we are at a crossroads ... all we've done is stop and go, stop and go, but we cannot, as a county, do that anymore. Our kids are only five years old once ... our kids are only high school seniors once ... we do need an elementary school. We do need a second high school. We do need to realign the grades."

Owens, a former educator and administrator, said a vote for realignment would be the first step in a long-range plan.

Only Linda Barnette agreed, and in the end, she and Owens wanted to vote on realignment, while Chair Rick Ellis, Co-chair Terry Renegar, former chair Carl Lambert and one of the newest members of the board, Chad Fuller, voted to table the item indefinitely.

Renegar said the decision is "one of the most significant issues we're going to vote on in a long time."

Beth Dirks New County Manager

By Mike Barnhardt
Enterprise Record

Beth Dirks was 16 when she started working a part-time job with the Town of Mocksville.

Terry Bralley was the town manager, and he made quite an impression on the Davie High School student. "He made it look so fun and exciting. I thought, that's what I want to do someday."

And in a somewhat surprising turn of events on Monday, county commissioners unanimously named Dirks as Bralley's replacement as county manager. It was a job she hadn't originally applied for, but one she accepted after the only applicant, Jim Stockert, withdrew his name from nomination.

Dirks and Stockert both served as Bralley's assistants. "I am honored and humbled the commissioners have confidence in me," Dirks said. "I will do the best of my ability. I look forward to serving the commissioners, the employees and the public."

Dirks earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She was working on her final semester, and applying for jobs when she received a telephone call.

It was Terry Bralley. He offered her a job with the Town of Mocksville. He told her the pay wouldn't be as much as she could make with a private business.

"He said I'll teach you everything I know," she said. "I knew it was an opportunity I couldn't turn down."

Dirks took the job, and while working with the town earned a master's degree. She worked for five years as the Bermuda Run Town Manager before moving to the job of assistant county manager under Bralley in 2005.

Dirks will earn $106,590 annually as county manager, with a $625 monthly travel allowance. Her contract calls for a year's severance package under certain circumstances if the board terminates her as manager.

The job, she said, isn't a stepping stone.

"This is my home. I graduated from Davie High School. I want my girls (London, 4, and Sydney, 3) to grow up here. I'm in it for the long run ... as long as the county wants me."

Stockert was named deputy county manager, and like Dirks, will work for the commissioners. Robin West was named interim finance director, a job previously held by Stockert. Administrative assistant, Stacy Moyer, had her job re-classified to include human resources responsibilities - ones previously held by Dirks.

Board Chair Tom Fleming said that while the policy isn't written,

Ken Boger remembers the day in 1976 when Bob Dole visited Davie High School.

He's been back several times since then, and was here again this month for the opening of the Davie County Republican Headquarters on South Main and Water streets in Mocksville.

"We're honored to have a person of this stature to come to little old Davie County. I know of no one else of his stature who has been here as often," Boger said.

He called Dole a member of America's greatest generation. "I hope and pray this country produces more Bob Doles. He is an American hero."

It was quite an introduction, and got the ball started for 30 minutes or so of rallying the troops to support Republican candidates in the November election.

Dole, of course, was visiting North Carolina campaigning for his wife, Sen. Elizabeth Dole, who is running for re-election.

"This is a key state," Dole said, "whether you're a Democrat, Republican or Independent. The Democrats have targeted this state."

They've singled out Elizabeth ... and are putting $10 million into the race against her."

How do you combat the money? You get people to give of their time, Dole said.

"They've got the money, but we've got the candidates."

John McCain, because of his experience, is the logical choice for president, Dole said. "He can make the decisions and you can have confidence in it."

He said people can relate to Sarah Palin, the GOP vice presidential candidate, because she has a normal family.

Can SNL Actress Rescue McCain's Presidential Bid?

The television show Saturday Night Live may yet prove to be the salvation of John McCain's presidential aspirations. The show's political satires are legendary. The show figured prominently in the comeback of Hillary Clinton last summer as she fought Barack Obama to the last state in the Democratic primary. The show spoofed reporters for being pro-Obama and unfair to Sen. Clinton.

Now the show is making mincemeat of Republican vice-presidential candidate Sarah Palin's inexperience. Actress Tina Fey is so good at portraying the Alaskan governor that some are having trouble remembering who is the real thing.

I don't stay up late enough to watch the show, but the skits can be seen all over the internet. They have been viewed millions of times.

That's why SNL watchers may turn the fortunes of McCain, who is lagging in the polls after the recent Wall Street debacle. If McCain loses, Sarah Palin will go back to Alaska and exit the national stage.

Tina Fey won't have Palin to mimic anymore. For the good of late night comedy, John McCain must be elected.

Halloween Costume: Cowgirl With Boots

We went to Washington, D.C., over the weekend to visit my granddaughter who turns 3 months old this week. She was very glad to see us. She has nearly doubled in size since birth. I didn't worry about her breaking when I held her this visit.

The new parents already have Cayden's Halloween costume, a pink cowboy hat and boots and a white dress with black spots that will make her look like a young Holstein calf.

They are bringing her up right.

She laughed and cooed at me.

We also took a little tour of the White House. There were no moving vans backed up to the rear entrance. Nobody was inside measuring the drapes or comparing carpet samples. But change is coming.

Unlike the Clintons, I'm not expecting President Bush to strip the walls bare and take away some of the typewriter keys. Laura's got too much class for that.

We also took my in-laws to the World War II memorial, a glorious tribute to that Greatest Generation. Unlike the somber Vietnam Memorial, the relatively new World War II monument is joyful and glorious.

For lunch, we walked over to Old Ebbetts Grill, Washington's oldest saloon, located beside the Treasury Department. According to legend, President McKinley almost lived there, and Presidents Grant, Cleveland, Theodore Roosevelt, Harding and Andrew Johnson and others have raised glasses at the bar. We saw neither Barack Obama or John McCain, but I did gawk at a couple of nude portraits of women arranged on the walls.

Old Ebbetts hasn't bowed to political correctness. And the food was excellent.

There's Limits To Everything ... Including Growth

To the editor:

I appreciate Melms editorial of last week ('Population Question,' 10/02/08), but I think we must direct our attention to a more pressing matter concerning North Carolina's population: state is growing way too fast, way too soon, and in way too short of a time period. Since July 2000, we have added one million new residents; the rapid level of growth has left many county infrastructures unable to properly function, as the fresh numbers seem to overwhelm the present capabilities of local schools and hospitals.

As Mr. Melms and I would agree, this is absolutely the situation for Davie County, particularly in the eastern half bordering Forsyth. Every new day in the county seems to bring another new housing subdivision or a chain store site. But we must ask ourselves, is this healthy?

I call upon the county commissioners to host a community wide panel and investigation on the effects of this present growth. Obviously, we see that the schools are overwhelmed, but we must also consider the annual impact on our regional water tables and drought conditions? What about the valuable farmland and open space that is lost each year? Suburban sprawl has caused in our communities, and as a conservative, I firmly believe in infrastructure and order.

I think we all can agree that there must be limits to everything that is how life works. No doubt, we all enjoy a delicious home-cooked meal or the occasional glass of wine. But too much of either, and you'll be feeling miserable. As with the consumption of goods, construction and population growth must be disciplined and only done with the good of the community in mind.

McCain's Experience Makes Him The Better Choice

To the editor:

We have just gone through the seventh anniversary of Sept. 11, 2001. I feel sure that each one of us remember just where we were and what we were doing when we heard the terrible news. I remember so well that I was standing in my kitchen looking out the door thinking what a beautiful sunny day. Then I heard the news. I really didn't know what to think. We as Americans have never gone through anything like 9-11.

In a few weeks we will be going to the polls to elect a president. During the 1992 presidential campaign we all remember the slogan, "It's the economy stupid." Yes, our economy is in bad shape; however, we also need to remember just a few weeks ago Russia invaded its neighbors. Iran wants to aim nuclear weapons at other countries. North Korea is rebuilding the nuclear plant that they said was destroyed. Could it be that we need a new slogan, "It's the national security America."

We, as citizens of this great country need to be looking at the qualifications of each candidate. Senator Obama has only been in the senate two years of which 137 times he has voted present, which only means that he was in the building but unable to make a decision on how to vote. He is ready to serve, they say. Well, the president does not have the option of voting "present."

Whereas, Senator John McCain has some 30 years in the US Senate with experiences in foreign policy and national security and a record of working with both parties for what is best for America. He served as a Navy pilot in Vietnam and was held over five years as a prisoner of war.

Which one would you hire for the job?

Farmington Community Continues To Grow

To the editor:

I am writing in regards for the Farmington Community Association. For those unaware of what the Farmington Community does for the residents of Davie and surrounding counties, let me take a minute to inform you. The Farmington Community Center has been around for years and also has been known for a place of recreation and rentals for any event. Within the past five years or so, we have been able to provide a Senior Services Satellite Program to seniors with a daily lunch and other great benefits such as a garden space, free crafts, and educational seminars free to any over the age of 60. We are also able to give teens a safe and free place to socialize every Friday night. We have come to call this program the Teen Gathering Place. There are many other groups that meet at our center like a square dancing group on Mondays, line dancing for anyone on Tuesdays, Therapy Dogs International, ARC, the Deaf Social, and a volleyball group. In short, the center and the Farmington Community has certainly been seeing great amounts of growth.

With each year, the center has been busy with renovations to keep up with the growth and needs for the county residents. One of our projects is to provide a public playground. We are able to place the playground in an area that is protected with a fence to keep the children safe. On Oct. 3-4, the Farmington Center held a yard sale to raise money for the playground. The amount of donations and the amount of people that came to support the effort was fantastic. The Farmington board members would like to thank everyone who showed their support and gave donations to help us bring the children a playground. Without you, your donations, and your time to stop by to shop; we would not be able to make the yard sale such a great event.

Thanks for making our yard sale so successful. To those who asked if we would be doing it again, please keep an eye on the Farmington News section of the Davie Enterprise. You can also look us up on the Internet at www.farmingtoncc.org. Thank you so much.

Club Thankful For Support

To the editor:

The Cooleemee Women's Civitan Club expresses its deepest appreciation to the residents of Davie County and surrounding areas for their support of our breakfast on Sept. 27. We firmly believe that without your support we could not carry on with our many non-profit projects. At the same time of our breakfast, we had a raffle ticket sale. The winners were: Scarlett Hampton, $200; Lonnie Campbell, $100; and William Davis, $50.

A special thanks goes to Judy Webb and her crew, and Lonnie Wilson for his great sales of tickets.

Out-Of-State Visitors Fall In Love With Mocksville

To the editor:

Friendly, accommodating, gracious, helpful, informative, congenial, outgoing, honest, interesting, generous and proud are not mere superlatives, they are the words that describe the people we met on our recent trip to Mocksville.

A few years ago our family got a book of the genealogical lineage of the Mock family. In the book, it told us that our branch of the family arrived in America in 1752 and in search of land ended up in the area of what is known as Mocksville. As a family, we have often mentioned someday taking a trip to Mocksville to see where some of our ancestors had settled. So this past week on a whim, my parents and I got in the car and headed for Mocksville. We had done a little research, but not a lot and in our minds we thought we would find a little one-horse town that was no more than a spot in the road.

Oh my gosh, were we surprised when we arrived in town. We first checked in at the Quality Inn where Debbie was the first in a long line of helpful and friendly people we would meet. She suggested that we go to the Chamber of Commerce for more information. We quickly found the chamber, where we met Amanda. She also was friendly, but more than that she certainly radiated pride in the community as she spoke about the things to do and see and proudly wore her orange and black DC shirt — after all it was a Friday and there would be a football game. We were excited to get some Mocksville memorabilia. She gave us directions to the library, where she said we would find a wonderful section on the area's history. And that we did. It was almost time for the library to close, but the two ladies in the library were not real concerned about the clock and started pulling Mock records and books from filing cabinets and shelves all over the room. This information helped to confirm what we already knew about our history, but as time was limited we did not get some questions answered. We know that it was known as Old Mock's Field, but why did it get that name? We know that in the early 1800s it got the name of Mocksville, but why was it changed? Who exactly was the town named after? Is there a book about the history or founding of Mocksville?

We spent the next few hours touring the area. It was quite evident that the people of Mocksville take great pride in the preservation of the old. The four oaks and their majestic beauty speak volumes. As we traveled down the main street and looked at the old houses that have been restored and many meticulously maintained, we too began to feel a great pride in the possibility that it was our ancestors who helped to found the town.

Before we left town, we went on a search for more memorabilia and stopped in the police station to see if perhaps it would be possible to purchase a Mocksville police patch. Mrs. Gayle — not sure of the spelling, was accommodating and found one for my collection. We then went to several antique shops and yard sales to locate other information. We have never spent some much time at yard sales. With each stop we experience more Mocksville hospitality and the people were willing the share what history they knew. Dec's Too was a great stop. It was apparent that she had a great interest in preserving Mocksville and its history for future generations.

We can't thank the people of Mocksville enough for their generosity and hospitality for making this trip one that we will always remember and hope we can do again with more members of our family.

If anyone can answer the questions that we have posed, my email is mockjan@gmail.com.

Life Chain Shows Alternatives

To the editor:

I want to thank all the caring folks who took time to come stand with us this past Sunday in the 21st Please Let Me Live Life Chain event in Statesville, Harmony, Union-Grove, Mooresville, Troutman, Mocksville, Salisbury, Kannapolis, Concord, Charlotte, Winston-Salem and many other places.

Serving as the director of all the ones in NC, I received an e-mail from a lady in her 60s from Charlotte telling of her daughter's decision to have an abortion long ago. She told how she and her daughter still bear the scars of this decision. This brought much grief to both of them. They found forgiveness in their lives when they both accepted Jesus as their Savior. The majority of young women find that abortion was a life changing, emotional and spiritual consequences. The majority of them say they wish they had been told all the facts about abortion. Remember, no one will be required to live with these consequences of this decision as much as you will. Sometimes parents and boyfriends pressure their daughters and girlfriends to make a quick wrong decision. Take time with them to learn all the facts. You may see this pregnancy as a major roadblock in your life.

Thankfully there are many sources that can help. Go to www.silentnomoreawareness.com. You will find books, folks to listen to you during your heartache. Their logo is a lovely butterfly that represents how a caterpillar coming from a dark cocoon shows the changes that will come to you and your life after finding healing thru Jesus' love and forgiveness. Call 1 800 395 Help. Talk to someone. There are caring folks. Go to www.safehavenministries.com. This is a site for young women who have found healing and forgiveness.

I guess the title of our life chains expresses it self well "Please Let Me Live". There is a pregnancy care center in Mocksville that has a loving and caring group of ladies to help young women facing a pregnancy.

Davie Republicans crowd into the party headquarters in Downtown Mocksville to meet Bob Dole and rally support for candidates for election.

State Republican Party Chair Linda Daves enjoys a moment in Davie.

"People resonate with somebody who has a family. She's not going to have a snob appeal, but she appeals to everyone else."

He said his wife works hard at her job as a senator, and will continue to do the same when re-elected.

Dole said he realizes Davie generally votes Republican, but urged those at the opening to make every vote count. "This is a county we need to try to build up the margin with."

State Republican Party Chair Linda Daves was also on hand, and thanked the Davie Republicans for their continued support.

"North Carolina is a battleground state, make no mistake about it. Resources are being poured into this state."

"Since the convention with Sarah Palin, we literally have had a flood and it is not letting up. All over this state, Republicans and Independents are coming out of the woodwork."

State Commissioner of Labor Cherie Berry said the Republican council of state candidates deserve support.

"There is excitement and momentum building within the Republican Party and the Independents," Berry said. "I've had a lot of Democrats tell me they're voting Republican. It all boils down to how many people vote."

Slayton Harpe, county Republican Party chair, read a letter from President Bush, urging residents to vote for Dole, U.S. Rep. Virginia Foxx, State Rep. Julia Howard and Sen. Andrew Brock - as well as the national candidates.

Bob Edmunds, who is seeking a seat on the non-partisan state supreme court, reminded those at the event that voting a straight ticket does not cast a vote in non-partisan races, such as those for judges. "Look for the judges and vote for us," he said.

Chris Vest Resigns From SD

A division captain with the Davie County Sheriff's Department resigned last week.

According to Sheriff Andy Stokes, Capt. C.A. Vest resigned Monday, Sept. 29.

Stokes said that Vest's resignation was a personnel matter and he was not at liberty to discuss any details.

Vest had served as the captain of the department's patrol division for 22 months, since Stokes took office.

No one has filled the vacant position. "Interviews are being conducted to promote someone from within," Stokes said.

Man Charged After Reporting Moped Theft

COOLEEMEE - A local man faces two charges after calling police about his moped being stolen.

Frankie Dale Bolen Jr., 28, of 157 Watts St., was charged with being drunk and disruptive and having an open container of alcohol on a public street. He is scheduled to face the charges Oct. 16 in Davie District Court.

Just after 7 p.m. on Sept. 22, Officer Brent Cranford reported that Bolen had called to report his moped had been stolen.

About two hours later, Cranford saw Bolen walking along Marginal Street in front of the fire department holding two beers, one of which had been opened. He said he heard Bolen yell for a companion to get to the other side of the street.

Cranford reported Bolen had trouble standing and speaking. He reported no evidence of a stolen moped.

Man Beaten, 4 Arrested In 'Deal Gone Bad'

COOLEEMEE - A Mocksville man was severely beaten last week in what police are calling a drug deal gone bad.

Rocky Joe Hamilton, 46, of Pleasant Acre Drive, refused medical treatment by Davie EMS at the scene, said Police Chief Bobby West.

West said that Hamilton had apparently called one or more of the suspects and asked them to meet him on Main Street at the old mill, that "he had something for them."

Four suspects were let out of a car and began beating Hamilton with a two by four, a brick and a long, fiberglass stick, West said. Someone said the other owed them money. Another said there was some bad dope. "It was a bad deal gone bad."

The call came in at 5:55 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 30.

"They beat him pretty much all over, face and body," West said. "They got him pretty good, but he refused to go with EMS."

When police arrived, all suspects scattered in different directions. Cooleemee Officer Brent Cranford caught one, and the other suspects kept running. Sheriff Andy Stokes caught the next one, and within 30 minutes officers had the next two in custody.

The suspects: Jason Allen Dulin, 19, of Woodleaf; Billy Ray Redmond, 29, of 373 Valley Road, Mocksville; Seneca Emanuel Dulin, 20, of 148 Windsong Road, Mocksville; and Termerio Antawn Miller, 19, of Woodleaf; were each charged with robbery with a dangerous weapon, assault with a deadly weapon causing serious injury, resisting arrest, and conspiracy to commit robbery.

Their bonds ranged from $50,000 to $100,000, pending Oct. 9 appearances in Davie District Court.

BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT

October Is Family Portrait Month At Anne Grant Photography

Giving back is a key element in what motivates Anne Grant — The Village Photographer and makes her look forward to starting each day creating portraits for Triad families. "My studio has thrived in this area" says Anne "and it means a lot to be able to give back to the community that has helped us grow to what we are today."

Anne Grant Photography has been involved with many local and national organizations through donations of time and portraits and is always willing to donate portraits to worthwhile causes for auctions or other fundraisers.

You will have an opportunity to benefit Operation Smile along with Anne Grant Photography during Family Portrait Month. As a member of Professional Photographers of America, Anne is eligible to participate in Family Portrait Month, which raises $52,000 last year for Operation Smile. Operation Smile aids children with cleft palates and other facial deformities by offering surgeries to give those children a pretty new smile.

"We are waiving our session fee and only asking that families make a $25 donation to Operation Smile when they make their appointment for a family portrait in October," Anne explains.

Dan & Kathleen Barrett of Advance with Daniel and Rebekah.

15 Years Serving the Triad Area

Anne, a former pediatric nurse, and Nolan, her husband who became the studio manager 3 years ago after retiring from Sara Lee, are now in the midst of celebrating the studio's 15th year and they have become one of the most sought after portrait studios in the area. With her newly expanded staff, she will now be able to enhance the scope of her passion and venture into new areas of photography, including wedding photography and school portraits. It's an exciting growth opportunity that will allow more people to experience and benefit from her artistry.

As a fully accredited member of Special Kids Photographers of America, Anne has a heart for creating a wonderful portrait experience for children with special needs and their families. Anne sees the beauty in every child, no matter what their physical challenges may be. She says her priority is to capture the vision of the child through the parent's eyes — an experience that has been tremendously rewarding on a personal level.

Anne Grant Photography has always been well known for specializing in baby and children's photography and offers a program for the Baby's First Year that includes a 3 or 4 sessions and a framed Art Panel at the end of the year for only $199. After the Baby's First Year, your child can "graduate" into the Birthday Club for additional savings and value. More recently, the studio is meeting the increased demand for custom portrait sessions for high school seniors who, after 12 years of "not so exciting" school pictures, want amazing portraits to remember their senior year.

Wonderful wedding memories preserved in heirloom book

"We know how stressful it can be to choose the right service providers to make your day perfect," Anne points out. "We want to make your wedding photography experience effortless so the bride and groom can take time to enjoy the celebration of love."

On the actual wedding day, Anne Grant Photography offers couples unlimited time. They will then create a custom designed album, handcrafted by the best album companies.

Tigers Drop Seven Touchdowns On Brown

South Davie's football team is out to prove that a 14-8 loss to North Davidson was an aberration, and that mission is off to a good start. Last week host South took a 56-6 sledgehammer to punchless E.L. Brown.

The offensive outburst was the Tigers' biggest in several years. The seventh-grade team beat Southeast 56-8 in 2003, and the eighth-grade team beat Southeast 56-0 in 2001.

"We played our best game," coach Perry Long said after the Tigers moved to 3-1. "We made some adjustments and everybody played real good. It would have been hard for anybody to beat us. We were focused. We worked on some things after the loss. They were hurt about the loss and they took it seriously. And they came back and showed that we can get back up and play."

Two of the seven touchdowns were fumble returns - 47 yards by Jonathan Wiseman, Jarring hits by Nick Manzini and A.J. Blaskevich forced the fumbles. The other TDs were runs of 42 yards by Raekwon Gray, 42 by Devon Parks, 13 by Caleb Martin, 54 by Shayheim Ewing and 71 by Smoot.

Russell Anthony came close to returning the opening kickoff all the way. Anthony also reeled in a 35-yard pass from Martin. The defense was as relentless as the offense. Smoot, Gray, Caleb Mathis and Anthony sparked until Long started clearing the bench. The defensive effort was also spearheaded by Jonathan West, Lazaro Sanchez and Manzini.

"Gray ran the ball well also," he said. "We rotated them. Parks goes in some and he played good, too."

Notes: Davie senior kicker Michael Rowe will leave a substantial void for the '09 War

Eagles. The next big thing at kicker could be Arturo Moura-Garcia, who went seven for seven on extra points. Assistant coach Steve Russ said he has hit 40-yarders in practice. ... Mathis made a nice play in the second-ary, deflecting a pass. "He jumped up and tipped it," Long said. "They were going to score. He just broke on the ball real good."

Ball Racking Up Strikeouts For North Softball

North Davidson dealt North Davie's softball team an 0-2 start, but the Wildcats bounced back against South Davidson to even their record at 2-2.

After losing 3-1 and 10-2 to North Davidson, the Wildcats swept South Davidson 2-1 and 7-2. Coach Jamie Lyster's 12-year record stands at 93-49, and she is trying to lead North to an eight straight winning season. North went 10-6 last year.

The Wildcats tied North Davidson at 1-1 in the bottom of the third. Madison Creekmore walked and stole second. With two outs, Brooke Wallace hit a grounder to third. A wild throw sailed past first to tie the game.

The score was still 1-1 with two outs in the top of the fifth and final inning. The two deciding runs came home on a wild pitch.

"It was a really good game," Lyster said of the moral victory. "I was proud of them to be that close with North Davidson."

Brooke Ball was a big reason for that, striking out seven in five innings and getting two hits at the plate.

The Wildcats jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the first inning of the second game, but North Davidson answered with six in the bottom half. Ball and Danielle Martin had the only two hits for North Davie.

"They got wound up and started hitting," she said. "Their pitcher is a big girl and she can throw it. I bet she was pitching 45-50 miles an hour. She's probably one of the best pitchers we'll see."

In game one against South Davidson, Ball's triple scored Wallace and gave North Davie a 1-0 lead. It regained a 2-1 lead in the third, when singles by Ball and Maggie Barneyeste pushed around Kristy Turner. The lead stood as Ball struck out

North Volleyball Eyes Rematch With Ellis

North Davie's volleyball team has been on an emphatic run since a 1-2 start, winning six straight matches for a 7-2 record.

After losing 21-15, 23-21 to Thomasville, the Wildcats clobbered Thomasville in the rematch (21-9, 21-8). Can they also get back at undefeated Ellis?

"We're bound and determined to get back at Ellis," coach Trish King said. "That's our goal now. Our goal is always to beat everybody we play. I think we're very even with Ellis. It's just going to be who has the better match that day."

North opened with a one-sided win over South Davie. Then came the loss to Ellis, North's first setback since 2006.

North was victimized by Kristina Parrish.

"Parrish had an excellent service game," she said. "She was in a zone. We were having a hard time returning them, so I think she made the difference in the match."

Deflated, the Wildcats couldn't get up for the next match of the day, and thus lost to Thomasville.

The Wildcats were upset because we had lost to Ellis," she said. "It's emotional when you play Ellis and South Davie. They couldn't get their heads back on straight."

The Wildcats tore through Downtown, Lexington, Summit, and South Davie on the way to the rematch with Thomasville.

doesn't let anything get to her. She's my first server and my setter."

The winning streak is a testament to Allie Maine, the only seventh grader in the starting lineup.

"She is one of my setters, and she has a bright future in volleyball," King said. "She's got a lot of natural talent. She has a great serve for such a young player and seems to handle pressure well."

The coach gave credit to Tori Williams, Suzanne Phillips and Brianna Eichhorn.

"Brianna has done an awesome job," she said. "She's the middle hitter at the net, and she's starting for me after being a manager last year."

Notes: King's 14-year record at North is 146-36. ... North went 16-0 last year.

Webster Leads 3-1 North Tennis

North Davie's tennis team headed into the week with a 3-1 record. The Wildcats started the season with a big 5-4 win over Ellis. The Jaguars settled the score in the rematch, beating North 5-4.

When the Wildcats beat Ellis, they got wins from No. 1 Jennifer Webster (8-4), No. 4

Laura Kinder (8-2) and No. 5 Jennifer Rothberg (8-4). Malgie Leszczuk and Rothberg won 8-5 at No. 2 doubles. Kinder and Leszczuk clinched the win with an 8-5 decision at No. 3 doubles.

"The doubles wins were clutch," North coach Charlie Crenshaw said. "Both teams are evenly matched. It was a great win for us. I was proud of the girls."

The Wildcats cruised past Lexington 8-1, getting singles wins from Webster (8-0), Sydney McCune (8-0), Leszczuk (8-0), Kinder (8-1), Rothberg (8-0) and Kasia Leszczuk (8-0). In doubles, McCune-Rothberg (8-3) and Jessica White-Hannah Ball (8-4) won decisively.

The Wildcats rolled over South Davie 8-1. The wins in singles came from Webster (8-0), Kinder (8-2), Rothberg (8-2), Kasia Leszczuk (8-0) and Jessica White (8-2). Sweeping doubles were Webster-Kinder (6-0), Malgie Leszczuk-Rothberg (6-3) and Kasia Leszczuk-Ball (6-1).

The rematch with Ellis was 3-3 after singles. Webster defeated Ashley Dowell 8-5. Kinder (8-0) and K. Leszczuk (8-5) enabled North to split singles. The Webster-Dowell showdown was a "great match between two super players," Crenshaw said.

M. Leszczuk-Kinder won 6-3 in doubles, but Ellis nipped Webster-McCune 7-6 (7-5). "Both teams hit some unbelievable shots," Crenshaw said.

Ellis seized the match by winning 6-4 at No. 3 doubles. "It was a great battle between two great teams," Crenshaw said.

South Softball Looking For First Victory

Ledford swept a double-header from South Davie's softball team, beating the Tigers 11-0 and 11-3. The losses dropped South to 0-8.

In the first game it was 4-0 after three and a half innings. "We were playing great defense and getting good pitching from Elizabeth Holland," coach Amy Speckin said.

Amber Villaseñor reached base twice, but South couldn't get her home. Speckin said Sarah Spaulding played great defense at third.

Ledford bolted to an 8-0, first-inning lead in the second game. South did hit the ball better than it did in game one.

Scoring runs for South were Ashton Brown, Courtney Bode and Chastity Cleary. Brown was aggressive on the bases, Speckin said.

Foucheux's Fumble Recovery Produces Big Win For North

North Davie's football team pulled out a classic defensive struggle, winning 8-6 at Thomasville last week.

The game was scoreless with North on the move in the fourth quarter. Toby Lowe powered 9 yards to the doorstep of the end zone. He fumbled at the end of a 9-yard pickup, but line-man Jordan Foucheux pounced on it in the end zone to give North a 6-0 lead.

"Jordan just happened to be there," coach Ron Kirk said. "He was a lead blocker. We just knew that Thomasville had recovered it for a touchdown. Jordan was in the right place at the right time."

Tyler Shoffner's successful kick for an 8-0 lead loomed large when Thomasville returned the ensuing kickoff for a touchdown. But North celebrated an attention-grabbing win and 2-1 record by stopping the two-point conversion.

The Wildcats have been a different team since a 24-0 loss at North Davidson in the opener. Before shocking the world at Thomasville, they lit up Tyro 37-22. More information on the Thomasville shocker will come in next week's paper.

Ellis Softball Snakebitten

The Ellis softball team hasn't had any luck in close games. After losing game one at Central Davidson 7-1, it lost 2-1 in game two. That marked the fourth setback by a single run.

"We should have beat them," coach Shannon Wood said. "We definitely could have beat them both games. But when you have more errors than hits, you can't win."

Ellis spotted Central a 3-0 lead in the first inning of the first game. Wood was puzzled that her Jaguars only managed one hit (Ivey Carney).

"(Central's pitcher) wasn't any better than any pitcher we've seen so far," she said. "They weren't much better than we were. We just didn't hit."

In game two, Ellis was again one-hit by Central's pitcher. But the Jaguars still found a way to take a 1-0 lead into the fifth and final inning. Caroline Miller had the hit in the fourth.

Ellis scored first in the third. Emily Tester walked. With two outs, Britani Peterson and Valerie Kariker drew walks. Lauren Taylor was hit by a pitch with the bases loaded, plating the run.

When shortstop Peterson gobbled up a grounder in the fifth, Ellis was two outs from victory. But the next batter doubled and an error allowed the tying run to score. Central won it on a single to center.

Most of Ellis' games have been suspenseful, but it hasn't been able to hold fifth-inning leads. As a result, its record dropped to 3-5.

Girls Tennis Team Extends Streak Of Winning Seasons

Davie's tennis team did not duplicate the 2007 season in which it tied Mount Tabor for first and then won the Central Piedmont Conference Tournament. But it did nail down a winning record for the 10th straight year.

Last week the War Eagles dominated host North Forsyth 9-0 and visiting North Davidson 6-3 for records of 8-6 overall and 4-6 in the CPC.

"Considering how young we are, I think it was a fine season," coach Sandra Boyette said.

Next year Davie will return four of six starters in singles. The only seniors are Tori Kennedy and Brittany Roycroft. There are seven freshmen among the 15-girl team.

"From what I've been told, we've got some girls coming up from the middle schools that are going to help, too," Boyette said.

Boyette shuffled the deck against hapless North Forsyth, and Davie still won every match with lots of room to spare. The winners were T. Kennedy, Lauren Gryder, Megan Jarvis, Kali Davis, Kate Bennett, Madison Junker, Elizabeth Kennedy-Roycroft, Caroline Cozart, Claire Coleman and Merideth Hanes-Macy Williams.

The coach only used two regular starters in singles - T. Kennedy and Gryder. Jarvis' freshman record improved to 2-0.

"For being a freshman, that was good for Megan to be out there playing singles at No. 3," she said. "I was very proud of her. She's had a good season. One week she teamed up with Cozart and won in doubles."

The Kennedy sisters, Gryder and Cozart staked Davie to a 4-2 advantage over North Davidson. In doubles, T. Kennedy-Gryder and E. Kennedy-Roycroft sealed the 16th straight win over North.

While No. 3 Gryder pushed her record to 12-2, T. Kennedy improved to 9-5 at No. 1.

"Bless her heart, that's a hard spot," Boyette said of the No. 1 seed. "It's an honor to be there, but it's such a challenge for you, too. Because the competition is so much greater."

Fernandez Gets Two Goals In Defeat

Reynolds' varsity soccer team improved to 10-3 with a 4-0 win over visiting Davie. Then Davie lost 7-2 at North Forsyth.

The Reynolds game was the third straight shutout loss for Davie. Reynolds led 2-0 at the half.

"We played pretty well overall," coach Lance Everett said. "We passed to each other's feet better than most games we have played."

North Forsyth rocked Davie 5-1 in the first half. Sergio Fernandez scored the first and final goals of the game, giving Davie a 1-0 lead two minutes in.

"Sergio ran in front of the goalie like I've been trying to get them to do," Everett said. "Overall we played OK. North is just very skilled and fast. They had some amazing goals."

Davie entered the week at 3-8 overall and 0-4 in the Central Piedmont Conference. North moved to 7-3-1, 3-1.

"That was unbelievable," offensive coordinator Barry Whitlock said. "That's one to remember. How do you win after you're down 34-8 playing 12-minute quarters? It's hard to believe. They came out after halftime and threw everything on the line."

"That's something you don't forget," defensive line coach Randy Athey said. "I feel bad for the people that left early."

Davie, ranked fifth in the 4-A state, improved to 5-1 in the final nonconference game. Page, which has lost three straight by a combined 15 points to teams with a combined 19-1 record, slipped to 3-3.

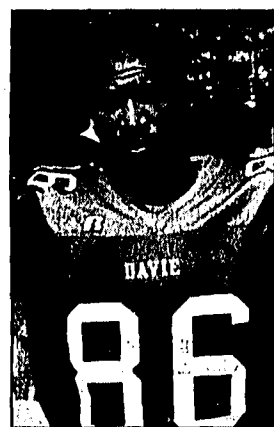

It was a vintage game for the Iling-Watson combination. Iling went 20 of 32 for 377 yards, throwing four TDs and no interceptions. Watson made eight catches for 141 yards. Iling completed at least two passes to five different receivers, including Mayfield, Jarrell Marshall, Darius Wilson and P.J. Neely.

Page limited Mayfield to 55 rushing yards, but Mayfield compensated with 104 receiving yards. Page put up its own eye-popping numbers, with Newman going 21 of 37 for 303 yards, Perry Fryer rushing for 135 yards and Jeremy Collie making eight catches for 118 yards.

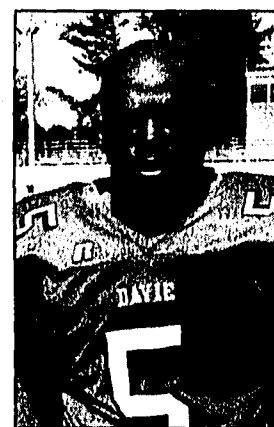

Davie fans walked out in a state of disbelief because the War Eagles were humiliated in the first half. It was 27-0 two minutes into the second quarter, and Page made it 34-8 with 1:07 left in the half. At the half Fryer had 91 yards and three TDs on 12 carries, Newman had 155 passing yards to go with 43 rushing yards and Page was threatening to hand Iling his worst loss in his 11 Davie years.

"We were letting them do whatever they wanted," Iling said. "It was embarrassing. That's why I made them run all the way up to the locker room. I told them not to stop. The only reason we stopped is because they had the gate locked and we couldn't get through it. It was embarrassing."

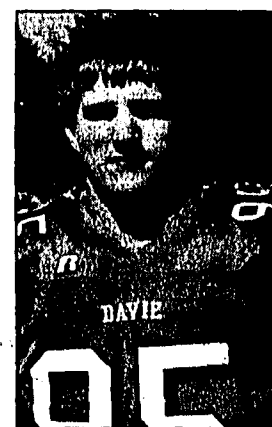

Although you couldn't blame anyone for assuming that Page, with all the momentum in the world, was headed to an easy win, the second half was just the opposite. Davie's tweaked-up defense became absolutely smothering, and Iling carved up a highly-regarded defense with 270 yards on 13-of-20 second-half passing.

"We had a good talk at halftime," outside linebacker Matt Speer said. "We went back to our old defense, baby."

"Coach Iling said: 'Believe,'" said outside linebacker Santana Arnold, one of the heroes with a fumble-recovery touchdown and an interception.

"When I was in the locker room I was talking to the outside linebackers. I was like: 'They're going to think they've got the game won. If we come out with the right intensity, we'll be able to come back and win this game.'"

What's remarkable is Davie rallied against a high-powered opponent that features two Division-I prospects on the D-line. Something even more remarkable about the furious rally is Davie's first possession of the second half ended with a sack and partially-blocked punt.

When the defense forced a three-and-out, the improbable began. Iling swung a pass to Mayfield for 27 yards, then found Watson for 35. Cornerback T.J. Todd, who boasted in the Greensboro News & Record that Page's defense was the "Red Death," was repeatedly abused by Watson, who made a 6-yard catch in the end zone. Mayfield's two-point run cut the deficit to 34-16 with 7:09 left in the third.

"(Todd) couldn't handle Joe, and we took advantage of that," QB Iling said. "They started to double team" at the end of the game, but they just couldn't play with him."

Todd for 35 yards. Then Iling and Wilson hooked up for an unbelievable 34-yard play down the left sideline to the Page 2. It was 34-22 when Mayfield, who scored three TDs after missing the previous three games with a shoulder injury, scored on the next play.

"How did Zach get it in there between two guys?" Whitlock said of the pass to Wilson. "The free safety was coming over."

Skeeter Montgomery, a running back who provided a big boost in his first action at nose guard, dropped Fryer 2 yards behind the line. Pressure by Speer and Montgomery forced a Newman incompletion, and Page was punting for the third time in three third-quarter possessions.

"At halftime we talked about believing in each other and playing our assignments," linebacker Chris Sponaugle said. "Coaches made adjustments and we had faith in one another. The defense came out with energy and the crowd got into it. That was huge. There was energy everywhere."

With Page bringing heat up the middle, Iling backpedaled, coaxed the defense closer and floated a screen to Mayfield, who turned and rambled 47 yards to the end zone. Suddenly, it was 34-29 with 1:09 left in the third.

"Zach did a good job of finding a window around (6-5, 240-pound Gabe King) and (6-4, 270-pound Chris Jasperse)," coach Iling said.

Now Davie was smelling blood. Sampson and Zach Long dropped Fryer after 2 yards and Tanis Jefferies squeezed Newman on the edge - a loss of 5.

yard catch-and-run, lineman Justin Miller made the hit of the game. Newman ran an option right, and Miller's pop dislodged the ball. Arnold scooped it and lumbered 45 yards to pay dirt.

"I used the swim move to get over him, and I swatted with my left hand when I saw that he was going to pitch it," Miller said.

"They work on that in turn-over circuit, and I'm glad to see it work on the field," Iling said. Like Superman, Arnold came swooping in from nowhere, grabbed the ball and gave Davie a 36-34 lead.

"Coach always says hustle to the ball," Arnold said. "And I got the perfect bounce."

But on a night when both teams experienced wild peaks and valleys of emotion, the drama was just beginning. Cornerback Perry James recovered a Fryer fumble at the Davie 25. Four plays later, Long attempted a snap over punter Rowe's head and into the end zone. Rowe alertly kicked the ball out of sight, preventing a possible Page touchdown and giving the Pirates a safety instead.

"I saw it on the ground and said 'I've got to give them two (points) instead of seven,'" Rowe said.

Page took the kick and moved from midfield to the Davie 29. With the fourth-quarter clock under five minutes, Arnold saved the day, intercepting a pass intended for Collie at the Davie 25 and returning it 24 yards.

"They ran that (slant) a couple plays before," Arnold said. "I messed up on it because I didn't jam the No. 3 receiver and look at the No. 1 receiver. Coach said if I did what I had to do I'll have an interception."

words for it," Sponaugle said. "I can't describe what I'm feeling right now. It's the best feeling in the world. That's by far the best game I've ever played at Davie."

"I started worrying about our defense cramping," Iling said. "But they found a way to suck it up, forget the cramps and play football."

When Rowe sent the clinching extra point straight down the middle, jubilation poured onto the field as teammates gave one another bear hugs.

"I saw all my teammates giving it all they've got, not giving up on each other and playing to the very end, and that's exactly what the coaches tell us to do," Rowe said. "It's nice (to clinch the game), but it's the team. This is a big win for us and I think we're going to go a long way."

Unfazed, the Pirates covered 66 yards in two minutes, tying the game at 43 on a 21-yard catch by Workinger.

The electricity in Davie's comeback was phenomenal, but now two exhausted teams had to hunker down again in overtime. After Page won the toss, Fryer bolted 9 yards around the end to the 1. Newman sneaked in for a 49-43 Page lead.

But in another heart-pounding moment for the War Eagles, Sampson blocked the point-after kick.

"I knew if we could block it we'd have a chance to win the game," Sampson said. "Me, Tanis and Miller all lined up in the A gap beside the center. They blocked down and I just went around. I had been getting through the whole game. I just played extra hard on that last (defensive) play."

Davie hearts skipped two or three beats when Iling botched a handoff on Davie's first down of OT. Mayfield won a scrum for the ball 4 yards back at the 14. On second down, Iling hit Watson on a crossing route, and a Rowe extra point stood between Davie and a thrill of a lifetime.

"I'll tell you what, that was amazing," Randall said. "We pulled together as a team. We knew we could win. We had heart and we believed in each other."

"This has to be one of the best games ever in Davie history," Peoples added.

Randall wears his emotions on his sleeve, and his long-awaited opportunity had him fighting back tears.

"Everybody has to step up at some point in life, and tonight was my calling to step up," he said. "I had to work my (butt) off and I did it. My offensive line did it, too. Coach Groover and coach Bum (Todd Bumgarner) had been coaching us up all week. We knew what we had to do and we did it."

On James Mayfield's 20-yard TD run around left end for a 43-36 lead, Favre blocked not one, but two guys.

"He had his hands full with 99 most of the night, and very few times was 99 a factor - other than Zach having to throw around him," Iling said.

Senior Cody Clark, who broke a leg last year and had made only cameo appearances this year, made the most of his chances at left guard, where he spelled Peoples.

"He played on two scoring drives," Iling said. "One of them was the screen pass to Mayfield for a 47-yard touchdown. Cody had a big block on that play."

But sophomore Bell was the ultimate underdog. He was thrown into the fray with no varsity experience whatsoever. His courage was admirable.

"That shows that he's got a lot of guts, that he can play a new position and play it against probably the best defensive line we'll see all year," Iling said. "We used to seeing JV kids, and then he comes out there and sees a 300-pound nose guard. As he settled down, he held his own in the second half."

"At the beginning of the game, Ricky didn't think he was doing anything right," Randall said. "We had to calm him down and teach him as the game went on. He picked up on it in the first quarter. He got after it and played one heckuva game with us."

"We've been telling these guys all week that they need to step up because they've got big positions to fill, and I'm just glad they could do that tonight," Peoples said. "Because if we can win without (Burcham and Cioce), then our offensive line can do anything."

Iling handed high praise to all six of them, as well as Groover.

"We didn't run the ball like we wanted, but most of the time they were taking the run away," he said. "So that's why the pass was there. That's a tribute to coach Groover's teaching style and techniques."

"I think Randall got better as the game went on. Scott had a nice game, too. I think he was having some problems with moisture in his hearing aid, but still was able to maintain the outside rush and keep 51 and 99 out of the backfield. He was facing 99 several times, too."

Notes & Quotes

50-49 Comeback To Be Replayed Thursday At 7

• Davie's mind-numbing comeback from a 34-8 halftime deficit and eventual 50-49 overtime win at Page will be replayed on Thursday at 7 p.m. You can hear the play by play of Adam Witten and color commentary from Leon James via the internet or cable. On the internet, go to 1520wds.com. Yadel cable subscribers can tune in to audio on Channel 7. You can hear the game live each Friday, with the pregame show at 7 p.m.

• Receiver Joe Watson felt miserable when he dropped a third-and-9 pass with eight minutes left. Davie was leading 36-34 and Watson might have run for days. Davie's lead was gone after the next play.

Watson got personal redemption, catching his third TD pass from Zach Iling to tie the game at 49-49 in OT. Michael Rowe's clinching extra point followed. Although Watson had the big drop, he was a big reason Davie was even in position to win.

"Maybe if I would have caught that ball we never would have been in that situation," he said. "I made up for it. My teammates were all over me, saying: 'Joe, keep your head up. We need you in this.' I couldn't let my teammates down, and I concentrated a whole lot more than I did (on the drop)."

• Davie's insane comeback spoiled Will Newman's giant game (21 of 37 for 303 yards). "He's phenomenal," Davie coach Doug Iling said. "He's a gutsy kid. He's going to do everything he can to make plays for his team. You have to see that kind of kid lose, but tonight I'm glad he lost."

• Page trampled all over Davie's defense in the first half. But Davie found some tenacity at halftime and put it all together, blitzing frequently and confusing a potent attack.

"We didn't clock in," defensive coordinator Devore Holman said. "At halftime I'm fortunate to have defensive coaches who collaborate. We said we're going to put heat on them. We went back to our stack defense and our kids believed. Every time they got to the sideline, we said: 'What's the most important play?' They said: 'The next one.'"

"They tweaked the defense and did something we hadn't done in two weeks," Iling said. "And dang, if it didn't throw (Page) for a loop. The offense and defense just fed off each other."

• The game will be remembered for years and years by anyone who saw it. Some people saw enough in the first half and headed out. Santana Arnold can't see it enough. "I looked at the highlights of the game on (highschoolplaybook.com) like four times," he said.

• There was no late-game torture this time. The War Eagles' last six losses have come by a combined 19 points. But Page suffered more pain, losing by one after losing the previous two by 28-21 and 21-14.

• Want some mind-boggling numbers? Here's some. It was the second monster game for Watson, who had four catches for 149 yards in a 35-21 win over West Rowan. Russell Anderson (1983) holds the yards-per-reception record at 26.1, but Watson is averaging 26.6. Watson is tied for second with eight TD catches. Jonathan Mayfield had 11 in '05. Josh Eder had 11 in '06 and Kenny Rivers had eight in '06.

Iling is attacking the record book ruthlessly. He's 74 of 133 for 1,340 yards, and he's on pace to close the regular season at 2,456 yards. Watson is on pace for 40 catches for 1,074 yards. Iling is already fifth in season passing yards, trailing Garrett Bengt's 3,071 in '06. Bengt's 2,068 in '07. Brad Corriher's 1,837 in '05 and Drew Ridenhour's 1,394 in '99. Iling notched the seventh four-TD game in 53 years. Bengt had three in '06. Corriher had two in '05 and Tommy Eanes had one in '73. And Iling's 377 yards placed him second in single-game yards. Bengt's 384 in a 47-37 win over West Rowan in '06 ranks first.

The low-key Iling takes it all in stride, saying: "I threw it up there and they went and got it."

• Davie is 4-0 against Page, including 3-0 at Marion Kirby Stadium. ... Iling is 95-40 in 11 years as coach. ... It was Davie's first OT since a 24-21 loss to Mount Tabor in '06. ... Davie outlasted Page 42-35 in '07, so the running score in two years is Davie 92, Page 84. ... Davie allowed the most points since a 52-21 quarterfinal loss at Independence in '05. ... The 50-49 win was the high-scoring game in Davie history.

The Real Business Begins Friday Against West

By Brian Pitts
Davie Enterprise Record

The nonconference part of the schedule is done and out of the way. Now let's get down to the real business of the '08 season. On Friday night at 7:30 at War Eagle Stadium, Davie and West Forsyth will play the game that can never be just another game.

All the implications that always come with Davie-West will be here. It's the Central Piedmont Conference opener for both teams in a league that appears wide open. Davie (5-1) is coming off a wild 50-49 overtime win at Page. West Forsyth (5-1) is coming off a bye, which followed an eye-opening 35-13 win over previously-unbeaten East Forsyth.

Davie is averaging 41.5 points, but scoring is something the Titans do well, too. They've scored 33, 31, 47, 52 and 35 points in their victories. Yes, this has the makings of a classic.

"They're very similar (to Page)," Davie coach Doug Iling said. "I think we're going to see a better running back (Dedrick Anderson) than we saw at Page, probably as good a quarterback (Patrick Midkiff) and as good an offensive line and receivers."

West has plenty of weapons, starting with Anderson. He had 131 yards in a 33-13 win over Vance, 228 yards in a 47-27 win over Reagan, 155 yards on 14 carries in a 52-32 win over Parkland and 169 yards in a 35-13 win over East Forsyth.

"We're going to have to swarm him and not give him much breathing room," Iling said. "If he gets space he can be a big-play threat."

As wary as Iling is of Anderson, he's every bit as concerned about multidimensional Crishawn Rhyme. Take the Parkland game. The receiver scored on a 7-yard reception, a 58-yard punt return and an 8-yard run. He added a 71-yard catch-and-run.

"Our DBs are going to have their hands full," Iling said. "The kick-coverage teams are going to have their hands full, too."

PIGSKIN FOOTBALL CONTEST

First Place = $25 to Brad Rooney
Second Place = $5 to Anthony Sellers

It was down to the wire this week as a large group of entrants battled it out for first place in the football contest.

Brad Rooney

who missed just 6 games to stand alone on top of our Pigskin Pickers Pile. Rooney did not even put a total down for the tie-breaker game but it didn't matter as he was the only entrant to total just 6 missed games. Way to go!

The runner up this week was...

a veteran contestant who was one of a large number who missed just 7 games but in Anthony's case the tie-breaker was important as he got the tie-breaker exactly right to claim the second place title.

What a game last week as Davie's War Eagles showed a lot of spirit in coming back from a huge deficit to crush the Page Pirates' night and ruin their homecoming game. Everyone was predicting a tough game but it didn't start out that way with Page building their large lead and putting the game on cruise-control. The only problem was Davie had a little something extra under the hood and came roaring back to blow the Pirates' doors off.

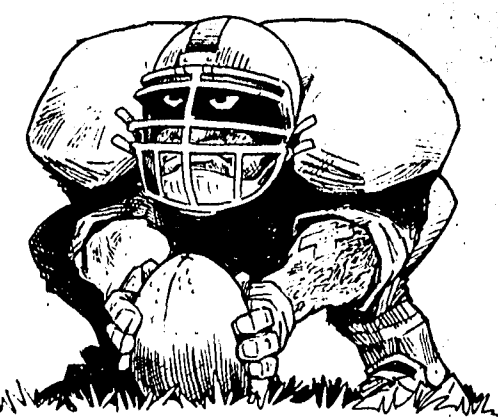

This week Davie will face conference rival West.

Forsyth in one of the most anticipated showdowns of the season. West has been strong and if it rains Friday watch out. The guys from West are "mudders". There is no telling what will happen in this one.

In the ACC the Tarheels have clawed their way into the top 25 for the first time in years and will face the tradition behind Notre Dame this week. East Carolina looks to get the season back on track as they face Virginia.

Some old foes will strap on the helmets and go at it this week as LSU and Florida meet and the Texas Longhorns face Oklahoma. Tennessee also faces Georgia. The Vols are struggling and the Dogs are chomping at the bit. The mere mention of all these great match-ups is sure to bring back some great memories of past games and exciting players.

In the pros the Panthers pitched a shut-out last week against the Kansas City Chiefs. Another of the best runners in the league faced the Panthers defense and came away disappointed. This week Carolina gets back into conference play as they face Tampa Bay in Florida. The Bucs have struggled some but are always a tough team. In the AFC New England will face San Diego in a game that pits two pre-season favorites in the AFC. Both teams can be explosive and it should be fun to watch.

ALL CONTEST ENTRIES MUST INCLUDE A FULL MAILING ADDRESS AND PHONE NUMBER AND PLEASE, NO NICKNAMES.

Entries that do not meet these requirements will be disqualified.
WE WILL BE MAILING ALL CHECKS TO THE WINNERS. THANKS!

win No. 16 in a row.

After Ressa, Tevin Gaither and Jawaughn Arnold squashed Page's first possession. Davie struck quickly. Carson Herndon threw deep and connected with Teddy Allen down the seam for a 58-yard touchdown. Denzel Redmon added a two-point run.

"They were in Cover 3 and their outside linebacker was playing in tight," Bumgarner said. "We saw that right off the bat and hit them with the 49 Route. After that they played us a little bit different and it wasn't as easy to move the ball."

Davie pushed the margin to 14-0 by marching 91 yards. Herndon hit Jarrett Wallace for 14 yards.

Carson Herndon passed for 134 yards.

with 2:40 left in the first half. "Teddy does a lot of things that you don't coach," Bumgarner said. "That play is a run or pass, depending on what the corner does with the receiver. He knew the pass was covered up and he used the fake."

"One time we had a bubble screen. They had it sniffed out pretty good, but Teddy made a guy miss and picked up positive yards."

Davie seemingly put the game away by driving 63 yards in 10 plays. After Herndon connected with Patrick Whaley for 12 yards, Redmon broke a 23-yard run. Redmon caught a bubble screen and was hit as soon as the ball arrived. But he shook loose and gained 14 yards.

Tanner Bledsoe churned 11 yards to the Page 1, then scored for the 20-0 cushion. With 5:38 left in the third.

"We missed a block (on the bubble screen), and Denzel made a guy miss," Bumgarner said. "Denzel did what Denzel does."

Davie played excellent defense until the last minute of the third. With the margin down to 20-14, there were nervous moments when Page forced a three-and-out and took over at its 45 with 1:40 left in the game. Arnold, though, rose to the occasion, stripping a ball carrier after he had gained 7 yards. Craven Chunn-Oakley recovered the fumble with 1:24 on the clock. Davie was out of trouble.

"We let our guard down," he said. The defense keeps getting better. Among the highlights were Ronald Solis, who busted through and forced a second-and-12; Gaither, who yanked down the quarterback on a fourth-down option run; Tyler Luckey, whose stop turned a second-and-1 into a third-and-4; and Ressa, who clocked the quarterback 6 yards deep in the backfield.

That Davie's JV is still undefeated amid the numerous varsity injuries is a major feat. Varsity injuries have forced coaches to move up sophomores DeVonta Scott, Jordan Farmer and Ricky Bell. Freshman linebacker Corey Randall was out with a back injury. Mick Spillman and Jon SanFilippo came to the rescue on the offensive line. Andrew Buchanan, Landon Hurt and Christian Lee have helped hold down the fort on defense.

"We've got some guys who can fill in and make plays," Bumgarner said.

Notes: The Central Piedmont Conference opener is Oct. 9 at West Forsyth at 6 p.m. Davie has gone undefeated in the CPC five of the past six years. "We've got to continue to plug away," Bumgarner said. "It's going to get a lot harder (this) week. West Forsyth will be a huge task." ... Herndon went 8 of 15 for 134 yards, with no interceptions. Adam Smith came off the bench to go 3 of 4 for 17 yards. Redmon was limited to 53 rushing yards, but he compensated with five catches for 63 yards.

Arnold, though, rose to the occasion, stripping a ball carrier after he had gained 7 yards. Craven Chunn-Oakley recovered the fumble with 1:24 on the clock. Davie was out of trouble.

Three To Join War Eagle Hall Of Fame Friday

Three individuals will join elite company Friday night when Davie's football team hosts West Forsyth at 7:30 p.m. Buddy Lowery, son Patrick Lowery and Doug Jacobs will be inducted into the Davie County High School Athletic Hall of Fame. The trio will be in the cafeteria around 6, when friends can drop in to shake hands, tell old stories or just listen in. They will be honored again at halftime.

Buddy Lowery has had an illustrious career as Davie's wrestling coach. This will be his 33rd as head coach. His record is 589-92. He posted four perfect records, 15 regional championships, 30 conference championships (19 regular seasons, 11 tournaments) and three state championships ('94, '95, '06). No other team sport has won a state title since Davie joined the North Carolina High School Athletic Association in 1977.

Patrick Lowery was a classic three-sport star, winning conference player of the year in football, wrestling and track & field. He was all-state twice each in football and wrestling. He played in the 2002 Shrine Bowl. He won a state championship in wrestling in 2002. His wrestling record was 150-16. Lowery took his hard-nosed linebacker skills to N.C. State. In 2006, Lowery was named team MVP and all-ACC honors. Jacobs excelled in three sports (football, basketball, track & field). The intimidating defensive end was all-state and Sporting News All-American in 1985. He played in the Shrine Bowl. In basketball he was honorable-mention all-state. In track he was all-state in the shot put. Jacobs moved to the next level and proved his mettle in the SEC, playing football for Ole Miss from 1987-90. Not only was he second team all-SEC in 1990, he was named to the Ole Miss All-Century Team. He played in the 1991 Senior Bowl All-Star Game, then signed with the Denver Broncos.

The Lowerys and Jacobs bring the hall-of-fame membership to 26. The hall of fame's inception was May 2002.

Spurgeon Goss Ceremony Friday Night

On Oct. 10 at 7:15 p.m. at Davie High School, a dedication ceremony for Spurgeon Goss will take place prior to the football game to remember this star athlete and war hero. Through the years Spurgeon's story had been tearfully and verbally told by those who coached or taught him. But those that knew him have retired, so consequently his story was lost.

Stories of his personal hardships and of how his determination on the football field landed him All-Conference and Most Outstanding Lineman at 5-8 and 145 pounds, and of course, of how he died volunteering for the rescue of six marines trapped behind enemy lines.

In May of 2007, Morgan Owens was called from her senior class and handed a plaque naming her the female Spurgeon Goss Sportsmanship recipient. When Owens asked who he was, the only remembrance was that he played football and he was killed in the war. Knowing there must be more, she started a three-month search, and only by fate did she connect with Tim Smith, Spurgeon's best friend.

The following is a re-print from the Secretary of Navy's letter and a portion of an article that appeared in the Davie County Enterprise on Aug. 30, 2007.

Goss

"Goss was due for some R&R in Japan, and told his family he didn't want to go so he could send more money home. They convinced him they were fine, and that he deserved a little time away from the war."

He had only been back in Vietnam for a few days. A citation from the Secretary of Navy tells the story.

"For heroic achievement while serving with Company G, Second Battalion, Third Marines in the Republic of Vietnam on February 28, 1967. During a segment of Operation Prairie II in a thickly vegetated area just northwest of Cam Lo, Company G made solid contact with a numerically superior enemy force. Lead elements displayed and attempted to assault the enemy positions, but hostile fire reached such intensity that both assaults were beaten back and numerous Marine casualties were sustained, including the company commander.

"It was determined that a withdrawal followed by napalm runs by aircraft on the well-fortified and dug-in enemy emplacements was in order.

"It was learned, however, that six Marines dead and wounded still lay 50 meters forward of friendly lines. With characteristic decisiveness, Lance Corporal Goss volunteered to be the first of several to make an attempt to recover the wounded and deceased Marines. Under continuous and extremely accurate enemy fire, he moved forward until he reached the first casualty. One by one the recovered Marines were passed back along a human chain until only one mortally wounded Marine remained, and his body was in an exposed area.

"Unmindful of the extreme danger involved, Lance Corporal Goss advanced toward the stricken Marine, just as he reached his side; he was struck by enemy small arms fire, and was mortally wounded.

"Lance Corporal Goss' extraordinary selflessness and courage set an inspiring example for the men around him. His heroic actions upheld the highest traditions of the Marine Corps and the United States Naval Service.

"He gallantly gave his life for his country."

Goss was Davie County's first casualty in the Vietnam War, and to honor him in 1973 Davie County High School started awarding the Spurgeon Goss Sportsmanship Award. This was to be one of Davie County High School's most prestigious honors and the nominees were to be selected from all sports, one male and one female athlete who showed the best sportsmanship.

Only through the kindness of Brian Pitts of the Davie County Enterprise and Coach Absher of Davie County High School has the following recipients been able to be located: Larry West (1975), Jeff Cline (1978), David Folmar (1981), Gregg Dunn (1982), Steven Dunn (1987), Jason Stockert (1997), Andrew Daywalt (2002), Heath Boyd and Morgan Owens (2007), and Eric Lowery and Elizabeth Budd (2008).

We welcome you to attend this moment in history that would have been lost until someone asked, "Why is this important?"

A scholarship has also been established in Spurgeon's name and will be a separate award from the sportsmanship award. If you need more information about this fund contact the Davie Community Foundation at 753-6903.

Boys Cross Country Meets A Goal

Caitlin Tutterow placed 53rd out of 173 runners as Davie's girls cross country team finished 15th of 25 schools in Saturday's Wendy's Invitational at McAlpine Park in Charlotte.

The War Eagle girls were missing two of their top five runners.

"I believe our girls can finish second in our conference meet if everything comes together over the next week," coach Daric Beiter said. "We will need Heather Whitehead to recoup from an injury and keep everyone else healthy."

Tutterow led Davie with a time of 20:54.

"Caitlin had a great race, moving up through the field over the 3.1-mile course," Beiter said. "She has continued to build herself up as a top runner in our conference, and I'm hoping she can run under 20 minutes before the end of the season."

Emerald Tuthill enjoyed her best race of the season, placing 75th in 21:36.

"It is great to see Emerald back in the running condition that she was in her freshman year," he said. "She is a tough competitor and she'll be key to us accomplishing our goals."

Freshman Kaitlyn Hutchins, showing significant improvement week after week, had a tremendous run, Beiter said. Earlier in the season at McAlpine, she ran 27:21. This time it was 22:23.

Andrew Allen paced the Davie boys, who were 24th out of 28 teams, placing 65th with a personal-best 17:54 - 41 seconds faster than his previous best.

"Andrew is a really strong runner, and he progresses consistently throughout the season," Beiter said. "We're hoping that Andrew can break into the top 14 at the conference race and earn himself an all-conference award."

Davie met a goal it had set at the end of the last season, putting six runners under 20 minutes. Allen was joined in that department by Lake Slabach, Jacob Whitaker, Ben Burton, Will Marris and Nick Sizemore.

"Having 20 minutes as a goal will not win us a conference championship, but it is an improvement from years past," he said. "Slabach and Marris showed over two-minutes improvement from the first meet at McAlpine."

JV Soccer Takes Step Forward With Tie

The Davie JV soccer team put an end to a streak of six shut-out losses, tying host North Forsyth 0-0. Earlier last week the War Eagles lost 4-0 at Reynolds.

Davie lost Bryce Bartlett to a broken collarbone with 19 minutes to play. "We played hard, but were unable to get one in the goal after a number of attempts," coach Lance Everette said. The tie left Davie's Central Piedmont Conference record at 0-3-1.

"It was a good step forward for us," he said. "Even though it wasn't a win, it wasn't a loss."

Entertainment or Worship

Much of what goes under the name of worship today is designed more to entertain than to praise God. Entertainment rather than praise is often the driving force behind modern changes in worship style. Sometimes it is even called a performance and accompanied with a round of applause from the audience.

This, however, is nothing new. The prophet Amos condemned his generation for their worship at Bethel and Gilgal adding "for this liketh you," that is, they worship the way they liked - not the way God liked. (Amos 4:4-5)

Our worship must be God-centered, not man-centered. Do not ask, "What worship style suits me?" but rather, "What has God ordained?"

Things Buzzing At Peaceful Valley Couple's Hobby Brings Products For Everyone

By Beth Cassidy
Enterprise Record

For most people, the thought of being stung by bees is enough to send them running. But for Greg Fariss, it's just another day at the office.

Fariss, program director of Triumph in Mocksville, has a second job - beekeeper. He is one of four Eastern Apicultural Society (EAS) Master Beekeepers in the state, and he lives with his wife, Susan, in Farmington. Together, they are the owners and operators of Peaceful Valley Honey.

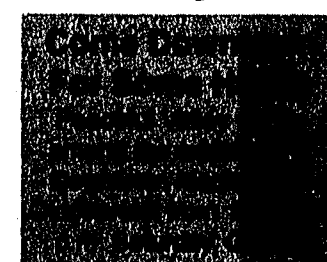

Farris has more than 25 years of beekeeping experience, including five years as an apiculture inspector for the Maryland Department of Agriculture. There, he inspected for diseases and pests, provided information about current research results and gave advice on beekeeping techniques.

Locally, he is one of the directors of the Davie County Beekeepers Association, which meets monthly at the Cooperative Extension Center. He and Susan were recently asked by the president of the NC Beekeepers Association to take over as editors of the association newsletter.

Farris said, "I used to do that job for the Maryland State Beekeepers Association, so we decided that we're going to take on the challenge. We're both really looking forward to getting to know the state association a lot better."

Farris also teaches a five-week beginner beekeeping course every year, helping those interested in what he calls a fun, complex, and often lucrative, hobby get started.

One way in which the Fariss' honey differs from other honey is that theirs is all natural, meaning their bees live in wooden hives with beeswax foundations, rather than the plastic hives many use today.

The honey is not heated, processed, and no pesticides or medications are used on the bees, a decision that proved temporarily devastating.

The biggest threat to bees, explained Fariss, is mites, specifically Varroa mites, discovered in the mid 1980s. To protect their bees from the mites, the Farisses medicated the bees, but because they are both big believers in organic gardening, that practice bothered them.

After trying some other methods, they decided to quit medicating their bees, and as a result, they lost about two-thirds of their colonies.

Undaunted, Fariss took the colonies that had survived and began raising queens from those colonies. He also found that by sacrificing the drones, whose blood is proffered by the mites and who would have suffered from the mite infestation anyway, he was able to keep the mites from repopulating the hive.

Farris said the mites may be responsible for a virus that could be the vector of another threat: colony collapse disorder. While research is still being done, it is believed the disorder is somehow causing worker bees, which go out during the day to forage, to simply disappear, perhaps because they were unable to find their way back to the hives.

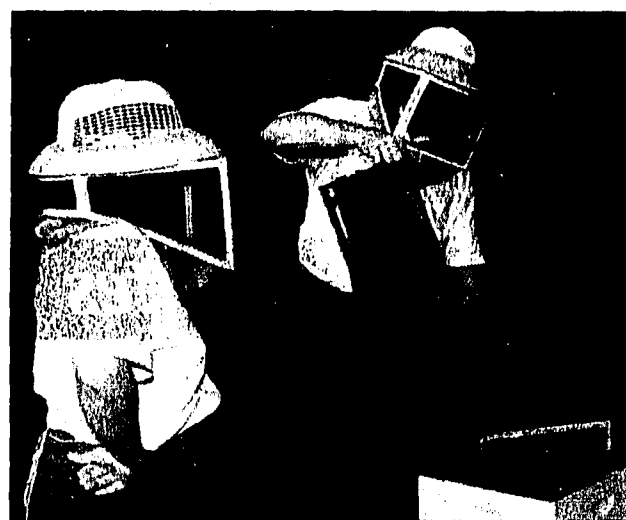

So far, Fariss said, the disorder has not been reported in this state. While North Carolina has more

Catfish And Cooleemee

Annual Fry Oct. 18 To Benefit RiverPark

WOODLEAF - The falls and shoals of the South Yadkin, known for over a hundred years as "The Bullhole," is a piece of nature worth saving for future generations.

Fall is one of its most beautiful seasons.

On Saturday, Oct. 18, hundreds will gather at the park's 7th Annual Catfish Fry. Advertised as "the best catfish you'll ever eat," park supporters and nature lovers will enjoy ample portions of fish, fries, slaw, hush puppies and dessert for $7. Kids plates are $3. Serving will begin at 11 a.m. and end at 3 p.m. (or whenever the fish runs out).

Cooleemee's Little Brook band will entertain with their own unique style of bluegrass music. Proceeds go to maintain the park.

Slaving over the frying will be Cooleemee's three Rons - Ron Bivins, Ron Shoaf and Ron Webb. The three grew up together and reunite in a labor of love every year for the event.

RiverPark, Inc., a nonprofit organization that has managed the park since it opened in 2003, is also hoping to sign up volunteers that day.

"This is a piece of God's creation that won't preserve itself," says the group's president, Daphne Beck. "We need volunteers to give a few hours per month to walk the park, keep an eye on the grounds, pick up litter and report violations of park rules to law enforcement."

Advance tickets for the Catfish Fry are available in Cooleemee at Osborne's Service Station and the Zachary House. In Mocksville, stop by Allstate Insurance, Howard Realty or the Chamber of Commerce.

Couple Gets Early Anniversary Trip To Home Of Forefathers

1958 was a good year for JW and Elsie Brown.

JW had graduated from high school and was working in his career. Elsie graduated from Cool Spring that May. They were engaged and a lifetime of happiness together was being planned.

Four children, 10 grandchildren, one granddaughter-in-law and one great-granddaughter later, the Browns find themselves retired and still looking forward to a great future with their family.

Elsie retired from the Iredell County School System after teaching 26 years. JW retired from upper management of diesel machine work. He trained a lot of young men and got them started in their careers, Elsie taught a lot of kindergarten, first and second graders.

As with most all couples, life has not been without trials. Elsie has gone through cancer twice and JW once with all the surgeries, chemo and such as comes with that dreaded disease. JW has had two joint replacements in the past couple of years.

JW and Elsie feel like the kids now and their children like the grown-ups. The 50th wedding anniversary coming up Dec. 13 has been a matter of discussion and planning for a lot of years.

JW and Elsie have visited all 50 states, many several times.

Stephen and Ranita, the youngest son and wife live in Suwanee, Ga. Stephen is an executive with Cox International and travels extensively. He and Ranita have planned and asked many times over the past few years if they could be the tour guides and take the Browns on a trip. They had a new baby boy on Aug. 11, 2007; therefore, taking a little boy on a trip abroad was not wise. Ranita volunteered to stay home with little Adam and let Stephen be the tour guide.

The Browns didn't have to wonder where they most wanted to go. JW is the son of the late Everette and Lola Money Brown, the Brown and Money names are recognized all over as from England but not an exact location. So England was one place JW had always wanted to go. Elsie is the daughter of the late Carl Werts and AnnaBelle Williams Eflord. Her mother was Scotch-Irish but no known specific location. On the other hand the Eflord name is most definitely German and the location is known. Judge Oscar Eflord and other known historians have done research on the Eflord family for as long as they have been in America.

The decision was made to go this fall because winters are very cold in England and all of Germany gets snow.

Don took his parents to meet their plane in Charlotte. Stephen met them in Atlanta and their first destination was London, England. They took a walking tour of London and a double decker bus tour. The sites that were more familiar were Big Ben, the Houses of Parliament, and Buckingham Palace.

The next day, they were off on a boat tour up and down the Thames River. They also rode the London Eye. There are giant bubbles that carry about 30 people each over the Thames River to get a view of the city from up in the air. They saw historic buildings that they had seen pictures of and studied about in school but never dreamed they would actually get to visit.

Buckingham Palace is open to the public once a year and the Browns were there at the right time. The part Elsie was most excited about was the dining room. It was all set and laid for entertaining kings and princes. JW and Stephen got a smile from watching a John Deere tractor mow the spacious lawn.

They met Susan Sholtis for dinner. She graduated from Emory University in Atlanta, Ga. along with Stephen, where they received their MBAs. Susan had made reservations in an old English restaurant for a real English dinner.

The third day, Stephen had purchased tickets for a first class ride on a train going out into the countryside of England.

They got off the train at Bath, England. They toured Bath and ate lunch at the Sally Lunn Restaurant. This building has been there since before Columbus' time. The ceiling was low and the restaurant small but everyone had to wait in line to go in.

The three travelers were off again on a jet for Munich, Germany. There Stephen leased a Mercedes Benz with a GPS. If the family had stayed in their homeland, her father would have been known as Carl of Erfurt. Erfurt, the capital of the state of Thuringia, was the first city to visit. It is a beautiful city of around 200,000 people. The people are laid back and friendly. The area is most known as the Martin Luther Trail. The huge church in which Martin Luther served as a Monk is still used for worship and stands in the middle of the city. Stephen found it humbling to think he was sitting in the same church, called the Erfurt Dom or cathedral that his forefathers no doubt worshipped in. Martin Luther was a leader in the German reformation. He took a stand for the inhuman treatment of his fellowman. Elsie's ancestors were Martin Luther followers and admirers.

The River Gera that runs through the city. Thirty-two houses are built on the bridge. The houses are well kept and all have window boxes with colorful flowers. After a walking tour, a riding tour, a visit to the University of Erfurt where Martin Luther received his bachelor's degree and some shopping it was time to move on.

The next visit of interest was Wartburg Castle, located high on a mountain in the state of Thuringia. Wartburg Castle is the castle where Martin Luther lived 10 months while he translated the Bible from Latin to the German language. Stephen had reservations for dinner and rooms for the night's rest. German dinners are an event within themselves. The German people eat much healthier than JW and Elsie were used to, no fast foods. Their dinners take about three or four hours to serve and eat. They get in no hurry when it comes to dinner. They first bring out the fresh bread and real butter and drinks. They learned quickly to ask for distilled water. Otherwise they will bring bubbly water which is carbonated. Then

Pino News

Pino Correspondent

Don't forget, our breakfast will be held again the third Saturday of this month at Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church. We will have the same delicious menu, ham, sausage, eggs, grits, gravy, baked apples and biscuits.

Wesley Chapel UMW met Wednesday at Zeko's of Mocksville with seven members present. They were Betty West, Marie Miller, Nancy Collette, Nora Latham, Sara Eure and Kathy Ellis.

Happy birthday to those who have birthdays this month - Roland West, Gene Miller, Tom Horton and little Reid Boger. Betty Etchison West recently returned from a two-week trip as guest of her friends, Jane and B.J. Testerman of Mooresville. The group traveled to or through 13 states - North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Vermont. The purpose of the trip was to visit sites connected to presidents of the United States. We visited 15 sites which were connected to 15 presidents, as well as a number of other interesting places.

Following is West's account of the trip.

We spent the first night at Paradise, Pa., and toured the Amish and Mennonite farms and craft shops around Lancaster, Pa. with a Mennonite woman as a guide. The Amish farms around Lancaster are well kept - the countryside is just beautiful. It seems refreshing to see men working with teams of horses and to see farms that operate without the use of electricity (they do use generators, however, to operate milking machines and milk coolers).

After the tour, we visited Wheatland, the home of the United States' only bachelor president, James Buchanan. This house of the 15th president, which is filled with Buchanan's furniture and that of his niece, Harriet Lane, who was hostess when he was president. After leaving beautiful New Hampshire, we moved on to beautiful Vermont where we visited Canterbury Shaker Village. This village or farm was the home of many Shakers who were a distinct religious group so named because of their movement during their religious services. There are only four Shakers left in the United States and they live at a village in New York state. The Shakers were the most interesting people who made beautiful furniture and were excellent farmers.

Vermont claims two presidents as its own. They are Chester Arthur, the 21st president, and Calvin Coolidge, the 30th president. Arthur's birthplace was a tiny two-room house on a little country road in North Fairfield. Coolidge's birthplace was in a small New England village, Plymouth Notch. This typical New England farmhouse with all the attached dependencies - the barn, the privy, the wash room, the milk room and the wood shed - was one of the most interesting places we visited.

While in Vermont, we also visited the Shelburne Museum in Burlington. This museum which covers 45 acres is filled with restored building, antiques, art and artifacts. It is the collection of Mrs. Electra Webb. Among other things there is a whole building filled with thousands of hand-carved circus animals.

After seeing Lake Champlain, we drove to Martin Van Buren's home in Kinderhook, N.Y. This home of the 8th president contains 38 rooms. It is not beautiful but it is very interesting because it still contains much of Van Buren's own furniture. Van Buren was Andrew Jackson's vice-president before being elected president in his own right.

We visited Franklin Delano Roosevelt's home at Hyde Park, N.Y., which is on the Hudson River. This house is big and beautiful and contains the furniture much as the Roosevelts left it. Franklin Roosevelt and his wife, Eleanor, are buried in the garden at Hyde Park which is what Roosevelt wanted because the house at Hyde Park was the place he loved best.

The last presidential site which we visited were the birthplace in Moravia, N.Y., and the home in East Aurora, N.Y. of Millard Fillmore, the 13th president. He was born in a log cabin and later built the house in East Aurora himself. He is the only president to build or help build his own house.

We got off the presidential trail long enough to visit the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y. After being greeted by a very lifelike statue of Babe Ruth, we toured three floors of that vast museum. Before leaving New York, we traveled to Niagara Falls to enjoy the breathtaking beauty of that natural wonder. We even rode the little boat, the Maid of the Mist, to the foot of the falls and were overwhelmed by the vastness and the beauty of the cascading water.

On the way home, we spent some time at the New River Gorge National Park in West Virginia and then it was on to Pino.

ping in the country that has been instrumental in most of our Christmas traditions and celebrations. Stephen drove her to the village in the area of Tribberg in the Black Forest. They have specialty shops, no shopping malls. Elsie shopped to her heart's content and is excited for Santa to come for her family this year. The store clerks spoke some broken English, enough to realize she wanted the items shipped home in time for Christmas.

The next stop of interest was Lake Constance or the Bodensee Lake at Meersburg, Germany. It borders Switzerland. They could look across the lake and see the shores of Switzerland. This village was preparing for one of Germany's many holidays.

The next visit was to King Ludwig II's castle in Bavaria in the Alps. They stayed at the Hotel Muller in the Alps. They have seen pictures of it for many years, but never thought they would actually visit it. King Ludwig II was never married.

A trip to Germany would not be complete without a visit to at least one of the many concentrations camps to pay their respects to the thousands who lost their lives there. Dachau is a term, Frances Cleveland told the servants to keep everything in order because they would be back - they were, four years later.

We then visited Theodore Roosevelt's home, Sagamore Hill, at Oyster Bay, Long Island, N.Y. This place was big and most impressive with all of the Roosevelts' furniture and many of his hunting trophies. One could almost hear the boisterous children of the 26th president romping through the many rooms and across the bearskin rugs.

While in Vermont, we also visited the Shelburne Museum in Burlington. This museum which covers 45 acres is filled with restored building, antiques, art and artifacts. It is the collection of Mrs. Electra Webb. Among other things there is a whole building filled with thousands of hand-carved circus animals.

On Sept. 30, Patti Ann Lynch and her dog "Codger", along with Lisa Mastin and her dog "Bandit", visited the Davie Senior Center at the Farmington Community Center.

The dogs and their owners are members of the Therapy Dogs International. These dogs are trained to be able to go into hospitals, nursing homes, and senior centers. They are being trained to work with kids, as part of a reading program which encourages children to read, by letting the child read to the dog. While going into hospitals and other facilities, the dogs bring smiles to the faces of those either facing serious health problems or who are in situations which keep them from getting out. The dogs have learned discipline in areas such as; not jumping up, staying until called, not licking people or items found on the floor and important duties.

Mrs. Lynch explained that if they were to take the dogs into a facility and the dog might find a pill on the floor, he could get really sick by ingesting the medicine. This is why the dogs have to be trained to not pick up items on the floors. Simple task like these take hours of training.

Lisa Mastin brings her two dogs to practice at the community center each week. Her dog, "Bandit" enjoys trying on costumes that Lisa has collected for him as well as following commands.

Patti's dog "Codger" is really laid back and just enjoys being loved by whoever wants to pet him. The seniors really enjoyed both of the dogs and learning about each of them and their personalities.

The Davie Senior Center will be having a Harvest Desserts Celebration at the Farmington Community Center on Tuesday, Oct. 14. Please call 998-3730 to pre-register.

Thank-you to all who came out during last Saturday's yard sale in support of the Farmington Community Center and to help raise funds for a new playground. We appreciate Chris and Maria Newsome for all their hard work and all those who helped out.

Saturday, Oct. 11 at 8 a.m., the Girl Scouts will be having a yard sale and bake sale at the Farmington Community Center. This too will be in support of the new playground. Tis the season for good deeds.

The Farmington Community Association will be moving the board meeting to Oct. 14 at 7:30.

they bring soup, after which they bring the main course. You can count on whatever meat, potatoes and veggies you order, but always meat and potatoes are served. Much later you are served a light dessert. The Browns just thought they had been taking their time and enjoying their meals until they ate in Germany. They learned after the first German dinner to sit back and enjoy, no hurry. German breakfasts are also tasty and healthy; fruit is served with all meals.

The next stop of interest was the Clock Museum. This housed 8,000 clocks a little village near the Black Forest. They traveled through the Black Forest and spent the night in a village called Schwarzwald. This small village is one of the hosts for cross country skiing. They expect and usually get at least two meters of snow every year.

The farming land is spacious and beautiful. They saw no junk cars and no junk farm machinery. The village houses have red tile roofs and are nestled close together so the farmers have more land to raise crops.

Elsie loves to shop and had her heart set on Christmas shop-beautiful small town with many historic and well kept buildings. The concentration camp was just outside the town. They have preserved at least three of the dormitories and the grounds for a walking museum dedicated to the 32,000 known men, women and children who suffered and died there. The museum has movies of testimonies of people who survived the torment.

Stephen drove the leased Mercedes almost 1500 kilometers over Eastern and Southern Germany, and all the miles by train, bus, taxi and walking tours in England attempting to see all that was possible in 10 days.

They realized before they went that people all over have suffered wars and lost lives for their countries. They went with respect for all of the people that live there. They appreciate and know that many Americans have given their lives that we might enjoy the freedom we have.

"We need to never take for granted what we have and enjoy as Americans but we should show appreciation for the many customs and traditions and faith we enjoy today, our forefathers brought to America with them," Mrs. Brown said.

Sheffield-Calahan News

By Janice Jordan
Sheffield-Calahan

The weekend's crisp autumn weather had everyone in the neighborhood struggling to attend as many of the scheduled events as possible. Several firefighters at Sheffield-Calahan spent the overnight hours on Friday preparing and cooking the many pounds of chicken and pork needed for their fundraiser meal on Saturday, so they were ready for an early country breakfast at V-Point Ruritan. While some residents took their pets to the Humane Society of Davie's Doggie Day, others caught up on some yard work before picking up their take-out lunches at the fire station. Others chose to attend a benefit for firefighter Buddy Renegar at Lone Hickory Fire Department for lunch and had their dinner at Sheffield.

Across the county at the Smith Grove Ball Field, the William R. Davie Raiders varsity and junior varsity football teams played the Mocksville Rams. At halftime, each cheerleader was introduced and escorted onto the field by her father, grandfather, or friend to receive a white rose.

Attendance was steady and the barbecue pork remained plentiful until the dine-in portion was well under way, so everyone who went to supper at Sheffield-Calahan should have gotten plenty to eat. All the fire department members would like to thank everyone who supported their fundraiser, including Tyson Foods for donating the chicken, and members of the community who donated desserts and their time during the serving and clean-up.

Many take to the dance floor and two-step to "Faded Love" afterwards. All the money raised goes back into the department for the community's benefit. Although it takes a tremendous amount of work to accomplish such an event, the community spirit generated offsets it. Many barbecue diners left the fire station and spent the rest of the evening at the Sheffield Music Hall dancing to music by Crusher Run. The family atmosphere is always enjoyed by all ages. Even Polly Thompson, who had recent surgery on her leg, wasn't kept away from the evening of music, although she was unable to be out on the dance floor as usual.

New Union's History Committee wants everyone to know they are selling Christmas ornaments with a tote bag for $5 each. The Women's Fellowship at New Union has its 225th anniversary cookbook on sale for $3, the appetizers & beverages cookbook for $5, and the Desserts, Desserts, & More Desserts for $10. Buy all three and receive a free quilted tote bag or you can get the bag for $3 with any single cook book purchase. Call 751-7567.

On Saturday morning, Oct. 11, an auction of personal items from the estate of Monzy Dyson will be held at 309 Dyson Road, which is just below the Sheffield-Calahan Fire Station. The Men's Fellowship of New Union United Methodist Church will sell concessions. Beginning at 5 p.m. that same evening will be a chicken stew and hotdog supper fundraiser at the Sheffield-Calahan Community Center and Recreation Area. Diners will have a choice of eating outside (bring a lawn chair) by the fire or inside the building. Musicians are welcome to bring their instruments for a jam session. Donations will be accepted, and will be used toward the bathroom facilities for the recreation area.

Ernest Johnson and Friends will perform Saturday night, Oct. 11 at the Sheffield Music Hall.

The next Seniors Meeting at Liberty Wesleyan Church will be Tuesday morning, Oct. 14, at 10 a.m.

On Tuesday evening, Oct. 14 there will be fundraiser by the Raiders Booster Club held at the William R. Davie Elementary School ball field. Starting at 7 p.m. hamburger plates for $5 and hotdog plates for $4 will be sold to benefit the ball teams. Each plate includes baked beans, potato chips, drink, and dessert.

New Union Church's ball team is playing in a fall tournament at the Center field. On Tuesday evening, Oct. 14, New Union plays Redland, and on Thursday, Oct. 16, New Union plays Mob's.

Game Night at the Sheffield-Calahan Community Center is set for Friday, Oct. 24 at 7 p.m., with the doors opening at 6. Bingo and other games are planned. Food will be available. To learn more, call 751-7567.

The price is $8 per plate and includes a half a barbecue chicken, beans, slaw, roll, and dessert. It is advance sales and carry-outs only, so sales are limited.

After breakfast many folks took advantage of the bargains at the church yard sale at Calvary. Both the Ruritan and the Women on Mission of Calvary appreciate greatly your support.

We trust that you have marked Saturday, Oct. 25, on your calendar as the date of our County Line VFD fall pork barbecue and chicken pie supper. Barbecue sandwiches and trays will be served beginning at 9 a.m. Whole chicken pies will also be sold on a first-come, first-serve basis. Serving lines for the delicious barbecue and chicken pie buffet supper will begin at 4 p.m. Be sure to take advantage of the homemade cakes, pies, and other desserts for purchase at the bazaar table. We look forward to seeing you there.

Upcoming community events include the Salem United Methodist Church "Fall Fest" Saturday, Oct. 18, and the Calvary Baptist Church Homecoming with the Rev. Bobby Henderson Sunday, Nov. 2.

Our community extends get-well wishes to Ruth Greene and Thelma Haneline. Ruth was hospitalized Friday at Davis Regional Medical Center, came home Sunday, then became worse, and is now at Forsyth Medical Center for further tests and diagnoses. Thelma was hospitalized with circulation problems last week at Forsyth Medical Center and was expected to come home the first of this week. Esther Campbell continues to improve but remains at Davis Regional Medical Center. Don McLaughlin and Eva Turner are continuing with rehab while recuperating at their respective homes. Please join us as we pray for the Lord's blessings and divine healing in the lives of Ruth, Thelma, Esther, Don, Eva, and others who are having health problems.

The wild swings in the stock markets both in the U. S. and abroad the past week have been trying on the nerves for many of us. Wachovia's downfall has hit close to home and really been shocking. When we see the Dow drop 800 points in a few hours as it did on Monday of this week, plus some banks being taken over and companies closing, things become unnerving. But, if our trust is in the Lord Jesus Christ and not in a company, we know that things are going to be okay. Isn't it great to be a child of the King?

We held you so close. We held you so near.
But God had plans for you this time last year.
We did not want to let you go.
We wanted you to stay, but the pain you were having just would not go away.
You fought the brave battle. You gave it your all.
But on the 9th of October God had his final call.
For through the gates of Heaven we knew you would see your mama Marie, your daddy Bill, and your niece Debbie.
All our love...

Davie Place

Caring Assisted Living Community

Esther Cook is one of our newest residents here at Davie Place. She's been in Davie County for the past forty years having moved here from Lee County when her youngest child was but 1 year old.

Esther is the mother of five children, four boys and one girl, all of whom live nearby. Grandmother to seven grand children, all girls, she speaks easily of their successes. She's very proud of her family and what they have accomplished in their lives and looks forward to visiting with them both here at Davie Place and her trips home.

Through the years, Esther has worked at gardens shops and florists and has a special love for her roses. Nurturing and growing her roses has been a joy and comfort she would like to experience again.

A long time member of 1st Baptist Church, she and her husband made many friends throughout the church community and she visits with some of those friends who are also residents here at Davie Place. The exercise classes and bingo are an important part of her stay here and she's working on improving her strength and mobility as well.

It's a pleasure for all of the staff here at Davie Place to have Esther with us.

beekeepers than any other state, Midwestern states have the most honeybees, because of the large amount of clover and alfalfa found in those states. The Fariss' honey is made from wildflowers, primarily tulip poplar, wild cherry, and blackberry, with some clover. What makes up the honey depends on the time of the year the bees are foraging.

"In early February, it's maple," said Greg, "then plum, peach, apple, and then there's a pause, before they begin foraging from tulip poplar. They forage year round as long as it's warm enough, but they bring in the majority of the nectar from February to June, mainly in May and June."

In their backyard, they have about 30 colonies, which means at the height of the summer, they have about 1.5 million bees. Not only do the bees produce honey, but they are also responsible for other by-products.

The Farisses sell candles made with 100 percent pure beeswax, all natural cosmetics, such as lotion bars and lip balms, and they provide pollination services. Fariss said their bees have been taken as far away as California to be used in pollination of crops.

But it's their honey that takes the prize. "Golden, thick, rich and with a sweetness that can only come from happy bees in Farmington, the honey not only provides the bees with their winter food, but is also used in cooking, as a sweetener, or simply on a biscuit, its taste is unparalleled."

For years, honey has been used to ease sore throat pain and quiet a cough, and athletes often use it for energy replacement. Because of its antimicrobial properties, it can be used on burns, and research shows that consuming honey prior to bedtime will improve sleep.

Greg Fariss demonstrates the smoke machine.

Susan has used the bees to get relief from arthritis pain, a therapy that is not well known and often misunderstood.

Under the umbrella of apitherapy, which is the use of bees and their products to prevent, heal or recover from a disease or condition, Susan's relief came in the form of carefully controlled bee stings to various parts of her neck, back and shoulders.

"After consulting an apitherapist and apothecary, who mapped out the areas and drew circles on them with a red Sharpie, Greg used the bees to sting those areas. He would just gently hold them on the spot until they delivered a sting. At first, he had to do it every other day for several weeks, and then after that, weekly. And then, it was every few weeks, and after about six months, I was able to go for about a year to a year and a half without being stung. I've just had to start back recently, when the cold weather returned, because that causes me to have more pain."

Susan said anyone wanting to learn more about the therapy may contact her through their website.

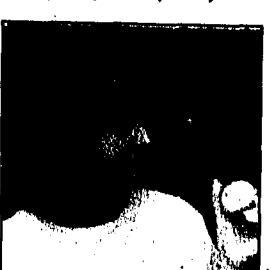

Oh, and if that wasn't enough, new research indicates that honey may be useful as a remedy for allergies.

Susan, who is a nurse by trade, said honey can be used "as an inoculant for what bothers you in your respiratory system. To help with this, most people ingest a few teaspoons a day. If what is bothering them blooms in March, then they should start taking the honey in February."

Ideally, the best honey for allergies is that which is produced in the area in which the allergens occur, but Fariss said as long as it's made within the Piedmont, it should be effective.

The Farisses sell their products from their home off Cemetery Road and at the City Market in Winston-Salem on Tuesdays and Thursdays. They will have a table at the Oktoberfest celebration in Mocksville Oct. 11.

Their website is www.peacefulvalleyhoney.com.

Davie Man Reflects On Terrorist Attack That Took Son's Life Some 25 Years Ago

By Beth Cassidy
Davie County Enterprise Record

They came in peace ... It was a deadly attack that took less than six seconds to complete, but 25 years later, as Charles Cook reflects on the events that took the life of his only son, the pain is as fresh as if it took place only yesterday.

At approximately 6:22 a.m., Oct. 23, 1983, a truck loaded with 2,000 pounds of explosives leveled a building where Cook's son, Cpl. Charles Dennis Cook, was sleeping. He, along with 240 other soldiers, was killed, and more than 100 others were wounded, in an attack that is considered the most deadly act of terrorism prior to Sept. 11, 2001.

At the time, Dennis, then 21, was part of a 1,600 member multinational force trying to restore order and stability in Lebanon. While the mission was meant to be a peacekeeping one, the Marines were in a high-threat environment, one that became more dangerous after a cease-fire broke down.

That morning, most of the Marines were sleeping when a five-ton truck, traveling at a high speed, crashed through barbed-wire, sentry posts, an iron fence and a sandbag barrier, plowing into the lobby of the building and detonating the explosives on board.

Back at home on Claydon Drive, that same day was the birthday of Dennis' mom, Mary.

The Cooks got a phone call from a friend of Dennis, who told them there had been an explosion. Turning on the television, Charles heard that about 65 soldiers had been killed.

"I saw the pile of rubble and I said, 'God, how could anybody have survived.' I knew there were about 300 in that company. That was probably the worst day of my life."

The next day, Charles went to work, still not knowing if Dennis was one of the survivors. He overheard two men talking about the attack and saying that 165 had been killed.

That was it for him. He went home.

Two days later, when uniformed officers showed up on the doorstep, they knew Dennis' fate. He would not be coming home.

Dennis graduated from Davie High School in 1979, but had joined the Marine Corps Reserve in 1978. He left for boot camp after graduation, leaving behind his dad, a Marine himself, his mom and a sister, Libby.

Dennis was scheduled to return to the US only about three weeks after the attack, and he would have celebrated his 22nd birthday on Nov. 22. Instead, his body was returned to the family two weeks after the attack, and he was buried with full military honors at Calvary Baptist Church.

His was the last body to be returned to North Carolina.

Because many of the residents were from Jacksonville, that city's Beautification and Appearance Commission sought to plant trees along Lejeune Boulevard to honor the victims, but the general public, locally and nationally, decided more should be done.

After three years of fundraising and the donation of land from Camp Lejeune, a brick and granite memorial was dedicated on Oct. 23, 1986, with 200 people, including the Cooks, in attendance.

Later, on Oct. 22, 1988, a bronze sculpture of a soldier was dedicated to the memorial, and in 1991, a poem, "The Other Wall," was cast in bronze and added.

It is to this memorial that the remaining Cooks, Charles and Libby, go to each Oct. 23.

"I've missed a year or two," Charles said. "I missed it in 2002, because Mary died Oct. 7. We see the same people year after year, but some of them are dead now. It's mostly people from the East Coast."

Charles is no stranger to the dangers of war.

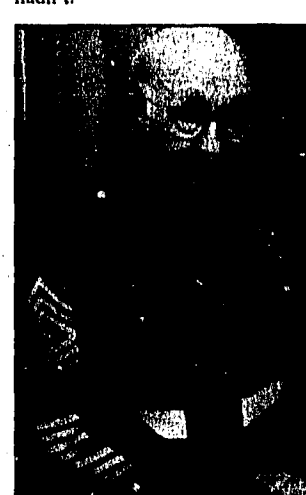

He is a retired sergeant major and served in Korea and Vietnam. His father was a Marine, and his brother retired from the Air Force. Charles said he also has several nieces and nephews in the service.

Dennis was a radio operator, and in addition to his service in Beirut, he had also been in the Mediterranean.

He had plans of going to college when he returned home. Charles would like to have seen him graduate, get a job, start a family - all the things that dads dream about for their sons.

But Dennis was determined to follow in his dad's footsteps.

"I didn't even know he was going to join until the day before he did it," Charles said. "He was 17. His mom came to me and said, 'You've got to sign his papers.' Now, I wish I hadn't."

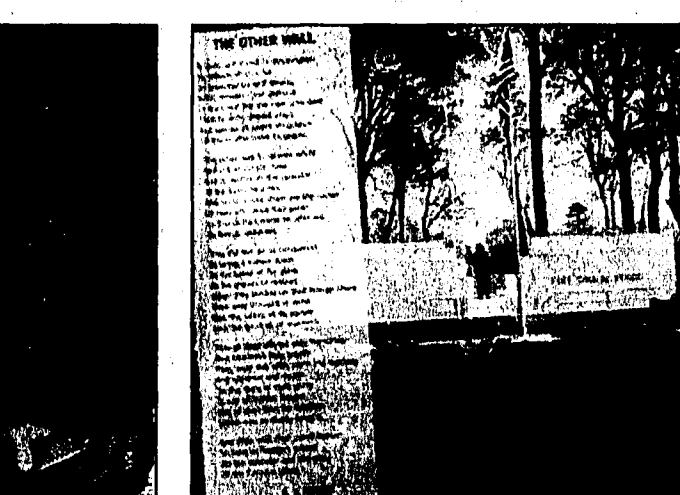

Charles Cook can still wear his uniform.

Charles Cook proudly displays the American flag.

Cook visits the monument annually.

Mocksville Elementary

Fall is in the air on the kindergarten hill. Leaves, apples, and pumpkins are everywhere. Classes have had fun learning about types of apples and tasting them. They learned about a man named Johnny Appleseed who loved apples so much that he taught others how to plant apple seeds and grow apple trees. Now that the fall season has arrived, students are learning in science about cooler temperatures, changing leaves, apples and pumpkins, and how animals are getting ready for the winter ahead. In math, they have been sorting and identifying shapes by colors and sizes. They have been doing this with types of leaves and their changing colors. Soon, students will be sorting and doing fun activities with pumpkins.

Ms. Garner and Mrs. Melton's first grade class has been working on addition in math. Students have used cubes and pennies to create addition sentences with both two and three addends. The students enjoyed several activities using the pockets on their clothing. In science the students have been learning about living and non-living animals. They learned the characteristics of insects and have focused on insects that can be found in their own backyards. Soon, the children will be investigating some habitats found around the school to see what insects and animals they can find.

Mrs. Fletcher's second graders are studying about apples and pumpkins this week. The students read the novels Picking Apples and Pumpkins by Amy and Richard Hutchings, Apples and Apples by Gail Gibbons. The class enjoyed making an apple graph about themselves. They wrote stories about their grandparents and made art work to give their grandparents on Friday.

Ms. Gulliver and Mrs. Hursey's third graders enjoyed having grandparents visit for Grandparents Day. Students have been studying letter writing so they decided to write grandparents letters telling them how much they appreciate them. They are excited about starting multiplication in math. In reading they are finishing up a unit on money by reading the story My Rows and Piles of Coins. Students heard from pen pals. They wrote a class letter and students are going to write back. They just finished a science unit on the skeletal and muscular system. They are beginning social studies next week and will be looking at local and national leaders.

Mr. Strickland's class is working on several projects. Students are discussing good writing techniques while reading the novel There's A Boy in the Girls Bathroom. The class enjoys hearing the descriptive language used by author Louis Sachar. When focusing on writing, they institute these bright ideas in their own piece. This week's prompt asks students to imagine that they have shrunken to a smaller size. "I am continually surprised how creative their responses have been," the teacher said. Social Studies has focused on the early history of North Carolina and the impact of Native American tribes on colonists.

Fifth grade has been busy in all areas. In Mrs. Cockman's reading class, the students have been studying types of figurative language in their novel and stories. They are starting to use figurative language in writing assignments. In math, the students have been learning divisibility rules. They are finding these to be helpful in other areas of math. They are beginning a science unit on energy where the focus will be on forces of motion and simple machines. Mrs. Cockman's class has been earning many class RAMS tickets for following school rules and expectations. The students are proud of themselves when they earn 10 RAMS tickets and get a bead on their ring. They look forward to joining the RAMS club and receive many fun activities. In social studies, the students will begin studying Canada. They will be learning various characteristics of the different provinces and territories. They will each present their research in a Powerpoint to the class.

In PBS news this week: Ashley Hicks, Madison Byerly and Kayanna Caldwell are the first three members of the RAMS Club. They earned 40 RAMS tickets and four beads. These students participated in "Fun Friday" and added their own Ram to the bulletin board in the cafeteria. The second grade is the grade level that has earned the most RAMS tickets with 54. Students earn RAMS tickets by being respectful, having a positive attitude and making good

Pinebrook Elementary
Kindergarten students have been studying farms. They learned that farms not only have animals, but they can have crops. They will finish the farm unit with a trip to Patterson Farm. Students have started the second set of letters. So far, they studied the letters c, a, d, h, m, t, s, and i. A few kindergarten classes have been able to watch the life cycle of a caterpillar. They loved watching and waiting on the butterfly to hatch.

First grade classes of Mrs. Drane, Mrs. Hendrix, Mrs. Miller, and Mrs. Welch enjoyed the Stageworks production called "Imagination Express". The children were active participants and had a chance to use their imaginations to help create stories for the program. The program focused on story elements including characters, location, action, and plot. The children loved dressing up and being actors.

Mrs. Hendrix's first grade class has been reading about animals using the story Animal Park. They are learning about African animals and what it is like to go on a safari. They began learning about fire safety this week and are working on a project at home. Each child must complete a fire safety plan, know two ways out of every room, and have a designated meeting place. Students need to practice fire safety plans with their families and will have an opportunity to share these with their classmates.

Second grade classes of Mrs. Chapple, Mrs. Potts, Mrs. Moore, and Mrs. Harpe have been working on "Exploring Numbers" in Trailblazer Math. The students are exploring numbers and learning to use problem-solving strategies. They are learning to solve addition and subtraction problems, skip count, and identify even and odd numbers.

In social studies the students will be working on "Being a Responsible Citizen". They will discuss attributes of a responsible citizen in the school, community, and other social environments. Students completed a study of the seven continents and four oceans that make up the world.

Third grade students continue to study the skeletal system. Some are working on building skeletons; others are preparing projects on the joints. Classes are writing economic essays that explain children's habits concerning their money.

Fourth grade classes of Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Hartman, Ms. Hicks and Ms. Howard visited Rich Park on Thursday, Oct. 2 for Soil and Water Conservation Day. Students went through 9 stations and learned ways to save water and how to help keep the air and water clean. They also learned about types of soil, and facts about plants and trees that grow here. Students got a close-up view of a hawk, and an owl. All fourth grade students will participate in the Davie County Soil and Water Conservation poster contest.

Fifth grade students are enjoying reading with Mrs. Shelton and Mrs. Waters. The novel Island of the Blue Dolphin has been completed. Other classes have been reading stories about immigration to America. They are recognizing the contributions of people of diverse cultures throughout the history of the United States. In social studies classes with Mrs. Waters and Mr. Devericks, students are understanding lines of latitude and longitude. Science students enjoy the interdependence of plants and animals with Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Shelton. Everyone is excited about an upcoming trip to the zoo. The fifth grade team would like to thank parents for taking time to accompany classes at the zoo.

Math classes are investigating rounding numbers and reading, writing, comparing and computing with decimal numbers. Mrs. Harris's classes made symmetrical jack-o-lanterns, and these are on display in the fifth grade hall.

PBS winners for the week of Sept. 29-Oct. 3: Jeremiah Keller, Alex Perros, Madi Sliver, Kayla Spillman, Daniel Mallett, Destry Wilson, Katie Myers, Paige Welch, Mazen Bahgat, Madeleine Koefoed, Nicholas Budd, Giovanna Hutchins, Nora Day, Johnathon Houghton,

Davie County Early College High School
School started on Wednesday, Aug. 6 for students. There are 107 students, 57 freshmen and 50 sophomores. During the first eight days of school, before they began college courses, students participated in several presentations.

Rita Matthews, student services coordinator for Davidson County Community College gave students an orientation presentation, which featured 10 keys to academic success. Mark Branson, associate dean of arts, humanities, and social sciences for DCCC, presented students with information on the MLA writing format they will use for research papers. Christy Forrest, associate dean of academic programs and the DCCCCHS liaison, helped students to understand how a course syllabus should be utilized and how to use Blackboard, the program used for online classes.

Program Blackett-Smith, coordinator of the learning assistance center at DCCC, presented students with information about how to successfully read a textbook and improve their memory skills. Sgt. Alana Geiger, a DARE/Erime prevention officer with the Davie County Sheriff's Office, instructed students in internet safety.

Students are taking several college courses, such as health, introductory psychology, interpersonal communications, Spanish I, Old Testament, study skills, and American government. Freshmen are taking one or two college courses in addition to high school classes; sophomores academic load consists of approximately half high school classes and half college courses.

All students take core academic courses at the honors level; in these classes, they study the required curriculum and then expand their understanding through projects and hands-on activities.

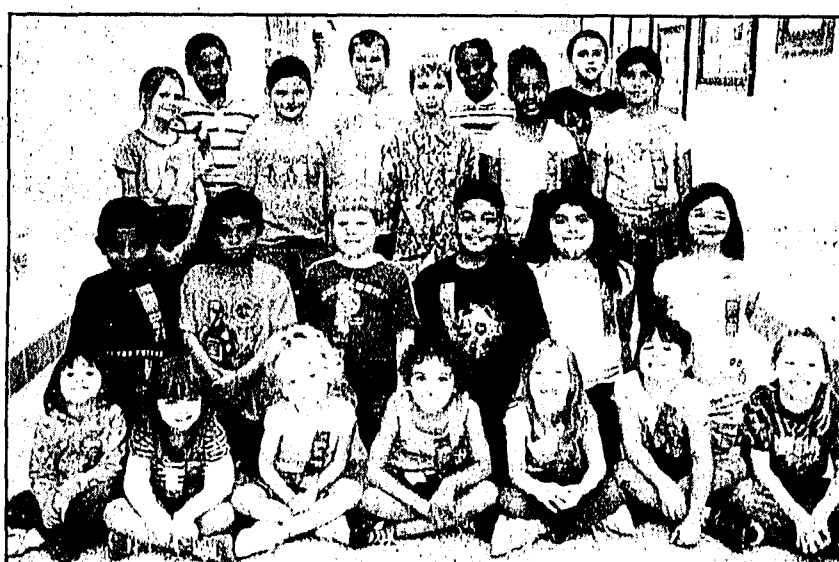

In Mr. Miller's earth science classes, students have been studying continental drift and Pangaea; for a project, they created a children's book on geologic time.

In Ms. Ziglar's civics and economics classes, students have been studying the 3 branches of government and are beginning to study economics; they created and performed plays on the Marbury vs. Madison court case.

Mrs. Absher's Algebra II classes have examined the stock market and will be looking at short term and long term trends; they completed their discovery of special functions and absolute value equations.

In Mr. Reeder's English I class, students read several short stories, debated about some of them, and, in groups, created collages about the short stories, which they presented to the class. Students have presented their speeches and hands-on projects that they completed about the nonfiction books that they read outside of class. In English II, students have studied the Holocaust and read Night by Elie Wiesel; they are reading The Metamorphosis by Franz Kafka and are creating skills to reenact the most significant sections of the book, which they have analyzed.

Every student takes a seminar class that is designed to support them academically and to teach them real-life skills. In Mrs. Davie's and Ms. Ziglar's freshman seminar classes, students are reading The 7 Habits of Highly Effective Teens by Sean Covey; students are learning how to present in front of the class and have presented each of the habits using Powerpoint presentations and creating board games. In Mr. Reeder and Mrs. Smoot's sophomore seminar classes, students are reading The 6 Most Important Decisions You'll Ever Make by Sean Covey; they have been learning about leadership and how to improve their study habits.

On Saturday, Sept. 27, The Student Government Association, SGA, hosted a pancake breakfast at the Family Life Center of First United Methodist Church. Many students and parents volunteered to help serve breakfast to the people who bought tickets. Others made donations. The fundraiser was a success, and SGA would like to thank First United Methodist Church, their youth ministry who performed a puppet show, and all who participated in the breakfast in any way. Proceeds will go towards an SGA sponsored winter dance, a leadership conference for SGA officers, and student planners for next year.

William R. Davie Elementary
Mrs. G's class is multiplying. Students are working on multiplication facts. They are creating mobile consisting of a number sentence and a pictorial representation of a multiplication fact. Students work in groups of 2 to create 11 facts. The pictures range from 3 sets of 8 spider legs to 4 sets of 5 flies on a stick of butter. The possibilities are endless in multiplication.

Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Moore's second grade class has been learning about communities. The children learned about what the types of communities are, rural, suburban and urban. They have learned about Davie County, North Carolina, the United States, and the 7 continents. The children learned which countries border Davie and what states and ocean borders North Carolina. A lot of time has been spent learning about communities and what makes up a community. All of second grade has done a project on communities. Each child was given rural, urban or suburban and they had to make a diorama.

In math, students have been learning about addition and subtraction number sentences. They have been using calculators to help solve addition and subtraction sentences. They have been learning about money and what they can buy with the amount of money they have. They have been spending some time looking at graphs and reading what they see.

The children have been taking a close look at rocks and minerals in science. They learned about the difference between a rock and mineral, the rock cycle, identifying rocks as igneous, metamorphic or sedimentary, fossilization, and the processes of weathering and erosion. Students conducted several fun experiments, including making "sedimentary sandwiches." Mrs. Wall's students chose a rock or mineral and then researched and wrote a report about it using a variety of media resources.

Fourth graders are collecting Accelerated Reader points. Mrs. Doss's top readers are Charlie Chapman, Myles Evans and Sidnee Everhart. Mrs. Stiller's top scoring readers are Riley Ball and Jacob Morse, and in Mrs. Walls' home room Makayla Beal, Stephen Dalton, and Ivan Enriquez have most points.

Fourth grade Cougars of the week are Sara Duncan, Jeremy Adams, Kendra Carter, Ze'Mora Corningham, Riley Ball, Connor Barringier, Crystal Cabrera, Jocelyn Ruiz, Makayla Beal, Stephen Dalton, Ashleigh Benitez, Sidnee Everhart, Myles Evans, and Jasmín Gonzalez.

Kindergarten started this year off with a breakfast social for the parents. The media center was transformed into a place for parents to meet each other for the first time.

In September, the first Cougars of the Month lunch was a success. Students celebrated by information on a subject of their choice. Finished maps covered topics such as rivers, highways, counties, population, rainfall, physical regions, tourist attractions, crops and livestock, elevations, natural resources, wildlife, manufacturing and, native American Indian settlements.

The lime green Extreme Team t-shirts have come in.

Students in Mr. Newman's science classes are making mummies to coordinate with a social studies unit on Egypt. In language arts, students have been working on a major writing assignment and are reading two short autobiographical pieces. From an American Childhood, and The Luckiest Time of All. They are working on sentence structure, with a review of parts of speech, as a grammar emphasis. Math students are studying integers, and writing/solving equations.

R & R Students of the month for September are Alexis Albarra, Ben Beeson, Elijah Jones, Austin Kerr, Lizzy Swett, MaeLena Apperson, Zach Baker and Kaitlin Sord.

The Extreme team did a great job with the PTO fundraiser. Teams united effort has resulted in a total of more than $4,700 in sales and donations. Students displayed school and team spirit. The Mega Party fundraiser award will be Oct. 22.

Student led conference days will be Thursday, Oct. 3 (after 1) and Friday morning, Oct. 31. A field trip to a Christmas Carol is also planned for Dec. 18.

Battle of the Books is a club for sixth, seventh and eighth grade students who love to read. Students read books from a State Battle of the Books list and practice answering questions about the books at meetings on Tuesdays. They will compete against South Davie and Ellis at the county competition in March and the winner will go to the regional competition in April. The first meeting for students was Sept. 16 but anyone interested is still encouraged to join. Battle of the Books is sponsored by Mrs. Callahan and Mrs. Kerr.

Aw Shucks: Fire Chief Again Gets Presidential Invitation

By Mike Barnhardt
Enterprise Record

COUNTY LINE - Brian Koontz has an aw shucks attitude about the time he shook President George W. Bush's hand just after his plane landed in Winston-Salem in 2003.

He's even more laid back about his last visit with the president. After all, it was just a personal invitation to a ceremony honoring volunteers on the South Lawn of the White House. He didn't even get to greet the president or shake his hand.

"There's people in Davie County who do a lot more than me ... it's just the luck of the draw," he said about his chances to meet the president.

It was through his job at EnergyUnited that he got to meet the president through Bush's USA Freedom Corp in 2003. And some of those honored then - one was selected to meet the president at almost every stop - were invited to the most recent ceremony.

Koontz was proud that his family was also invited. Other volunteers weren't that lucky. Brian, wife Donna, daughter Katie, 11, a sixth grader, and son Brandon, 13, an

Dropping Case Eases Pain Of Barn Fire

Good sense is a rare commodity these days, but it was thankfully evident in District Attorney Garry Frank's quick decision to drop charges against Wayne Smith of Advance.

Smith, 69, was tackled by deputies and Tasered while his barn burned Sept. 28. His daughter's five horses died in the blaze.

It was a night when everything went wrong. Deputies thought Smith was about to run into the burning barn. He said he was merely trying to warn firemen about paint cans which could explode. He had already been keeping his daughter at bay, realizing the horses were lost.

Smith didn't heed a deputy's warning to stop, forcibly removing a hand on his shoulder. According to the deputies, he said that was his building, and nobody was going to tell him what to do.

The ensuing melee added a punishing insult to Smith's considerable loss that night. And it demonstrated how emotion and lack of familiarity with law enforcement officers can lead to unwanted problems.

For many years, Smith owned Davie Trucking Co., raised a handful of children with his wife Elaine and lived peacefully with his neighbors. Back during the mid-1960s he spent a few years as a NASCAR race driver. On Sunday afternoons my ear was glued to the radio to follow his progress against such legends as Richard Petty and Fireball Roberts.

That was before it took a fortune to enter a car on the big circuit. He and his mechanic, the late Kermit Smith, soon realized the best place for them was not at Daytona, but back at home in the trucking business.

None of those experiences on the race track or as a businessman prepared Smith for dealing with deputies in a crisis.

When firemen, the ambulance or deputies are called to a crime scene or accident, they are in charge. The name on the deed doesn't matter. Ignoring their orders risks exactly what happened to Smith that night. When he pushed away the deputy's hand and failed to heed their warnings, he skirted unwittingly into laws that describe assault on a police officer and resisting arrest. Had the case gone to trial, the district attorney could have argued that Smith had broken the law.

More seasoned officers might have acted quickly to defuse the emotions at the fire, avoiding steps that would lead to a physical confrontation. But seasoned or not, the officers must be obeyed.

Smith learned that the hard way. Not only did he lose his barn and the horses, he was tackled, zapped with an electric weapon in front of his distraught wife and daughter, and hauled off to jail. It was a night of horror for Elaine Smith.

That was not the kind of case the district attorney was ready to put before a jury. Smith had been punished more than enough already.

Election's End Finally In Sight

I'm already looking forward to the peace and quiet of late November, after the elections, after the hubbub, after the mudslinging and exaggerations, after the predictions of ruin and financial collapse are over. It can't come soon enough.

This political campaign has left voters weary and anxious for it to finally be over. Early voting starts Thursday. Just a few more weeks now ...

Ads Against Dole False, Misleading

To the editor:

My purpose in writing is to expose ads being run against Elizabeth Dole that are either false or misleading. I know that most of you will be shocked to hear that Democrats would actually say something that is not true, but hard as it may be to believe, that is exactly what they have done. Let's examine some of the things they are saying.

There is an ad running that shows two men talking about Sen. Dole. The ad never gives their names, so I will just call them Floyd and Goober. These two men obviously don't have a clue what they are talking about, but have had their heads filled with liberal talking points and believed them. In one ad, they state that Elizabeth Dole has spent 40 years in Washington and is ranked 93rd in effectiveness. In the first place, she was only elected to the U.S. Senate in 2002, meaning she has spent less than six years in her position. She was elected to fill the seat of our great former Sen. Jesse Helms who served from 1972-2002. When Helms retired, I had concerns that anyone would be able to fill his shoes, and though there is only one Jesse Helms, Elizabeth Dole has done a fine job representing the people of North Carolina.

The ad attacks her effectiveness rating. While she is ranked 93rd for the last year, this is largely due to the Democratic takeover in 2006. According to an article in the Raleigh News and Observer, she was ranked much higher than that before then. Even with the challenges she has faced, having to deal with a Senate led by those on the extreme left, she has stood strong, and her votes show her to be a strong, principled leader.

A new ad featuring Floyd and Goober has Floyd planning to visit the "bridge to nowhere" in Alaska that our tax money paid for. The problem is the bridge was never built. You cannot visit something that doesn't exist. It would be one thing to simply state that Dole voted for a bill that included funding for the controversial bridge, but to state we paid for a bridge that doesn't exist is dishonest, and in addition, Barack Obama, the Democrats' presidential candidate, voted for the same bridge to be built. I don't see the same people attacking him for his vote.

Elizabeth Dole has represented the people of North Carolina well since she was first elected to the U.S. Senate nearly six years ago. I voted for her then and plan to again this year. Her votes show her to be a strong conservative, the kind of leader we need to stand up against extremists like Harry Reid and John Kerry. In addition, if the unthinkable occurs, and Barack Obama becomes president, we will need her more than ever to keep some balance in the government. Kay Hagan will only rubber stamp Obama's agenda.

Respect The Political Process

To the editor:

Please be aware whoever is stealing political signs in Davie County that you are now under watch. Local authorities and citizens are stepping up to prevent any more vandalism. Please know that stealing political signs is a crime, and should you be caught doing so, you will be punished.

I personally have spent many hours of my time working for the campaign of one of our local district judges in his quest for superior court, and have noticed some of his signs disappearing. Regardless of personal feelings for any candidate, it is important that we play fair.

Please respect the political process.

Cook Family Thankful For Support

To the editor:

Nancy and I want to thank everyone in Davie County and the surrounding area for your generosity and support at the benefit supper at Pier 601. We will use the proceeds to help us with our medical expenses.

Thanks to Chief Robert Cook of the Mocksville Police Department and Andy Stokes, sheriff of Davie County, for organizing the meal and publicizing it for us.

Thank you to the owners and staff at Pier 601. Not only did you donate all of the food but you also donated your labor in preparing and serving the food and cleaning up afterwards. You gave your time and worked so hard to serve an enjoyable, delicious meal for everyone.

Last, special thanks to everyone in Davie County and the surrounding area for participating and for your contributions. We are so blessed to live in a community that supports those in need, something not found in many places. We cannot tell you enough what this means to us, not just for the funds that were raised but more importantly for your support, thoughts and prayers. God bless you all.

Elderly Man Didn't Deserve To Be Shot With Taser

To the editor:

Our world has surely changed. I am sure many a barn has caught on fire throughout the history of time and I bet the families involved weren't calm and without emotion. Many men and women have put on a badge and have sworn to serve, protect and preserve life.

Wayne Smith, a life-long member of this community, is a man of integrity and has worked hard his whole life, raised a large family, and been good to many a people along the way. Now, at the age of 69, in his own backyard, by his own neighbor, he is thrown to the ground and tasered like a common criminal. Even if the deputy(ies) perceived Wayne's life to be in danger, how was it that the only way to preserve Wayne's life was to take him to the ground, restricting his airway and using the taser on him?

I decided to do a Google search about tasers and law enforcement. After my search, I'd just like to say, Wayne, I sure am glad you are here to tell what happened. With the risk(s) associated with tasers, why go to such extremes with an unarmed 69-year-old man? The Winston-Salem Journal stated that Mr. Barker was let go in Forsyth County. Why? Does Mr. Barker have a history of using excessive force? From my perspective, it sounds like a playground bully with a badge.

On a different note, thank you to all the volunteer firefighters who are quick to respond and stay however long it takes to get the fire out.

A Few Votes Could Make Difference

To the editor:

As the election approaches, it is important that voters understand something about Barack Obama's religious background. For 20 years, Obama sat under the religious tutelage of Pastor Jeremiah Wright who has described himself as a subscriber to the black liberation theology of James H. Cone. His church embraces that theology. We are being asked to elect Obama as president, who spent 20 years in that church and is a supporter of that theology. The word liberation sounds nice. Liberation theology swept across Latin America in the late 60s and became strong in the 70s. It almost destroyed the work of the Roman Catholic Church in South America. The Medellin Conference of Latin American Bishops in 1968 agreed to reexamine the past answers of communism and socialism to the needs of the poor. Pope John Paul II became so concerned about this new radical theology that he stated to the Puebla Conference of Bishops in 1969 that those "who sup with Marxism should use a long spoon." After the interrogation of liberation theologian Leonardo Boff, the Vatican Curia issued its famous Instructions of the Sacred Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, which addressed the excesses of liberation theology.

Jose Miranda, a liberation theology writer, stated that, "We are all riding on Marx's shoulders." James H. Cone, the chief advocate of black liberation theology in America, simply co-opted black power into a theological category contending that black power is not only consistent with the Gospel of Jesus Christ that it is the Gospel of Jesus Christ. In his book, A Black Theology of Liberation, Cone says: "In the New Testament, Jesus is not for all, but for the oppressed, the poor and the unwanted society, and against oppressors." He contends that "American white theology is the theology of the Anti-Christ." Concerning whites, Cone said: "Whiteness characterizes the activity of deranged individuals intrigued by their own image of themselves and thus unable to see that they are what is wrong with the world. Black theology seeks to analyze the satanic nature of whiteness and by doing so to prepare all non-whites for revolutionary action." On that same page, he identifies "whiteness with evil and blackness with good." One of the more alarming passages in his book contends that "all acts which impede the struggle of black determination - black power - are anti-Christian and the work of Satan." He then contends that the "revolutionary context forces black theology to shun all abstract principles of dealing with what is the 'right and wrong' course of action" as though laws are not to be obeyed and anyone who opposes that view is to be accused of racism. Cone dismisses the accuracy of the New Testament by contending that "most Biblical scholars rightly question the historical validity of the birth narratives in Matthew and Luke," and urges that "the mythic value of these stories is important theologically." In his black Jesus concept, Cone says, "The Black Christ is he who threatens the structure of evil as seen in white society," and that because He has become black as we are, we now know what black empowerment is. It is blacks determining the way they are going to behave in the world. It is refusing to allow white society to place strictures on black existence as if their having guns means that blacks are supposed to cool it. This brand of black liberation theology contends that "whites can only be saved by becoming black, that is, by entering into the black experience of oppression by whites in the context of which Jesus is encountered as a liberator." Of course, Jesus' only earthly parent was a Jewish girl, and so probably He had Jewish physical characteristics which are neither black nor white. Jesus' dealing with the powerful such as Nicodemus, Zacchaeus, Jairus and the Centurion exposes the nonsense of Cone's position, so do many of his parables.

In fairness, we must understand that most black theologians and black pastors do not agree with this brand of theology. They believe that we are all saved by grace through faith no matter what our skin color. They believe that Jesus is for everybody and they do not see white people as evil. We are stating his views here because Barack Obama comes from and supported the culture of this radical black liberation theology in Chicago and people need to understand the kind of culture he comes from. Those who embrace Cone's theology are few in number, but the issue is critical to us now because one from that black liberation theology is now asking us to elect him as president of the United States.

I was once in a small group that met with President George H.W. Bush. It was a time when the Soviet Union was collapsing. I asked how long he thought it would be before the Soviet Union and the member states could move to a free enterprise economy. He told us that it would take a long time because they did not have the institutions to support a free economy when the old Soviet Union collapsed. They didn't have the stock markets, a valid banking system, a manufacturing base or individual wealth of investors upon which to build a free enterprise system. All of those things had to be developed. If we allow those things that make for free enterprise capitalism in America to be destroyed, it will be decades before they can ever be rebuilt. These are the issues that America faces in this election.

Davie residents may be secure in their belief that Davie always votes Republican and feel that they have nothing to worry about in this county. That is not true. Davie County votes are averaged in with the votes of the rest of the state in general presidential elections. The election is going to be close. The few votes that may win or lose North Carolina could come from Davie County. That is the reason why it is imperative for everyone in Davie County to vote.

Wall Earns State Honor

Former Teacher, Town Board Member Gets Order Of The Long Leaf Pine

By Jackie Seabolt
Enterprise Record

Mocksville Mayor Francis Slate called him an historian and educator.

Town Manager Christine Sanders called him a statesman and a friend.

Both were referring to long-time Davie resident and former town board member James Wall.

Wall was the special guest at this month's town meeting last Tuesday, Oct. 7, where he was presented the Order of the Long Leaf Pine.

The Order of the Long Leaf Pine, created in 1965, is the highest civilian honor granted in the state. It is among the most prestigious awards presented by the governor to individuals who have a proven record of extraordinary service to the state.

"Mr. Wall was a member of this board for many years, in fact, he sat right next to me at this table. I could always count on him to keep things under control and have a calming influence on the board," Slate said.

Slate said that Rep. Julia Howard, who was also on the town board when Wall was, wanted to be present for Wall's award but was unable to attend.

Slate read a portion from the certificate that deemed Wall an ambassador extraordinary. "We all owe a deep debt of gratitude to Mr. Jim Wall for the many things he's done for Davie County," Slate said as he presented Wall with his framed certificate.

"I consider myself privileged to have lived in the county and in Mocksville for a little of over 90 years," Wall said.

He said some of his highlights have been teaching in Davie County schools for 30 years, serving on the town board for 20 years, spending considerable time over the last 50 years researching, writing, and publishing local and county history, and raising a family in a second to none place. "It's been a great experience. All this has been a very rewarding undertaking. I hope and trust that these years and the accomplishments that we've all made together have benefited all those who have been touched by them."

Sanders mentioned other high ranking people who have received the Order of the Long Leaf Pine - Charles Kuralt and Mayor Francis Slate; Maya Angelo and Vena Harris; Rev. Billy Graham and Buster Cleary; and Michael Jordan.

"We just want you to know we are really proud to have you in our town and of all the accomplishments you've done. There are many of us who think of ourselves as life long learners, but there are most of us who think of you as a life long teacher. So, we are most honored to call you our statesman and friend," Sanders concluded.

Wall said he considered himself privileged to have lived in Mocksville for over 90 years.

Esther and James Wall at the Mocksville Town Meeting, where he was the special guest.

James Wall, accompanied by his wife Esther, received the Order of the Long Leaf Pine from Mocksville Mayor Francis Slate.

DA Starts Worthless Check Program

District Attorney Garry Frank announced today the institution of a worthless check program for Davie County.

The district attorney was recently informed that he has been granted the funding to start this program. Frank was originally authorized to initiate this program in the district in the spring of 2006 but was specifically limited to a pilot program in Davidson County until the success could be determined.

Due to the great success of the operation in Davidson County permission was given to implement the program in Iredell County in 2007. This year's collection of fees and restitution in the two counties for the nine-month period from January-September totaled in excess of $476,468. This performance induced officials with the Administrative Office of the Courts to grant Frank's request to expand the program to Davie County.

The coordinator for the program in Davie County will be Lisa Harris. The office will be at the Town of Mocksville City Hall office at 124 S. Salisbury St., Suite 103. Harris can be contacted at 751-0129.

The program is designed to allow victims of worthless checks to collect restitution in a more efficient manner than the current criminal prosecution scenario. The services of the program are free to the victims and any administrative costs are assessed to the passers of the worthless checks as provided by law.

"For some time we have sought authorization to provide this program to the citizens of Davie County," Frank said. "I am pleased that we can offer it now. Our first steps will be to educate the public on the availability of this service and the operational procedures. Lisa will be visiting businesses and shops to inquire about interest in the program."

V-Ball Peaks To Most Wins In 6 Years

By Brian Pitts
Davie Enterprise Record

The expectations were there from the beginning for Davie's varsity volleyball team: Anything less than second in the Central Piedmont Conference would be a disappointment. Davie didn't disappoint, living up to the hype with records of 16-5 overall and 8-2 in the CPC. It finished second by itself, two games behind 10-0 Mount Tabor.

By closing the regular season with four straight wins, the War Eagles achieved the most wins in six years. Last year they tied West Forsyth for second. This year there was a substantial gap between Davie and the 3-6 spurs.

"And I think our conference is better than it was last year," said coach Becky Miller, whose team will host a first-round state playoff match Saturday at 4:30 p.m. "It's all coming together at the right time. I think we're peaking. We're ready to go into the state playoffs."

Davie didn't have Ashley Green (death in her family) at Statesville. No matter. As dependable as Green has been, Davie has solid depth. Juniors Miranda Edwards and Moriah MacDonnell and sophomore Taylor Anderson flourished in Green's place as Davie won the last three games for a 3-1 victory.

"We had to switch some people around and find some more offense in that position," Miller said. "The biggest thing is we had to have a block. Anderson did a good job in that role, and Edwards played a little there. (MacDonnell, Anderson and Edwards) are role players this year, and those younger girls did a great job with that. We're fortunate to have good depth. We can always move people around and we don't lose a lot."

Davie got big production from the usual suspects - Carly Pratapas (16 kills, 19 digs, four aces), Katelin Wensley (15 kills, 16 digs, four blocks, four aces), Chelsea Reynolds (20 digs) and Amber Parrish (17 digs, 35 assists).

Davie waxed North Forsyth 3-0 on Senior Night. All five seniors - Alex Folk, Sarah Martin, Parrish, Pratapas and Wensley - started, and they got a standing ovation when exiting the court in game three.

The stat leaders were MacDonnell (five kills), Edwards (eight digs),

Davie Doomed By Self-Inflicted Wounds

By Brian Pitts
Davie Enterprise Record

The buzz from Davie's 50-49 overtime escape at Page was gone in Friday's Central Piedmont Conference opener, done in by a disappointing 37-20 loss to visiting West Forsyth.

Five turnovers to your opponent's zero is rarely a winning formula, and it definitely wasn't in the first loss to West since '03. The War Eagles were their own worst enemy, fumbling the ball to West at the Davie 11 and at the West 2 and gift-wrapping two West scoring drives (both started at the Davie 11). Zach Illing, Davie's savvy quarterback who had been unusually poised all year, proved everyone is human, throwing three interceptions, including two costly ones.

Davie coach Doug Illing bemoaned uncharacteristic mistakes that dug a hole in which Davie couldn't escape.

"When you give them 11 yards to score two times, you give them confidence," he said after Davie fell to 5-2 overall. West improved to 6-1. "Penalties and turnovers - that's something we hadn't been doing all year. That's something we've been very proud of. You practice it and hope it's not going to happen, but tonight it did."

Davie came in ranked in a tie for fourth in the AP Poll, but experienced its worst margin of defeat since a 40-19 quarterfinal loss at Independence in '06. Illing had only thrown two interceptions in 133 attempts, and Davie had a knack for creating turnovers, not committing them. After six games it had three turnovers to opponents' 14. And it had not scored fewer than 34 points all year.

In the end it was little consolation that the War Eagles won battles in first downs (21-19) and total yards (411-380).

"We've been good at not giving teams extra chances," Illing said. "When you give them 11 yards to score, all of a sudden they think they're big beasts and our feelings are hurt. And really, it's not that way."

The game started the way the War Eagles would have scripted it. West punted after five plays and Davie navigated 90 yards in 10 plays. James Mayfield was dragging defenders and Illing was completing beautifully thrown balls to Joe Watson and Jarrell Marshall, who tipped the sideline for a 20-yard score and 6-0 lead.

One critical moment came on the first play of Davie's second possession. West leveled Illing as he looked to

Honorary Captain: Chaffin Born To Play Football

By Brian Pitts
Davie Enterprise Record

Who has worn a Davie uniform who loved football more than Kendall Chaffin? From the Mocksville Cowboys to South Davie to Davie to Wingate College and to two different professional leagues, Chaffin gave his life to football from fifth grade in 1981 through a 1995 tryout with the Carolina Panthers at age 25.

After completing a superb career at Wingate College, Chaffin wasn't ready to hang up the helmet. He's always dreamed big, and he craved the mountain top. So after playing stints in Taiwan - yes, he played all the way over in Asia - and in the Arena Football League, he tried out for the then-fledgling Panthers.

"I made it through one cut and then I got released," Chaffin said. "(Brother) Lefty (Stewart) and dad (Tom Chaffin) were down there supporting me."

Chaffin will be Davie's honorary captain when it hosts Mount Tabor Friday night at 7:30. He will make a fine HC. He was born to play football and he's never at a loss for words.

In 1987, defensive end Chaffin and the late Andre Frost (linebacker) were the only junior starters on a team that won five in a row before cooling off at 6-4. Chaffin racked up 100-plus tackles. In 1988, when Mike Carter completed his eighth and final year as head

Still Perfect: JVs Smother West Forsyth

By Brian Pitts
Davie Enterprise Record

So many good things happened defensively - too many to count, actually - when Davie's JV football team smothered host West Forsyth last week, 14-0.

It started with Corey Randall's bone-crushing hit on the quarterback, who was trying to reach the corner. Defensive backs Craven Chunn-Oakley and Sean Newman were heroes. The defense was dominant early, often and late as Davie recorded its first shutout in the first Central Piedmont Conference game. The 6-0 War Eagles also won at the site of their last loss, 14-7 in 2006.

Shortly after smacking the quarterback, Randall made a sack for a 6-yard loss. That was sandwiched around a J.D. Misc tackle for a loss and a vicious hit by Landon Hurt, who forced the QB to unload the ball earlier than he wanted. Marvin Quijada had tight coverage as the ball landed harmlessly on the turf.

"It was good to see Randall out there playing," coach Todd Bumgarner said of linebacker Randall, who missed the previous game with a back injury. "Corey's got a lot of tools, and he'll just continue to get better and better."

Blake Hess and Andrew Buchanan put the clamps down as Davie's defense protected a 6-0 lead. Tevin Gaither made the first of several nice plays when Davie was leading 14-0.

Worth Noting ...

Zach Illing threw for 315 yards and three TDs. James Mayfield rushed for 100 yards and Jarrell Marshall had 108 yards on four receptions, but Davie varsity football lost to W. Forsyth, 37-20, for the first time since '03 because of five turnovers.

Amber Parrish of Davie varsity volleyball collected seven kills, nine digs, four blocks, two aces and 27 assists in a 3-0 win at N. Davidson.

Davie JV football intercepted W. Forsyth three times in a 14-0 Davie win, including a pick-six by Sean Newman. Craven Chunn-Oakley had the other two.

Setter Kayla Cornatzer and libero Ashley Joyner led Davie JV volleyball to first place in the CPC. "Kayla did a great job of stepping up and taking charge," Dana Martin said. "Ashley played an outstanding role. She has a knack for the game, a feel for it."

No. 1 Jennifer Webster and No. 4 Laura Kinder both went 6-0 in the conference for N. Davie tennis.

Kenyan Tatum rushed for 150 yards on eight carries in his Ellis debut, leading a 32-0 rout of S. Davidson.

Megan Barringer's triple played Brooke Ball and Jenna Hummer and gave N. Davie softball a 2-1 win over Tyro. Ball struck out 11 and walked one.

Caroline Miller of Ellis softball pitched a one-hitter in a 2-1 win at Ledford. Maryssa Pickett had two hits in a 1-0 loss to Ledford.

QB Logan Hendricks and Matt Vernon hooked up on a pivotal pass play as N. Davie football stunned Thomasville 8-6. Tyler Shoffner's kick proved to be the difference. Toby Lowe and Devin Johnson combined for 179 rushing yards in a 16-0 win at Ledford. Cole Blankenship made 10 tackles over two games.

Hall of Famers

This trio was inducted into the Davie High Athletic Hall of Fame at halftime. At left, Doug Jacobs was a Shrine Bowl football player in '85 who made second team All-SEC for Ole Miss in '90. In '91 he made it to the last cut with the Denver Broncos. At middle, Patrick Lowery was CPC Player of the Year in football, wrestling and track & field. He was twice all-state at linebacker and won the state at 215 in wrestling in '02. At right, Patrick's father, Buddy Lowery, is a 33rd-year legendary wrestling coach for Davie. He has a 589-92 record that's spiced with three state championships.

Soccer Coach Proud After Game At West

Although the season has been one big learning curve, Davie varsity soccer coach Lance Everett was proud of his team after a 1-0 loss at West Forsyth.

The War Eagles had taken a step back in a 5-3 home loss to North Davidson. While they scored the most goals in 10 games, and got a 1-1 tie on a goal by Anthony Capra, they watched North score three goals in a span of five minutes. That woe stretch left Davie behind 4-1. Michael Rowe scored to make the halftime deficit 4-2. Joel Martin scored the final goal of the game.

"I feel like that's a team that we should have and could beat," Everett said. "They've been playing good against teams like West Forsyth and Reynolds. They haven't been getting beat that bad by those teams. So a lot of it is just our mentality."

Davie's defense made a 180-degree turnaround at West. The Titans scored in the last 30 seconds of the first half. Instead of buckling, the War Eagles fought West until the end.

"It was the best game I have seen our guys play," he said. Davie was invigorated by fullback Martin and keepers Brian Bullins and Jordan Kinder, who played in goal for the first time in his four-year varsity career.

"Martin played excellent in the center fullback position," Everett said. "Bullins had some amazing saves in the first 23 minutes of play, as well as Kinder for the rest of the game. He made awesome saves."

Everett saw signs of progress all over the field. "Everyone on our team worked so hard and played tremendous," he said. "Every player worked their butts off."

Notes: The War Eagles are in a severe drought against North. Their series record since a 3-2 win in '02 is 0-11-1. The loss to West is the closest margin during a six-game losing streak. The other five came by at least two goals. ... Davie entered the week at 3-10-1 overall and 0-6 in the Central Piedmont Conference.

The Davie JV volleyball team got better and grew more confident as the season progressed. Last week it closed in style, beating Statesville, North Forsyth and North Davidson - all in two games.

The War Eagles, who finished 18-3 overall, captured first in the Central Piedmont Conference with a 9-1 record. A loss to North Davidson would have meant a three-way tie for first between Davie, North Davidson and Mount Tabor. But Davie wasn't in a sharing mood.

"They've worked really hard," coach Dana Martin said. "They put a lot of effort into this, and you can really see it. A lot of them put in a lot of effort in the offseason, and it's really paid off. They jelled together."

At Statesville, the difference was the serving of Kayla Cornatzer, Kelsey Tift and Brianna Gaither and the hitting of Morgan Barnhardt and Madi Pratapus.

The serving of Barnhardt, Tift, Gaither and Katie Sutherland energized Davie in the final home match against North Forsyth. The big hitters were Katrina Maine, Asia Hilliard and Clara MacDonell.

In game one at North Davidson, Barnhardt's serving and Pratapus' hitting (five kills) propelled Davie 25-23. In game two, a 25-21 decision for Davie, Cornatzer (five straight serves) provided steady serving while Britanni Stewart, Elyssa Tucker and Pratapus supplied three kills apiece.

Libero Ashley Joyner had a lot to do with Davie's super season.

"She played an outstanding role with defense," Martin said. "She did a great job running the backcourt. She has a knack for the game, a feel for it, and is good at helping her teammates cover the court."

Joyner got plenty of help from setters Cornatzer and Barnhardt. "Cornatzer did a great job of stepping up and taking charge on the court," she said.

The same things can be said about outside hitters MacDonell, Pratapus and Tift and middles Leslie Fulton and Maine.

"We've had a lot of offense," said off. They jelled together."

"He has gotten better every week," Bumgarner said. "He's starting to come up and be more physical on the edge, and you can just see the confidence growing in him. He brings great energy. At the first of the year he was just running around. Now he's learning how to play."

The offense didn't get a lot of bang for its buck. The margin could have been significantly more lopsided if the offense and kick-return teams wouldn't have shot themselves in the foot with penalties.

But the offense did enough to get by.

On their second series, the War Eagles drove down the field in 10 plays. Herndon tucked the ball and picked up 12 yards. Denzel Redmon used a Mattieu Sawicki-Johnson block on the edge to gain 23 yards.

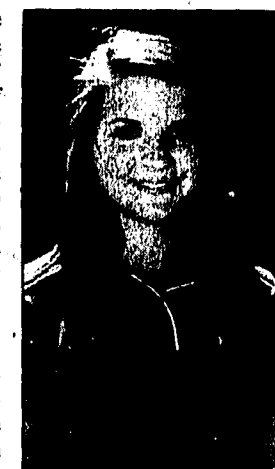

The drive featured a pair of conversions on fourth-and-long. Redmon dashed 31 yards on a fourth-and-20 delay handoff.

On fourth-and-17, Teddy Allen tightrope the sideline and reeled in a beautiful 28-yard catch. Redmon took it in from the 6 for a 6-0 lead.

There were no more offensive TDs. Allen had two long punt returns nullified by flags. Davie dropped an easy pass in the end zone. The only other big play that counted was a 29-yard swing pass to Redmon, who got a good block from Allen.

Redmon finished with 94 yards on 14 carries, while Herndon was 8 of 19 for 95 yards.

"Credit West for being able to cover us in the secondary and put a lot of pressure on us up front," Bumgarner said. "In the second half we were unable to run the ball and get time to do a whole lot of anything. We dropped three passes that we've been making plays on all year.

three holes. Then rain intervened and washed the match. Grubb started strong as well (2-over after three). "Caitlyn's first drive was just awesome. So was Carmen's," Callison said. "I love the way Caitlyn plays. I think she's the longest hitter (besides Ingram), and many times she has gotten out there with Kristi and outdrive her. On average Kristi outdrives Caitlyn, but Kristi has played all the time for years. She's got an advantage over Caitlyn in that respect."

Then there was the improved play of Meghan Matthews, who tied for seventh at Pinebrook with a 53.

"I was really pleased with that," he said. "She just messed up on a couple holes. She was in a good position. She could have knocked two or three more strokes off."

she said. "Leslie and Katrina did a great job. They've come a long way. I think about how far Leslie has come since seventh grade."

"You can't say enough about the defense," Bumgarner said. "The defense dominated the game."

One of the signature plays came with West at the Davie 9 with 6:42 left in the third. Davie had just fumbled with the score 14-0. After Jordan Farmer and Miss stopped a runner at the 8, Chunn-Oakley went high to intercept a jump-ball pass. He made the pick in the end zone.

Chunn-Oakley enjoyed the kind of game defensive backs dream about. With West at the Davie 35, the Titans went up top. The pass inside the Davie 5 was picked off again by Chunn-Oakley, who returned it 28 yards. For good measure, he recovered a fumble.

"Coach (John) Bullins and coach (Mike) Rominger have been giving high praise to Craven for some time now," Bumgarner said. "He's a go-getter and very coachable. It's very gratifying to see someone doing what they're coached to do. He's in a great stance, he attacks the ball at the highest point and he did a phenomenal job. He had two interceptions and a fumble recovery. That's almost unheard-of."

One of the most memorable plays of the year was turned in by Newman, who picked a pass in the flats and cruised 32 yards to extend the lead to 12-0 with 10:09 left in the third. Carson Herndon's two-point pass to Jarrett Wallace capped the scoring.

Neyman didn't play football last year. Twin brother Alex suffered a broken collarbone the week of the first game and hasn't played all year. If the loss of Alex has been a big blow, the addition of Sean has been a big lift.

"I looked at Costner and said: 'We need a big block. We need somebody in there that can hit well,'" Miller said. "We put Costner in at right side and she did an awesome job. She hit the ball well and found the block. She stepped up after being out for so long."

Brittani Stewart (two blocks), Pratapus (five aces) and Parrish (eight assists).

At North Davidson, a loser in three games, Davie got a lift from Costner Merrifield, who returned from an extended absence caused by mono. It didn't take Merrifield long to make her presence felt.

"I looked at Costner and said: 'We need a big block. We need somebody in there that can hit well,'" Miller said. "We put Costner in at right side and she did an awesome job. She hit the ball well and found the block. She stepped up after being out for so long."

Davie got 20 digs from Pratapus, 10 blocks from Folk, six kills and six digs from Merrifield, 13 kills and seven digs from Wensley, 16 digs from Reynolds and a slew of activity from Parrish, who had seven kills, nine digs, four blocks, two aces and 27 assists. Whew.

Folk's blocking outburst included six solo acts. Oh, and Wensley did her killing and digging at less than full strength. She was noticeably sick.

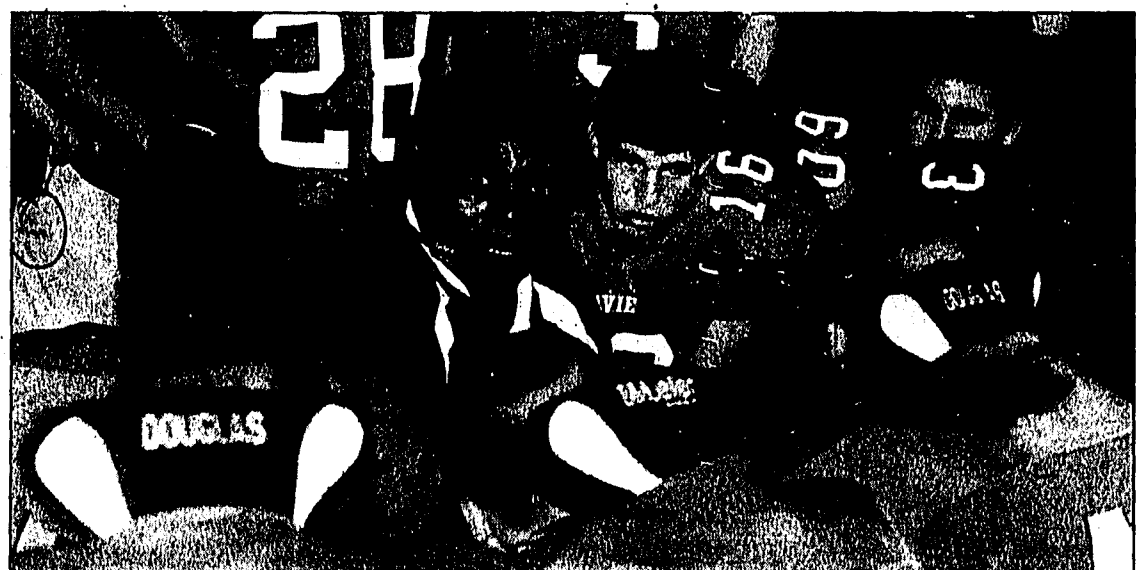

"She missed school the day before, but she had a wonderful match even though she was really out of it," Miller said. "When they got on the court from No. 1 through No. 15 - they're in volleyball mode. That's what's neat about this group. They play their hearts out."

pass, and he lost the ball at the Davie 11. West's Dedrick Anderson scored on the next play, Landon Thayer made the extra point and Davie never led again.

"Everything was clicking," Illing said. "Then we turn it over and give them life. You've got to take the wind out of them and smother them. And we just kept giving them life."

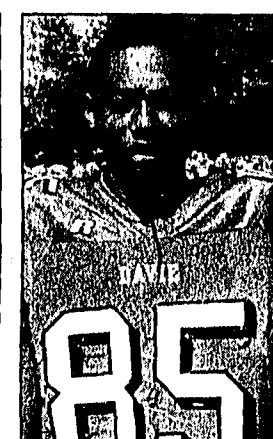

A short punt and penalty on Davie allowed West to set up shop at the Davie 11, and West grabbed a 14-6 lead with 10:05 left in the half. Illing drove Davie right back, hitting P.J. Neely for 35 yards and flipping a slip screen to Watson, who sliced through the middle 35 yards. Illing kept the ball on an option and ran 10 yards to the West 1. Mayfield was stuffed on first-and-goal from the 1. Illing tried the same option run, but he was clocked and lost the ball at the 2.

From that moment forward, Davie, still missing two senior starters on the offensive line to injuries (left tackle Josh Burckham and center Vince Cioce), was never the same.

"One thing we'd been able to do all year was capitalize on scoring opportunities," Illing said. "And it just didn't happen tonight. The first series we saw what they did, and they stayed in (that defense). We had good play calls and we were executing. Zach had one of those nights. It just wasn't clicking. He made a lot of good plays, but they brought some pressure that caused him to throw it sooner than he wanted to."

Neely did restore order, if only temporarily, making 20- and 13-yard receptions on consecutive plays to pull Davie to 14-13.

The end of the half epitomized Davie's flaws on this night. It took over at its 18 with 1:30 on the clock. Three with-incompletes later, West had the ball at midfield. With 17 seconds left, Patrick Midkiff lofted a 21-yard TD to Ric Thompson, who beat one-on-one coverage with a fade route for a 20-13 West lead.

"They've got (good) coaches and got two weeks off, and they got their team better," Illing said. "They made some good carries. "Let me tell you something, you can't measure heart," West first-year coach Adrian Snow said. "If you took a tape measure and measured his heart, it'd be enormous. ... Taking care of the football is big, and the cool thing is we caused some of those turnovers."

Illing completed four straight passes, the last a 46-yard TD to a streaking Marshall, to get Davie within 27-20. West hardly flinched, driving 80 yards in six plays for a backbreaking 34-20 lead.

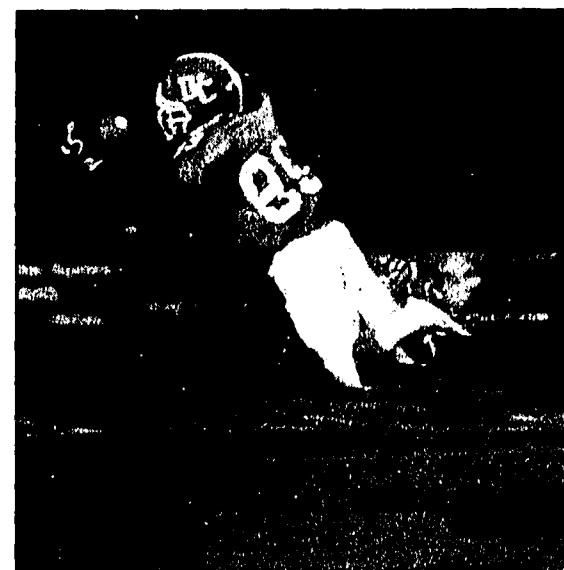

The game's final TD was the easiest pitch and catch you'll ever see. No one marked Xavier Sloan as he split wide on third-and-6 at the Davie 27. Midkiff threw it up and Sloan walked into the end zone with 2:39 left in the third.

"We'll take it," Snow said. "I know those coaches do a great job, but we knew coming in that they were going to put (Perry James) on (West star) Crishawn (Rhyno). So we were going to move him to the inside receiver some. They realized that, so what they started doing was taking James, who's a corner, and putting him at outside linebacker. What I think ended up happening was they had a lapse. When you don't huddle, you see things like that."

"We had man coverage," Illing said. "The corner is supposed to come over in that formation, and I don't guess he saw (Sloan) out there. We were hollering, but give their quarterback a lot of credit. He saw it." Mayfield finished with 100 yards on 16 carries, but West stifled him when it mattered most. He had just 28 yards on his first 10 tries.

"He's tough to bring down, but we did a good job of taking care of business," Snow said. "When that loud starts rolling, he's like a big cinder block."

"Mayfield got dinged up. That slowed him up," Illing said. "Once he got over that, he started running harder again and things started opening up. But they took him away. They had six or seven guys in the box. They were giving us the throw and that's why we were doing so well with it."

Notes
• After four years of serving as the doorman to Davie, determined West enjoyed being the bully for a change. "They've wanted it for so long," Snow said. "Wanting and doing is two different things. Our big thing was keeping our composure and poise. We couldn't get over here and be so emotional that we lose ourselves. They're a great team and we did a great job of taking care of business."

• Davie was held far below its 42-point average. ... Neely came alive after entering the game with five catches for 67 yards. ... Davie had won 21 of 25 CPC games.

• The loss tarnished a strong performance by sophomore linebacker Jared Barber, who returned from a shoulder injury that sidelined him for three games. "He made a big difference," Illing said. "We just gave them too many opportunities."

Chaffin...

coach at Davie, the 6-3, 230-pound Chaffin delivered 167 tackles.

"He's our spiritual leader," Carter said then. "He gets the boys going because he's very emotional."

"When I hit the field, it's time to go wild," Chaffin said then.

The War Eagles were snatched in Chaffin's senior year. They finished 3-7 with five losses by a combined 22 points. With Davie wallowing at 2-4, Chaffin seethed. "We should be 6-0 and we all know it," he said then. "We all know we have a good team."

It just wasn't meant to be. But Chaffin was equally adept on the wrestling mat, starting three years on some of the best teams in coach Buddy Lowery's storied career. With Chaffin making all-Central Piedmont Conference three times and winning the regional title twice, the War Eagles went 29-0 as a dual team from 1986-89. They were state runner-up all three years.

Anyone from the '89 team will tell you they were the best of all time, even though they lost to first-place Cary by a point and a half. Ten of them made all-CPC that year, including Chaffin at 189, Brad Foster (112), Scott Beauchamp (125), Jamie Caudle (135), Scott Page (140), Jon Myers (145), Todd Kiger (152), Eric Blankenship (160), Marty Martin (171) and Todd Smith (heavyweight).

After starring in two sports at Davie, Chaffin became a football legend at Wingate. He redshirted in 1989, then had back surgery. He started from 1991-93, making the all-South Atlantic Conference second team as an offensive tackle in 1992. After the season he was named MVP of the OL.

Chaffin cemented himself in SAC lore by switching sides and making all-SAC second team as a 1993 senior. Despite having never played defense in college, he was named the team's defensive MVP.

"I was up for a national trophy for the top blocker, and I probably would have won that," he said Sunday night.

In his first game at linebacker, Chaffin put together eight tackles and five solo stops. Against Carson-Newman he made a Wingate-record 26 tackles, a record he held for several years. He made 15 tackles in a 56-28 win over Gardner-Webb. He finished second on the team in tackles and seventh in the conference. There's more. He was a 10-time Practice Player of the Week, and he was an Iron Bulldog for four years.

He's one of - if not the only - player in SAC history to be named all-conference one year on offense and another year on defense. The 6-4, 255-pounder worked out for scouts at NFL combines.

"I ran the 40, was tested for height and weight and took a word association test," he said then. "You had to be smart to get in. They don't take dummies."

Wingate defensive coordinator Donnie Revell said Chaffin was the perfect leader.

"Kendall had always played offensive line with a defensive mentality," Revell said then. "He gives every bit of effort. He wants to learn. He works all the time. For him to make the move in his senior year after being second team all-conference last year, that's a pretty good sacrifice."

In an NFL Combine at Wake Forest, big Chaffin ran the 40 in 4.72 seconds, but was left out in the NFL Draft.

"They told him to hang loose," Tom Chaffin said then. "The teams have his tapes."

A call came from Atlanta Falcon linebacker Tommy Nobis. Calvary of the Canadian Football League contacted Chaffin. At 6-4, 270, Chaffin attended the NFL Combine for rookies. He didn't make the cut, but he made connections.

At this time people with deep pockets were starting the United Football League in Asia, and UFL officials got 3,000 names who worked at different NFL combines. They narrowed the list to 100.

Here's another reason why Chaffin is an inspiring story. He believed he could do anything, never backed down from a challenge and thus flew to Bowling Green, Ky., for UFL tryouts. They cut from 100 to 55. Chaffin was among the 55. He jumped on a plane and flew 15 hours to Taipei, Taiwan, to play for the Taiwan Dragons, making him the second former Davie High player to play professionally (Doug Jacobs, who was just inducted into the Davie hall of fame with Buddy Lowery and son Patrick Lowery, was the first).

"Only Kendall could go to Taiwan and play pro football," Tom Chaffin said then. "I'm happy for him. It's what he has always wanted to do, even if it is in Asia."

Chaffin performed in front of 60,000 fans and an estimated TV audience of 450 million. And he performed rather well, making eight tackles, a sack and eight hurries-ups. In the Dragons' 23-16 win over the United States All-Stars, Chaffin made three tackles on fourth down and two stops on goal-line stands.

Chaffin soaked up his instant celebrity in Taiwan.

"We had the best of everything," he said then. "We stayed in a five-star hotel eating the best food money could buy. We'd send our laundry out and it came back like we'd just bought it. We signed autographs. It was really like Lifestyles of the Rich and Famous."

When that gig was over, Chaffin suited up in the Arena Football League for the Milwaukee Mustangs and the Miami Hooters. Then he got the trout with the Carolina Panthers.

What an amazing career. Playing for Buddy Lowery at Davie remains fresh in Chaffin's mind. He beamed at his former coach as he was being celebrated last Friday.

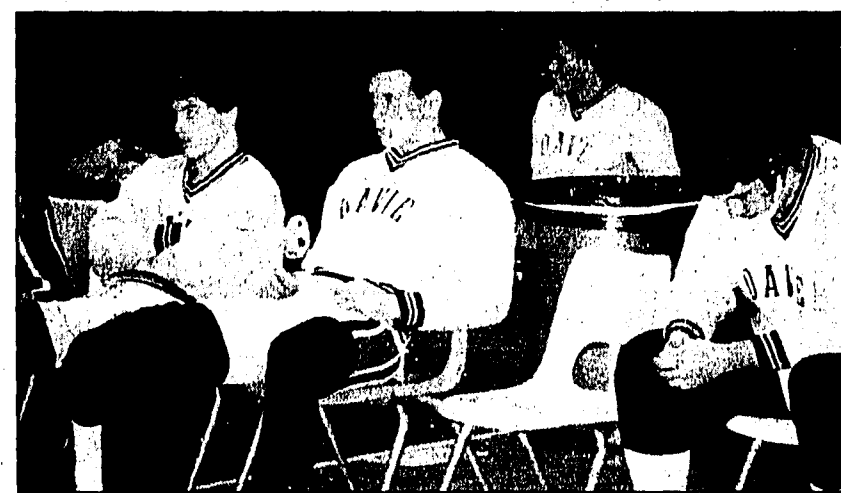

"It was an honor to watch coach Lowery get inducted into the hall of fame," he said. "Out of all the coaches I had through my whole career, he was the best. He had a sense of looking at a player and knowing that he had more in him than the player realized himself, and he could get that out of us. He was a great, great defensive line coach. He really was. He was the best I ever had."

Chaffin is proud that in 2007 he "accepted Jesus Christ as my Kendall Chaffin was a menacing linebacker at Wingate.

Lord and savior." His wife is 3-year-old daughter, and Mel-Melissa (Woodbridge) Chaffin. issa is expecting a boy in January. They live in Bermuda Run. They have a 5-year-old son and

Make Or Break

Davie's CPC Hopes On The Line Friday At Home

Is Friday's football game between Davie and visiting Mount Tabor a big game? No. That's an understatement.

It's a really big game.

Davie is 0-1 in the Central Piedmont Conference after last week's 37-20 loss to West Forsyth, but no one has run the table in the CPC since Davie went 4-0 in '04. The 2005-07 trend shows that every team is allowed one fall. Davie, West Forsyth and Tabor all went 5-1 in '05. Davie, Tabor and West went 5-1 in '06. And Davie and Tabor went 4-1 in '07. For Davie to have a chance to extend a streak of five straight first-place finishes, it must take down Tabor, Reynolds, North Forsyth and North Davidson and hope somebody upends West Forsyth.

So there is a possible detour to a piece of first. The bad news is it's a long and winding road lined with mines. The good news is Davie, during coach Doug Illing's 11-year tenure, has been tough in the role of wounded animal.

"You generally get one (slip)," he said. "West has got to line up and play next week, too. We're going to have tough suits. We'll be alright."

Tabor is 6-1 after opening CPC play with a 17-6 win over Reynolds. Beating Tabor for the first time since 2000 - the teams didn't meet in '01, '02 and '04 - will be difficult, but hardly impossible. The Spartans needed a stop on a two-point conversion to hold off Parkland 28-26. They lost 28-19 to East Forsyth even though East star quarterback Danny O'Brien went down with an injury in the third quarter. And they needed a 23-14 flurry in the fourth to rally past Northwest Guilford 29-22.

If Davie is going to win, its run defense must have a monster game against Tabor's dynamic star, Hunter Furr, a UNC-bound running back who is already well over 1,000 rushing yards. Against Reynolds the workhorse put up 168 yards on 29 carries.

Furr is a 6-1, 207-pound bull who blends power with blur speed. He's been clocked at 4.3 in the 40.

"Fifty touchdowns would be nice," Furr told the Winston-Salem Journal when asked about season goals. "2,500 yards and 50 touchdowns, hopefully I can achieve that."

The challenge for Davie is keeping the West game from ruining the rest of the season. The War Eagles have many reasons for wanting to beat Tabor: They've lost 11 of the last 13 meetings to trail the series 12-8. The last two have been heartbreakers, including a 24-21 overtime setback in '06.

Last year Davie let Tabor off the hook, 36-35. The War

Eagles led 35-26 after a Michael Rowe field goal of 41 yards with 5:46 to play. Tabor hit a field goal at the 3:38 mark and scored with 23 seconds left on a 1-yard plunge by Furr, who finished with 141 yards on 19 carries. In that game, Tabor completed one pass (for 18 yards) and ran for 348 yards.

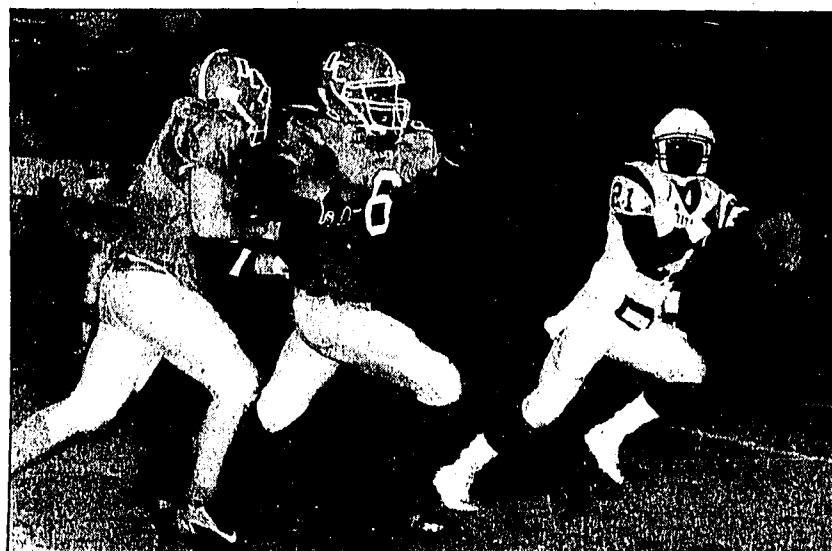

Davie has a chance to make everything seem right again. Maybe the stars will finally be aligned against Tabor.

FOOTBALL CONTEST

Congratulations to last week's winners in our Contest

First Place = $25 to Ashley Campbell

Second Place = $5 to Seth Correll

Some upsets shook up a few of our more veteran contestants this week and we have some new names at the top.

First Place this week goes to...
Ashley Campbell

who missed just 6 games and stands atop our mountain of winners for the week with a 2 game lead over the closest competitor.

The runner up this week was...
Seth Correll

Seth missed just 8 games to stake his claim on our runner up prize. Seth also gets recognition for his neat handwriting which made it easy to judge. Makes us wonder if Seth doesn't have a little drafting in his background with lettering like that. Thanks Seth.

The Titans floated across the Yadkin River last Friday to take a win from the War Eagles in Mocksville. The turnover bug bit the locals and it was difficult to come back against a talented team from West Forsyth. This week the War Eagles face another tough conference opponent as Mt. Tabor comes to Mocksville.

In the college ranks the big game down in the Cotton Bowl saw the Longhorns of Texas defeat the #1 Oklahoma Sooners in an exciting game. Arkansas won the battle with Auburn. In the ACC the Tarheels beat the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame in a wild game that went down to the wire. Clemson has fallen on hard times and Coach Tommy Bowden has resigned. ECU, darlings of the early season games, has lost focus and will be lucky to even make a bowl game after such a promising start.

This week has some big games at Wake Forest will take on Maryland. But which Maryland team will show up? Virginia Tech will face Boston College. Mississippi will battle Alabama. And Texas will duke it out with a strong Missouri team. Clemson will break in a new coach as they face Georgia Tech in their annual battle of 1-85. In the SoCon Appalachian will face Georgia Southern, Furman faces The Citadel, and Western Carolina battles Wofford.

In the pros the Panthers barely showed up last week against the Bucs but hope to get things back on track this week at home against the Saints. Dallas also has a few wounds to heal to get back on the winning track.

CORRECTION

Last week we made a mistake in grading the contest. We graded one game wrong. After re-grading all entries the actual winners were...

First Place = ANTHONY SELLERS
Second Place = JACOB ROBERTSON
We apologize but promise to do better in the future.

Barringer's Triple Lifts North Davie Over Tyro

After dropping a pair at E.L. Brown, the North Davie softball team responded by sweeping a pair from visiting Tyro.

North lost 8-2 and 11-4 at Brown. It only managed three hits in the first game, two doubles by Maggie Barneycastle and a single by Brooke Ball.

The Wildcats edged Tyro 2-1 before dominating the second game 8-3. In the first game, North took a 2-1 lead in the fourth. After Ball and Jenna Hummer reached with singles, Megan Barringer erased a 1-0 deficit with a two-run triple. Ball did the rest, finishing with 11 strikeouts and one walk in a three-hit performance.

"We should have beat them by more than that, but we'll take a win any way we can get it," coach Jamie Lyerly said.

In game two, Tyro scored three second-inning runs to take a 3-2 lead. While North's offense started capitalizing on a trillion walks, Ball, who regrouped after a rough second, was cruising through the third and fourth innings. She struck out the side in the third and added two more Ks in the fourth. Barringer had two hits, including a double, in the first game. Barneycastle and Kristy Turner also had hits. Barneycastle had a triple in the second game. North entered the week at 4-6.

North Football Feeling Good With 3-1 Record

North Davie's football team was feeling pretty good about itself as it entered the week, and rightly so. North has won three straight, including 8-6 and 16-0 road wins over Thomasville and Ledford, respectively. Nobody saw the surge coming after a season-opening 24-0 dud at North Davidson, but the Wildcats have been nearly flawless since that Sept. 10 game.

Last year they lost 26-8 to Thomasville and 32-23 to Ledford. North settled both scores.

"The kids are really excited about themselves right now," coach Ron Kirk said. "They're playing good ball. We don't have real big stars, but they're getting the job done. We have really turned it up a notch since North Davidson."

Before the season people in the county were talking mostly about South Davie, and the Tigers are certainly good with a one-loss record (and that one loss came without star Stephen Smoot). But the surprise of the league may well be the Wildcats.

They can't sneak up on anyone anymore after winning a classic defensive struggle at Thomasville.

It was 0-0 after three quarters. On third-and-15, Logan Hendricks threw a pass in which Matt Vernon made a highlight-reel grab at the Thomasville 9. Toby Lowe churned 8 yards to the 1, fumbled and the ball squirted into the end zone. As the North side held its collective breath, lineman Jordan Fouchaux recovered it for a touchdown. Then came what proved to be a critical extra point from Tyler Shoffner, who made it 8-0 with 2:30 remaining.

Thomasville returned the ensuing kickoff for a touchdown, but the extra-point kick was no good. With North ahead by two - needing one first down to milk the rest of the clock, Vernon cupped a one-for-the-books moment with a 17-yard burst on fourth-and-4.

"That shut the door on them," Kirk said.

Vernon (86 yards on 10 carries) and Lowe (81 yards on 14 carries) started for the offense. Hendricks completed four passes, two to Christian Latham. The bulk of the defensive credit goes to Cole Blankenship (six tackles), Lowe (four) and Brandon Horne (three).

Though North won in dramatic fashion, it controlled the game. Thomasville's offense never solved Blankenship and Co.

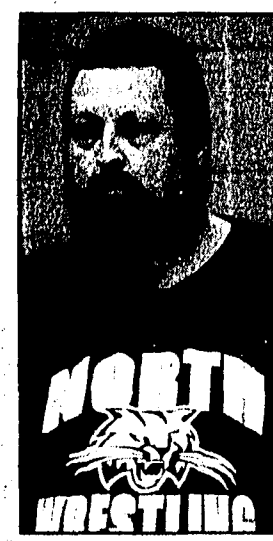

"We had a touchdown called back in the first quarter that was a 20-yard pass to Latham," Kirk said. "We were inside their 15-yard line three different times and couldn't score. The only way they were going to beat us was on a big play. We controlled the ball probably 75 percent of the game. We moved the ball between the 15s."

There was no letdown at Ledford. The Wildcats kept riding the wave they caught against Tyro and won 16-0. After scoring on their first two possessions, their defense took care of the rest.

As usual, Lowe (106 yards on 18 carries) handled the ball-carrying duties efficiently. Devin Johnson supplemented Lowe with 73 yards on nine tries. Lowe (six tackles), Fouchaux (four), Blankenship (four) and Cameron Haggins (four) paced the defense.

"We controlled the game," he said. "We played a near-perfect game offensively."

North, Ellis Tie For First In Tennis

North Davie's tennis team closed strong and tied Ellis for the Mid-South Conference championship. North finished 5-2 overall and 5-1 in the conference.

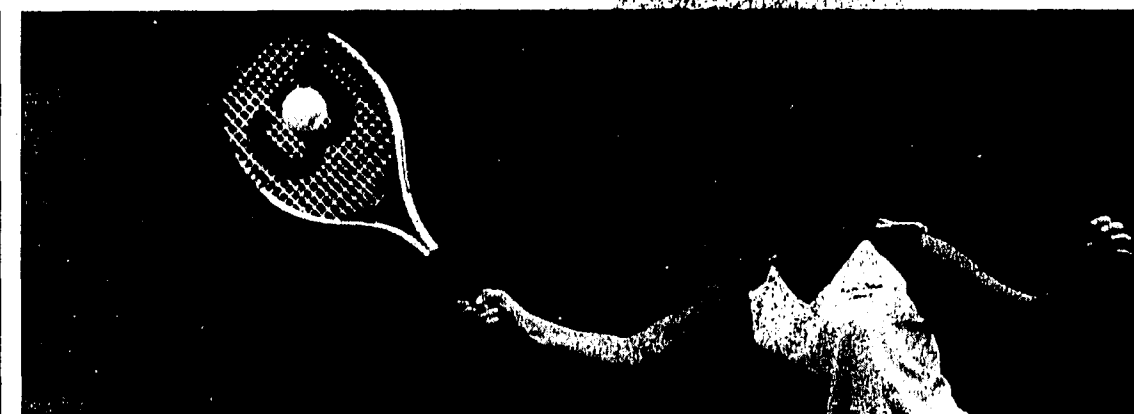

The Wildcats rolled 8-1 over Lexington. The winners in singles were Jennifer Webster, Sydney McCune, Malgie Leszczuk, Laura Kinder, Jennifer Rothberg and Kasia Leszczuk. All six won by at least six games.

Malgie Leszczuk-Rothberg and Kasia Leszczuk-Kennedy Mathis posted victories in doubles.

The Wildcats secured a tie with Ellis by defeating South Davie. Webster, Malgie Leszczuk, Kinder and Rothberg were winners in singles, while Webster-Rothberg and Hannah Ball-Kinder were winners in doubles.

No. 1 Webster and No. 4 Kinder both went 6-0 in the MSC. Rothberg and Kasia Leszczuk went 5-1 at Nos. 5-6, respectively.

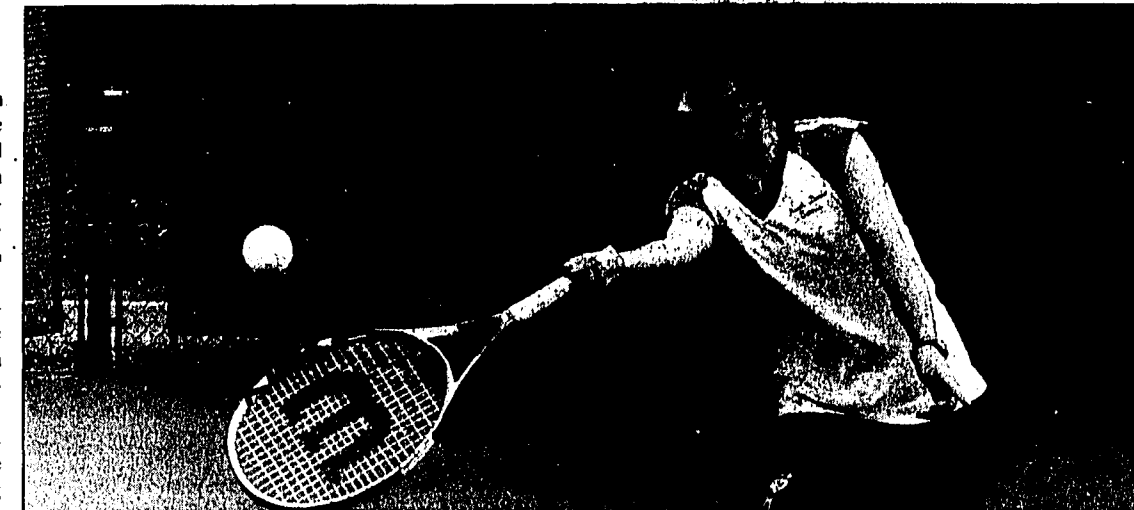

Jessica White's desire to get better impressed coach Charlie Crenshaw. "She's been coming on strong," he said. "I can tell she's improved."

Hannah Ball won a doubles match against South Davie.

Jennifer Webster went 6-0 in the Mid-South Conference at No. 1 seed.

Coach Charlie Crenshaw said of Jessica White: "She's been coming on strong."

Sydney McCune played No. 2 for the Wildcats.

Ellis Volleyball Closing In On Perfect Season

The Ellis volleyball team continued its mastery last week, steamrolling South Davie, Downtown, Summit and Lexington. The latest run sent the 13-0 Jaguars on the doorstep of a perfect season. Twelve of their wins have come in two games.

Savannah Yost, Kristina Parrish and Kelsey Orr were the serve leaders against South Davie. Yost, Parrish and Sydney Wooten did the most serving damage in the Downtown match. Orr, Yost and Parrish led the way against Summit, and Amanda Smith and Orr were the main serve weapons against Lexington.

After the Summit match, coach Beth Hall-Love said: "We played better today than we had been playing in a while. I still think we need to improve on moving our feet and talking to each other. I am trying to get them to believe in each other and to work better together."

Tiger Football Eager For Lexington Battle

After handing out brutal beatings in the last two games, including last week's 48-0 whipping at South Davidson, South Davie's football team is eager for a battle. It'll get just that Thursday at Lexington at 5 p.m.

Lexington handed South its only loss in 2007, 16-12.

"We have a big game coming up," coach Perry Long said after South improved to 4-1. "They say they've got another big running back that's better than the one they had last year."

Ruckwon Gray did whatever he wanted at South Davidson. He scored from 40 yards out on South's first play. A penalty brought it back, but Gray dashed 45 yards on the next play. Another penalty brought it back. No sweat. Gray dashed 50 yards, and that one stood.

Cody Martin returned an interception 45 yards to the house.

"It wasn't a fun game to coach," Long said.

But Colton Orrell had fun in the dying seconds. He rumbled 25 yards to the end zone. His touchdown was negated by a flag, but like Gray, he did the same thing from the 30, juking and then shifting gears.

"Two kids had him, and he made a little juke move," Long said.

The coach recognized the defense of Winston Scott and the blocking of Nick Manzini and Lazaro Sanchez.

"Scott played outside linebacker and played a heckuva game. He played tough," he said. "Manzini and Sanchez played tough. Sanchez really looked good on the OL."

South has belted the last two opponents by a combined 104-6.

Ellis Splits Tight Games

The Ellis softball team took an important step in a 2-1 win at Ledford. It prevailed after being 0-4 in one-run games.

The Jaguars, however, couldn't turn the trick twice, losing the second game 1-0.

In the first game, Maryssa Pickett opened the scoring in the first inning. She walked, moved up on a Caroline Miller bunt, stole third and came home on a wild pitch. Ellis' lead went to 2-0 in the second. It held on as Miller fired a one-hitter, her fourth such performance of the year.

"They're a pretty tough team. Their pitcher is pretty good," coach Shannon Wood said.

In the second game, an error came around as Ledford scored the game's only run in the second. Miller's three-hitter wasn't quite enough. Pickett had both Ellis hits.

"She really hit good," Wood said. "She's one of those that makes contact. She doesn't strike out very often. She had two solid hits. Salem Carney hit good that game."

Wood gave praise to Britani Peterson, who has been a constant at shortstop.

"If it's hit to her, I have no doubts she's going to get an out," she said. "She has turned a 360 at short. When I think it's going to get by her, she somehow gets to it and gets an out. The North Davidson game is when I started noticing it."

Of course, Miller has consistently kept Ellis (4-8) in contention.

"If it wasn't for her, we wouldn't be nearly as good as we are," she said. "She's pitched every inning of every game. She's hard on herself. She's her worst critic, so we have to calm her down sometimes. But she's done better about that the last couple of games."

Tatum Runs Wild In Ellis Debut

The results for the Ellis football team were mixed last week. First it took a leap forward with a 32-0 shellacking of South Davidson at home. Then, with Thomasville in town, it experienced a second-half meltdown and lost 24-6.

The Jaguars bounced back from a 16-0 loss to Ledford by roughing up South Davidson. It marked a memorable debut for Kenyan Tatum, who started the season playing for North Davie, and then transferred to Ellis. Tatum slid into the fold at tailback and promptly rushed for 150 yards and two touchdowns - on eight carries. His first carry went nowhere. His next two: 43- and 42-yard TDs.

"If he gets to the edge, he can make something happen," coach Mike Morgan said. "Up until this point we didn't have that. He adds a dimension. He's only a seventh grader. He's a good kid, and the players were happy to have him, too."

The highlights included Jon Tise's 57 yards on three carries, Curtis Banner's interception and 22-yard scoring catch, and Woody Parrish's 4-for-4 kicking. That stretched Parrish's streak of successful extra points to six. Jeremy Walker threw the scoring pass.

It could have been worse. Ellis had two TDs called back.

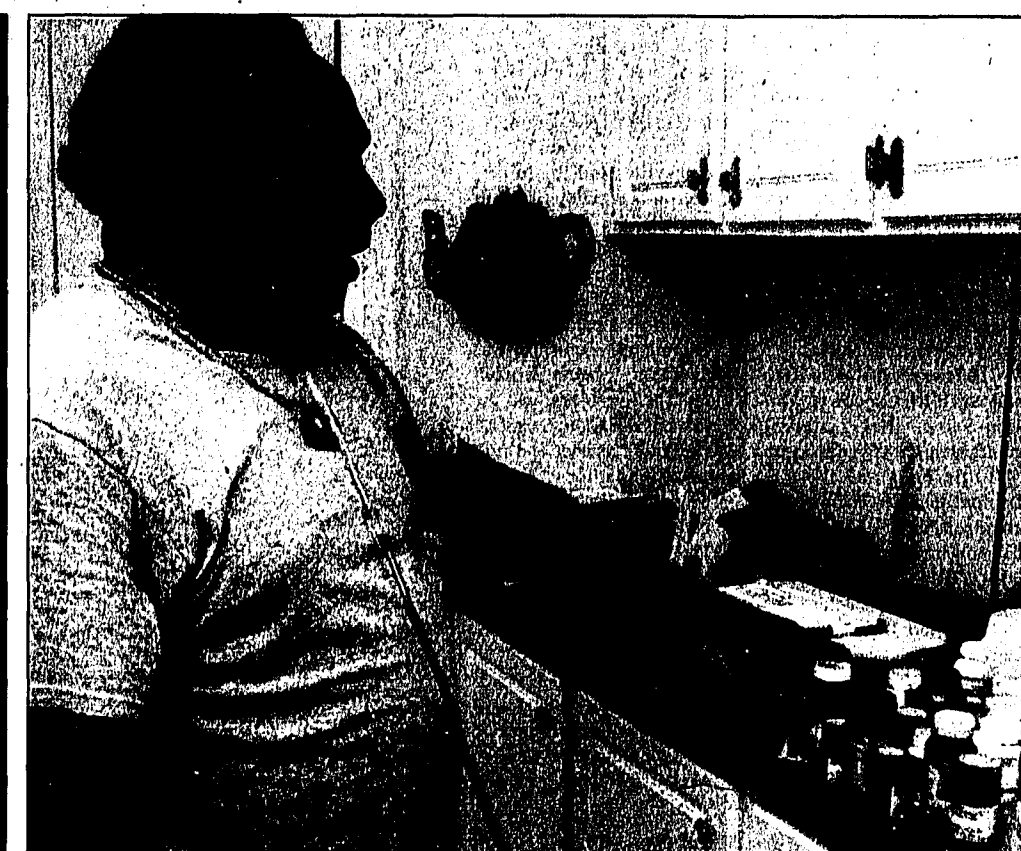

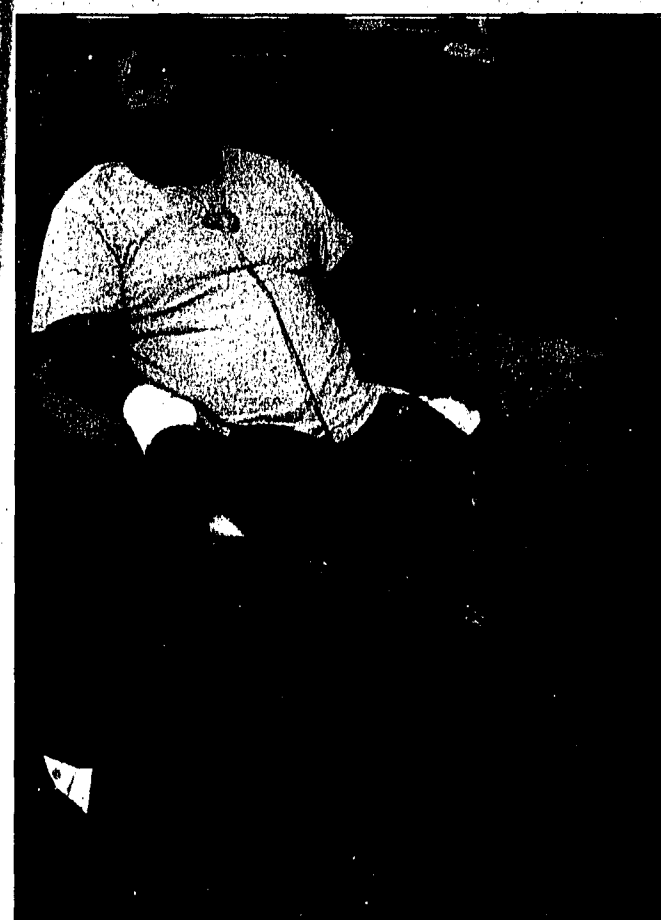

But after giving Morgan reason to be proud, the Jaguars came back to earth in the second half against Thomasville. The halftime score was 12-6 Thomasville, but the Bulldogs controlled the second half 12-0.

"Honestly, they were just better than us," he said. "That's the bottom line. They had three good backs. We had a hard time tackling."

Tatum hurt an ankle in the early going and never went back into the game. With Ellis at 2-3, Morgan preached the need for patience.

"(Tatum's injury) limited what we could do on offense," he said. "We're a lot better than we were last year (one win), but we're still a little outmanned. It just takes time. You've got to be patient. All you can do is play as hard as you can play."

Local Man Trying To Raise Money For Lung Transplant

By Mike Barnhardt
Enterprise Record

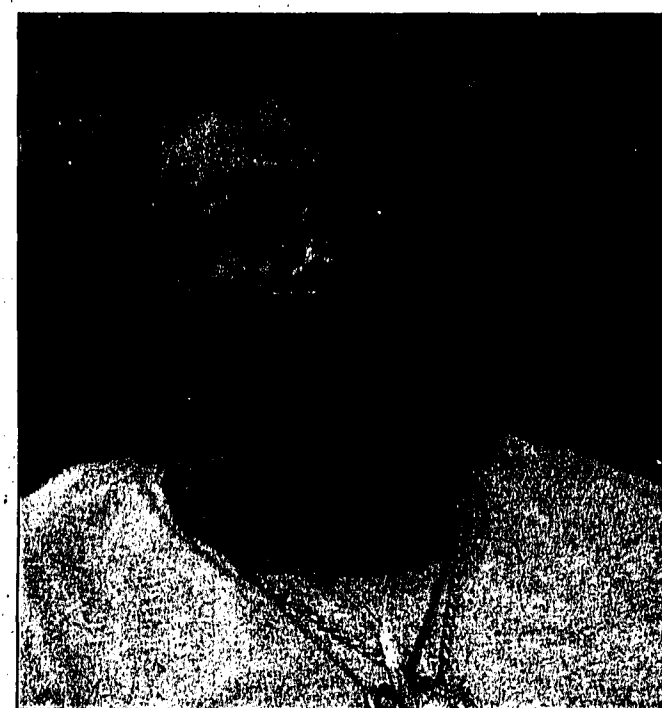

Warren Jones was fast. Real fast. Back in the 1970s, he ran on the Davie High 440 relay team with Billy Etchison, Chris Holman and Cornell Jones that never lost a race. He was one of the first freshmen to play varsity football.

He earned his nickname, "Zip." Nowadays, Jones gets tired just changing his clothes, or taking a shower. Real tired.

"I've always been very athletic and had never been sick," Jones said from his home near Mocksville. He has pulmonary fibrosis, and his only option to live is a double lung transplant.

Probably from welding lead and asbestos he's come in contact with over the years, doctors at Duke hospital say the transplant is his only chance. Jones has a 98 percent loss of function in his right lung, and 11 percent loss in the left. It will only get worse. He constantly needs oxygen added to his blood.

"It slowly but surely smothers you to death - it takes the oxygen content out of you," he said. He had pneumonia seven times last year, and spent much of the time in a hospital.

Warren Jones: "It slowly but surely smothers you to death."

Because he's not yet 50 years old, Medicaid will not pay any of the estimated $669,000 for the surgery. Surgeons have offered to perform the operation for free, but the hospital wants $55,000 as his share, Jones said. He left his $30,000 life savings there.

Those costs don't count what happens after the surgery. Jones, and a caretaker, would have to move to within minutes of the Durham hospital for at least four months. Monthly medicine bills would be more than $4,000.

"It's overwhelming," Jones said. "This is astronomical. I can't dig any deeper any more ... but with the grace of the Lord, I've never missed a meal. I'm praying that by reaching out to the community, I might be able to reach that $25,000."

Vijay Barad, owner of Quality Inn where his wife Shirley works, set up a fund for Jones at BB&T, 1386 Yadinville Road in Mocksville.

Jones said he's learning to be more patient, and has enjoyed meeting high school friends from the track and football field.

The late Clyde Studevent Jr. gave Jones his nickname, and started a sports career that saw him competing against guys several years older.

In the sixth grade, Studevent made him run with the eighth graders.

As a freshman playing football at Davie High, he remembers Julius Suiter marching him to the varsity practice field. "Mr. Suiter said he needs to play with these boys ... they can't catch him down here."

Jones enjoys remembering those days, but his reality now is more subdued. He can't go anywhere without oxygen being pumped into his body. He can't do anything physical without becoming tired.

"I wondered what in the world was going on. It was a feat to bathe. It took me 45 minutes to clothe myself," Jones said.

The past year has been especially tough. Jones said he almost lost his life three times. And there is no cure and no treatment for the disease.

But Jones has faith.

He has faith in his friends, in Davie County. "I've run into some of the guys I played football with the last six months, and they want to help me. I don't believe I ever ran into anybody at school I couldn't get along with. It's always been that way with me."

And he has faith in a higher power.

His grandfathers - Will Dillard and N.B. Jones - helped build St. John's AME Zion Church in Mocksville in 1929. His dad, Calvin Jones, recently died from the same disease that his son is fighting.

"I don't have any choice but to reach for a higher power," Jones said. "Someway, somehow I'm going to get through this. I am a reborn again Christian. I'll be a reborn again, reborn again Christian."

Furniture Is In His Blood

Semi-Retired Man Keeps Selling Recliners And More

Buddy Beck knows a thing or two about transporting furniture. He worked for some 35 years for Hendrix Furniture and as a driver for longer before retiring.

Sort of. Beck occasionally sells a piece or two from his Sheffield home and at other places here and in Wilkes County. That's when he's not playing golf or mowing the grass at his home on County Line Road, or taking his daily walk along County Line and Sheffield roads.

"It's good furniture for people who can't afford the high-end fabric," he said. "But it's pretty competitive around here, furniture is so readily available."

His Best Way business offers recliners, loveseats, beds, tables and other pieces. He can be reached at 909-1779.

Herb Reed's Platters At The Brock Saturday Night

On Saturday, Oct. 18, Herb Reed's Platters will be bringing their famous music to the Brock Performing Arts Center.

In 1953, bass singer Herb Reed put together a group of four singers called the Platters, an idea he got from a disc jockey referring to records as platters. The original group was made up of Reed, Joe Jefferson, Cornell Gunther and Alex Hodge.

The original group got its start on a television show called Ebony Showcase with Cornell Gunther singing lead on a swing version of Old MacDonald Had a Farm. Months later, David Lynch replaced Jefferson and Tony Williams saw them perform with Reed singing lead and signed the group to its first recording contract. Late in 1953, the group signed a management contract with songwriter Buck Ram.

By the time the groundbreaking blockbuster "Only You (and You Alone)" hit Herb Reed and the Platters will bring their 50s music to Mocksville Saturday.

the charts in 1955, Reed, Williams, Lynch, Paul Robi and Zola Taylor comprised The Platters. The song is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year. The Platters have recorded more than 400 recordings, sold over 200 million records, performed in 91 countries, and have received more than 230 awards from all over the world. They were inducted into the Rock and following soon after in 2002. The Platters also appeared in 27 movies including the well-known Rock Around the Clock and The Girl Can't Help It. The Platters were the only act to have three songs included on the movie, American Graffiti soundtrack: "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," "The Great Pretender" and "Only You."

Roll Hall of Fame in 1990 and the Vocal Hall of Fame in 1998. "Only You (and You Alone)" received a Grammy Hall of Fame Award in 1999, with the 1956 tune The Great Pretender

The Platters' unique vocal style had touched a nerve in the music-buying public, and a string of hit singles followed, including three Hot 100 number one hits. The Platters soon hit upon the successful formula of updating older standards, such as "My Prayer," "Twilight Time," "Harbor Lights," "To Each His Own," "If I Didn't Care" and Jerome Kern's "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes."

This latter release caused a small controversy after Kern's widow expressed concern that her late husband's composition would be turned into a rock and roll record. It topped both the American and British charts in a Platters-style arrangement. The Platters were the first rock and roll group to have a Top Ten album in America.

Audiences still enjoy their later hit songs which include: "I Love You 1000 Times," "With This Ring," and the Motown-influenced "Washed Ashore."

Although other members of the original group have left over the years, Reed has managed, performed and toured as The Platters or Herb Reed and The Platters since he founded the group and coined its name. His current group, now under the name Herb Reed's Platters, is the only one that includes a member of the original group and is made up of Reed, Wayne Miller, Sharia Solomon, William Newton and Billy Cox.

ECA Plans Fall Meeting

Davie County Extension & Community Association will host a fall area meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 22 at 1:30 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the Davie County Public Library.

Tina Stearns, community liaison for Hospice & Palliative Care Center, will be the guest speaker. Many people think of hospice care as "11th hour" or "brink of death care," but it is actually end of life care.

The Hospice & Palliative Care Center can offer patients and families support several months in advance of estimated end of life with the goal of keeping the patient as comfortable as possible, as pain and symptom free as possible, and at home for as long as possible. Hospice care is about helping the patient make the most out of that last chapter of their life. Hospice & Palliative Care Center offers a full scope of services to patients and families, many of which are free of charge thanks to donations.

The program is free and open to the public. For more information contact the Extension Center at 753-6100.

Woman Collecting Cans So Elderly Can Stay Warm

Marsha Tise knows what it's like to be cold. She remembers the days after her husband died where there was ice on the inside of the windows to her home.

She was able to get into better housing thanks to local Christians.

Now, she wants to help others - specifically the elderly who are poor and rely on oil heating in the winter. Tise is afraid many will remain cold, and face the choice of food or fuel, medicine or fuel.

Tise is starting an aluminum can drive, and is rounding volunteers to help collect the cans and establish sites to sell. Money will go to pay fuel bills for the elderly, she said.

"Many of these people purposefully turn off their heat for up to 12 hours a day to save money," she said. "When we really needed them, they were there for us. Now, in falling health, and on a limited income, most have as low as $647 a month to cover medicines, utilities, insurance, food and now out-of-site heating fuel prices. Which ones are they going to leave out?"

BURNETTE READY TO BRING NEW JOBS TO OUR AREA...HIS VISION

William "Bill" Burnette proposes creating an industrial trade zone, shared by Davie and Rowan counties, to create more local jobs and increase U.S. production of goods.

Our struggling economy means we must think creatively about how to get more jobs in our area...a foreign trade zone and an industrial park will help attract new businesses and benefit existing ones.

Burnette discussed his plan with Senate President Pro Tempore Marc Basnight, who traveled to Davie County on October 9 to meet with Burnette. Basnight applauds Burnette's idea and offers to help in any way possible.

Rachel Louise Snow

Mrs. Rachel Louise Poplin Snow, 80, of Winston-Salem, died on Oct. 12, 2008.

She was born in Concord to Lester Keith Poplin and Wilma Louise Helms Poplin on Aug. 28, 1928. Her family later moved to Hanes Town, where as a teenager she met Fred Snow. Their courtship began when he saw her sitting on the porch shining her Daddy's shoes and he asked if she would shine his, too. They were married on March 2, 1946. Their marriage resulted in three children, nine grandbabies, 18 great-grandbabies, and countless happy memories.

Mrs. Snow believed in the importance of church and family. A member of Clemmons Moravian Church for more than 50 years, she attended church regularly as long as her health permitted and participated in Circle Group. Throughout her life, she cared for others. In her younger years, she loved spending time with her mother, sisters and daughter; camping with her husband in the mountains; and feeding and watching the birds. Rachel enjoyed crocheting, cooking and baking. Her family especially liked Ma Ma's pound cake, pecan pie, chocolate pie, and Moravian sugar cake. She cherished time with family and friends. Get-togethers often involved her laughing until crying at the telling of old stories and her fear of spiders.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Lester and Wilma; her husband, Fred Lee Snow; her sisters, Penny Campbell and Lenora Day and her brothers, Keith Poplin and Ray Von Poplin.

Surviving: sister and brothers, Maxine Snow and Don Poplin, both of Winston-Salem and Bob Poplin of Corpus Christi, Texas; daughter, Gwen Brandon and husband Wayne of Clemmons; 2 sons, Fred Snow Jr. and wife Ann of Forest, Va. and Jack Snow and wife Bonnie of Mocksville; 9 grandchildren, Jeff Snow and wife Wendy, Mark Snow and wife Jamie, Kristy Mistretta and husband Steve, Angie Stanley and husband David, Brian Brandon and wife Kristina, LeighAnn Brandon, Mandy Walker and husband David, Carl and Kathy Snow; 18 great-grandchildren, Jacob, Brittany, Matthew, Timmy, Hunter, Kayla, Katie, Karsen, Anna Leigh, Mason, Gavin, Melody, Bailey, Emma, Lawson, Luke, Chloe, and London.

Funeral services were conducted 2 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 15 at Clemmons Moravian Church with the Rev. Q. Ray Burke officiating. Burial followed in the church graveyard.

A gathering of family and friends was held Tuesday at Hayworth-Miller Kinderton Chapel in Advance.

Students

Davie High Celebrating Homecoming

Davie High School celebrated Homecoming 2008 starting Oct. 13 with events for the week before the football game against Mt. Tabor High School, Friday, Oct. 17 at 7:30 p.m.

On Sept. 11, the senior class nominated 16 young women through a preliminary ballot. This ballot was presented to the student body at-large on Oct. 16 to select the queen. Results are kept secret until the crowning.

The students started Spirit Week with a series of dress-up days. Monday was Pajama Day. Students could also just roll out of bed in their PJs and plop down in class. (Within the dress code.) Tuesday was Twin Day or Team Spirit Day where students could choose to match or just wear their favorite professional or college sports gear. Wednesday was Tacky Day with the bottoms of closets turning up in the halls with mixtures of clothing and accessories that boggled minds. Thursday was Decade Day when costumes ranged from the Flappers to hippies. Students also had the chance on Thursday to dress as cartoon characters, TV or movie characters, or celebrities.

Friday, as tradition dictates, was School Color Day with seas of students plastered with orange and black.

Special activities were planned for all lunches. Students in the Leadership Class planned spectacular games to pit one class against another in spirit competition. These challenges took place at the end of each lunch period. Games are Monday - Cheeto Head 4000, Tuesday - Davie Dirty Hands, Wednesday - Who's Closet Is It Anyway?, Thursday - Busting Balloons, and Friday Dance-Off.

Club Spirit banners decorated the cafeteria with judging on Monday afternoon by the PTSA Officers. Ribbons were awarded for the top three places. These banners were moved to bonfire location and then to the stadium for the community to enjoy on Friday night. On Friday morning, students were greeted by elaborately decorated areas, compliments of each class, which vied for spirit points.

Keeping with the enthusiasm of the school, the Leadership class, advised by Donna Dunn, worked hard to keep up the energy from Monday through Friday. Like last year, there will be a clearly marked section of the stadium bleachers for Very Spirited Students. Students are encouraged to scream, cheer, and stomp for Davie during the football game. The signs read, "If you are here, then you must cheer." Students interested in participating should make sure they sit in that section.

Spirit competitions continued all week between the freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors. Spirit points were awarded for participation in hall decorating, banners, lunch activities, dress-up days, and class banners. Each day during period three, leadership students canvassed the campus, counting the number from each class who participated in dress-up days. A spirit point was awarded to the class for each participant.

Hall decorating took place from 5-8 p.m. Thursday in C Building. Students were encouraged to join in the fun.

The Pep Rally took on a new twist this year. A bonfire was scheduled for 8 p.m. on Wednesday evening in the gym parking lot. The DHS Homecoming Pep Band as well as the Flag Squad, the Dancing Boots, the JV and Varsity Cheerleading Squads, the Homecoming Queen nominees and many others showed their spirit. The evening ended with fireworks.

Fans planning to attend the game are reminded to arrive early to get a seat and to see the arrival of the Homecoming Court. Reigning queen Lena Fernandez will lead the parade of candidates.

Please See Homecoming - Page D3

Homecoming Queen finalists for 2008 are Cassie Barnes, Allison Campbell, Lindsay Cartner, Liz Colner, Marcie Garrett, Israel Goheen, Rebecca Hendrix, and Brittany Hicks.

Stacy Jolly, Jordan Lane, Avery Lutz, Rachel Mackintosh, Sarah Martin, Kelsey Shipman, Anna Smith, and Tatum Snow are finalists for Homecoming Queen 2008.

JROTC Cadets Take Second At North Iredell

On Sept. 27 Davie High's JROTC program took its Competition Raider Team to compete at North Iredell High School.

The Raiders participated in array of events including a 5k run, a 50 yard-dash, pull-ups, a mystery event, a rope bridge, a land navigation course, and an Army Physical Fitness Test (APFT), which included sit-ups, push-ups, and a 2 mile run. "The Raider Team pushed themselves vigorously," said Col. Terry Hales.

Tony Donati scored an overall 293 out of 300 on his APFT, which was the highest score achieved out of all the Raiders.

"The team continued to push themselves throughout the day achieving high scores in all events," he said.

In the end, the Raiders took second place overall. This is the first time the Raider Team has placed overall in a competition.

1,500 Vote Early

Margaret Shew and her workers at the Davie County Elections office have been busy.

More than 1,500 county residents have taken advantage of early voting, which started at the office last Thursday.

Shew, the elections director, expects those numbers to grow as area residents vote for a president, governor, state offices and three county commissioners from Republicans Ken White, Richard Poindexter, Mark Jones and Democrat Jeff Adamonis.

There are actually three separate ballots, and voting a straight party ticket only counts on one of those ballots. Those who mark the straight party box only do not vote for president or the state judicial offices, which must be marked separately.

School Buses May Make Fewer Stops

By Beth Cassidy
Enterprise Record

Parents in some local neighborhoods may see changes in the way their children are transported to school after the Christmas break.

School bus routes are being studied. Soon, the board of education will decide how, or if, routes might change.

Todd Naylor, transportation director, presented possible scenarios involving routes at a meeting with principals and others last week. The scenarios shown represent only about nine percent of the daily 166 runs made by buses, but changes could be made in neighborhoods such as Charleston Ridge, Twin Cedars, Oak Valley, Lake Louise, Craftwood, Creekwood, Elijah Creek, Deacon's Ridge, and others.

"The intent is to reduce the number of stops in developments and residential areas to more centralized locations," Naylor said. "By doing this, we can save time and mileage, which equates to less operating expense."

As of the end of September,

Naylor said, the schools had spent $11,453 more for fuel than at the same time last year. The system exceeded its state allocation for fuel last year by almost $89,000, something Naylor and Superintendent Dr. Robert Landry want to avoid.

"A lot of systems around us have already made changes in bus routes, and we have postponed this as long as we can. It is difficult to draw from our fund balance, because that is basically our savings account, and we don't want to eat up that savings account. We are trying to be good stewards of the people's money, but we have to make some tough decisions, because we can't stop door to door.

Walk 600 Miles In His Shoes Judicial Candidate Chronicles Trek Across North Carolina

By Dwight Sparks
Enterprise Record

Dan Barrett walked across North Carolina in 2004 during his bid to be governor. He saw the potholes and met voters along the way, even if he didn't win the race.

Now he has turned his experiences into a book, "A Million Steps: My Walk Across North Carolina."

Part of his trip took him through Davie County, entering on US 64 from Iredell County, he walked to Mocksville to US 158, heading across the Katherine Crosby Bridge and to Clemmons and eastward to the Atlantic Ocean. At Bermuda Run, his feet wanted to turn right to the warmth and comfort of his home in Oak Valley a mile away. He kept walking that day,

He's running now for a judgeship on the North Carolina Court of Appeals. Running, not walking.

His wife, Kathleen, didn't laugh at all when he joked about walking for this race. "She said I could run, but I couldn't walk," he said.

Instead, he has found himself zipping this way and that by car across the state. He expects to log 10,000 miles by Election Day. Lately, he has driven back and forth from east to west and north to south to attend political gatherings and stop at courthouses across the state.

For governor, he walked 600 miles, from Murphy in the mountains to the coast at Swansboro.

His walk took from May 5 to July 14, 2004. He averaged 15 miles a day, went through five pairs of shoes and shed 20 pounds.

"Which I've since put back on," he said. Late in the walk, he had to stop for the death of his ailing father, Donald Wallace Barrett of Laurinburg, to whom he dedicates the book. It was also his father, a long time city councilman, who inspired him to seek public office.

Barrett, as a newcomer to Davie County, defied political wisdom by being elected a commissioner in a county that had always expected its politicians to be "from there." The county's difficulties dealing with Raleigh mandates prompted him to run for governor.

Without the money needed for advertising or the benefit of an established name, he conceived the idea to walk across the state, meeting people and reporters as he went to spread his message. He immediately was struck by the beauty of the Nantahalas and the Hiwassee River Gorge, and the narrowness of the roads there. He found himself pinned against cliffsides as logging trucks rumbled by.

"There is literally no place to walk without walking in the road. You're a sitting duck hoping they see you. One side of the road is against the rock face and the other side is the ravine below."

He has been back during this campaign and drove this time those same roads.

"It was so vivid in terms of the memories. I could remember

Stressful Trip: Picking Out Halloween Suit

It's always the most confusing, stressful shopping trip of the year — our annual outing to buy a Halloween costume. I went last week with my Michael, 9, on that all-important and very confusing walk down the aisle of spooky costumes. He had been itching to go for weeks.

He has been a pirate. A cowboy. A ghost. Dracula. A zombie. Even Darth Vader, my favorite.

There were only so many choices at the store. We saw skeleton costumes, a monk suit, an orange prison suit, a NASCAR driver, Elvis and a variety of creepy costumes.

And there was Hillary Clinton — one mask left. The store didn't have John McCain or Barack Obama or President Bush. Only Sen. Clinton, and I'm not sure what to make of that — perhaps some leftover horror about her being elected President. Michael's not politically inclined yet, and that's probably for the best. Given the American public's weariness with the political campaign, trick-or-treaters who appear at the door in a political mask might not get any candy.

My son dismissed one costume after the other, failing to find the one that suited his taste. Meanwhile, supper was waiting for us at home. I gently nudged him toward one costume after the other, but he was slow to make up his mind. We went up and down the aisles several times before settling on a ghoulish suit, very similar to last year's model.

At least he didn't want to be a New York Yankee. Even though they missed the playoffs this season, the way-too-lucky Yankees still strike fear in the hearts of baseball fans across the country.

Also, he didn't want to dress as NASCAR driver Jeff Gordon. I couldn't pay money for that. Nor did he want the wild wigs, the ghoulish masks or the bizarre makeup, but he did find a costume suitable for this annual beg for candy.

Christmas shopping will be a breeze after this:

Reading Obituaries

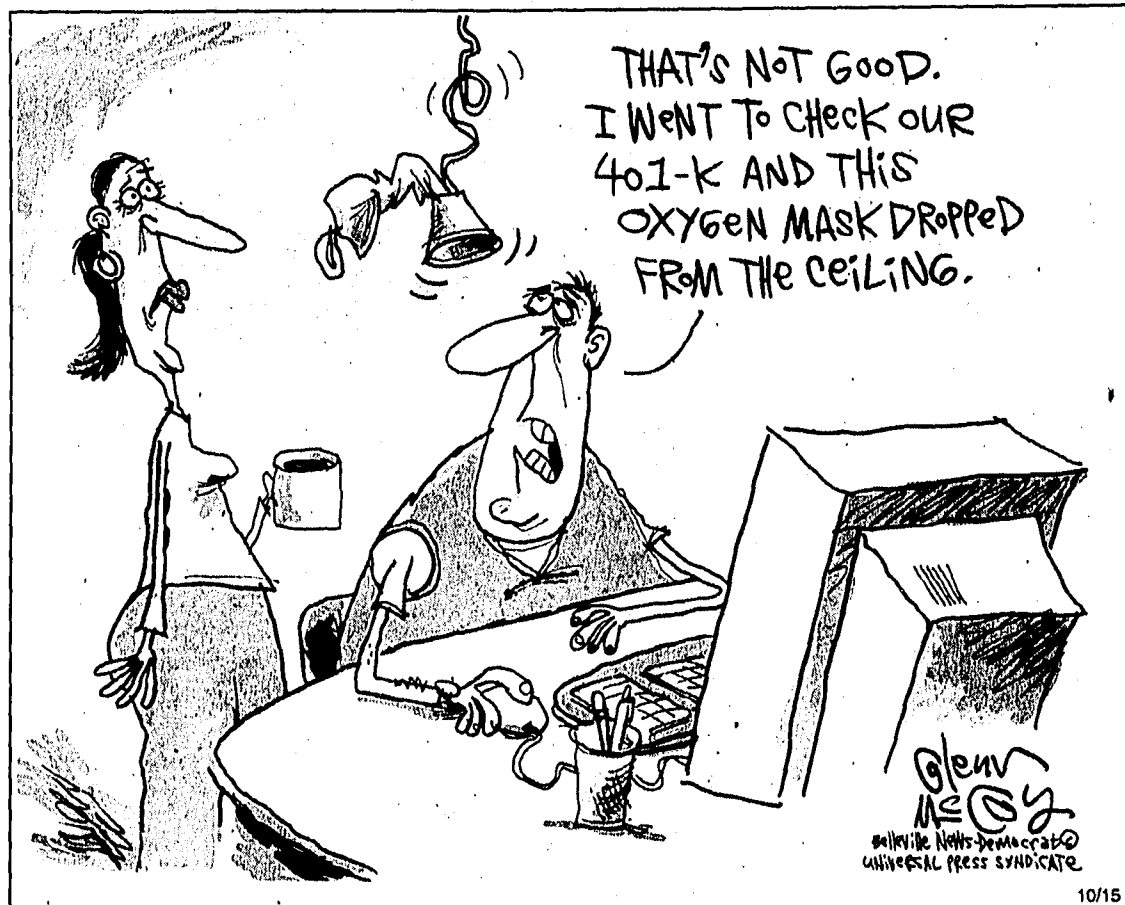

Scanning the obituaries last week, two items jumped out at me. In the tribute to Geraldine Camilla Setzer O'Neal of Greensboro, the obituary said, "Jerry was a dedicated solver of crosswords, especially the New York Times and always in pen."

I have started working the Times Sunday crossword in recent months. Never in pen. My eraser gets as much use as the pencil, and I'm not against using Google to find some answers. I used to buy the Charlotte Observer for its crossword, but the newspaper's only rack now in Davie County is in Cooleemee. It's hard to justify driving that far for a crossword, but gasoline prices are coming down ...

The other obituary concerned Joe Marshall, a longtime Madison banker I knew when I ran the newspaper there a generation ago. His obituary recalled: "He attended Oak Ridge Military Academy and then the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. When he decided that he wanted a real education, he transferred to Wake Forest College ..."

A Deacon to the end.

Tommy Fleming A Lesson In Civics

To the editor:

I don't know Tommy Fleming socially. We have never visited each other's homes or shared a meal. We have had only a couple of conversations.

The first one was in 1992. I had just moved our office to Mocksville and Tommy was a town commissioner. I heard he was quiet and smart. He dropped by to welcome us, sat down at my conference table, smiled slightly, leaned forward and began to speak. For about 15 minutes I struggled to grasp and remember each word that poured out in his trademark flood of mumbles. I was spellbound. He spoke precisely and clearly about real strategies for government cooperation, cost savings, increased efficiencies, long range planning and short term solutions. He spoke of customer service and moving at the right pace. I was dazzled. I saw the vision. It was an elegant weaving of opportunities to save money and prepare for the future. He had a grasp of government finance that I had not ever seen before.

Then I screwed it up. He took a breath and I leaned back, looked up at the ceiling, thought for a moment and said "Tommy I get it, but what's in it for you?" Wish I hadn't said that. At the time I did not understand the passion for good governance that rages in him. I was cynical. I had been involved in service to government (Greensboro, Winston, Fayetteville, and Jacksonville) for many years. Here, in Tommy, I was seeing for the first time the clear and simple wish to just get it right. No politics. No special interest, just good government, just civics.

Tommy was startled. He looked as if I had slapped him and said "What do I get? Why nothing at all, its just good government. I get to be part of good, clean efficient government that prepares us for the future and takes care of folks now."

Or something like that. He was really mad at me. He got up and left. Never came back to my office. I have a way with words. Sixteen years later that mustard seed of a conversation has grown into a strong and healthy tree; there really are new efficiencies and synergies between the governments. There really has been extraordinary growth and savings as long range plans have been developed and short term goals have been achieved.

Tommy gave me a civics lesson that I will always remember. I know we are blessed with many fine local government leaders. Tommy taught me how to recognize and appreciate them.

Thanks Tommy. Sorry if I hurt your feelings.

Domestic Violence Shows No Prejudice

To the editor:

Domestic Violence is a widespread and serious problem showing no prejudice to race, religion, economic status or level of education. In 2007, there were 86 reported murders related to domestic violence in North Carolina. Three of those were in Davie County. Comparatively, there have been 81 deaths in the state so far this year with one being from right here in Davie County.

The deaths are the cases of domestic violence that most people hear about or pay attention to. There are many more incidents of emotional, physical, financial and sexual abuse that occurs in the homes of our neighbors than will be reported. Though it doesn't get reported we may see it in the ill-behaved child at school or in the store. We may wonder about the woman who covers her bruises with long sleeves in the summer; or the one who we took down on for not keeping a job for more than a couple weeks at a time. Many women and teens turn to drugs and alcohol to numb the hurt they are feeling.

Domestic violence is usually not a single occurrence. On the contrary, most victims endure the emotional battering for long periods before any physical assault is made. Children in the home are victims, as well. Children who are raised in a home where domestic violence occurs are more likely to be either batterers or victims themselves as adults.

We can make a difference in the lives of those we teach, work beside, worship with and meet in Walmart. Take a moment, and let others know that you care; ask them how their day is going; give them a warm smile. When you see those children that make you want to shriek, take a moment and think what their family life might be like before you judge. Be available for a neighbor or friend to pour their heart out to you. Davie County is the most wonderful place in the world and it is because of the people who live here - because we care about one another.

Davie Domestic Violence Services is sponsoring a campaign called "Stamp Out Domestic Violence". The agency is collecting gently used and new shoes for children and adults and will be hosting a shoe sale in the near future to raise funds to assist victims/survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault. If you would like to donate shoes, you can bring them to our office at 123 S. Main St., Mocksville, third floor. Another drop off location is the Wicked Salon on Main Street.

McCain Gives New Meaning To 'More Of The Same'

To the editor:

McCain the Maverick, the new Lone Ranger. Yet, he's been criticized by the Senate Ethics Committee for exercising poor judgment in the Keating Savings and Loan scandal. Palin was found to have abused her office by letting her husband exercise governmental powers in a family squabble ... in her first month. She may still face charges.

McCain's website states he supports bailing out mortgage lenders. For example, tax dollars would buy a $200,000 mortgage on a house worth $125,000. The lender keeps the extra $75,000, all interest paid over the years and rewrites the loan for $125,000 - plus more origination fees, points, etc. Another blank check for the greedy financiers. Obscene.

McCain will tax part of your health insurance. The $2500-5000 tax credit should reduce the cost of your insurance but McCain will pay that money to the insurance company. You never see a dime. The insurance company should pass the saving to your employers, and your employer to you. Will they? Folks, if McCain intended for you to see the money, he would send you the check.

He'll also let companies write insurance anywhere. Will they go to states with tight regulations that protect consumers or to states that impose no standards but where they can make tons more money?

Social security? Privatize it so yesterday's Wall Street bankers can rip you off for more money before the next bailout. Will you have any money left for retirement?

Medicare? McCain said there will be (nonspecified) changes in Medicare but the changes won't hurt people. Huh?

Oil? We export 2/3rds of the oil produced in the US. There's nothing on McCain's website saying more drilling will put a drop more gas in your tank. Big Oil must be smiling.

Iraq? The war is mandated by the UN, not the US. The mandate runs out Dec. 31. If the UN doesn't vote for an extension, all troops will be pulled. We have few allies left in the world and they can't help ... they're broke too.

The successful surge? Remember Spring 2007. The Democratic Congress was pushing for an immediate pullout. Maybe Iraq realized the surge offered their last chance and they had to step up to the plate with their soldiers and all those billions of oil dollars.

Most frightening is that McCain can't use the Internet. The skills are easy to learn but that a potential president doesn't understand the concept of the Internet is truly scary. Terrorist actions are effective largely because terrorists use the Internet expertly.

McCain ran back to Washington before the first debate because he couldn't use technology to do his senatorial job on the road. I think terrorists are using technology wherever they are today to buy up American companies at fire sale prices.

So McCain's crossed the aisle a few times. Has he been ineffective? Look around. America isn't stronger or safer. We are in deep trouble. McCain gives new meaning to: More of the same.

Republican Says No To Brock, Howard

To the editor:

I am writing to primarily remind everyone registered to vote in the upcoming election. Secondly, vote with an informed opinion. Consider that Andrew Brock and Julia Howard worked actively against the second high school bond. If it doesn't matter to you or if you agreed with their position, by all means vote for them; but if you feel as I do that it was bad public policy to work against the bond and rally existing public emotional sentiment against the second high school to garner support for their reelection, then vote against them.

When our leaders put their own political expedience over sound public policy, they should not be entrusted with an elected position. Yes, it was popular sentiment to oppose the bond, and they scored Brownie points for being against it from their local power base; but they showed no leadership and set Davie County back by decades in the battle to deal effectively with our schools. I can accept no justification for their actions. Davie County will grow and eventually outstrip our present public school resources despite short-term lulls in student population. Like the stock market, it's long-term trend is upward. It would be far cheaper to deal with the overpopulation now. To not support your own school board and make their task more difficult is unconscionable. It is hard enough to find capable people willing to run for the office and make the commitment to serve. Why make their job harder by not supporting their decisions? Yes, we need to watchdog their actions and a free citizen should always voice their heartfelt objections in our free country, but we need to thank God that we live in Davie county, where the cost of living is 9 percent below the national average, and not Philadelphia, Pa., where some of my reluctant friends from school settled, where the cost of living is 25 percent above the national average. They consider our rural area to be an economic Nirvana. Be glad that our financial problems are small by comparison. Our finances show good management. The same sentiment goes for our county commissioners. Doing right by our kids, like raising them, is a responsibility and has costs. We must be willing to bear them and do the right thing by our prosperity.

I am a conservative Republican McCain supporter and feel that our national leadership has let us down on our economy, but so have some local politicians. If you feel as I do, vote against Andrew Brock and for Bill Burnette for state senate. Bill will represent Davie County in a progressive fashion. He has Davie's best interests at heart. That, and his businesses experience will serve Davie Well. Julia is unopposed. I recommend voicing your displeasure at her representation by not voting for that race. To see whole townships with low vote counts will drive home the message to her that we are dissatisfied, or write in your preference. Hopefully, someone of sound judgment will run against her next time. This is not a matter of sour grapes at the bond's defeat, but a statement of a betrayal of public trust. When politicians put their love of office over the county's well being; that is not acceptable. Showing leadership and teaching the public the need for the bond should have been their tact, not the popular expediency of siding with those opposed to the bond. If their opposition had been over a core belief or philosophy, I could understand and respect their opinion, but their blatancy to garner support for office is greatly apparent.

The events and concerns of the recent past prove that dealing with growth timely would have been better and cheaper. If you were an employer looking to move to Davie County, would you still consider it? The western side of the county is pushing the eastern side to strongly look at private schools. A good, viable plan would get support there. The eastern area of the county has the resources to make it happen and could pull their tax money out of the county and give it to where their concerns are addressed and appreciated. The losers will be the disadvantaged kids of those who voted against the bond. If I can see that fact, it should be obvious to any elected official and obviously, bad public policy. We need a strong public school system. Davie County deserves better than politicians taking a position just to help them get re-elected. Too much of that attitude has hurt the county in the past. When you vote, consider who benefits and who pays the price for your decision.

Keep Your Own Trash

To the editor:

Just like any other Saturday I began my ritual of picking up trash along the roadway before I got on my mower and started mowing. I had a tall kitchen-style trash bag just about full when I came upon a McDonald's bag laying in the ditch. When I stabbed the bag with my homemade trash pickem-up stick, there was a little jingle sound. This got my attention, so I peeked inside to find the usual burger wrapper, fries holder and a few loose fries floating around in the bottom. But to my surprise, there were also some bills and change which added up to be equal to the change from a $20 bill. Some idiot apparently put their change in the bag as they drove off munching away, and then forgot about it as they deposited it in my yard.

I was asked one time, where do you live? I just kiddingly told them that I was not exactly sure, it is either one beer from Food Lion or one burger from Burger King.

Several years back I came up with a great idea. Our legislators are always wanting to pass laws that regulate and control our behavior, for our own good, of course. It would be good if they passed a bill stating that if you threw trash out of your car you had to include a few dollar bills with it, for those of us who have to pick your mess. Then I remembered seeing signs all along the highway stating that it is illegal to litter.

Way back when I was a little kid, I remember seeing signs saying $10 fine for littering, now the sign says a $1,000 fine for littering. The dollar amount has changed but the problem remains the same.

Back in the good-ole days not many cars had power windows, and only a few models had built-in A.C. units. We didn't have to worry about global warming, it was just plain hot. Gas was about 25¢ per gallon and this was way before Al Gore invented the internet.

Did you see the interview of Al Gore by Katie Couric of CBS? She asked him if he would be interested in becoming Obama's vice presidential running mate. Al Gore gave a long sophisticated response stating that he could not take that position at this time. That is what a redneck parody translation might sound like.

Katie, are you kidding me, I'm making way too much money promoting this global warming hoax. I'm making millions upon millions of dollars selling carbon neutral credits to large companies, book sales and movie revenue. Don't get me wrong, Obama is my man. He will be returning us to the Jimmy Carter glory days. Remember Jimmy's energy policy, in the winter, turn your thermostat below 68° and put on a coat or sweater to stay warm. Obama's energy policy is inflate your tires more to save enough

Thanks For Oktoberfest Help

To the editor:

Thank you Davie County for your wonderful support of Oktoberfest 2008. This is our sixth year of this festival which celebrates the history of the German influence and culture of our county.

The Historic Downtown Mocksville Association thanks our community and retail merchants for their support for Oktoberfest. We had beautiful weather, wonderful craft vendors, great music and outstanding German and American foods.

This Oktoberfest festival began six years ago with the support of Art and Dagmar Beich. Every year the festival grows through the support of these two folks and the German Club volunteers of Winston-Salem. I cannot thank these volunteers enough for their dedication toward this event. These persons work the Oktoberfest in Winston-Salem the weekend prior to our festival. That's correct. They work two Oktoberfest festivals back to back and yet come with smiles, energy and enthusiasm.

To all the merchants who financially supported and welcomed visitors and vendors, we thank you. And I cannot forget the town employees, parks and recreation, Daniel Matthews and "Gunner" for physical manpower.

A festival is a project of many hours of planning, pulling community resources together, and recruiting volunteers to support an event; this is a free event to promote our history and our wonderful county seat. I hope our community of Davie County will continue to participate in the festivals of Oktoberfest and the Daniel Boone as well as the many events we offer here to our families and residents.

Students Say We All Can Help The Environment

To the editor:

We have been studying about how pollution and the destruction of the rain forest are harming our planet. This has made us realize that everyone has a part to play in keeping the earth healthy. We feel it takes just a little effort from everyone to make a big difference. We are asking the residents of Davie County to be responsible members of this community and do their part.

Here are some things that everyone can do to make a difference:

- Bring your aluminum cans to South Davie Middle School's recycle trailer instead of putting them in the trash.
- Take your used engine oils to a local garage or auto store for disposal.

Save Water
• Place a brick in the tank of your toilet. This displaces water and saves 1.5 gal of water a day.

• Use the local car wash to wash your car. The car washes recycle their water.

• Turn off the water faucet when brushing your teeth. This can save up to 10 gallons of water a day.

Save Electricity
• Turn the lights off when you leave a room.

• Use energy efficient appliances and light bulbs.

• Turn up your thermostat a couple of degrees during summer months and lower it a couple of degrees in the winter months.

Save the Environment
• Instead of driving, help eliminate carbon dioxide in the air by walking or riding a bicycle when going short distances.

• Use eco friendly chemicals on your lawn when fertilizing or killing weeds.

• Keep your yard free of trash or litter.

• Plant a tree to aid in the reforestation of our planet.

We want to thank you for your help and cooperation in saving our home.

Davie Democrats Finally Coming Out

To the editor:

The recent news gives Democrats in Davie County reason to be proud. For the first time in my memory, I realize that the Republican stronghold on Davie County feels threatened. For much too long, the Democrats of the county have felt intimidated by the minority party. Barack Obama's message of change has reached into the red heart of North Carolina and is penetrating the little county of Davie. Independent voters in the county are rising fast. These voters are leaning toward the Democratic philosophy, and why not? After eight years of living in a declining economy, which affects mostly the poor and middle-income families, and by the way, that is certainly the majority of families in Davie County, where the average income is in the mid $40,000, it is time to elect representatives who will work toward helping the poor and middle-income families. Help can come in the form of reducing the high cost of healthcare; by lowering the high price of gasoline; by creating jobs; giving tax incentives to those companies that remain in the county; by fining those unscrupulous lenders who make big money by preying on the poor; and by accepting and attending to the problems associated with global warming.

Bill Burnette is a man who knows how to move the economy forward and has a proven record in Davie County. He sees the need for concentrating on educational issues, and he is willing to work for the people of Davie and Rowan counties unlike the present incumbent, who is ranked at the very bottom of the list of effective senators in the NC Senate. The incumbent has had a comfortable seat in the NC Senate for six years. His lack of leadership has never been a concern for Republicans in the county before. It is now, though, and many Republicans as well as Democrats and Independents are beginning to question whether his partisan voting record is true representation of the county. People who benefit from the resources of the county, paid for by tax dollars, should certainly be contributing their fair share of taxes to it.

Davie Health Department Earns State Accreditation

The staff of the Davie County Health Department was recognized for accreditation status by the State Accreditation Board at the Oct. 6 special meeting of the Davie County Board of Commissioners.

David Stone, state accreditation administrator, and Interim health director Carolaine Winebarger.

Joy Reed, NC Division of Public Health, presented the certificate to Carolaine Winebarger, interim health director and staff.

Winebarger, accreditation coordinator for the health department, expressed her appreciation to the board for the honor of being recognized as an accredited local health department, and to the board of county commissioners and administration for their recognition and support throughout the year-long process.

She extended to the staff and board of health her gratitude for their support and objectivity in assuring accreditation standards were met and are continually maintained. Winebarger commended the staff members for their professionalism, dedication, and commitment to providing the best possible public health services for the residents of Davie County. She extended her appreciation to community partners for their input during the accreditation site visit.

Public health services have been available in Davie County since 1911.

Since the pilot program involving six local health departments in North Carolina began in 2004, 40 health departments have been accredited. The process of accreditation includes three major components:

- a self-assessment completed by the agency;
- a site visit by a multidisciplinary team of peers; and
- determination of accreditation status by an independent accreditation board comprised of 17 members: four county commissioners, four members from local boards of health, three local health directors, two staff members from the NC Division of Public Health, Department of Health and Human Services, one member from the NC Division of Environmental Health, and three at-large members.

Davie County Health Department, along with five other North Carolina counties, was awarded the status of accreditation at the state accreditation board meeting in Raleigh July 18. The six local health departments were accredited after hearing the reports from site visits held April through June. The vote for awarding accreditation was unanimous for all six counties.

The process of accreditation is designed to ensure that local health departments are capable of providing all of the essential public health services for its citizens:

1. Monitor health status and understand health issues facing the community.

2. Protect people from health problems and health hazards.

3. Give people information they need to make healthy choices.

4. Engage the community to identify and solve health problems.

5. Develop public health policies and plans.

6. Enforce public health laws and regulations.

7. Help people receive health services.

8. Maintain a competent public health workforce.

9. Evaluate and improve programs and interventions.

10. Contribute to and apply the evidence base of public health.

The report to the board, presented by the lead site visitor from the team that assessed the agency, pointed out the many positive aspects of each agency. All local health directors were present to respond to the report. All reported on the benefits of the process.

Prior to the accreditation standards for local health departments, which is the foundation of North Carolina's public health efforts, different health departments could be providing a different level of basic services. The accreditation program, which is a joint project of the N.C. Division of Public Health, the N.C. Association of Local Health Directors, and the N.C. Institute for Public Health at UNC, ensures that all of the state's local health departments provide the same basic level and quality of services. The accreditation process is administered by the N.C. Institute of Public Health at UNC-Chapel Hill.

Flu Vaccination Clinic Scheduled For Nov. 7

Flu shots will make you rich. That's not true, but you should get one anyway.

Carolaine Winebarger, the interim health director for the Davie County Health Department, would like to remind everyone, "Winter is coming up, and that means flu season is almost here. There are some things to think about and do when it comes to the flu and the flu vaccine to keep oneself as healthy as possible."

What is the flu?

According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), the flu is a respiratory illness caused by viruses. There are several types of these viruses, all known as influenza (flu). These viruses are contagious and can be spread from one person to another by coughing, sneezing, or touching something with the viruses on it and then touching your mouth or nose. Some of the symptoms of the flu are similar to a cold, such as sore throat, cough, and stuffy nose - but the flu has additional, more severe symptoms. These include a higher fever (102 degrees and up), tiredness, muscle aches, and stomach problems such as vomiting or diarrhea. The flu can also last longer than the common cold.

Why get a flu shot? The CDC says the single best way to prevent the flu is to get an annual flu vaccine. Contrary to what is occasionally thought, you cannot get the flu from the flu shot. This is because the shot is made of killed flu viruses. You should get a flu shot annually because the viruses that cause the most prevalent flu change every year, and the vaccine is updated every year to account for these changes. So even if you've had a flu shot in the past, it's important to get one every flu season to make sure you're protected against the viruses that are common in the current year.

Since flu can make it easier for pneumonia to set in, getting the flu shot (and ask your doctor about a pneumonia shot, too) can help in preventing pneumonia as well.

Who should and should not get a flu shot? Anyone who wants to prevent the symptoms of the flu should get the vaccine, but the CDC especially recommends the vaccine for children ages 6 months-18 years. Children and adults alike with certain chronic health problems such as asthma or other problems of the lungs, and diabetes should also get a flu shot. This is because children and adults with these problems are at higher risk to develop complications from the flu if they get it. Women who are pregnant during flu season should receive a vaccine.

The flu vaccine has not been approved for children younger than 6 months of age. Also, you should not get a shot if you've ever had a severe allergic reaction to a previous flu shot, are allergic to eggs, or have a history of Guillain-Barre Syndrome.

When should you get a flu shot? As soon as possible. The CDC recommends October. There are reasons: we never know when the peak of flu season will be; and it can take about two weeks after you get the shot for protection to develop. Last year flu season peaked in February, but in 2003 it peaked before Christmas.

"So the earlier you get vaccinated, the better," Winebarger said.

In the meantime, there are some simple things you can do to help prevent the spread of the flu virus: avoid people who are already sick; wash your hands frequently; and after recovering from the flu or any viral illness, throw away your toothbrush because the virus can live on it and continue to re-infect you.

If you have any questions, or to make an appointment to get a flu vaccine, call your health care provider or the Davie County Health Department.

The health department will hold a flu vaccination clinic on Nov. 7 from 9 a.m.-4:40 p.m. by appointment only. The cost will be $25. Only Medicaid and regular Medicare can be accepted for payment. Call 751-8700 to schedule an appointment if you have further questions.

every step in the first three days of that walk," he said.

He was still operating on adrenaline then.
"The first three days I was enthusiastic. I felt like I could climb every mountain. By the fourth day the fatigue and the magnitude of what I was facing came to me. I just wanted to quit."

He walked on in the rain, high winds and blistering heat.

Near Kinston and New Bern, the heat index hit 110 degrees, and he was walking on hot asphalt. But he was too far to stop by that time. "At least I was somewhere near the end. In the early going when I was 50 miles in and had 500 to go that it was a challenge."

He plans to promote the book after the election. Now he's focusing on the judicial campaign.

"The folks who have read it found it interesting," he said. "I saw some terrible road conditions. We used to be called the Good Roads State and now we're the Bumpy Roads State. I saw it first-hand for 600 miles."

He also became resigned to the fact that he would not be able to match the name recognition of the established contenders. When the votes were counted, he finished fourth in a six-man race.

"I was hoping we would make a good showing. We just didn't have the money to compete on the airwaves with the top candidates. And it really got down to the fact that down the stretch most people want to place their vote with someone they think will win," he said.

Most heart-warming for him was that he carried Davie and Scotland counties, the place of his birth and the place where he now makes home. His margin in Davie was larger than the margin any other candidate got in any county.

"It was rewarding that the people who knew me best supported me," he said.

If he wins in November, he would become the first Davie County resident to be elected to a statewide office. His opponent lives in metropolitan Wake County.

"It's hard to come from a small county to get known," he said, but the long walk gave him memories that he still treasures.

"I had an experience none of the others had, and I wouldn't trade that experience for anything." Some of those are chronicled in the book, including when a group of mountain men gave him some wild bear meat.

He also discusses the heart surgery he faced a year after the walk.

"I was healthy as a horse. I was a lean, mean fighting machine when that walk was over. I was in shape. And then a year and a half later to have symptoms of a heart attack ... It was a crazy turn around."

Physicians removed a tumor that was blocking his blood flow. "Thank goodness for modern medicine and Baptist Hospital," he said.

Down Times: Mt. Tabor Buries War Eagles

By Brian Pitts
Enterprise Record

This is not the way the Davie football season was supposed to go. One game after losing at home to West Forsyth, Mount Tabor buried the War Eagles, 38-17, on their homecoming. The game was played Monday night after rain postponed Friday's date.

These are difficult and rare down times for the War Eagles (5-3, 0-2 Central Piedmont Conference), who will not own at least a share of first place for the first time since '02. They have two CPC losses for the first time since tying for second at 3-2 in '02. They have back-to-back CPC losses for the first time since '00, coach Doug Illing's third year as coach.

On top of that, the Spartans (7-1, 2-0) continued to be a thorn in Davie's side. They've won five straight in the series and 12 of 14. Davie's last win over Tabor was in '00.

One of the elite runners in the state, Tabor's Hunter Furr, dominated with 143 yards on 26 carries, but it was the surprise passing of sophomore Brad Morton who bothered Davie's defense most in the first half. He completed five passes for 93 yards in the first half as the Spartans built a commanding 24-10 lead. Morton settled for 7-of-11 passing for 113 yards, and he didn't throw an interception. Davie hasn't forced a turnover in two CPC games: "We weren't expecting them to come out throwing like that," Illing said. "When they do that, they get you on your heels and take your aggressiveness away at stopping the run."

The War Eagles became increasingly exasperated because each time they had cause for hope, Tabor would answer with a scoring drive.

Davie grabbed a 7-3 lead as Darius Wilson made a dazzling 29-yard catch and James Mayfield followed with a 17-yard score around left end. But Furr returned the ensuing kickoff 50 yards, and Furr was in the end zone for the first of three times a couple minutes later.

The game swung for good when Xavier Varner jumped a Joe Watson route, picked Zach Illing's pass and waved 27 yards to the end zone.

Perry James re-energized Davie by taking a punt 59 yards to the Tabor 20. Jarrell Marshall made a fabulous 16-yard catch in traffic. That put the ball on the Tabor 4, but Davie couldn't move it from there and had to settle for a Michael Rowe field goal.

The margin was down to 17-10, but the next Tabor possession was a defining moment in the game. Morton hit tight end Hunter Somerville three times over the middle in a span of five plays. Each time Somerville was wide open. Furr covered the final 10 yards for the 24-10 halftime score.

"We hadn't seen them do that all year," Illing said. "They obviously saw something in our defense, and they wanted to exploit it. Give their quarterback credit. He's a sophomore that is composed and throws a good ball."

At the start of the third, a defensive stop and an 87-yard drive infused new life in the War Eagles. After Santana Arnold stopped the receiver 3 yards short on third down, Illing ripped a slip screen to Joe Watson, who accelerated through the middle for 21 yards. Two plays later, Illing bought time by rolling left. He stumbled but regained his footing just enough to launch a deep one. Watson ran under it for a 51-yard score. Rowe's extra point made it 24-17 with 17 minutes to play.

"We needed that defensive stop,"

Volleyball Gets 18th Victory

Davie's volleyball team felt out of sync at times against both North Davidson and Northern Durham - and still won both matches. That's how good Davie is playing in the stretch drive of the season.

Last week the War Eagles won two of three, including a 3-0 win over Northern Durham in the first round of the 4-A playoffs. It was just the third playoff win in Davie's 32-year history.

Add another distinction to Davie's resume: With an 18-6 record, the War Eagles are among the most winning teams ever. The short list: Davie went 21-6 under Karen Calcagno in 1981, 19-4 under Dave Markland in 2002 and 18-5 under Sherrie Myers in 1993. So coach Becky Miller's '08 club is tied for third in season wins.

The '02 team that won 19 times ran into a first-round buzzsaw in Northern Worth Noting ...

Amber Parrish had 16 assists and Carly Prapapas 13 digs as Davie volleyball swept N. Durham 3-0 in the first round of the 4-A playoffs. Ashley Joyner had 10 digs in game three.

Michael Rowe scored on an assist from Mitchell Boles as Davie varsity soccer beat Reynolds for the first time in 14 meetings, dating to '01. It was a whole of a Senior Night for Rowe, Boles, Jordan Kinder, Matt Colner, Garrett Fulton and Brenden Hanes.

Davie sophomores Caitlyn Brake and Carmen Grubb made the all-CPC golf team by finishing second and ninth, respectively, in the individual standings.

Andrew Allen (10th place) of Davie boys cross country and Caitlin Tuttorow (sixth) and Holly Thompson (seventh) of the Davie girls earned all-CPC honors in the championship meet.

Pitcher Elizabeth Holland faced 17 batters in five innings as S. Davie softball snapped a 22-game losing streak in two years with a 5-1 win over S. Davidson.

Jennifer Webster of N. Davie tennis went 3-0 in the conference tournament for a league record of 9-0. N. Davie's Sydney McCune and Malghe Leszczuk won the doubles title for a conference record of 5-0.

Kristina Parrish led Ellis volleyball to a perfect season of 17-0. "She played awesome," Both Love said of her performance in the tournament final. "Her attacks were unreal."

Stephon Smoot rushed for 182 yards as S. Davie football moved to 5-1 with a 38-14 whipping at Lexington. Devon Parks scored two TDs and Kyle Bullins "were people out at nose guard," Perry Long said. "They just couldn't block him."

Riveting Soccer Team Celebrates Monumental Win

By Brian Pitts
Enterprise Record

When Davie's varsity soccer team lost 6-2 at Mount Tabor, when Davie dropped to 0-6 in the Central Piedmont Conference with a seventh straight loss, no one imagined Davie staying close to Reynolds - much less beating the Demons.

But the War Eagles reaffirmed that anything is possible in a riveting 1-0 win over visiting Reynolds on Senior Night. It was soccer's version of David slugging Goliath.

How significant an achievement was this? Not only was Davie 3-10-1, Reynolds was ranked 14th in the state with a CPC record of 7-0. Reynolds had won 13 of 16 overall. Reynolds was fresh off a 2-1 win over Mount Tabor. Reynolds thumped Davie 4-0 in the first meeting.

One more thing: Davie had lost 13 straight in the series, getting outscored 71-11 in the span. When the official blow the final whistle, the end was met with relief, exhaustion, disbelief and an on-field frenzy from students, parents and band members, who kept the War Eagles juiced by pounding drums for 80 minutes.

As it turned out, the seeds for this moment were sown the week before in a 1-0 loss at West Forsyth.

"I told them before the game that Reynolds beat West Forsyth 1-0," coach Lance Everett said. "I have told them since the beginning that they could play with any team in the conference - if they play the way they're capable. I think they understood that after playing West Forsyth to 1-0."

What a Senior Night for Garrett Fulton, Matt Colner, Brenden Hanes, Jordan Kinder, Michael Rowe and Mitchell Boles. The War Eagles had not blanked anybody since a 2-0 win at A.L. Brown. They had not shut out a CPC foe since East Rowan in '06.

Yet another reason it was a monumental achievement: Davie was 3-35-1 all time against Reynolds, with the last win coming in '01 under coach Sean Garnett. Matt Moser, whose brother Jake Moser is a junior, had a goal and an assist in the previous series win.

"I said: 'They're undefeated (in the CPC). How awesome would it be to knock off the No. 1 team in the conference and be the first team to give them a (CPC) loss?'" Everett said. "They're ranked 14th (in the state) in the poll I looked at. They had let what had happened in the past dictate what they're doing. They bought into everything I was trying to get them to do."

The first in a string of magical moments came midway through the first half, when Boles found Rowe for a goal.

"The midfield played it to Boles, and Boles kicked it with the back of his heel," Everett said. "He kicked it with perfect placement, and their defender made one mental mistake. Their best defender stepped up, and Michael was patient and drew the goalie out."

The shot deflected off a horizontal goalie and trickled in. Rowe sprinted to the other end of the field, with both arms raised toward the soccer heavens, in jubilation.

"Obviously if Michael doesn't score that goal, we don't win," Everett said. "But if Mitchell doesn't get him the ball, we don't even get a chance to shoot."

"Mitchell flicked it to me real quick," Rowe said. "It was a one-touch. It hit me in stride, I outran the last defender and I beat the keeper. We really had one shot and we capitalized on it."

There were only two other Davie shots. In the meantime, Reynolds was banging away at keeper Kinder 15 times. Never mind the disparity in shots. Every defensive hunch that Everett played was the right one, and the defense played its brains out.

"When we scored they were shocked," Everett said. "I don't know who got them out there, but the band being there got our guys fired up. When they started playing in warmups, I looked at coach (Hugh) Lee and said: 'That's going to be the best thing for us tonight.' Reynolds is not used to having a band play while they're playing. That's a distraction. It could have been a distraction for us, but it was at our stadium, it's our band and the guys wanted them there."

When Rowe's shot found the net, Everett ordered a sit-on-the-lead defense. He summoned a 4-4-2 (four fullbacks, four midfielders, two forwards). Rowe, the top scorer, moved to defense.

"We were defensive minded the rest of the game," he said.

The second half seemingly lasted an eternity, with the clock moving in slow motion.

Torrid South Leaves Lexington Shellshocked

Since a 14-8 loss to North Davidson, South Davie's football team has been as close to perfect as you can get. Last week it made a statement, drilling host Lexington 38-14.

The Tigers have been torrid during a three-game winning streak, outscoring opponents 142-20. Lexington was 4-1 with an overtime loss to undefeated North Davidson. Not only did South (5-1) move into a second place tie with North Davie, it avenged the only loss in '07.

The Tigers humiliated Lexington in the first quarter. On the game's fourth play, Lexington's fourth-down try deep in its territory failed, and South made it pay as Devon Parks scored from the 4. Stephon Smoot scored from 8 yards out on the fourth play of South's second series.

That was just the beginning. Smoot scored an 11-yard touchdown. Before the first quarter was over, South had a 22-0 lead over shellshocked Lexington.

The first-quarter onslaught included a wayward punt snap that Lance LaRoque recovered to set up an easy touchdown. Jamal Lackey's sack for a 15-yard loss also set up a touchdown.

"They were stunned," coach Perry Long said. "We were just ready to play. They could not move the ball on us. I would love to play North Davidson now."

Smoot's rushing numbers jumped off the stat sheet (19 carries for 182 yards). Parks accounted for two TDs, and South steamrolled without runner Raekwon Gray, who was out with a twisted ankle.

South quarterback Shayheim Ewing and Cody Hampton hooked up on two clutch pass plays, both on fourth down. There was a 13-yard connection on fourth-and-11 and a 12-yard play on fourth-and-5. Ewing also completed an 11-yarder to Caleb Martin.

Defensively, Long credited Lackey, LaRoque, Caleb Mathis, Smoot, Russell Anthony and Kyle Bullins, who gave Lexington's line fits at nose guard. "Bullins were people out," he said. "They just couldn't block him."

Three Earn All-CPC Cross Country Honors

Between 2000, Darie Beiter's first year as Davie cross country coach, and 2007, only two Davie males made the all-Central Piedmont Conference team. They were Corey Doub in '04 and Jaron Reynolds in '07. Junior Andrew Allen joined that exclusive club last week by placing 10th out of 40 runners in the CPC championships at West Forsyth.

The top 14 made the all-league team. Allen made the cut by covering 3.1 miles in 18:33. The individual champion came from the championship team - Mount Tabor - as Jared Neely closed in 16:41.

"We've had very few guys on the all-conference team," Beiter said. "It's been hard. Tabor and West Forsyth tend to receive a lot of those all-conference places."

Davie's No. 2 runner was sophomore Luke Slabach, who finished 23rd at 20:21.

The team scoring went Tabor 18, West Forsyth 59, Reynolds 75, Davie 114, North Forsyth 132 and North Davidson 152.

"That's where we were supposed to finish," Beiter said of the fourth-place showing.

The Davie girls, hampered by injuries and sickness, settled for third. Tabor scored 20 to Reynolds' 69, Davie's 87, West Forsyth's 93 and North Davidson's 108.

North Forsyth was last.

Two Davie girls qualified easily for the all-CPC team, with junior Caitlin Tutterow finishing sixth in 21:24 and sophomore Holly Thompson seventh in 21:37. There were 35 runners, and the field was led by Tabor's Courtney Whittington (20:03).

"Third is improvement from last year (fifth)," he said. "We knew we could achieve third, but we were really shooting for second. We had beaten Reynolds a couple times, but we had injuries and sickness. (Heather) Whitehead didn't run (injured). (Kaitlyn) Hutchins didn't finish the race because she was sick. So we weren't at full strength."

Beiter couldn't really complain. Comparing times from a Sept. 17 meet at West, both Davie teams were far better in this one.

"We had 10 girls out of 14 run a better time than they ran on Sept. 17," he said. "Nine out of 15 guys ran a better time. We had some outstanding improvements."

Katherine Johnson, who competed in the JV race, epitomized that improvement. She went from 33 minutes to 20, "which is tremendous," he said.

Kennedy Advances To Regionals

Senior Tori Kennedy of Davie's tennis team qualified for the Midwest Regional by reaching the semifinals in last week's Central Piedmont Conference Tournament at Hanes Park in Winston-Salem.

Kennedy wound up third by winning two of three matches. After receiving a bye in the first round, Kennedy opened with a 6-1, 6-4 win over West Forsyth's Megan Swindler. That was good enough for a regional berth.

"She was flawless," coach Sandra Boyette said of the quarterfinal win. Kennedy's momentum was completely throttled by Mount Tabor's Camilla Bowler, who won 6-1, 6-2 and went on to finish second. But in the match for third, Kennedy held off Reynolds' Laura Hiersteiner 8-6.

Kennedy took an 11-6 record into the regional.

"She'll hopefully get a better draw by beating (Hiersteiner) and getting third instead of fourth," Boyette said. "She played really good. She was in control of that match the whole time."

Davie finished fourth as a team. West Forsyth was first with 25 points, followed by Reynolds at 21, Tabor at 20, Davie at 7, North Davidson at 1 and North Forsyth at 0.

Kennedy was the lone War Eagle to move on. In singles, Lauren Gryder split a pair of decisions to go out with a 13-3 record. Caroline Cozart and Claire Coleman did the same in doubles as they wrapped up their season at 6-7.

Elizabeth Kennedy and Britany Roycroft lost in the first round of doubles for a final record of 8-5.

Brake, Grubb On All-CPC Golf Team

The all-Central Piedmont Conference team in girls golf includes two Davie sophomores - Caitlyn Brake, who finished second in the individual race, and Carmen Grubb, who finished ninth.

Brake, who averaged 43 over nine holes, moved up a spot after taking third as a freshman.

"Third is improvement from last year (fifth)," he said. "We knew we could achieve third, but we were really shooting for second. We had beaten Reynolds a couple times, but we had injuries and sickness. (Heather) Whitehead didn't run (injured). (Kaitlyn) Hutchins didn't finish the race because she was sick. So we weren't at full strength."

Her final tally of 262 trailed player-of-the-year Kristi Ingram of Tabor by 25 strokes. But Brake was 12 strokes better than third-place Laura Blankenship of Reynolds.

Davie was third as a team, with Tabor at 999, Reynolds at 1032, Davie at 1067, North Davidson at 1083 and West Forsyth at 1174.

Davie was fourth in last week's CPC Tournament at Salem Glen. Tabor and Reynolds tied for first with 36-over 144s.

North Davidson (148), Davie (157) and West Forsyth (167) rounded out the field.

Ugly Roof Stains? American Roof-Brite can remove them

American Roof-Brite has the answer for those unsightly, if not damaging stains that appear on shingle roofs. Professional roof cleaner and American Roof-Brite owner Don Sunday is the expert behind the business. With over 30 years of roof-cleaning experience, American Roof-Brite has the knowledge and technical skill to kill roof fungus spores, the usual cause of the black or discoloring stains on asphalt and fiberglass shingles.

Don bought his American Roof-Brite dealership over four years ago, after researching the company and its product. What he likes to impress upon his customers is the method he uses to clean roofs.

The first step is to apply an environmentally safe, biodegradable cleaning compound to the roof area. This application sits on the roof for several minutes. The formula eats away at the cause of the roof stains, fungus. This is one of the steps that separates American Roof-Brite from other roof cleaners, who just spray the roof with a high-pressure wash.

The next step for Don is a low-pressure/high volume wash. Don is passionate to let his clients know that this low-pressure wash is an important difference in roof cleaning technique. Most people assume that what a roof needs is a high-pressure wash. This, Don says, could not be farther from the truth. In fact, a high-pressure wash usually causes damage to a roof, tearing up shingles from the roof, which can result in interior water damage. Not good. The low-pressure/high volume method used by American Roof-Brite has been trusted by homeowners for over 30 years.

The third, and final step that Don incorporates, is the application of a stainblocker, or sealer. This layer of protection is guaranteed to prevent fungus growth for three years.

Roof stains are not just ugly, but the fungus that causes them can damage your home. Merely washing your roof is not enough. The three-step process used by Don Sunday and American Roof-Brite is an environmentally safe, professionally proven method for killing roof fungus, and preventing it. American Roof-Brite is owned by Don Sunday. You can reach Don at (336)-785-2030.

Spurgeon Goss Remembered; Military Honored

By Jane Simpson
Special to the Enterprise

Star athlete and war hero Spurgeon Goss was remembered Oct. 10 during a pregame ceremony at the Davie High football game. Choppers carrying the United States flag along with one for each branch of the military formed a semi-circle around the presenters making an impressive visual statement about the patriotism and bravery of the man they were honoring.

Former recipients of the Spurgeon Goss Sportsmanship Award, family of the late hero and organizers were on the field to honor Spurgeon's memory as details of his heroism in Vietnam were read from the press box. Following the recognition, game attendees with any type of military service were asked to stand to be recognized by the crowd.

Spurgeon's heroism and service to his country will be honored in two ways in the future. In addition to the Spurgeon Goss Sportsmanship Award made to a male and female athlete each year, a scholarship in Spurgeon's memory is being established. The Spurgeon Goss Memorial Scholarship has been started at the Davie Community Foundation. Organizers are working to raise funds to endow the scholarship to ensure it will be awarded every year - forever. They feel this would be a fitting tribute to a true Davie County hero.

Anyone wishing to make a tax deductible donation in any amount to the Spurgeon Goss Memorial Scholarship should make the check payable to the Davie Community Foundation - note Spurgeon Goss in the memo section - and send it to PO Box 546, Mocksville, N.C. 27028. Questions about the scholarship fund should be directed to Jane Simpson at 753-6903 or jsimpson@daviefoundation.org.

Old School: Sports From 1972

North Davidson's football team was 1-6 but upset visiting Davie 10-6, dropping the War Eagles to 3-3. North turned a blocked punt into a field goal and went on to lead 10-0 at the half. In the fourth quarter, Davie closed to 10-6 on a 10-yard pass from Tom Eanes to Doug Quarles.

Statistically, Davie outplayed North, getting 12 first downs to North's six and 164 rushing yards to North's 98.

Denny Howell scored two touchdowns - on runs of 8 and 22 yards - as Coolceemee mashed West Rowan 30-8 in the Rowan Junior Football League. Kenneth White and Ron Bivins scored on 10- and 11-yard runs, respectively. Coolceemee's record improved to 3-1-1.

The Shady Grove Rebels' roster consisted of Danny Winters, David Barnhardt, Brett Burton, Michael Seaford, Alan Frye, Phillip Chaffin, Ray Sain, Mark Newman, Dennis Carter, Michael Lanier, Harold Zimmerman, Frankie Godbey, David Carter, Michael Gregory,

Carpmaster

Lynn Farrington of Gibsonville is awarded the 2008 Carpmaster tournament winner trophy from Kenny Spillman, owner of Spillman's Lake, where the tourney was held on Oct. 4. Farrington also won a cash prize for landing a 27.7 pound carp.

Touchdowns For Education Raises Scholarship Money

The 2008 Touchdowns for Education Team scored a big win for Davie County students when Davie hosted West Forsyth on Oct. 10.

Twenty-two community sponsors agreed to add $100 to the Community Scholarship Fund every time the War Eagles scored a touchdown. Thanks to three TDs by the War Eagles, $6,600 was added to the Scholarship Fund.

"These dollars will benefit Davie County young people as they pursue post-secondary education," Jane Simpson, president of the Davie Community Foundation, said. "A very special thank you to our 22 generous sponsors for helping students when it is needed most."

Spartans Smash JV's Long Winning Streak

The bloom fell off the Davie JV football team's rose last week, losing 42-0 at undefeated Mount Tabor. It was the first Davie loss in 18 games, dating to a 14-7 setback at West Forsyth in '06.

After allowing just 34 points in four games, the War Eagles were smashed by a team that improved to 7-0 overall and 2-0 in the Central Piedmont Conference. Hopes for a fourth 10-0 season in five years went up in smoke for Davie (6-1, 1-1).

The numbers weren't pretty. Denzel Redmon had 33 yards on 10 carries and Tanner Bledsoe 29 yards on six carries as Davie finished with a meager 47 yards on 21 attempts.

The passing game struggled just as much, with Carson Herndon going 6 of 15 for 46 yards. Adam Smith came off the bench to go 3 of 8 for 17 yards. Teddy Allen caught five of the nine completions for 45 yards. Tabor held No. 2 receiver Jarrett Wallace to one catch for 5 yards.

Illing said. "Our team usually feeds off each other. Once we get that score, our defense usually rises to the occasion. But we couldn't get that stop. We were feeling good about it. It just didn't work out."

Tabor responded by devouring 83 yards in six plays, all of it on the ground from Robert Willis and Furr. At 31-17, Davie was all but cooked. It was that kind of night.

Besides Furr's third straight game with at least 123 yards, there were two more electric runners. Willis needed only five carries for 73 yards, and Denard Jones sliced for 56 on 12 attempts. Tabor piled up 20 first downs, 256 rushing yards and 369 total yards.

"They've got three guys back there that can scoot, and that makes it tough," Illing said. "You try to sell out and stop (the inside run), and then you put kids out on an island to stop the outside run. If they miss a tackle or don't get off the block quick enough, that cat's got a lot of green to run to. That's what happened with their speed."

Furr showed why North Carolina came calling. He demonstrated his immense combination of power and speed.

"He's a good athlete," Illing said. "When you put a good athlete with a big offensive line, that's a good mix. That's something we're trying to get better at - develop our line with our big running back. We've got to be able to run the ball better."

It was a dismal night for Davie's ground game. Mayfield was often stoned as soon as he got the ball, finishing with 27 yards on nine tries. Illing threw for 193 yards on 12-of-24 passing, but Davie's numbers were not pretty. (11 first downs and 55 yards on 19 rushes, counting two sacks).

Few times did Illing have time to survey the field. Many times he had to fire the ball two seconds after getting the snap.

"They had six in the box and we had five to block," Illing said. "We knew they were going to be very determined to stop the run. We had to execute better on the pass. They were mugging us at the line of scrimmage. Once we got out of 5 yards, we broke open. That's when we hit some deep routes. When our line can give us time like that, usually we can find an open receiver."

Notes
• Davie's defense is struggling something awful, allowing 49, 37 and 38 points in three games. Davie's offense is slumping, going from 50 points at Page to 20 against West Forsyth to 17 against Tabor.

• While cornerback Shyteek Brown and left tackle Josh Burham returned after missing six and two games, respectively, Davie missed center Vince Cioce (broken finger) for the third straight game.

• With the streak of first-place finishes all but over, Illing will seek ways to motivate the War Eagles. He made it clear he doesn't consider the season a lost cause. There are three more regular-season games, and then the playoffs. "We've got to build confidence and togetherness," he said. "We can win out from here and develop momentum going into the playoffs. We'll see what happens."

• Davie hasn't won since the Page game. Reynolds (3-5, 0-2) has dropped two straight as well. For one team, the pain will stop. Davie plays at Reynolds Friday night at 7:30. "Hopefully we can heal up on the offensive line and patch up some wounds," Illing said.

• Davie has owned Reynolds, winning five straight since a 32-24 loss in '02. The series winning streak: 22-19 in '03, 22-19 in '03, 35-7 in '04, 40-23 in '05, 62-7 in '06 and 26-14 in '07.

WINNERS

First Place = $25 to Cameron Hartley

Second Place = $5 to Jason Isenberg

It was another tight battle at the top this week as both our top contestants missed just 6 games and once again the tie-breaker game was the deciding factor.

First Place this week goes to...

Cameron Hartley
who missed just 6 games and used a very close tie-breaker score to edge out our second place winner.

The runner up this week was...

Jason Isenberg
who also missed just 6 games but was just a few points off the tie-breaker game score to claim the runner-up prize.

It was a tough week for the War Eagles as yet another team from Forsyth County came into our back yard and drove home with a win. This week the locals will face R.J. Reynolds needing a win to put them back on the right track to finish the season on a high note.

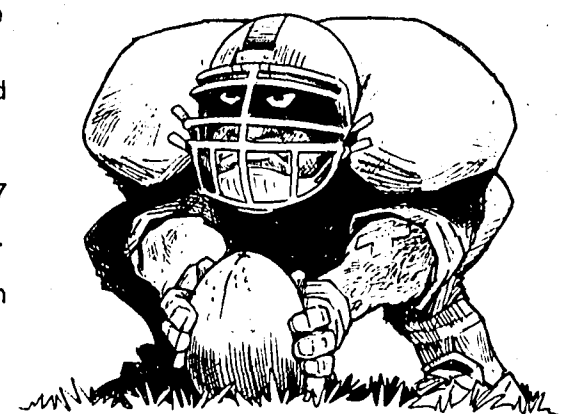

Other high school games of interest include West Forsyth taking on the Black Knights of North Davidson. This will be another back yard brawl for the Titans who are playing well behind their new head coach who came down from Watauga County. West Rowan sports a single loss on the season and faces Lake Norman this week. Undefeated Salisbury will take on Ledford and Mooresville will travel to South Rowan. Mt. Tabor has a short week to prepare for North Forsyth this week.

In the college ranks Catawba is 4-3 overall and will face a 7-1 Wingate team this Saturday. In the SoCon the #2 ranked ASU Mountaineers will face the #18 Furman Paladins in Boone. Another big game has #6 Wofford playing at #7 Elon this week. That should go down to the wire. Over in the ACC Florida State sports a 5-1 record and will take on Virginia Tech. at 5-2. The Tarheels look to bounce back from a tough loss to Virginia when they take on Boston College. UNC needs another win to become bowl eligible. Wake Forest travels to Miami to face the Hurricanes this week.

Nationally Penn State and Ohio State this week and Alabama plays Tennessee. Both should be great contests. The dawgs and cats will go at it as Georgia and LSU face in what could be a very exciting game. And Oklahoma State looks to upset the #1 Texas Longhorns. YEEHAW! SOUNDS LIKE FUN THIS WEEK!

In the pros Arizona will take on Carolina in Charlotte on Sunday. New Orleans will look to bounce back against Drew Brees' old team when they face San Diego. Tampa Bay will face Dallas but will Romo play? That could effect the outcome greatly. The Giants will take on Pittsburgh in a match-up of equal 5-1 records.

ALL CONTEST ENTRIES MUST INCLUDE A FULL MAILING ADDRESS AND PHONE NUMBER AND PLEASE, NO NICKNAMES.

Entries that do not meet these requirements will be disqualified. WE WILL BE MAILING ALL CHECKS TO THE WINNERS. THANKS!

Weekly First Place Winners may pick up their Ball Cap at the newspaper office.

Nick Boswell fires a pass over an outstretched defender in a recent game.

Ellis Jaguars Fade Against North Davidson

The Ellis football team tied host North Davidson at 6 on a 35-yard pass from Nick Boswell to Curtis Banner, but the Jaguars were helpless from there on and lost 38-6.

Undefeated North only permitted 103 yards to Ellis.

"They're good. They're real good," Ellis coach Mike Morgan said. "They're big, they're physical and they've got some pretty good backs. They were just better than we were. They're awfully good, as they have proved against everybody in the county."

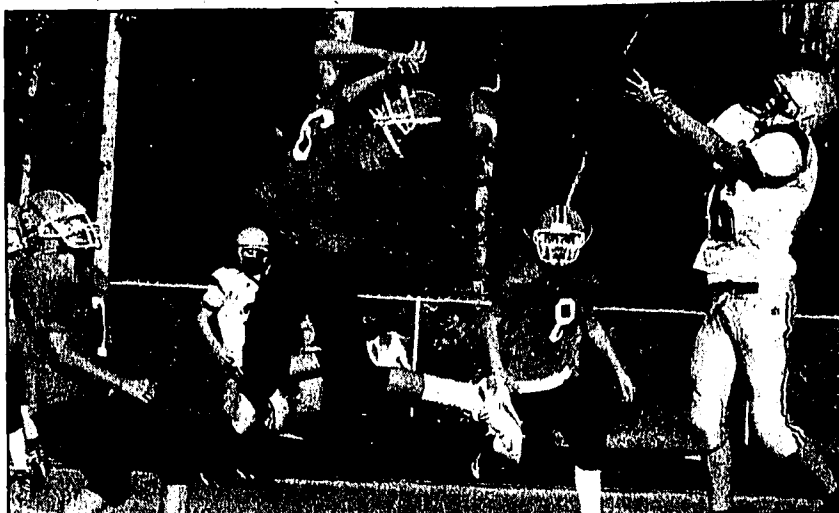

North returned two interceptions for touchdowns, including one for the game's first score. North fumbled a punt and Ellis capitalized on the Boswell-Banner connection.

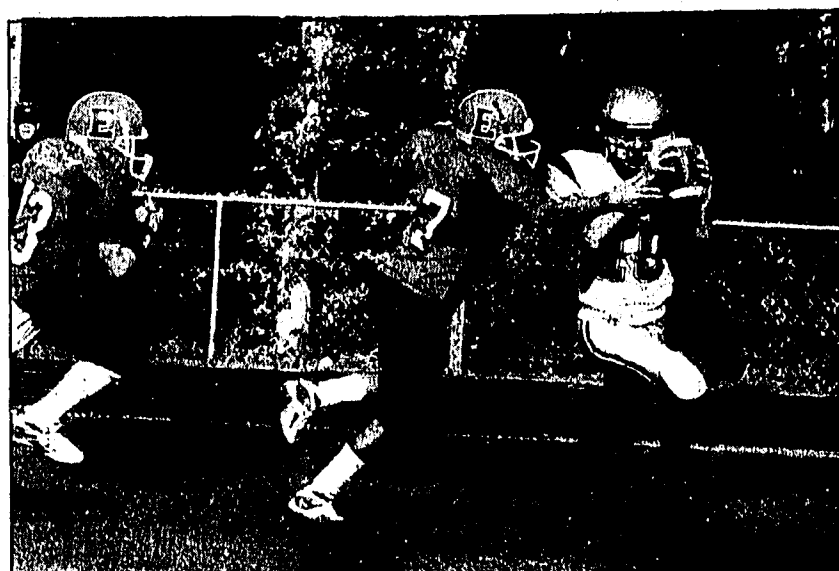

Jon Tise races to the end zone.

But it got ugly from there. It was 20-6 at the half, and Ellis (2-4) wound up allowing a season-high number in points. It's been two rough games in a row for Ellis, which was coming off a 24-6 loss to Thomasville. "When you've got 1,300 kids and 85 to come out for football, that helps," Morgan said of North. "And they're well-coached, too. Their coach has been doing it for 35 years. When they've got players like they've got now, they're tough to deal with."

North Davie Tennis Dominates Tourney

Top-seed Jennifer Webster and the No. 1 doubles team of Sydney McCune and Jennifer Rothberg won titles for North Davie in the Mid-South Conference Tournament at Lexington.

In the first round, Webster trailed her Lexington opponent 2-1, then reeled off seven straight games for an 8-2 victory.

Webster faced Ellis' No. 1 player, Ashley Dowell, in the semifinals. Webster won the regular-season matchups 8-4 and 8-5, but she turned it up about 50 notches and ruled this one 8-0. The only player who beat Dowell all year was Webster.

"They've had some classics," North coach Charlie Crenshaw said. "But Jennifer put on a clinic. They're the best two players in the conference. Dowell is tough. Webster just jumped on her from the get-go and played a flawless match."

Webster beat Ellis' Leah Gryder 8-4 in the finals, capping a 9-0 season against conference competition.

McCune-Rothberg rolled 6-1 over South Davie, then defeated Ellis 6-2. Meanwhile, the North pair of Malgie Leszczuk and Laura Kinder were beating South Davie 6-0 and Ellis 6-2.

That set up a North Davie-North Davie final between McCune-Rothberg and Leszczuk-Kinder. McCune-Rothberg squeaked out a 7-6 win by prevailing in a tie-breaker.

"It was a dogfight," Crenshaw said.

McCune-Rothberg went 5-0 in the conference, while Leszczuk-Kinder finished 4-1.

Ellis Volleyball Has Perfect Season

The Ellis volleyball team closed out a masterful 17-0 season last week by romping over South Davie and North Davie in the Mid-South Conference Tournament.

Coach Beth Hall-Love's Jaguars picked apart 16 of 17 opponents at will. The exception was a 2-1 win over North Davie on Sept. 18. That was the only match that went three games.

Late in the regular season, the Jaguars handled North Davie 21-12, 21-14. Claire Whitaker dominated at server in the first game. Kristina Parrish and Whitaker handled most of the serves in the second game.

"Claire stepped up like a champion," Hall-Love said.

Ellis capped a 15-0 regular season with a 21-19, 21-17 decision over Downtown. The serving leaders were Savannah Yost (eight points) and Lilly Smithdeal (four).

Parrish, Amy Steller, Amanda Smith and Yost led the way as Ellis defeated South for the third time in the first round of the tournament. The scores were 21-10, 21-16.

In the championship against North Davie, Steller's strong serving sparked Ellis to a 21-11 win in game one. Kelsey Orr and Smith served four points each in game two (21-17).

Hall-Love heaped praise on Parrish.

"The real story was Kristina," she said. "She played awesome. Her attacks were unreal. I told Amanda to keep setting to her because she was so hot. She also played very smart at the net with her dinks and placements."

Last year the Jaguars went 12-3, finishing second to North Davie in the regular season and tournament. But '08 definitely belonged to Ellis.

Holland, South Softball Gets First Elusive Win

Before you dismiss the South Davie softball team's record (1-10) as a bad season, remember the depth of South's despair a year ago. In 2007 the Tigers went 0-14 and never came close. They've taken huge steps in '08.

The Tigers scored four quick runs and snapped a 22-game losing streak over two years with a 5-1 win over South Davidson, and they've been in games that they've lost.

The win was the first for South since '06. It was 0-8 before pitcher Elizabeth Holland faced 17 batters in five innings, just two over the minimum. She struck out two in the second and two more in the third. Alyssa Waymire scored two runs, while Ashton Brown, Amber Villaseñor and Courtney Bode scored one each.

South jumped out to a 4-0 cushion in the first.

"It was a great effort by everyone," said coach Amy Speckin, who praised right fielder Krista Miller. "Krista did a great job in right. She made two key plays to end the fourth and fifth innings."

In the second game with South Davidson, the Tigers fell behind 3-0 in the first and eventually lost 3-2.

"We had a few errors that put them in scoring position," Speckin said.

Pitchers Villaseñor and Bode kept the Tigers in the game. They generated two runs in the fifth and final inning, with Holland and Kristi Burton crossing home plate. The rally died with South needing one more run.

"It was a great rally (behind Holland, Burton, Chasity Cleary and Hope Sutterlin)," she said.

South, however, was no match for North Davidson, losing 11-0 in game one. The second game was suspended by rain with the score 1-1.

Speckin liked the effort in the first game. "The girls played very well," she said. "North Davidson is a very strong team. We held them to only a few runs each inning. It was not a complete blowout in one inning."

Durham. Four of the six starters from that team were on hand to watch the War Eagles settle the score - Sara Miller, Megan Dwiggins, Heather (Miller) McEwen and Dawn Singleton. The other two starters were Sarah Williams and Candice James.

"We talked about that when we found out who we were playing," Miller said. "It's nice to have alumni in the stands."

In the Central Piedmont Conference Tournament semifinals, the second-seeded War Eagles came out in a funk against North Davidson, losing 25-21 in game one.

"They're good defensively and they were picking up our hits," Miller said. "It took us a while to get in sync. They have some offensive weapons, and we missed a bunch of serves."

Everything changed in game two, and Davie cruised to victory by scores of 25-13, 25-22, 25-17.

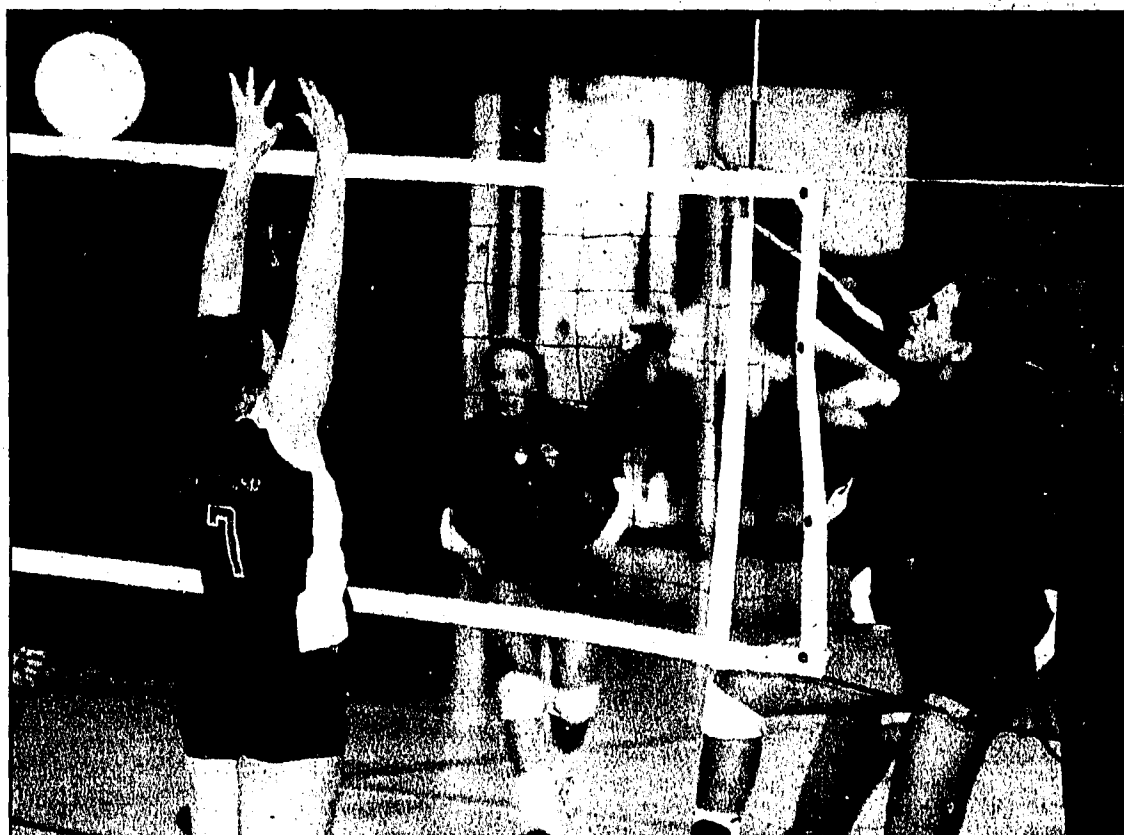

"We got a lot smarter," she said. "We quit being predictable. Once we started serving consistently, moving our feet and getting passes up, then we could run our offense."

In game two, Carly Pratapas breathed life into Davie with a run of five serves. She went on another run (five) later in the game.

"That was a key point," she said. "They were hard serves."

In the final game, it was Kaitlin Wensley's turn, and she vaulted Davie in front with a streak of seven serves.

A common theme all year

- Photo by Jim Barringer has been Davie's depth. When Davie needed a play at the net, Sarah Martin and Brittani Stewart were there to deliver. They supplemented the potent combination of Pratapas and Wensley.

Pratapas (17 digs), Amber Parrish (33 assists), Wensley (16 kills, 15 digs), Martin (seven blocks), Chelsea Reynolds (16 digs) and Rebecca Bobo (eight digs) came up big as Davie bounced North for the eighth straight time.

"Sarah and Brittani brought some offense out of the middle," she said. "That was key because we've been consistently getting offense out of Carly and Kaitlin. But a key was Brittani stepping in at middle and doing a good job. And Sarah had some huge hits. Both of them had some big blocks."

Davie, however, couldn't deal with juggernaut Mount Tabor in the CPC final, losing 25-21, 25-18, 25-17 to the 52nd-ranked team in the country. At that point Davie was 8-2 over 10 matches, with both losses to Tabor (23-0).

The good thing is, Davie wasn't blown off the floor. That's important because Davie and Tabor could meet in the fourth round.

"It wasn't bad," Miller said.

"We were in the second and third games. I'm proud of them. We had a good day despite the loss. Tabor hasn't lost a single game."

Davie answered with a 25-21, 25-19, 27-25 sweep over Northern Durham on Saturday. The home playoff win sent Davie to a second-round home match on Oct. 21. If Davie advanced on Oct. 21, it will either travel to North Mecklenburg or host West Forsyth on Oct. 23 at 7 p.m.

Martin and Alex Folk were under the weather and a shell of themselves. But Elyssa Tucker and Stewart stepped in and compensated for those holes.

"You could tell Alex and Sarah were a little lifeless, so we switched them with Elyssa and Brittani, and they both did a nice job," she said. "Those girls are coming along."

Pratapas (13 digs) and Parrish (16 assists) were big contributors. Miller inserted a young lineup in game three, and sophomores Ashley Joyner and Taylor Anderson and juniors Costner Merrifield, Moriah MacDonell, Ashley Green, Miranda Edwards and Bobo justified Miller's faith.

Unfazed by the stakes, they pulled out a 27-25 decision. In fact, Joyner (10 digs in game three) and Anderson (three kills in game three) were spectacular.

"It was a good day because we were able to play every player, and you're usually not able to do that in the state play-offs," she said. "Joyner came alive. She became a varsity player. Somebody said: 'You're awfully brave.' I said: 'No, I have faith in all my kids. I was sure they could pull it out.'"

Notes: Joyner was a JV call-up. ... Davie was 2-14 in the playoffs. ... Miller gave high marks to Pratapas, Wensley, Parrish and Reynolds. "They have been solid as a rock for us," she said. "I can't say enough about their leadership during the season."

Riveting ...

20:00 remaining ... 19:33 ... 19:02 ... Davie's lead is still 1-0, but there's much work to be done in repelling the Demons' multitude of weapons.

"It was the most stressful game I've played in my life," Boles said. "It was amazing. We played as hard as we could."

"It was insane," said Kinder, who recently moved to keeper because of a bum knee. "They had breakaways and I just got positioned right. I was trying to kill as much time as I could. I would waste two or three seconds here and there."

18:00 ... 17:43 ... 16:36 ... Davie can't buy an offensive opportunity, but the defense is holding steady.

"It was our Senior Night, so we wanted to go out with a bang," Colner said. "In the first five minutes, we were playing such good defense. We were stopping everything. They couldn't get past the 18 for a good while. It was solidified after Rowe's score. Then I think I knew we were going to win."

15:47 ... 15:01 ... 14:44 ... Davie fans are asking each other: "Can you believe this?"

"They came in thinking they had already won it," Hanes said. "I felt like it had been four hours of soccer. The second half was the longest half I've ever been through."

"After we scored and the band started playing, it kept us pumped up," said Fulton, standing on crutches. The defender injured a knee with 30 minutes remaining and had to watch the rest of the game from the sideline. "And it carried over in the second half."

13:57 ... 13:05 ... 12:11 ... Everyone is more awestruck by the second. It was supposed to be a 4-0 Reynolds lead by now.

"When you look at Jordan,

could have had," Everett said. "Jordan, Matt and Joel (Martin) never came off the field. Rowe came off one time for a short breather. It took a lot out of us to be able to play that way. But they were lackadaisical and took us for granted."

11:41 ... 11:12 ... 10:58 ... Fans are waiting for reality to catch up to the War Eagles, but they're holding on.

"Colner and Hanes were amazing," Kinder said. "Rowe saved us a couple times. I'm sure they came out there with plenty of confidence. They were so cocky."

"We probably got 95 percent of the 50-50 balls," Colner said. "I guess it was just the emotions."

10:14 ... 9:49 ... 9:04 ... Do you believe what you're seeing, coach Everett? You're nine minutes from an epic W. But nine minutes is a long time for vaunted Reynolds.

"Reynolds moved to a 4-2-4 formation," Lee said. "But we kept packing it in. Jordan was just awesome in goal. We got great leadership in the back from Michael and Matt. Boles had a super game. Garrett was terrific until he got hurt."

8:40 ... 8:02 ... 7:40 ... The defense is diving all over the place, the ball is pinballing inside Davie's 18 and players are colliding and sacrificing their bodies. Despite what has to be increasingly weary legs, the War Eagles are refusing to follow the series script.

"They played as hard as they can for 80 minutes," Everett said. "We didn't have much momentum and were trying everything to get a win."

"I've never seen Rowe as animated," Lee said. "You could tell it from the very beginning that Michael really wanted this game. I've never seen Colner as determined in the back. Kids were going up for balls, and two or three people were hitting him. And he just never backed down."

7:09 ... 6:37 ... 5:45 ... The band is beating harder and harder. Reynolds is growing frustrated. The success-starved War Eagles are closing in. "Those three seniors who have been playing varsity for four years - Colner, Rowe and Kinder - deserve this more than any group of seniors I've ever known," Lee said. "Because they have really been through some tough times. To be able to have this on their Senior Night is something they'll remember for a lifetime."

4:44 ... 4:13 ... 3:49 ... It's absolutely nerve-racking. Reynolds is knocking on the door, time and again, and Davie is living on the edge. But Davie won't blink.

"They went from two forwards to three forwards and then to four forwards," Everett said. "We gritted our teeth. Boles is never in the spotlight, but he's going to give you everything he's got."

"The last 15 minutes felt like an hour," Lee said. 3:15 ... 2:52 ... 2:22 ... As hard as it is to believe, Davie is playing magnificent defense with tongues dragging. No one's sure if there's two minutes left or three minutes left, but we know we're close (It turned out to be one additional minute of stoppage time, after the clock had hit zeroes).

"On the last corner kick, they pulled the goalie down there," Lee said. "You've really got 22 players in a 6x12 area battling for the ball, and you hope the ball doesn't squirt one way and somebody boots it in. Every time they did a corner kick, we got a foot on it, we got a head on it and were able to clear it out."

"I looked at that clock probably a hundred times," Rowe said. "It couldn't go fast enough. Every second that ticked off I kept thinking to myself: 'We're one step closer. We can really do this.'"

1:59 ... 1:36 ... 1:11 ... Anxiety is building with the Demons bearing down in the box. But the War Eagles can taste it. They believe they're destined.

"Anything can happen," Fulton said. "There's always a first for something, and it just happened to be our night."

"The worst thing was on corner kicks and free kicks, when five or six guys would jump up going for the ball," Kinder said. "You have no clue where the ball's going."

:50 ... :30 ... :10 ... The clock hits 0:00. Now there's about a minute left in stoppage time. Reynolds is trying one last corner kick. Gutsy Davie stops it again. The ball ends up on the other side of the field. The ref blows the whistle. Ballgame. Rowe and Colner are overcome with emotion. Lee is running around like Jim Valvano, crying tears of joy.

Mayhem has broken loose on the field. Players are mobbing each other. There's 15 minutes of hugging, dancing and fist-pumping.

"To me it's the highest point of Davie soccer, certainly since Matt Moser's senior year ('02) when we made the state play-offs," Lee said. "You don't get many moments like this. Davie soccer has taken a lot on the chin and I think it makes moments like this even more special."

"The very last play was a corner kick, and all of their players came in, even their goalie," Hanes said. "We were all smashed in the box. My heart started beating like crazy. I think it was Omar (Shehata) that cleared it out. I was like: 'Finally, we won!' The whistle blew and everyone went crazy."

It was validation for first-year coach Everett, who had never coached on the 4-A level until August. Davie has doubled the win total from '07. He hopes this upset goes a long way in the building process.

Meanwhile, proud parents snapped pictures. Everyone was looking for a reason to stay around, exchange more hugs and slap more high-fives.

"I was physically and mentally drained," Boles said. "I played my heart out. I went home and passed out."

"I started bawling," Colner said. "I kept looking back at the clock. In the last 30 seconds my heart stopped. When the (final) whistle blew, I couldn't stop crying."

Notes: The War Eagles are hoping for a repeat performance in the final week of the regular season. But they don't want a repeat of what happened the last time they beat Reynolds in '01. They turned around and lost twice, 2-1 to North Davidson in overtime and 3-2 to South Rowan.

Open Up and Say Ahh
Veterinarian's Specialty Is Equine TeethBy Jackie Seabolt
Enterprise Record

It's a cool, drizzly day as Gwen Horn leads her 29-year-old horse, Kelly, from his stall at the boarding stable where he stays in the northern end of Davie County.

"Kelly is my old guy," Horn says as she pats his head. "He's an excellent horse."

When Kelly began losing weight it was determined a tooth might be the problem.

He underwent surgery to remove the tooth in hopes his eating would pick-up and he would put the lost weight back on.

Today is his post-surgical exam by Dr. Bryan Taylor, the veterinarian who performed the tooth extraction.

Taylor's vehicle soon arrives and parks outside the barn.

It is a white pickup hauling a large metal contraption.

He steps out of the pick-up carrying a plastic container full of items that resemble surgical tools. "I'll just be a moment," he says as he makes another trip to his truck.

"Bryan's a great guy," Horn says of Taylor.

After the second trip to his truck Taylor returns and is ready to begin his exam on the horse.

"How's our friend doing," says as she latches the stall door.

Taylor says he has always had an interest in equine dentistry since attending vet school in Texas.

He moved to Davie in 1996 and worked for a time at one of the local large animal hospitals before establishing his own mobile dentistry service in 2002 - Taylor Mobile Veterinary Dentistry.

Taylor emphasizes routine dental care for horses of all ages.

He provides routine dentals, extractions, restorations, corrective dentistry, and other services.

Taylor says the most important job for a horse's teeth is processing food.

When that job fails the animal can suffer.

Yearly floatings, where Taylor uses a tool to remove sharp points on the horse's teeth help make them more comfortable and more likely to eat well.

A visit from Dr. Taylor can help ensure you horse's mouth is happy and healthy.

Taylor lives in Mocksville with his wife, Georgia, and their two children.

Taylor Mobile Veterinary Dentistry is located at 293 Cherry Hill Road, Mocksville. Call 998-2253 or email info@taylormobilevet.com to schedule an appointment.

Taylor's upper left cheek tooth was removed several days earlier and Taylor wants to make sure he is healing well.

Horses typically have anywhere between 34-44 adult teeth, according to Taylor. Those choppers require yearly maintenance to keep a horse in peak health.

Taylor gives Kelly a sedative to calm him make the exam easier. After a few moments Kelly begins to lower his head and his eyelids start to droop.

Taylor inserts a metal bit into the horse's mouth and begins turning an attached hand crank to open his mouth.

By now, the sedative has taken full effect and Horn listens as Taylor reports on Kelly's condition, all the while the doctor's hand is inside the horse's mouth checking for any problems.

He tells Horn that her old boy is healing well and proceeds to rinse Kelly's mouth with a long wand attached to a water hose. "This is my version of the rinse and spit," Taylor says.

Following Kelly's exam the horse receives another injection to reverse the effects of the sedative.

Within a short period of time Horn is walking her horse back to his stall to rest. "It's a great day for sleeping, Kelly," she

Pink Ribbon Talks

Davie Women Take Part In Cancer Services Event

"This is your day. Anything is possible today, because darlin'... together, the sky's the limit."

This was the mantra heard throughout the day on Saturday, Oct. 4 at Cancer Services 7th annual Pink Ribbon Talks conference.

This unique conference for breast cancer survivors is dedicated to encouraging women to be their own advocates and push themselves toward healthy and long-lasting survivorship.

More than 100 breast cancer survivors enjoyed a day of education, relaxation and celebration. The day kicked off with breakfast, then a proclamation by Winston-Salem Mayor Allen Jones, and an expert panel of doctors and healthcare professionals who were there to answer questions and discuss healthy survivorship. The medical panel discussed up-to-date information on issues dealing with survivorship, treatment, recovery and coping.

Then they had breakout sessions on Survivorship and Healing Arts, including scrapbooking and painting projects. Throughout the conference, women of all ages and stages of diagnosis were given the opportunity to meet others, learn vital information from support services located in the Triad, and improve the quality of their lives in order to take back control.

The Pink Ribbon Talks is held in partnership with the Derick L. Davis Forsyth Regional Cancer Center, Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center Comprehensive Cancer Center and Cancer Services. The event is also sponsored in part by NC Triad Affiliate of Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation.

For more than 50 years, Cancer Services has provided programs at no cost to cancer survivors and their families in our community. In Davie County, Cancer Services helped over 1,300 cancer survivors and patients last year. If you would like more information, call 760-9983.

If you are a cancer survivor and are interested in forming a wellness group in Davie County, or are in need of any of our financial or other support services, call 760-9983. Volunteers are also needed to help transport clients to and from radiation treatment appointments.

4-Hers Take Programs To The Community

Last week was National 4-H week when thousands of young people celebrated by holding activities and programs in their communities.

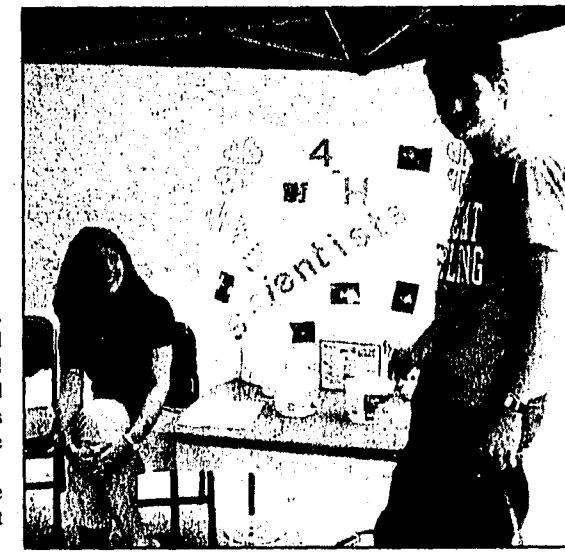

In Davie County, adult volunteers and youth from each club set up an informational booth in front of Wal-Mart. They handed out brochures about 4-H, spoke with community members about the clubs, performed experiments and made ice cream sundaes for visitors.

In addition to having an informational booth, two teens from the Davie County Teen Association, Macy Smith and Savannah McGunigal, spoke to the county commissioners at their Oct. meeting about 4-H and how it has benefited each of them. A proclamation was made for Oct. 5-11 to be National 4-H Week in Davie County by the Davie County Board of Commissioners.

Four-H is a youth development program that teaches young people life skills through experiential learning and hands-on activities. Programs are conducted through clubs, as school enrichment, through camps and as special interest programs through NC Cooperative Extension.

If you would like more information about 4-H, contact Lyndie Dore at 753-6100.

Farmington News

By Laura Mathis
Farmington Correspondent

The Farmington High School Junior Class of 1956 held a reunion at the Farmington Community Center on Sunday, Oct. 12. This was the second time that the group had held their reunion in what used to be the home of the class of the old Farmington High School. The group enjoyed getting together and sharing some of their fond memories of years gone by at the old school, remembering class mates and teachers who still have a special place in their hearts. Some of the teachers remembered were: Walter Morris, Ester H. Hawkins, Leroy Page, W. Gene Dull, Principal S.G.

Wallace, and Home Ec Teacher Marie Absher, who attended the reunion, but was not in the accompanying photograph.

Are you ready for the Farmington Harvest Festival this Saturday? I am looking forward to seeing each one of you there and to hear The Craft Brothers sing. Everyone has been telling me how good they are, especially Grandma Hampton, so I'm glad I finally get to hear them sing for myself. We will be holding the event, rain or shine, at the Farmington Community Center from 4-7 p.m. We're looking forward to some good food, good entertainment, games for the kids and crafts for the adults. Just and all around good time. I'm also looking forward to seeing all those tractors and quilts. If you have one to show off, don't forget to have it at the community center by 3 p.m. on Saturday. We'll be awarding prizes to the crowd favorites. Come and plan to have a great time.

Has anyone in the Farmington area lost a Cockatiel bird? I went out in my yard today and heard a bird with an unusual whistle. When I whistled back, it flew to me. I must be an animal in the area that needs help, seems to find its way to my back yard. Despite the fact that I have a Beagle and three cats, they always seem to find safety and help. Give me a call at 998-0825.

The Class of 1950 of Harmony High School held its 58th reunion recently at the Calaha home of Josephine Anderson. The theme was Harvest Time, and everyone wore bandanas. The 40 who celebrated were served Brunswick stew, hogdags, slaw, cornbread, and the area favorite, persimmon pudding. Music was provided by the Broken 'N Lonesome band. The graduates sang their favorite songs and shared many stories and a few tall tales. A wonderful time was had by all. Josephine continued her party mood the following weekend by hosting groups of friends for hogdags and hamburgers.

A different kind of shower was held last Thursday, Oct. 16 at the home of Brandi Drye and co-hosted by Ellie Drye, Vicki Groce, who will be a first time grandmother in just a few weeks, was surprised by friends and family with the party in her honor. Lured there on the pretense of attending a home products party, Vicki walked in to find lots of pink decorations and a baby theme. Even her daughter, Amber Thuit, was in on the surprise, as was Vicki's mother, Lena Mae Allen, and her sister-in-law, Dawn Allen. After the initial confusion, Vicki was delighted to be the guest of honor and looks forward to welcoming granddaughter Morgan upon her arrival. Since Vicki will be providing lots of daily care for the new baby, she will need almost as many items at her home as the new parents will use at theirs.

Thank You!

A Heart Felt Thanks From the Thomas Ray Shore Family, Cooleemee, NC

On behalf of the Thomas Ray Shore (3-10-33—10-3-08) Family I wanted to personally thank you all for being so very kind and helpful during my father's recent passing. There are so many relatives, neighbors, churches, pastors, businesses, civic groups and individuals that I honestly don't know where to start. So many prayers, phone calls, cards, meals, flowers, so many acts of kindness that mere words would never pay justice to my father's memory and just how grateful he would be for all of your love and continued support. Your outpouring of goodness has truly humbled us.

In honor of your benevolence I have enclosed a copy of a poem that my Mom wrote many years ago. Throughout the years it always made Daddy smile when I read it out loud to him. Thomas Ray Shore 10-3-08.

My Husband is in love. (Burlie Creason Shore)

My husband's in love, head over heels in love. I guess I should be sad. But he's in love with a lot of love. So you'd think I should be glad.

But I'm at home every Saturday morn while he's out with Lady, Blaze and Nelly. He pets and pampers and takes them out while I sit at home and fuss and pout.

There's just no way to compete with a dog. I can't run a rabbit, I can't run a race. I just clean, cook and wash his clothes. And stay at home with disapproval on my face.

I think I'll leave him for the day and wait to see what he has to say. There he'll stand with Blaze and Nelly. Then he'll have to beg me to come home. When he sees a dirty house, dirty clothes and has a very empty belly!

Thank you all so much! — Joey Shore

Nancy King Florey

Mrs. Nancy Louisa King Florey, 80, of Clemmons, died Tuesday, Oct. 14, 2008 at Forsyth Medical Center.

She was born June 14, 1928 in Woburn, Mass. She spent most of her younger years in Massachusetts and New Hampshire, graduating from Framingham State with a dietitians degree. She moved her family to Connecticut where she was head dietitian at Hartford Public High School for more than 30 years. In 2003 she moved to North Carolina to be closer to family. She enjoyed retirement as it gave her more time to knit. She took pride in giving items she knitted to family, friends and newborns. Her happiest moments were with her family during get-togethers when she would sit and listen to them bicker and reminisce. She coveted her independence and enjoyed that until the time of her death. There were always dogs in her life. Nancy rarely missed a televised Red Sox game and saw them win the World Series. Football, hockey and college basketball got their fair share of her viewing time. As a member at Clemmons Moravian Church, she enjoyed spending time with the Young at Heart group. Because of her connection with children, she loved the opportunity to be involved with the Preschool at Clemmons Moravian where she made snacks and collages each week to correlate with the letter, number or color of the week.

Mrs. Florey was preceded in death by her mother, Myra Julia King.

Agency Trying To Educate Public On Domestic Violence Problems

Pat Schulz, author of Making Sweet Lemonade, spoke at the annual Domestic Violence Prevention vigil on Tuesday, Oct. 14 at the Davie County Public Library.

Schulz is an author, speaker and publisher. She holds positions on several boards in the Charlotte/Mecklenburg area. Schulz spoke about her childhood with an alcoholic mother who endured battering and emotional abuse. Though her childhood was tumultuous, she found inner strength to overcome and improve her future.

She inspired the audience to seek more out of life even when life hands lemons. For more information on Making Sweet Lemonade, contact Davie Domestic Violence Services and Rape Crisis Center.

The agency also unveiled the new Clothesline Project at the library the same evening.

Victims and surviving family members of domestic violence and sexual assault designed t-shirts to express their feelings about their experiences. The shirts were hung from the ceiling of the library lobby to show the impact domestic violence and sexual assault has on this community.

"This display is very powerful and inspiring," said Brandi Reagan, administrative support specialist. The Clothesline Project will remain on display through October.

Miracle Trail Offers Alternative To Traditional Halloween

What type of entertainment these days can be considered fun for people from 4 years old to those in their retirement years? Where can the entire family go where the younger and the older hear and see the same things and each possibly having questions after participating? That is exactly what the 2008 Miracle Trail hopes to offer. "A lot of work has gone into making this year's Miracle Trail event even more entertaining than last, but also more enjoyable for all ages" says Serving Him Ministry's Mike Drayton. "Last year's event seemed to reach all age groups but this year there might just be a twist or two that makes this even more attractive to the older teens and to all the adults in our community. We've placed street signs around the county and folks have been calling pretty steadily. There is a lot of buzz for this; our third year of this event."

The Miracle Trail has 40 churches involved, and those churches are not just from Davie County. Surrounding counties such as Yadkin, Iredell, Forsyth and Rowan have churches planning on participating. The live performers encountered on the Miracle Trail come from many denominations of the Christian faith making this an event where the church body comes together as one.

"Many are calling us, or e-mailing us, about age appropriateness of this event," says Mike Drayton. "The Miracle Trail is appropriate, content wise, for all ages. The scares come mostly from some trail characters encountered that will indeed startle some folks. This is a family friendly event so no gore or other such things will be in this Halloween alternative. However, since there is a good 30-40 minute hike required, adults might want to keep that element in mind with regards to their child."

The Serving Him Ministry has provided the following information so as to be best prepared for the Miracle Trail.

- The Miracle Trail will be held Oct. 30, Oct. 31 and Nov. 1. A third day was added this year due to the many requests to do so. The event will be held at the Camp Manna Ministries site near Cooleemee.
- Recommended ages are 4 years old and up. All children under the age of 13 should be accompanied by a parent or guardian if possible. Teens and youth groups must adhere to all - rules as given by the trail guard. Church groups, or large civic groups, can call in advance for a preferential booking time. Reservations are not required.

- Parking will be in the lots at Camp Manna. Parking attendants will assist trail goers from 6:30-10:30 p.m. regardless of age, up to a maximum of $20 per family. Call Mike Drayton at 751-7661 with any questions or for more information.

- Driving directions: from Downtown Mocksville where US 601 and US 64 intersect, take US 601 South as if going to Salisbury. Remain on 601S for 7.1 miles until you come to Pine Ridge Road on the right. In getting to Pine Ridge Road off US 601 South, pass through the NC 801 intersection. Once on Pine Ridge Road, go 1.3 miles until you come to Gibson Way on the right. Look for the Miracle Trail parking attendant, with a flashlight, directing traffic in/out of the camp.

These two men hope and pray that their lives will be spared by the Trail Guard.

Shady Grove Elementary

The fifth grade is getting into the election process. They have been exploring websites, United Streaming videos, and books on historical documents such as the Constitution, our country's symbols, the electoral process, and the three branches of government. A lot of classroom discussions have taken place about the political candidates. Students will be taking home a list of candidates to research so they will be prepared to vote on our designated Kids' Voting Day on Oct. 29.

The students are enjoying science. Students in Mrs. Orr's classroom get to wear lab coats and safety goggles as they explore Newton's Three Laws of Motion through lab experiments. Mrs. Smith's science class is making their own erosion trays by squirting water in trays of dirt and observing and recording the results. Students in Mrs. Howell's class touch on all four science objectives through scavenger hunts and research in the computer lab and science magazine articles. They create poems and stories as a product of their research. If you want to know what to do in case of a hurricane, tornado, or earthquake you need to talk to the students in Mrs. Ale's class. They have visited the FEMA website and researched the items needed in a disaster kit. They even designed their own disaster kit. Brochures on various biomes were completed in Mrs. Littrell's science class.

Mocksville Elementary

Students of the week: Valerie Vides, Samantha Spears, Macy Jester, Melchor Gomez, Lexi Ends, Rachel Jordan, Joel McLaughlin, Maggie McKnight, Seth Curlee, Scott Bradley, Kaitlyn Evans, Trent Mabe, Nicholas Koon, Mirsha Martinez, Chely Peoples, Liz Cronshaw, Rakim Clinton, Kaitlyn Walter, Israel Hernandez, Justin Crots, Jennifer Ngo, Paige O'Byrne, Emma Bitter, Leslie James.

Kindergarten classes met Mr. I this week and found out that he has two sounds. He makes the sounds at the beginning of "icky" and "ice cream." He has incredible rainbow ink. Students are counting and working on learning the numbers. They read a story "Armadillo's Orange" and learned about neighborhoods, farms and farm animals. Next they will go to Baa Moo Farm.

Mrs. Dobb and Mrs. Pruitt's first grade students finished learning about insects. They creatively drew their own insects with three body parts, six legs and named them. They enjoyed learning about the kinds of insects and how they are important to the environment. The children are really moving forward with the Trailblazers math and love math time. The teacher began something new for writing. Students write a newsletter for their own called Weekend News. "The students like to know what I do on the weekend. So, I made a deal with them and agreed that I would only tell them what I do on the weekend, if they write about their weekend activities. This gives me a great opportunity to model good writing. I am looking forward to parent conferences and sharing what their children are accomplishing and creating in class."

John Wendel, meteorologist for WCNC Channel 36 in Charlotte, was the guest speaker for 98 second graders. Wendel explained how he uses technology to forecast the weather. He told the students how weather affects daily lives. The children learned how weather conditions form and what types of precipitation to expect locally.

Mrs. Strickland's class has finished exploring the solar system in science. They had a guest speaker to discuss the sizes of the planets. The children were amazed at how small some of the planets were compared to the sun. They read The Drinking Gourd which tells the story of a slave family using the Big Dipper to escape. Students went to Sciworks to see constellations.

A field trip to Heritage Theatre was successful. Each child took on a different part in the reenactment of Blackbeard's life. They were all in costume. They went to Tinglewood Park for lunch and all fourth grade students were well behaved.

The fifth graders in Mrs. Southern's class have been studying the weather. They are keeping weather journals and have learned about the importance of the water cycle. The students have done an evaporation experiment. Many more experiments are planned during their study of weather.

In language arts, Mr. Brook's class, Mr. Shepherd's class, Mrs. Cockman's class, and Mrs. Southern's class did a quarterly writing assessment. In writing, students have been working on their drafting and proofreading skills to improve their writing.

Fifth graders have been focusing on the reading skills of choosing the main idea of a selection, comparing and contrasting, and realizing the author's purpose for writing a selection. They have also been studying point of view and how it impacts the reader's perception of a story.

Cornatzer Elementary

Kindergarten classes have learned several new characters from Letterland. Students have been introduced to Aa, Annie Apple, Dd, Dippy Duck, Cc Clever Cat, Hh, Hair Hat Man, Mm, Munching Mike, and Pp Poor Peter. The students learn the name of the letter and its sound as well as words that begin with that sound. They've also focused on different thematic units. Some of which they have learned are: Season of Apples, Fire Safety, Fall on the Farm, and Pumpkins. Students read many types of literature to incorporate into a unit study. Students have learned seven new sight words and are using them in their daily writing.

In Trailblazers Math, students are continuing to recognize and write numbers 0-10. They are matching sets to those numbers. Kindergartners are learning directional and positional words as well as daily calendar skills and how to sort by attributes. Students are learning how to graph items and interpret them by using words like most and least. They incorporate daily pattern skills.

Students had a great time with an apple unit as they did many activities. Students tasted the apples and graphed the class favorite. They made apple sauce in celebration of Johnny Appleseed's birthday. They have done lots of writing to go along with unit studies and are learning to support writing by adding illustrations. Mrs. Schwengel, speech pathologist, spends 30 minutes a week for "Rhyme Time."

The Cougars of the Week for September and October from Mrs. Saarn's class: Isabel Bishop, Zeb Chapman, Ellore Crots, Alaina Curtis, Jeremy Flores-Parada, Haley Lanier, Olivia Tucker, and Isaac Webb; Mrs. Jennings' class: Anna McCullough, Randy Martinez, Rachel Devereaux, Jordan Bryant, Carly Jaycocks, Zachary Wilks, and Lindsey Bartlett; Mrs. Mannino's class: Nora Burns, Bella Fleming, Kyleigh Graley, Carlie Honeycutt, Lauren Patterson, Jonathan Reagan, and McKenzie Stukely.

Thanks to all the parents who are making this a successful year. The third, fourth, and fifth grade classes started working on music to perform at the "Night of Kindness" celebration Nov. 13. Each grade will perform their own song, and all of the students from all of the grades will perform a group song "One Small Voice."

Next month fifth graders will start recorders. With recorders, the students learn about reading music in a realistic application, as well as learning more about style and many other aspects of playing a musical instrument. Chorus auditions will be next month, but the date and time are not set. Chorus at Cornatzer is open to all fourth and fifth grade students who wish to audition. In chorus, the students will learn advanced musical concepts relating to reading and performing music while performing at various community activities with chorus groups from other elementary schools.

Pinebrook Elementary

Mrs. Cope, Mrs. Hockaday, Mrs. Holt and Mrs. Howard's kindergarten classes are talking about pumpkins, leaves and fall activities. Students learned 12 letterland characters and are making words and sentences in their journals. In math they are Please See Schools - Page D3

Math has them exploring odd and even numbers. Students learned how to add to solve problems. Matter has been the unit topic. Students learned about the three states of matter and how to classify objects into the three states. They enjoyed doing science experiments with solids, liquids and gases. Remember to sign up for a conference time with Mrs. Welch if you have not already done so.

Third grade students are finishing a study on bones. Students read the story A Day's Work and discussed the value of honesty. They have enjoyed the new outdoor area given by PTA and are eating lunch there often.

The fourth grade is gearing up to start a genre study. Students have been given information about the study, and will use library books in order to read about each of the genres, then create a project that goes along with the book. They will present their books to the class. Information about the Soil and Water Conservation Poster contest has been sent home. Every student is required to make a poster, but only a few will go on to the county contest level. The theme this year is "Soil and Water, yours for life." Conferences are coming up soon. Schools Join 'Be There' Campaign

Davie County Schools, as part of the Piedmont Triad Education Consortium, will launch a parent involvement campaign called Be There.

This campaign is designed to encourage parent involvement in their children's education. Research proves that parent involvement has a significant impact on student success.

Be There is a media campaign that promotes simple ways for parents to connect with their children during everyday moments of life - driving to school, preparing a meal, doing the laundry, shopping for groceries, making eye contact, smiling, asking a question, giving a hug or reading a story. School administrators, teachers and PTA members will be asked to incorporate the Be There message.

The Be There campaign was created by David R. Voss & Associates from Florida. Funding for this two-year campaign has been secured by the Piedmont Triad Education Consortium. Brochures will be going home to all students in the consortium's 15-county area. Local media will be asked for help in this campaign. The Be There campaign region-wide launch will be held on Monday, Oct. 27.

Learning From The Source

Early College Students Hear From Holocaust Survivor

By Chelsea Ledford and Sarah Shaver
Davie County Early
College High School students

Davie County Early College High School, in its second year, has freshmen and sophomores, and is off to a great start.

The teachers incorporate diverse teaching methods in order to provide tangible, real-life projects that go beyond the classroom.

One project that students have been working on is writing to world-renowned author and Holocaust survivor, Elie Wiesel. Students in Eric Reeder's English II class read Night by Elie Wiesel. Night is a gripping memoir about Elie Wiesel's experience in the Holocaust. The class was so deeply touched by this book that Mr. Reeder decided that writing to Dr. Wiesel, who lives in the United States, would be beneficial to our learning.

When we learned that we were going to be given the opportunity to write Elie Wiesel, we were ecstatic. Some of the key elements that we were asked to include in the letters were ideas such as what we have learned from Night, how it can relate to our life, how this has changed us, and why it's important that we as Americans study the Holocaust.

In doing this project we have learned that the Holocaust is more than just a date that we are forced to memorize; it's real and the pain is real. Even though the Holocaust happened over 60 years ago, we were affected on very personal levels. We think this was a good experience because it has given us a deeper, more personal view of this horrific event.

Dr. Wiesel has inspired me to keep faith as a young person because he was 15 when he was sent to a concentration camp. We think it is a blessing that we as students were able to write to Elie Wiesel in order to express our feelings. However to actually have him respond to us was quite an overwhelming honor. It felt rewarding to have someone so important in history respond back to my thoughts.

We now look at Elie Wiesel as a great role model, not simply because of what he has survived, but because he chose to share his painful story with the world so that we may truly understand what it was like in the Holocaust.

It is apparent, in his letter, that he understands what we at the Early College are all about. In his response to last semester's English II class, he said, "From your letters it is clear that you are engaged in the pursuit of truth, and that learning is very important to your lives." Elie Wiesel, also, realized how deeply touched we were by his book. One of the things he says to this semester's class is "I am moved by your compassionate response to the suffering of others. Your letters reflect your sensitivity to the darkness about which I wrote. It is evident that you understand well the destructiveness of hate."

When students were asked to describe their feelings towards the letter in one word, their answers were: ecstatic, flabbergasted, overjoyed, important, yippee, thrilled, psyched, royally, amazed, and exuberant. As a class, we discussed our feelings on this whole activity. Some responses were:

"I think Elie Wiesel is a man of courage and has the defiance and willingness to fight against overwhelming odds." -Taylor

"Elie Wiesel is a rock star because of his courage to keep going and the inspiration he has given me is engraved in my heart." -Sarah

"This experience was amazing and it's something I will never forget." -Megan

"After reading this book, I have learned that you can lose everything in a second and still have enough heart to live like it's your last day." -Sean

Our teacher, Eric Reeder, has been doing this activity for several years and is impressed by this year's outcome. According to Mr. Reeder, "My students did a wonderful job writing letters to Elie Wiesel. It was a once in a lifetime event for them to get a letter from a world famous author and Holocaust survivor who has won the Nobel Peace Prize. It is his mission in life to make sure that people understand what the Holocaust was like and to try to ensure that it doesn't happen again."

Davie Students Taking Part In Kids Voting '08

By Van Lankford
Special to the Enterprise

Political scientists predict the 2008 election will be determined by the percentage of young voters who turn out to the polls on Election Day.

Both the Obama and McCain campaigns are pulling out all the stops in an effort to woo the young voter. But, how young do you need to be in order to cast your vote?

As Election Day is approaching, school children throughout Davie County are going to the polls - participating in the national movement called Kids Voting. The purpose of the Kids Voting program is to educate and inform K-12 students on the voting process and to encourage them to become lifetime voters who are involved in their community.

The program is a great reminder to adults that voting is not only a civic right but a privilege to be cherished.

Kid's Voting began in 1988 when three businessmen from Arizona traveled to Costa Rica on a fishing trip. During their visit, they learned that the country's voter turnout is typically around 90 percent. This high turnout was attributed to a tradition of children accompanying their parents to the polls. The men were intrigued by the idea, but also recognized a missing link to education. They launched a school-based pilot project in a Phoenix suburb that has since grown into the national Kids Voting USA organization.

The goals of the Kid's Voting program are to inform and educate Davie County students (K-12) on the voting process, to educate students about national, state, and local political candidates, and to increase voter turnout on Election Day. There are 25 counties in North Carolina participating in the Kid's Voting program.

Now and in the weeks ahead, students at Coolemeec, Cornatzer, Mocksville, Pinebrook, Shady Grove, and William R. Davie elementary schools, Ellis, North, and South Davie middle schools, Central Davie, and Davie Early College High School will learn about the election process and how government affects their lives in classroom activities. They will then have the opportunity to cast their vote through the Kids Voting Online Poll. The Kids Voting election results will be tallied for the county and for each school. Each child who votes will receive a voting sticker.

Kids Voting provides Davie County students with opportunities for civic education and engagement as well as an opportunity to vote on the same issues and candidates as adults on Election Day. It's a valuable program to help ensure the next generation will be active participants in the political process. The Davie Kid's Voting Advisory Board members are Betsy Cochrane and Linda Leonard, co-chairs. Mark Sanger, Margaret Jo Brock, Linda Dorsett, Carl Lambert, Kim Lambert, Van Lankford, Carolyn McManamy, Margaret Shew, and Jeanna White.

For more information about Kid's Voting in Davie County, contact Cochrane at 998-8893 or Leonard at 751-3650, or visit the Kid's Voting website at: www.kidsvotingusa.org.

Advance Dentist's Office Practicing Sedation Dentistry

You don't need to be afraid of going to the dentist anymore. For many Americans, going to the dentist is a fearful event, even though dentistry has changed tremendously in the past several years.

"A visit to the dentist can now be relaxing and fun," said Dr. Thomas S. Browder of Advance. "Unfortunately, this is not enough for the approximately 145 million people who avoid the dentist due to fear."

Browder and his clinical staff recently completed training that allows them to treat these fearful people. Prompted by recent changes in the law enacted by the N.C. State Board of Dental Examiners regarding sedation dentistry, Browder and team spent three days learning better how to manage and keep people comfortable using oral sedation.

"I have always been sensitive to my patients with high fear and apprehension. Now I can offer them a safer and more comfortable experience. I feel many people are avoiding needed care due to fear. I look forward to helping these people receive much needed dental care with this safe, and wonderful technique of anxiety-free dentistry."

Browder is a member of the Dental Organization for Conscious Sedation - DOCS. The purpose is to provide education for dentists to provide care in a safe and comfortable environment to the large population of people who are avoiding the dentist.

"Dentistry is high tech today with all sorts of gadgets and techniques that get the job done better and quicker, but now with anxiety-free dentistry I can bridge the gap between technology and comfort," said Browder. "You should see the look on the faces of patients when they complete their care and they have a healthy mouth and don't even remember having the treatment done."

Browder and his team received updates on the management of serious and life threatening medical emergencies. Although he feels fortunate to never have experienced a serious emergency in his practice, Browder and his staff are equipped and prepared to handle most situations. "It never hurts to be prepared," he said.

Browder and his team can be reached at 998-9988, or at www.browdersmiles.com.

ENTERPRISE RECORD

Early Voting Ends Saturday

All Polling Places Open Tuesday

Thousands of Davie residents have taken advantage of early voting, and there's still a few days to do just that.

Voters can, of course, cast their ballots Tuesday, the typical election day.

In addition to the national and state races, Davie voters will join those from Rowan County in picking a state senator - either incumbent Republican Andrew Brock of Farmington or Democratic challenger Bill Burnette of Mocksville.

Three seats will be decided on the Davie County Board of Commissioners - with Democrat Jeff Adamonis going against Republican Richard Poindexter, Mark Jones and Ken White.

There are three ballots - one for the presidency, one for local and state offices - and one for judicial races, which are non-partisan. Voters must fill out each separately. Only the one for local and state offices can be voted as a "straight party" vote.

Early voting continues at the elections office, Poplar Street (off North Main Street at the Brock Center) in Mocksville from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. through Friday; and at three other sites: William R. Davie Fire Department, Jerusalem Fire Department and Bermuda Run Town Hall, from noon-6 p.m. through Friday. All four sites will be open Saturday from 8 a.m.-1 p.m., the last day for early voting.

All polls will be open Tuesday. Sample ballots are available online at www.davie.nc.us/Departments/Elections, or copies may be picked up at the elections office.

"If the vehicle is drivable, they need to pull over somewhere safe and call *HP from their cell phone."

Fleetwood said one of the biggest hazards is when a

If you do, you can cause damage to property or yourself. You can fix damage to a vehicle or property, but not damage to your life," Fleetwood said.

Dan Barrett Could Be Davie's First Statewide Winner

We can't all agree on the presidential race, the gubernatorial contest or many of the other list of political campaigns that will be decided in Tuesday's long-awaited election. Everyone must have made up his mind by now. Most have pretty firm opinions about the names they will check when they enter the voting booth.

But we can agree to vote for our own Dan Barrett, a candidate for the N.C. Court of Appeals. If elected, he will become the first Davie resident to be elected to a statewide office.

That would be quite an accomplishment for someone who hails from this tiny county. He needs our universal support.

When he ran for governor — walking across the 600-mile wide state in the process — Davie voters gave him an encouraging hometown victory even if he didn't come close to capturing the Republican nomination. This time is different. Learning from that first race, he didn't walk. He has driven his car this way and that across the state.

That's the good sense we've come to expect from Barrett during his days as a county commissioner and chairman of the Davie County Hospital board. Why walk when you can drive?

Whipping Boy: Bush Bashing Is New Sport

President Bush must be the loneliest man in America. He has been vilified in this election and painted as the worst president in history. John McCain has distanced himself from Bush, who conveniently managed to avoid the Republican National Convention this fall.

History may eventually be kinder to Mr. Bush than the Democratic attack ads. The ads have been vicious. Every Republican who has ever had his photo made with the President has been targeted. Even Republican gubernatorial candidate Pat McCrory — the longtime mayor of Charlotte — has been smeared with anti-Bush ads.

Attacking Bush has been a popular blood sport. Democrats sense this is a bellwether election in which a tidal wave could sweep them into power in a way they haven't enjoyed in decades. They sense this could be a redux of 1974, when angry voters took revenge on President Ford's pardon of President Nixon.

Eight years ago, the public mood swung heavily against President Clinton. President Bush now finds the public weary of him.

He inherited a stagnant economy and turned it into seven years of prosperity. But in the eighth year, the bottom fell out. Gas prices have fallen well below $3 a gallon now, but the $4 price from a couple months ago is still firmly etched in our memories. America has been kept safe from terrorists attacks since 2001, but the public mood doesn't give him credit for that.

A lame duck President gets all the blame and little praise. His days in office are numbered, and he seems content to let historians, not newspaper editors, write his contribution to this nation's welfare.

But after all this Bush-bashing, it's tempting to invite him and Laura over for supper. Somebody needs to be nice to them.

Fans Should Show Positive Support For Athletes

To the editor:

We, as a family, hope all of the fans of Davie High School's football team will rally together to support our athletes as they play their next two games. Just as in seasons past, each player has worked extremely hard all year, and we know that with Davie County's support, the team can reach their goals and do their best.

Our support of these young men, as they work to develop as players, should not be influenced by personal opinions. We all want our team to win football games, but showing our players that their hard work and determination is valued by each of us is of the utmost importance to the morale and success of the team.

Please join us in a common goal cheering, clapping, and supporting the team this Friday night against North Forsyth.

Democratic Presidential Candidate 'Dangerous'

To the editor:

Wake up America. The Democratic candidate for president of the United States is dangerous.

For example: just what is so damning about Obama's relationship with the terrorist William Ayers that he would threaten the free speech of others to prevent it from airing?

In the past 77 years the United States has had more than a dozen recessions, about one every six years. Economic cycles are necessary to purge excesses, this time in leverage and housing. This period will pass, providing investment opportunities for those with longer term discipline. However, of the 350 plus lawmakers who received money from Freddie and Fannie, Sen. Chris Dodd received the most; second was Sen. Obama.

Obama has said: "Just because you have the right to free speech does not mean that the government can't constrain the exercise of that right." Just because you have the right to freely exercise religion does not mean that the government can't constrain the exercise of that right. Just because you have the right to defend yourself and your home with a gun does not mean that the government can't constrain the exercise of that right.

Obama voted four times in favor of criminal charges against homeowners who defend their person and home with a gun. With the help of a very liberal Congress, the American people stand to be stripped of their very basic rights.

Remember - the German people did not believe Hitler could and would do what he did.

Businesses Help MES Program

To the editor:

Mocksville Elementary School held its annual Title I parent meeting Thursday, Oct. 16. Parents were able to obtain information about the programs we offer our students. It was a huge success thanks to Priscilla Diggins and the MES cafeteria staff for preparing a delicious meal. Parents were given information about ways they can help their child (children) at home be successful in school. I would like to send a special thank you to the local businesses for donating door prizes.

Writer Supports Philpott

To the editor:

I would like to encourage the residents of Davie County to join me in supporting Ben Philpott for Superior Court Judge. Ben is running for an open seat in District 22B which includes Davie and Davidson counties. Both candidates for this seat are from Davidson County.

Please consider the following facts about Ben Philpott:

- 1) He has been a member of the N.C. State Bar for 30 years.
- 2) As a practicing attorney, he has experience in criminal law (including capital cases), civil litigation, residential and commercial real estate, and general law.

- 3) Ben Philpott holds undergraduate and graduate degrees from Washington and Lee University, where he attended law school. He believes in the honor code and the values that represents.

- 4) Ben's wife Deirdre has been a schoolteacher for 29 years.

- 5) Ben is former president of the Lexington Educational Foundation, and has raised private money to support public schools.
- 6) Ben's wife Deirdre, and son Harry attend Grace Episcopal Church, where Ben has served as a Sunday School teacher, a youth leader, and vestryman on the council.

- 7) Ben Philpott has innovative ideas about standardizing the latest scientific evidence within legal rules of evidence (such as the now-accepted DNA analysis). A state commission's standardization of new scientific techniques could greatly facilitate law enforcement's gathering admissible evidence in court.

As a Superior Court Judge, Ben Philpott would extend fairness to every person who comes into his courtroom. He believes in hearing all sides of a matter before making decisions that affect peoples' lives. Please join me in voting for Benjamin G. Philpott for Superior Court Judge in District 22B.

Burnette Best NC Senate Choice

To the editor:

Over the past six weeks we at Parrish Consulting have had the honor and privilege to work with Bill Burnette and his daughters (Sally McGuire and Jane Daniel) on getting Bill elected as our next NC State Senator. For those of you that know about Parrish Consulting, you know that we work with organizations or people that we truly believe in ... if we aren't passionate about the cause we can't help market, raise money or create change. Well, we feel very strongly about our cause in this campaign.

Bill is not your traditional politician - or at least not what I have envisioned. Besides having all the qualities I believe is needed in a person to represent people in Davie and Rowan County he is also compassionate. Last week I lost my fourth oldest brother unexpectedly to a massive heart attack - the pain is at times unbearable. Well, so many friends have sent their condolences and they have been wonderful; however, Bill's email to me about losing a loved one reached so deep. He shared his experience in losing his wife in 1989 - the words were powerful, emotional and helpful. He helped me understand what to expect regarding emotions for not only today or tomorrow, but over the years. His email only solidified for me that this is the person we need in the Senate. He understands and he will make a difference for all of us.

He truly cares.

Obama Wants To Spread Your Wealth Around, Not His

To the editor:

I have to write about what Pamela Dugan wrote on John McCain in the editorial section of the Enterprise on the week of the 23rd. I hope you noticed - I have to, not I want to.

If a citizen wants to vote for an individual, then vote; that is your American freedom, but if a citizen wants to write about a candidate, then please give all the facts and not fiction.

Here are the facts: John McCain was cleared of acting improperly in the Keating Savings and Loan Scandal. Yes, he did show poor judgment but he did nothing wrong. He went on to be re-elected to the Senate and so did John Glenn, the other Senator who was cleared of wrongdoing. John McCain learned that some people cannot be trusted by this experience. Oh, and I didn't mention that this happened in 1989.

Now about Palin's abuse of power in letting her husband exercise governmental powers in a family squabble. She did not let her husband do anything. If I was her husband I would have done more. The state trooper in question threatened her family, used a taser on his stepson, illegally shot a moose and was drunk on duty. He needed to be fired. Todd Palin wanted him to be fired. According to an independent counsel, there was no abuse of power. The democrats in Alaska are the ones that are making much of this issue and only since Sarah Palin was asked to be John McCain's VP.

Also, McCain will not tax part of your health insurance. Right now, on most company health plans, the premium is split so that the employer pays part and the employee pays part. The part that the employer pays is considered compensation and workers would owe taxes on it, if there wasn't a tax exemption under federal law. In McCain's plan there is tax credit, so if you choose to stay with the employer group plan, the tax credit would be used there, or if you choose an individual plan, then the tax credit would be used there. The employee will have a choice under McCain's plan. They can use their employer's plan and use the tax credit to offset the new tax on the benefit, or they might go off and buy insurance on their own. I help people own health insurance, so I know the cost. Employee group plans are usually higher in premium than individual plans because a person's health is not considered. They have to enroll employees regardless of health. If someone is in fairly good health, then the individual plan can be less expensive.

McCain's plan gives a choice to the American people. Obama's plan does not. Obama's plan has federal government controlling your health care. Maybe the government can do a better job than they have on medicare or on social security, but I doubt it.

Concerning the statement about John McCain wanting Social Security to be privatized and being ripped off by Wall Street bankers, Ms. Dugan asks a question, "Will you have enough money left for retirement? That's a good question. The last census shows that there are 38 million baby boomers. The baby boomers are starting to retire. When all 38 million are retired, then, let's say, all 38 million get $1,000 a month in social security. That adds up to $38 billion a month of social security being paid. Talk about the Iraq war being expensive at $10 billion a month. I would rather be in control of my own retirement rather than big government. Let the American people control their own money. We know how Washington controls the taxpayer's money. If any business was run like the US Government, that business would fail.

The last statement about what frightens Pamela Dugan most is that John McCain cannot use the internet and terrorists can use the internet. On Sept 11, did the terrorists fly two computers in the world's trade center? No, it was two planes. Does Barack Obama know how to use an airplane? No he doesn't, but John McCain does. He was a pilot in the US Navy. Does that make John McCain a better choice for president? Of course not. That was a pun, of course. Who cares if the president knows how to use the internet or not. Will Barack Obama look for terrorists on the internet? That's a job for Homeland Security and the FBI. John McCain does not like to type because of his war injuries. He was tortured by communists while at the same time Barack Obama was being taught by communists. Frank Davis is the communist leader in Hawaii and he was a mentor of Obama.

Whoever wants to vote for Barack Obama, then have at it, but make sure you have the facts straight about John McCain and about Barack Obama.

Please research Barack Obama's relationship with Jeremiah Wright, Louis Farrakhan, ACORN, William Ayers, Khalid al-Mansour, Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac.

Please look at Obama's tax records for his charitable contributions.

In 2000 he gave 1%; 2001, 5%; 2002, 4%; 2003, 1.4%; 2004, 1.2%; 2005, 4.7%; 2006, 6.1%. Most of what he gave went to his church. So during all the time he was trying to help the community as an organizer and then later, as Senator, he didn't give that much. He sure doesn't want to spread his wealth around. He wants to spread your wealth around. Look at his tax records.

John McCain cannot look them up on the internet, but he has someone who can.

Jeff Blalock, Mocksville

Hauser's Theory Wrong

To the editor:

This letter is to debate the theory that Dr. Hauser submitted in last week's paper about Julia Howard and Andrew Brock taking stands against the second high school bond vote. Just because one doesn't come out in favor of an issue doesn't mean they are against it. State Rep. Howard and State Sen. Brock represent all of Davie County, and I am quite sure that neither of them would choose a side during this debate.

One thing I can say about them for certain, they are true conservatives and have been good stewards of our tax dollars.

Sign Stolen, Another Goes Up

To the editor:

As a recently graduated college student, Mocksville has once again become my home. While I attended college, Mocksville was often my place of rescue from the stress of college life. But my once beloved town has disappointed me. Recently someone stole an Obama/Biden support sign from my yard. Though I am not the only person this has happened to, this type of vandalism is never OK, no matter whom you support.

To the person who stole my sign: Stealing my sign and silencing my political support is un-American, ignorant, trashy, distasteful and an act of trespassing. This country is based on the idea that we have certain freedoms we are entitled to. And my freedom of speech is one of them. So before you go against my freedoms, think of the popular slogan "Country First." You had no right to step in my yard. You had no right to take something just because you don't agree. Whomever you support in this presidential election, you are doing a great disservice to your candidate. Your kind of ignorance and disregard for other people of opposing political views is what's drawing thousands of undecided voters to my candidate. It must bother you that your candidate is slipping in the polls, so like him, you flounder around and look for ways to stop it. Well, stealing my sign was not the answer. You will not stop me from expressing myself. For every sign you take down, I will put another up. I believe in change and as an American I always fight for what I believe in.

County Unified For New Hospital

To the editor:

If there is one issue that Davie County residents are unified on, it is the need to replace our current hospital. Three times now, our citizens have expressed overwhelming support for a new hospital in Davie County.

For Novant to imply that we were misled is irresponsible and just one more example of Novant's trying to deflect attention off the real issue - their keeping us from having a new hospital in Davie County.

The board of commissioners is aware that the current hospital can not continue for the long term. The building is 52 years old and is not suited for the needs of today's patients and physicians. The services offered are quite limited, so most county residents must travel outside the county for hospital care. We also have difficulty recruiting physicians. In addition, the location of the hospital is not accessible to a majority of county residents.

So, we on the board fully understood that if Davie County Hospital were not successful in obtaining a certificate of need for a replacement hospital, it was only a matter of time before the current hospital could have to close. The communications from Davie County Hospital/Baptist Hospital were accurate.

It also is accurate to say that Novant jeopardized a replacement for Davie County Hospital. After what Novant did to Davie County Hospital during its time in control, it is difficult to understand why Novant would continue to block Davie County from having a modern hospital. I can assume only it is all about market share.

The board of commissioners also supports the location of the hospital in the eastern end of the county. The location is convenient to the majority of the county's population and is in the fastest-growing area. The site on NC 801 just off I-40 and near US 158 is easy to reach for our residents.

The board is delighted the state has granted conditional approval for a new hospital in Davie County. We would be planning the groundbreaking now if it were not for Novant's appeal.

The board appreciates the support of county residents. It may take more time, but we will get a new hospital in Davie County.

Candidate's Ties To Radicals Sends Up Flags

To the editor:

Again, in just a few short days, we Americans will get to vote for a new president and candidates for other offices. This will be my ninth presidential election I've voted in and I want to share my lessons in voting and my fears in this election.

I have been registered Democrat, then Republican, and now for 10 years Independent. One advantage to that is less phone calls and junk mail. Some may say I straddle a fence, and I'm sure some hope it's an electrical fence. I no longer listen to the rhetoric and campaign promises. I don't care what the polls said. Over the years I've learned to look at the candidates' character, history/experience, and voting record and see for myself if I like that person.

I am a small business owner, now for the second year and an employee of a nationwide company where my salary has been recently frozen. Now I look to my small business to generate additional income. I have hope and confidence that some day my

Theft Of Obama Sign Leaves Resident With Violated Feeling

To the editor:

Apparently, the people stealing political yard signs do not read the editorial page of the Enterprise.

Yesterday, between 9:45 and 12:45, someone went on my driveway to selectively remove my Obama sign. They left the other Democratic signs. I feel violated that a person waited until no one was at home to do their low-life deed. I heard on the radio that this is happening all over the state and that it is considered a misdemeanor.

That same day, a person came by who lives down the street and let me know that he had a sign taken on Sunday. He was on the porch and was able to get the license number/make of the car. He asked me if I was going to get another sign and I said I didn't know. He told me he wouldn't suggest it, since it could be a warning. He said tires have been slashed at rallies and signs have disappeared from up at the main library.

Even though I reported this to the sheriff's department, nothing will happen. I want it on record that someone was on my property. If we can't get along with all of our signs being allowed to be displayed, then maybe no one should be putting up signs.

The editor should have a column on this subject.

Help Broughton Residents

To the editor:

As this Christmas season approaches, apprehension about the economy may make you wonder if you can make Christmas what it has been in the past. Not one of us knows what the future holds and by the time you read this, big changes will already be in the works for new leadership of our country. All we can do is play the waiting game.

While you are waiting, I'm hoping you will still decide to join hundreds of others who will attempt to squeeze out a few budgeted dollars for gifts to our Operation Santa project for the Broughton Hospital indigent patients. You might ask, "What good will my small gift do?" Just remember that yours added with, hopefully hundreds of others (even though small) will enrich and make happier many patients' Christmas. You can transform hopelessness to hope. There are emotional and spiritual hungers not filled by our state-supported bed and food programs. We realize life can easily crowd out the joy with which you have greeted Christmas past. Dr. Norman Vincent Peale said, "Joy increases as you give it, and diminishes as you try to keep it for yourself."

The Liberty United Methodist will leave from the First United Methodist parking lot at 8:30 on Dec. 10 to deliver gifts and volunteers to sort and wrap these. If interested in devoting a day of service or have questions concerning types of gifts needed, call 998-3140 or 284-4330 or any local United Methodist women's unit. Thanks in advance for your generous response.

This could very well be the most important election in our history and think of the future of our children and grandchildren. Consider the national debt that will be around for a long time.

Think of the rights that you could lose under socialism if he sways our Congress and Senate. I have a friend who is prouder than I to be an American. He is Kurdish, Iraqi and has shared with me the atrocities that he lived through. It is difficult for most of us to relate. Pick your candidates very carefully, he warns me.

When you vote, give a prayer of thanks for the veterans, or at least give a moment to remember. Don't forget the Revolutionary War veterans who gave our country its beginning. Without them, and those who followed, especially those who died, you would not be voting in a free election.

War Eagle Fans Should Show Some Sportsmanship

To the editor:

Football in Davie County has always been a pleasurable event on Friday nights in the fall. Fans, parents, friends, marching band and cheerleaders gather together to support the War Eagles.

Everyone is a wannabe coach. Second guessing the coaches and cheering go hand-in-hand at the football games. It is easy to sit in the stands and say "If the coach had run that time instead of passing, we would have had a first down" or "If we had thrown a down and instead of a down and out. We would have scored."

Coaches have the advantage over the fans. They know, from practicing every day, what players and plays will work in a given situation, but it is still the fans who sit back and critique the players and coaches.

If a play works, fans stand and cheer, but if a play does not work, fans voice their opinions on what the coach should have done.

At the heart of the matter is the fact that we want the team to win. The thing about winning is that we want to do it with pride and dignity. Here in Davie County, we have become accustomed to always having a winning football team each season.

This year our team started out very well, and big things were expected from them. Due to injuries, we have lost key players. Coaches must ultimately accept fault for losing, and players are given credit for winning. Actually, the winning or losing of a game is shared by players, coaches and fans. Fans are a big part of any sports event. Their encouragement and cheering go a long way to help a team to perform better, and sometimes to even perform above their abilities.

Davie fans have always been there to support their teams, but Friday night, Oct. 24 when the War Eagles played RJ Reynolds, the Eagles could not do anything right. Missed blocks, missed tackles and blown assignments. Everything that could go wrong did go wrong. Instead of fans encouraging the War Eagles, a lot of fans (though not all, myself included) started booing, cursing and engaging in name calling of the coaches and players. This was the first time in over 40 years I was ashamed to sit in the stands and call myself a War Eagle fan. There is no place at Davie for name calling and cursing coaches and players.

This Friday night Eagle fans, let's get together and support our War Eagles - not discourage them. Show people what real sportsmanship is like.

Barack Obama Would Do What Is Right For Americans

To the editor:

"Your grandma wears Army boots." That is what John McCain's campaign sounds like to me. Is it not patronizing to McCain supporters for John McCain and Sarah Palin to assume that they can win votes by acting like school children, making cracks, and spreading false rumors. This definitely reflects poorly on his and her character. Trickle down economics does not work. Deregulation of banks works like the fox tend the hen house. Please inform yourself, John McCain has continually pushed to deregulate banks. Have you written a check for health insurance lately, have you filled your tank or bought groceries, and how about taking a look at your 401K statement? I guess this just proves that when people close their minds they can be led right over a cliff cheering their leader all the way to the bottom.

Wake up, people. CEO salaries have gone through the roof while the little people can't even fill their gas tanks to get to their jobs that do not pay enough for them to provide for their families. Exxon Mobile's CEO retired with a $400,000,000 (yes, that is four hundred million dollars) retirement package plus bodyguards and a corporate jet for the rest of his life. Why do so many of you want to keep on spreading the wealth created by the working class to a few people at the top. Exxon Mobile has earned billions while the elderly choose between heat or food, this is terrorism. When Wall Street executives are allowed to implement schemes that make millions for their selves and their rich friends while bringing ruin to the retirements and quality of life for the rest of us, this is terrorism. When drug companies are pushing drugs like Vioxx while making millions, insurance companies allowed to run cost up the way they have; these are acts of terrorism.

George Bush and Dick Cheney have trampled all over the Constitution of the United States of America. Talk about socialism; we are starting to compete with the old Soviet Union when it comes to government interfering with our personal liberties. If enough people continue to bury their heads in the sand and continue to be fooled into thinking that McCain's policies like the 90% of Bush's policies he supported are good, then we may very well continue down this terrible abominable path of destroying our God given earth. Wake up, America, let's protect the Constitution and go to war with bankers on Wall Street executives, insurance companies, drug companies, and greedy oil companies. This is plain evil, making billions while millions of people cannot afford to take their children to the doctor or keep a roof over their head.

Ronald Reagan told us to spend our way to a better future and started deregulation of our banking system that led to the savings and loan catastrophe. George Bush and John McCain continued this deregulation; now we have the worst banking catastrophe since the great Depression, and just imagine how it would be if Elizabeth Dole, George Bush, John McCain and others had gotten their way and caused millions of people to put their social security into Wall Street. Jimmy Carter asked us to consume less, live within our means, save energy and develop clean energy, he even put solar panels on the White House. Ronald Reagan took the solar panels off the White House (they were unattractive). And what about Reagan's so called clean water act? This act made the life blood of the planet, our rivers and oceans more toxic, call it a clean water act but make the water dirtier, that was a horrible crime. WWJD? Can anyone of you actually believe that Jesus Christ would support policies that would pollute the air we breathe or the water we drink. I grew up fishing and hunting and always have eaten what I harvested, when I read my North Carolina fishing and hunting rule book and I am reminded of how polluted our water is it makes my blood boil. It is unbearable to know that those in power have made through their irresponsible policies the water so poisonous that we are warned not to eat much of our wildlife. There have been and will be more, you can be assured, precious little children born with health defects due to these policies. I have no doubt that folks in the future will wonder how people could ever have been so ignorant. Wake up, America, stop being deceived, we are supposed to be good stewards, we are supposed to care about our neighbors and their children.

Barack Obama warned us before the war in Iraq started that it was the wrong thing to do. We have lost over 4,000 of our own in the Iraq war which we went into based on blatant lies. We were all lied to, the terrorist acts on 9/11 had nothing to do with Iraq. This is also wrong, so much death and suffering. So many people were ready to go to war, "light up their world like the 4th of July." Now can we all open our eyes and admit that this was not the correct action. Yes, there are bad guys in Baghdad, but is it not obvious by now that we just do not have an extra trillion dollars to police Iraq? Truth is the majority of death and destruction caused by this abominable act of war has happened either to our armed forces or innocent people, people who had nothing to do with the attacks on 9/11. We now have millions more who truly believe we are evil. Would we not have more hate and think that they must all be evil if we had seen war on our soil since 2001 witnessed thousands of people killed and thousands more crippled or severely wounded. Some of you know of someone who has been killed or injured by the war in Iraq. Over there I'm sure everyone knows someone personally or has their self either lost their home, their job, their loved ones, or their life. Let's support our troops by making sure they are never put in harm's way based on false information again.

Society cannot be sustainable when people are not able to provide for their selves and their families. By allowing the wealth in this country to be siphoned up to the top, more families fall through the cracks and more crime, more broken homes, more teenage pregnancies and most tragically more abortions are the result. Come on people, WWJD? Help those that make a quarter of a million dollars a year, have seven houses, or would he ask them to help shore up the society that gave them such great opportunity. Only those making $250,000 or more a year will have increased taxes under an Obama administration. People who can afford to most bear the cost that is required for a society to function, who else can? Luke: 19 vs. 25.

Please ask yourself, WWJD? We as a nation have a chance to change the course of history, we can turn the tide of recklessly squandering and polluting this wonderful earth that has been entrusted to us by our Creator. If you open your eyes and your heart you will be able to see that by being good stewards we can fix all of these problems. Are we not instructed by the Bible to be good stewards? We now have the technology to supply all of our energy needs with clean energy from heaven - solar, wind and biofuels. With in heaven's name would we continue to suppress these technologies and push for more fossil fuel use? Everyone surely know by now that we are destroying the environment. Shouldn't a civilized society - nation where the majority of people claim to believe in Christ be striving to create a fair trade economy, one in which even the most physically, mentally and economically disadvantaged people could work and earn a living wage. Wake up. Meaningful employment for millions can be created by the development of clean energy. The sun can provide for us all the energy we need; we have the technology. If you would do one thing that would help make sure that your grandchildren could have clean energy, health care for their families and a fair trade economy that will allow them to support their selves, would you not do it? This election is your chance. WWJD? Drill, baby drill and further destroy the earth or focus on clean energy.

No one man can change the world by himself; but if enough caring, loving Americans can be awakened to the lies they have been told and started asking themselves WWJD, then maybe America can once again be a world leader for good. We need a president who truly asks what is right and what is wrong before he acts. Vote for Barack Obama.

Fan Behavior Shocking

To the editor:

For the fans who were at the Davie-RJR football game Friday night, we were very shocked, upset and disappointed at how some Davie fans were shouting negative comments towards the coaches and players. This is uncalled for and very disrespectful towards a team that puts in many hours of hard work and dedication. Regardless of how the season is going, Davie County football needs people supporting the team and coaches, and the fans not being so rude and obnoxious.

To the Davie football team, keep your heads up and play the remainder of the season like champions.

Will and Deitre Junker, Mocksville

Football Fans Should Keep Their Comments Positive

To the editor:

Over the last 11 seasons, no one can question that Davie High School has had one of the best football programs in the state. We have had as big a fan base than anybody in the state. I've been very fortunate to be on the sidelines for the entire time that we've had this run.

But on Friday night when we played Reynolds High School, I've never been more embarrassed of our fans. For the first time in over 13 years, we find ourselves in the midst of a three-game losing streak. We've got coaches and players busting their butts trying to stop the losing and get back to winning. And what do our fans do? They start yelling from up in the stands at coaches to take players out and put in other kids. When Coach Illing and his staff go here, Davie County wasn't even mentioned in any conversation when talking about conference and state championships. For a coaching staff that takes as much pride in preparing their kids for game day, for helping kids get college scholarship, we have more kids go on to college and play and get a college education because of Coach Illing and his staff in 11 years than in anytime in this school's history. The last thing we need is parents, fans and spectators pointing fingers and making negative comments. This is not the way to show or teach these kids how to overcome adversity. Eleven years ago, this community was so hungry for a winning football program, then we started having the success that everyone wanted and everybody jumped on the bandwagon. Now we've come to a bump in the road and everyone seems to be jumping off. Now more than ever we need to support these kids and this coaching staff in a positive way, not by being negative. Let the players play and the coaches coach, and we'll turn this season around. For the people in the stands yelling and screaming for kids to be taken out or for telling coaches what to do, either be positive or stay at home. We don't need the negative comments.

Hundreds At Trinity 'Vote For Jesus'

To the editor:

Our fall "Big Day" at Trinity Baptist was a wonderful success this past Sunday. The theme was "You Decide 2008 - Vote for Jesus." As many of you know, we had hundreds out visiting the week prior to our Big Day. Jesus blessed our efforts on his behalf with over 1,400 in Sunday School, of these were 170 folks in the Spanish service. Hundreds and hundreds chose to "Vote for Jesus" by accepting him as their personal Savior, and over 50 following the Lord in baptism. The service was followed by food, fun and games for everyone and some great gospel bluegrass provided by Broke 'n Lonesome.

Trinity Baptist has been truly blessed these past 24 years under the leadership of Pastor Darrell Cox, with folks being saved and baptized every single Sunday, and many, many Sunday night and Wednesday night services.

For those who have made some bad life choices as I have myself, I would like to encourage you to come to our Reformers Unanimous program, one of the fastest growing faith-based addictions and discipleship programs in America. We meet every Friday night at 7 in the red brick building on US 601 South, just past NC 801.

Obama Supporters Optimistic Despite Theft Of Yard Signs

To the editor:

The number is increasingly rising each week in Davie County as the Obama/Biden supporters are seeing their signs disappear from their yards. When we had awakened last Saturday, surprisingly, and yet no so surprising, to see that our Obama/Biden sign had been stolen. Of course, there was that initial anger of how someone is adventurous enough to walk onto another's property and take away one's right to support a presidential candidate.

However, support is something that cannot be taken away by merely stealing a sign. I am the type of person that remains optimistic through adversity, and for the Obama/Biden supporters, let me share with you reasons why you also should remain optimistic. The Obama campaign has been successful. The campaign has broken many fundraising records since January. Although a Democratic presidential candidate has not won North Carolina in 31 years, the most recent polls show Obama/Biden is leading North Carolina 2-1. Our young adults are registering and have already come out in record numbers to vote because they, too, want their voices heard.

Yes, we are to remain optimistic. Why? Because, our support is much stronger than some paper/plastic wrapped around a piece of metal. I applaud all of you, both the Democrats and Republican volunteers who work so diligently to provide supporters with these signs. Yes, Obama/Biden supporters, we will get more signs which in turn will increase that fundraising support even higher. Yes, others will try and may successfully steal those signs, too, which in turn will cause Obama/Biden supporters to continue encouraging others that our country desperately needs a change. For many citizens of this county, this is a black/white issue. However, for the majority, this is an issue of recognizing the terrible shape that our economy is in. To everyone, Democrats, Republicans and Independent voters, I encourage you all to go out and vote regardless of your political preference.

However, regardless of the outcome at the polls on Nov. 4, I want to encourage us all to seriously meditate on the advice the Psalmist recorded in Psalm 121:1&2: "I will lift mine eyes unto the hills, from which cometh my help. My help comes from the Lord which made Heaven and earth." Now, that's a sign no one can steal. To all of you who have stolen and may continue to steal Obama/Biden signs, and to all of you that continue to encourage and applaud their actions, may God bless you, and may He reward you all accordingly.

In The Mail ...

Writer Wrong About McCain

To the editor:

Here we are at another presidential election and I wanted to try and clear up some items I believe are being misunderstood.

Last week in one of the "In the Mail" editorials is that McCain can't use the Internet. If you had been in the Hanoi Hilton for the same five and a half years he was there, you would not be able to use a computer and mouse to access the Internet. He cannot lift his arms above his head. Barely can hold a microphone. The torture he and the other 500 plus prisoners that were there left them all in the same physical shape. So do not use this excuse. He has staff to handle a lot of the computer work for him.

Sen. Obama proposed using tax credits for several items if he is elected. Tax credits are only equal to the individual rate a person uses when filing their taxes. A $1,000 tax credit is $150 at 15%, $280 at 28%, $350 at 35% rates.

Joe Wurzelbacher alias "Joe the plumber" asked a simple question of Obama on why he wants to tax people who make over $250,000. Obama to "Joe the plumber": "My plan is to spread the wealth around." This is socialism. Look at Russia and other communist countries and see what it did for them. Corporations do hire people but small companies hire most of the people to work for them. Corporations pass the higher taxes on the consumer and there goes your tax credits or rebates. The tax plan would cause companies from adding more people and could cause layoffs.

Under President Bush, I went from paying to the U.S. Government to getting money back from the U.S. Government, when the tax rates were cut. McCain wants to make the tax cuts permanent. They are to expire at the end of 2010. Tax cuts helped stimulate the economy.

Recently, both presidential candidates were briefed at the White House, normally done each time for a new election of a new president. Usually, these I believe are classified briefings.

Sen. Biden said the new president would be tested by a large terrorist act within the first six months. I believe that Sen. Biden may have committed a security violation. If this information came from the briefing, he should have kept his mouth shut.

Sen. Biden was upset when a Florida TV news anchor asked some hard questions and he did not like the questions. The Obama organization banned them from any more interviews.

The U.S. Government needs to get out of running Social Security. The U.S. Government issues IOUs for what is left each month after paying what is needed to pay Social Security recipients each month.

We need to drill for oil now, even though it may be 5-10 years before it hits the pipeline. Drilling helps us by using our own resources. Right now, Sen. Ted Kennedy is writing a new health bill to provide universal coverage. The U.S. Government does not need to get into providing universal health coverage.

The U.S. Constitution says that the government provides for the common defense, promotes the general welfare. This means a standing military and not providing everyone handouts. Under the 10th Amendment, most of what government does belongs to the states.

So get out and vote and think about for whom you are voting for.

Richard C. Davis, Mocksville

Vote For McCain-Palin Ticket

To the editor:

I am writing today to give my reasons for supporting the McCain/Palin ticket for president. First of all, when it comes to experience, there is no comparison between McCain and Obama. McCain is one of the most qualified men to ever seek the office of president of the United States, which is vitally important given the level of threats this nation is facing. In comparison, Obama is a first term senator, with virtually no foreign policy experience. Even his running mate Joe Biden told his audience that if Obama wins, our enemies will test us: He also stated that Obama's reaction will not be popular, but was urging supporters to continue to stay with him. That is a scary thought, when the candidate himself tells us if you elect us, there will be trouble. It would make much more sense to avoid those tests altogether by supporting a proven leader, John McCain.

Next is the issue of the economy. John McCain has promised to keep the Bush tax cuts in effect. On the other hands, Obama plans to let them expire. That will not only affect those making more than $250,000, but those making less than $50,000 per year. With regard to a family of four making $48,000 per year, you could see a tax increase of $2,000 to $3,000 annually. That amounts to a pay cut of almost $60 per week. Most Americans feel they deserve a pay increase, yet those supporting Obama are voting themselves a pay cut. What could you do with that extra $60 per week? Pay for gas, food, medicine, clothes? Obama wants to take your money and spend it around, and if you vote for him, that is exactly what will happen.

When it comes to energy, McCain is much better. He has an across the board approach that includes drilling, nuclear power, coal, solar and wind. Obama on the other hands would like to keep us from being able to drill for our own oil, and would make the requirements so tough, expanding our nuclear power plants would be impossible. His running mate told his audience that there would be no new coal powered plants built if his ticket is elected. Obama denied that, but who is telling the truth?

There is probably no better team than McCain and Palin to lead this nation at this time. With McCain you have a man with the experience and knowledge of foreign affairs to protect this nation from foreign threats. With Palin, we have only the candidate with executive experience, having served as a mayor and a governor. As such, she is used to dealing with budgets, and would be a major asset when it comes to the economy. Neither Obama nor Biden have ever had to make the kind of decisions Palin has. As senators they simply had to vote "yea" or "nay" on various bills that came up, and in Obama's case, when it was too tough to make a decision, he simply voted "present." He did this more than 100 times. The president doesn't have that luxury.

While it might be tempting to some to roll the dice with regard to our nation's security and hope that Obama will do a good job with regard to the economy, though there is no evidence there is anything in his background that would make him an expert on handling a budget crisis, I am going with the experienced, steady leadership we need, John McCain.

McCain-Palin

WHY WE SHOULD ELECT THEM

They can and will keep our country safe. Can or will Obama keep us safe? If you have listened to him carefully, I must believe you have much doubt in your mind. Obama's own VP candidate says, if elected Obama will be tested in six months or less. They want to see what he is made of and that is scary to me because I believe we will find him to be soft. They know what John McCain is made of. He has been tested and he passed the test EVERY time. He has stood up and fought to do the right thing to keep this country safe time and time again - not only with liberal democrats, but many times with some in his own party. John McCain and Sarah Palin do now and will continue to put God and Country FIRST. Politics in their administration will have to take second place because their country will be first. Personally, I think that is a good idea, but you have your opinion.

Who is Sarah Palin? She is the Governor of Alaska which by the way is not a tiny state. She is a very smart lady who has and will continue to work hard to get the right things done. She too has stood up in the past and will continue in the future to stand up to her own party as well as the other party to clean up corruption that costs the taxpayer much extra money. In fact, she sent much of the money back to the tax payers of Alaska. Now some will say she doesn't have enough experience. If John McCain thinks she does, that is good enough for me. But then there is also the fact that she does have much more executive experience than Barack Obama, and he is running at the top of the ticket. Go figure!

Who is Joe Biden? He is the man who said it so correctly only a few months back, that in No Way does Obama have the experience needed to be President of the USA!

What about the Personal Character of these Candidates? John McCain has served his country all of his life, stayed in a prisoner of war camp for approximately 5 years, was tortured and had most of his bones broken, but continued to love and serve his country. I don't know about you, but I think he is an American Hero. He most definitely has the EXPERIENCE, the COURAGE, the ABILITY and the RIGHT DESIRES to be our president.

Barack Obama started his political career in the home of a known terrorist who had bombed federal buildings and police stations, etc. all here in the USA. This terrorist said on 9/11 that he sure wished he had done more. There is much more that could be said about Obama's shady real estate deals, his support and work for ACORN, but I believe that is enough for most anyone to make a decision about the personal character of the two candidates, don't you?

In these tough times - yes, in this recession, which one would be best for us?

Let me say, I know Bush gets all the blame for this recession. But he should not because there is plenty of blame to go around. When President Bush took office in 2001, the roaring nineties were already gone and he DID most definitely inherit a recession. He went right to work on it. He lowered taxes, lowered interest rates and kept the unemployment rate at all time lows. Around 2003, JOHN MCCAIN warned about what was going to happen with Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac. At this time the liberals laughed at his warnings and said Fannie & Freddie were just great. We now see that they weren't and I believe we can easily see why these liberals wanted no change there. After all, they liked the sweetheart deals some of them were getting on their loans, and they also liked the money they were getting in their chest for the next campaign. Oh yes, you remember the 2006 election. That is when the liberal democrats said please elect us. Let's take the power away from Bush and these conservatives. We will make this country great again. We will lower gas prices and see that there are more jobs for our people. Boy, that was a joke! Yes, the American people listened to them. They were elected, the conservatives were out of power, President Bush's hands were pretty well tied. So I ask you to take a good look at what these liberals have done for or to this nation in only two short years. Be truthful with yourself. It's not hard at all to see. It's not hard to feel and it doesn't feel so great!

So please think for a minute what a President Obama along with Nancy Pelosi and Harry Reid as the leaders and Barney Frank, Chris Dodd and Charlie Rangel as chair heads could do TO this country in four years. That is not hard to figure out either, and they are there waiting on Obama. We all know Obama in his short time in the Senate has voted four times to raise tax on anyone making $42,000.00 or more per year. We also know that Obama has received nearly one million dollars per day in earmarks for every day he has been in the Senate. What would make you think he has had a change of heart? He hasn't. He is the most liberal tax and spend senator we have in the Senate today. He will be death on small businesses. Most everyone knows that small business is what has made this country. If a small business can, it will hire and employ people. But with the Obama plan money will not be left to do so. I know you say, "But it's so tough these days, we need a change." Yes, we do need a change, but we need a change in the right direction. We don't need the kind of change we will get from tax and spend liberals like Obama.

I also know some of you are saying to look at the mid nineties. They were great. Okay, I will give you that because they were good. But you need to remember a few things. #1 - In NO WAY was Bill Clinton as liberal as Obama. #2 - We elected a conservative republican congress and in some cases they actually worked together for the good of our country. My friends, Newt Gingrich and Trent Lott are not around today to work with and hold a President Obama's feet to the fire. As I say hold his feet to the fire, I don't really have much bad feeling toward President Clinton because I did agree with him on many of his policies. Not all of them by any means and I did not agree with him on most moral issues. But looking back and listening to Senator Obama, maybe Bill's morals weren't so bad after all. Now they both support abortion and I don't. I believe it is just murder and we have murdered approximately 40 million babies in this country. But you have a right to your own thoughts. That is up to you and your God. But here is one I believe even those of you that support abortion will agree with me on. If a baby is actually born after an attempted abortion, then I believe that living baby should receive care and protection. Don't you? Be truthful. I guess Senator Obama does not believe that because he actually voted 4 times in the Illinois senate to deny this care. He also wants to make partial birth abortion legal again. He has vowed to pass the Freedom of Choice Act (which would void all state restrictions on abortion) and include these "reproductive rights" as part of his nationalized healthcare plan - which would be paid for with YOUR tax dollars. So much for the moral issues. I really didn't intend to go there, but I just could not help myself. The Bible says there is a time to be silent and there is a time to speak out.

So now my friends, who do you really believe would be best for the United States as our President in these tough times? I believe it's a no-brainer. John McCain will NOT raise taxes. He WILL put a halt to earmarks. In most cases he will lower taxes. He will drill offshore and promote other types of energy to get us off our dependence on foreign oil. These are policies that will be good for America, put people back to work, and get us out of this recession that we all want out of. The liberal Obama plan of raising taxes and spending more will get us in a deeper recession. I must say again I just believe we all as Americans would be happy and proud to have such a man as John McCain as president. John McCain and Sarah Palin in some ways are like Harry Truman. They believe our country should try to solve world problems. Obama believes America IS the problem. John and Sarah don't!

I have just 2 more questions. #1 - Do you really believe that Senator Obama stayed in Rev. Wright's church for twenty years and did not know what the man really believed? Sorry Senator, I don't believe that. But if it is true you are much to slow a learner to be President of the United States. #2 - When the 3:00 am call came, both to the White House, who would you rather have take that call, John McCain or Barack Obama? Please friends, don't believe times can't get worse. They very well can and will if we get the wrong changes. If there has ever been a time in our country's history that we needed to elect God-fearing and financially responsible conservatives from the Court House to the White House, the time is NOW!

Former PTA President Pleads Guilty To Fraud

By Jackie Seabolt
Enterprise Record

A former officer with a local PTA pleaded guilty to one count of fraud in Davie Superior Court on Monday.

Kim Berryhill, 41, of Greenhill Road, Mocksville, was indicted in January on embezzlement charges, aiding and abetting forgery, and accessory after the fact to a felony.

Berryhill, and her husband Wayne, were accused of embezzling thousands of dollars from the Mocksville Elementary School PTA while Berryhill was co-president and treasurer.

Investigation began in June, 2007 by the Mocksville Police Department after District Attorney Garry Frank gave law officers information from other PTA board members who suspected something was wrong.

On Oct. 27 Judge W. Erwin Spainhour sentenced Berryhill to 4-5 months in prison, suspended 12 months on supervised probation.

She was ordered to give a DNA sample, pay court costs, and her attorney fees of $1325.

Berryhill was also ordered to pay restitution of $5419.16 to the Mocksville Elementary School PTA by 5 p.m. on Monday.

Four other felony charges against Berryhill were dismissed.

he said, "then they need a law enforcement officer there to witness it in case they do get stopped. But that shouldn't be a problem, because there will be an officer there investigating it anyway."

In the case of a motorist who wants the deer on the meat or for its rack, or antlers, Richard Howell, a licensed taxidermist in Harmony, gives tips on preserving the animal for processing.

"If you want the deer for a shoulder mount, skin it, but take good care of the cape, or hide. Don't cut any holes in it. Then wrap the hide around the head to protect it, and you can either take it to a taxidermist right then, or you can wrap it in a couple of three heavy-duty trash bags and put it in the freezer. It can keep for several months like that."

If keeping the deer for the meat, Howell said time is important. "Get the meat to a processor as fast as possible, or, if the temperatures are in the low to mid 30s, it can hang overnight in a building, but the faster it can be gotten to a processor, the better," he said.

Dirks joined the County in 2005 as Assistant County Manager

Fall a Great Time to Soil Test

Just as people need a good nutritious diet, so do your plants. Plants get most of their food from the soil. Fortunately, there is a very inexpensive way to give your soil a check up. It's called a soil test and you only need to do it every two to three years.

The NC Cooperative Extension Davie County Center has soil testing kits and can teach you how to use them. The really good news is in North Carolina there is no charge for the service. Your only cost is the cost of shipping the samples to the lab in Raleigh.

Once the report comes back, Extension Agents at the Davie Extension Center can help interpret the results. They also have publications and other information to help you grow all types of plants from fruits and vegetables to trees and shrubs to lawn grasses and flowers to commercial farm crops.

The normal turn around time for soil samples is about two weeks. However, that time starts to increase in November. Get your samples in as soon as possible to avoid delays and to have your results back in time for next spring.

The NC Cooperative Extension Davie County Center is located at 180 S. Main Street, Mocksville. Hours are 8 - 5, Monday - Friday.

"The first year Terry was with the county, he saved taxpayers hundreds of thousands of dollars," said Jim Stockert, Deputy County Manager. "He started by privatizing the solid waste and recycling programs. He also removed the Public Works Director position, and ended the agreement the health department had to pay for a private medical practice. Those changes made a big difference in our budget for that year and years into the future."

While Bralley was County Manager, the county took on some big expansion projects as well: the new senior center building and Ellis Middle School were built, new Horizons old building was sold and a new facility was built, the old Four Oaks Furniture building was purchased and turned into the Social Services Annex, and EMS Station #3 was built, just to name a few.

He was also instrumental in bringing several industries into the County, which is much of what he'll be doing in his new role. While County Manager, Bralley brought five additional industries into the Southpoint Business Park, as well as Super Wal-Mart, Nature's Pearl, Lowe's Home Improvement and Peebles, increasing the county's tax base.

"I believe Terry was the best county manager in North Carolina," said Beth Dirks, new County Manager. "I watched him when he was at the Town of Mocksville, and I know that's what I wanted to do. He gave me my first full time job in public service, and I've loved it ever since. It's a privilege and an honor to work for Terry not once, but twice. It's an opportunity not many people have, to learn municipal government from the best and then turn around and learn county government from the best."

Dirks Takes The Lead

Two days into her new position as County Manager, saw Beth Dirks moving into her new office. She said, "I'm really excited about the possibilities with this job and being able to make a difference in the County. I'm ready to roll up my sleeves and get started."

Dirks joined the County in 2005 as Assistant County Manager

Participants will also be able to download and print activity logs, weight logs, and food diaries to help them track their progress. This year also features an ask the expert feature, where participants can write in to fitness and nutrition experts with their questions on how to maintain their healthy eating and physical activity routine during the busy holiday season.

For more information, please contact Jami Lawhon with NC Cooperative Extension at 753-6100.

Fall a Great Time to Soil Test

Just as people need a good nutritious diet, so do your plants. Plants get most of their food from the soil. Fortunately, there is a very inexpensive way to give your soil a check up. It's called a soil test and you only need to do it every two to three years.

The NC Cooperative Extension Davie County Center has soil testing kits and can teach you how to use them. The really good news is in North Carolina there is no charge for the service. Your only cost is the cost of shipping the samples to the lab in Raleigh.

Once the report comes back, Extension Agents at the Davie Extension Center can help interpret the results. They also have publications and other information to help you grow all types of plants from fruits and vegetables to trees and shrubs to lawn grasses and flowers to commercial farm crops.

The normal turn around time for soil samples is about two weeks. However, that time starts to increase in November. Get your samples in as soon as possible to avoid delays and to have your results back in time for next spring.

The NC Cooperative Extension Davie County Center is located at 180 S. Main Street, Mocksville. Hours are 8 - 5, Monday - Friday.

DAVIE COUNTY COMMISSIONER

On November 4th Vote FOR A PROVEN CONSERVATIVE

My Record

As County Commissioner 2000-2004

- After reevaluation we lowered the property tax rate from $5.63 to $5.59 - Our goal was to work toward being revenue neutral - We did not take the property tax rate.
- Davie Hospital was closed. There was no 24 hour emergency room available. If you were sick in the night you had to leave the county. It is now improved. We have a 24 hour emergency room.
- The Cooleemee Waste Water Treatment Plant was under a Federal restraining order use was capped. We could not recruit industry that needed sewer. The Jockey plant and its jobs were in jeopardy. We resolved it.
- We increased school funding and increased teacher salaries. We passed a bond to renovate facilities.
- We had only 2 ambulance coves, so all both were in use, the county had no EMS available. An additional ambulance and crew were put in place for your safety.
- We increased badly needed funds to our volunteer fire departments.
- We completed construction of a new jail in federal mandate by converting the old state prison at a savings of millions of dollars in tax money.
- We recruited new industry which created jobs for our citizens.

My Goals

When Elected to Serve You Again

- We must lower property taxes and expand the Homestead Exemption (55 years old) and Disabled the exemption from $20,000 to $30,000. No income limit. SENIORS - $30,000 - 66/100 would SAVE SENIORS $198.00 on property taxes.
- I am a True Fiscal Conservative - this means working for BETTER NOT BIGGER government. We must get government spending under control.
- I support quality education for all Davie students - this means equal opportunity and equal facilities including our community college.
- I have served as a Davie Hospital Trustee for 7 years. I will continue to work to save our hospital!
- I will continue to work to upgrade our infrastructure - and employ "smart growth" programs.
- I will protect our rural heritage and character. My wife and I own small farm owners.
- I will continue to support our volunteer fire departments with water trucks and tow trucks you as a homeowner save on insurance.
- This economy demands economic development. This will expand our tax base, keep property taxes low and create jobs.
- We need a High School Trustee Force, representing all groups and views working together for a positive solution. We now have (4) options for developing our crowded high schools. 1) Reorganization of grades. 2) Freshman Academy. 3) Build a Second High School. 4) Build a "state of the art" New High School. All have merit and different costs.

I Stand On My Record...We Lowered Your Property Tax Rate After Revaluation. I Will Do The Same In The Future.

Two Arrested For Selling Cocaine

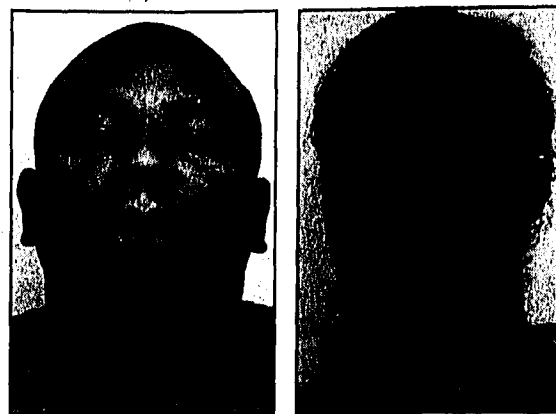

Two Mocksville residents were arrested last week after sheriff's and Mocksville police narcotics officers raided a home on Pine Street.

Terry "Lip" Smoot, 49, of Pine Street, and Christopher "Spooky" Alexander, 28, of Cheyenne Lane, were arrested inside Smoot's residence.

Smoot had two outstanding warrants on two counts each of possession with intent to sell and deliver cocaine, selling Schedule II controlled substance and felony possession of cocaine. Officers located drug paraphernalia in Smoot's bedroom which he was also charged with. Smoot is being held in the Davie County Detention Center in lieu of a $30,000 bond.

Alexander was found to be in possession of crack cocaine, as well as having one outstanding warrant in Davie County and two outstanding warrants in Yadkin County. Alexander was charged with possession with intent to sell and deliver cocaine and possession of Schedule II controlled substance. Alexander was served with the order for arrest for non-payment of child support out of Davie County and the two warrants from Yadkin County that contain narcotics charges. Alexander is being held in the Davie County Detention Center in lieu of $100,369.06 bond.

Mother, Son Charged With Cruelty To Animals

By Jackie Seabolt
 Enterprise Record

A mother and son have been charged with felony animal cruelty charges after authorities seized a goat from their home.

Linda Joan Robbins, 39, of Nolley Road, Mocksville, and Jeffrey Shannon Robbins, 20, of Daniel Road, Mocksville are each facing one count of felony cruelty to animals.

According to Davie Sheriff's Deputy R.G. Dewitt, who is the animal cruelty investigator, a call was received on Oct. 17 about an animal complaint.

Dewitt said that when he arrived at the Nolley Road residence he saw Jeffrey Robbins holding a pair of bolt cutters and approaching a goat tied out behind the house.

The young billy goat, named Rebel, had a choke chain embedded in its neck. "It was wrapped around twice and embedded approximately an inch and a half into his neck," Dewitt said.

The goat was seized from the home and has received veterinary care. "Rebel is currently in foster care in a special pen where he can receive antibiotics. He'll be kept in foster care during the proceedings," Dewitt said.

The Robbins each received an unsecured bond of $5000 and were ordered to release any other farm animals to the custody of the Davie Sheriff's Department.

Another goat, Dixie, was also seized and placed in foster care.

Dewitt said that the Humane Society of Davie County assisted in helping find the foster homes and care needed for the animals removed.

The Robbins are scheduled to appear in Davie District Court on Nov. 20.

Davie Tailspin Continues At Reynolds

By Brian Pitts
Davie Enterprise Record

The 5-1 start seems like a million years ago for Davie's varsity football team. Davie staggered to Reynolds on Friday coming off back-to-back losses and needing a 3-0 charge to solidify a top-three finish and a 4-A playoff berth.

But Davie's funk became a full-fledged funk at Reynolds. The War Eagles (5-4, 0-3 Central Piedmont Conference) lost weekly, 24-12, putting the season on life support and creating the darkest days in quite a while.

They have three CPC losses for the first time since '00. That was also the last year they dropped three straight CPC games. They had not lost to Reynolds since '02. That's sobering stuff for a program that finished first from 2003-07 and seven times in nine years.

Afterward, Davie coach Doug Iling ran his team straight to a grim locker room. On the ecstatic side of the field, Reynolds coach Mike Propst savored a season-reviving win for the Demons, who had lost two straight before improving to 4-5, 1-2.

"We were reeling from a 17-14 loss to North Davidson, but we played hard tonight," Propst said. "They had a couple (offensive linemen) out, and we knew they had a short week to prepare (after losing to Mount Tabor on a Monday). We had a normal week. We felt like there were a couple things we could do to them defensively, and we were able to do it tonight."

Davie's offense fizzled at the Reynolds 14 with the game scoreless, and it never got much better for the War Eagles. They were victimized by the home-run ability of quarterback Jeremy Peterson, the CPC's reigning offensive player of the year. Peterson blended 11-of-22 passing for 216 yards with 59 rushing yards on 12 keepers. Jake Gaine (five catches, 92 yards) and William Miller (three catches, 95 yards) burned the secondary as five of Peterson's first six completions went for 11-plus yards.

As if Peterson's offense wasn't enough, he held Davie's most explosive receiver, Joe Watson, to two catches.

"Pete always plays that way," Propst said of Peterson. "We don't always agree with his decisions, but he did a good job tonight. We played him both ways and put him on Watson. That's what Pete's going to play in college anyway. He's our best DB. I was afraid we were going to run him ragged, but he manned up and did a great job."

Davie's offense has become a broken record. Quarterback Zach Iling faces relentless pressure, the ground game is anemic and the ripple effect creates inconsistency in the passing attack. A number of significant injuries have taken their toll, especially on the O-line. Josh Burcham missed two games before Lewis Favre sat out after suffering a concussion against

Herndon-Wallace Connection Lifts JVs

By Brian Pitts
Davie Enterprise Record

Davie's JV football team was sluggish in the first half last week against visiting Reynolds. But a resilient and gutsy Davie effort in the second half made up for it as the War Eagles outlasted Reynolds 28-20 in overtime.

The win, on the heels of a 42-0 thud at Mount Tabor that snapped Davie's 17-game winning streak, lifted the War Eagles to 7-1 overall and 2-1 in the Central Piedmont Conference. Its final home game is Oct. 30 against North Forsyth at 6 p.m. The final game is Nov. 6 at North Davidson at 6.

The War Eagles were dismal in the first half, watching Reynolds score 14 unanswered points for a 14-6 score. After scoring on their first possession, they went three-and-out three straight times, with no first downs.

"They'd have third down and get a first down," coach Todd Bumgarner said. "A punt hit one of our guys in the back of the helmet, and they recovered it to keep their drive going. We threw an interception for a touchdown. We weren't doing things we're coached to do. I mean we didn't play well, and I let them know about it at halftime."

The War Eagles erased their six-quarter doldrums in an entertaining second half. Denzel Redmon ran the ball on eight of 10 plays as Davie cut the deficit to 14-12. After Davie lost 12 yards on a sack, Carson Herndon hooked up with Paul Beauchamp for 36 yards. "Beauchamp made a heckuva catch," Bumgarner said.

After Herndon hit Mattieu Sawicki-

Johnson for 15 yards, Redmon ran in from the 4. A two-point pass to Jarrett Wallace gave Davie a 20-14 lead.

Reynolds answered with a long scoring pass, but the point-after try failed, leaving the score 20-20. Reynolds was at Davie's 40 when it tried a reverse pass. Chase Angell picked it off and returned it to Reynolds' 30 with 14 seconds left.

"Chase weaved and bobbed," Bumgarner said. "It looked like he came out of two or three piles."

Wallace reeled in a 28-yard pass that ended inside Reynolds' 1, but it went for naught because time expired during the play.

Davie got the ball first in overtime. The first three plays went nowhere. On fourth-and-goal from the 9, Herndon found Wallace. The duo connected again on the two-point conversion, resulting in a 28-20 lead.

Wallace, who made two catches for 37 yards to go along with two grabs on two-point conversions, reaffirmed his big-play capability after laboring through some quiet games.

"They were sending so much heat up the middle, so we rolled Herndon out," Bumgarner said of the OT touchdown. "Herndon threw it right on (Wallace's) break, just like we work on."

Wallace made a heckuva catch. He tipped the boundary. He almost made another great catch on a route they covered. There wasn't anywhere to throw it. Herndon scrambled to the right, Wallace came all the way across the field and caught it ... on the line."

There was work to be done. Reynolds had second-and-goal at the 4 on its OT possession. After a fumble, it was third-and-6. On fourth down, a blitzing Tevin Gaitner capped the dramatic win with a sack.

"Gaitner made an unbelievable play," he said. "He fought off a block, did a spin move to get away, and got to the quarterback and wrestled him down."

Notes: Davie might have been impressive in the first half, but it was gutsy the rest of the way. "I'm proud of the guys," Bumgarner said. "In the second half we did what we needed to do to be successful." ... What loomed large in the end was first-half interceptions by Craven Chunn-Oakley and David Wagoner. ... Redmon scored two touchdowns while running for 80 yards on 16 carries.

The War Eagles celebrate a berth to the third round, an unprecedented moment.

Volleyball Makes History Before 3rd-Round Loss

By Brian Pitts
Davie Enterprise Record

The loss of Carly Pratapas coupled with the expertise of North Mecklenburg proved too much for Davie's volleyball team to overcome in the final 16 of the 4-A playoffs.

Davie didn't have one of its stalwarts in the third round. Pratapas was out with bronchitis. The sickness came on a day when Davie was facing a 23-4 team on its home court. Furthermore, one of Pratapas' replacements, Moriah MacDonell, was playing sick. Add it up and Davie looked nothing like the team that made history by advancing to the third round.

"It's a disappointing way to end your season," coach Becky Miller said. "It's hard enough to take a loss. It's even harder when we should have played better. I think we could have been competitive with them had we had Carly."

Miller couldn't have been more pleased after the War Eagles bashed visiting East Forsyth in the second round (25-20, 25-14, 25-16). It was their second shutout in the playoffs, and it was an unprecedented moment for Davie, which was 0-2 in second-round matches. It lost to Chapel Hill in '03 and to Northwest Guilford in '06.

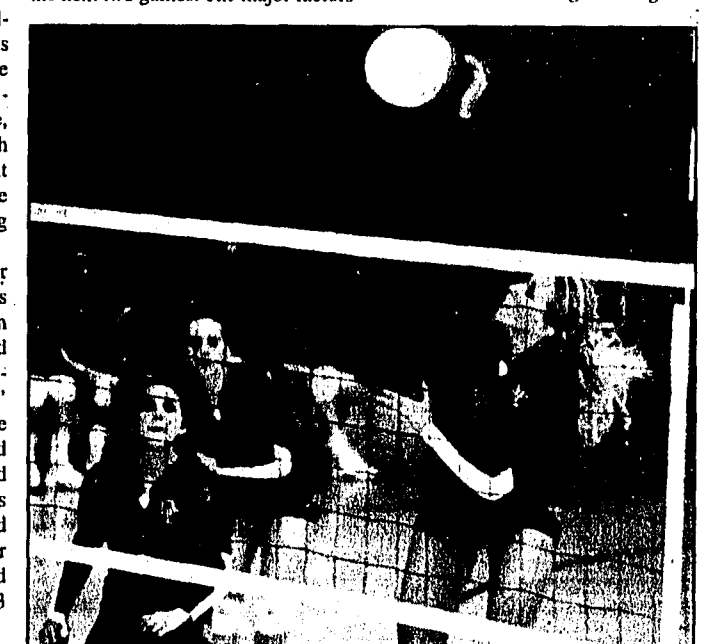

It was also a rerun of two regular-season romps over East Forsyth, which finished 10-15.

"We let everybody play and took care of business," Miller said. "Our motto was 'Go Beyond' and that one made history."

East scored seven of the game's first eight points. Undaunted, Davie scored 24 of the next 37 and kept motoring in the next two games. The major factors were Katelyn Wensley (11 digs, seven kills, five aces), Amber Parrish (19 assists, five kills), Pratapas (11 digs, five kills), Chelsea Reynolds (13 digs), Alex Folk (two blocks) and Ashley Green (two blocks).

Sensational Second Half Keeps North On Track

North Davidson's Devin Johnson gives a stiff-arm as he breaks to the outside.

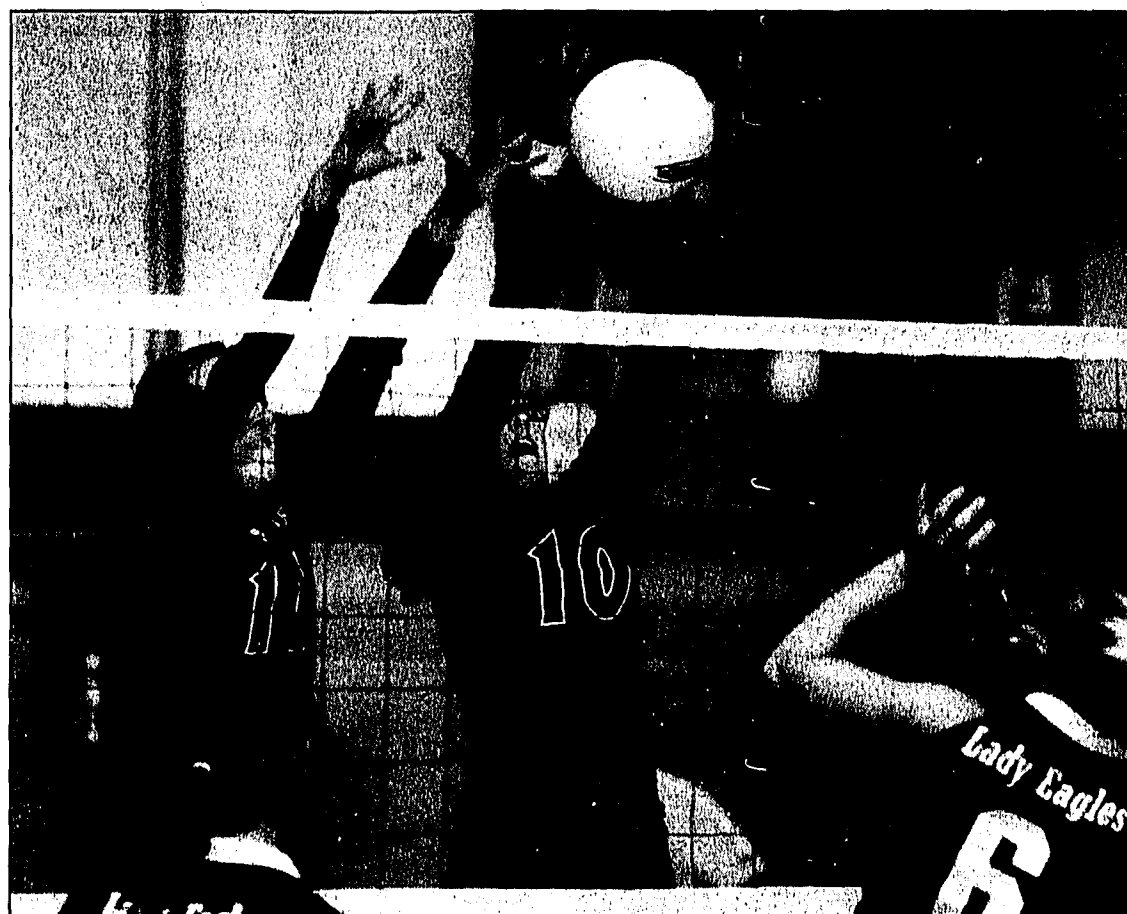

This is a comeback of a season for North Davie's football team. Once-beaten North came back from a season-opening loss at North Davidson. North came back from a 14-0 halftime deficit and beat Lexington 22-20 in overtime. And North came back from an 8-0 deficit and beat Central Davidson 14-8.

Thanks to all that resolve, the Wildcats entered the week with a five-game winning streak and 5-1 record. They're vying with South Davie for second in the Davie-Davidson Conference.

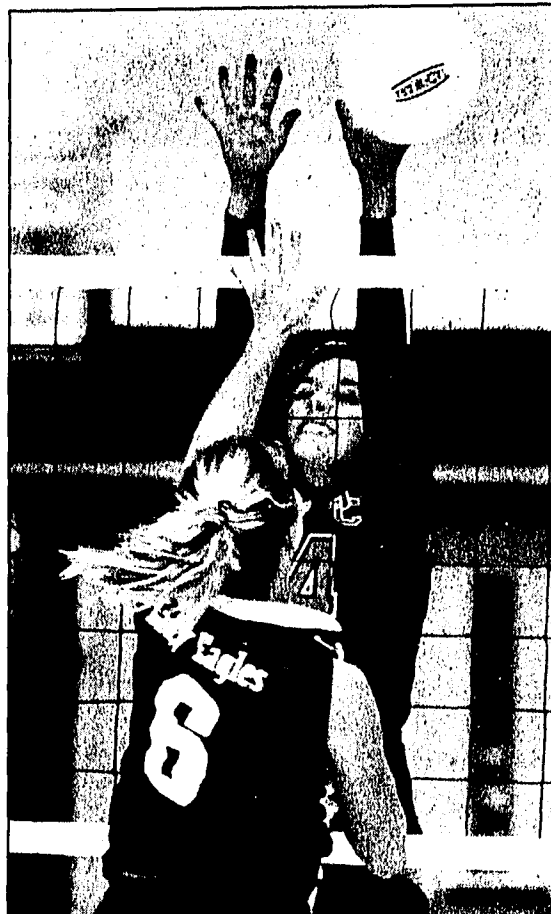

That's a scenario few could have envisioned during the first half with Lexington. Coach Ron Kirk was irate with the 14-0 score.

"We stunk it up (in the first half)," he said. "We looked like we hadn't been on the field all year. I said: 'Y'all made

"We just had more offensive weapons than they did," she said. "Serve-receive is probably one of their weak points, and plus they didn't have a block."

But few things went right at North Meck, which conducted a clinic in three games (25-12, 25-18, 25-15). Davie simply got wiped out while playing with a short deck.

"I knew we were going to struggle without Carly," Miller said. "She was sick as can be. She's one of our leading scorers as far as kills, and she's a great defensive player. It broke down the cohesion that we had and it affected our whole game."

It didn't help that MacDonell was also sick.

"To make matters worse, MacDonell was sick as a dog, too," she said. "She tried her best. We used Costner (Merrifield) there a little, too. Those girls are good outside hitters, but it really gets you out of sync when you don't have your normal kids in there. Carly is just a big force on the court."

North Meck feasted on Davie from the beginning and never let up, jumping out to a 15-3 lead in game one. It did similar damage in the previous round to West Forsyth, winning 25-14, 25-17, 25-11.

"They're a good team," she said. "They're real tall and very good at blocking. Anything we set that was close to the net, they pushed back at us."

Davie got 10 digs, six kills and three blocks from Wensley. Reynolds contributed 11 digs; Parrish 11 assists and Folk and Brittani Stewart three blocks each. The outcome overshadowed fine efforts by Taylor Anderson and Reynolds.

"Anderson did a good job," she said. "She played back row and was digging up balls against real good hitters. Reynolds, as usual, was doing her thing. But we couldn't find a block. We just didn't have an answer for them."

Notes: The War Eagles' final hour can't diminish some significant achievements. Not only did they surpass the second round for the first time, they finished with 19 wins against seven losses. There's short company with 19-plus wins. The '81 team went 21-6 and the '02 team went 19-4. ... The curtain fell on seniors Folk, Sarah Martin, Parrish, Pratas and Wensley.

The War Eagles make history by reaching the third round.

Brake Makes State Tournament In Golf

Davie sophomore golfer Caitlyn Brake qualified for the state tournament by finishing 17th out of 63 players in last week's 4-A West Regional at Skybrook Country Club in Huntersville.

That's quite a feat for a sophomore. Brake is the fifth Davie girl to reach the state since girls golf started in '02. Brittany Walker and Emily Pettorini were seniors in '02. Senior Heather Boger and junior Sarah Jarvis got there in '03.

Twenty teams competed in the 4-A regional. The top of the leaderboard included: North Mecklenburg (273), Audrey Kell (279), Myers Park (280) and Butler (281).

The Central Piedmont Conference was led by Mount Tabor's Kristi Ingram (15-over 87), Brake (102) and Reynolds' Erica Clinard, who tied Brake for 17th. The top 27 advanced to Pinehurst No. 2, where Brake competed last Monday and Tuesday. She shot a 95 in Sunday's practice round.

Brake shook off a rough start at Skybrook.

"I'm really proud of her for what she did after making a 9 on No. 1. That's 5-over right there," coach Jerry Callison said.

Also for Davie, sophomore Carmen Grubb was 40th with a 118. Senior Meghan Matthews shot 131.

Sixteen girls broke 100, and 105 was the highest score among those who qualified for the state as individuals.

Old School: Davie Sports From 1969

The Davie Rebels football team took early control and pulled away late for a 28-12 homecoming win over North Davidson. The win was Davie's first (1-6-1), while North dropped to 2-6.

Quarterback Craig Ward went over from the 1, then hit

Bob Koontz with a two-point pass as Davie grabbed an 8-0 lead. It was 14-0 when Koontz scored from the 1. North rallied to 14-12, but Jingles Ijames scored on a 53-yard pass from Ward. Lineman Allan Barger capped the scoring by getting an interception and returning it 55 yards.

Kenny Spillman scored two touchdowns as Cooleemee defeated East Spencer 12-6.

Foxwood Golf Club opened the third week of October. The green fee on weekends was $2 and $1.50 during the week.

Twin Cedars added nine holes to become an 18-hole, 6,443-yard course. Twin Cedars opened in the summer of '62 and consisted of a driving range and par-3 course. Three years later a nine-hole course was constructed.

Soccer Team Unlucky In Season Finale

If you sat in traffic, searched the entire parking lot for a space and then couldn't find the thing you were shopping for, you know how Davie's varsity soccer team felt in the season finale last week at North Davidson.

"We had several shots eight yards in front of the goal and missed them," coach Lance Everett said after a 2-0 defeat. "We could not touch the back of the net. One time we were two feet in front of the net and missed the goal. Another time we missed when we were five feet in front of the goal. We hit the side post one time. We had the shots. We had six shots right at the goal."

The War Eagles entered last week riding high from an inspirational 1-0 upset over Reynolds. But their season ended on a sour note, losing 5-1 to visiting North Forsyth before coming up empty at North Davidson.

The Davie-North Davidson game was for fifth and sixth place, and the loss left Davie in last with records of 4-13 overall and 1-9 in the Central Piedmont Conference.

they kept things competitive until the 59th minute. The half-time deficit was 2-0, but Michael Rowe cut the margin in half early in the second half.

"I said: 'If we get a goal at the first of this half, we're back in this,'" Everett said. "That's exactly what happened."

Brad Deal, a sophomore who moved up to varsity because there wasn't a JV game between the teams, sparked the Rowe goal and also carved out a resume for 2009-10.

"I wasn't expecting to play him that much," he said. "And he played forward, a position he doesn't even play on JV. I'll be honest, I wasn't expecting that kind of play out of him. He played the whole second half, except for about two minutes. He's the one that created that goal for Michael. Deal crossed it and it went over to Sergio Fernandez. Sergio tapped it and Michael finished it off. Deal dribbled down the sideline. He was patient and under control. When he crossed it, it opened things up."

After putting up a valiant effort for three-fourths of the game, things got ugly rather quickly down the stretch. A penalty kick at 59 minutes made it 3-1. North Forsyth struck again a minute later. "The momentum completely changed," he said. "From there on it was tough. After the third goal, I knew we were in trouble."

The win lifted North Forsyth to 11-4-1 and 7-2. This happened six days after the huge win over Reynolds. "They played hard and they played good," he said. "I knew it was going to be tough to put in the same effort that we did against Reynolds."

At North Davidson, the War Eagles endured what might have been frustration. It was 0-0 until eight minutes to play. There was the epidemic of near-misses for Davie. North's first of two goals felt like a punch to the gut.

"I knew whoever scored first was going to win," Everett said. "They got the ball to No. 22 and there was nothing (keeper) Jordan (Kinder) could do because he was unmarked. He was right in front of the goal. We wanted the seniors to go out on a good note, and they got every opportunity to do that. They had every opportunity to beat that team."

The win improved North Davidson to 10-10-1, 2-8.

Notes: Davie's JV got a forfeit from North Forsyth before losing 5-0 to North Davidson. On the field, the War Eagles went 0-15-1, 0-8-1. "The team improved over the season, but needs a lot of work in the off-season," coach Hugh Lee said.

Mount Tabor. Vince Clocie missed his fourth game with a broken finger.

It's easy for fans to criticize Iling, who threw four interceptions, including a pick-six that represented the beginning of the end at 21-6. But Davie doesn't even score without Iling's 241 passing yards and touchdowns to P.J. Neely (67 yards) and Watson (15 yards).

The offensive lowlights included 18 rushing yards on 28 attempts and seven sacks on a bruised and battered Iling. When James Mayfield got the ball, most of the time he was cracked in the backfield, and he had to fight for 67 yards on 18 carries. Davie was outgained 331-259.

"When you give Zach time, he's real good," Probst said. "Zach's actually good anyway. But if you give him time ...

that's why we tried to send heat as much as possible."

"They did a good job of scheming (the blitzes), and we struggled blocking up front," Davie coach Doug Iling told the Winston-Salem Journal. "We thought we had a good game plan coming in. We just had turnovers - interceptions - that took the wind out of us. It's tough to overcome that."

Peterson was 2 of 9 for 18 yards before connecting with Miller for 39 yards. That led to a 7-0 Reynolds lead. With safety Zach Long blitzing, Peterson hit Gaine for 46 yards to the Davie 10. One play later it was 14-0. Backup quarterback Jacob Barber helped Davie get a first down. Iling returned and rifled a deep ball to Neely, who caught it at the Reynolds 30 and darted in for a 67-yard score.

Watson made his first catch with 8:20 left in the third. Iling tried to hit Watson on the next play, but De'Vyne Julius stepped in front and returned the interception 45 yards for a 21-6 margin.

"It was one of those things where you're guessing against them, and they guessed wrong that time and we guessed right," Probst said. "We were blitzing or we were dropping. According to the chart, we were supposed to drop on that play because of what they do on that particular down and distance (third-and-4). (Julius) dropped and then he stepped right in front of it."

Iling overcame four sacks on a 10-play, 65-yard drive that ended with a 15-yard fade pass to Watson. That made it 24-12 with 4:10 remaining.

Simply put, things have fallen apart on both sides of the ball. The defense was OK at times, but it gave up too many big plays. Probst expressed sympathy for a program that he looks up to.

"I love Doug Iling, not just as a fellow coach but as a friend," he said. "All those guys are good friends of mine. I respect what they do and how they do it. We try to emulate that as much as possible."

Perry James secured his third team-high interception. It came in the end zone with the score 14-6.

South Revs Motor In Second Half At Ellis

Stay with South Davie's football team in the first half? It seemed unlikely for Ellis, but, yeah, the Jaguars only trailed by two at the half. Stay with South for four quarters? Uh-huh.

South regrouped at halftime and decimated host Ellis in the second half, outscoring the Jaguars 22-0 and winning 38-14. The final margin was no surprise when you consider South is 6-1 with four straight wins. It has scored at least 38 points in each of the four Ellis' third straight loss dropped it to 2-5.

But Ellis traded punches with South in a 16-14 first half. Stephen Smoot took the opening kickoff 85 yards as South grabbed an 8-0 lead. Kyle Bullins provided a crushing block.

"Bullins blew somebody up," South coach Perry Long said. "All I saw was feet." Ellis responded with a 10-yard fade from Nick Boswell to receiver Curtis Banner, and a successful kick made it 8-8. Jon Tise set up the pass by gashing South with a series of up-the-middle runs.

South went ahead 16-8, but Ellis climbed back on a trick play in which Jeremy Walker connected with Boswell.

"South called a timeout and we scored on a gimmick play," Ellis coach Mike Morgan said. "We came out in a backyard formation. We caught them. We were hitting them up the middle. After the timeout we went out in a crazy formation and scored on a long screen pass.

"In the first half we played about as well as we could play. We were able to hold our own with them."

Much to Long's delight, the second half was a different story. The turning point was South stuffing Ellis on fourth-and-2.

"We were trying to control the ball and keep their offense off the field, and we came up a little short," Morgan said. "They got the ball and started scoring, and we didn't have an answer for it. They made some adjustments and their athleticism took over. That's the bottom line."

The dynamic Smoot was too much for Ellis, rushing five times for 87 yards. Shayheim Ewing ripped off a 26-yard scoring run. Devon Parks registered two long-distance touchdowns, bolting 49 and 79 yards.

"Smoot's a good player," Morgan said. "He's a real good player on both sides of the ball. When we played good teams last year, it was over in a quarter. This year we've been able to play people tight and at least get them thinking a little bit. But we don't have enough depth yet."

South's second-half dominance was a tribute to two defensive adjustments in particular, moving Ewing to corner and switching Russell Anthony from weak side to strong side.

"That made a big difference," Long said.

Long pointed to center Heath Nail and an offensive line that included guards Robert and Stephen Daniel and tackles Josh Cockman and Jamal Lackey. Their vigor allowed Smoot, Parks and Ewing to break off long runs.

"I'll tell you what, Nail had a big game at center," he said. "He was wearing them out. He was getting his hands on them. That whole front line has come a long way."

Lackey only played defense last year. This year he starts on both lines, and he has blossomed at offensive tackle, a position he didn't care to play earlier in the season.

"I needed a tackle on the OL," Long said. "He didn't really want to play on the offensive line. I said: 'Son, to help this team you've got to play on the O-line.' I'm going to tell you what, he has come a long way blocking. He likes it now. He struggled on the O-line in the Ledford game. He really started getting it together after the North Davidson (loss). He got bigger and stronger (in the offseason) and I told him he had to play O-line for me. It has really made a big difference with him being on the O-line."

Cornatzer JVs Down Pinebrook

JV - Cornatzer 14, Pine 8

The Cornatzer Cougars won their second-round playoff game against the Pinebrook Trojans, 14-8, to advance to the championship game of the Davie County Youth Football Association. The Cougar offense was led by DeJuan Peebles with 43 yards, Ridge Sanders with 36 and two touchdowns, Stephen Dalton with 41 and a two-point conversion.

The offensive line played great behind Myles Evans, Jacob Bender, Matthew Glass, Daniel Melton, Grayson Alberty, Luke Davis and Dylan Sanders.

The Cougar defense had an outstanding game, led by Luke Davis (seven tackles, five for a loss), Stephen Dalton (six tackles) and Cody Hendrix (five tackles). Dylan Sanders and Ethan Boogie recovered fumbles. The rest of the defense included Demetra Issac, David Mayfield, Micheal Dalton, Dalton Leebor, Brandon French, Josh Tibbs and Zackary Wood. DeJuan Peebles had an interception at a crucial point that tied the game at 8. Then late in the 4th quarter, Cornatzer punched it in to take the lead for good.

The Trojans were held to minus-4 rushing yards and only completed one pass. But their leading tacklers were Michael McCaffrey (4.5), Cody Smith (4), George Cuthrell (3.5), Luke Bolmer (3.5), Avery Vining (3) and Lane Bolmer (3). McCaffrey, Vining, Bryson Hunter and Smith recovered fumbles.

The Cougars will play at Davie High on Saturday at 5 p.m. against the Bulldogs. Var - Cornatzer 14, SG 6. Cornatzer upset Shady Grove in the varsity semifinals. Shady Grove came in 5-1 and had defeated Cornatzer in the regular season.

Cuyler Devine went 45 yards to the end zone on the first play of the game, then scored the two-point conversion. Devine dashed 92 yards to give the Cougars a 14-0 lead.

Cornatzer's defense denied Shady Grove twice inside the 10-yard line. The defense was paced by Parker Correll, Tyler Boogie, Josh Lankford, Chad Boogie, Colby Sanders, Dillon Plowman, Jacob Keaton, Keion Davis and Dylan Sanders.

"Our defense played great the entire game," Cornatzer coach Chad Correll said.

In the varsity championship, Cornatzer will play Mocksville Saturday at 7 p.m. at Davie High.

Var - Mock 36, Pinebrook 8. The Mocksville Rams scored the first four touchdowns of the game in a rout over Pinebrook. Colby Carter had Pinebrook's touchdown on a 5-yard run in the fourth quarter. Austin Thomas hit Nathan Harrell with a pass on the two-point conversion. Avery Williford rushed for 35 yards. Coach Tim Dunn recognized the play of Noah Johnson, Daniel York, Christopher Launius and Cam Fearington.

JV - SG 28, Mocksville 16

Shady Grove advanced to the championship game with a solid performance from the whole team. Foss Smithdeal and Austin Siler both ran for over 100 yards. James Boyle picked up key first downs. Lead blockers were Luke Pratapas, Spencer Wilson, Tyler Roberts and Zach Eberly.

The defense played its best game of the year and forced four turnovers. J.J. Hayes returned a fumble for a touchdown and Logan Sheets interceptions put the offense in great shape. Also playing great on defense were Michael Brunelli, Roslin Turley, Tristan Merritt, Tannor Atwood, Reid Featherhigill, Jacob Byrd and Jacob Rogers.

WINNERS

First Place = $25 to Douglas Peebles

Second Place = $5 to Jane Anderson

The weather has taken a definite COLD turn this week so it's a great time to bundle up and sip a hot drink while pondering your pigskin picks with some great games coming up.

First Place this week goes to...

Douglas Peebles
who missed just 7 games and won the tie-breaker to claim the honors.

The runner up this week was...

Jane Anderson
who also missed just 7 games and used the tie-breaker to edge out a couple of other contestants who also missed 7 but she wasn't quite close enough to catch Peebles.

Our beloved War Eagles are still struggling to get their feet back under them after a recent slide. But we have faith the locals will turn things around this week. Yet another team from across the Yadkin will be the foe this week as our boys take on North Forsyth.

Elsewhere in the CPC West Forsyth will take on RJ Reynolds and Mt. Tabor will face North Davidson. In other high school action North Rowan will try and take a goose egg off its stats against the unbeaten team from Salisbury. West Rowan needed two overtimes to get past Lake Norman last week and will travel to South Rowan this week.

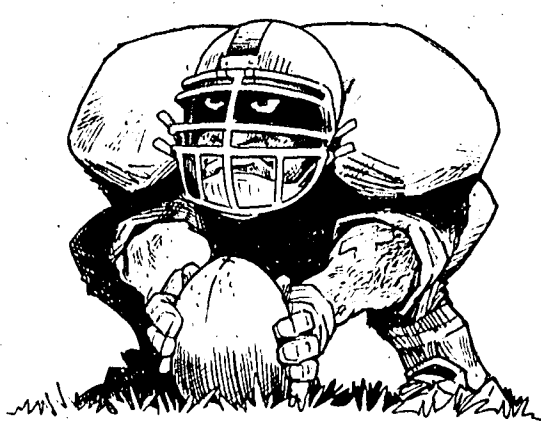

In the college ranks there are some great games again this week. Number One Texas will play Texas Tech. Nebraska plays Oklahoma. Auburn plays Mississippi. A battle of top ten teams pits Florida against Georgia in Jacksonville, Fla.

In the ACC Miami plays Virginia, Clemson plays Boston College, Duke visits Wake, and Florida State comes north to play Georgia Tech in Atlanta.

In the SoCon the big game is on Halloween night national TV as the number 3 Wofford Terriers (fresh off thumping Elon) travel to "The Rock" to take on the number 2 Appalachian Mountaineers. It should be a great game and COLD. Western Carolina hosts Chattanooga, Ga. Southern travels to the Citadel, and Furman is at Samford.

In the pros the Cats are flying high after a come-from-behind win over the Arizona Cardinals last week and get a much deserved week off. The Giants play the Cowboys (will Romo play or not?). New England plays Indianapolis, Brett Favre leads the Jets into Buffalo. The Tennessee Titans boast an undefeated record and host Green Bay this week.

So settle back, put a log on the fire, and grill up some brats. It's another great weekend for football.

ALL CONTEST ENTRIES MUST INCLUDE A FULL MAILING ADDRESS AND PHONE NUMBER AND PLEASE, NO NICKNAMES.

Entries that do not meet these requirements will be disqualified.
WE WILL BE MAILING ALL CHECKS TO THE WINNERS. THANKS!

Weekly First Place Winners may pick up their Ball Cap at the newspaper office.

Kicker Tyler Shoffner has been clutch for 5-1 North.

A liar out of me because I've been telling people how good y'all are. We did a little attitude adjustment. We got fired up."

In the third quarter, North was suddenly unstoppable. Toby Lowe scored and Tyler Shoffner's kick cut the deficit to 14-8. Devin Johnson dashed into the end zone from 20 yards out to forge a 14-14 tie.

"We accelerated and moved the ball," Kirk said. "We beat up on them."

Neither team scored in the fourth, forcing overtime. On the first play of OT, Lowe powered 10 yards. Shoffner's kick gave North a 22-14 lead. Lexington answered on its first play of OT. The potential tying kick, however, was no good, and North had a thrilling win.

"We sent all 11 of them after the kicker and he missed the extra point," Kirk said.

The big rally was built around Lowe (93 yards on 17 carries), Johnson (84 yards on 13 carries) and Shoffner's foot. Another big reason for the rally was Jordan Foucheux, who made 11 tackles. "Most of them came in the second half," he said. Lowe had six tackles and Logan Hendricks five. Brandon Horne and Cole Blankenship made key fumble recoveries.

The turnaround was amazing considering North is hardly a quick-strike offense. "We're a grind-it-out team and we'll eat up a quarter trying to score," he said.

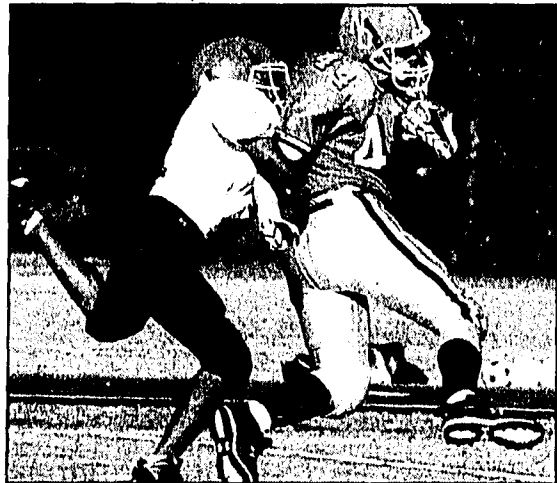

There was an uneasy feeling on the North sideline when Central Davidson held an 8-0 lead. Once again, the Wildcats kicked into gear and seized control.

"We didn't play worth a darn until the last five minutes of the first half," he said.

North managed an 8-8 tie before the half. The score got stuck on 8-8. But with 1:20 remaining, Lowe scampered 11 yards for a tiebreaking and clinching touchdown.

Lowe (12 carries, 96 yards) and Johnson (12 carries, 73 yards) came through again. Hendricks completed a pair of big passes, 26 yards to Johnson and 15 to Christian Latham.

The defensive heroes were Blankenship (eight tackles, three sacks), Alex Gobble (five tackles, three sacks), Foucheux (five tackles) and Cameron Heagins, who came up with a late interception to sup Central.

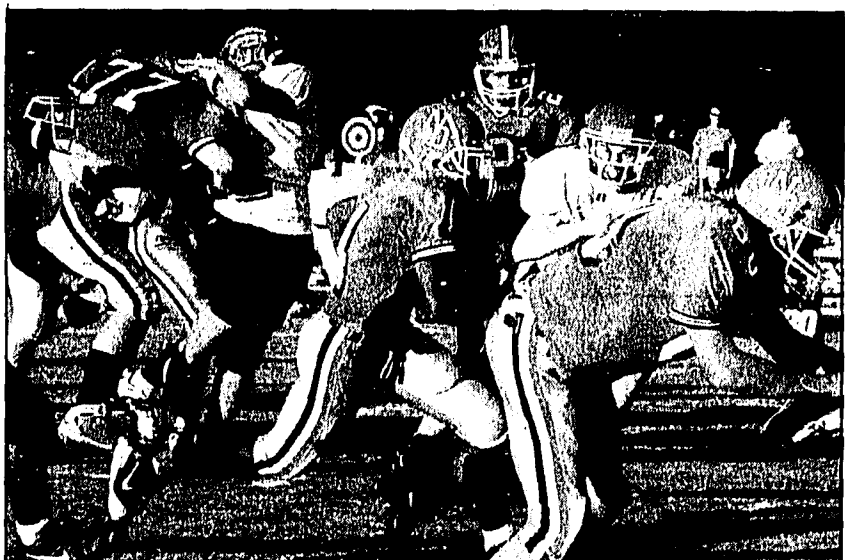

Toby Lowe breaks a long one.

BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT

Edwards Siding And Windows

Johnny Walker could not believe it. After eight years of staining, sealing, sanding and painting, his home looked new with almost no maintenance at all.

That's because he called Betty and Harold Edwards, of Edwards Siding and Windows.

"The heat, the sun, the weather continually wore down my deck and front porch," said Walker of Winston-Salem. "You could wash; you could paint; but you couldn't keep it white," he said. Walker estimated that he was staining and painting at least twice a year, until he finally contacted Edwards Siding and Windows.

The experienced professionals at Edwards Siding covered Walker's rear deck with white vinyl, and replaced all of the wooden railing with durable vinyl railings. The anti-slip vinyl flooring which covered the wooden deck floor is also treated to prevent chipping; and can be hosed off for simple cleaning.

"They are very good to work with," said Johnny Walker of Betty and Harold Edwards' company. The Edwards worked with the Walkers to design a customized fit for their existing home, with just the right style and appearance that they desired. Walker and his wife were so elated with the clean, virtually maintenance-free decking that they decided to do their front porch and walkway as well.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tran of Winston-Salem also called Edwards Siding and Windows, to replace the railing around their home, and the trim for their windows.

"I was very pleased," said Tom Tran of the work which Edwards Siding did for his home. So pleased that he called his father, in order to get the same work done on his father's home.

"They are good at what they do," he said.

Betty and Harold Edwards have owned and operated Edwards Siding and Windows since 1978. They are licensed and insured, beginning their business when aluminum siding was in vogue. With the advent of vinyl siding and windows, the Edwards have seen their volume of business explode.

King Proud Of North's 11-4 Volleyball Season

North Davie's volleyball team finished the season with an 11-4 record, placing second in both the regular season and the conference tournament. Three of the losses came to undefeated Ellis.

In the first round of the four-team tournament, North defeated Thomasville 2-1. Then it lost to Ellis in the championship, two games to one.

Last year it was the other way around. Ellis was second while North went undefeated.

"It was definitely Ellis' year to win it," North coach Trish King said. "They outplayed us in the finals, but we did give it a strong surge, only losing 21-17 in the last game."

The Wildcats had nothing to hang their heads about. They accomplished 11 victories for the third straight year and for the fifth time in six years. The success was a testament to eighth graders Kendal Tift and Sarah Anderson.

"I am very proud of this year's group," King said. "We came together as a young team, and we blended together well enough to finish with an impressive record. I am especially proud of my eighth graders, led by Tift and Anderson. They were the heart of our team."

Ellis Softball Team Ends On High Note

After suffering heartache in five one-run games, the Ellis softball team hung together and finished the season on a high note. Ellis had to win the final four games to reach .500, and it did just that by defeating South Davie and North Davie in doubleheaders.

"We had talked about that week for a while," coach Shannon Wood said after Ellis closed at 8-8. "We couldn't wait to play South Davie and North Davie, and it was nice to come out with four wins."

Going into the first game against South, Caroline Miller had tossed four one-hitters on the year. She took that next step in a 12-0 blowout, throwing a no-hitter with eight strikeouts and no walks. The top hitters were Maryssa Pickett (3 for 4, triple) and Allie Slabach (2 for 3).

"She almost had a perfect game," Wood said. "We had an error (in the second inning) that let a runner on."

Miller went 3 for 3 with a double and pitched a three-hitter as the Jaguars eased past South 6-1 in the second game. The loss closed South's season at 1-12.

"We had great defense behind Caroline," Wood said. "We hit the ball, so that made it even better."

The Jaguars kept the momentum going against North Davie, beating the Wildcats 3-0 and 6-2.

In the first game, Ellis did all the scoring in the third. After Pickett singled and Miller reached on an error, Ellis broke through on an Ivey Carney RBI single. The second run scored when Allie Fruits' ball was error, Carney came home with the third run.

North got to third base twice but never solved Miller, who finished with a four-hit shutout. She had six strikeouts and no walks. Pickett was the top hitter at 2 for 3. Miller also had a hit in the second game against

Golfers Remember CW Allen; Raise Money For Grants

Friends and family celebrated the life of a special man in a way he would have liked best.

The CW Allen Memorial Golf Tournament was held at Pudding Ridge Golf Club on Saturday, Oct. 4. The tournament was organized by to benefit the CW and Barbara Allen Fund at the Davie Community Foundation.

Sixty-eight golfers teed off for an afternoon of golf and fellowship on a beautiful sunny day.

"All of the people here are here because of their love for CW," Jim Eaton, tournament organizer, told the golfers. "I didn't have to ask people for donations and sponsorships. All of you are here because you wanted to be. You are here to share memories of CW and fellowship during a fun round of golf."

Although most of the golfers were friends, CW's family was also on hand to take part. All three of Barbara and CW's daughters and their families attended with their eight grandchildren. "Five grandchildren played or rode the complete course," said Barbara Allen. "We all wanted to be part of this special occasion."

The tournament raised more than $4,000 for the CW and Barbara Allen Fund, a donor advised fund at the Davie Community Foundation.

"Barbara Allen will recommend recipients of grants from the fund each year," said Jane Simpson, foundation president. "Barbara has the ability to change the recipients of the fund grants every year so she can benefit a variety of charitable organizations in the county. Their three daughters have been named as successor advisors to continue the tradition and make recommendations. Grants from the fund will go out in the name of the CW and Barbara Allen Fund every year, keeping their memory alive forever."

"I am truly overwhelmed by the response of so many friends of CW," said Barbara. "I just want to thank everyone who had any part in the tournament. It was a wonderful day. I think it reaffirmed for the girls and me just how much CW was loved by others. We were honored and touched by the entire event."

Rivercats To Host Golf Tournament

The Rivercats 13-under baseball team will hold a golf tournament at Foxwood on Nov. 8 at noon.

This will be a four-man captain's choice. The cost is $50 per team member ($200 per team). Lunch will be provided.

Money raised is used for tournament fees, equipment, uniforms and practice facilities. Contact Daniel Markland at 336-817-1617.

Retired Group Home Director Helps Others Feel More Important

By Mike Barnhardt
Enterprise Record

Judy Rosser has retired - sort of. She's not going into work at the Davie County Group Home every day as she has for most of the past 27 or so years. But the residents of those homes - and others - are too close to her heart for her to let go.

Rosser will still take them on outings and vacations, maybe even a stay or two at her home in Mocksville.

Rosser all but started the modern services for the developmentally handicapped adults in Davie County. Getting into the business via daughter Dreama Barber, who volunteered in classes when she was in high school.

It was April of 1981 when Rosser started at the group home, a rented, older two-story home. She had just moved back to Davie County from Pennsylvania, and her daughter told her to apply for the job as director.

"We were cold in the winter and hot in the summer," she said. "There were times they had to come to my house and stay."

The home had one old, brown van to transport residents. It was ugly. A local body shop painted some flames down the side - and that gave the residents some pride in their ride.

There was no office staff, and it was up to Rosser to go after grants and other monies to provide services for the people she had grown to love.

She was ecstatic when Davie County purchased an apartment building - and although it needed major renovations - it provided more private places for residents. She helped them save their money. She went to employers to find work for them. She made sure they were taken care of and happy.

"It's so nice to have a challenge ... and we have something else to offer people," she said. "We've given them independence and dignity, that they're as important as anyone else. And they rise to the occasion."

"Half the time I forget they're handicapped. They're just different personalities. The biggest thing they've taught me is humility. They're forgiving. People can do for them year after year, and they're just as excited."

Rosser has taken several residents on vacations. She's likely the one you saw helping them to local cultural arts productions and events. It's important, she said, for everyone to be a part of the community.

"It's great to offer them opportunities. It's great for them to have something to work for."

The residents decide where they want to go on vacation. They've been to the Outer Banks, Disney World and Washington, D.C. Rosser helped them find opportunities to earn money and save it for vacation.

"I think we've improved people's lives," she said.

The group home is operated by a board of directors, and Rosser said over the years board members have been receptive to new ideas. Davie County is ahead of many surrounding areas, she said.

"The board has allowed me to change people's lives and offer different services. They've never said you can't do that. It's been a team effort."

During her tenure, the group home went from $2,000 to $403,701 cash in hand. It used to rent space, now has two debt free properties and another that is being paid for. It served six residents in 1981, now serves 20. Services expanded from the bed and meal concept to include developmental therapy, personal care and home and community activities. It had the old brown van, now has a fleet of six vehicles.

Don Rhodes is the new director of the group home.

Assisted Living Community

Our second shift med tech, Rita McDougald, has come back to us at Davie Place after a brief period of time where she worked at another facility. "I've always loved Davie Place and have thoroughly enjoyed my time here."

Born and raised in the Charlotte area, Rita found a need to make a change and relocated to Clemmons where she resides with her husband of two years and her goldfish "Sandy".

In her spare time, she enjoys reading, listening to Christian music and watching old movies. Reading to her husband and his reading to her forms one of their strongest bonds.

Working as a med tech for the past five years has been a rewarding experience for her. The staff and residents at Davie Place are so pleased she has chosen this career path and sharing her life with us.

Apply Now For Low-Income Energy Assistance

The Davie County Department of Social Services will begin taking applications for the Low Income Energy Assistance Program on Nov. 3.

Applications will be taken at the Food and Nutrition Services Office, at 642 Wilkesboro St., Mocksville, Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. The last day to apply for the program will be Nov. 14. The office will be closed Nov. 11 in observance of Veteran's Day.

Eligibility for the program is based on income, resources and the household's heating source. The household must be vulnerable (subject to the rising energy cost).

Some food and nutrition services households will automatically be eligible. Those households should have received a notice informing them of their eligibility. Those households that are required to apply in person will receive a notice telling them to apply in person at the food and nutrition services office at the Department of Social Services. Other households should come to the office located at 642 Wilkesboro St. Verification of the total household income and resources for October will be required.

The program is not first-come, first-served. All those who apply during the designated time who are eligible will receive a one-time payment to help with heating bills. It is not the intent of the program to cover all of a household's heating expense, but to supplement these bills on a one-time basis. Those eligible for this assistance will receive their payments around Feb. 1.

Households which have an immediate need for assistance with heating costs should contact the Department of Social Services. The department does have limited funds available through the Crisis Intervention Program to help with these needs. To be eligible for the crisis program, a household must be in a crisis, or life-threatening situation. Those who are homebound and have no relatives to come to the agency to apply for them should call the Department of Social Services at 753-6185 to receive instructions on how to apply. Only those who are homebound and have no relatives should call. All others interested in the program are required to come to the agency on Wilkesboro Street to apply.

Churches Recognizing Hospice Sabbath

Many churches are participating this weekend in a Hospice event.

Called Hospice Sabbath, it is a time for remembering those who have died this year and for their families that cared for them. Some will include a white rose on a display, and have inserts in the bulletin about the Hospice & Palliative Care Center.

"Hospice and palliative care is compassionate, comprehensive care that focuses on improving the quality of life for anyone dealing with a serious life threatening illness, regardless of diagnosis or prognosis," said Fred B. Moretz, Hospice chaplain.

"We also work closely with family members of those Hospice patients. We speak to the total needs of the patient: medical, emotional, social and spiritual and seek to reduce or eliminate pain and other physical symptoms."

The non-profit agency works with patients in their homes and in long-term care facilities.

To learn more, call 751-0212 or visit the office at 377 Hospital St., Suite 103, Mocksville.

Healthy Carolinians Forum Focuses On Health Threats

Obesity, heart disease and diabetes have been identified as the major health threats to Davie residents.

The cause: poor eating habits, lack of exercise, and drug use including alcohol and tobacco.

These facts come from the Davie Health Department and Healthy Carolinians of Davie in a survey of several hundred county residents. Healthy Carolinians received a $6,000 grant to work on the problems.

Healthy Carolinians will host a forum on Nov. 7 from 8:30 a.m.-1 p.m. at St. Francis of Assisi Parish Hall in Mocksville. Community members are invited.

Health presentations, focused discussion groups and breakout sessions will fill the agenda. Learn more about the committees of Healthy Carolinians, including chronic disease, physical activity and nutrition, substance abuse/mental health/sexually transmitted disease, and the suicide prevention team.

To learn more or to participate, call Shirin Scotton at 751-8711.

Effort To Buy Fuel Oil For The Elderly Expanding

Committee Formed To Help Zip Jones

A steering committee has been set up to help pay for a double lung transplant for Warren "Zip" Jones of Mocksville. Organizer Vernon Thompson said the group will meet at 5 p.m. Thursday in the conference room at the Comfort Inn to discuss ideas.

Jones has been told he will die without the transplant, and it will not be done without $25,000. He has paid $30,000 of his own money.

Money to help pay for fuel oil for the elderly is being collected at C's and Miller's restaurants in Mocksville, and at The Phone Place on Depot Street. Cans are also being recycled and sold to pay for fuel oil. Recreational are in front of the Davie Schools administration building on Cherry Street, and at the schools maintenance facility on South Davie Drive, both in Mocksville.

Fork Fifty Plus Club Hears Singing Seniors

The Fork Fifty Plus Club met on Wednesday, Oct. 22 at 11:30 a.m. at the Fork Civic Club.

A covered dish luncheon was enjoyed by the 10 members present, along with 19 members of the Davie County Singing Seniors. Following the meal, the Singing Seniors entertained with songs about helping and serving others, including "If I Can Help Somebody," "Reach Out and Touch," "I'll Walk With You," and "Help Somebody Today." They ended the program with a patriotic medley.

Following the program, the meeting was called to order by the president, Carmen Walker, who presented the devotional thoughts by the reading of "Who Packed Your Parachute Today?"

Minutes were read by the secretary, Betty Grissom, followed by the treasurer's report by El Hendrix and the Sunshine report by Jean Bailey.

During the business session, the group decided to participate in a service project of helping the Davie County Schools program of Bookbags of Hope. A list of food items needed was discussed, and it was decided each member would bring one or more of these items to the November meeting.

Thanks was expressed to everyone for the meal provided as at Advance United Methodist Church. Our pastor, the Rev. Cheryl Skinner, was given a monetary gift from the congregation, presented by Joyce Robertson.

The community breakfast fundraiser and bazaar will be Saturday, Nov. 1 at the Methodist church fellowship hall from 7-10 a.m. Baked goods and crafts will be available.

There will be "Trunk or Treat" along with the Advance First Baptist children on Friday night Oct. 31 from 6-8 p.m. The children will meet in the grassy area beside the Baptist church to pass out treats to the kids in our community.

Decorate your car trunks - and yourselves and have plenty of treats on hand as we reach out in witness to folks who live in the neighborhood and around our churches. Bring the children for a safe evening of fun and trick-or-treating.

Bailey's Chapel Holds Fall Festival

Bailey's Chapel United Methodist Church held its Fall Festival Saturday, Oct. 18. Everyone had a great time, even if the air was a little cool and breezy. The Methodist Men served sausage biscuits and coffee for breakfast, and hamburger and hotdogs with all the trimmings for lunch. There were lots of homemade pies, cakes and other desserts for sale. The yeast rolls and chicken pies were gone really quick. There was handmade jewelry and handmade pillows. The Muppet show was put on by the church Muppet ministry. A Spring Fling is being planned for next year.

Volunteers keep an eye on the table of baked goods.

Mocksville First Methodist Celebrating 175 Years

First United Methodist Church of Mocksville will have a homecoming on Sunday, Nov. 2 in celebration of its 175th anniversary.

The homecoming will begin with a special church service which will outline the congregation's past, present and future, at 10:55. After the service a covered dish meal will be served in the Family Life Center.

The First United Methodist Church grew out of the Bethel Methodist Church located one mile east of Mocksville. In 1833 Jesse Clement of Mocksville went to Bethel to hear a sermon by C.P. Moorman. Clement and his wife were converted to Methodism. Soon regular services were held at their plantation home on West Maple Avenue and other places in Mocksville.

On a lot given by Mrs. Lucretia Carter (where the Mocksville Police Station stands) a white frame church was built with a balcony (for slaves) and steps leading up to two front doors.

In 1836 the church held 66 members of which 41 were slaves. In 1836 the Mocksville Circuit was formed by Davie County Methodist Churches. Formerly churches in Davie County were in the Salisbury Circuit. The new circuit was formed when Davie County was formed from Rowan County in 1836.

In 1872 the Mocksville Circuit was divided into the Davie and the Mocksville Circuit. First Methodist continued as a part of a circuit until 1896 when the present sanctuary was built and the Mocksville church became a station church.

Two times in the 1800s the N.C. Annual Conference met in Mocksville, first in 1840 and again in 1864. At both of these conferences town and county residents of all denominations helped to provide accommodations for ministers and horses. Also, Davie County court was held in the first sanctuary after Davie County was formed in 1836. Davie County's first courthouse was not completed until 1839.

In 1891 plans were made for a new church building, and a lot was bought across Main Street from the original church. In 1894 the church sold 40 feet of the new lot for a road, now Church Street. In 1895 the old church building was sold except for the foundation stones. By that year $1,481 had been raised for the new church. The present sanctuary was built and was dedicated in 1896 by Bishop Wallace Duncan.

In 1917 the first separate facility for Sunday School rooms was built. The "North Annex", as it was called, is used as youth Sunday School classrooms, the hand bell choir room, and parlor. In 1918 a Delco plant was installed to produce lighting.

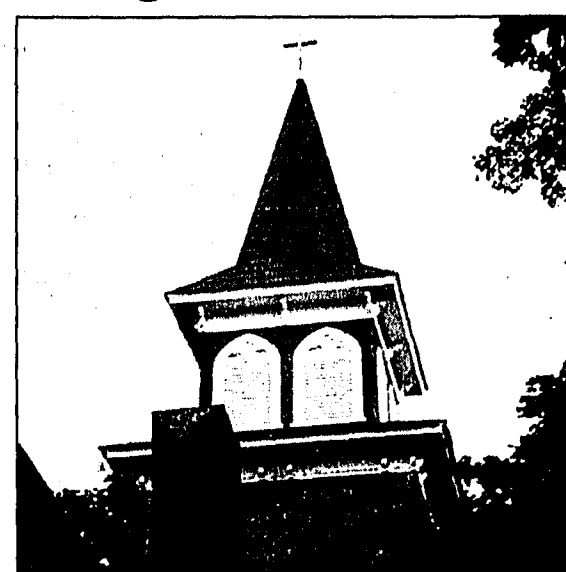

In 1933 the South Annex was completed to provide a small fellowship hall, indoor restrooms, and adult Sunday School rooms. The South Annex houses the choir room, the church library, and a storage room. In 1955 a larger fellowship hall was added to church facilities. Today the old Fellowship Hall is divided into a Sunday School classroom and small fellowship hall.

In 1948-49 the sanctuary was remodeled. In 1957 the Education Building was constructed to house classrooms for children. Today the building houses the pre-school programs and Sunday School classrooms. In 1973-74 the sanctuary was again remodeled, as were the North and South Annexes. The refurbished sanctuary and addition were dedicated by Bishop Earl G. Hunt Jr. on Feb. 22, 1976. The Education Building was rededicated in 1986-87.

Property was purchased from the C. B. James estate in 1988 to allow for expansion, and a parking lot was purchased in the 1990s.

The Heffner (later Food Lion) grocery store building was purchased by two church families in 2001 and presented to the church with the intention of converting the building into a Family Life Center. More than $1.2 million was spent on this building which today houses a large fellowship hall with commercial kitchen, offices for staff, large meeting rooms for middle school and senior high UMY groups, and facilities for scouting programs. The new Family Life Center was opened in 2002. Since opening the building has been used for church and community events.

First United Methodist Church's members continue the heritage today. The church offers special music for adults and children. Members give of themselves through mission work in Davie County, North Carolina, United States and the world. Men, women, and children join in Disciple Classes, Prayers and Squares Ministry, the men and women work on projects throughout the year, and the youth are involved in helping others. The church continues to grow.

An invitation is extended to everyone to this special time in the life First Methodist Church.

Farmington News

By Laura Mathis
Farmington Correspondent

If you couldn't find anything to do in Davie County Saturday, it's only because you didn't look. There was the Battle Branch Jamboree, Tractor Ride through Davie County, the Miracle Trail, and festivals galore. The rain gave away to beautiful sunshine and warm temperatures.

Despite everything going on around Farmington, there was a good crowd at the Farmington Harvest Festival. I believe many came by for the chance to hear the Craft Brothers sing. Now I know why everyone likes them. Ivie Dean and her brother, Alan, were a couple of the vendors who came to sell handcrafted jewelry.

The 4-H group, the Clover Club was on hand to help out with games for the little ones.

They did a great job with supplying games, face painting and fun for those who stopped by their booth. There were several vendors who sat up booths filled with beautiful handcrafted items. Ivie Dean and her brother, Alan, were a couple of the vendors who came to sell handcrafted jewelry.

Virginia Stewart Reece won a prize for her antique quilt, which was given to her by her grandmother and is estimated to be over 100 years old.

There were several raffles and Florance Hampton of Lewisville won the door prize.

The Farmington Community Center would like to thank Pete Gentry and Wee Brock, who provided the hayride, all who donated prizes and food, Lisa Mastin who prepared gift baskets for the raffle, the Clover Club for community service, and thank you again to the Craft Brothers who did a great job keeping the crowd entertained.

We appreciate all who came out to the festival and for the volunteers who made it all happen.

The Farmington Community Association's next board meeting will be Nov. 4 at the Farmington Community Center at 7:30 p.m. For everyone who hasn't voted yet, get out there and vote. Every vote is going to count this year, so do your part.

County Line News

Our County Line VFD, Ladies Auxiliary, and community think everyone who dined at our annual fall barbecue and chicken pie supper this past Saturday. We trust your dining experience was a pleasure. We greatly appreciate those who cooked, baked, served, parked, and cleaned. Everyone's support enabled our VFD to clear over $8,500, which will be used for the department's training, operations, and maintenance. Be sure to mark Saturday, March 29, for our spring supper on your calendar now.

County Line firefighters meet regularly at 7 p.m. the first and third Monday of each month at the fire station at 1819 Ridge Road. If interested in becoming a firefighter, come to a meeting or call chief Brian Kountz on 492-5759. He will be glad to give you a tour of operations and equipment. We always have a need for dedicated firefighters.

If you were unable to dine with us at our VFD supper and would love to have some good County Line vittles and hospitality or just want a delicious breakfast, then join the V-Point Ruritans for a relaxing breakfast buffet Saturday morning, Nov. 1, at the V-Point Diners fill the County Line Volunteer Fire Department for the annual chicken pie and barbecue supper (above left). There are a lot of volunteers who work behind the scenes to make the supper a success.

Building on Old Mocksville Road. Serving begins at 6 a.m. and the menu will include fried country ham, fresh seasoned sausage, scrambled eggs, red-eye gravy, sawmill gravy, grits, cornmeal mush, baked apples, biscuits, and drink, eat in or take out. Just make a donation and eat as much as you wish. All proceeds will benefit Ruritan community projects.

Clarksburg United Methodist Church will have a Trunk or Treat from 6-8 p.m.

Friday, Oct. 31, in the parking lot. All children in the community are invited.

Calvary Baptist Church will celebrate homecoming and the 25th anniversary of the church Sunday morning, Nov. 2. The Rev. Dr. Bobby Henderson, a former pastor of the church, will bring the message at the 11 a.m. worship hour. A covered-dish dinner will follow in the fellowship hall. Members give a special invitation to all friends and former members to bring a picnic basket filled with good food and treasured memories.

Please remember to turn back your clocks one hour this weekend. Daylight Savings Time ends at 2 a.m. Sunday, Nov. 2. Enjoy that extra hour of sleep Saturday night. Also, be sure to check your smoke and heat detectors. For battery-operated ones, replace old batteries.

Just think: This time next week we will have had two days of being able to watch our favorite TV programs without having to endure any political ads and our phones will perhaps not ring as much. In the meantime, be sure to exercise your right of say in our government matters by voting in the upcoming election. You can register/vote until 1 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 1, at your board of elections or you may vote at your precinct from 6:30 a.m.-7:30 p.m. Election Day Tuesday, Nov. 4.

Upcoming events include a breakfast sponsored by the Young Y's of Piney Grove AME Zion Church Saturday, Nov. 15, and a Red Cross Blood Mobile Drive Monday, Nov. 17, at also Piney Grove.

Our community sends get-well wishes to Lee Cartner and Ruth Greene. Lee has been hospitalized with an infection at Duke Medical Center. Ruth has been hospitalized at Iredell Memorial Hospital. Virginia Porter remains at Iredell Memorial. Esther Campbell, Michael Evans, and Lois Smith are recuperating at home. Join us as we pray for the Lord's healing and blessings in the lives of Lee, Ruth, Virginia, Esther, Michael, and Lois. Continue to remember in prayer Matt Lasswell and his father Martin, who remains at Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center. Their neighbor Nathan Cole, who was seriously injured in the house explosion, died last Friday. Pray for the Lord's comfort and healing in the lives of his family and for Jim Holdsclew, who remains hospitalized.

Jessica White was honored for her birthday Sunday with lunch at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe White. Others enjoying the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Mark White and Glenda Supp.

We extend sincere sympathy to the family of Johnnie Shelton who died Saturday. She was a resident of this community for many years.

In Memory of Aunt Johnnie Shelton
Some people were known for wealth and fame. Others are known for their important name. This one was known for thoughts and deeds. Things that were great for all our needs. Cards to the sick and shut-ins she would send. Everyone she knew was her friend. She was a seamstress and a great cook. And she could do it without a book. To her family with sympathy and love let me say, We'll all meet again some sweet day.

Sheffield-Calahan News

By Janice Jordan
Sheffield-Calahan
Correspondent

Game Night at the Sheffield-Calahan Community Center last Friday was a success. Lots of folks arrived early to enjoy hotdogs for supper. Around 80 people had fun at the bingo games, the 50-50 drawing, and three cake walks, while one lucky person won a night at a bed and breakfast. Young children were happy to receive trick or treat bags.

Not only does this type of event help with the expenses of running the center, it provides fellowship and entertainment. Our community is fortunate to have such a wonderful place, and thanks go to Wanda Sutphin and all of the other people who serve on the committee who oversee and maintain the facility. The outdoor recreation area is one of the best in the county due to the leadership of Larry and Doris Dyson and the work of many who assist their efforts. The support of local businesses and the community at large are vital. Some people have expressed an interest in attending a game night more often, so if you have an opinion, call Brenda at 751-7567 with your comments or ideas.

Friday was also the night for the Fall Festival at William R. Davie Elementary. Even though people couldn't be at both places at the same time, the turn-out at each event was good, which means more people are looking for ways for families to have wholesome entertainment. It's refreshing that local elementary school personnel know the students and their families as well as they do. Such a professional, yet family type of atmosphere at WRD benefits the children's environment for learning. The children had fun playing the games and dancing, and they enjoyed seeing their teachers have fun, too.

Fall events continued with a trunk or treat and chicken stew held on Saturday, Oct. 25 at James Baptist Church. The fun started in the parking lot with lots of candy handed out to the children from the decorated trunks of church members' and others' cars. Most of the kids were dressed in costumes representing Biblical characters or animals that included several kings, queens, an angel, and even a shepherd with a sheep. The event then moved to the outdoor shelter where chicken stew was served before too much candy could ruin supper. The Adult I class did most of the work, with Jason Webb and Robert Rogers making the stew. As the sun went down, the hot stew kept the chill away, and after dessert, the children were ready for games such as football toss, fishing for prizes, and swinging the sledge hammer to ring the bell. The parking lot train ride was also a big hit.

Most adults were able to settle into their lawn chairs after their meal with a cup of hot chocolate or coffee while keeping an eye on the children's activities. James members provided a wonderful event for the community, and those attending who were able to make a monetary donation will have helped the youth at the church attend a religious play in Tennessee in the next few weeks.

The Youth Clowns at James are beginning a new ministry. Although they haven't revealed their identities, they released information that a trip is scheduled to go to Baptist Hospital on Nov. 2 where they will visit patients who have been hospitalized for an extended period of time. Their first audience was the children who attend Awana, and they loved being entertained as well as learning Bible truths.

Klaire Allen, daughter of Gary and Alisa Allen, had her 7th birthday party at the Sheffield-Calahan Recreation Area on Sunday, Oct. 19. The children played on the playground equipment, but took time to have birthday cake and other refreshments, while the adults enjoyed conversation. Breaking the candy filled pinata was fun for all.

New Union's History Committee still has Christmas ornaments that include a tote bag for only $5 each.

The Women's Fellowship at New Union is selling the 225th Anniversary cookbook for $3. The Appetizers & Beverages cookbook for $5, and the Desserts, Desserts, & More Desserts for $10. Buy all three and receive a free quilted tote bag, or you can get the bag for $3 with any single cookbook purchase. Call 751-7567 for more information about any of the above items.

The Sheffield Music Hall will feature Cranford Creek for your musical enjoyment on Nov. 1. Jack Bailey and Crusher Run will play at Redding's Country Kitchen in Ronda on Oct. 31. Halloween, and the next night they will be at Christopher's Pizza in Meadows of Dan, Va.

A Trunk or Treat will be held in the parking lot of New Union United Methodist Church at 1869 Sheffield Road Oct. 31, from 6:30-8 p.m. There will be a hayride for the children, and Sheffield-Calahan Volunteer Fire Department will have a truck on site for the kids to see. All are welcome.

Sheffield-Calahan Volunteer Fire Department will cook a limited number of whole Boston butt roasts for Thanksgiving. Precooked weights should average about 5-7 pounds. Order by Nov. 16 and plan to pick up on Wednesday, Nov. 26 between 3 and 5 p.m. The price is $25 each and tickets can be purchased from any Sheffield firefighter or by calling Karen at 403-3170. Reflective address signs for $15 each are still available and can help emergency personnel find your home faster.

On Friday, Nov. 7 a bingo night to benefit the annual Children's Christmas Party at the Sheffield-Calahan Fire Department will begin at 6:30 p.m. Boys Bears will be awarded as prizes. Fifteen games cost $15, with the first game beginning at 7. Concessions, including pizza, desserts, and beverages, can be purchased. Door prize tickets will be sold with drawings between games, and a silent auction will be held throughout the evening with winners announced at the end of bingo. Donations to be used as door prizes are needed from individuals and businesses. Contact Brandi Drye at 462-1416 if you can help.

Halloween birthdays will be celebrated by Ryan Butler, Denise Miller, Penny Dunlap, and Jeremy Barker. November birthdays begin with Carla Dyson, Doris Dyson, and Adam Sheesley on the first; Jesse Dyson on the second; Bertha Johnson and Mary Teague on the third; Ann Farmer on the fourth; Perry Richardson and Jecca Atkins on the fifth; and Darnell Gobble, Dina Johnson, and Lyn Anderson on the sixth. Congratulations to Michael and Gina Swisher whose wedding anniversary is Nov. 4 and to Vance and Anne Richardson, whose anniversary is Nov. 6.

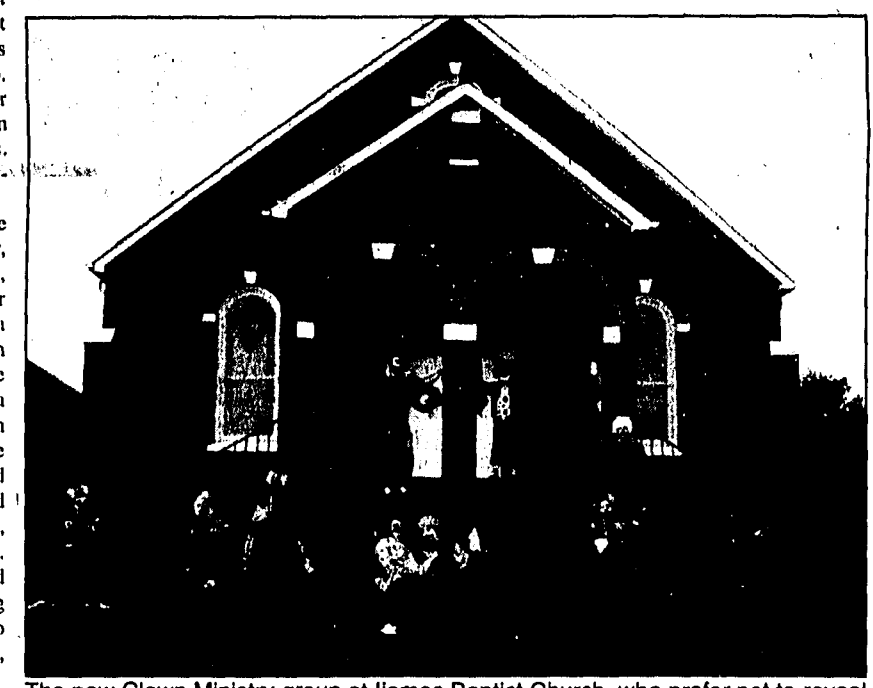

Please continue to keep 6-year-old Joanna Trent and her parents, Sheffield-Calahan Volunteer Fire Department firefighter, Earl Trent and auxiliary member, Barbara Trent in your prayers. Pumpkin Patch Helps Parents With Young Kids Support Literacy

On Thursday, Oct. 23, the office at Smart Start of Davie County was full of little pumpkins as the organization's Parents as Teachers program held a group meeting open to all parents with children from birth to 5.

The Pumpkin Patch Extravaganza was an opportunity for these parents to learn about supporting literacy through play with their children. Some activities included mini pumpkin decorating, making wreaths, and other fall learning activities. About 15 families with young children took advantage of the free event.

"This was a great opportunity for us to meet with parents in our Parents as Teachers program and invite others to learn more about it, while having a great time with their children," said Paula Burton, Parents as Teachers/quality improvement coordinator with Smart Start of Davie County. "We are here to serve all children in Davie County from birth to 5 years old, through various programs and services. Through events like this, families learn about the importance of early childhood development, and all the ways Smart Start can support them in those efforts."

Parents as Teachers is an internationally recognized early childhood education and family support program that serves families from pregnancy to kindergarten. The program is free and includes visits from a parent educator who provides educational activities and developmental information through home visits and monthly group meetings. Participation has been proven to improve school readiness in children.

For more information on Parents as Teachers or the programs and services offered by Smart Start, call 751-2113 or visit www.daviesmartstart.org.

That Jungle Beat

Cool-ee-mee Elementary Students Have Fun With Reading

A jungle beat is softly heard throughout the media center at Cool-ee-mee Elementary. Stuffed jungle animals lay low, watching the children as they enter their territory.

The Book Fair has arrived and Cool-ee-mee PTA Book Fair chair, Agnes Lipnicki, knows how to make it real. She and two other volunteers, Anika Fuller and Yanna dressed as Safari Girls who visited classrooms. They talked about books and going on adventures and showed children tropical birds.

Monday began the safari adventure and the children, full of excitement, lined up to enter the Safari Book Fair.

Lipnicki also headed up a loose change drive that raised more than $2,075 that will be donated to the teachers. They will be able to use this money at the spring "Buy one Get one Free" book fair. Students brought in more than 50,000 pennies and loose silver change. The State Employees Credit Union staff and teller Angie Caudle helped county the money.

Mrs. Hendrix's third grade class came in first place bringing in $296.28 which earned them the Super Duper Ice Cream Party. Mrs. Shoffner's third grade class came in second and they were allowed to have a pajama day, third place went to Mrs. Essic's fifth grade class and they had a crazy hat day.

The goal was to collect $500 for teachers to use on books for their classrooms.

"We were happy to announce that we passed our goal by $1,500, making our collection over $2,000," Lipnicki said. "When we reached our goal, the teachers wore crazy safari hats and at the end of the week the students had wacky tacky day. What a sight."

On Tuesday night it was Family Reading Night and the Safari was open to the public.

"Many thanks go out to our students, parents, community and volunteers who worked so hard to make this event a success," she said. "Special thank you to Vivian Allen, who purchased books from teachers' wish lists for all 27 classrooms, totaling over $800. Our students and Cool-ee-mee Staff can't wait for our Spring Book Fair when you can buy one book and get one free."

HAVE A SAFE AND HAPPY HALLOWEEN

Trick or Treat Safety Tips

Face paint is preferable to a mask. Make sure masks have adequate holes for respiration and vision. Be visible - Wear some sort of reflective clothing, carry a bright orange bag and carry a flashlight or glowstick.

When walking stay on the sidewalk or on the left side of the road facing traffic. Young children should always be accompanied by an adult.

Don't let the child go down a street by themselves.

Don't let the child go to each house and knock on the door.

Good children should travel in pairs or in groups and should never venture down a dark, empty side street.

Dark, unlighted houses should be avoided. Save all candy until returning home, then inspect it carefully.

Throw away all unwrapped or suspicious looking goodies.

If a child becomes sick, try to remember what he or she ate and where it came from. Call the doctor or hospital ER immediately and save all wrappers.
