"A gentleman...Individual conscience will rule his social acts. By love of quality as against quantity he will choose his way through life. He will learn to know the difference between the curious and the beautiful. Truth will be a divinity to him. As his gentleness cannot be conferred, so it may not be inherited. This gentleness of democracy will be found in any honest occupation at any level of fortune, loving beauty, doing his best and being kind."

--Frank Lloyd Wright

Prentice Campbell was a true gentleman. He celebrated life with compassion, honesty, and above all else a generous love and respect for his fellow man.

These qualities formed the foundation of his life, attributes which were not merely a reflection of his beliefs, but a window into his very soul.

Campbell was well known and respected by people from all walks of life. He was compassionate and kindhearted, but never let his sensitivity override his deep convictions that God was to be the one guiding force in his life.

Never faltering, he walked through life steadfast in character and with a true yet rare discipline of life.

Campbell was the type of person that was always willing to serve in whatever capacity was needed. He showed his dedication to his church by devoting 50 years to its growth and advancement, holding positions in every phase of its fellowship including church lay leader, Sunday School teacher, and as a member of its administrative board.

He served his community in numerous ways including a term on the Mocksville Town Board and as a member of Rotary International.

A devoted family man, Campbell's daily actions reflected his love for his wife, sons and grandchildren. His face beamed with pride at the mention of their names and his final words were of love and concern for them.

Campbell faced death as he faced life...with humbleness...courage...dignity and graciousness.

Let us not remember him with the sadness of his passing, but with rejoicing that a special man walked among us, touching our lives with such abundant kindness and compassion.

In the words of Alexander McLeod, "We picture death as coming to destroy; let us rather picture Christ as coming to save. We think of death as ending; let us rather think of life as beginning, and that more abundantly. We think of losing; let us think of gaining. We think of parting; let us think of meeting. We think of going away; let us think of arriving. And as the voice of death whispers "You must go from earth," let us hear the voice of Christ saying, "You are but coming to me!"

A Memorial In Loving Memory of Ernest Waddell Frye ("UNK")

(They say that time has a way of healing the wounds of the heart, but the sweet memories of a loved one, and the loss we feel within our hearts, even the jaws of death can never destroy. We hold so many memories of Ernest in our hearts, the precious times we've shared down through the years, all the joys and heartaches, and even when times were hard, Ernest always had a cheery smile that he always brought a smile out of each one he met. Ernest loved his family and his many friends. He loved his country and fought for it. During World War II he was stationed in Iceland. He served his country well as late John Frank and Sarah Louise Miller Ward and was a member of Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church. Survivors include a brother, Claudius Taylor Ward of Kernersville; and several nieces and nephews.

Davie Co. Public Library
Mocksville, N. C.

For the past 20 years Ernest worked for the Department of Transportation. He loved his work and his fellow-workers. He retired from the State in April of 1980.

He was a wonderful husband, and a loving father and grandfather. He will be missed so much during the coming holidays, but we thank God for letting us have him for 43 years in marriage. We celebrated our 43rd wedding anniversary on Sunday. The next day God called him home.

Words can't express our loss, but within our hearts he left a legacy of love, and so many memories that will never fade away. Till we meet in God's Tomorrow.

A Loving Wife and Daughter
Kathleen and Ernestine

OF OUR BELOVED FATHER NED P. LOOKABILL

He spent all of his childhood days with them. He plowed fields at seven years old. He later met and married Lois Spyr, they had eight children, Mildred, Richard, Peggy, Bobby, Bill, Freddie (who died in 1941) Ronnie & Jimmy (Lookabill. Many people remember him as the scrappy young man that loved sports. He was considered to be one of the best second basemen to come out of Davie County. He led his team to many championships. He owned at one time hunting dogs. Men would come from surrounding cities to participate in that sport with him - his dogs being the best in the county. He loved boxing and would join in with the young men at the Courthouse Square in Mocksville for boxing matches. He was an avid golfer, playing many weekends with his children until the age of 70. They seldom could beat him in this sport. He was manager for awhile of the Mocksville Miller baseball team sports! He took pride in leading a girl's softball team along with daughters Mildred & Peggy to many championships. At one time in their young days, he had his two daughters and 5 sons on local softball and baseball teams. He taught them the sport. His family recalls how he would let young men of the community help in the fields. (He farmed and worked at Erwin Mills). Their pay would be a warm meal. Many of these men paid their respects to him at the funeral and considered him their second Daddy. He cared for every person he came in touch with. He gave so much of himself to help others. Never asking for anything in return. He loved his church, and went often until he had a leg amputated several years ago. He was a man - A loving and caring person.

Thank You,
