Mrs. Lola Etchison

Mrs. Lola Penelope Sofley Etchison, wife of Everett Frost Etchison of Cana, N. C., died Monday, September 20, 1982, in the Davie County Hospital. Mrs. Etchison was 78 years of age and had suffered from a crippling illness for more than twenty of those years.

The funeral was held at 4 p.m. Wednesday at the Eaton's Baptist Church with burial in the church cemetery. The family requests memorials be made to the Eaton's Baptist Church, Davie County Library or the Cana School Restoration Fund.

Mrs. Etchison was born January 25, 1904 in Davie County to John A. and Mary Martin Sofley. She attended school in Farmington, graduated from the Clemmons High School, and attended Womans College at Greensboro. She was married to Everett Etchison on September 3, 1931.

A person of many talents, she was recognized as a leader in educational and community affairs. After a career in teaching in Cana schools she joined in the development of the public library service in Davie County. She was bookmobile librarian for 13 years and later served on the staff in the county library in Mocksville.

She was a charter member and served for 45 years in the N. C. Homemakers Club. Her career as an educator, mother and homemaker was widely recognized and she was nominated as the county "Mother of the Year" and awarded the N. C. Certificate of Merit of the American Mothers Committee.

She worked with her husband, a farmer and lumberman, to assure a college education for their three children: Betty West (Mrs. Roland West); Johnny (John Walter Etchison of Siler City) and "Marty", Mary Martin (Mrs. William Babcock of Bloomington, Minn.).

Her great influence, sense of values, moral stamina and love of learning has enriched the lives of her grandchildren: Mrs. Frances West Tutterow, a nurse of Statesville; Henry West of Mocksville; Susan West of East Carolina University; Tony and Patrice Etchison of Siler City; and great grandchildren Jason Everette and Elisabeth Tutterow of Statesville. She is also survived by two sisters: Mrs. Ethel Cook of Redland and Mrs. Marie Clingman of Rt. 5, Mocksville.

During the 1870's, when her crippled hands could no longer work their magic in fine needle work, she taught the art to her grandchildren and turned her interest toward the life of the mind. Her keen, discerning intellect capacity never diminished. Her home, with its booklined walls became her castle. She read and reread the classics, history and through books delved into world affairs. She could speak with authority on many complicated issues of the times.

Many friends visited her and usually left enriched in mind and spirit. The impact of Mrs. Etchison's personality, original wit and humor intrigued old and young alike.

The celebration of her golden wedding anniversary in September of 1981 was truly a climax in the life of this remarkable woman. How she lived her life has truly become an incentive for conduct by which we, the living, honor the dead.

Roger Dale Hamilton, Is Killed By Lightning

Davie County Enterprise-Record September 23, 1982

Roger Dale Hamilton, 29, of Rt. 4 Mocksville, was killed late Saturday afternoon by lightning while he was standing near a metal gate on his farm. He was pronounced dead on arrival at 6:40 p.m. at Davie County Hospital.

Hamilton was storing hay with his wife, father, brother and a neighbor when a thunderstorm came up. Hamilton was reported to have just opened a metal gate when the rain started.

The group heard a crack of thunder. Mrs. Hamilton, who was carrying an umbrella, was knocked down. The umbrella was knocked from her hand and she screamed.

After the group found that Mrs. Hamilton was unharmed they looked for Hamilton and found him lying about 15 feet from the metal gate. Hamilton was not breathing, his brother said.

The brother said that nobody saw Hamilton when he was struck and did not know if he had his hand on the metal gate. Efforts to revive him during the trip to the hospital were unsuccessful.

Hamilton worked in the maintenance department for the R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. and was a part-time farmer who raised cows and strawberries.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon at the Jerusalem Baptist Church. The Rev. Alton Fitzgerald and the Rev. Fred Cariton officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery.

He was born February 25, 1953, in Davie County to L.B. and Jean C. Cottingham Hamilton.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Jo Anne Cuthrell of the home; one daughter, Miss Rebecca Hamilton, and one son, Robin Hamilton, both of the home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L.B. Hamilton of Rt. 4, Mocksville; two sisters, Mrs. Regina Miller and Mrs. Renee Crotts, both of Rt. 4, Mocksville; three brothers, Ronald Hamilton of Raleigh; Ricky and Rocky Hamilton of Rt. 4 Mocksville; his grandmother, Mrs. Ruby C. Bost of Salisbury.
