PARROT LIKE.

The editor of the Record can actually cover more space and say less than any man we know of. Probably if the Record would "borrow" new ideas it would not be so near approach to yellow journalism. Davie Times.

If we mistake not, the above sentiment, less the "yellow journalism" part was uttered by one of the Winston dailies. This is not original idea with our contemporary. A man who exposes Democratic methods may expect to get such stuff as the above flung at him. We care little about the adverse opinion of our would be critics. By reading, studying and keeping our eyes and ears open we occasionally run up on an idea, and then we do, we give the public the benefit of it, even if it does cover good deal of space, and occasionally it runs counter to Democracy, and that is a pretty good reason for one to presume that its not altogether empty vapors. "Better have loved and lost, than never have loved at all." Our friend who borrowed the above idea from the Journal can console himself with this thought, that one who covers a lot of space and says nothing cannot possibly do much harm. As a further consolation, we cannot give our contemporary any credit for the few scattering ideas he occasionally stumble up against in his meanderings.

As to the "yellow journalism," we suppose that it is a little unpleasant to our Democratic friends for us to speak out so plainly about their misdoings at election times, and if telling the truth about such things makes us a Yellow Journalist, we could be termed guilty.

THE DRIFT OF THINGS.
The people have long been "deceived by the artful appeal to prejudice on the race question, but, we believe, a new era is dawning. The masses are awakening to the fact that wider markets for their cotton produce and a protective tariff for their manufacturing and numbering interests, republican doctrines are essential for Carolina's prosperity. The old regime is doomed. New occasions teach new duties, and the problems of the present fit not a sentimental, suicidal and time worn creed. The state Democratic ring can already see the handwriting on the wall. -Elizabeth City North Carolina.

WHITE MAN'S BURDEN, PAST AND PRESENT.
"The Leopard's Spots" or the white man's Burden, is a very well written story and portrays some facts which are matters of history." writes A. S. Melton in the Asheville Gazette, but only so much of the truth is laid down as is useful to serve the purpose for which it is specifically intended—the preservation of the political prestige of the democratic party, with the very evident motive to manufacture campaign material in the next election, to keep alive the race question as an issue. What is the use of fighting over again the civil war? To fan the dying embers of old hatreds and prejudices can only serve a dishonorable purpose. We are living in the present, and ruled by iron handed politicians; through dishonest elections, excessive taxation and the price of poll tax, to be paid six months in advance of an election, put upon the poor man's vote. On the approach of every campaign, in one way or another, the politicians who profit by it, find means to bring this thing up and to make it the shield for whatever evil they choose to do—and the poor white man is the biggest sufferer in the end."—Argus.

The Great Dismal Swamp

Of Virginia is a breeding ground of malaria germs. So is low, wet or marshy ground everywhere. These germs cause weakness, chills and fever, aches in the bones and muscles, and may induce dangerous malarial troubles. They will surely prevent typhoid. "We tried many remedies for malaria and stomach and liver troubles," writes John Charleston, of Byesville, O., "but never found anything as good as Electric Bitters." Try them. Only 50c. C. C. Helena Keller's Tribute to Her Mother.

How shall I write of my mother? She is so near to me that it almost seems indelicate to speak of her. We never dream of comparing our mother to another; it is enough that she is our mother—the being in whose beneficent tenderness is security and joy. To describe her would be like attempting to put into words the fragrance of a flower or the smile on a beloved face.—April Ladies' Home Journal.

A Doctor's Bad Plight.

"Two years ago, as a result of a severe cold, I lost my voice," writes Dr. M. L. Scarborough, of Hebron, Ohio, "then began an obstinate cough. Every remedy known to me as a practicing physician for 35 years, failed and I daily grew worse. Being urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, I found quick relief, and for last ten days have felt better than for two years." Postively guaranteed for Throat and Lung troubles by C. C. Sanford. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

See J. N. Ledford's new ad. in this issue. It will pay you to read it. They now have the largest and most select stock of goods of any firm in the County, and it will pay you to read their ad, and see what bargains they have to offer you.

A Substantial Fact.

W. R. Clark, Pickaway, Virginia, says: I have for several years been using Ramon's Pills in my family with most satisfactory results, and do not hesitate to recommend them to my customers as superior to any of the various kinds kept in stock. Not only are your pills reliable but Ramon's Relief and Nerve and Bone Oil are the most satisfactory remedies I ever handled, and if they were more generally used, they would often make the Doctor's bill only 25c, instead of $2.00. These goods need no dusting in my stock because they are constantly coming in and a going out—are Trade Winners and Trade Keepers. These good qualities are not a theory but a substantial fact.

Our friends must overlook the crowded condition of our paper for the present. We don't get such ads. often, and as subscription money is slow in coming in at this time, we have got to take these ads to help out our expense acct.

Not long ago a western Kansas politician was asked by his wife to lay aside politics long enough day to dig potatoes in the gar one He consented and, after digging a few minutes, went into the house and said he had found a coin. He washed it off and it proved to be a silver quarter. He put it in his jeans and went back to work. Presently he went to the house again and said he had found another coin. He washed the dirt off of it this time it was a silver half-dollar. He put it in his jeans.

"I have worked pretty hard," said he to his wife; "I guess I'll take a short nap."

When he awoke he found that his wife had dug all the rest of the potatoes. But she found no coins. It then dawned upon her that she had been "worked."—Argonaut

COFFEE EYES.

It Attacks Many Persons There.

To illustrate how coffee can affect the eyes the words of a lady in Woodland, Ia. are quoted.

"I was brought up to believe that tea was injurious but was allowed to drink coffee from childhood. Ever since I can remember I have been subject to severe attacks of headache, otherwise my health was pretty good until a short time ago my eyes became affected; they ached and pained me continually and were often badly inflamed. I also had queer, dizzy feelings in my head almost continually.

One time we were obliged to do without milk or cream for a few weeks, and not relishing my coffee clear I left off its use. In a short time I was surprised to find my eyes greatly improved, and I felt better in every way, still I did not mistrust the coffee, and began its use as soon as we got cream again. Within a few days my eyes were worse than ever. Then I resolved to quit coffee absolutely and take up Postum. This I did and my eyes quickly recovered. My experience shows that while coffee caused headache and eye trouble Postum Food Coffee does not produce any bad effects whatever and is greatly strengthening and nourishing." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

A Nearly Fatal Runaway.

Started a horrible ulcer on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove Ill., which defied doctors and all remedies for four years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Just as good for Boils, Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Corns, Scalds, Skin Eruptions, and Piles 25c at C. C. Sanford's.

How He Got His Birthmark.

From The Milwaukee Sentinel.

The other day a well known rounder, somewhat the worse for a discolored eye, walked into a downtown barroom, where he met a number of his friends.

"Hello Jim," exclaimed one of the men at the bar, "what's the matter with your eye? Been getting into trouble?"

"Oh, no," replied the man, "that's a birthmark."

"A birthmark?" said the first speaker, in surprise; you did not have it a few days ago. How do you account for the birthmark appearing at this time of life?"

"Well," answered Jim, by way of explanation, "it's like this: You see, I went down to Chicago on the boat the other day, and on my way back I got into the wrong berth."

A Miraculous Feat.

"It seemed that nothing short of a miracle could save my little daughter from an untimely death," says City Marshall A. H. Malcolm, of Cherokee, Kan.

"When two years old she was taken with stomach and bowel trouble and despite the efforts of the best physicians we could procure, she grew gradually worse and was pronounced incurable. A friend advised and after giving it a few days she began to improve and finally fully recovered. She is now past five years of age and the very picture of health."

Dr. Miles' Nervine

Do your CHILDREN ASK QUESTIONS?

Of course they do. It is their way of learning and it is your duty to answer. You may need a dictionary to aid you. It won't answer every question, but there are thousands to which it will give you true, clear and definite answers, not about words only, but about things, the sun, machinery, metals, places, stories and the like. They, too, the children can find their own answers. Some of our greatest men have ascribed their power to study of the dictionary. Of course you want the best dictionary. Pamlico county has made application for help but has not collected the fines from the incorporated towns. But suits have been entered for their collection and it is expected that later the county will be able to get out of the supplementary fund.—Raleigh Post.

The above shows another thing that has to be done by the school authorities before they can get any of this second $100,000. Now in all seriousness, has it been done in Davie County? Have the incorporated towns been made to disgorge the fines rightfully belonging to the school fund, if not, why not? If not, under this law Davie County could not get any of these funds for needy districts. Yet some one keeps on saying the County Commissioners are to blame. It's just not so, and whoever says so is ignorant of the law, or is purposely circulating an untruth in order to shield those who are to blame. Pamlico county wanted some of this fund but could not get it, so the Post says, because it had failed to collect these fines. Has the Board of Education in Davie County complied with this part of the law, if not, we could not get any of this fund until we did. Now let some body answer this to the satisfaction of the people who have a right to know who is responsible for the short terms. The Rowan county Board got over $3000 from Salisbury in fines. There is a good deal no doubt due in Davie for the past three years from Advance and Mocksville. Why not get it? Chapter 4, Sec. 48 says that the County Superintendent must not sign any order for more money than is to the credit of the District. Has this been done, and is the Sheriff out of any money by reason of the violation of this section of the law? If this is not the law and the facts in the case, we will be obliged to some one for a correction of the errors. There is some loose work going on some where and it's going to be shown up, from time to time.

TO THE PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS OF
NORTH CAROLINA.

The authorities of the State Normal and Industrial College desiring to render every possible service to the educational interests of the state have decided to offer women teachers an institute of one month.

This is intended especially for those teachers who desire to better equip themselves for their work, but who for various reasons, are unable to pursue the full course.

A matriculation fee of $5 will be charged which will entitle the person paying the same to all lectures, library privileges, use of text books, etc. The only additional expense will be for board and laundry, both of which will not cost more than $3 a week.

In the department of Pedagogy lectures on the best methods of teaching all the common school studies will be given, and the students will have an opportunity to spend some time in the Practice and Observation School.

In addition, lectures and laboratory work will be offered in the different departments of science.

Besides the regular faculty of the State Normal and Industrial College, we shall have with us several city superintendents and other prominent educators to deliver special lectures.

The Institute will begin April 28th and close May 24th.

If it is your intention to avail yourself of this opportunity, or if you desire further information, please write to

REFORM FORCES COME TOGETHER

Delegates Must Subscribe to the Initiative and Referendum—General Organization.

Louisville, Special.—The movement for the formation of an allied party comprising adherents of all parties opposed to the Republicans and Democrats or as the call for the meeting started "a union of the reform forces against plutocracy," took definite shape Wednesday afternoon when a convention attended by about 200 delegates, representing eight States, and as many different parties, was called to order in this city. The work today was of a preliminary nature, a temporary organization being effected and committees appointed to prepare for the permanent organization. The convention adjourned at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon to meet again tomorrow morning.

Rev. Senator Gill, of Indiana, offered prayer, after which Dr. Joseph E. Chambers, of St. Louis, outlined the purposes of the convention. He urged that a party be formed with a platform broad enough for all to stand on. Not only were the politicians concerned, he said, but the great common people and the financiers of Wall street were greatly interested. He compared the meeting with the Continental Congress in Philadelphia. He urged that all little differences should be thrown aside and said that, while he advocated a platform of few planks, he wanted every one to be strong enough to hold all humanity.

Chairman Parker, of the national Populist committee, read the call for the meeting, after which he read the agreement reached by the conference at Kansas City last June, when the meeting in this city was provided for. This agreement stated that delegates to be entitled to seats in the convention must subscribe to the initiative and referendum and the imperative mandate, the public ownership of all public utilities, the land, including all natural resources shall not be monopolized for speculative purposes and alien ownership shall be prohibited; that all lands now held by corporations, in excess of natural needs, or held by aliens, shall be reclaimed and held for actual settlers; in scientific money based upon the wealth of the people of the nation and not redeemable in any specific commodity, but to be full tender for all debts, public or private, to be used by the government to recover penalties and intervention of banking sufficient in quantity.

Col. Milton Parks, of San Antonio, Texas, said that while he was with many party opposed to the Democrats or Republicans and would even unite with Emma Goldman or Herr Most to defeat the common enemy, he wanted it understood that he was not willing to surrender the principles of the People's party.

Blow to Texas Anti-Trust Law.

Austin, Tex.—The Court of Civil Appeals has dealt a severe blow to the anti-trust laws of Texas in affirming the suit of the State of Texas against the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, from McLennan county, and the case of the State of Texas against the Shippers' Compress and Warehouse Company. The court held in the case of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, which was brought under the act of 1889, that it is unconstitutional to recover penalties and that it contains the same provisions as the Illinois act, which was declared to be unconstitutional by the United States Supreme Court. In the Shippers' Compress and Warehouse Company case the court held that the act of 1889 is unconstitutional and the case from Illinois is applicable to this case.

Jackson St. in Bad Shape.

Jackson, Miss.—Pearl river has begun to fall slowly. It will be several weeks before a plover can run in the valley. The drinking water situation and fire protection here is serious, the temporary pumps rigged up by the water-works company yesterday failing to furnish water for domestic purposes. The railroads are still tied up. No trains will go east of Jackson on the Alabama & Vicksburg, southeast on the Gulf & Ship Island Railroad or south on the Illinois Central for several days, as miles of track on these lines are under water. In all other directions railroads are again making schedule time.

Killed 23 Natives.

Manila, by Cable.—At the session of the trial by court-martial of Major Walter of the Marine Corps, on the charge of killing natives of the island of Samar without trial, Private McGhee, of the Marine Corps, testified that 12 men were shot one day, and 11 the next day. When called upon to clear up certain points of his testimony McGhee refused to answer, on the ground that it might incriminate himself. The court will await the arrival here of General Jacob H. Smith, in command on the island of Samar, before hearing any more witnesses.

Frost General in South.

Atlanta, Special.—Frosts were general Wednesday night in Tennessee, portions of Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and the Carolinas. The frost was heavy at Nashville, Charlotte, Augusta, Charleston, Memphis and Meridian are to the effect that the frost was light. The damage to the fruit crop in Georgia, if any, was slight, as a strong wind prevailed throughout the night.

South Carolina Farmer Killed.

Augusta, Ga., Special.—W. L. Collins, a farmer of Edgefield county, S. C., was assassinated by a negro on a road five miles from Augusta, in South Carolina, Wednesday afternoon. George Woods was driving with Collins and resisted a hold-up when the negroes fired upon the men, killing Collins and slightly wounding Woods. The negroes escaped.

SIMMONS OPPOSES MULLEN.

Senator Flakes a Fight Against Charlotte Postmaster.

Washington, Special.—Senator Simmons has placed himself squarely and emphatically in opposition to the confirmation of Mr. Mullen as postmaster at Charlotte, N. C., at a meeting of the postoffice committee. He referred back to the committee the papers in which the President had recommended Mr. Mullen in these words: "I decline to submit the report on this nomination on my own responsibility. Personally I shall oppose the confirmation on the ground that I am unwilling to advocate the nomination of a man to such an important office, when his conduct was such as I understand his to have been." Mr. Simmons followed this declaration with the suggestion that the secretary of the committee should be instructed to procure copies of the report made by the inspector with reference to the charges against the Charlotte postmaster, which suggestion was promptly agreed to. Before leaving the subject Senator Simmons recited some of the facts which had led the President to withdraw the nomination of Mr. Mullen after the agreement to reappoint him. The chairman of the committee, Senator Mason, of Illinois, directed the secretary of the committee to secure the papers in the case without unnecessary delay.

Spoke for Good Roads.

Charlottesville, Va., Special.—Senator Hanna, ex-Secretary of the Interior, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, Brimham, Congressman Tongue, Davis, Littlefield, Prince, Bowersox, and McCarty, together with 80 other guests, arrived on a special train from Washington, over the Southern Railway, to attend the Good Roads Convention, now in session here. A hard rain kept the attendance down this morning. Hon. W. L. Dickinson, of Springfield, Mass., spoke on "Improvement of Our Highways," Col. Chas. E. Harrison, government expert of New Jersey, spoke on "Practical Road Construction," Hon. P. H. Hanes, of North Carolina, also spoke on road construction.

Many Deaths From Cholera.

Manila, Special.—Up to noon Thursday 117 cases of cholera had been reported and 72 deaths from the disease had occurred. The health board, since the establishment of the detention camp, has upon having much difficulty in finding the whereabouts of cases of cholera. As soon as the members of a household find a case they either send the sick person out of the house or see themselves. Major Mans, the insular health commissioner, has written to the bishop objecting to the action of the priests in informing the people that no cases of cholera have occurred; that only cases of cholera have been discovered and that the sanitary precautions are only taken to annoy the people.

New York to Charleston.

New York, Special.—At Friday's meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of this city, a letter from Mayor Low was read, saying that April 23 had been suggested as New York day at the Charleston Exposition. The mayor said he thought it desirable that New York should take advantage of this opportunity to show the Southern people the city's interest in their commercial advancement. The mayor requested the association to take charge of all necessary arrangements and a resolution was adopted to this effect.

Sut Traps Plan Adopted.

Richmond, Special.—The constitutional convention adopted the suffrage plan by a large majority. Then came up the rescinding resolutions and all were considered and rejected, except those relating to change in the hold-over Senate question and the election of Supreme Court judges by the people. A resolution to adjourn Friday afternoon until May 22 was adopted by a large majority.

The Atlantic City Fire.

Atlantic City, N. J., Special.—On Thursday a disastrous fire wrecked many of the palatial hotels of Atlantic City, doing a damage of over $1,000,000. No adequate fire protection was available. One life was lost.

Thirteen hotels and more than 70 buildings had been destroyed or severely damaged. The effect of the fire has been to give the city a new charter, providing for building laws, the bill for the same having been signed by Gov. Murphy when he heard the fire was raging. Already the city is planning to rise, strengthened, from its financial loss of $1,000,000.

Atlanta Day at Charleston.

Charleston, S. C., Special.—The celebration of Atlanta Day at the exposition was participated in by about 1,500 visitors from the Gate City, who arrived here on three special trains, last night. Georgia's capital is represented by Mayor Mims, Mayor Pro Tem. Johnson, Chief Justice, of the police department, and many other prominent city officials and representative business men.

Sergeant Appointed.

Washington, Special.—Frank Sargent, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, saw the President Friday, and was tendered the position of Commissioner General of Immigration. Mr. Sargent accepted the offer. It is understood that the resignations of Messrs. Powderly and Mcweeney have been requested, or will be at once. Jos. Murray will succeed the latter and Wm. Williams will be nominated to succeed Commissioner of Immigration at New York.

$100,000 for College.

Lexington, Va., Special.—A telegram received here from President Denny, of Washington and Lee University, who is in New York, announces the completion of the Wm. L. Wilson memorial fund of $100,000 to found the Wilson memorial of economics at the University. Former President Grover Cleveland is chairman of the fund committee.

SOUTHERN INDUSTRIAL

Confidence in the South.

Mr. M. H. Atkinson, of Atlanta, Ga., who recently returned from the North after conferring with the stockholders of various public service companies of Atlanta, says that he found the stockholders much encouraged over conditions in that city. They apparently had great faith in their investments in the South, and believed they had done well to invest there. Furthermore, they would not dispose of their holdings. Continually, Mr. Atkinson said he had spent three weeks in the North, and that during the entire time he has been living in the South, making occasional visits to the North, he had never seen business men of the latter section so thoroughly imbued with the idea that the South is the place for investments. "They are," he added, "going to do much for this section in the future, and the results of the present feeling will soon be felt generally."

To Double a Big Mill.

Mention was made recently of the fact that the Belton Mills, of Belton, S. C., had in contemplation the erection of a duplicate plant. The proposition was given consideration at a meeting of the directors on March 20, and decided affirmatively. This company now has an equipment of 27,000 spindles and 300 looms, which will accordingly be duplicated. The construction of the required additional buildings will be commenced at once, and contracts for the machinery will be awarded soon. Formal action will be taken in April by the stockholders. Capitalization is $400,000, and probably $300,000 will be the investment for the new mill. F. A. Smythe is president.

A Denim Mill Rumored.

Messrs. Moses H. Cone and Caesar Cone, of Greensboro, N. C., are negotiating the purchase of a water-power property near Roanoke Rapids, N. C., the power said to be obtained being 10,000 horse-power. It is rumored that if the property is purchased it will be developed to its utmost, and that a complete set of 5,000 looms and a complement of spindles will be erected to utilize the power. The Messrs. Cone control the Proximity Manufacturing Co. at Greensboro, N. C., which operates 18,000 spindles and 1,000 looms in the manufacture of cotton denim.

Textile Notes.

(From the Manufacturers' Record.)

The Highland Park Manufacturing Co. of Charlotte, N. C., and Rock Hill, S. C., will build a cotton-seed oil mill to be operated in connection with Mill No. 2 at Rock Hill. It is proposed to expand about 2,000 looms and a complement of spindles will be erected to utilize the power. The Messrs. Cone control the Proximity Manufacturing Co. at Greensboro, N. C., which operates 18,000 spindles and 1,000 looms in the manufacture of cotton denim.

Fiedmont Manufacturing Co., Portsmouth, Va., states that its proposed equipment, lately mentioned, will be of sufficient capacity to produce 400 dozen garments of ribbed underwear daily, employing 125 hands when in full operation. The building, completed in a two-story structure 40x80 feet, with a 30x30 foot ell. Capital is $25,000.

Rapid progress is being made with the reconstruction of the Globe Cotton Mills at Augusta, Ga., and the plant will be in operation in the near future. The old building has been completely rebuilt and will hold 500 spindles. The new loomhouse is built of brick, 149x156 feet, and will hold 400 looms. A new wheel pit will be built, and new equipment of water-wheels will be installed.

R. M. Oates of Charlotte, N. C., is about to purchase the Green Valley shorth property near Hendersonville, N. C., with the intention of developing the property and erecting at the site a large cotton mill. Mr. Oates also has undertaken the rebuilding of the site a Charlotte mill, in place of an old new plant. The Charlotte mill has 15,000 spindles and 300 looms.

Messrs. W. C. Kimball & Co. of Tallapoosa, Ga., stated that their knitting plant, reported recently, will require an investment of $2,000. The two-story building, 25x30 feet in size, is now being erected to hold the ten machines.

NEGRO LYNCHED IN ROME, GA.

He Attacked a Young Lady and Was Hanged to an Electric Light Pole After 1,000 Bullets Fired into His Body.

Rome, Ga., Special.—Walter Allen, a negro, charged with attempting to assault Blossom Ada, a 15-year-old girl in this city, who battered the jail by 4,000 people, and hanged the prison doors down, was the principal portion of this city. A volley was fired afterward and a body. Miss Adamson was on her way to a dressmaker's late Monday when she was met by Allen, who told her that a dressmaker at a designated restaurant was waiting to see her. The incident was waiting to see her. The young girl went to the house mentioned by the negro, who followed her into the house, which Miss Adamson found vacant. A lady on a nearby porch, attracted by the noise of the struggle, succeeded in forcing Allen away and he escaped. Late Tuesday afternoon, he was captured and brought to this city and placed in jail. As soon as the news of his capture was learned, a mob formed and marched to the jail, demanding the negro. The sheriff refused to deliver the keys and plead that the law should be allowed to take its course. Upon the sheriff's refusal to deliver the keys the jailers and the mob opened a sledge hammer and broke into the cage of Allen's cell broken into. The negro was carried a square and a half away and allowed to make a statement. Allen declared that he was innocent and prayed that the guilty party would be found.

Newport, Va., Burned.

Roanoke, Va., Special.—At an early hour Tuesday morning the small town of Newport, Va., was consumed by fire. Every store in the place was destroyed. Two hotels, and the best residences were leveled to the ground. The fire originated from an unknown cause in a shed back of Dunkle & Martin's big store. The wind was blowing a gale and the flames spread quickly from the shed to the store, which was also a mass of flame in a few minutes. From Dunkle & Martin's store the wind scattered the fire in every direction and the flames reached the danger nearly every house in the immediate neighborhood was in flames. The loss is estimated to be over $100,000 with very little insurance. Some of the heaviest losses are: McChesney's four-story hardware establishment with a $25,000 stock of goods; Dunkle & Martin's stock of $20,000 stock of general merchandise; Miller & Son's store, and $15,000 stock of general merchandise; Hunter's Hotel; Smith's Hotel and Mrs. Martin's big store. The town is five miles from a railroad and the facilities for fighting fire are limited.

Young Lady Suicides.

Waterloo, S. C.—Our community received a severe shock when the announcement was made that Miss Lizzie Madden had committed suicide. She was a charming young lady 22 years old. Within a very short time two sisters and a brother have died with consumption. Last fall Miss Madden contracted a cold that rapidly developed into consumption. She at once became despondent and continued to grow sicker until the end came. Her mother attended the Easter exercises at the church and dined with a friend in town. Miss Madden and a brother were in an adjoining room and he heard the report of a gun. On entering his sister's room he found her sitting in a chair. Her head had fallen to one side. On the bed the breath of a shot gun was resting; in her lap was the muzzle of the gun and her left hand clamped around the barrel; in her right hand she held a candle that she had pressed hard against the trigger which discharged the fatal shot. The entire room penetrated the heart at such close range that her clothing was scorched.

Miss Madden was a consistent member of the Waterloo Baptist church and was prominent in all church societies.

THE POPE MATTER.

It's a little amusing to read the Democratic papers on this question. They have had all kinds of fits since they heard that Mr. Pope was soliciting campaign funds from Federal office-holders and others who may be inclined to contribute. Even Mr. Klutz, in Washington, is making himself very conspicuous in his efforts to have the Civil Service Department investigate it. Now if Mr. Pope has violated any law let it be enforced against him, but the Democrats are the last people in the world to kick on a Catholic matter.

We are acquainted with the workings, to a certain extent, of hot parties, about campaign contributions. During Mr. Cleveland's last term, tribute was levied on high and low officials by both county and state committees. We saw letters written, and you were called on to send in so much for the County, and a certain per cent of your salary to the State Chairman. Now if our Democratic friends are so righteous along this line, it shows that they have been converted since Mr. Cleveland was President. No, it is not conversion, they don't hold the Federal offices, and can not collect from them, that's what's the matter. Some of our Democratic friends are alleging that this fund is to be used to pay the Negro poll tax and thus we see other evidence of the intention of our Democratic friends to inject the negro into the coming campaign as an issue. No, our friends can rest easy on that score, Republicans are not as big fools as the men who write such rot. It takes money to run a campaign, and Republicans have as much right to collect and use it legitimately as have Democrats. Because the Post Master at Madison showed his weakness, and that he was influenced by Democrats to take the course he did in this matter, is no reason why our friends should continue to have spasms. The Democrats will do a lot of worse things than collecting campaign funds before the November election. Drowning men catch at straws. "PHYSICIAN HEAL THYSELF."

LAWLESS SPIRIT.

Startling Manifestations During the Wilcox Trial.

To the Editor of The Post.

Having read, in detail, the proceedings of the trial of Wilcox, I am prompted to write this article, with a few observations respecting the same.

In reading the account of the trial in the Norfolk (Va.) Landmark, of Saturday, I find the following startling statement from the representative of that enterprising journal:

"There was a secret movement put on foot late tonight by determined parties to go to the jury room and demand a verdict at once. If the jury refused, the mob would take the law in their own hands. There were cool heads that got the wind of the plot and saved untold trouble and bloodshed."

Whether are we drifting? Toward anarchy and destruction? Such signs, indeed, have portentous meaning. Has it come to the pass that in conservative old North Carolina we have reached the point when reason and justice no longer control men's actions? Are our juries to be intimidated in such manner as described above, and is such outrageous conduct to escape the general condemnation which it deserves?

It was published very generally in the press that on Thursday when Mr. Aydtlett, of counsel for Wilcox, rose to address the jury, as many as three hundred people as a manifestation of their disapproval, left the court room. If this was not done to influence or intimidate the jury, then what prompted such unseemly conduct? North Carolina has reached the saddest day in its history if the mob spirit is permitted to grow; and it behooves the conservative, serious minded, law-abiding element to take a firm stand and cry aloud "Hold, enough."

Can we expect or hope to build up our State along industrial lines if foreign capitalists have a fear that law and order are a mockery? Will they come among us if such a situation prevails?

The Landmark correspondent stated also that feeling and excitement were so high that there were rumors if the jury acquitted Wilcox that it would have been very "unpleasant for them hereabouts."

Could evidence of intimidation be stronger? The writer is not pleading for Wilcox, but for justice, law and order, and the preservation of the good name of the State.

Such conduct as characterized this famous trial is a blot on the State's fair escutcheon. We may cry "Out, out, damned spot!" but it will not "out"; and it therefore behooves the conservative men to throw themselves into the breach and rescue the fair name of the State.

Within recent months I was discussing the rapid development of the South along industrial lines with a wealthy Northern friend, and I expressed surprise that more Northern capital did not come South for investment, in view of the fact that manufacturing enterprises here pay better dividends than in other sections. His reply to me was "Lynchings!" Disguise it or apologize for it or condone it as we may, the fact remains that statistics prove that only 25 per cent of the lynchings occur for the nameless crime. These are ugly facts, but the people should know them; they alone have the power to administer the corrective. Something must be done to check the present lawless tendency. "If 'tis done when 'twere done, then 'twere well it were done quickly." LEX.

SCHOOL BOOKS.

Raleigh, March 12, 1902.

To County Superintendents—

I enclose a printed list of books adopted for use in the public schools by the State Text-Book Commission and of prices and exchange prices of these books. I desire to call attention to the fact that the use of these books in the public schools will be compulsory, under the law after July 1, 1902, and that, if old books now in use are not exchanged before that time, the exchange prices, according to the contract entered into with the publishers by the State Text-Book Commission, can not be taken advantage of by patrons of the public schools. I wish to urge you, therefore, to send written official notice to all the teachers in your county urging them to notify all children and patrons of their schools, and to give notice to all the people of your county through your county paper urging them to take advantage of these exchange prices before July 1, 1902. If the patrons of the public schools fail to avail themselves of these low exchange prices before the beginning of the next school year, they will find themselves under the hard necessity of being compelled to buy new books at the full price, and their old books will be left as useless property on their hands. This would mean, of course, a great loss to the people of the State and a decided gain to the publishers. Any book that has been used or could have been used by any child in the public schools of North Carolina before July 1, 1902, may be exchanged for a new book of like grade upon the same subject at the price quoted.

I send you under separate cover 300 copies of this letter. Send a copy to every teacher and school committeeman.

Very truly yours,
J. Y. JOYNER,
Supt. of Public Instruction.

The above was handed to us by Prof. Hodges with request to publish. It is important to those who have not already bought or exchanged school books.

A STEADY WORKER. Coffee Works Slow But Sure.

Many people use coffee day after day without an idea of the serious work it does with nerves, stomach, bowels, and sometimes with the eyes, heart and kidneys. Its work is done gradually, that is, the poison affects the nerve centers a little to-day and a little to-morrow and so on, and finally the nerve cells are slowly broken down and then nature begins the call for help. It is a safe proposition that if a man or woman has headache, stomach trouble, or any such ailments come on at intervals, something is wrong with the food or drink, and this question should be investigated carefully, for health is the best capital anyone can possess and willfully breaking it down is a piece of childish folly.

It is easy to leave off coffee if one will take Postum Food Coffee, properly made, for Postum has a delicious coffee flavor and a deep seal brown when cream is added, and it satisfies the coffee drinker without any of the bad effects of coffee; on the contrary, the result of using Postum is the rebuilding of the broken down nerve centers by the food elements contained in it. Postum is a pure food beverage made by scientific food makers and can be depended upon absolutely for its purity and the good results that follow its use. To bring out the flavor and food value Postum must be boiled at least 15 minutes after the boiling begins.

Entertained at a Banquet, Where the President Made a Highly Appropriate Speech

[illegible]

I did not realize the way in which your manufacturing enterprises had increased, both as shown in the fact that your manufactured products had gone up over 130 per cent.; that for instance the number of spindles has about quadrupled, from less than half a million to more than two million in this State. I did not realize that the wages paid out had increased 75 per cent. Gentlemen, you talk of progress of the far West, but I think South Carolina can give points to some of the States (Announce.) I think that with such

North Carolina, and several other made short addresses. It was midnight when the party broke up and as the President left the room he was observed to the echo, not only by those who had been fortunate enough to attend the banquet, but by the large number who had patiently waited in the hotel lobby for the President to catch a glimpse of him. Upon arrival at his hotel he immediately retired.

Another Railroad Deal.

Chicago, Special.—The Record-Herald says: "Upon the authority of a large stockholder in the Plant System, it is stated that the Pennsylvania interests will soon acquire possession of the Plant and Atlantic Coast systems. In fact, the deal is alleged to be found the reason for the purchase by the Atlantic Coast Line of the Plant System, which has been to acquire the railroad work. Should the Pennsylvania system buy the two systems they will add a total of 33 miles of line, bringing the total to 20,000 miles under one control.

The General, Who Had Just Celebrated His 84th Birthday, Succumbs to Valvular Disease of the Heart.

During the reconstruction period, Hampton's conciliatory policy won him little favor for some time, but in 1874 he was nominated for Governor against Daniel H. Chamberlain. Each claimed to be elected and two governments were organized. But Mr. Chamberlain finally yielded his claim.

In 1878 he met with an accident which he lost a leg; but, while his life was despaired of, he was elected to the United States Senate, and he served until 1884. In the Senate his work was that of a conservative Democrat. He advocated a sound money policy, resisting all inflation. He advocated with much zeal the nomination of Thomas A. Bayard for the President in 1896. When Hampton was defeated for the Senate in 1890, he was elected senator, Benjamin R. Tillam was elected, and since then led a quiet life at his country home just outside the city limits of Columbia.

During the early spring Senator John McLaughlin suffered the postmaster of Columbia to Gen. Hampton, who promptly refused it.

ber of meetings to plan their work and agitate the subject of public ated in the North Carolina. He argued that the reasons and soundings must be important in any perceptible improvement in educational standards of the public schools can be noted.

His speech was followed by Prof. M. Smith of Elon College, who, by his experience in dealing with the needs of the country schools. He spoke of the great necessity for improving school houses and their surrounding areas, and urged that some definite plans be adopted for carrying on the work.

State Superintendent H. C. Smith spoke eloquently of the education of the people in North Carolina and expressed his belief that a brighter day was dawning. He gave it as his opinion that the future of the state depended in connection with the pertinent questions in the minds of the people. He pointed out the need for improvement in the school house, consolidation of school districts, and an increase in the public school fund by local taxation. He said that the greatest school problem was today the great unemployment problem in North Carolina.

The meeting was thrown open for discussion.

Ramona's Quaint Home.
A point of great interest to California tourists is the quaint little home of "Ramona," immortalized by Helen Hunt Jackson's graphic pen. The rambling old place, which was built by the father from Los Angeles to Santa Barbara, is a fine example of the old Spanish style. The house is built on a hill, and within a stone's throw of the house where Ramona lived.

GOVERNOR McSWEENEY.

Everything passed off nicely at the Exposition on President's Day. Gov. McSweeney made a nice speech as did others, but the day after the President left Charleston, and was almost in hearing distance of the City, it remained for Governor McSweeney to grossly violate the proprieties of the time and occasion by injecting partisan politics into his speech on North Carolina day.

The North Carolina Editors assembled at the Auditorium Thursday morning, and held an informal meeting in the gallery, soon thereafter, the North Carolina troops and civilians, and Gov. Aycock and Staff filled up the Auditorium; Mr. Averill, in behalf of the people of Charleston and the Exposition, made a nice and appropriate speech, which was well received, and it contained no language or intimation of a partisan bias. It remained for the distinguished Governor McSweeney, to violate the proprieties of the occasion in a speech of welcome to the North Carolinians, by felicitating them on the distinguished services rendered by our Red Shirt Governor, in driving the Radicals from power in the State.

Gov. Aycock is welcome to all the honor he can possibly derive from the part he took in the campaign of 1900, and while Gov. McSweeney may think that kind of a campaign proper and up to date in a civilized, Christian State, he certainly took the wrong time to express his endorsement of the use of shot guns, Winchester and Red Shirts for carrying Elections. He did not know how many Republicans he had as auditors on this occasion, and those who were there, went for pleasure, and to aid a laudable enterprise in a sister State, and we are sorry the Governor of the Great State of S. C., (which has produced such men as Calhoun, Haynes and others) should have uttered a word on such an occasion that would cause even one of his auditors to think he was not listening to one of South Carolina's greatest, on a great occasion. We left the Auditorium with a feeling of disgust for S. C.'s Gov. but not with the people of Charleston, for this was the only breach of good manners we witnessed, and we know the good people of Charleston did not endorse it, for that objectionable part of Gov. McSweeney's speech was omitted by its leading paper "The News and Courier." Go to Charleston and help a good cause, you will be kindly received and welcomed. Gov. McSweeney resides at Columbia. It's a good Exposition, go.

Just So.

The Republican party is led by men of remarkable ability and has been the means of bringing to this country a degree of prosperity almost without parallel. It has saved us from the ruin which free silver threatened, it has put "the full dinner pail" within the reach of the working man. The manufacturers have long known and the employees are rapidly learning that a republican administration means good business, while a democratic administration means business stagnation. The South, with its growing industries, cannot much longer remain the prey of a party whose principles are vague and whose practices are ruinous.—Hendersonville Times.

Without a Peer.

Lloyd Ellison & Co., Creek Stand Alabama, say: We have never sold any pills equal to Ramon's; in fact they have forced us to keep out other in stock. They are without a peer.

Let Every Man Pay His Taxes.

Solicitors in some counties are being criticised for prosecuting those who failed to list their taxes. Since the law clearly, and we think wisely, too, makes it a misdemeanor for any man not to list his taxes, then it is certainly the duty of the solicitors to prosecute and if any censure is imposed it should be upon the Solicitors who fail to enforce the law. There are many men, who actually scheme to avoid listing and paying their taxes. The law ought to reach such and reach them with a heavy hand that no man will dare not to list and pay his just proportion of the taxes to his State.—Raleigh Times.

A Doctor's Bad Flight.

"Two years ago, as a result of a severe cold, I lost my voice," writes Dr. M. L. Scarborough, of Hebron, Ohio, "then began an obstinate cough. Every remedy known to me as a practicing physician for 35 years, failed and I daily grew worse. Being urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and colds, I found quick relief, and for last ten days have felt better than for two years." A SOUTHERN WRITER WORTH WATCHING.

Only a Girl Now, but Full of Promise for the Future.

It is not at all improbable that before many years have passed the South will be pointing proudly to a new writer in the field of fiction; a writer whose present work along another line gives promise of something of enduring interest if she turns to fiction when more mature. Helen Keller. This wonderful girl from Alabama, blind, and deprived of all sense of hearing, is putting so much poetic feeling, sentiment and deep thought, and is showing such marvelous descriptive power, in her story of her life now appearing in THE LADIES HOME JOURNAL, that one cannot help wondering what she would do if she were to try her hand at a romance. It is too early yet, for her to think of it, as she is only twenty-one, and still in college; but it requires no strength of the imagination to conceive of her as becoming one of the South's most famous authors by and by.

BOSS SIMMONS.

Mr. Simmons made a spectacle of himself in the U. S. Senate recently, when he replied to Senator Depew's strictures on Southern Election laws.

The idea of Mr. Simmons saying that the election law passed by the Democratic legislature of 1899 not being intended to defeat Republicans, and put in Democrats is both funny and ridiculous, if it had not resulted in wholesale fraud and rascality. Why the Democrats boasted of what it was intended for, and what they could do. Were not thousands of voters denied the right to register and vote through the action of its registrars and election officers? Did not that same legislature repeal the writ of mandamus at that same session? Was this done to insure honest elections and returns? Did not the legislature amend the law so election officers could not be prosecuted in the State courts? Did not the Democratic legislature put the State treasury at the disposal of its governor so that he could employ attorneys to defend those prosecuted for open and flagrant violation of the law at election times? Why did not Mr. Simmons explain away these things? He could not. Shame upon him.

The Great Dismal Swamp.

Of Virginia is a breeding ground of Malaria germs. So is low, wet or marshy ground everywhere. These germs cause weakness, chills and fever, aches in the bones and muscles, and may induce dangerous maladies. But Electric Bitters never fails to destroy them and cure malarial troubles. They will surely prevent typhoid. "We tried many remedies for malaria and stomach and liver troubles," writes John Charleston, of Byesville, O., "but never found anything as good as Electric Bitters." Try them. Only 50c. C. C. Sanford guarantees satisfaction.

WHERE PROFITS GO.

It is the little wastes, the small leaks on the farm, which prevent the farmer from realizing that full share of profit which would be justly due him if proper attention were given to little matters seemingly unimportant in themselves. Irregular feeding of milk cows will affect the milk yield, and openings in the clapboards of the stable will admit cold enough to counter-balance a good share of the food given to produce animal heat and growth. In fact, a lock of hay dropped here and blown into the corner there, a pint or a quart of grain lost through the bottom of a neglected feeding box, a quart or more of meal frozen to the pigs' trough, then thrown out under foot, or a few nubbins of corn trampled into the filth—these, and more, are but little things, yet in the course of a winter their cash value would surprise some, if estimated. We cannot avoid the conclusion that the successful farmer of the future, perhaps more so than of the past, will be the one who avoids the waste in little things. Whatever is saved is gained, and this is particularly true of the economy of the farm.—Agricola.

A COFFEE SWORD.

The Old Things Would "Bob Up"

Coffee puts its sword into people first one place and then another. You may depend upon it, if you are a coffee drinker, and have ailments in some of the organs of the body, that coffee is doing its work. You may prove whether it is or not by leaving it off for ten days or two weeks, although it often takes from nine months to two years to recover from its effects.

Mr. J. W. Ashby, Mt. Airy, N. C., says, "I was a coffee drinker for 25 years. About three years ago I suffered greatly with pains in the region of my heart and the pit of my stomach. These pains appeared about the same time each day.

I wondered if coffee might not be the fault so began the test of leaving off coffee again the same old pains would 'bob up.' I have now been using Postum for some time in place of coffee and am entirely cured of the old neuralgia of the stomach and heart. Respectfully, Wields A Sharp Ax.

Millions marvel at the multitude of maladies cut off by Dr. King's New Life Pills—the most distressing too. Stomach, Liver and bowels troubles—Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, Biliousness, Fever, Malaria, all fall before these wonder workers, 25c at C. C. Sanford's.

CRIME AND ITS CLOAK

Mr. Pou stated a truth with fearful force when he said "the greatest danger to this republic is the corrupt use of money in elections." And not the least evil attending upon such use is the opportunity it gives for the intrusion of vicious demagogues upon the people and their elevation to position through dishonest appeals to ignorance and prejudice.—Raleigh Post.

Yes, the Society Essayist here hits his particular crowd a hard blow; but he is at going the whole length of the truth. Dishonest elections, however brought about, whether by the corrupt use of money in buying voters or by the corruption incident to employing dishonest men as officers at the polls to render a false count of the votes cast, are crimes against the republic as well as against individuals. A sure result of dishonest elections is the "intrusion of vicious demagogues upon the people." "Dishonest appeals to ignorance and prejudice" are the cloak that are accompanying dishonest elections, to cover up the evil of them from the public gaze. When the crime is accomplished this cloak no longer serves its purpose; as the prejudice falls away the fraud is revealed. No man can fail to see it; no man can fail in reasoning upon it to know that a stolen election is the worst crime that can be committed against a state. A government thus inaugurated is a government by criminals. Under such a scheme of government the biggest theft is the most successful politician. All other political issues dwindle into insignificance before the necessity of overthrowing any political combination that by systematic crime at the polls menaces the system of elections that gives to the majority of the people the power of choosing their government.—Gazette.

Floyd Stroud, who works in the Chair Factory, got his hand badly mashed last week, he is carrying his hand in a sling. We are glad to know that it is not a serious injury.

Owing to the illness of her mother Miss Mary McClamrock, will not be married at the church as announced, but will be married very quietly at home with only the family present.

Mocksville is soon to have a first class drug store, a long-felt want.
Dr. S. W. Shell, an up-to-date druggist and physician of Lenoir, will soon open up a drug store in the Sanford Brick Building.

We wish to call the attention of all those who desire to vote at the November Election, to pay their poll tax before May the first. You only have until Wednesday, April the 30th. Don't put it off, but pay it at once.

When you go to Winston be sure and call on D. D. Schouler. He has an up-to-date department store fronting on 4th and Liberty streets. Read his ad in this issue, and if you want anything write him for samples and prices. Our people should quit sending their money out of the State.

Z. N. Anderson brought a curious chicken down street last week.
A young chicken with four legs and feet, perfectly formed. The body of the chicken was not much larger than the ordinary chicken, and the two extra legs were about 1 inch behind the others. It was found dead in the nest. Who can beat Mocksville for four legged chickens?

Stops the Cough
And Works off the Cold.

lets cure a cold in one day. No

Raleigh last Wednesday, where he had been in attendance on the Supreme Court.

T. B. Bailey has endowed two rooms at the State Normal, which will be known as the Sarah and Evelyn Bailey rooms.

Gen. W. C. Gaither died at Columbia, S. C., about ten days ago.
Gen. Hampton was one of the bravest of the brave Confederate soldiers.

It was a little girl of E. P. Leach that was burned, instead of a boy.
No one was with her but her little brother. Our informant was in error, which caused the mistake.

Spurgeon Walker was in town last week with a large carp, which weighed 10 lbs. and 2 ounces. This is one of the largest that's been on our market recently.

THE BEST PRESCRIPTION FOR MALARIA.

is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure—no pay.

Go to Charleston.

We suggest to the school teachers of Davy County the 7 day round trip ticket to the Charleston Exposition. It only costs $6.25, and you all would enjoy it. Why not get up a nice crowd and go down in a body? You will not only have a nice time, but you will learn a great deal that will matterially aid you in your school work later on. Get up a crowd, and if possible we will aid you in getting even lower rates.

YOU KNOW WHAT YOU ARE TAK- ING

When you take Grove's tasteless Chill Tonic, because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle, showing it is simple iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure,

Rural Free Delivery.

Mr. S. D. Boss, special agent and examiner for Rural Free Delivery routes, came to Mocksville Monday the 14th and immediately began work on the 4 routes leading out from Mocksville. Mr. Boss has not allowed any grass to grow under his feet since he struck Davie, and he has put in portions of his nights perfecting his maps. On last Friday Mr. H. C. Coles Special Supervisor came in, and was present at the examination of 10 applicants Friday aft. Mr. Coles is a pleasant, agreeable gentleman.
Mr. Boss, after finishing up his work here, left for Lexington. He is a hard worker and seems to thoroughly understand his business; he is of a jolly disposition, and will be pleasantly remembered by many who made his acquaintance while here. The prospect seems encouraging for at least four routes from Mocksville.

A Nearly Fatal Runaway.

Started a horrible ulcer on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove

A Substantial Fact.

W. R. Clark, Pickaway, Virginia, says: I have for several years been using Ramon's Pills in my family with most satisfactory results, and do not hesitate to recommend them to my customers as superior to any of the various kinds kept in stock. Not only are your pills reliable but Ramon's Relief and Nerve and Bone Oil are the most satisfactory remedies I ever handled, add if they were more generally used, they would often make the Doctor's bill only 25c, instead of $2.00. These goods need no dusting in my stock because they are constantly coming in and a going out—are Trade Winners and Trade Keepers. These good qualities are not a theory but a substantial fact.

Our Trip to Charleston.

We left Mocksville Tuesday the 8th and reached Charleston Wednesday morning in time to witness the Presidential procession to the Exposition grounds. The President received an ovation all along the line, and made an excellent speech out at the Exposition grounds. After visiting the various buildings containing the exhibits, he was enthusiastically received as he passed through the grounds.

The President left Charleston
Wednesday evening for the Tea
Farms, where he spent the night.
Our stay in Charleston was pleasant, for outside the Exposition there are many things to interest a stranger. We spent Thursday on the grounds taking in the various exhibits. The Government exhibit is good, and, one who has never seen it will feel repaid for the trip;
the various guns, pistols, swords, rapid-fire guns, and cannons are a curiosity to one who has never seen Uncle Sam's war equipments.

The South Carolina and North Carolina exhibits of wood, minerals, grains, and manufactured products are fine.

The Fisheries' exhibit is an interesting place, and no one should fail to take it in.

The Old Liberty Bell in the Philadelphia Building awakens recollections of the early history and struggle of our ancestors for independence.

The Exposition is a good one, and every one who can should go. In Charleston, outside the Exposition, one can have a pleasant time visiting old St. Michaels Church, the old Government building down near the wharf where Gen. Washington was entertained, and the Battery is a beautiful place, and one who is tired can rest under the shade, and drink in the sea breeze while watching the waters beat against the rock walls; and by no means should one fail to take a round trip to Mt. Pleasant, you get a ticket at the wharf for 30 cts, and get a seat on a nice steamer,
"the Commodore Perry," and after about 20 minutes ride you land at Mt. Pleasant and take the trolley cars for a trip across the Island, thence across to Sullivan's Island pass by Fort Moultrie, and the new fort and barracks the government is erecting, and right in front of the old fort you will see the grave of the famous Indian Chief Osceola, then across from Sullivan's is Fort Sumter in the distance with its guns guarding the entrance to the harbor, then you pass on to the Isle of Palms, to a splendid hotel, where you can enjoy a stroll on the Atlantic beach, one of the finest on the Atlantic coast.

We have tried to touch the most interesting features of the exposition and Charleston, but for want of space had to make it short. Go and see it and you will never regret the cost of the trip.

Of course they do. It is their

ONLY GOOD MEN WANTED.

The Time Has Come for the Business Interests to Demand Fair Play from Legislators.

To the Editor of the Observer.

The State of North Carolina is cursed with a lot of political Demagogues who in order to get votes not only abuse all kinds of corporations, but are active in passing laws which tend to embarrass, cripple and ruin manufacturers, merchants, bankers, railroads and all kindred enterprises.

If they are allowed to succeed, what will become of the State? The time has come when all such interests must have justice, and only minded honest men must be sent to Raleigh to make our laws. Candidates for the Legislature must understand now and for all time that unless they are capable and honest and disposed to enact laws which are fair, and put all the people on an equal basis, they need not expect the votes of the interests which they are determined to destroy. Neither will they be furnished with funds to conduct their campaigns. Heretofore the interests they abuse and try to destroy have furnished most of the campaign funds. Will the interests thus affected continue to vote and furnish money to destroy themselves? An idiot could answer this. FAIR PLAY.

Coffee Drinkers Repair: Pr of.

When persons insist on taking some kind of food or drink that causes disease it is not fair to blame a doctor for not curing them.

Coffee keeps thousands of people sick in spite of all the Doctor can do to cure them. There is but one way to get well. That is to quit coffee absolutely; a great help is to shift over to Postum Food Coffee.

A case of this kind is illustrated by Mrs. E. Kelly, 233--8th Ave., Newark, N. J., who says, "I have been ailing for about eight years with bilious trouble and indigestion. Every doctor told me to give up coffee. I laughed at the idea of coffee hurting me, until about three years ago I was taken very bad and had to have a doctor attend me regularly.

The Doctor refused to let me have coffee, but prescribed Postum Food coffee. I soon got to making it so well that I could not tell the difference in taste between Postum and the common coffee.

I began to improve right away and have never had a bilious spell since giving up coffee and taking on Postum. When I started I weighed 100 pounds, now I weigh 130. My friends ask what has made the change and, of course, I tell them it was leaving off coffee and taking up Postum.

I know husband will never go back to the old fashioned coffee again. You can use my name if you print this letter for I am not ashamed to have the public know just what I have to say about Postum and what it has done for me."

A Doctor's Bad Night.

"Two years ago, as a result of a severe cold, I lost my voice," writes Dr. M. L. Scarborough, of Helron, Ohio, "then began an obstinate cough. Every remedy known to me as a practicing physician for 35 years, failed and I daily grew worse. Being urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, I found quick relief, and for last ten years have felt better than for two years." Positively guaranteed for Throat and Lung troubles by C. C. Sanford. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

PERVERSION OF RIGHT.

Pertinent Questions Apropos of Existing Conditions.

Editor of the Post:

Of late I have heard said and seen written a great deal about the manner in which railroad companies are treated in our courts of justice. It is a fact—a lamentable one—that under our present jury system, or, I might say, "under the present state of affairs," that there is hardly a county in the State where a railroad company can get justice before the ordinary juror. If it is not altogether from a feeling of prejudice, it is because this jury or that jury, in this case or that case, awarded large damages, we must or should do the same. I mean no reflection on the great bulk of our people; their intentions and purpose are to do right, but without weighing the facts and seeing the injustice, they follow the precedent of others—follow the public feeling and sentiments that have been worked up by certain classes. It is time to call a halt. It is high time to stop and consider the injustice that is inflicted on others, and see whether we are drifting. It should make no difference how much money a man or a company may have, or how poor and humble a man may be—black or white—he or they ought to feel, when going into a temple of justice, that justice would be meted out to them.

Imagine the feeling of a party forced to go into a court of justice (so termed) and feel that there is no justice for them. Imagination can conceive of nothing worse.

Robbery? Yes, robbery, in many instances, sanctioned by law—the same law that robs by the thousands will turn right around and send some poor darkey to the penitentiary for robbing a hen roost—a theft of some 15 or 20 cents. Is such right? It can't be. Our people should be educated to a sense of justice and see that railroads have their rights, the same as individuals. I don't mean to say that railroads should be exonerated from negligence on their part; yet at the same time they should have equal rights before the law that a private individual or any other kind of a company or corporation would have.

Now let us see if this is the case. In the first place there is no set of people throttled and hampered by law like railroad companies—freight and fare rates regulated by law, a railroad commission at their heels all the time; unlike other enterprises and other business regulated by competition, supply and demand.

Suppose our law-makers should fix a price for your newspaper men—should say what fees a lawyer and doctor should charge, what rates a hotel or livery men should have, fix prices for all of our working men—the carpenter, mechanic, the blacksmith, farm wages—in fact, wages of all kinds, what the farmers should have for their farm products, what percent merchants should sell their goods for, what price the cotton-mill men, saw-mill men and all other manufacturing establishments should have for their products; what a wail and cry would go up throughout this country! Our law makers would never live to get home.

Now take the responsibilities of owners or operators. Let us see how that works. Here is the farmer. He starts his team to mill. By the carelessness of the driver the team runs away, the wagon turns over, horses ruined, driver crippled or killed. Why not claim damages from the farmer? He starts his plow-boy out; the plow catches a root, handles thrust against the side of the boy, a rib or two broken. Why not make the farmer pay for it? Here are the operatives in the mills, tobacco factories, the mines, the workshops, saw-mills, shingle-mills, cotton gins, threshing-machines, etc and nearly all or quite all of the accidents traced to carelessness. Yet why not make them pay for it? Well, it is only a question of time when litigation will come down along the line. Not an industry of any kind will be free from it.

I have no connection with railroads or railroad officials; in fact I know but very few personally. Those that I do know seem to be human beings, and I thought perhaps they had souls. I saw a criticism against Mr. H. A. Page's letter by some one, stating "the facts set forth by him were true, but it would have been better for some one other than a railroad man to have spoken of the wrongs they were subjected to." Pray tell me who will speak for the aggrieved ones unless they themselves do? The poor farmer has no man to champion his rights but the politician about election times. It is always expected of the man who has his fingers squeezed under the corner of the fence to do the yelling and calling for help. The oppressed have a right to speak for themselves. If they submit tamely, people would naturally think they were getting what they deserved.

I have thought the reason our newspapers have not taken up a crusade against such is that in nearly every county in the State there are classes of the kind mentioned on the dockets, and to condemn the general principle of it they feared would be construed as prejudicial to that particular case. I am glad to see the stand The Post has taken in behalf of justice. I know of but one solution of it. Let the people all over the State rise up in their majesty and condemn it.

JUSTICE.

Carolina has one able representative at least in the upper branch of congress in the person of the senior Senator, If she is wise she will return Senator Pritchard to succeed himself in the high office which he at present so ably fills. It is more than a matter of mere politics. The interest of the state itself is involved. Carolina cannot afford to discard a tried, trusted and influential and experienced man for some wide-mouthed demagogue or political fledgling. She wants a representative whose influence is felt in the halls of congress, and who has power to advance her interests.—Elizabeth City North Carolina.

She is enclosed within a large, ornate, oval-shaped frame that resembles a mirror or a decorative mirror. The frame has a dark, textured interior and a lighter, possibly metallic, border. The woman's dress has a high, ruffled collar and a full skirt. The overall style is reminiscent of early 20th-century fashion illustrations.
