The Dead Was Brought to Life.

Heck Smart, in Bessmer City Journal. Over in McDowell county lived some of the greatest characters ever known to mankind. Peter Epley, a sort of a Jack of all trades, a justice of the peace, and general handy man about the neighborhood, was among the leading citizens. If there was a wedding, Peter tied the knot; a village affray or seduction case, he meted out justice to state and defendants, and at a funeral, he did equally well as chief mourner or undertaker. No function, grave or gay, was complete unless he was the bright and particular star. If invited he was sure to be there in all of his radiant glory—if not invited, he just happened around—but, when on the ground, he always could be found at the head of the procession. His presence often caused confusion, not to say embarrassment. One particular occasion is recalled. It was near the close of the civil war. He and a man named Bruce were detailed to hunt and arrest deserters and turn them over to the military authorities.

"Among the fellows who went from McDowell to the army in Virginia was an old chap by the name of Isham Crontz, who lived back in the hills, in the Glades or Glades, a barren, washed out stretch of country full of gullies, you could bury a horse in, where the timber was thin and scrubby, and the soil very poor.

"Isham Crontz, as tall as a stack pole and thin as a rail, could not tell whether he had the colic or the backache as a pain struck him about between the soles of his feet and the crown of his head, and ugly—by gad—he was as ugly as a mud fence. He had the whoppenst foot I ever saw on mortal man. Kick me if it wasn't as large as three ordinary feet. I guess the way numbers run nowadays Isham would have taken about a 21—three times seven.

"The army quartermasters could not shoe Isham. His foot, they said, would not go in the box much less the shoe. Procuring the largest he could find he would cut off the end, run his foot through and wrap and tie his extended foot; and toes in rags. Trouble followed. When the weather began to get cold, and frost to fall and bite Isham's toes, he invariably sneaked off to the mountains where he kept concealed in the brush about his home until he was driven back to the army. God only knows what he went home for, for he lived in one of them little old log cabins, with the chinkin and doubt in knocked out, and cracks that you could throw a dog thru. You could set before his fire and see daylight at the top of the chimney which was not as tall as Isham. The inside of the hut was dark and smoky; the only light admitted was thru the holes in the walls, the chimney and the tiny doorway. The ceiling, or loft was so low that no member of the family could stand erect beneath it. When Isham, the old woman and the three gals stood up and moved about, one was reminded of a procession of lean, hawk ghosts—the wife and daughters being as tall and spare built as he.

"Isham deserted the third time, which time called for the death penalty. It was noised around that the old man had returned to McDowell, where it was the duty of Wash and Bruce Freeman to arrest him. But, believing that Isham did not fully realize the seriousness of the crime and the extent of punishment, and knowing the fearful privations and suffering the soldiers were undergoing about that time, they did not have the heart to run the deserter down. The truth is, they did not blame the old man for laying out.

"In battle, strange to say, Isham was brave and fought bravely on many battlefields, but just as soon as the frost nipped his heels he set out for home. "Finally, this time, everybody got to talking about Isham's desertion and Wash sent him word that he would have to take him. Sooner or later, Isham and his old woman knew, the officers would get him. A plan to have him die was devised by Mrs. Crontz and the gals, thinking that one from the town or anybody in authority anywhere would enquire particularly about his death. "One fine day news to the effect that poor old Isham Crontz had passed away circulated around. The burial was to take place the next day.

"Peter Epley happened to be sitting in front of the court house door, the best place in those days to meet people from the back country and get the news, when Shade Hawkins rode up on his mule, and after passing the time of day with the loafers, declared: "Well, fellers I hear old Isham Crontz is dead, and is going to be put away tomorrow afternoon." "This bit of information gave the rustic philosophers a new topic for discussion. They picked the remains of poor old Isham clean, and after thoroughly considering his merits and demerits, all agreed the luck was with him, for it was better to die a natural death than be hung for deserting. The chairwarmers dispersed, each going his way. Pete Epley, ready for a frolic or a funeral, hunted up Wash and Bruce Freeman and told them of the sudden end of Isham and insisted that while the old man was worthless and a deserter, his record in battle warranted a decent burial at the hands of his comrades and finally prevailed upon them to go to the funeral. "The next day when they arrived they found the old veteran laid out on the cooling board—two wide planks, their ends resting on chairs. Stretched out full length he looked like a skinned giraffe. His face, was dirty and covered with a six months' growth of beard. His big, bony nose, great lantern jaws and sunken eyes gave him every appearance of a corpse that had been there for a week. After viewing the remains hastily, Peter called Wash and Bruce out of the cabin and suggested that they take charge, and shave and bathe the old man and prepare him properly for the grave. The idea was accepted and Pete volunteered to be master of the ceremonies.

Why Mocksville is Behind.

Statesville Landmark. The growth among our people of the habit of saving, laying aside part of one's earnings—is mostly gratifying and the banks are encouraging the practice by boosting it. The building and loan associations were the first to encourage this savings habit in the South. Their help is mainly through making loans and the service they render in this way cannot be estimated. Any community without a building and loan association is badly behind. Statesville has two prosperous associations and through their help hundreds of people have been able to own homes and other property they could not have owned without this help. Then the banks added savings departments, encouraging small deposits on which interest is paid. All the Statesville banks have savings departments and the yearly deposits in these are considerable. Recently the Christmas savings club plan is being featured and it has boosted the savings habit materially. The idea of beginning, the first of the year, to save money to spend at Christmas appeals to many who would not save otherwise; and the habit once begun, the accumulation appeals to many, by no means all the money is spent at Christmas and the savings habit grows.

The Record has contributed much space begging the citizens of the town to organize a building and loan association, but our pleadings have been in vain so far.

Keeping History Straight

An inquisitive subscriber writes The Rascal Whipper, asking if it be true, that Professor Woodrow Wilson had ever applied to Andrew Carnegie for a pension. To be sure! In order that he might disport and leave this world untrammelled with a load of ill gotten wealth he had accumulated through the sweat and toil of underpaid labor, Carnegie established a pension fund, for the support of aged and superannuated ministers and schoolteachers.

Woodrow Wilson, then president of Princeton University, was among the first to make application to have his name entered upon the roll of pensioners. Carnegie rejected the application, advising Mr. Wilson that the fund was created solely for the benefit of those ministers and teachers whose age or infirmities rendered them incapable of further pursuing the active duties of their calling; and that, as he (Wilson) was still in the prime of life, and mentally and physically able to continue his duties, as he was then doing, he (Wilson) was ineligible to participate in the distribution of the charitable largesse.

That closed the incident; and then, through the grace of the Democratic party and the unfortunate dissensions among the Republicans of the Nation, said Woodrow Wilson became President of the great and glorious United States, and the people assumed the burden of supporting him, which Carnegie refused to do.—Only this, and nothing more.—Rascal whipper.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give one hundred dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

A Genius Among Us.

A. W. Cline, a representative of the Winston Sentinel, has the following to say in regard to one of our citizens: "In all professions, trades and callings there are those who out rank their brothers in ingenuity, tact and shrewdness. Many tinners have lived and practiced their profession thruout this immediate section, but W. A. Weant, now 75 years old, has not only been successful from a financial standpoint, but has shown that time not employed in the regular work of his trade can be used to develop the inventive talent.

One room of Mr. Weant's home in Mocksville is practically furnished in tin furniture, ornaments, etc., made by his own hand during odd moments. In the center of the room is a table 30 38 made completely of tin strips. Strips of tin twisted into all kinds of ornamental shapes are used for trimmings. The top of the table is about six inches deep and the outer edges are covered entirely with decorations made of tin twisted into all kinds of ornaments. The top is made so it will revolve. The stand is covered with ornamental tin and the legs are of the same material. In the center of the table sets a lamp stand made of artistically arranged strips of tin. On the stand is a lamp made entirely of tin by Mr. Weant and trimmed in the same material as the table.

Mr. Weant has made on the same style a number of smaller tables and each one is decorated in a different style of twisted strips. One of the smaller tables is made so that when the light shines on it the trimmings resemble hundreds of brilliant diamonds. Another table is made of plain tin with rolled tin legs. Every bit of the soldering was done by Mr. Weant, aided by his wife and daughter, who held lamps for him at night. Each piece of trimming is attached to the tables with solder so that it can hardly be detected.

A coffee pot made entirely by Mr. Weant and trimmed in the same ornamental trimmings as the tables is especially admired by all who see it. A prettily arranged lid covers the top, while a hinged knob fits over the spout. A vase is made on the same style. Picture frames and other things in the room were made exclusively by Mr. Weant. A beautiful, brilliant effect is created when the sun shines thru the windows on the artistically carved and twisted tin ornaments. Mr. Weant has invented two infants' cribs that are looked upon with wonder by all who see them. One is made of tin twisted with rosin on the inside and then soldered. Mr. Weant says that it was necessary to use the rosin to keep a uniform shape. The rockers are made of soldered tin, also. The tin rods, made as above described, are soldered together in hundreds of different shapes which form the body of the crib. A screened top can be drawn from under and placed over the sleeping infant and then turned out of view when desired. The other crib is made of wood with inlaid figures and a top similar to the tin crib. Figures were drawn by Mr. Weant and then chiseled out and placed on the sides of this crib with glue. Mr. Weant secured a patent on this crib on December 22, 1874.

When asked why arrangements were not made to have the cribs manufactured and placed on the market the modest old gentleman replied that he didn't know just why he hadn't done it.

The most of the articles described above were made about sixteen years ago. With the exception of the big table which was finished on Mr. Weant's birthday, July 6, 1915. On one side of the table is the following inscription artistical:

Democratic Primer.

Rascal Whipper. A is for Anxious for good times again. B is for Business that we will have then. C is for Credit that goes all to smash when Democracy robs working men of their cash. D is for Democra, Devil and Dance, and a man is all three if he votes more than once for the Free Trading, War-taxing Wilsonite gang that have ruined our rep till it's not worth a hang. E is for Elserion, then watch Wilson go. F is for Finance that Republicans know. G stands for Gold that will jiggle again when the people fill Congress with G. O. P. men. H is for Hard Times and W. R. Hearst. I is for Income, just now at its worst. J is for Jersey from whence Woodrow came, and where he'll return when out of the game. K is for "Kultur"—that Princeton school stuff that tries to make rhetoric boost Democrat bluff. L is for Liars—who say we've good times when a man couldn't borrow two slick-worn plugged dimes. M is for Money, also three square Meals. N is for Nausea the jobless men feels. O is for Onion and Office and Oath. P is for Pea-soup for the workingmen wroth. Q is the Question how much can we stand? R is for a Return of G. O. P. band. S is for Starvation, the Scrat synonym. T is for the Time when we go after him. U is for the Union the G. O. P. saved. V is for Victory that e're'er he waded. W is for Woodrow, wasteful and weak, who is planning a sail up familiar Salt Creek. X is the Excellent way it will be done, when we start chasing Demmies out on the run. Y is for yell that will reach to the sky when the voters give Woodrow the Farwell Goodbye. Z is for Zero—the worth of a Scrat—when the G. O. P. elephant mashes him flat.

As soon as the community building can be completed a museum will be started and these stones be placed in it. Every person who have interesting relics will be asked to place them in the museum, where they will be safely cared for and will be interesting for the public to look at.

A Boone highway is being built from a point in Kentucky over the trail followed by Daniel Boone when he left this section on account of its being too crowded for him. The highway was first planned to terminate at Mocksville, but just lately it has been decided to extend it to Lexington, where it connects with other Southern highways.

GOOD NEWS.

Many Mocksville Readers Have Heard It And Profited Thereby. "Good news travels fast," and the many bad that suffers in this vicinity are glad to learn where relief may be found. Many a lame, weak and aching back has had no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Thousands upon thousands of people are telling the good news of their experience with this tested remedy. Here is an example worth reading: Mrs. F. Miller, 948 S. Main St., Lexington, N. C., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have never failed to give me good results when I have needed a kidney medicine. I feel that they will help anyone who has anything wrong with their kidneys. No one knows what I suffered from backache and kidney trouble. Since using Doan's Kidney Pills, I have enjoyed fine health."

Severe Cold Quickly Cured.

"On December first I had a very severe cold or attack of the grip as it may be, and was nearly down sick in bed," writes O. J. Metcalf, Weatherly, Mo. "I bought two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it was only a few days until I was completely restored to health. I firmly believe that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is one of the very best medicines and will know what to do when I have another cold." Obtainable everywhere.

Republican State Convention Call.

By order of the Republican State Executive Committee, a Convention is called in the city of Raleigh, on Wednesday, March 1st, 1916, at noon. The basis of the representation of each county shall be the vote of our candidate for governor in 1908, giving one delegate for each one hundred votes or fractional part thereof.

The objects of this Convention shall be to set in motion the great campaign of 1916, to-wit: The changing and bringing the Plan of Organization into conformity with the new legalized Primary Law; the selection of a State Committee and its officials; the defining of the issues to be presented to the voters in a Platform of Principles; the selection of delegates to the National Convention in accordance with the duly adopted Plan of Organization; a plan to make more compact and efficient all committees, including State, District, County and Precinct; such other business as the Convention in its wisdom may deem advisable.

The Chairman of each county is requested to give due and proper notice for a County Convention to select delegates to the State and District Conventions, and to attend to other matters in accordance with their custom and the Plan of Organization.

Unusual times and unusual conditions call for unusual plans and means of bringing about universally desired results; to this end the method so long in vogue in many counties of making all interested and patriotic voters duly accredited delegates, is a highly recommended.

In conclusion, let the invitation be extended to and accepted by all, who intend to support the Republican ticket, to attend this Convention rally and lend their advice and aid in redeeming our Nation and State.

FRANK A. LINNEY, Chairman.

The Best Recommendation.

The strongest recommendation, any article may receive is a favorable word from the user. It is the recommendation of those who have used it that makes Chamberlain's Cough Remedy so popular. Mrs. Amanda Giehart, Waynesville, Ohio, writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my family for and on for twenty years and it has never failed to cure a cough or cold." Obtainable everywhere.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 2, 1916

The pesky groundhog is due to emerge from his hole tomorrow, Wednesday. Here's hoping that some one will knock his head off as soon as he sticks it out of his hole.

A press dispatch from Washington states that President Wilson has been considerably embarrassed for the past year, and during the last three weeks especially by a group of negro politicians headed by Bishop Alexander Walters of the A. M. E. church, president of the Negro Democratic League, who have demanded that the President keep alleged promises made before his election that he would be rather liberal in the appointment of negroes to Federal offices. Before his election Mr. Wilson, in writing the colored brother, started out thusly: "My dear Bishop Walters." Senator Vardaman, of Mississippi, is determined that a negro shall not be appointed Register of Deeds of the District of Columbia. It is up to Mr. Wilson. For fear some of our Democratic friends should doubt this, we refer them to the Winston Journal of Jan. 26th. If it is a lie it must be a Democratic white lie. We hope our Democratic brethren will refrain from yelling "Nigger" during the approaching campaign.

THOMAS BRAXTON BAILEY.

In the death of Hon. T. B. Bailey, which occurred at his home in this city last Tuesday, both the town and county loses one of their best known men from a business and religious standpoint. Mr. Bailey was a native of the town and spent practically all of his life here. He was one of the most prominent lawyers in the State and was connected with a number of Mocksville's enterprises. At the time of his death he was President of the Bank of Davie; Vice-President of the Bank of Yadkin; President of the Mocksville Furniture Co.; Attorney for the Southern Railroad; a director of the Wachovia Bank & Trust Co., of Winston-Salem. Mr. Bailey was for many years an elder in the Presbyterian church, and was a loyal church worker. He was a prominent Mason, and held many offices of trust during his life. He will be sadly missed in the home, in business and church circles, and his place will be hard to fill. The town and county mourns his death.

Brandeis Named to Succeed Lamar

Washington, Jan. 28.—President Wilson today selected Louis D. Brandeis, of Boston, to be associate justice of the Supreme Court to succeed the late Justice Lamar. Mr. Brandeis' nomination went to the Senate today. It was a surprise everywhere in official circles. Mr. Brandeis is a Jew. We had hoped President Wilson would name Taft or at least a native born American citizen. The gentleman named may be all right, but we take it that he is over 1900 years behind time.

General Increase For Employees.

A general increase in the wages of 7,000 of its employees is announced by the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, of Winston-Salem. The Company has adopted a plan by which the employees of the company will receive at Christmas a sum of money amounting to something like $60,000 or 2 per cent of the amount they have received in wages from the company during the previous year. This applies only to those who work regular and faithful during the year.

Do you take your county paper? Now is a good time to subscribe.

Phillip Jones, who lives just south of town, has been dangerously ill with pneumonia, but is slightly improved at this writing.

Some of the citizens of R. 3, sent us a communication last week blessing out the game warden and telling about much hunting day and night, on Dutchman creek, but they failed to sign their names to the article.

For the past week thermometers have been registering between 60 and 75 degrees above zero around Mocksville, while in the northwest they have registered from 40 to 60 below zero. We have a great climate in the South—we freeze one day and burn up the next.

A Tribute to Mr. T. B. Bailey.

The Winston Sentinel, in speaking of the death of Mr. T. B. Bailey, of this city, which occurred last Tuesday, had the following to say:

"Winston Salem received the announcement of the death of Mr. Bailey this morning with keenest regret. He was well known in this city and highly esteemed by the members of the Winston-Salem Bar Association. He numbered his friends also among the local Masons by the scores, and the members of the Order throughout the Piedmont section will learn of his death with deepest sorrow. There was no more loyal Mason in this section than Mr. Thomas Braxton Bailey, and it was through his efforts that the annual picnic in the interest of the Masonic Orphanage at Oxford, held at Mocksville each year, has been fostered and developed as a great social and beneficent enterprise.

He was always deeply interested in the cause of higher education, and since the death of his two daughters at the State Normal years ago he had devoted much of his energy to the promotion of that institution, of which he was a director. It was largely thru his efforts that a part of the proceeds from the annual Masonic picnic at Mocksville is now being used to defray the expenses of two of the Oxford girls in a course at the State Normal. In addition to this he had kept two other young ladies in school: there at his personal expense. Modest in his movements, he has accomplished much for the young people of his county, and his influence has also reached to remote sections of the State.

He was prominent in the affairs of his county and section, having represented Davie and Rowan counties in the State Senate and ranked for years among the leaders of the Democratic party in this section. Mr. Bailey was also a prominent financier of this section, and has for some time been a director of the Wachovia Bank & Trust Company, of this city.

A number of Winston-Salem's prominent business men and Masons will attend the funeral."

The Salisbury Evening Post, in speaking of the death of Mr. Bailey, says:

"Friends in this city of Hon. T. B. Bailey, of Mocksville, were shocked this morning to learn by telephone of the death of this distinguished and beloved man. Mr. Bailey was probably the foremost citizen of Davie county. He was 66 years old and had been a power for good in his county and section. He was a prominent attorney, was president of the Bank of Davie; was chairman of the executive committee of the board of directors of the State Normal and Industrial College at Greensboro; was attorney for the North Carolina Midland Railroad; a prominent member of the Masonic fraternity; had been chairman of the board of county commissioners of Davie, was at one time a candidate for the Democratic nomination for congress from his district.

Mr. Bailey was widely known thru out this section of the State and was one of North Carolina's leading men. He had a host of friends in Salisbury and Rowan who will learn with deep regret of his death."

Beautiful Tribute to the Late Thomas B. Bailey.

To the Editor of the Record: The people of our town, and the entire county were shocked beyond expression today, when it was announced that T. B. Bailey had passed away at 9:29 a. m. Many of his friends did not even know that he was sick. Pneumonia was the cause of his death. He was 66 years of age and leaves a widow, (he left two daughters when the typhoid fever epidemic broke out at the State Normal years ago) one sister, Mrs. Sallie Lee, two nieces, Misses Bertha and Alice Lee; and T. Bailey Lee, a prominent attorney of Idaho; also one brother, Wm. Bailey, a host of relatives and friends innumerable.

Mr. Bailey was the leading and one of the most prominent citizens of our town and county. A member and official of the Presbyterian church, a prominent Mason, the originator and leading spirit of the Masonic picnic, which has done so much for the past thirty odd years for the Oxford Orphanage Asylum.

He was the president of the Bank of Davie, a trustee of the State Normal College at Greensboro and was connected with many of the banks and manufacturing enterprises of this section of the State. He was one of the leading attorneys of the county and had achieved and won distinction at the bar.

He will be missed as few men can be missed in our town and county. No man in Davie county has left his impression more indelibly than has he. He was a leader among men. You could always find him on the side he thought was right on all important questions affecting the welfare of the people of his town, county and State. His was a positive character, a leader of his people, and the vacancy left by his taking away is not going to be easily filled.

I have known him since I was a boy, and no one outside his immediate family knew better how to appreciate his kind, generous noble heartiness. He did much kindness that the world knows not of, for it was not his nature to seek notoriety. His life was a success, but not in the sense of having amassed a great fortune, or won great political honors for these are successes that men of ignoble minds, devoid of souls can win. He was that greater success that comes from a pure and lofty soul and a broad mind that scorns the mean and little things of this life. An affectionate and devoted husband and father; a staunch and steadfast friend, a true, noble manly man.

Peace to his ashes and everlasting rest to his soul.

Dies After Electrocuting Negroes.

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 28.—Thos. P. Sale, aged 55, warden of the North Carolina penitentiary, died today a half hour after he had superintended the electrocution of two negroes. Witnesses of the electrocution said the warden had appeared agitated after the electrocutions occurred. Mr. Sale retired to his office and shortly afterwards became ill with apoplexy. He died before physicians reached him. Jeff Dorsett and E. Walker, the negroes executed, were convicted of murder in Duplin county last year of John Swain in an attempted robbery. They confessed to the crime before the electrocution.

Negro Lynched at Livingston, Ala.

Livingston, Ala., Jan. 24.—Richard Burton, a negro, aged 18 was lynched last night near here and two other negroes were arrested, charged with burglary. The store of Miss Kate Peale was robbed five times recently. Last night her brother discovered the robbers and was seriously stabbed before overpowering Burton. The other negroes got away but were arrested later.

Congress Votes Millions for Roads.

Washington, Jan. 24.—The Shackleford good roads bill, carrying an appropriation of $25,000,000 to aid States in improving their post roads, passed the House this afternoon 281 to 81. States would share in the money in proportion to their population and their post roads. It is freely predicted the bill will encounter strong opposition in the Senate.

Negro Lynched in Florida.

Ocala, Fla., Jan. 28.—Richard Anderson, a young negro, was lynched near Williston, Levy county, this afternoon, after having been identified by the wife of a white farmer as the negro who, on Wednesday, in her husband's absence, forced her with her pistol to accompany him from her home, and assaulted her.

Men may differ about preparedness for war, but all of us believe in preparedness for most things.

It is preparedness that sends the runner over the tape ahead of his rivals. It is preparedness that enables the advocate to sway judge and jury with his logic. It is preparedness that enables the manufacturer to out-distance his competitors. It is preparedness that has made the General Roofing Manufacturing Company

The Big Gun of the Roofing Business

The General's preparedness consists of the three largest and best equipped roofing and building paper mills in the world. Each is a complete producing unit, manufacturing the full line of the General's products. Each is advantageously located in the territory it serves, has cheap fuel and favorable transportation facilities. The General buys raw materials in enormous quantities and far ahead. This means favorable buying and the pick of the market. With manufacturing so perfected and cheapened, the highest quality is produced at the lowest cost. This preparedness enables the General to make one-third of all the rolls of roofing used. All over the civilized world you will find

Certain-teed Roofing

The quality of roofing cannot be determined by looking at it, nor by twisting or tearing. Its durability can not be tested except in actual use over a period of years. Contrary to popular belief, roofing does not wear out—it dries out. CERTAIN-TEED Roofing is especially made to defeat this process of drying out; as it is thoroughly saturated with our properly blended soft asphalt and coated with a blend of harder asphalt, which keeps the soft saturation—the life of the roofing—from drying out. This produces a roofing pliable, yet durable, and impervious to the elements. CERTAIN-TEED products are made under the supervision of our board of graduate chemists, and are the result of long experience in mining, refining, and blending of these materials.

CERTAIN-TEED Roofing is guaranteed to hold "its place in the sun" for 5, 10, or 15 years according to whether it is 1, 2, or 3 ply, respectively. Behind this guarantee stands the responsibility of the world's largest Roofing and Building Paper Mills. Past experience has proved that our guarantee is conservative, and that the roofing will outlast the period of the guarantee. There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED, and a proper method of laying it, for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roofs, from the largest skyscraper to the smallest structure. CERTAIN-TEED Roofing is sold by responsible dealers all over the world at reasonable prices.

Funeral of Mr. T. B. Bailey.

The funeral of Mr. T. B. Bailey was conducted from the Presbyterian church, of which the deceased had been a member and officer for many years, last Thursday at 11 a. m. by his pastor, Rev. E. P. Bradley, assisted by the pastor of the Methodist church, Rev. E. M. Hoyle. The services were very simple, consisting of songs, reading of scripture and prayer, it being the desire of the family in conformity to Mr. Bailey's well known wishes that no eulogy be pronounced.

While no eulogy was spoken by man, still there was an eulogy more eloquent than could have been pronounced by the most gifted orator. The floral tributes attested his wide popularity, but the silent, griefed faces of that vast concourse of people spoke more eloquently of the man that was gone, than the tongue of the greatest orator could have spoken. There were people there from every nook and corner of Davie county. There were people there from the surrounding counties and from distant counties. Every class of society was represented. The professional man was there, the business man was there, the political friends were there, and those who had always opposed him in politics were there. The man for whom he had secured a loan in time of need was there; the widow and the orphan were there; the colored people whose friend he had always been, were there. Each for himself, by their silence ever testifying to the loss sustained. The church will miss him; the Masonic Order will miss him; the county and state will miss him; but the poor widow is saying, "Who will look after my business for me now?"

At the conclusion of the services the body was conveyed to Rose cemetery, where it was buried with Masonic honors, there to await the resurrection morn. It will be many a day before Davie county looks upon the like of T. B. Bailey again. "Servant of God, well done! Rest from thy loved employ. The battle fought, the victory won Enter thy Master's joy."

HOW MUCH LIFE INSURANCE SHOULD YOU CARRY?

You say you "already carry all you can pay for"—you "don't want to cramp yourself"—you "don't want to keep yourself poor paying premiums." Really, you are covering only a part of the ground. It isn't simply a question of how much you can live on or how much you can lay by each year. There is the more important question of how much your family could live upon if you, the bread-winner, were suddenly taken away. They will get along all right while you live. They would manage to subsist somehow, even if your income were cut in two. Would they have as much as that if you were taken away? Would they have anything at all?

Here is the question for every true man to consider: "How much must my wife and children have to enable them to live in simple comfort when I am no longer here to provide for them? Have I taken the necessary steps to secure them as much as that?"

TWENTY-ONE LIVES LOST IN SCHOOL FIRE

SHOCKING DESTRUCTION AT PEABODY HAS AROUSED GENERAL SENTIMENT OF PEOPLE.

CAN PREVENT RECURRENCES

Movement Started in Massachusetts to Make Every Child Safe While in School Buildings.

The shocking destruction of the lives of twenty-one school children by the recent school fire in Peabody has aroused a general sentiment that, so far as human foresight can prevent the recurrence of any such catastrophe, it shall be prevented. So this year, on Fire Prevention Day, a movement is to be started in Massachusetts to make every child while in the schools of the State safe from danger from fire. Arrangements are now being made for a meeting in Faneuil Hall, at which the best experts will be invited to take part in the discussion of various problems to be solved in making schools safe—removal of structural defects, installation of automatic sprinkler protection, administration, cost. Men of influence are standing behind the movement. It will be ardently supported by Fire Prevention Commissioner O'Keefe of the Metropolitan District of Boston, who has already succeeded in so thoroughly convincing the property owners of Greater Boston of the necessity for better fire protection, that the total number of sprinkler equipments ordered and installed in his district this year is several times greater than the number ordered and installed in Chicago during the same period. The National Fire Prevention Association will help in the movement. Its success is assured from the start. In fact, already, throughout the state, the schools are being carefully inspected by the local authorities. The observance of Fire Prevention Day in Massachusetts will this year be no empty form. To quote the governor's proclamation, "It would be a sacrifice even to compare the loss of millions of wealth with the loss of precious lives. But as life is seldom lost in fire, except as property burns, it becomes our solemn obligation to protect property that lives may be saved."—The Standard.

"SAFETY FIRST" FOR PUPILS.

The public school children of the State of Michigan are being introduced to "Safety First" placards being placed on the bulletin boards of all schools in the State, with these rules printed on them:

- "Do not walk on railroad bridges or tracks."
- "Do not walk around the end of lowered gates."
- "Do not loiter about railroad stations or cars."
- "Do not jump on or off trains, cars or engines."
- "Do not crawl under, over or between cars."
- "Do not cross tracks without stopping, looking and listening to see whether a train is coming."
- "Do not play on or around turntables."
- "Never take chances. The safe course is always the best, and it is the quickest in the long run."
- "Be on the alert."
- "Get the safety habit."
- "Practice it every minute."

KEEP SCHOOLHOUSES CLEAN.

The North Carolina Insurance Commissioner is of the opinion that damage of costly fires could be reduced if schoolhouses at the end of each year were left in a good, clean condition. In a statement for the press just issued by Commissioner Young, he says:

"Very frequently an investigation has shown that schoolhouses are not in good condition during the vacation period. It seems to be the idea that schoolhouses should be put in order and cleaned up, etc., at the beginning of each term, but at the close of the term it is all right to leave scattered about in the building, piled up in corners and stored in closets any kind of material, such as we used in the exercises and has accumulated during the session. The result is frequently a fire, started from spontaneous combustion or other causes."

"All school committees should adopt the rule of seeing their buildings are thoroughly cleaned and put in order at the close of the school term. In this way many buildings will be saved from burning."

Given a New Grip on Life.

From The Lincoln News.
The other day a man walked into this office and planked down a silver dollar and it was for the purpose of paying for The News for a year for a man who had been dead a year. He explained that another party had been reading the dead man's paper and they wanted to pay for it. This is a little incident served to give us a new grip on life and caused us to have even more faith on our fellow man.

TEACH THE CHILDREN.

By teaching the children, some of whom will in a few years administer the law, a long stride toward fire prevention will be taken, and the children while being taught, will interest parents, who will, as never before, recognize the importance of the question, and rather than plead ignorance on such an important and self-interesting subject, will lend their aid in the campaign for fire prevention.

One individual in a set of individuals can do only little, but if the sentiment for the saving of life and property is spread (and it can be through education) the interest must increase, and a vast army, fighting against fire waste, will soon bring results. Fire prevention means the saving of life and property, and it should appeal to every one, else something is lacking. What is it?—Safety Engineering.

Something Good.

Those who hate nasty medicines should try Chamberlain's Tablets for constipation. They are pleasant to take and their effect is so agreeable and so natural that you will not realize that it has been produced by a medicine. Obtainable everywhere.

NATIONAL SLOGAN SUGGESTED BY PROMINENT MEMPHIS DRUGGIST

Would Remind the Public to Prevent Sickness by Removing the Cause

T. D. BALLARD, a prominent druggist of Memphis says: "Much sickness could, and would be prevented if the people would only remember that constipation is one of the first causes. As a reminder, I would suggest the slogan,

"Rxall Orderlies, the laxative tablet with the pleasant taste." "I suggest Rxall Orderlies as I know their formula and believe they are the best remedy for relieving constipation. They can be used by men, women or children."

The New York Republican State Committee unanimously vote to hold an unofficial State Convention, Feb. 15 to nominate delegates to National convention.

A FEW SUGGESTIONS FOR THE PREVENTION OF FIRES AND LOSS OF LIFE

ASHES should be kept in metal receptacles and never in paper or wooden barrels or boxes.

OILY RAGS OR WASTE should be kept in standard metal waste cans and contents removed and burned each night.

RUBBISH should never be allowed to accumulate in buildings.

GASOLINE, NAPHTHA and other volatile oils should not be kept in buildings.

GAS BRACKETS should have rigid fixtures; where necessary to use swinging brackets all exposed woodwork should be protected with sheet metal, leaving an air space. Metal bells should be placed over gas jets on low ceilings.

STEAM PIPES should be kept clear from all wood and other combustible material.

OPEN FLUE HOLES should be protected with sheet iron or, better, be bricked up.

ELECTRICITY, when improperly installed, is hazardous; lamp cords should not be hung on nails or wrapped around any piping; paper shades should never be used. Confer with your City Electrician when changes are contemplated. Do not allow employees to tamper with electrical installations.

STOVEPIPES should be run direct to brick chimneys and never through floors or partitions; protect floors under and about stoves with brick, cement, or sheet metal.

STAIRWAYS should be kept closed and clear at all times; never place any stock or shelving thereon.

AISLES OF GOOD WIDTH should be maintained at all times; never pile stock in front of windows or against doors, as it handicaps the firemen in case of fire.

FIRE DOORS AND SHUTTERS should be closed every night, and stock should never be placed so as to hinder the ready closing of these fire stops.

SEE THAT ALL FIRE EXTINGUISHING APPARATUS is in good working order.

DAMP LAMPBLACK will spontaneously ignite. So will slack and pulverize coal and charcoal when wet.

NEVER USE PARLOR MATCHES; always the safety match; they cost no more.

REQUIRING ALL DOORS TO SWING OUTWARD, especially in public buildings, may prevent the loss of many lives.

All buildings over two stories high should be provided with FIRE-ESCAPES and STANDPIPE for Fire Department use.

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU SICK. DON'T STAY BILIOUS, CONSTIPATED

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Will Clean Your Sluggish Liver Better Than Calomel and Can Not Sicken.

Calomel makes you sick; you lose a day's work. Calomel is quicksilver and it siccates; calomel injures your liver. If you are bilious; feel laxy, sluggish and all kinds of ailments, if your bowels are constipated; head, your head, aches; your stomach is sour, just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone instead of using sickening, salivating calomel. Dodson's Liver Tone is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up feeling fine, your liver will be working, your head will be clear and your bowels regular. You will feel like a new man. You'll be clear, full of energy, vigor and ambition.

Your druggist or dealer sells you a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone under my personal guarantee that it will clean your sluggish liver better than nasty calomel; it won't make you sick and you can eat anything you want without being salivated. Your druggist guarantees that each spoonful will start your liver, clean your bowels and straighten you up by morning or you get your money back. Children gladly take Dodson's Liver Tone because it is pleasant tasting and doesn't gripe or cramp or make them sick. I am selling millions of bottles of Dodson's Liver Tone to people who have found that this pleasant, vegetable liver medicine takes the place of dangerous calomel. Buy one bottle on my sound, reliable guarantee. Ask your druggist about it.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION LAWS.

In New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Michigan, Illinois, and Wisconsin the labor employed far outnumbered that of all other States combined, and in each of these States a Workmen's Compensation Law has been enacted.

EXAMINE YOUR POLICY

The fire insurance business—or at least the method of arriving at the final result, rate—is probably less understood and appreciated by the average citizen than any other business with which he comes in contact, for the reason that, until his loss occurs, he feels that he is paying for something which he does not receive. The man who exercises the greatest caution in the acceptance of any other security—mortgage deed or evidence of debt—will accept insurance contracts without any investigation or security, either as to the worth of the company or form of contract.—Pennsylvania Legislative Report.

DISCIPLINE.

It appears to be the fact that some men cannot be trained by methods in which discipline is not considered. If you feel that your man is worth it, then you must discipline him when you cannot reach him by other methods. Discipline: Don't clout that man over the head (figuratively). The jawbone of an ass is no longer a useful weapon. If you cannot reach that tender spot, you ought not to be the man on the job. This is the day of humanitarianism. Have a heart-to-heart talk with your man. Drive home the use of that guard. Cite an accident—the result. Bring the lump to his throat, the tear to his eye. That is the kind of discipline that counts.—Safety Engineering.

FIRE WASTE IS ATTRACTING ATTENTION

Several States Have Realized Enormous Destruction by Fire and Established Legislation to Prevent Some of Waste

The fire waste throughout the country is attracting more attention than ever before, and several states have shown a disposition to recognize the principle that the enormous destruction of property annually is an economic waste of the country's resources with the result that they have expressed a decided sentiment in favor of establishing special legislation, which will tend toward greater conservation, and are abandoning their former attitude of assuming that as long as property is insured there is no loss. In the face of facts, the attitude mentioned is absolutely erroneous, and it can be corrected by the education of the public, starting with the children, whose receptive minds are open to instruction in the saving of life, which is of the most importance, and the preservation of property. Let people know the full danger of fire chargeable annually to carelessness through the thoughtless handling of matches, the storage and handling of gasoline, oil, fireworks and explosives. Show the menace of permitting tramps to accumulate or in the unkept cellar, inflammable materials to be stored in closets, attics, or elsewhere.—Safety Engineering.

Show your employees that safety activity is in their interest and that of the Nation. Once they realize this, they will say, "This business of preventing accidents is my business; I shall attend to it, and would like your cooperation."—Alexander Shane.

A New Remedy for Rascals.

Heck Smart, in Bessmer City Journal. Good people all, listen to me. You have known me for some time, and you know that every remedy I have brought out has made man kind better.

Behold, I have now brought out a compound to be sold and known as Heck Smart's Rascal Remover. One bottle does the business and makes an honest man out of Bill Sykes. All you need do is to pick off the corrupt and throw them on their back and dose 'em with the Remover till you see the change coming. Tried in 1,000 cases and not a single failure. Read what those who have taken the remedy say about it:

"For 30 years I have been a horse trader, and have always got the best of every trade. One day last week I was induced to try a bottle of your Remover: under the pretense that it was root beer. It changed me into an honest man. I now point out the ring bones and sparsins when I trade, and am not making a blamed cent at the business. I shall probably bring up in the poorhouse, but shall have the consolation of knowing that I am an honest man."

Another writes: "I was for years a United States Senator from Ohio. About four years ago, business in the Senate being slack, I took up a side line with an oil company. Some of the letters I wrote were stolen, and my little side line side-lined me back to private life. It is too late for me now, but I heartily recommend your Remover to every member of the present Senate. No use trying to work any side lines, as you are sure to be caught at it."

A Senator now in public eye writes: "I have been charged with bribing the Legislature of Illinois to elect me to my present position. I have denied it right along, and made some folks think I was an object of persecution. The other day I was kidnapped and held in an old saw mill for 30 hours and dosed with your Remover every 60 minutes. When set at liberty I owned right up to bribery, and am saying so yet. There are other crimes that I shall confess to later on. I cannot praise you. You have brought about my downfall while the Senate was trying to find some way to white wash me."

A member of the New York Legislature writes: "I accepted a bribe of $500 to vote for a certain bill, and had nicely got away with the dough, when a friend brought me a bottle of your Remover. He had soaked the label off, but recommended it for indigestion. When I had taken five doses I felt like bragging over that $500. When I had taken ten I wanted to tell everybody how easy it was to make half a thousand. At the fifteenth however, I began to call myself a scoundrel, and when I had taken the full bottle, I owned right up that I was unfit for public trust. I didn't want to, but something compelled, I shall live an honest life after this, and it brings tears to my eyes to think how many cold potatoes there will be in it."

A professional burglar writes: "A few days ago I was a burglar with a song in my heart and business never better. Now where am I? I had been a burglar for 15 years and was doing well at it, when a politician tipped me off about your Remover. He warned me that our business would be gone if we took it, but in my egotism I swallowed the contents of a bottle within an hour. Result: I went to the police and confessed to 37 burglaries, and was at once locked up. I had to confess, and will get about 14 years for being an honest man. I hereby warn all other burglars against your Remover. It will ruin the noble profession. It will make us honest, but poor men and led the cold storage companies have the entire field. A county treasurer who got away with $16,000 and was living very happily next door to Senator Bailey down in Texas, writes: "I took 18 doses of your Remover under the impression that it was a kidney remedy. Hadn't a thought of making restitution before I took the first dose, now I am going back to my old town and hand over $12,000 and offer to work for a dollar a day until the balance is paid up. You ought to be hung for bringing out such a compound. There is only starvation for the thousands of honest men it will make."

An Ohio wife writes: I was married to a good man 20 years ago, and every night for the last 15 years I have made it my business to slip out of bed and go through his pockets and then lie to him when he missed his cash in the morning. I took 20 doses of your Remover last week to remove facial wrinkles, and the result is that I have turned over to my husb and almost $3,000 that I had robbed him of, and have been brought to see my crime in all its heinousness. I think you ought to change it so that wives can continue to accumulate small sums at odd hours of the night. Make it apply to men only."

Thousands of such letters are pouring in by every mail. Some of them are heart rendering to read, but all go to prove the efficacy of my wonderful Remover. There is nothing like it. It compels honesty and truth in every instance.

Do you suspect your alderman? Throw him on his back and dose him, and the truth will come out. Do you believe your State Senator is square? Kidnap him and make him take from 10 to 20 doses.

Is there anything shady in the record of your congressman? From 10 to 20 doses of the Remover will bring him into the limelight. Ask for the Remover and don't take French peas, which are colored with copper sulphates, in its stead. There is only one Heck Smart, and only one Remover.

Booth Lowrey Coming.

Booth Lowrey, the great orator and humorist, will appear at the Community Building on Wednesday, Feb. 9th, at 8 p. m. Admission 25 and 35 cents. This is the third and last Lyceum attraction for the season, and every citizen of the town should go out and hear this gifted orator. Among his subjects are "Simon Says Wig-Wag," "Tolerably Good People," "The Fountain of Youth," "Black Sunshine," etc. A rare treat is in store for the people of our town. Remember the date.

Rather Psychological.

Many of the Democratic papers take up columns in telling the people what prosperous times we have. Rather strange that if there is so great prosperity, the people need to be told about it. Our people must be very dense if they can't realize such a great blessing. It is the same old trick.—Hickory Times-Mercury.

Relieved.

A woman sat in a street car with a homely baby, as Robert Emmett Keane tells it in the Philadelphia Record. An Englishman stared and gazed. Finally the woman looked at him sarcastically and said "Rubber!" "Thank God!" exclaimed the Englishman. "Now don't you know, I thought it was real."

For a Bilious Attack.

When you have a severe headache, accompanied by a coated tongue, loathing of food, constipation, torpid liver, vomiting of partly digested food and then bile, you may know that you have a severe bilious attack. While you may be quite sick there is much consolation in knowing that relief may be had by taking three of Chamberlain's Tablets. They are prompt and effectual. Obtainable everywhere.

Death of T. B. Bailey Severe Loss to State.

The Raleigh News and Observer in referring to the death of Mocksville's honored citizen, says:

The State of North Carolina is the loser when death lays its hand upon such men as T. B. Bailey, of Mocksville. But his spirit has been ushered into the unknown it is good to know that God had given him to the State for sixty-six years.

Mr. Bailey was a force for good in the State. A lawyer of ability, a zealous Democrat who represented Davie and Rowan counties in the State Senate, prominent in public affairs, taking high place in the business world, devoted to his church, a worker for the best political and civic conditions, having at heart the cause of education, T. B. Bailey's life has been one of marked service to the people of Davie county and the State.

As chairman of the executive committee of the Board of Directors of the State Normal and Industrial College, Mr. Bailey rendered high service to that institution. His death will be felt as a personal loss by his fellow members of the board of directors, drawn close to him because of the big-heartedness of his life and the philanthropy which found as one of its expressions the placing of the institution upon women to be educated for bread winning.

Unassuming, true, faithful, the State can well mourn that T. B. Bailey has answered the final call.

Deep regret and sorrow were expressed in all the State departments and everywhere Mr. Bailey's personality and labors were known. Above all things his untiring zeal for education and for education of women particularly was spoken of.

It was recalled that his two daughters succumbed to a terrible scourge of typhoid which visited the Normal in 1901. Whereas many men would have been embittered by the loss, T. B. Bailey became even more earnest in his efforts to serve the institution. With his own resources he established and furnished in simple beauty a room in that college used as a sort of reception and rest room as a memorial to his daughters. At every meeting of the board it was he who was tireless in his work for the college and the good of the students.

Wants Further Proof

As expert jugglers of figures the Corporation Commission of North Carolina are the limit. They tell us that the people of the State pay less per capita tax than any State in the Union and produce the figures to prove it. It reminds us of the answer the wag gave to the question "That figures did not lie." His reply was "That some men did, and could arrange figures so that they would." We will have to be shown further proof of this before we believe it.—Creedmoor Times News.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will cure one hundred dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

A Little Too Smart.

Charity and Children. As soon as the rumor was set afloat that Judge Cooke was ill and that he had gone to a hospital for treatment the friends of several candidates got busy preparing to charge the Governor in favor of these gentlemen as Judge Cooke's successor. It is a matter of rejoicing to hear that Judge Cooke's illness is not of a serious nature and that there is a prospect of his being able to resume his work before a great while. But be that as it may, it was in poor taste to say the least, to try to capture the place while the incumbent is still alive; and it is mighty poor politics too. It is likely the candidates themselves are not to blame for this unseemly haste, but somebody is to blame. To save him from his friends may well be the prayer of many a candidate for public office. Jas. G. Blaine, the Plumed Knight suffered keenly from the folly of one of his friends, and "this blow will kill father" set everybody to laughing at Harrison who also ran. Too much zeal is more dangerous than too little. It is hard sometimes to wait, but it pays. Eager friends forgot, once in awhile, that their eagerness is never a political asset. Neither the public or the Governor are especially impressed with the enthusiasm of delegations who blind themselves to the proprieties and who rush right in where angels fear to tread. We sincerely hope that Judge Cooke will recover his health and return to the bench and finish out his term with honor to himself and to the State. And when he voluntarily lays the office down will be plenty of time for others to aspire to the office which he has adorned.

Do You Know

That destructive insects cost the corn growers of the United States $100,000,000 annually? That destructive insects cost the fruit growers of the United States $30,000,000 annually? That destructive insects cost the tobacco growers of the United States $10,000,000 annually? That potato bugs cost the potato growers of the United States $17,000,000 annually? That insects destroy about one-tenth of all the agricultural and forestry products of the United States annually? That the estimated cost to the farmers of the United States of the destruction of birds is $1,000,000,000 annually because of the loss in crop protection? That birds are the greatest, cheapest and best insect and weed destroyers on earth, as well as the best musicians!

The Lynching.

Every now and then something occurs to show that our civilization is only skin deep and the trouble is we never know where it is going to break out.—Durham Herald.

A TWICE-TOLD TALE.

One of Interest to Our Readers.

Good news bears repeating, and when it is confirmed after a long lapse of time, even if we hesitate to believe it at first hearing, we feel secure in accepting its truth now. The following experience of a Winston-Salem man is confirmed after six years.

E. O. Curtis, 918 Chestnut St., Winston-Salem, N. C., says: "I suffered a great deal from pain in the small of my back. My whole system seemed out of order. I lost flesh, couldn't sleep well and at times was nervous. My system was filled with uric acid. Doan's Kidney Pills rid my system of uric acid and strengthened my kidneys. I now feel better in every way." (Statement given December 27th, 1907.) Over six years later, Mr. Curtis said: "Doan's Kidney Pills have done more for me than any other kidney medicine I have ever taken. I still use them once a while." Price 50c. Beware of cheap imitations. Get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Curtis had. Foster-McIlburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

A Rowan Boy the Winner.

Ledford Hall of Rowan county, 13 years old, won first prize in the 1915 Boys' Corn club contest. He produced 141.4 bushels of corn on an acre of his father's farm, five miles from Salisbury. The cost of production was $15.93, of which $2.41 was spent for fertilizer. The average cost per bushel was 11.2 and the profit was $125.46. Young Hall's brother, Dudley Hall, won the championship in 1914.

The winner of the second prize in the contest was John Hugh Worsley of Rocky Mount, Edgecombe county. He raised 143.5 bushels on his acre at a cost of $50.32—$41.17 per acre. While his production was slightly in excess of young Hall's the cost was more than three times as much and he did not keep a complete history of his crop, hence his second place in the contest.

As a result of the work of the Boys' Corn clubs during the year 1915, reports sent in by the boys show that 70,040.4 bushels of corn were produced by the 1,308 boys reporting. Fifty boys made 100 bushels and above. The average yield of these 50 boys was 111.7 bushels per acre.

As an indication of the interest of the boys this past year, 37.3 per cent of the boys enrolled reported, against 21.3 per cent for the year 1914, an increase of 16 per cent for the year. Ninety five out of the 100 counties in the State had boys enrolled in the work, and 88 counties out of the 95 sent in reports. The 12 remaining counties of the State from which no reports were received had only a combined total membership of 11.

The average yield of all the testants was 53.5 bushels per acre and the average cost was 43.4 cents per bushel.

According to the latest statistics, there are in the State about 3,000,000 acres in corn each year, which yield a total production of 60,000,000 bushels. If the adults would grow the crop with the same zeal and get the same average results that the younger set does, the yield would be 160,000,000 bushels—Statesville Landmark.

Truth Plainly Told.

Bessmer City Journal. Once in a while somebody gets the idea that the reason the local paper does not report every scandal that comes to public knowledge is because the publisher is afraid. That's not the reason. The reputable newspaper, especially in a small town, where every one is a neighbor to every one else, takes no delight in giving publicity to those things that have brought disgrace to some family or heartache to some wife or mother. It is much more pleasant to record the good things that happen, to tell about the incidents that tend to make life more endurable and that uplift rather than tear down, that bring joy instead of sorrow, pride instead of heartache. So if you don't always find in the Journal the delectable bit of gossip that would doubtless make "good reading," and if you are inclined to blame the editor because he does not print all the news, consider that some home has had enough worry over unfortunate happenings and that the gossip scandal mongers of the community can and will gladly and ghoulishly give sufficient publicity to the details to satisfy the lowest tastes. Incidentally it might be remarked here that the most complaint of censorious news comes from people who have had in their lives something they are glad were not given newspaper publicity.

Whenever You Need a General Tonic Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The Old Standard Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is equally valuable as a General Tonic because it contains the well known tonic properties of QUININE and IRON. It acts on the Liver, Drives out Malaria, Purifies the Blood and Builds up the Whole System. 50 cents.

Democratic "Preparedness."

Woodrow Wilson's "preparedness" scheme if carried through will be the greatest fraud ever perpetrated upon the American people. It is a complete sell out to the steel trust, and the war munition trusts. A year ago Mr. Wilson and his Secretary of War Garrison and little Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, all said that this country was in a high state of "preparedness", that our Navy was second only to that of England's, but since that time there has been more than four million men killed upon the European battlefields and as many more maimed and wounded. The finances of all the belligerent countries are in bad shape, even the food supplies are running low, and with all of these facts before them, President Wilson and his whole administration pretends to be scared out of their boots and are squalling "preparedness" like a bunch of hungry paupers. There is not half the danger now that there was a year ago and they said they were fully prepared for a scrap then, but now.—Oh! well they will need a big campaign fund this year.—Clifton News Dispatch.

Teddy is Not Wanted.

The Republican national leaders who attended the meeting of the sub-committee on arrangements for the Republican national convention to be held in Chicago June 7, indicated they would favor any available compromise candidate except Roosevelt and said they believed the convention would select a candidate satisfactory to every element of the party. The sub-committee approved the plans to meet in Chicago.

Severe Cold Quickly Cured.

"On December first I had a very severe cold or attack of the grip as it may be called. I was nearly down sick in bed," writes O. J. Metcalf, Waverly, Mo. "I bought two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was cured in a few days. My cold was completely restored to health. I firmly believe that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is one of the very best medicines and will know what to do when I have another cold." Obtainable everywhere.

Republican State Convention Call.

By order of the Republican State Executive Committee, a Convention is called in the city of Raleigh, on Wednesday, March 1st, 1916, at noon.

The basis of the representation of each county shall be the vote of our candidate for governor in 1908, giving one delegate for each one hundred votes or fractional part thereof.

The objects of this Convention shall be to set in motion the great campaign of 1916, to-wit: The changing and bringing the Plan of Organization into conformity with the new legalized Primary Law; the selection of a State Committee and its officials; the defining of the issues to be presented to the voters in a Platform of Principles; the selection of delegates to the National Convention in accordance with the duly adopted Plan of Organization; a plan to make more compact and efficient all committees, including State, District, County and Precinct; such other business as the Convention in its wisdom may deem advisable.

The Chairman of each county is requested to give due and proper notice for a County Convention to select delegates to the State and District Conventions, and to attend to other matters in accordance with their custom and the Plan of Organization.

Unusual times and unusual conditions call for unusual plans and means of bringing about universally desired results; to this end the method so long in vogue in many counties of making all interested and patriotic voters duly accredited delegates, is most highly recommended.

In conclusion, let the invitation be extended to and accepted by all, who intend to support the Republican ticket, to attend this Convention rally and lend their advice and aid in redeeming our Nation and State.

FRANK A. LINNEY, Chairman.

The Best Recommendation.

The strongest recommendation any article may receive is a favorable word from the user. It is the recommendation of those who have used it that makes Chamberlain's Cough Remedy so popular. Mrs. Amanda Gierhart, Waynesfield, Ohio, writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my family off and on for twenty years and it has never failed to cure a cough or cold." Obtainable everywhere.

The groundhog couldn't please everybody. The coal man is mad, while the ice man is rejoicing. One can rob you as well as the other.

Time flies, and many important events are soon forgotten in our mad rush after the almighty dollar. Just eighteen years ago today the United States battleship Maine was blown up in Havana harbor, and many brave soldier boys went down with her. It was two months later, in April, that the United States declared war against Spain. If we are not mistaken, Colonel Bryan urged President McKinley to have Congress take immediate action and wait for nothing. We will ask Judge Clark, of The Landmark, to set us right on this point.

The groundhogs residing in this neck of the woods certainly missed seeing their shadows Wednesday, and if they are truthful fellows we can assure our readers that the backbone of winter has been not only broken but smashed into smithereens, or some other big word that we cannot spell. A great many of the oldest inhabitants declared just before the eventful day that the sun never failed to shine on February 2nd. The oldest inhabitants are not always truthful men. It is now up to his hogship to make good. If he fails to do so, then a suitable reward will be offered for his capture and execution.

The $250 in gold offered as a prize for the best article on "Why every citizen in the county should take his home newspaper," is attracting a good deal of attention. When The Record offered this prize we limited the contestants to the ninth and tenth grades. We find that there are but a few schools in the county teaching higher than the eighth grade, so we have decided to include all the students in the seventh and eighth grades, as well as the ninth and tenth grades. This will give the students in all the schools in the county an equal chance. The lucky boy or girl will also receive an extra dollar bill for the use of the winning article which will appear in our paper. Prizes will be awarded Commencement Day, April 1st. There is plenty of time left in which to prepare your articles. Remember, all girls and boys in the seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth grades can compete for this prize.

Congress Remains Unchanged.

Washington, Feb. 3.—The question that has been uppermost in the minds of almost all the members of Congress since President Wilson started for the West a week ago on his speech-making tour by which he sought to place his preparedness program more clearly before the American people is: "Has the sentiment for preparedness, along the lines of the President's program, been materially strengthened, or has it lost ground?" The answer to this question as indicated by placing it "up to" a large number of the Congressmen today is that Congress to day occupies just about the exact ground on the question that it did before the President started on his trip.

It has been estimated that 100,000 people heard the President during his whirlwind trip through the West. An effort is being made to have him speak in the South in the near future.

Notice of Republican Convention.

A convention of the Republican voters of Davie county is hereby called to meet in the court house in the town of Mocksville, N. C., on Saturday, the 26th day of February, 1916, at noon, for the purpose of selecting delegates and alternates to the State Republican Convention which meets in the city of Raleigh, N. C., on the 1st day of March, 1916, and the 7th Dist. Congressional Convention which meets in the city of Lexington, N. C., on Tuesday, the 29th day of Feb. 1916, and to transact such other business as may properly come before it.

The primaries for this purpose of selecting delegates to said County Convention will be held at the various voting precincts throughout the county, on Friday, the 25th day of February, 1916, between the hours of 12 o'clock, m., and 3 p. m. All Republican voters in good standing are urged to be present and attend said primaries and said County Convention. This 7th day of Feb. 1916. A. T. GRAY, Jr., Chm. J. F. MOORE, Sec.

Some Near Burglars in Town.

Did Mocksville entertain four burglars last Tuesday night? is the question that several of our citizens are worrying over. Charlie Brown, who serves things hot and cold at the Southern Lunch Room, near Sanford's Garage, is pretty sure of the burglars, while the gentlemen who guarded the postoffice half the long, rainy night, with guns hugged tight in their fond embrace, are perhaps inclined to think it was only the groundhog taking an early start. But let us tell the tale as 'twas told to us. About 11 o'clock last Tuesday night four strangers arrived in town in an auto and went to the home of Charlie Brown, near the depot, had him to get up and accompany them to his cafe near the public square. Arriving there Charlie was made to hustle around and prepare them something to satisfy the inner man. After the feast was over the strangers insisted that Charlie show them where the postoffice and the two banks were located. This Charlie reluctantly did. About this time Charlie managed to elude his guests and hiked through a back lot winding up breathless at the telephone office. Instead of knocking, he fell through the door, tearing his coat half off. The alarm was given and Deputy Harbin, together with Sheriff Sprinkle, H. C. Meroney and Roy Holthouser, went to the court house, where they remained on guard until morning, but no burglars guarded their appearance. The strangers paid Charlie for their supper, and he insists that they had large guns Tuesday night was pow'ful rainy, to say the least.

TWO POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

There are a few papers in North Carolina that are not afraid to say what they think, and The Record is always glad to run up against them. The following pert paragraphs were taken from Charity and Children, an outspoken weekly run by a blockade preacher:

"If we can stand two Catholics on the Supreme court bench we ought to be able to stand one Jew."

"Tremendous pressure, is being brought to bear on the Governor to save the Warren woman from the electric chair; but if she escapes, her guilty partner in crime ought to escape too."

The Record has contended all the time that the Warren woman was more to blame for the Muddy Creek murder than Christy, and Governor Craig cannot afford to spare the life of one and take the life of the other. Sam Christy is a better man than Ida Ball Warren is a woman. Many appeals are being made through the Winston daily papers for the life of Ida Warren to be spared, but never a word for poor old Christy. If one has to be spared, then spare both and abolish forever the electric chair in the Old North State.

On The Battle Front.

The British are pressing the Germans hard in the Kameran region of German West Equatorial Africa. A Spanish official communication says that 400 Germans and 14,000 of their colonial troops have crossed the southwest border and sought asylum in Spanish Guiana, where they were disarmed and interned. Except on the Western line in France and Belgium and on the Caucasus front, little fighting of moment is in progress in any of the war theaters. Another British steamer has been sunk.

$2,675.50.

"At this season of the year it behooves even the least of us to wake up and look about to see how we are getting along, and to ask ourselves if we are running our business or is our business running us. The people of this community realize that no business is conducted merely for the pleasure of so doing, with no regard whatever to a just percentage of profit. Our people are as good as any to be found anywhere, and we have a great deal of faith in them or we would not be laboring here for the upbuilding of this town and community. It will amaze many of our subscribers when we tell them a little secret that has been bearing on our mind for some time. We know it will come as a shock to the honest and well-meaning people in Mocksville and Davie county, and they will promptly set about remedying the condition of affairs. On February 1st, there was due us from the citizens of Mocksville and surrounding country the sum of some of it overdue from six months to several years. This does not include several hundred dollars had debts charged off to account of profit and loss. We have never refused to help in boosting the community and contributed to all worthy causes. No one has been refused credit that has shown the slightest disposition to help himself. We have never doubted the good intentions of our subscribers and advertisers. That is why we fail to understand their lack of appreciation. If you cannot pay all you owe, send us a partial payment. You will never miss it and you will be dealing squarely with your fellow men. Show us that you mean to do what is right and we will meet you half way. Let us hear from you at your earliest convenience. Cordially yours,

THE DAVIE RECORD."

Wake Bull Moose No More.

Raleigh, Feb. 2.—At a meeting of the Wake County Progressive Executive Committee held today at noon in the court house, a stiff jolt was handed Zeb Vance Waiser, State chairman of the Progressive party. In the face of Waiser's announcement from Washington of the approaching Progressive State Convention the Wake County Progressives announce that they are through insuring and will line up with the regulars. County Chairman Upchurch presided and it was unanimously agreed that the Progressives will endorse the meeting and call of the Wake County Republican Executive Committee, which was made on January 20, and will take part in the Republican Convention February 22nd.

Keating Labor Bill Passes House.

Washington, Feb. 2.—It was by an overwhelming majority that the Keating child labor bill passed this afternoon, the vote being 337 to 46. The North Carolina delegation to a man voted against the measure, Representative Britt on the Republican side being conspicuous for his vote against, when the Republicans voted favorably and unitedly for the act.

Representative Webb was again leading the fight against the act, being joined in speaking by Doughton and Britt from North Carolina and Representatives from South Carolina.

Vigorous speeches were made against what was termed infringement of the rights belonging to the States.

The bill will meet strong opposition when it reaches the Senate side, as indicated by the expressed purpose of Senator Overman to prevent its favorable report from the committee.

To Baracas and Philatheas.

Dear Co-workers:—Through the medium of our column I wish to put a matter before you, and hope each class will consider it a personal letter, as much so as if written entirely to you.

The matter I wish to put before you is this—a gift to our beloved president Mr. Caudell. I am sure that each class and each individual member of every class in our Union has wanted to make some return to Mr. Caudell for the great and noble work he has done and is still doing for our organization. As we think of how our president is putting his time, efforts, money and even himself into the work, we each want to show in some way our appreciation for his services. An idea has occurred to me how we can do this. It is to give Mr. Caudell the trip to the Baraca-Philatheas Convention which will be held in Goldsboro this Spring. Since it became necessary to put our State Conventions on a pay basis, and especially when it convenes in the more distant cities, every class in the county cannot send representatives, but all the classes co-operating can send Mr. Caudell to represent Davie County, Baraca-Philatheas Union. If each class will contribute 25 cents towards giving this trip to Mr. Caudell the returns will be on hundred fold.

Dear Baracas and Philatheas, take this matter up before your classes, and if you agree to take part in this gift please forward 25c. to the undersigned with a return address, so Mr. Caudell cannot attend the convention, your money will be returned. Wishing you all much success, I am,

Sincerely,
(MISS) LULA MILLER,
Coolesville, N. C.

[The editor of The Record heartily endorses the plan outlined by Miss Miller, and hopes that every Baraca and Philatheas class in Davie county will respond to this appeal. We feel sure that every class in the county will gladly contribute to this good cause.—Editor.]

Passing of Dr. Tyre York

Elkin, Jan. 31.—Dr. Tyre York died at his home near Trap Hill Saturday morning, Jan. 29th, after a long and painful illness. He had been in poor health for the past three or four years and for the last six months he had hardly been able to leave his home. A month ago he was taken with grip, which in a short time developed into pneumonia, which, in his weakened bodily condition found him an easy prey to its ravages. He had lived out the four-score years of life allotted to man, being in his eighty-third year when the death angel called his spirit to give up this life of toil and cares.

Dr. York was a man of strong convictions, and when he espoused a cause, he entered into it with all his might and force. In early life he was an uncompromising Democrat. He represented Wilkes county in the legislature several terms when the county was overwhelmingly Republican. When the State held the first prohibition election some 35 years ago, he espoused the anti-prohibition cause, and in the following congressional convention was nominated for congress by the Republican party and with the help of the disgruntled Democrats was elected, defeating Maj. W. W. Robbins, of Iredell, by a very large majority. He, however, did not claim to be a Republican, but an anti-prohibition Democrat. But the Republicans went ahead and nominated him for governor against Hon. A. M. Scales. On "Jack," his old bay mule, with old-fashioned saddlebags, he canvassed the State, but was defeated by a very large majority. This was the death blow to his political life.

As a friend and neighbor his heart was full of the milk of kindness. He turned no one away from his door who was in need, and in him the poor had a friend indeed. When he was called to a sick patient he went without question, many times knowing that he would receive no recompense.

The first political war-cry the editor of The Record ever remembers hearing, was, "Hurrah for York, Sheek and Bailey." The three men named were Dr. Tyre York, George Sheek, of Mocksville, and W. A. Bailey, of Advance. All three have now passed into the Great Beyond.

A Weather Sign.

Mr. J. L. Parks, of Union Grove township, who is either Dutch or believes in Dutch signs, passes on a weather sign that he is willing to gamble on. Here it is: The third day following the new moon governs the weather for that moon.

For instance, there was a new moon Thursday. If Sunday is a wet day the balance of this moon will be wet. If Sunday is dry, so will the balance of the moon be.—Statesville Landmark.

As Sunday was a warm, sunny day, we will have several weeks of fair weather, if the sign don't fail. Take notice, boys.

The Yadkin county coroner's jury which exhumed the body of Miss Ophia Miller, of Courtney, who died in a Winston hospital Jan. 4th, found that deceased came to her death by taking some "drug" or preparation which was procured and given her by one Harvey Lynch, and which was taken by her upon the advice of the said Harvey Lynch for the purpose and with the intention of procuring an abortion. It is said that Lynch left this section and went to Florida before Christmas. It is not known what steps will be taken.

Overcash Draws Thirty Years.

Houston Overcash, of Rowan, who was tried in Statesville last week on the charge of murdering his wife about a month ago, was sentenced Saturday morning to thirty years in the penitentiary, and was carried to Raleigh Saturday afternoon by Sheriff Deaton. The bill of indictment was changed from murder in the first degree to second degree murder, and a compromise was agreed upon by the attorneys on both sides. Opinion is divided on the case, many thinking that if the trial had went on Overcash would have received the death sentence, while others believe he would have been acquitted.

New President For Bank of Davie.

The directors of the Bank of Davie met last Friday morning and elected E. L. Gaither president to succeed Hon. T. B. Bailey, deceased. Mr. Gaither is one of Mocksville's most prominent business men, and the directors could not have named a better man to act as the head of this growing institution. We understand that Mr. Gaither will give most of his time to the business, and will have his office in the bank. The directors and stockholders are to be congratulated in securing Mr. Gaither as president.

Mrs. Emily Blackwell Dead.

Winston Journal, 6th.
Mrs. Emily Blackwell died last night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bettie Holland, after an illness lasting several months with a complication of diseases. The deceased was born on May 12, 1829, in Davie county, the daughter of the late Tennyson Cheshire and Barbara Cheshire (maiden name Mock). She was married to Mr. Robert Blackwell on August 27, 1849. Mr. Blackwell died 18 years ago. She is survived by four children, Mrs. Holland of this city, Mrs. W. C. Douglas, of Marydel, Mo., and Mesdames M. T. Lowery and J. L. Foster, of Davie county. Mrs. Blackwell was a member of Salem Methodist church near County Line, having joined that church when a girl. The funeral services will be held at the home this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. E. S. Crossland, Geo. W. Lee and J. S. Hiatt. The remains will be taken to Mocksville Monday morning, leaving the home at 9 o'clock, and the interment will be at Salem Methodist church graveyard, nine miles west of Mocksville.

The Davie County Teachers' Association will meet next Saturday and it is hoped that every teacher in the county will be present.

Floods in the west during the last two weeks have caused thousands to be homeless, and a number of lives have been lost. The property damage has been great in Arkansas.

C. S. Brown returned Saturday from a month's visit to his daughter, Mrs. Ollie Scott, of King, and his son, Milton Brown, at Winston. Mr. Brown was ill a part of the time while away, but has fully recovered. He reports a pleasant trip.

HOW MUCH LIFE INSURANCE SHOULD YOU CARRY?

You say you "already carry all you can pay for"—you "don't want to cramp yourself"—you "don't want to keep yourself poor paying premiums."

Really, you are covering only a part of the ground. It isn't simply a question of how much you can live on or how much you can lay by each year. There is the more important question of how much your family could live upon if you, the bread-winner, were suddenly taken away. They will get along all right while you live. They would manage to subsist somehow, even if your income were cut in two. Would they have as much as that if you were taken away? Would they have anything at all?

Here is the question for every true man to consider: "How much must my wife and children have to enable them to live in simple comfort when I am no longer here to provide for them? Have I taken the necessary steps to secure them as much as that?"

Where the Blow Falls.

The story told in this paper today of the sentencing of a white man to 20 months on the road, and the coincident leaving his wife and five little children without support, shows how impossible it is under social conditions now existing in this country for the criminal alone to suffer for his crime. It proves, too, how ineffectual are the laws we have devised, inasmuch as they are allegedly conceived in the very heart of justice for human betterment, but can only provide punishment. The prisoner will be measurably repaid for his course by the action of the court but the compensation of the woman and children is less satisfactory.—Greensboro Record.

No Money in Stocks.

A Chicago banker said once that the public seemed to think the beef packers make money as easily as did the country boy who witnessed the killing of a calf by a motorcar.

"No use talking," he drawled to a passer by, "that certainly is money in cattle."

"In the stock raising business, do you mean?" asked the stranger. "No, not exactly, a motorman ran over the calf a few minutes ago and the driver got out an' handed me $5."

"Five dollars? That's not much for a good sized calf."

"Yes, but Mister, the calf wasn't mine."

No Race.

The fat man rushed through the gates just as the limited was pulling out. A losing race began, to the interest of porters and yard men standing by. On his sad and puffing return one of the men said with a grin: "Miss yer train?"

"Miss my train—oh, no! I was simply chasing it out of the yards. You people shouldn't allow it in here!"—severely—"Just look at the tracks it leaves."—Ex.

Former Congressional Delegate Cameron, of Arizona, is Republican National Committee man from his State, and a national political figure. Concerning the coming Presidential campaign, Mr. Cameron recently said: "When it comes to selecting a candidate for the Presidency, I believe the choice will fall upon Senator John W. He has met our people, and I can say with truth that he made the biggest impression of any of the men who are aspirants for the Presidency."

COMMUNITIES PAY OWN FIRE LOSSES

Property Owners Should Realize That Insurance Companies Do Not, in The Last Analysis, Pay The Fire Losses.

Citizens who apply "hoss sense" to insurance matters quickly perceive that with all the machinery of insurance the fire losses necessarily revert to the communities where the losses occur, and justly so. Indeed, fire protection will never be taken seriously by the property owners until they realize more generally that insurance companies do not, in the last analysis, pay the fire losses, but that they are necessarily represented in the rates that are levied for insurance. Any other adjustment could prove disastrous to the insurance companies, which really serve as the collectors in getting together assessments and distributing the sums required to cover the fire losses of the community. To understand the real inwardness of fire insurance, the insurer must realize that every act of carelessness and criminality that results in fire loss is really paid for by the community and is reflected in the higher rates that the insurer must pay for the protection so necessary for good business methods and the protection of self and family. If insurance business were legislated out of the country, as has been proposed in some quarters, these matters would be dragged home to the people.

Some day we will come to full realization of the enormous unnecessary loss entailed by fire, and shall begin the right sort of preventive campaign to lower it. One place to begin is in the schools. It is probably within the truth to say that a considerable part of the cost of the country's bill for education could be canceled by the savings that could be made by bringing up the oncoming generation with proper appreciation of the wealth wasted by fire that even reasonable precaution would prevent.—Exchange.

Do you know where the nearest fire alarm box to your home is located? Don't enter barns or other buildings carrying an open light. An open fire in a garage is more than an invitation to a blowout.

United States Senator John W. Weeks, of Massachusetts, who is one of the "favorite son" candidates for the Presidency, is strongly opposed to the limitation of debate in the upper house of Congress. On this subject Senator Weeks recently said: "Cloture in the Senate would be a dangerous step. Thinking people who have watched the course of legislation consider the Senate the great place where there shall be free and unlimited debate on all public questions. The adoption of legislation without suitable discussion should be opposed to the limit."

A "PUNT GUN."
Found in use in Virginia for the wholesale slaughter of game birds, since the passage of the federal migratory bird law, of which Senators Weeks and McLean were the joint authors, more than forty State Legislatures have passed laws in conformity with the federal statute. The result has been a tremendous increase in the waterfowl population of the country. "The insectivorous migratory bird is of incalculable value to the farmer in fighting the insect pest," Senator Weeks recently said, "and it is gratifying that the State game warden has acted so promptly in bringing the local game regulations into conformity with the federal law."

VOLUME XVII.

MOCKVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1916

NUMBER 31

Heard at The National Capitol.

Special to The Davie Record.

Washington, Feb. 10.—"We are ready to go into the elections in Indiana, today," said a member of Congress from that state to a group of Republican associates. "I do not have the slightest doubt but that we could carry the state. There is much criticism of the present administration and the people of my district and the state do not hesitate to say that it has failed to make good. The Republicans are united and cheerful and victory was never more promising than it is at present. If conditions continue as they are today and there seems no reason why they will not, then as far as our state is concerned, it is all over but the shouting."

"The trouble with our party," said a Democratic member from one of the northern states, "is that we have been listening to false prophets. We have followed the radicals to extremes while in reality the people have been turning to sanity and conservatism. On the matter of the tariff, if we had made a mild and a sensible revision of the tariff, instead of ripping this industrial statute to pieces, we would have escaped the frightful condition with which we are confronted today with no money available for meeting the running expenses of the government. Instead of stamp taxes and other burdens levied directly on the people, if we had displayed judgment, we could have everted them. With all our frantic efforts we have not kept in touch with the people and I regret to say our blunders are costing us the confidence of the public. Everybody knows what this means in politics."

"Things are breaking mighty badly with us," said a western Democratic Congressman in the House lobby. "Especially is this true on the matter of revenue. The tremendous decrease in import duties was greater than we estimated it would be. Then we did not get anywhere near what we figured we would from the receipt of income taxes, and then on top of this we find, owing to the falling off in revenue of $11,000,000 during the past year on the sale of malt and spirituous liquor, on account of less consumption of the same, that we are also short this vast sum. This merely shows that we are getting it both going and coming so far as revenues are concerned."

"The speech of Senator Newlands, Democrat, of Nevada, in the United States Senate a few days ago, in which he virtually predicted disaster to his party in the elections of November next, simply illustrates what are the views of many members of Congress of his own party and which they in private conversation freely express," said a prominent Republican Representative in the lobby of the House. "Senator Newlands was right when he states that Democracy has only one well worn asset left and that is the oft used expression: 'The President has kept us out of war.' Even this Democratic slogan has ceased to be music to the people. The idea in itself is too absurd, for the dilly dallying and hesitating policy of the present administration has only tended to widen the breach and to destroy confidence in American diplomacy. We have really been much nearer war by this constant backing and filling by the Wilson administration, than we would have been had we adopted a definite, firm positive and patriotic American policy. With a financial policy that has emptied the treasury and fiscal policy that has curtailed and crippled industry, it is little wonder our political opponents are getting somewhat nervous as election approaches."

A Compensation.

Blood money prosperity is discounted by the echo of sobbing widows and weeping orphans; Protective tariff prosperity is like drawing a healthy savings fund from the bank and enjoying it with your wife and children while alive.—Ex.

Wilson Will Lose.

In the recent reports coming from Chicago that the Progressives will not nominate a candidate for the next presidential election and the suggestion that they may join in selecting the Republican candidate, Congressman C. Bascom Slemm, of the Ninth Virginia district, sees the strongest assurance that a Republican President will be elected next fall to succeed President Wilson.

"The only possible interpretation of action of Progressives of Chicago is amalgamation with the Republican party," said Mr. Slemm in discussing the matter today. There will be only one candidate at the November election to oppose President Wilson; that is, provided of course, that the Democrats under Bryan do not defeat him for the nomination.

"My judgment is that the Republicans all over the United States will gather in Chicago with their hats off, in a spirit of patriotism, and select a man who will lead in restoring the United States to a position of honor among the nations of the world. 'I think that the people of this country feel that the Democrats have proven totally inefficient to handle the affairs of the government. They have involved us in debt. American citizens are being murdered on both land and sea with no suggestion made regarding them, except an implied criticism against those who feel it their duty or business to leave home. 'Some Democrats are pretending to claim credit for what prosperity we now have. This has been most aptly designated as 'blood-soaked prosperity.'"

"In Southwest Virginia the iron furnaces are in the main running, but they are running to make bullets. The coke ovens are in operation to make coke, and this coke to make steel, and this steel to make bayonets, and these bayonets to be used in killing human beings. If the Democrats can claim any credit for this prosperity they are welcome."

"The Progressive meeting at Chicago and their decision to amalgamate with the Republican party is in recognition of views similar to those I have just expressed."

Are You Guilty?

A farmer carrying an express package from a big mail order house was accosted by a local dealer. "Why didn't you buy that bill of goods from me? I could have saved you the express, and besides you would have been patronizing a home store, which helps pay the taxes and builds up this locality."

A Matter Too Serious to "Brag" About.

The per capita tax of North Carolinians is $7, and of North Carolina voters, $50, and yet the corporation commission increases our assessments every four years, and "brags" about us being the lowest taxed State in the Union. This reminds us of a word that would rhyme very well with that of its champion, Judge Pell, Concord Chronicle.

Stop It Quick.

There now, we knew it was coming—a Wyoming minister has started the crusade against riding to church on Sunday in automobiles. If a law isn't passed before long against automobile riding on Sunday and the increased use of the automobile continues at the same ratio it has been going for several years past, it will not be long before the automobile vs the church will be a Sunday issue.—Ex.

Within The Law.

Charity and Children.

A prosperous business man, in another section of the state, who as a rule is "full handed," was caught last year in the financial depression and was forced to borrow two or three thousand dollars. His credit was excellent and the banks were glad to take his paper, but informed him that the rate would be 10 per cent, as they were getting that from others, and were unwilling to discriminate in his favor. That looked reasonable indeed. "Special favors to none"—except to themselves. The man accepted the situation, borrowed the money and paid the unlawful rate. Comptroller Williams is giving attention to this class of banks and bankers and is asking them some plain questions. Some bankers seem to regard themselves above the law—in fact are a law unto themselves. But they need to be taught the lesson that the law was made for all, and that the government recognizes no distinctions. So far as we know the banks in this part of the state are obeying the law. Usurious rates of interest are not charged anybody rich or poor. We are glad to say this in behalf of the Piedmont banks. We hope Mr. Williams will be able to convince the bankers who charge excessive rates that they have no more right to violate the law than the petty thief who steals a chicken or the thirsty negro who peddles blind tiger liquor. In fact the banks have less excuse; for they are more intelligent and pass for better citizens. If the banking business cannot be conducted within the law it should be abandoned. But it can be profitably so conducted as is proven in a hundred cases that we happen to know where the business is done honorably and without resorting to short cut methods of one kind or another to evade the six per cent. law. The Statesville Landmark observes: "And the banks that charge excessive interest rates are by no means the only sinners in this particular. Many private individuals who loan money are guilty of extortion that would make Shylock ashamed." These private money lenders and the banks that fatten on usurious necessities should be exposed and prosecuted; and we hope Comptroller Williams will continue his good work until the last one of these outlaws is brought to law.

Getting Indifferent Here.

Sunday is observed very indifferently in the North. In Newark, New Jersey, the churches have petitioned the storekeepers to close their places on Sunday. We have laws to control all such business in the South. But the railroads are gradually coming to the time when Sunday will be as any other day. At first the people permitted only the passenger trains to run on Sunday, but now Sunday is the big day for the movements of through freight.—Our Fatherless Ones.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; and as sees out of ten are caused by Catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. We will give one hundred dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

For a Bilious Attack.

When you have a severe headache, accompanied by a coated tongue, loathing of food, constipation, torpid liver, vomiting of partly digested food and then bile, you may know that you have a severe bilious attack. While you may be quite sick there is much consolation in knowing that relief may be had by taking three of Chamberlain's Tablets. They are prompt and effectual. Obtainable everywhere.

Slaves.

The most abject and pitiful slaves in the world are the slaves of their own evil selves. Ignorance is slavery, for it binds our eyes and binds our hands and feet and thus excludes us from a large and beautiful world of knowledge and service and enjoyment. Prejudice also is slavery and confines us in our own little world. Self interest and selfishness have the same blinding, narrowing effect. In so far as we try to invade the rights and interests of others, we blight and wither our own capacity for growth and immerse ourselves deeper and deeper in the prison of our own selfishness. We should endeavor to burst these barriers and get out into the blessed liberty of unselfish souls.

Deeper and higher still is liberty of a pure heart. An evil disposition within us is the worst master we can ever have over us. Impurity and falsity, pride and passion enervate and harden—no fetter and chain of the slave driver can bind and torture us as can these. Evil habits may be bitter bondage which remove and tears can not break. But a pure heart is perfect freedom. It moves along the track or in the grooves of right and duty, and therefore it has unobstructed liberty.—Exchange

Millionaire Built a Town For Widows.

Sand Springs, Oklahoma, was built for widows. The story goes that they compose more than a fourth of the 5,000 population. The town was founded by Charles Page, a millionaire oil producer of Tulsa. His earlier recollections were of his mother's efforts to rear his family, and he resolved that when he grew up he would take care of all the widows.

When he made his fortune Page founded Sand Springs. He built dozens of comfortable cottages, in which was fuel, and rent was free. Factories he bought so the widows have employment. He built a car line to Tulsa upon which widows ride free. There is a day nursery, free medical attendance and a vocational school. If a widow wants to get married Page helps her do that. He likes grandmothers, too, there is a score of them here, with nothing to do but knit and read and reminisce.

Page probably has more "children" than any other man in the world. An orphan's home in a nearby town recently went bankrupt. To better provide for the little inmates Page legally adopted the whole institution and moved it to Sand Springs.—Everything.

If They Had Told The Truth.

"How lonely your wife grows." "My dear, what do you suppose my score was this morning. One hundred and forty nine for 18 holes."

"I won't be home till late tonight, darling. I'm going to paint the town red with a couple of old college chums."

"Yes, sir, the hotel is pretty full but I can give you what we could give for a good long if we weren't so crowded."—Life.

ANOTHER LINK WITH STATESVILLE.

Statesville Citizens add their Praise.

Another link with our neighboring town of Statesville is provided in the following grateful and generous statement of a well-known resident there, Mrs. Eugene Fesperman, 328 W. Bell St., who says: "I had sharp pains across my kidneys a few days ago, and when I awoke the inflammation had spread to my back and the rheumatic twinges disappeared. Whenever I have any sign of kidney trouble now, I use Doan's Kidney Pills and they do me good."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the name that Mrs. Fesperman had. Foster-McBarn Co. Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

"Cyclone Davis."

A Washington press dispatch tells this story of an unruly Texas congressman's surrender to the dictates of fashion:

"Cyclone" Davis, representative from Texas, has succumbed to the whims of civilization. He startled his colleagues by appearing on the floor of the house today clad in a perfectly good linen collar and a calico shirt decorated with pink flowers. When "Cyclone" first came to Washington his only neck ornament was a gray woolen muffler. While campaigning among the farmers of his State he had taken a solemn oath never to wear a collar or necktie. He violated half of his promise to his constituents today, although he was minus the necktie.

The dress reform adopted by "Cyclone" evidently pleased him. Many of his colleagues who noticed the change of his personal appearance congratulated him. Asked for an explanation of his change of front, Davis said:

"It was just this way. Ever since I came to Washington my wife has been weeping every day because I was dubbed the 'collarless congressman.' This morning when I had finished dressing, with my muffler buttoned in place, she began to cry as if her heart would break. I inquired the reason and she explained to me. It was too much. My feelings got the better of me and I went to the nearest haberdashery and purchased a collar and a shirt. I don't know what my constituents will say when they hear about this, but, anyhow, I am going to keep peace in the family even if I have to break my vow. This is the first collar I have worn in over 20 years."

As a parting shot at his critic he pens the following stanza, that have in them a genuine ring:

'Tis not the leaves upon a tree,
That makes the timber fine;
'Tis not the veaty preachers wear
That makes their lives sublime.
'Tis not the raiment people don
That makes a glorious State;
'Tis not the jewels in a crown
That makes a kingdom great,
Right is right, for God is God—
And truth will make us whole;
The hope of man must ever be
The goodness of his soul.

He now tells the house, however, that his brother died many years ago of a bronchial affection and he has been protecting his throat and lungs ever since. He continued:

"I have endeavored to do this by wearing what was known as Wave's mufflers. This week I pulled off a silkette muffler that cost me $1 50 and put on a cent collar and it became a national sensation for the benefit of the very delicate and fastidious sensibilities of the New York gentry and diamond bedecked dudes who read the papers. I beg to say that I have little regard for the flummery, frills, flounces and furbelows that the world calls fashion."

Mr. Davis said he believed in the freedom of the press and had owned Texas newspapers for 17 years being at one time president of the Texas Press Association.

The indignant "Cyclone," with a quaver of the bass voice so often heard on the hustings in the days of Populism and free silver, said: "When papers like this New York paper undertake to use me and the clothes I wear to malign and slur the farmers of Texas by saying they made me promise never to wear a collar if elected to Congress, I say with all kindness for the assiduous, erudite, and versatile young correspondents they are carrying the extrinsic taste of this rustic plutocrat a little too far."

The next step after the wearing of a collar is the wrapping of a tie around one's neck. Mr. Davis, collarless and cravatless, a week ago, today exhibits a fresh clean collar and a long drooping tie, very black in color, that nestles comfortably under this white whiskers. And thus the capitulation, bronchitis or no bronchitis, is complete.

Eighty-five Cents For Cotton.

Charlotte Observer.

Very few of those who "bought a bale" a couple of years ago, it may be safely said, know as much about cotton as they do about pumpkins and once in a while we hear of some one who is still holding his bale. These "buy a bale" fellows ought to get into communication with the Vienna market. We are told by Commerce and Finance that "a small lot of good middling American cotton recently sold in Vienna at 85 cents a pound. One spinner sold it to another." But there is no use to thus provokingly dangle a bunch of sour grapes. No doubt on the other side they are hearing of similar reciprocity on part of the cotton manufacturers in this country in dyestuffs dealing. Some mills have accommodated other mills with a barrel or so of dyes on a basis that about parallels the cotton transaction between the Vienna spinners.

Leap Year Marriage From Here.

North Wilkesboro Hustler.

'Tis Leap Year, girls, don't forget. One at least has made the start. Miss Bettie Bumgarner, aged 48, left last Thursday week and walked to her brother's, Mr. Doc Bumgarner, at Jefferson, Ashe county, a distance of 30 miles, Saturday evening. Sunday she sent for the man she had chosen, Mr. Charles Warren, age 73, and they were married Sunday evening.

Severe Cold Quickly Cured.

"On December first I had a very severe cold or attack of the grip as it may be, and was nearly down sick in bed," writes O. J. Metcalf, Weatherly, Mo. "I bought two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it was only a few days until I was completely restored to health. I firmly believe that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is one of the very best medicines and will know what to do when I have another cold." Obtainable everywhere.

Republican State Convention Call.

By order of the Republican State Executive Committee, a Convention is called in the city of Raleigh, on Wednesday, March 1st, 1916, at noon.

The basis of the representation of each county shall be the vote of our candidate for governor in 1908, giving one delegate for each one hundred votes or fractional part thereof.

The objects of this Convention shall be to set in motion the great campaign of 1916, to-wit: The changing and bringing the Plan of Organization into conformity with the new legalized Primary Law; the selection of a State Committee and its officials; the defining of the issues to be presented to the voters in a Platform of Principles; the selection of delegates to the National Convention in accordance with the duly adopted Plan of Organization; a plan to make more compact and efficient all committees, including State, District, County and Precinct; such other business as the Convention in its wisdom may deem advisable.

The Chairman of each county is requested to give due and proper notice for a County Convention to select delegates to the State and District Conventions, and to attend to other matters in accordance with their custom and the Plan of Organization.

Unusual times and unusual conditions call for unusual plans and means of bringing about universal long desired results; to this end the method so desired in vogue in many counties of making all interested and patriotic voters duly accredited delegates, is most highly recommended.

In conclusion, let the invitation be extended to and accepted by all, who intend to support the Republican ticket, to attend this Convention rally and lend their advice and aid in redeeming our Nation and State.

FRANK A. LINNEY, Chairman.

And did you ever stop to think what would have happened if Noah had been prepared against preparedness?—Tribune-Star.

The Best Recommendation.

The strongest recommendation any article may receive is a favorable word from the user. It is the recommendation of those who have used it that makes Chamberlain's Cough Remedy so popular. Mrs. Amanda Gierhart, Warnersville, Ohio, writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my family of 12 and on for twenty years and it has never failed to cure a cough or cold." WEDNESDAY, FEB. 16, 1916.

Hon. Champ Clark would like to be president, and so would William Bryan, but they will both experience a freeze-out on June 14th. Mr. Wilson's freeze out will come about the first of November.

William J. Bryan has announced that he will tour the country and make many speeches against President Wilson's preparedness program. We will hang on the fence and watch the fun.

There is considerable talk among Republicans of running Hon. James J. Britt for Governor this fall. The Record favors Jim Britt for any office, for there is not a better man in North Carolina than the Congressman from the Tenth.

And now it seems as if Mr. Wilson is going to slight us after all in his speechmaking tour. It is said that seven of North Carolina's congressmen are not in harmony with his preparedness program, which may in part explain why he isn't coming.

The Record had hoped all along that Justice Charles Hughes would accept the nomination for President on the Republican ticket; but it begins to look as though he had fully decided to remain on the Supreme Court bench. He is a mighty strong man, and would win over Wilson in a walk.

Every Republican in Davie county is urged to attend the Republican county convention which meets in this city on Saturday, Feb. 26th. Delegates are to be chosen to attend the State Convention at Raleigh and the Congressional Convention at Lexington, and other matters will also come before the convention.

One year ago President Wilson told the people he was opposed to "converting this country into an armed camp," and said it could take care of itself in any event. Now he is stumping the country in the interest of his preparedness program. The sudden change of Wilson and his two secretaries, Garrison and Daniels has aroused the thinking people to a question of their sincerity.—Yadkin Ripple.

Some of our citizens have such a habit of trading away from home that they will actually go to nearby cities to buy their tobacco, 10 cent dress goods and other things that could be purchased at home much cheaper. Some do this because it sounds better to say the goods came from the city; others do this because they have a spite at their own town and don't want it to grow, while a few trade away from home because they don't know any better. The Record is in favor of helping the home man, and believes in boosting the home town. Spend your money where you make it, when you can possibly do so. It will help you, your town and your county.

A Tribute to Mr. Bailey.

Mr. Editor:—Being providentially hindered from attending the memorial services of Mr. T. B. Bailey at the colored Presbyterian church last Sunday afternoon, I wish to say a few words in your paper.
 I think the occasion was a most worthy one and the time could have been spent in no better way than that of eulogizing the life of Mr. Bailey. It is a true saying that a friend in need is a friend indeed, and such a friend was he. He could not turn a deaf ear to any one who was in need and destitute circumstance. A large man in stature, with equally a tender heart. His place will be hard to fill in the town of Mocksville, and in fact the State of North Carolina, and though the town, county and State deplore their loss, it will be heaven's gain. And may the hand of Providence deal gently with the widow left behind who, too, has always been faithful in lending a helping hand to the sick, and to other, unfortunates.
 B. J. NEELY.

Grave apprehension is felt concerning the groundhog. Many of his friends think that he froze to death Sunday or Monday night.

News From Rowan.

Some say the ground hog has brought us this fine weather we are having, but if he does not lose his veracity this year we will be fooled. We think there is much winter back yet.

The great golden wedding of Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Brown was celebrated on the 31st ult. A large jolly crowd of about 200 was present, and they were remembered from New York City to Savannah. Contributions amounted to $67 in cash with many other presents added. Never have they had so many handshakes and congratulations. It is said that about one couple out of a thousand live to see their golden wedding. This couple is one of that thousand.

It seems that Wilson must pick a fuss with somebody and then prepare to fight. Friends never need to fight, but it may be he wants to force some of those bankrupt nations to pay what he has loaned them. One man said he was impressed with what Wilson said about preparedness, went home, bought him two large guns, went back to town and was soon surrounded by the sheriff's force and found they were prepared also. He told them he believed in preparedness. The result was the next morning there were seven hearses before the houses of seven of the best citizens in town, and he was in jail with one eye out, one leg broken and a fractured skull. So much for preparedness. The negro is generally prepared and it amounts to a killing of somebody. Preparedness here means an immense fortune to some of the factories and the death of many of our good citizens. If this is what our people want, they should advocate preparedness and vote for Wilson again.
 OBSERVER.

Mr. Bailey's Gift to Davidson.

A few days before his death, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Bailey gave Davidson College $1,000 to establish a scholarship to assist needy young men in preparing for the ministry. The scholarship is a memorial to the two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Bailey, who died several years ago while they were students at the State Normal. A few days after notice of the gift had been received at Davidson. Mr. Bailey died. He graduated at Davidson College in 1871.

Davie Man Wants Wife.

Yadkin Ripple.
 Hoory! Listen! All ye widows, old maids, grass widows, young girls and all other females who are matrimonially inclined. Here comes a man seeking your acquaintance and love with a strong intention of marrying. He hails from the good county of Davie and his name is John Hauser, but we will let him tell his own story in his own words. Here is his letter exactly as it was written by him to the Chief of Police of Yadkinville, with caps, punctuation and all as used by him. Hear him.
 Chief of Poljece,
 Yadkinville,
 N. C.

Dear sir, I am appealing to you as I am in great distress, & very lonely, I have traveled almost day & night for nearly two years, over three counties forsyth, Yadkin, & davie, having eather write or called on every old maid, school teacher, Widow or grass widow, without success. It seems impossible for me to find a wife, so in my distress I am appealing to you asking you to do all you can for me, have it published in the Yadkin papers, & ask all the co. & state papers to publish it & if I fail to find any one through the columns of the co. & state papers, I will then try the Northern & western papers, I have a fine farm of 70 acres, & a good three room house & other nessesary outbuildings, & am capable of giving a wife a good home, & being a faithful loving husband.
 Hoping that you will do the best you can for me & thanking you in advance, I am most respectfully,
 John Hauser

Found a New Bible.

Editor Record:—I have in my possession an old Bible which I found in a deserted old building in this vicinity a few days ago. This Bible contains 14 more books than the present up-to-date editions. It may be of interest to the public to know the names of the discarded books:
 I Edras, II Edras, Tobit, Judith, Rest of Esther, Wisdom of Solomon, Jesus, son of Sirach, Baruch, History of Susanna, Destruction of Bel and the Dragon, I Maccabees, II Maccabees.
 The above fact corroborates information which the writer obtained in a history of the Bible to this effect. At the formation of the Bible it contained something over 200 books, but the original has been cut out from time to time until there are now less than 70 as is generally known.
 Respectfully,
 A FRIEND.

Would Move the Nation's Capital to Milwaukee.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Moved by the fear that the anti-saloon league may force Congress to legislate the city of Washington into the "dry" column, Congressman Cary, Republican, of Milwaukee, Wis., introduced a resolution in the House of Representatives today providing that the District of Columbia be abandoned as the Capital city and that Uncle Sam set up his headquarters in Milwaukee.
 Mr. Cary is convinced that, regardless of whether Milwaukee was, or was not, the capital of the Nation, nobody would ever have nerve to propose prohibition for that city, and, accordingly, he would foil the efforts of the anti-saloon league by moving the capital to Milwaukee.

Approve Bill for an Armorplate Factory.

Washington, Feb. 8.—The Senate naval committee today approved Senator Tillman's bill to appropriate $11,000,000 for a government armorplate factory with an annual output of not less than 20,000 tons.
 Just before the approval, Senator Penrose told the committee if the plant were established, armorplate manufacturers have agreed to increase the price of armorplate $200 per ton. It now costs the government $425.

Two Killed in Wreck.

Raleigh, Feb. 9.—Engineer E. K. Wright and his negro fireman were killed and a baggage-master was seriously injured in the wreck of the Seaboard Air Line Florida-New York Limited No. 10, northbound, 1 o'clock this morning at Fleet, four miles north of Southern Pines.

Secretary of War Resigns.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Secretary of War Garrison resigned this afternoon and President Wilson has accepted the resignation, which was said to be chiefly because it became apparent that Congress would not accept continental army plans, and President Wilson would not "irrevocably support the continental scheme." Garrison also opposed the Administration's program of setting a definite time for the Philippine independence.
 Assistant Secretary Breckenridge also resigned for the same reasons. Major General Scott, chief of staff, automatically becomes Secretary of War ad interim.

Notice of Republican Convention.

A convention of the Republican voters of Davie county is hereby called to meet in the court house in the town of Mocksville, N. C., on Saturday, the 26th day of February, 1916, at noon, for the purpose of selecting delegates and alternates to the State Republican Convention which meets in the city of Raleigh, N. C., on the 1st day of March, 1916, and the 7th District Congressional Convention which meets in the city of Lexington, N. C., on Tuesday, the 29th day of Feb. 1916, and to transact such other business as may properly come before it.
 The primaries for the purpose of selecting delegates to said County Convention will be held at the various voting precincts throughout the county on Friday, the 25th day of February, 1916, between the hours of 12 o'clock, m. and 5 p. m.
 All Republican voters in good standing are urgently requested to be present and attend said primaries and said County Convention. This 7th day of Feb. 1916.

Why Prince Albert meets men's tastes all over the world!

The patented process makes Prince Albert so good in a pipe or rolled into a cigarette that its popularity is now universal! It satisfies all smoke desires! This patented process, which also removes bite and parch, is controlled by us. No other tobacco can be like the national joy smoke

Listen:
It's easy to change the shape and color of unburnable brands to imitate the Prince Albert. But it is impossible to make the flavor of Prince Albert. The patented process makes that!

Men who have stowed away gentle old jimmy pipes for years, have brought them back to the tune of Prince Albert! Get yours out, for your confidence never will be abused! We tell you Prince Albert will set pipe free the tenderest tongue!

And smoked in a makin's cigarette, Prince Albert is so refreshing and delightful that it gives you a new idea of cigarette happiness. Any way you fire-up Prince Albert, it will win you quick as a flash—it's so good and so friendly!

Rev. Walter Dodd, of Raleigh, preached two interesting sermons at the Baptist church Sunday. We understand that this church, together with Eaton's and Bear Creek, have extended a call to Mr. Dobb, but we have not learned whether he will accept or not.

It is great to have friends, especially friends who appreciate a hungry man's appetite. Such a friend sent us last week a generous supply of fresh sausage, souce, and liver pudding, which was duly appreciated by the whole family. Lucky is the editor who can get a bite of meat these days.

Ladies to Serve Dinner.

The ladies of Mocksville will serve dinner on Monday, the 28th, which is the beginning of court week. The entire proceeds are to go toward fitting up and maintaining the "Rest Room" in the Community Building. Every man or woman in Davie county who wishes this convenience of theirs to succeed, should leave his or her lunch at home that day and patronize this dinner. The women have already made strenuous effort in behalf of Community Service. They have raised more than $350. $65 of this was donated by former residents, $28 by people of the county and the remainder by Mocksville citizens. We want the co-operation of the county people. We cannot succeed without it. If forty men in the county would pledge themselves for five dollars yearly, the "Rest Room" would be assured support. The editor and Mr. Melvin Hendrix have already headed the list with their subscriptions.

The Rest Room will open its doors to Davie county citizens for the first time on Monday, the 28th. Everybody invited.

Be sure and patronize the dinner served Monday, the 28th, for the support of Rest Room. Besides the regular dinner served for the benefit of Rest Room, oysters will be sold also.

Stimpson-Williams.

On Wednesday, Feb. 2, at half-after three o'clock, Mr. Gray Stimpson and Miss Lethia Williams were married by the writer. After the marriage they went to Greensboro and other points. Mr. Stimpson is a son of Rev. T. H. Stimpson, a M. E. minister of Pinnacle, N. C., also a brother of Mrs. T. A. Williams, of this city. Miss Williams is a daughter of Mr. C. W. Williams, of near Cleveland. Mr. Stimpson owns a large farm in Virginia, and the bride and groom will make their home there. We wish for them a long and happy life.

T. A. WILLIAMS.

News was received here Monday telling of the death of Lee Dingler, of Statesville, a son of our townsman, J. M. Dingler. Blood poison and white swelling was the cause of death, which occurred Monday morning. Mr. Dingler lived in this city for a short time, being engaged in the jewelry business. A wife and several small children survive.

HOW MUCH LIFE INSURANCE SHOULD YOU CARRY?

You say you "already carry all you can pay for"—you "don't want to cramp yourself"—you "don't want to keep yourself poor paying premiums." Really, you are covering only a part of the ground. It isn't simply a question of how much you can live on or how much you can lay by each year. There is the more important question of how much your family could live upon if you, the bread-winner, were suddenly taken away. They will get along all right while you live. They would manage to subsist somehow, even if your income were cut in two. Would they have as much as that if you were taken away? Would they have anything at all?

Here is the question for every true man to consider: "How much must my wife and children have to enable them to live in simple comfort when I am no longer here to provide for them? Have I taken the necessary steps to secure them as much as that?"

INSURANCE RATES REDUCED ONE-THIRD

Losses Would Tumble If Assured Were Made Responsible For Damage To Adjoining Property.

Oscar B. McClasston, president of the National Wholesale Grocers' Association said, "If the assured were made legally responsible for damage to adjoining property on account of fire originating within their premises, due to carelessness and neglect, the loss in the United States would be reduced anywhere from one-third to one-half within twelve months, and as a result the rates (of premium) would come tumbling down in the same proportion." This is rather a sweeping declaration, of course, and it may, or may not, be based upon an intelligent grasp of the material underlying facts governing present fire loss experiences, or it may be the result of carefully formed guesswork only, but in any case it probably furnishes some sort of an approximation to what would be the actual fire loss if the conditions referred to were in full working force.—U. S. Review.

NEW MORTALITY TABLE

Improvement More Evident Each Year on Account of Better Living Conditions, Sanitation, Etc.

A resolution of considerable importance has been adopted by the National Convention of Insurance Commissioners relative to a new mortality table. The subject has been considered by the commissioners for some time and has been thoroughly discussed by them. The improvement in the mortality of various companies is more evident with each year's operation. The beneficial effects of better sanitation, food and living conditions, and the elimination of many preventable diseases have all had their effects. They have resulted in lengthening life so that many of the mortality tables are not true standards for use.

A FEW HINTS FOR BUSINESS HOUSES

1. Have you taken due precaution for the handling of gasoline, naphtha, gunpowder, explosives and dangerous oils?
 2. Do not allow an open flame for lighting in the basement, which may set fire to combustible material or may ignite gas.
 3. Have you provided a metal receptacle for rubbish and do you see that it is emptied each day?
 4. Have you provided reliable chemical extinguishers and water pails?
 5. Do not allow waste paper, excelsior, packing boxes, etcetera, in your basement.
 6. Examine your furnace or stove regularly to ascertain if it is safe and if the surrounding woodwork be protected therefrom.
 7. Have you provided a metal can for ashes?
 8. Do you realize that in lessening the fire waste you lessen your insurance taxation, also your taxation for public fire protection?
- I wish also to appeal to you for your individual help and thereby reduce, if possible, this great loss of property and also the loss of a great many lives in our province.

MATCHES.

1. Matches, for instance, are necessary as well as useful, but carelessly handled cause much trouble and destruction. Children should never be allowed to play with matches.
2. Matches should not be kept so that mice and rats can gnaw at them until they become ignited, but should be kept in a securely covered tin box.
3. Careless smokers lighting matches and thoughtlessly throwing them on carpet, clothing or rubbish cause fires which can be greatly reduced by using a little care.

CERTAINLY RIGHT.

A disaster which caused the blowing up of a hotel in Macoun, Sask., and the loss of ten lives, has caused Fire Commissioner R. J. McLean of the province to go strongly on record against the installation of any gasoline or acetylene plants in the basements of buildings, but to point out that they should be located in structures outside of the main buildings.

SCHOOLS WILL BURN

Statistics show that every week ten school buildings are destroyed by fire in the United States. The Collingwood fire with all its horrors may be repeated any day, so little the lessons taught by that fire have been heeded. Yet automatic sprinklers installed in school buildings would practically render such a catastrophe non-existent.

As between dry cleaning at home with gasoline and fighting in the European trenches there isn't much choice, so far as safety is concerned.

Steve May Accept if Forwarded.

Steve Lambert, proprietor of a local "movie" house in Fayetteville, has received a telegram from Henry Lemoneir, at Washington, D. C., advising Mr. Lambert that he is a French count. It came about in this manner: During the Religious War in Europe, Lambert's forefathers were driven from France. There were two brothers. One of them went to Germany and the other came to Canada. Mr. Lambert is a son of the one that came to Canada. Now, it is out that the title is vacant in France and that Mr. Lambert is the one to hold it. He stated that there was little likelihood of his going to formerly accept it.

"If they want to give it to me, forward it over, but there's six doing when I have to go to Europe after it at this time," he said.

This is Growing Some.

Raymond Tilton, 21 years old, performed the unusual feat of gaining four pounds of weight in less than three hours in order to become a soldier in the United States Army. Tilton, whose parents live at Richmond, Ky., desired to join the infantry, and he tipped the scale at 123 pounds, being three pounds shy. He was notified that the Government is strict in regard to this matter and was told to return when he acquired the necessary avoirdupois.

Tilton invested in a 35-cent meal and imbibed freely of water. Then it was found that he had gained four pounds; one more than the Government required. He was accepted.

a prominent druggist of Atlanta, Ga., is authority for the above positive statement. In explaining this statement he asked two questions and offered one suggestion.

If a growing healthy business turns and begins to run down hill, what is the condition of the owner's health? Almost always, unusually bad.

What was the first cause of his poor health? Constipation.

This constipation could have been avoided by taking Rexall Orderlies occasionally. They are a pleasant candy tablet laxative which can be used by men, women or children with the best results.

NUMBER OF PAUPERS STEADILY DECREASE

According To Census Department Pauperism In The United States Has Declined Since 1880.

Pauperism is decreasing in the United States, according to a statement issued by the census department.

"The ratio of almshouse paupers to population has steadily declined at every census since 1880," the census bulletin declared.

One-third of the paupers in almshouses in 1910 were under thirty-five years of age and one-third, seventy or over. The males outnumbered the females two to one. Preponderance of paupers of foreign birth was also cited. The ratio of pauperism among negroes and whites is about equal, population considered, and it was declared that almshouses are rapidly becoming merely a temporary shelter instead of a permanent home.—U. S. Census.

DISTRIBUTION OF FIRES

New York's Fire Commissioner in Annual Report Tells Where New York's Fires Occur.

The total number of fire alarms received in 1914, says Robert Adamson, New York's fire commissioner, in his annual report, was 16,245, of which 1,820 were false alarms. The actual number of fires was 14,425. Of this number 9,243 occurred in places in which people live—private dwellings, tenement houses, hotels and boarding houses. This was 64 per cent. of all fires. Of the remaining number of fires, 2,414 occurred outside of buildings, thus only 2,768 fires occurred in buildings other than those used as homes. There were 6,781 fires in tenement houses alone.

There were 1,167 fires in bedrooms; 1,674 in cellars; 478 in chimneys; 1,340 in kitchens; 1,031 in parlors and dining rooms; 375 in closets; 189 in dumbwater fires, and 215 fires under stoops, porches and arcways.

To each one of these fires the fire department had to send men and apparatus. Most of these fires were due to downright carelessness.

But a number of fires and amount of loss are very different things. Only 2,768 fires occurred in buildings other than those used as homes, but these are the fires that add, and rapidly, to the staggering total of the fire waste, when the buildings in which they happen are not equipped with automatic sprinklers.—The Diffuser.

MACHINE SHOPS AND REPAIR SHOPS.

Most of these shops do brazing, and a gasoline brazier is generally used. The type of brazier consists of a metal tank in which the gasoline is placed and then forced through the pipes to the burner by air pressure from 20 to 120 pounds. In case of a break in the pipes the air pressure forces the gasoline over the subjected space. In case the gasoline does not take fire at the brazier the room is filled with the fume and a forge, stove, light, or any spark will ignite it.

This should always be done in the open air. Should a break occur there, the fumes would go out into the air and not necessarily be of serious consequences.

INSURANCE COMPANIES

The general feeling against stock insurance companies is undoubtedly due to a misunderstanding of the great necessity in our commercial world for such institutions, combined with a lack of knowledge of the effect of rating bureaus, as borne out of years of experience. The public necessity, because of our multitudinous interests, demands the protection of fire insurance. The public wants this at the lowest rate or tax, consistent with solvency; the public demands, and is entitled to, uniform rates on the same class of property or essentially the same class of risks. This is impossible without a scientific method of estimating rates.—Pennsylvania Legislative report.

LOSS BY SICKNESS

The average wage-earner in the United States loses nine days every year on account of sickness, much of which is pure carelessness, and therefore preventable, and the annual loss in wages and expense for medical attendance is $750,000,000. These figures are the results of a study in a new field of industrial horror made by the Public Health Service for the Federal Commission on Industrial Relations, and they are just as reliable and just as useful as any statistics you will find anywhere.—Insurance Register.

Quarrel how these "cheap" loan schemers first insist that you lend them your cash before or when you apply for a loan, or even before you become "eligible" for a loan in the first place.—Chicago Daily News

Major Crofoot Wins.

Heck Smart, in Bessimer City Journal.

It was only five degrees above zero the other morning in the office of Major Crofoot, grand promoter, and he sat debating whether he should give the stove another coat of red paint or try to borrow a few pounds of coal from the dentist next door. He finally decided in favor of the borrowing.

A coat of bright red paint makes a stove look cheerful in the winter season, but one must have a lively imagination to get any warmth out of it. The major's imagination wasn't working full time that morning. He had only 20 cents in his pocket, and his landlady had said to him as he left the house: "You are $22 behind, major, and I am not in this business for my health."

The dentist was in. His greeting was not cordial. In fact, it was the reverse. He looked the major in the eye and said: "I was in hopes they had got you at last!"

"Who?"

"The police!"

"What for?"

"For being the most notorious liar and deadbeat in seven states!"

"I'm expecting a ton of coal this afternoon."

"Then you'll steal it if you get it!"

"And if you will lend me a pail full—"

"Not one little lump as big as a filbert."

The major returned to his office to fall back on the red paint, but the can was dry. He therefore decided to sit and shiver and depend on Providence to pull him out of the hole. It looked like a day when some sucker might come in. Twenty minutes had passed away when there was a timid knock at the door.

"Got one!" whispered the major to himself, and then aloud he bade the stranger enter.

"I didn't know I finds you at home," said the man as he entered and carefully closed the door after him.

"Always at home, sir, and always doing business. Something I can do for you?"

"Dere vhas. I vhas your coal man for six weeks, you know. I like dot leetle bill you owe me."

"My coal man!" repeated the major in affected surprise.

"I bring your coal for six weeks und den der door vhas always locked on me. I pound und yell, und I know you vhas in, but you don't say somethings."

"Is that possible? I must have been counting my money and didn't want to be disturbed."

"Vhell, you may count me out shust $2.40."

"I see. What a coincidence! I was thinking about you just the instant you knocked. That was good coal and you gave me honest measure."

"But you don't pay me," protested the creditor.

"Not Well, you'll get your pay in a few minutes. Did you ever hear of bread cast on the waters?"

"Never! Vhas some mans fool enough to throw his bread in der river?"

"I speak figuratively, understand. When you supplied me with coal and asked for no pay you cast your bread upon the waters. It is now come back to you a hundred fold. You are going to find that at least one man in this world has a heart big with gratitude."

"Den I get my money, do I?"

"You get almost a hundred for one. That's me. That's Major Crofoot. Yes, I was thinking of you as you knocked. Did you ever see any gold-plated pickles?"

"By golly, no!"

"Cucumber pickles, I mean. They are the latest fad out. I am the inventor of the process. I saw at least five years ago that the common green cucumber pickle wasn't good enough for a certain class of people, and I went to experimenting. The result is the organization of the Gold Plated Cucumber Pickle Company with a capital of $3,000,000. Fifty cents a pickle, and we have orders ahead for 20,000,000 of them. The dividends will be at least 100 per cent, and perhaps double that. I am going to take you in."

"I shan't do her!" protested the caller. "My friends say you vhas full of some tricks. You hand me my money and I vhill go."

"Would it be a trick to take you into the company and pay you a salary of $20,000 a year? Would there be any trick in letting you have $50,000 worth of stock at par, and making a millionaire of you in five years?"

"If I get my $2.40 dot vhas all I vphant."

"I declare if I hadn't forgotten it! Yes, yes, you shall have it. Where is my check book? Ah, here it is. Let's see. Your name is Hammerdinger, isn't it?"

"It vhas Schmidt—Henry Schmidt."

"All right, Henry Schmit. I owe you $2.40. Here is a check for $5. You may hand me a balance of $3.60."

"But do I takes him to some bank?"

"To any bank at all, my friend. One will cash it as quick as another. If the cashiers try to jolly you, don't get mad. They are a lot of jokers, you know. The change is correct, and now, Mr. Hammerdinger—"

"You mean Henry Schmidt?"

"And now, Henry Schmidt, it's my busy day, you must go. Don't be afraid to cast more bread on the waters. It always comes back. Bound to. If you change your mind about the Gold Plated Pickle Company—"

But Mr. Schmidt was gone, and when he came running upstairs 15 minutes later the major wasn't there to answer his knocks and shouts.

A Re-United Party.

The Republicans constitute a majority in the country and united can win both the Presidency and Congress. It lost both in 1912 because it was divided on men, not measures, and it failed to carry Congress last year because the division still continued in some of States. Pennsylvania for the first time since 1860 failed to cast its elaborate vote for the Republican candidate in 1912. It will not repeat the act of folly this year. The merger of the Franklin party, Washington party and Progressive party with the Republicans, if accomplished thoroughly and maintained in good faith, will result in the election of a Republican President next fall. The call for the next national Republican convention invites all electors regardless of previous political affiliations to participate in the election of delegates to the approaching national convention. This ought to prevent and doubtless will prevent the challenging of the men of various parties who were formerly Republican candidates when they seek to vote the Republican ticket at the next primaries even though they did not vote for a majority of the candidates of that party at the last preceding election. They are all well come to the Republican ranks and to the effort to sweep from power a Democratic National administration, and which the Republican party proposes to do in November of this year—Union Republican.

Who is He?

We thought we had seen about every kind of man on earth but we heard an expression the other day describing a man whom we had never seen. The expression was this: "I know a man who is so narrow a fly can sit on his nose and kick both his eyes out at the same time." Such a narrow man reminds us of little of nothing—Ex.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Primary Election Law.

The new primary law does not cover the whole of North Carolina—some counties that did not feel prepared for it were exempted by the Legislature—but about two-thirds of the State will have an introduction to its workings on Saturday, June 3. While the law does not apply to all counties, it does apply to all political parties. We take it that the public has at least a vague idea as to what are the requirements of the new law and The Observer draws on its Raleigh contemporary, The News and Observer, for some of the salient points. That paper says the law makes it mandatory that every candidate for office "give notice to either the State Board of Election or the county board of elections, and that each candidate pay over a certain sum as an entrance fee for the primary election. It is necessary for candidates for all State, congressional and judicial offices and the State Senate from districts composed of more than one county to file notice of their candidacy with the State Board of Elections at least six weeks before the primary. As the primary takes place on the third of June, notice must be filed at least by April 22. In elections where only one county is concerned the notice is to be filed with the County Board of Elections at least two weeks before the primary, this putting the last day of filing on May 20." The opposition that developed in the Legislature against the law, next to that based on political objections, was on the score of expense, and there seems to be no question about the fact that this is quite an item. The fees to be paid at the time of filing notice of candidacy indicates as much. Candidates for the United States Senate and House of Representatives will have to part with $50. The fees for judges, solicitors and State officers is $20. For the State Senate the fee is $5. The News and Observer does not mention the House of Representatives, but we suppose the same fee applies to that. County officers, except constables, will pay $1. Candidates will be required to file statement of monies spent—one 10 days before the election and one 20 days after. The fees mentioned go to the State and are but a small part of the expense the candidates will be called on to bear. The United States candidates will have to chip in their quota to the campaign and the election budget in each of the 100 counties and the State candidates likewise, while the congressional and judicial candidates will have to go down into their pockets for district expenses. The fees are located in the little end of the horn.—Charlotte Observer.

More About Taxes.

Democrats have already begun to talk about equalizing taxes again. This makes cold chills run down our spine because we know what that means. Every time they try to "equalize" they raise the valuation and taxes go up like a skyrocket. Taxes are no nearer equalized now than they were 20 years ago when the Democrats began to "equalize" them, but taxes have been more than doubled and still the Democrats are crying for equalization. The people have stood just as much of this kind of stuff as they are going to stand and those who would continue to raise taxes in North Carolina will not only meet with stubborn opposition but they will merit the contempt of all thinking people. The people of North Carolina are now groaning under the burden of taxation, lots of people are hardly able to raise the money with which to pay their taxes and at the same time the State Tax Commission, the same gang added 20 cents on the hundred dollars worth of real estate in Sampson county is sending out charts prepared to deceive the people, trying to make the tax payers believe that they are not over-burdened with taxes when the tax receipts compared with those of 1914 tells the story. The people are stirred up over this tax question as they have never been before. A taxpayer told us the other day that after he sold his cotton, paid for his fertilizer and other expenses he had $50 left, he went to the sheriff's office to pay his taxes which were around $40 in 1914 but to his surprise they were more than $58 in 1915. He paid the $58 left him from the sale of his cotton and borrowed the balance from a neighbor and paid his taxes. He then went to the bank and borrowed a small amount to meet some other pressing obligations and had to pay another tax by placing a revenue stamp on the note that he gave his local bank. It matters not where you turn the tax ghost is after you. We are being taxed for most everything imaginable, "we are even paying a 'war tax' when we are at peace with the whole world. The people are doing some tall thinking for themselves and they are going to hit the Democratic party hard at the polls next November.—Clinton News Dispatch.

The Beer Garden.

Banish the thought—but could it be possible that the wondrous glories of the St. Louis beer gardens had anything to do with the case when it came to selecting a place for the Democratic national convention.—Fairbrother's Every thing.

The Postoffice Hog.

The kind of two footed hog we have in mind just now is the post office hog and the worry that follows in its wake. When the mail is being opened and distributed to the different boxes, the hog makes his appearance, opens his box, gets out a few letters, closes the box, turns on his heel, places himself in front of his box, and proceeds to calmly peruse the contents of his letters while the balance of the patrons must stand and wait until he is through before they can even get a glimpse of their box. * * * Take your mail out and give others a chance who are just as anxious for their mail as you are for yours.

For a Bilious Attack.

When you have a severe headache, accompanied by a coated tongue, loathing of food, constipation, torpid liver, vomiting of partly digested food and then biliousness, you may know that you have a severe bilious attack. While you may be quite sick there is much consolation in knowing that relief may be had by taking three of Chamberlain's Tablets. They are prompt and effectual. Obtainable everywhere.

The Next President.

Charles D. Hilles, chairman of the Republican National Committee, before departing for New York from Chicago, Jan. 25th, after attending the session of the subcommittee on arrangements for the Republican national convention in June, discussed the possible candidacies of Colonel Roosevelt and Justice Hughes for the Republican nomination for President and urged the necessity for the adoption of uniform national primary election laws by all the States. In speaking of Colonel Roosevelt, Chairman Hilles said:—

All the information I have on the subject is to the effect that Colonel Roosevelt is not a candidate for the Republican nomination for President. He has declined to permit his name to go on the primary ballot in the only three States where it has been suggested, Minnesota, Nebraska and Michigan. This indicates that he is not a candidate. In the statement issued by Chairman Perkins and the Progressive National Committee it was made plain that any reasonably satisfactory man would be accepted as the Republican nominee. They insisted they meant just what they said and we will take the statement at its face value. I think we will be able to nominate a man who will be satisfactory to all elements of the party and that our candidate will be elected.

In regard to Justice Hughes, no one knows just what his attitude is to-day toward the Presidency. In discussing the subject with a friend in 1912, Justice Hughes said when he went on the United States Supreme Court bench he "took the veil" and renounced the world. I think he was in earnest when he made that statement, but whether he has since changed his mind I do not know.

There is no man big enough to retuse the Presidency, in my opinion. If he were nominated without his consent I have no idea what he would do. As I said yesterday, I believe we have a number of able men in our party for candidates and I think the candidate will be born in the convention.

Democratic Soup in Mississippi.

A Mississippi member of congress is telling a good story on him self. For some weeks past he has been receiving letters by almost every mail from one of his constituents asking him to send some of the free seed sent out each year by the congressmen and making an especial appeal for peas. Finally, the demand for peas became so large from this constituent, that the member of congress wrote the applicant in these terms: "I am sending you half a dozen more packages of peas as you requested. Say, what are you trying to do down there, plant the whole State to peas?" A few days later he got this reply: "No, I am not planting them. They make bully soup. Send along some more."

A MERCILESS JUDGE.

One Who Shows No Favor.

A merciless judge is Father Time. Before him the weak and the wanting go to the wall. Only the truth can stand. For years the following statement from a Salisbury resident has withstood the sternest of all tests.

John W. Glover, shoe repairer, 130 N. Main St., Salisbury, N. C., says: "I suffered severely from backache and pains across my loins. I couldn't get out of bed. Doan's Kidney Pills stopped the pain in my back and I was soon well." (Statement given January 6th, 1915.)

On March 10th, 1915, Mr. Glover added: "I haven't had to take Doan's Kidney Pills for a long time."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Glover had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Leap Year.

The custom which ordains that a woman may propose marriage to a man in leap year dates back seven or eight hundred years. An act of the Scottish Parliament, passed about the year 1228, made it a crime punishable by a fine, for an unmarried man to refuse to become the life partner of a woman who had the courage to "speak ye man she liked!"

The custom in a milder form is referred to in a work published in a work published in 1606, entitled "Courtship, Love and Matrimony."

"Albeit it has now become a part of the common laws in regard to social relations of life that as often as every bi-sexistile year doth return, the ladys have the sole privilege during the time it continueth of making love unto men, which they doe either by wordes or by looks, as to them it seemeth proper; and, moreover, no man shall be entitled to the benefit of clergy who doth in any wise treat her proposal with slight or contumely."—From the Peoples Home Journal for February.

Severe Cold Quickly Cured.

"On December first I had a very severe cold or attack of the grip as it may be, and was nearly down sick in bed," writes O. J. Metcalf, Weatherly, Mo. "I bought two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it was only a few days until I was completely restored to health. I firmly believe that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is one of the very best medicines and will know what to do when I have another cold." Obtainable everywhere.

It Comes Precious High.

In the estimate submitted to Congress there is an item of over $2,000,000 to collect income tax. It is proposed to appoint about 400 odd collectors at $1,600 a year. It comes high, this income tax which is an infamy. Old Man Jefferson, adored by Democracy said it was infamous, and it is. But as we need the money of course those who have earned it must give it up.—Exchange.

Republican State Convention Call.

By order of the Republican State Executive Committee, a Convention is called in the city of Raleigh, on Wednesday, March 1st, 1916, at noon.

The basis of the representation of each county shall be the vote of our candidate for governor in 1908, giving one delegate for each one hundred votes or fractional part thereof.

The objects of this Convention shall be to set in motion the great campaign of 1916, to-wit: The changing and bringing the Plan of Organization into conformity with the new legalized Primary Law; the selection of a State Committee and its officials; the defining of the issues to be presented to the voters in a Platform of Principles; the selection of delegates to the National Convention in accordance with the duly adopted Plan of Organization; a plan to make more compact and efficient all committees, including State, District, County and Precinct; such other business as the Convention in its wisdom may deem advisable.

The Chairman of each county is requested to give due and proper notice for a County Convention to select delegates to the State and District Conventions, and to attend to other matters in accordance with their custom and the Plan of Organization.

Unusual times and unusual conditions call for unusual plans and means of bringing about universally desired results; to this end the method so long in vogue in many counties of making all interested and patriotic voters duly accredited delegates, is most highly recommended.

In conclusion, let the invitation be extended to and accepted by all, who intend to support the Republican ticket, to attend this Convention rally and lend their advice and aid in redeeming our Nation and State.

FRANK A. LINNEY, Chairman.

The Best Recommendation.

The strongest recommendation any article may receive is a favorable word from the user. It is the recommendations of those who have used it that make Chamberlain's Cough Remedy so popular. WEDNESDAY, FEB. 28, 1916

Good old groundhog—those who once cursed you will heap blessings upon your head if you will continue to dish out such weather as we have enjoyed for the past six weeks.

The Republican State Convention meets in Raleigh next Wednesday, March 1st. The railroads are offering reduced rates for the occasion.

Our friends are hard to please, it seems. One day a subscriber will come in and threaten to stop his paper if we don't cut out so much politics.

The Record was issued last and this week under trying difficulties. The editor has been contending with a near case of grippe, and one of his little sons has been very ill with pneumonia, and is still very sick.

The twenty-fifth anniversary edition of the Columbia State, South Carolina's greatest daily, is before us. The special edition consists of 38 pages of well written history, together with much attractive advertising.

If Governor Craig must commute the death sentence of one of the Muddy Creek murderers it should be Christy, for he is not as guilty as Ida Ball Warren.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, on the 25th day of January 1916, God in His allwise providence has seen fit to remove from earthly labor our beloved President, Hon. Thos. B. Bailey, therefore be it resolved.

First. That we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well.
Second. That in His death the Bank of Davie has lost a wise counsellor, a valued officer and staunch friend; the state and county a useful citizen, the church a consecrated elder and earnest worker; the bar an able and clever jurist; and the community a splendid citizen.

The Christy-Warren Case.

Editor Record:—It looks now like the case of Mrs. Warren and Christy was going to be a case of life imprisonment. If Mr. Craig, the Governor, gives these people a life sentence in the penitentiary, in the name of high heaven take the penalty of death from the statute books of our old North State.

Two Steamships Destroyed by Fire.

New York, Feb. 16.—The steamships Bolton Castle and Pacific and a 900 foot pier belonging to the New York Dock Company, at the foot of Pioneer street, Brooklyn, were destroyed early today by the most disastrous fire on the water front in years.

One Killed, Two Injured.

Toronto, Ont., Feb. 16.—One man was killed and two others were injured in a fire which early today wrecked the six story structure which was the home of the American club. The damage was estimated at $300,000.

Respite Granted Murderers.

Raleigh, Feb. 16.—Mrs. Ida Ball Warren and Samuel P. Christy, under sentence of death for the murder of G. J. Warren in Winston-Salem in 1914, were granted a respite of four weeks today by Governor Craig at the request of their attorneys in order to prepare a petition for commutation of sentence.

Guy Hartman Possibly Killed.

El Paso, Texas, Feb. 16.—Guy Johnson, an American who was reported to have killed five bandits before himself was slain December 26 last, near Tejolocachi, Chihuahua, is believed to have been Guy Hartman, a North Carolina distiller, sought by the American Government in connection with revenue frauds, according to information disclosed here today.

Loss About Two Million.

Fall River, Mass., Feb. 16.—Estimates made by owners of property and proprietors of stores in the section of the business district swept by fire early today indicated the loss would be about two million dollars.

Turkish Forts Captured.

While France and Flanders are the fields of military activity that now command chief attention, the operations of the Russians in the Caucasus are developing notable points of interest. The news comes with the announcement of the capture of nine of the forts of the Turkish stronghold of Erzerum.

Addresses State Convention.

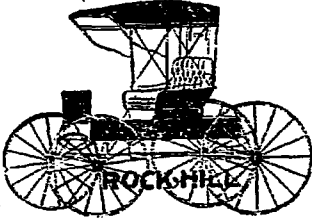

New York, Feb. 16.—The United States faces one of the most critical periods in its history, and the destiny of the Republic for a century to come may well be determined by the conduct of the government and the sentiment of the people as exercised and expressed during the next four years, United States Senator James W. Wadsworth, Jr., of New York, told the New York State Republican Convention here today.

Enoch Cope, an aged citizen of Fulton township, died Saturday and was buried Sunday.

Miss Bessie Fowler, of Statesville, spent last week in this city with her sister, Mrs. G. G. Daniel.

Frank Williams, who is looking after his father's veneering plant at Rutherfordton, spent Saturday and Sunday here with his parents.

A heavy earthquake shock was felt in Mocksville Monday evening at 6:55 o'clock. Buildings were shaken right much.

Two of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Poplin's little children, in North Mocksville, are very ill, one with pneumonia and the other with bronchitis.

The friends of J. A. Cheshire, of R. 2, will be sorry to learn that he is quite ill with pneumonia. He is believed to be slightly improved.

Every farmer, lawyer, doctor, merchant and everybody else is invited to take dinner at the Community Building next Monday. A delicious dinner awaits you.

The Davie county Republican convention will meet at the court house Saturday. Every Republican in the county is invited to attend. The precinct primaries will be held on Friday, Feb. 25th.

Do not fail to patronize the dinner served in the auditorium of the Community Building Monday of court week. The entire proceeds will go toward the furnishings and support of Rest Room.

A large cake will be given away to the luckiest person dining at the Community Building next Monday. There are no charges for tickets for this. The ladies merely wish to show their appreciation for your patronage and presence.

Rev. Walter Dodd, of Raleigh, has accepted the pastorate of the Baptist church in this city, and will move his family here the latter part of the week. The Record is glad to welcome Rev. Dodd and family to our little city.

Attorney Joseph Murphy, of Hickory, was in town Monday looking around with a view of locating here. The Record would be glad to welcome Joe to our town, as he is a fine young man. We hope he will decide to locate here.

The dwelling house of R. M. James on Salisbury street, caught fire from a spark out of the chimney last Tuesday afternoon, and the roof and gable were badly damaged before the flames were extinguished. Had the fire not been discovered so early the house would have been destroyed. About two hundred persons went to the scene of the fire and worked hard to save the building. Mocksville needs a water system.

Notice to the Taxpayers of Davie County.

I want to thank one and all that heard my call in time of need and responded by paying their taxes. And to all that failed to meet me, you have one more chance to help me meet the demands of the State, and that is to come to court Feb. 28th, and settle, and help save me one thousand dollars. I have never pressed the taxpayer when he showed a willingness to pay, but it is taken out of my hands now. So please pay and save cost.
Respectfully yours,
J. H. SPRINKLE, Sheriff.

Rowan Convicts Escape.

Salisbury, Feb. 17.—Lowe Daniels, noted Randolph murderer, is said to have been one of the eight State convicts who escaped last night in this vicinity while 31 were being transferred in a special car to the western part of the State. A guard left his duties while the train was at the Salisbury depot, it is reported.

Marriage at Harmony.

Statesville, Feb. 16.—Miss Virtie Heath and Mr. Ray Hess, of Statesville, were married today at the home of the bride's father, Mr. J. L. Heath, at Harmony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. J. S. Walker, of near Mocksville. The groom is a son of Mrs. Dora Moore of the Harmony community. The bride and groom will make their home here.

The Rest Room.

The rest room will open its doors to the citizens of Davie county on Monday of next week. Every one invited. Whether or not the ladies will be able to keep this permanently open depends entirely on the cooperation and support of those in the county who are interested. The town has been literally shelled for contributions for the repairs, and it has responded generously. We can not ask more of the residents and we are looking to our friends in the county for immediate aid.

Body Probably McNeely's.

Washington, Feb. 16.—The body of American Consul McNeely, of Monroe, N. C., lost on the Persia, is believed to have been washed ashore near Alexandria, according to a cablegram to the State Department.

Notice of Republican Convention.

A convention of the Republican voters of Davie county is hereby called to meet in the court house in the town of Mocksville, N. C., on Saturday, the 26th day of February, 1916, at noon, for the purpose of selecting delegates and alternates to the State Republican Convention which will be held at the various voting precincts throughout the county on Friday, the 25th day of February, 1916, between the hours of 12 o'clock, m., and 3 p. m. All Republican voters in good standing are urged to be present and attend said primaries and said County Convention. This 7th day of Feb. 1916.

HOW MUCH LIFE INSURANCE SHOULD YOU CARRY?

You say you "already carry all you can pay for"—you "don't want to cramp yourself"—you "don't want to keep yourself poor paying premiums."

Really, you are covering only a part of the ground. It isn't simply a question of how much you can live on or how much you can lay by each year. There is the more important question of how much your family could live upon if you, the bread-winner, were suddenly taken away. They will get along all right while you live. They would manage to subsist somehow, even if your income were cut in two. Would they have as much as that if you were taken away? Would they have anything at all?

Here is the question for every true man to consider: "How much must my wife and children have to enable them to live in simple comfort when I am no longer here to provide for them? Have I taken the necessary steps to secure them as much as that?"

SAFETY FIRST

Don't kid about safety; you may be the goat.

"It doesn't cost anything to be courteous" is an old saying. But it does not pay to shake hands with danger, just to show you are a good sport.

While busy making yourself safe, take a little time to make your fellow workman safe, too.

Look before you leap, "Safety First." Don't get hurt first and then try safety. Try "Safety First" and you won't get hurt.

It is easier to try "Safety First" than to try to walk with crutches.

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Let us prevent accidents and avoid the necessity of compensation for them.

So long as our eyes are the windows of our souls we may all look out for ourselves. By the use of goggles we can save risk of not being able to do this.

Every man is the sole proprietor of his own shoes. But he wants to keep on the good side of safety to be able to wear a pair.

The man who will not listen to safety rules, may have to listen to the sound of the ambulance gong.

A bed at home is worth two in a hospital.

Employees must not trust to the care exercised by another when their own safety is involved.

DANGEROUS STOVE POLISH

In a special bulletin on "Benzine Stove Polish," the fire marshal of Wisconsin says that many benzine stove polishes are manufactured of practically the same ingredients, the only difference being in the name, and that all the polishes are equally hazardous. In the past eight years there have been more than 400 serious accidents in the United States on account of the use of the benzine stove polish compound.

Benzine polish is usually found on the shelves of the grocery stores which have as their customers the poorer class of people. This would appear to be due to the fact that the over-busy housewife, having in most cases no domestic help, is constrained by force of circumstances to economize on time in every possible way. The benzine causes the polish to dry quickly, and this fact, of course, entailing less work, recommends it to this class of householders.

We would caution all householders to use only fire-proof stove polish, whether in liquid, powder or paste form. All stove polishes other than benzine polish can be safely used, and just as satisfactory results can be obtained, especially if a few additional minutes are given to this duty. And is it not worth our while to devote a little attention to this matter and thereby save this enormous sacrifice of human life? In short, is it not good to preach that it is better to be safe than sorry?—Hartford Agent.

Agent Must Inspect Property—Policy Now Stamped.

There shall be printed, stamped, or written on each fire policy issued in this State the basis rate, deficiency charge, the credit for improvements, and the rate at which written, and whenever a rate is made or changed on any property situated in this State, a full statement thereof, showing in detail the basis rate, deficiency charges and credits, as well as rate proposed to be made, shall be delivered to the owner or his representative having the insurance on the property in charge, by the company, association, their agent or representative, with a notice to the effect that said rate is promulgated and filed with the Insurance Department. Every agent of a fire insurance company shall, before issuing a policy of insurance on property situated in a city or town, inspect the same, informing himself as to its value and insurable condition.—Laws 1915, c. 109, s. 3.

A HINT TO THE FARMER

Do not neglect to plough a fire guard around your buildings and see that it is kept free from weeds and grasses. By using this precaution you may save a preventable loss.

Allow no one to smoke around your buildings.

Do you not know that the fire waste throughout the country has reached a proportion that the people should unite and give some attention to fire prevention and thus lessen the loss? Cleanliness and reduction of the fire waste will bring results; won't you try and help and also get your neighbors interested.

WHO PAYS THE COST?

Knowledge in fire prevention means the saving of life and property. Don't it appeal to you? If not, there must be something lacking. What is it? You can do your part, no matter how little that makes. It keeps and means encouragement to others and helps reduce the fire waste, which means a saving to the individual. You are taxed to pay the fire losses of others. You may think you are not, but as a matter of fact you are, and you can readily learn this truth if you will study the fire loss in your own locality.—Mutual Insurance Journal.

SENATOR HENRY CABOT LODGE
Of Massachusetts.

Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, who is one of the country's great authorities on foreign affairs, began his service in Congress twenty-seven years ago. He has recently issued a strong endorsement of the candidacy of his colleague, Senator John W. Weeks, of Massachusetts, for the Presidency. He said, in part:

"As to presidential candidates, Massachusetts will be for Senator Weeks. Personally, I shall do all in my power for him. I have the highest regard for him, as well as the greatest confidence in his ability, his character, and his strength of purpose, which is accompanied by sanity of judgment and thorough good sense."

DON'TS

1. Overvalue your property when placing insurance.
2. Start fires in stoves, furnaces or fireplaces unless you are sure the flues and chimneys are clean.
3. Allow a stovepipe to come in contact with wood. Use cement, tin or galvanized iron where the pipe goes through.
4. Leave your home with a lamp burning or turned down low.
5. Wash clothing or other articles in gasoline, benzine or naphtha, nor allow it kept in your house.
6. Throw water on flames caused by burning gasoline, benzine, naphtha or coal oil, as it spreads the flames. Smother it with a rug or covering of some kind.
7. Use any but the safety match; and others are dangerous.
8. Permit children to play with matches or start bonfires.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION SPREADING.

Workmen's compensation legislation will necessarily lead to an increase in the reported number of accidents, particularly those of less serious character, involving a comparatively short incapacity for work; but it may also be expected to bring about notable reductions in the actual number of accidents by causing the installation of accident-prevention appliances.

An important section of the bulletin is devoted to the progress of reporting and classifying accidents, initiating for the purpose of securing uniformity of practice in the reports of the various states.

More than half the states have adopted workmen's compensation laws and it may be expected that before very many more years the idea of compensation for industrial accidents will become universal throughout the United States.

SAFETY BY CO-OPERATION

Well said: "We must have co-operation in the great work of safety. Not only is this true of the men in the organizations that are giving the best that are in them to the work at hand, but the same spirit should be manifested by the safety departments of the various plants and railroads. 'Safety First' is something that we should not permit to be commercialized. Anything that stands for the conservation of human lives, limbs and happiness is too sacred to be dragged in the dust of contempt and ridicule or made sport of commercialized bargains."

TYPEWRITER REPAIR STATION

A great deal of the work done in these stations is cleaning typewriters, and a common method for doing this is to immerse the machine into a tub or vat of gasoline and wash or brush out the parts. This should never be allowed inside of a building, but should be done on the outside or in a room separate from any other and well ventilated.

"THINK FIRE" BEFORE IT HAPPENS

- DON'T allow children to play with matches.
- DON'T block the fire escapes; you may need them yourself tonight.
- DON'T leave everything to the landlord; inspect your own house from cellar to garret and locate all exits.
- DON'T throw away lighted matches, cigars, or cigarettes.
- DON'T go into dark closets, bed rooms, or cellars, using matches or candles to light your way.
- DON'T use insecticides in the vicinity of open flame lights. Many such compounds contain volatile inflammable oils.
- DON'T use kerosene, benzine, or naphtha in lighting fires, or to quicken a slow fire—it may result in death.
- DON'T use gasoline or benzine to clean clothing near an open flame, light or fire.
- DON'T use alcohol lamps; especially if made of glass; they often break and the fluid is ignited at once.
- DON'T fill any lamp with gasoline, kerosene or other oils while the lamp is lighted. Keep the burners of all oil lamps thoroughly clean.
- DON'T fill kerosene lamps after dark or within 15 feet of the lights or fire.
- DON'T put ashes in wooden boxes or barrels. Keep ashes away from boards. Don't place them on dumb waiters or in closets. Hot ashes will take fire by themselves as they frequently have small bits of coal mixed in with them.
- DON'T use oils with a low flash point.
- DON'T accumulate rubbish in premises, cellars or workshops, and don't deposit such material on dumb waiters unless it is to be removed at once; while awaiting removal, keep such material in covered metal-lined receptacles.

Thirty-one buildings at Youngstown, Ohio, were consumed recently by the attack of the Fire Marshal's office, co-operating with the city officials and residents in the annual spring clean-up of the city. It is expected fifty more buildings will be ordered torn down in a few days.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Patron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.
