DEATH OF W. F. BAILEY.
Prominent Citizen Passes at His Home On East Broad Street — Had Been Ill Some Time.
Mr. William Franklin Bailey, a well-known citizen of Statesville, died early Saturday morning at his home on east Broad street. Mr. Bailey had been ill for several months with a stomach trouble. His condition suddenly became worse Friday evening, death resulting Saturday morning.

The deceased was 68 years old last May. He is survived by his wife and the following named children: Mrs. Joe Taylor, Mrs. D. O. Cowan and Mr. Clyde Bailey, of Statesville; Mr. P. S. Bailey, of Winston-Salem; Mr. J. Frank Bailey, of Columbus, S. C.; Mrs. S. O. Buchanan, of Roanoke, Va., and Mrs. C. S. Lanham, of Alexandria, Va. Mrs. Buchanan had been with her father several weeks, but unaware that Mr. Bailey was about to take a turn for the worse, she left Friday for her home. Mrs. Lanham was here when her father died. Mr. M. D. Bailey, of Winston-Salem, is a surviving brother.

Mr. Bailey was born in Davie county but had made his home in Statesville for many years. He had business interests in Winston-Salem, being in the tobacco business with his brother there. Mr. Bailey married Miss Bettie Barkley, of Iredell. He was always a substantial citizen and a man well liked in his community.

The funeral services were conducted yesterday afternoon at 2:30 from the family residence by Rev. L. D. Thompson, Rev. J. H. Pressly and Rev. W. T. Walker. Burial took place at Oakwood. Pall-bearers were Messrs. Clarence Steele, J. L. Milhoand, C. L. Murdock, R. E. Sloan, Dr. M. R. Adams and Dr. T. E. Anderson.

In Statesville to attend the funeral were the following: Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Lanham, of Alexandria, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Buchanan, of Roanoke.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Bailey, of Columbus, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Bailey, Mr. M. D. Bailey, Mrs. P. N. Bailey and Mrs. J. K. Bailey, of Winston-Salem; Mr. Maurice Bailey, of Troy, Ala., and Mr. and Mrs. George Hawn and children of Mooresville.

Source Of Deceased Date: Ancestry.com
ELIZABETH TEMPLE CRAVER 1826 - 2925

Felix Miller b. 12 Oct 1824 (d. 29 May 1864) Gordonville VA CSA
m. 30 Jun 1844

Elizabeth 'Betsy' TEMPLE/CRAVER Lanier b. 14 Mar 1826 Davidson Co NC
d. 03 Feb 1925 Davidson Co NC

Residence: Yadkin College Township Davidson County NC
Bur: Felix: Gordonville VA; Elizabeth: Friendship Meth Ch Cem;

Felix's parents:
Nicholas Miller
Elizabeth LIVENGOOD Miller

Elizabeth's parents:
Sarah TEMPLE
Graver

Felix & Elizabeth's ch: nine

1. Levi Franklin Miller b. 10 Nov 1845 (d. 06 Jan 1904)
m. 1867

Phoebe Elizabeth WILSON b. 01 Jul 1850 (d. 02 Jun 1920)
Res: Friendship Church Community Davidson County NC
Bur: Friendship Meth Ch Cem

2. Crissy Jane Miller b. 28 Dec 1848 (d. 14 Mar 1931)
m. 18 Jan 1877 (6 ch)
David King Cecil b. 20 Feb 1851 d. 12 Jan 1923
Res: Lex. NC
Bur: Lex. City Cem

3. Isaiah 'Boat' Miller b. 20 Jan 1850 (d. 21 Nov 1934)
m. 16 Mar 1880
Eliza Jane JAMES b. 25 Dec 1848 (d. 28 Dec 1910)
Res: Hwy 150 Reedy Creek Community Davidson County NC
Bur: Friendship Meth Ch Cem

4. Sarah Ann Miller b. 22 May 1853 (d. 22 Jul 1896)
m. 23 Jul 1874 Davidson Co NC Yadkin College Township (nine ch)
David Washington Shuler b. 28 Aug 1850 (d. 17 Jan 1933)
Res: Davidson Co NC; Davie Co NC;
Bur: Concord Meth Ch Cem Davie Co NC

5. Ellen Frances Miller b. 20 Oct 1855 (d. 10 Apr 1931)
m. 18 Nov 1879 Davidson Co NC
James Rankin Caudle b. 22 Jan 1858 (d. 07 May 1930)
Res: Greensboro NC
Bur: Greenhill Cem Greensboro NC

6. Delilah Miller b. 1858 (d. 03 May 1891)
Bur:
Biography: Parks, James.

James Parks died 1916

V. L. Parks and of County Home
1920

Rescue Parks was of Feb. 1964.
(Part of Martin's Tree)

Bessie Parks was
Mar. F. Brice
9-26-1923

Certificate of 7-21-1958
33 in Donation to

Effie May Wells
Nursing of 1963

Doris Collett Wells
McDonell
l-1927 in Darien Co.

Dorothy Daniel Shephard
Shepard, Shorty, and Pianin &

James Parks died 1916

See Davis Record Page
1916

Survived by wife and one daughter.
J. F. Harkey, a well-known citizen of Clarksville township, died Saturday at an advanced age, and was laid to rest at Bear Creek Baptist church Sunday afternoon. Mr. Harkey is survived by several sons and daughters, among them being Mrs. Robert Wilson, of this city.
Rich Davidson, Esquire, Dies at Tyro, Aged 80.

Lexington, Jan. 27. - Esquire H. D. Hartley, one of the most prominent and wealthiest citizens of Davidson County, died at his home at Tyro at the age of 80 years.

He was one of the largest landowners in the state and prominent in political and business circles for the past half century.

At the time of his death he owned three or four thousand acres of land in Davidson, Davie, and Rowan counties. He was at one time tax collector, several times county commissioner, was in the legislature in 1901, was justice of the peace for thirty years and steward in the Methodist church 35 years. He is survived by a widow and 11 children.

2-4-1920

DAVIE CO. PUBLIC LIBRARY
MOCKSVILLE, NC
Famous Woman Midget Dies At Salisbury.

Salisbury, March 7 — Mrs. Maria Mertz, 69 years old, once famous midget, died at her home here today after a brief illness. She was a native of Mocksville, Davie county, was 36 inches tall and weighed 46 pounds. She was the wife of Major John Mertz, also a midget, and climbing to be the smallest Python and Dockie in the country. For years her and her husband were big attractions with several circuses. She had traveled all over the world with her husband.

It was during the travel that the tiny couple met and were married. For many years they had lived in Salisbury. She was a daughter of the late Alex Neil and was the only midget of a large family of children.

Mrs. Mertz had many relatives and friends in Davie county, who will be saddened by the announcement of her death. 3-16-1922.
John: The 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Allen, of Farmington township, died Sunday fol-

Rich Davidson’s Squire Dies at Tyro, Aged 80.

- Lexington, Jan. 27.—Esquire H. H. Hartley, one of the most prominent and wealthiest citizens of Dav-

Miss Ruth Miller Dead.

- The Record is sorry to chronicle the death of Miss Ruth Miller, youngest daughter of Mrs. William

Nelson Hendrix, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hendrix, of Farmington township, died last

William Miss Ruth

- Davie County Public Library

Mocksville, NC
Lieut. Jacob Stewart Buried.

The body of Lieut. Jacob Stewart, of Mocksville, who died at Camp Grant, Illinois, on Monday, Jan. 26th, arrived here Sunday afternoon and was laid to rest in Rose cemetery Monday afternoon in the presence of a large concourse of friends and relatives, Rev. L. M. Holloway, of the Baptist church, conducting the funeral and burial services. Mr. Stewart was about 22 years of age, and was a member of the Mocksville Baptist church. He entered the U. S. Army during the war and rose rapidly, being promoted to First Lieutenant. Lieut. Stewart was taken ill with pneumonia about two weeks ago, and his parents were notified of the fact and left immediately for his bedside, but he died before they reached him. Deceased leaves his parents, six sisters and two brothers and many relatives and friends to mourn his untimely death. The body was laid to rest with Masonic honors.

Mrs. Alex Tackett. of Clare-ville township, died Sunday of paralytic stroke, at an advanced age. The body was laid to rest at Chestnut Grove cemetery.

Mrs. J. T. Trottling. of near Connersville, died Dec. 27th of paralytic stroke, about 58 years. The body was laid to rest at Ephesus on Dec. 28th. Deceased is survived by her daughter.

Miss Edith Wellman. of L... died last Tuesday. following illness with tuberculosis, aged 49 years. The funeral and burial services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. D. C. Ballard, on Wednesday, and the body laid to rest in Oak Grove churchyard. Several brothers and sister survive.

Mrs. John Stonestreet of near Cana, died early last Tuesday morning after a long illness of asthma and heart trouble, aged 58 years. The funeral and burial services were held Wednesday afternoon at Union Chapel, her pastor, Rev. C. J. Edwards, conducting the services. Mrs. Stonestreet is survived by her husband and several sons and daughters.
Ray Langston Drowned.

Ray L. Langston, twenty-two, a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Langston of Winston-Salem, was drowned at Cooleemee Junction Friday morning at 7:30 o'clock. The deceased was employed as a flagman on the Southern railway and while standing on the railway bridge at Cooleemee Junction was knocked off the bridge by some shifting cars and was drowned.

Daniel A. Lyttly, aged 74 years, died suddenly on Tuesday noon, Nov. 16, of heart trouble. Mr. Lyttly died at his home near Woodleaf and apparently was in his usual good health.

Mr. Reece McClamroeh, an aged citizen of the county, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Angell, on R. 2, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The body was laid to rest at Eato's Baptist church Friday morning at eleven o'clock. Mr. McClamroeh is survived by his wife and one daughter. Peace to his ashes.

George W. McDaniel, of near Smith Grove, died last Monday night of cancer, aged 82 years. The funeral and burial took place Wednesday at Smith Grove. Rev. C. J. Edwards conducting the services. Mr. McDaniel is survived by his wife and eight children. He was born in Davie county and a Confederate soldier, having served his country for three years in the Southern army.

Mrs. Marion Markland, of the Bend section of Davie county, died Wednesday, of paralysis, at an advanced age. The body was laid to rest in Yadkin Valley churchyard Friday morning. Mrs. Markland is survived by her husband, one son and three daughters. 11-12-1920

Mrs. C. S. Massey died at her home in this city Friday afternoon, following an illness of about three weeks with influenza-pneumonia. She was aged about 55 years. The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock by her pastor, Rev. C. J. Edwards, assisted by Revs. Holloway and Penny, and the body laid to rest at Bethel church. Deceased leaves a husband and three children. Mr. Massey and one child have been ill with influenza for some time, but have about recovered.

Mrs. Miller Dies at Cooleemee.

Mrs. Ritee Miller died at her home in Cooleemee Monday afternoon of pneumonia. She is survived by several sons and daughters. The body will be laid to rest at Liberty Methodist church this morning at 11 o'clock.

Charlie O'Neal, who is in a hospital at Statesville, has taken a setback and is not able to return home. Mr. O'Neal died Thursday and the body was brought home Friday and laid to rest at Chestnut Grove. Deceased was 73 years of age, and is survived by his wife and two small children.

Mr. Newberry Potts, of Fulton, died on July 10th, at the advanced age of 75 years, and was buried at Forks on the 20th. Mr. Potts joined Forks Baptist church about one year ago, and fell asleep, leaning on an unseen arm for support. The funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. H. T. Penny.

Mr. Fletcher Redmon was called to Farmington for the last illness and death of his mother, Mrs. Rachel Redmon. Our village has suffered the loss of an excellent woman in the death of Mrs. Rachel Redmon, which occurred at her home with her son Mr. Tom Redmon last Wednesday morning. Burial at Pinto, Rev. Vestal conducted the services. Mrs. Redmon had been almost a constant sufferer for years, yet her great worth to her friends and loved ones was expressed in her constant cheerful disposition, her sunny smile and words of pleasant encouragement. Our loss is Heaven's gain and her eternal joy.

Mr. Pleasant Pry died Tuesday morning after several months illness and was buried at Advance. To the bereaved ones we extend sympathy.

Mr. Newberry Potts of Fulton, died July 10th of pneumonia. He was born in Fulton, and was married to Mrs. Elizabeth, her husband being deceased.

David W. McDaniel, of near Smith Grove, died last Monday night of cancer, aged 82 years. The funeral and burial took place Wednesday at Smith Grove, Rev. C. J. Edwards conducting the services. Mr. McDaniel is survived by his wife and eight children. He was born in Davie county and a Confederate soldier, having served his country for three years in the Southern army.

Joe Different, of near Smith Grove, died last Thursday night of cancer, aged 75 years. The funeral and burial took place Saturday morning at ten o'clock at Macedonia church. Peace to his ashes.
The many relatives of Mrs. Elizabeth Foster were saddened to learn early Wednesday morning of her death. Although she had lived to a ripe old age, it came as a shock, for she was as well as usual on Tuesday, but was struck with paralysis while in bed. She was a member of Fork Baptist church for about 63 years, and was a faithful Christian woman, neighbor and friend. She is survived by one daughter at home, Miss Rosa, and one son, J. E. Jr., who resides two miles from Fork, also four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Her husband J. E. Sr., died with measles during service in the Civil War in 1863...

F. J. F. Harkany, a well-known citizen of Clarksdale town, died Saturday at an advanced age, and was laid to rest at Bear Creek Baptist church Sunday afternoon. Mr. Harkany is survived by several sons and daughters, among them being Mrs. Robert Wilson, of this city.

F. Samuel Hunter, an aged cousin of Cana, died at the Twin-City Hotel Thursday, following a stroke of apoplexy. The body was laid to rest at Elsberry's Baptist church Sunday.

Amanda Victoria Austin, of Joppa Monday. Deceased at 69 years. The body was laid to rest at Elsberry's Baptist church.

W. T. Godby died at his home on R 2 early morning, aged about 45 years. The funeral and burial services were held Monday and the interment was held Thursday evening at Union Chapel.

Mrs. L. M. Hartman, of Advance, died at hospital.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hartman, wife of L. M. Hartman, of Advance, Davie county, died Monday evening at 4 o'clock at Lawrence hospital, having been brought to the hospital yesterday morning after a desperate illness lasting about two weeks. The deceased was 26 years old, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Vogler, and is survived by Mr. Hartman and four children.

Mrs. L. M. Hartman was a member of Shady Grove Methodist church, Advance, Davie county, from which place the funeral was conducted Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The interment followed in the church graveyard.

Mrs. Agnes Hege died at her home near Fulton, on July 16th, aged 76 years. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. H. T. Henry on July 17th.

John Gaither died last Friday at his home near Majolica, aged 58 years. The body was laid to rest at Salem Lutheran church Saturday. Mr. Gaither was a member of Davie county and a brother of Medesman A. M. Stroud, C. M. Godbey and Wesley Carter of this county.

Elaville Items.

Mrs. Agnes Hege aged seventy, died Thursday the fifteenth, and was laid to rest Friday at Fulton M. E. cemetery. Mrs. Hege is survived by her husband her five children, one son Mr. Bud Hege and three daughters Mrs. Geo. Crotta, Mrs. Dick Stewart of Fork, and Mrs. Shamar Myers.

A Good Man Gone.

Mr. M. F. Hendrix, of Clarksdale township, died early Sunday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Elmore Davis, at the advanced age of 82 years. Mr. Hendrix had been in bad health for several years. The funeral and burial services were held Monday and the body laid to rest in the family burial ground. Deceased was a Confederate soldier and leaves three sons and three daughters besides many relatives and friends. A good man has been called to his reward: 11.-4-71.

Mrs. Camilla Jarvis died Friday morning about 8:30, and was buried Saturday afternoon at Fork cemetery. She is survived by two sons, Charles, of Ninety-Six, S. C., W. H. whom she resided with, also two daughters survive.

Mrs. Ida Jones, of R 2, died Sunday after a long illness, aged about 69 years. The body was laid to rest at Joppa Monday. Deceased is a sister of Mrs. Amanda Austin of this city.
C. G. Bailey, Dead.

C. G. Bailey, a prominent citizen of Advance, died last Tuesday morning after an advanced age, following a long illness. The funeral and burial services were held at the Advance Methodist church Thursday, and the body laid to rest in Shady Grove Cemetery. Mr. Bailey was for many years active in politics and served several terms as chairman of the Board of Commissioners. He leaves many relatives and friends to mourn his death. He was a member of the Methodist church and gave liberally to the religious work. He leaves substantial estate valued at many thousands of dollars.

Mrs. Daniel Cook, of Farmington, one of Davie county's best known citizens, died Saturday afternoon after a long illness. Mr. Cook was a native of Davie county, and leaves five sons and one daughter. The funeral and burial services were conducted by Rev. J. P. Yancey, assisted by Rev. W. W. Woodell, pastor of the church. Mr. Cook was a member of the Methodist church and gave liberally to the religious work. He leaves substantial estate valued at many thousands of dollars.

R. A. Dwiggins, of R. I., died Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, following a stroke of paralysis, aged about 70 years. The funeral and burial services were held at Center Sunday morning. Mr. Dwiggins has been in bad health for the past eight years. He is survived by his wife, two sons, two brothers and one sister.

Mr. John W. Edwards, a well-known merchant of North Carolina, died suddenly last Tuesday night. He was in his 67th year. The funeral and burial services were held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence of his brother, Mrs. J. P. Edwards, of Statesville, Rev. J. B. Fitzgerald conducting the services. Mr. Edwards is survived by his wife, two sons, two daughters and one sister.

Mr. Thomas Maxwell Brock, of Farmington, one of Davie county's best known citizens, died Saturday morning after a long illness. Mr. Brock was a native of Davie county, and leaves five sons and one daughter. The funeral and burial services were conducted by Rev. J. P. Yancey, assisted by Rev. W. W. Woodell, pastor of the church. Mr. Cook was a member of the Methodist church and gave liberally to the religious work. He leaves substantial estate valued at many thousands of dollars.

Mr. P. S. Early, for many years a citizen of Davie county, but for the past fourteen years a citizen of Winston-Salem, died at his home in that city on July 22nd at an advanced age. The funeral and burial services were held in Winston-Salem at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning by the Rev. J. B. Westphal, pastor of the First Baptist church, and the body was brought to Mocksville and laid to rest in Rose cemetery. Mr. Early is survived by his wife, two sons, two daughters and four sons, and several brothers and sisters. Mr. Early is survived by many relatives and friends in this section of the state who were saddened by his death. Peace to his ashes.

Mrs. Daniel Cook, of Farmington, died Tuesday and was buried at Macedonia church Wednesday. A husband and several children survive.

Harry S. Carter Dies at Local Hospital.

Harry S. Carter died last night at 7 o'clock at the Lawrence Hospital, after a illness of several days with pneumonia. His age was 18 years.

Mr. Carter came to this city a few months ago from Davie county, and was employed in the shipbuilding department of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company.

The remains were taken to Forsyth Church, Davie county, this morning, where the funeral and interment occurred. — Winston Sentinel, 3-24-13.

Michael Click died at the home of his aged parents at Woodale on Dec. 24th, aged about 70 years. The body was laid to rest at Woodale. Decedent was a native of Davie county, and leaves five sons and one daughter viz: J. T. Godfrey, and William, of Davie; Dewitt and Charles Rowan, and Mrs. J. P. Burton, of Hickory, R. S.

John E. Collette, of Cana, died Sunday morning after a long illness, aged about 70 years. The burial took place at Eaton's church Sunday afternoon. Mr. Collette is survived by his wife, one son and one daughter, besides a host of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Daniel Cook, of Farmington, died Tuesday and was buried at Macedonia church Wednesday. A husband and several children survive.

Davie Co. Public Library
Mocksville, N.C.