Dear Brother and Sister:

I take this opportunity of informing you that I am well hoping these few lines may find you both enjoying the same state of health. Mr. Wilson has gone to Kentucky. He has been gone four weeks. I look for him every hour. I do not think you would hardly know me if you were to see me at this time. I have grown so remarkably fat since I have been in this country. Abraham and Jincey are hearty and desired to be remembered to you. Mr. Wilson is building a very fine house. We expect to move in it this winter. We have everything comfortable and enjoy good health. Give my love to all relations and enquiring friends. Our friends that are here are enjoying very good health. I wish you to write to me as soon as possible. You can write and I cannot. I expect Mr. Wilson will fetch his Mother with him. We have had a very dry season here indeed. I remain your loving sister,

Esteemed and much respected Brothers and Sisters:

I now embrace this method of writing to you to inform you of some of the most particular circumstances that hath occurred since I saw you and I can with pleasure inform you that I and my family are in a reasonable good health state of health at present, and can also inform you that we have another son which is ten days old; and may inform you that I raised but a light crop of corn but a reasonable good crop of wheat this last summer which I am in hopes will be sufficient for support and a little to spare. I have got nearly out of debt since I saw you. I have sold my grey horse for Sixty five dollars cash, and bought me a colt at twenty Dollars and a good shot gun at sixteen dollars, a loose coat at sixteen, which is all paid for and I expect by March that Ten Dollars will pay me out of debt. I have got eight herd of cattle, and eight of sheep, twelve head of hogs and have sold ten this fall. We have three beds and feathers enough nearly for another, and now let me tell you that I want to see you all very much and if Thomas Ferebee or James Brunt will come next fall and fetch one of their girls I will go and carry her back the next season and if James Brunt will come I will help him move or anything that he needs to get back with.

I have a likely crop of wheat on the ground and a good chance for corn next summer. I heard from John Brunt today and they were all well; and don't let me look so often in the post office for paper and find none. So I conclude and remain your ever affectionate Brother,

I once more embrace the opportunity of writing to you to inform you that we are all ~~misery~~ in tolerable health at this time, though we have been somewhat afflicted this fall but now enjoying tolerable health, thanks be to God for his blessings and in hopes that these few lines may find you all enjoying the same like blessings.

On the 25th of September there came a severe biting frost and injured abundance of corn and on the sixth of October there fell considerable of snow, so that roofs of the houses was white. Since that we have had most beautiful weather. Wheat crops was much injured by the wilt, though my wheat stood it tolerably well and I raised thirty bushels of wheat and it is the first rate. I also raised a tolerable crop of corn. I got in four acres of new ground and it was fine prospect till the frost and that has injured corn out my bottom is first rate. I have some thirty bushels of wheat. I have seven fine hogs to sell and hogs to make my meat beside. Pork is two dollars and 75 cents per hundred gross, wheat is from seventy cents to $1.00 per bushel, flour $3.00 per hundred, corn is worth from twenty to twenty-five cents per bushel. Wright Smith has sold his and has entered on Pipe Creek and is about to move in the woods again.

COPY LETTER FROM SAMUEL FEREBEE TO HIS FATHER, THOMAS FEREBEE, Sen. Mocksville, N. C. Davie County. (Mr. Postmaster please forward this as soon as you can. July 18th, 1840." 25 Stamp. Postmarked Alexandria, Ia.

Madison County, Ia. July 17, 1840.

Dear Father:

I received your letter of June the 21 which I now proceed to answer. I was glad to hear that you were all well. I am as well as common. My friends are all well as common. Corn crops are all good and produce of all kinds are very plentiful. I would be glad to see you all.

I was sorry to hear that you was in favor of the Buckeye Log Cabin Hardcider Federal Candidate for the presidency. You gave some of your reasons for not voting for the present Chief Magistrate of the U. S. A. I will also give some of my reasons for not voting for Mr. Henry Harrison. I believe that he is a Federalist of the old school of the elder Adams and Hamilton, that he declared upon the floor of Congress that he entertained the most friendly feeling toward Adams' administration and that he had a strong sympathy for the leading measures. Because he approved in 1817 while Governor of Ia. Territory a law which was as lamentable as the alien and sedition laws of Adams. See Laws of Ind. printed at Vincennes 1807 pages 340 & 341, Section 4. I would insert the whole but I will not have room on this sheet but refer you to the laws of Ind. (Alien and Sedition) Because he wore a black COCCADE in honor of old Adams- because he voted to sell poor white people into slavery for the payments of fine and cost in 1820-21. Ohio State Journal, page 308-304 and 305 on the principal of master and slave that for offence they should receive 329 lashes- Negro like, and should work the amount out. He thought imprisonment was not punishment enough for poverty but Jail Slavery and Stripes- this the poor man's friend, because he approved such a law as the above in Indiana. When Governor of the Territory General W. H. Harrison approved another law while governor- it was equally obnoxious as the others, that is that the property qualification that a man must own 50 acres of land before he should be allowed to vote for a representative- this was done September the 17th, 1807- this is the poor mans friend. I think he is neither smarter nor wiser than he was in 1831. His neighbors could not have thought him very wise then because he was beaten for representative in Hamilton County Ohio. The return was as follows for D. T. Disney 2336 and Duncan 1825, J. Burgwoyne 1706, D. Hawes 1787, W. H. Harrison 1487. So it went and the others as all elected in 1820 he was a candidate for Governors Official returns as follows- E. A. Brown 24,836, S. Morrison 9,428 and the poor mans friend where he was known got 4,348, beaten upward of 20,000.

I am not a little surprised to hear you all opposed to the abolition of the Malgramation Peticoat General. There is no doubt of his being an abolitionist at the risk of consequences.

I think that every candidate should make known publicly his views to the people but he is under the guardianship of the community of three persons to keep things concealed, yet your letter calls him an able Statesman. Probably he is honest, but when he resigned his office the last word he said was that the people must do their own fighting. I think he managed bad in the late war because he let the enemy pick the battle ground at Texcanc and butcher his men while they were in their shirtails and he had 800 men.... 700 because at the river Thames, he was in the fort with 3000 men whilst Col. R. W. Johnson fought and whipped the enemy but care is the sword of safety and this is the soldier's friend. Because he did not send poor Dudley relief when I think it was in his power.

Because he took Col. Croghans sword from him for defending Fort Stephens.

Because Gen. Lucas says the council held by the officers said that their commander should be clothed with mysticism and he is said to be a hero but I think it is a mistake and numerous other objections might be urged but unnecessary for I think this is objections enough. As you gave very few reasons for supporting Gen. Harrison, I shall give you but very few for voting for Mr. Van Buren. The first is because I think that he is a Republican of the right kind; because he airs his acts before the public; because he does not have a guardian to attend to him; because he is in favor of the treasury bill; because he is opposed to the U. S. Bank; because he has taken measures enough and by the treasury bill to put a stop to deflation in public offices which the Government has been subject to since independence was first adopted; because he is the poor mans friend; because he was nominated by Gen. Jackson. I have the Treasury Bill now before me. I have a great amount of all expenditures of every kind from the treasury for sixteen years back and find I start in 1829 (figures omitted by copyist)

If I had room I would write you more on the subject. I have the chance of public papers from W. H. Brunt and I have had access to the Whig papers also. I wish you had an armful of these Democrat papers to read.

I sincerely wish you all had the Acts of Ohio and Ind. to examine so you could see and know how General Harrison has voted and approved laws. So no more, but remain our loving and affectionate son until death.

(Sd) Samuel Ferebee

P. S. Capt. George Moore was at Cincinnati not long since and so was Mr. Jones and they say that Martin will go ahead in Hamilton County where Cin. is the County Seat."

By Abstracter: On the same sheet of paper is the following:
"Dear Peter: I will tell you a truth that Log Cabin Hard Cider and those fandangoes are turning men for the _____ and it is high time to quit that man of electioneering or Harrison will be beat all hollow. S. Ferebee."

COPY LETTER FROM NANCY WILSON TO HER BROTHER, Thomas Ferebee and Nancy, dated November 15th, 1841, State of Tennessee, Coffee County.

Dear Brother:

Yours of the 15th of March come to hand. I was truly glad to hear from you and relatives, etc. etc. I had wrote you respecting my inexpressible troubles. A change has since taken place and my mind is not so much embarrassed as heretofore though the circumstances are very sore to my natural feelings.

Abraham is dead and his wife, without issue, is living with her mother fifty miles from me. My boys are now managing my business and as well as could be expected. We have a good crop of corn this year. Jane and her two children live with me and are doing pretty well. She is healthier than formerly. I enjoy my health at present very well.

Brother I wish you to write to me frequently, to which I shall answer as often. My dear Brother I shall endeavor to put on fortitude and bear with my troubles as well as possible.

So farewell,

(sd) Nancy Wilson

There were 221 names in the list. It will be observed that adding these two numbers together will yield 221.)

80 In N.C. Colonial history the name is spelled Ferrebee, Ferrebee Ferreeby, Ferreebie, Ferree, Ferreeby, Ferreebie and Ferree, all referring to the same family. In the records of one Session of the N.C. legislature the name is spelled three different ways for the one Ferrebee Member.

Two coats of arms are given the Ferreby family in Burdett's General Armory.

The Historical

From my search of records it is my opinion that our ancestors were English and came from Kent or some nearby County. One Richard ~~Ferrey~~ Ferrebee was Baron of Wickener
in the time of Richard II, and also secretary to the Duke of Gloucester. Fuller's Worthies of England mentions several of the name which is generally spelled Ferry or Ferrey, as Sir Thomas Ferrey who added "of Palestine" to his name.
Another, Sheriff of Sussex, spelling it with one "r", about the time of Elizabeth Froude in his history, makes Henry III speak of "yon good esquire, Thomas Ferrey".
Also in the list of jurors who brought in the bill of indictment against Anne Boleyn, as given by Froude, occur
the names Thomas Ferrey, gentleman.

The family first appeared in the vicinity of Hampton Roads, Va.
where a number of Colonists landed from Captain John Newport's ship.
John Ferrey or Farrey, was the earliest of the name recorded as coming to America. The date was

Ferrebee W:therington

COPY LETTER FROM SAMUEL FEREEBE TO Mr. Thomas Ferebee, Farmington
Post Office, Davie County, North Carolina, dated Alexandria, Ind.,
May 10th, 1839. 25 cents postage stamp on same.

State of Indiana, Madison County
May the 5th 1839.

Dear Father:

I now take the opportunity of addressing a few lines to you to inform you that I am well and am in hopes that these few lines may find you all enjoying the same like blessings under the kind hand of our creator and preserver.

I will also inform you that I make my home at Uncle James Brunt's and that they are all well at this time and that all the friends and relations generally speaking are well at this time.

I am working on the Canal at 20 dollars per month and think that I would as soon work on the canal as on a farm for the work is steady and not very hard.

I will also inform you that I have entered me 80 acres of first rate land. I borrowed part of the money from Uncle and Dudley Doyle but if I have my health and no bad luck I will soon be able to pay them back for it is cash at the end of the month on the canal lines and I think it is likely that it will be one dollar per day now in a short time and it counts up right fast. I will also inform you that Dudley Doyle and Sally Eaton was married on the 18th day of April last. Dudley has entered him 160 acres of land and is going to move on it as soon as he can build him a shanty as we call them. James Eaton has got him a 40 acre lot of land. He borrowed his money from Dudley also. James gets his $20.00 per month also on the canal and works the same man I do.

I will also inform you that Wm. Austin and Faca Chaplin is married and living in the town of N Leaandna. (sic)

Send my clothes the first chance if you please for Jenes costs money here. I bought six yards that cost upward of ten dollars. Write to me when you can handy do so as I love to hear from you all. So no more at present but I remain your loving son until death.

(Sd) Samuel Ferebee

P. S. When you read this hand it over. (On the same sheet is the following letter: "Dear Mother, Brothers and Sisters: I take this opportunity of writing these few lines to you all to inform you that I am well at this time and am in hopes that these lines will find you all in good health. I will also inform you that I received your letter bearing date March the 31st 1839 on the 28th day of April which gave me much satisfaction to hear you were all well and doing well. Uncle Lemuel Kenyon and his family is all well and Uncle Lemuel is likely to make enough this season with his horse to pay for him, that is the whole amount of what he gave for him.

I expect to tend 13 acres in corn, which is good for 50 bushel to the acre and I allow to beat any of you making corn to the quantity of the ground that is tended.

I would like to see that boy that you write something about if it was convenient and judge of his beauty myself.

I want you to write to me when you can make it convenient. So no more at present but remaining

Yours & C

COPY LETTER from S. W. Furches to Brother, dated Dec. 8, 1861.

Dear Brother:

"Camp Ruffin, Smithfield, Virginia
Dec. 8, 1861.

I received your letter of Dec. 1st which I read with pleasure. I was glad to hear that all was well. I am getting on pretty well at this time. The health of this regiment at this time is good. This regiment is said to be the healthiest regiment in the Southern Confederacy. The Major of this regiment said that the Davie Grangers is the best and stoutest Company in the Regiment, also the best drilled in the regiment. We have but little drilling to do these times. The weather is pretty cool which makes it very pleasant to sit by the fireside and roast and toast sweet potatoes. We get plenty to eat, such as it is, just about like it was when you was here. The boys at Manassas say that they have eat so much bull, that a cow can't look them in the face without bellowing.

A dispatch from Manassas said that both parties has agreed to not fight no more until Spring. I think if we don't fight until then, they will not fight any more at all. A young Captain captured at the late battle at Hellmont, said that the peace party is growing fast at the North. He also said if there is no prospect by the first of next month that the peace party will give such an overwhelming vote that Congress will be forced to make peace. Their Congress sets the first of next month- something will be done then I think. I have not thought that this war will last long, if the papers tell the truth about affairs in the North. A battle took place a few days ago between the Patrick Henry and four large ships of war and three gun boats at Newport Nuse on the James River in sight of our camp. One of the big balls passed through the Pilot House of the Patrick Henry 2 men slightly wounded by the splinters; the Patrick Henry firing 14 bombs and 28 solid shot at the yankees then they returned up the river to her stand by at Mulberry Island. The yankees got one of their ships badly injured in the engagement.

I have nothing of much interest to write to you this time. You must excuse all imperfections. I will bring this scribbling to a close by saying it is written by a friend. No more at this time. Write soon.

(Sd) S. W. Furches."

GATOR, GATER, GAETHER and GAITHER.
1619

John Gaither came to Virginia 1619, in the George and was living in James City in 1623 (Hotten 173) but by January 1624-25 he was domiciled at Mulberry Island under Capt. William Pierce. The date of his return to England is unknown but my mid-summer 1635 he again sailed for the colony and on his second trip was accompanied by (2) wife and son, the latter born of a foreign marriage before John Gaither's before his first trip to Virginia. On the list of those who took the oath of Allegiance and Supremacie 24th July 1635 before sailing on the Assurance from Graves End to Virginia John Gaither, age thirty-six, and Joan Gather age twenty-three and John Gather, age fifteen. The following year a patent was issued to him for land in the area which in 1637 became Lower County of New Norfolk. (D) CP 49 Elizabeth City County, originally embraced lands on both sides of Hampton Roads. Page 178. John Gather 300 aacs. Elizabeth City County, 21 Sept. 1636. Being a Neck of Land on the E. Branch of the Elizabeth River---Ely. upon Cr. called (dun out of the moier) 50 aacs. for his own per. adv. and 250 aacs. for trans of his wife Joane Gater and four pers. Two years later he added 500 acres to his tract (Ibid 93) Lower County of New Norfolk created in 1637 from New Norfolk County formed 1636 from the portion of Elizabeth City County that lay on the South side of the present Hampton Roads; for location of land adjacent to Thomas Willoughby and Thomas Lambeth (See Ibid 84) John Gather 800 aacs. Lower Co. of New Norfolk, 26 July 1638. In the E. Br. of Elizabeth River upon a Cr. called "a small dum out of the Mire. Ely. and Sly. beyond Oyster Shell Point. Due for trans. of 18 pers. John Gather, Jane Gather, John Gaither was appointed 29 May 1638, one of the tobo. reviewers for Lower Norfolk from "Daniel Taners Creeke to Eastern Branche," and on 25 May 1640 at a Court held at William Shipps he was one of a group of three men appointed to collect a quota of thirty-six pounds for the relief of the inhabitants of Daniel Tanners Creek after the Indian Massacre. (E. W. (2) IV 25 N 1, 84 among those named with him Thomas Mears, who later migrated to Maryland) At the same time (it was passed that the inhabitants of this Parish at Sewell's Pointe were to provide themselves with a clergyman and to pay him a hundred pounds yearly and John Gatear" was among those made responsible for thirty-six pounds sterling "for the inhabitants from Daniel Tanners Creeke over all the Eastward and Southward Branches." (N 1 84) Seemingly, John Gather ~~xxd~~ was still living in Lower Norfolk County 1666 for a patent that year issued to William Porteen lay (along marked trees separating this from the land of Jno. Gater (C.P.553) Issue: by (1) 2 John.

2 - John² Gaither (1620-1652) (John¹) went from Virginia with the Puritans (or Dissenters) to the Province of Maryland 1649 or 1650, and settled first at Province Towne on the North Shore of Severn River opposite the present city of Annapolis. His name as John Gater with that of his wife Mary appears on the list of Maryland settlers. (List of early American settlers, Land Office, Annapolis, Md.) He died intestate in Anne Arundel County and at the time had not applied for land rites due all persons coming into the Province to live. Letters of Administrations were issued to Mary Gater, Relict of John Gater, late of Anne Arundel County, Deceased at a court held at St. Mary's City 20 Nov. 1652 (Md. Arch. X 105) Issue 3 John³ 3 John³ Gaither (Abt. 1651 Nov 1707) (John², John¹) probably was born in Maryland for he did not apply for land upon obtaining his majority. In 1674 he was bequeathed personal property by Thomas Mears of

Ferebee - Witherington

South River, Maryland, a Quaker who had been a neighbor of John Gaither in Lower Norfolk County and who, presumably had come to Maryland with John Gaither² about 1650. See Will of Thomas Mears 9 Sept, 1674 (Wills Liber 11 fol. 3. Hall of Records, Annapolis, Md.) (3) John³ Gaither took an active part in the public life of Anne A. County; serving on juries, April 1679, and private in Naticoke Indian War in 1678 for which service he received 5 pounds of tobacco (Md. Archives L 1 267, Vol. 7, fol. 96) In 1681 he was paid 585 pounds of tobacco for public services and in 1696 he signed a document declaring himself to be a military officer under the Lord Proprietary in Anne A. County, Md. (Ibid 248 XX fol. 541) He died in Nov. 1702 and was buried on the 12th day of the month (Register All Hallows Parish, South River, Anne A. County, Md. and (Md. Hist. Soc. Blts. Md.) He left no will and Letters of Administration were requested and granted by the Court to his widow Ruth (P Inventories and Accounts (Hall of Records, Annapolis, Md.) who married (2) 13 January 1703 or 1704 Francis Hardesty (q Ruth Gaither (2) Reg.
